THE HOME MISSION BOARD HELD IT'S ANNUAL MEETING last week in Atlanta. In the opinion of the brethren who have been members of the Board for some time it was the best meeting in recent years. There was a sane spirit of optimism that prevailed throughout the meeting. Dr. Lawrence and his co-workers presented a complete picture of the work and possibilities of the Board at the first session. Some of us as Board members got a new vision as to the place and importance of the Home Mission task. There was brought to our attention the startling fact, that in the Southland there are twenty-two million people above eleven years of age who never darken the door of anybody's church. That the local churches as a rule were not touching these millions and it was demonstrated these unchurched and unchristian millions furnish the greatest challenge Home Missions has ever faced.

Under the efficient leadership of Dr. J. B. Lawrence, the principle of our indebtedness has been reduced almost $700,000 since 1929. And this in face of the fact that the depression has reduced tremendously the receipts of the board. A satisfactory policy has been worked out with our creditors and under this policy we will in a few years be relieved of this tremendous burden of debt. The budget for missionary operations has been increased so that this year we are putting thirty-two new Home Missionaries in the field. $150,000 was set apart in the budget for the administration and operation of our mission work. This is the largest budget that we have had for some years.

It was the most harmonious and optimistic, and yet at the same time sane and sensible denominational board meeting I have attended in a long while. We seemed to have turned the corner and are on our way to a better day.

BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE SS EUROPA, OFFICIAL SHIP

Arch C. Cree, Secretary
S. B. C. Transportation Committee

The Southern Baptist official party to the Baptist World Alliance led by President M. E. Dodd will sail for Berlin, Germany, on the record-breaking, deluxe, ocean express liner, S. S. EUROPA, on July 21st. This ship affords great advantages to our Baptist people.

First it reduces by four days the ocean voyage and the party, although sailing four days later, reaches Southampton, England, on the same days they would have landed from the BERLIN. This affords the party the opportunity of an interesting and scenic three-day extension trip through England to London and on to Berlin in record time for the liners. The difference in accommodations is worth many times the small difference in the rate. The appointments in Tourist Class are positively palatial. I crossed on the S. S. EUROPA in 1931 and I am planning to return on her this summer, Student Tourist Class. It is good enough for anybody. Write that fine Baptist Deacon in Atlanta, Walter Ward, 68 Broad Street, Atlanta, Georgia, and he will send you all the facts.

Among those already booked to sail in the official party on the EUROPA July 25th are:

President and Mrs. M. E. Dodd of Shreveport, La.

THE GREATEST THING IN THE WORLD

In his analysis of the thirteenth chapter in First Corinthians, Henry Drummond has this to say about Love:

After contrasting Love with these things, Paul, in three verses, very short, gives us an amazing analysis of what this supreme thing is. I ask you to look at it. It is a compound thing, he tells us. It is like light. As you have seen a man of science take a beam of light and pass it through a crystal prism, as you have seen it come out on the other side of the prism broken up into its component colors—red, and blue, and yellow, and violet, and orange, and all the colors of the rainbow—so Paul passes this thing, Love, through the magnificent prism of his inspired intellect, and it comes out on the other side broken up into its elements. And in these few words we have what one might call the Spectrum of Love. Will you observe what its elements are? Will you notice they have common names; that they are virtues which we hear about every day; that they are things which can be practiced by every man in every place in life; and how, by a multitude of small things and ordinary virtues, the supreme thing, the summum bonum, is made up?

The Spectrum of Love has nine ingredients:

- Patience—"Love suffereth long."
- Kindness—"And is kind."
- Generosity—"Love envieth not."
- Humility—"Love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up."
- Courtesy—"Doth not behave itself unseemly."
- Unselfishness—"Seeketh not her own."
- Good Temper—"Is not easily provoked."
- Guilelessness—"Thinketh no evil."
- Sincerity—"Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth."

