EXECUTIVE BOARD REPORT.

We the Executive Board of the Grand Prairie Baptist Association beg leave to report as follows:

Our first Meeting since the last Association was with the Church at DeVall's Bluff, Minutes of which we never received; the other meetings were with the Stuttgart Church. None of these meetings were largely attended. At the July meeting we found we were about $100 behind with our Missionary, and motion made and carried, that we borrow money from individual members and pay him, and $85.00 was borrowed to be paid back when this Association meets.

At each of our meetings the Missionary and Treasurer made their reports which were received and adopted. At our present meeting we find we only owe our Missionary $8.82, as shown by his report, to be read in connection with this report, which shows the Lord has blessed our efforts greater this year than ever before by the addition of 200 souls to our churches. We recommend we employ a Missionary next year for all his time.

Respectfully,

R. F. ROUTH, Moderator.

H. B. DUDLEY, Clerk.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

A few years ago, education did not mean so much in the business world as it does to day. Conditions have changed and education is a necessity; but to think of an education from a commercial stand point only, is selfish. God has given us special gifts and talents, and we must develop them or God is not pleased. Education properly acquired broadens the view, strengthens the character, increases the enjoyment of life and better fits men and women for the service of God and their duty toward their fellow beings. We have two excellent Colleges in our state—Ouachita, at Arkadelphia, for young men and young women, and Central, at Conway, for young women only. We urge our people to send their sons and daughters to these Institutions for a College education.

We have read the Constitution looking to the establishment of the Baptist Collegiate Institute at Brinkley, Ark., in co-operation with our Sister Associations, Mt. Vernon and White River Valley, and we most heartily recommend its adoption by this Association.

J. H. COLEMAN, Chan.

J. H. ROWNSAVILLE,

F. G. SHELTON.

In connection with this report, the Constitution was read by Rev. J. G. Harris, and adopted as part of this report:

I. We, the Baptist and others, acknowledging, contributing to and fostering the same, propose that said school shall be established and incorporated in the town of Brinkley, Monroe county, Arkansas, to be known and denominated the Baptist Collegiate Institute.

II. That the same shall be controlled and supervised by a Board of Trustees, selected by the Associations, as follows: Each Association shall select one Trustee for every three hundred members or fraction thereof, to the number of one hundred.

III. That said Trustees hold office three years, alternately, as designated by their respective Associations.

IV. At all meetings of the Board of Trustees a vote of a majority of the members present shall govern in all questions, provided that not less than three members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

V. The teacher or teachers of said school shall be members of a Missionary Baptist church or churches, the same to be selected by the Board of Trustees.

VI. As its name designates, it shall be the purpose of said school to give our boys and girls a thorough Christian education fitting them for the ordinary duties and responsibilities of life. IX. It is understood that this shall go into effect immediately upon its adoption by one or more Associations and they appoint Trustees.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance wish to state they earnestly request that every Messenger and Minister who are delegates to this Association urge their churches to co-operate with the grand and noble workers of the Temperance cause who are doing their utmost to stem the tide of wickedness and sin that is caused by the use and abuse of intoxicating liquor. How plain is the truth set forth in Holy Writ: Who hath sorrow, who hath woe, him that tarrieth long at the cup. We therefore beg this noble body to go forth in the strength of God Almighty, to bring joy in the place of sorrow and sunshine in the place of sadness by helping to banish drink from our own land and country. May God's richest blessings rest on this, our coming together.

We remain yours in Christ,

CHAS. F. KEAN, Chan.
W. F. KEATON,
L. H. DODSON.

Discussed by Eld. Chas. F. Kean, R. J. Kelley, J. B. Routh, B. F. House and Bro. Davenport.

Adopted.

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSION.

The report on Foreign Mission was then read and adopted.

The Lord said: "Go Ye, therefore, and teach all Nations, Baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world". This commission was given to the Church. As such, it was to a congregation of Baptised believers, united in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel, that Jesus said "Go preach the Gospel, to every creature". It is the church which should do the preaching; it is the church which should do the Baptising. The method of doing this work should be scriptural. It is always better, no matter what the risk, to do exactly what the Bible says. We are safe when we conform to the scriptures

We recommend the churches increase their contributions to Foreign Missions. Let us all pray the Lord of the Harvest that He will send forth laborers into the vineyard.

Respectfully submitted,

W. G. R. HAMPTON.
B. F. HOUSE,
L. E. THOMAS.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The report on Sunday Schools was then read and adopted as follows:

The Sunday School is one of the best agencies for spreading the Gospel and bringing the lost to Christ. It is estimated that from 85 to 90 per cent of those converted come from the Sunday Schools. We are glad that so many of our Churches maintain Sunday schools. It is our conviction that each church should have a Baptist Sunday School all through the year. We therefore urge that a greater effort be made by our pastors and churches to this end, and that they urge the members of the church as well as the children to attend, for the study of God's word and the promotion of his cause. We also recommend that Sunday Schools be established in communities where there are no churches as a means of doing effective mission work.

Respectfully,

SISTER, H. B. DUDLEY,
R. A. HENDERSON,
C. W. FOX.

FINANCE.

The report on Finance was read by R. J. Cobine and adopted as follows:
