MERRY CHRISTMAS

The Birth of Jesus

(Also Matt. 1:18-23)

2 At that time Emperor Augustus sent out an order for all the citizens of the Empire to register themselves for the census. ³When this first census took place, Quirinius was the governor of Syria. ⁴Everyone, then, went to register himself, each to his own town.

⁵Joseph went from the town of Nazareth, in Galilee, to Judea, to the town named Bethlehem, where King David was born. Joseph went there because he was a descendant of David. ⁶He went to register himself with Mary, who was promised in marriage to him. She was pregnant, ⁸and while they were in Bethlehem, the time came for her to have her baby. ⁹She gave birth to her first son, wrapped him in cloths and laid him in a manger—there was no room for them to stay in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

¹There were some shepherds in that part of the country who were spending the night in the fields, taking care of their flocks. ²An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone over them. They were terribly afraid, ³but the angel said to them, "Don't be afraid! I am here with good news for you, which will bring great joy to all the people. ¹¹This very day in David's town your Savior was born—Christ the Lord! ¹²What will prove it to you is this: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

¹³Suddenly a great army of heaven's angels appeared with the angel, singing praises to God,

¹⁴"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and peace on earth to those with whom he is pleased!"

¹⁵When the angels went away from them back into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, that the Lord has told us."

¹⁶So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and saw the baby lying in the manger. ¹⁷When the shepherds saw him they told them what the angel had said about this child. ¹⁸All who heard it were filled with wonder at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹Mary remembered all these things and thought deeply about them. ²⁰The shepherds went back, singing praises to God for all they had heard and seen; it had been just as the angel had told them.
