G. W. Pettitt,
G. L. Tanner.

2nd. Duties of Churches to Pastors.

We your committee ask leave to report: "As it is necessary that every church be supplied with a pastor or shepherd to look after the welfare of the flock, the Lord has made overseers to administer unto the churches, spiritual things that they may grow thereby. It is the duty of the church to meet their pastor promptly at their stated meetings and also to see that their temporal wants are supplied. For we are taught in the Word that as they administer unto us spiritual things, we should not withhold our carnal things. Rom. 15th chap. 27th verse; First Cor. 9th chap. 11th verse; Gal. 6th chap. 6th verse. For God has ordained that they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel. We advise all churches to look well to this important duty." Respectfully submitted,

D. Bright,
W. H. Reeves,
T. L. Harvey.

3rd. Duties of pastors to churches: "Preach the Word in its purity. Contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints. Encourage young christians in the Holy Life. Encourage both old and young to take up the cross and follow Jesus through evil as well as good report. Visit the membership one and all: Encourage them in every good word and work, and teach them that charity is love. Teach them that missions are in the spirit of the Gospel. See that the ordinances be observed.

Organize Sabbath Schools in every Church. Encourage prayer-meetings. Exhort sinners in the name of our blessed Saviour to look and live, and be faithful in his attendance at all times." Respectfully submitted,

N. L. Huggins,
W. D. Ward,
J. B. Payne.

4th. We, your committee on Destitution, make the following report: "Dear brethren, we are glad to say that, through the efficiency of our missionary board in using the means placed in their hands for the building up of the cause of our blessed Master in the destitute parts, and through the faithful labors of the missionaries employed by said board, God abundantly blessed the means used—that the destitution is not so great as it has been. But dear brethren, let us not cease our energy in the cause of mission work, as there is still a large field for the work in our bounds. We your committee recommend that you strive to keep a missionary in the field, so that all the destitute parts may be made to blossom as the rose, with the blessed truth of the Gospel of the Son of God, for we know the Gospel is the power of God, unto salvation to every one that believeth. We pray God to direct you in this very important work."

G. Welch,
W. W. Carson,
M. A. Robins.

5th. State of Religion. "We rejoice to learn that in various parts of the Association there have been many precious revivals; and the cause of our Redeemer greatly built up, and the people of God edified. While in other parts the cause seems to languish (for this we do not rejoice.) Brethren let us all arise in the power and the spirit of our Master and remove every thing that would hinder our advancement in the holy life."

T. J. Welch.
T. J. Cunningham.
G. W. D. Johnson.

6th. On Temperance. "We, your Committee, submit the following: We are proud to know that our Association is blessed with the temperance cause—we know of no intoxication within our bounds. We pray God to direct our minds to guard against the influence of wicked intoxication."