Patience; kindness; generosity; humility; courtesy; unselfishness; good temper; guilelessness, sincerity—these make up the supreme gift, the stature of the perfect man. You will observe that all are in relation to men, in relation to life, in relation

THE EDITOR OFFERS BARGAIN

Your home will be enriched by regular visits from the Arkansas Baptist, price $1.00 per year. The Editor of the paper has authorized us to say that during July and August he will give a free subscription to any W. M. U. member who sends in $4.00 for four new subscriptions. So persuade four of your Baptist friends who are not taking the Arkansas Baptist to subscribe for it, and your own paper will come for one year free. Yours may be a renewal, but the others must be new. Likewise if you secure eight new subscriptions you may get yours and one other, to whom you may designate it, free. Secondly the change is a great advantage to our pastors and churches, since it permits the pastors to be in their pulpits another Sunday before leaving for the Alliance. It also affords the busy businessman four much needed days for his affairs.

Thirdly, it gives the official party the pleasure of traveling on the grandest ship on the ocean. Talk about "floating palaces," the EUROPA is the acme of ship construction, convenience, and comfort—the last word in "floating palaces" The Student Tourist Class on this great steamer is superior to the regular cabin class on most ocean

DEATH MESSAGE FROM DR. I. J. VAN NESS

It is with most profound personal as well as official grief that the sudden death of Dr. J. T. McGlothlin is announced. He left the office at the regular hours on Saturday, and died a few hours later. The service he rendered the board was of great value to the board and the cause to me personally. He was everything that was helpful and loving. His death is a loss to the denomination and to a host of friends, a great bereavement.—I. J. Van Ness.

CULLENDALE ENLARGEMENT CAMPAIGN

Last Sunday we opened our new church building. Dr. Bridges brought us a great message on "The Origin and Mission of the Church." The enlargement campaign which followed was a decided success. The census revealed more than 500 prospects for our Sunday School. A class for the General officers and teachers of the higher departments was taught by the pastor Joe Stiles. Mr. Flake's book "Building a Standard Sunday School," was used. Classes for the elementary departments were taught by the following ladies from First Church Camden: Juniors, Mrs. Howlett Pope; Primaries, Mrs. Eula McDowell, and Beginners and Cradle Roll by Mrs. Ludie Crumley. The corp of workers in the Sunday School was doubled and our efficient Superintendent Mr. Autrey Newman is expecting a large increase in the enrollment and attendance.

Joe Stiles, Pastor.

CHARLES FINCH reports a revival at Magazine which resulted in 33 professions of faith, 20 additions for baptism and 2 by letter. E. L. Finch, brother of Charles, led the singing and did personal work. This is the third meeting in which Pastor Finch has done the preaching during his pastorate of two and a half years at Magazine. Brother Finch was in Ozark last week in a Training School with Pastor Elliff, teaching the Sunday School and B.Y.P.U. Normal Manual, with 65 in class.

"Folks seldom improve when they have no model but themselves to copy after."

KARL McCLENDON of Springdale is assisting The First Baptist Church, Fayetteville in a Daily Vacation Bible School which had an average attendance of 67 the first week.

FAYETTEVILLE BAPTISTS will be host to the Northwest Arkansas District B.Y.P.U. Convention June 19th. There will be three sessions, beginning at 9:30 in the morning and closing with the convention sermon by Dr. B. V. Ferguson of Fort Smith, at night. A number of outstanding speakers in from that section will appear on the program.

J. B. MAXWELL, pastor at Greenwood, reports two good services last Sunday with 2 additions by letter and one for baptism and one profession.

AUGUSTA BAPTISTS have had 28 additions in their revival up to this date. Brother Randall says, "This man Sparkman is one of the very best preachers in Arkansas and a capital fellow to be with. He has one of the best churches and they will make great progress under his leadership. If the brethren want to do something that will be one of the greatest things they could do for their young people, let them have Brother Sparkman come there for one night, get a big crowd of young people there, have him speak on "The House of Sin." It is one of the most unique, dramatic, and inspiring messages I have ever heard in my life." Randall still has an open date, July 8.

CHARLESTON BAPTISTS. Our pastor, Brother J. W. Brewster resigned as pastor of our church Sunday morning, June 10, to take effect September 1. We have had nearly 100 additions to our church during his pastorate. I understand Brother Brewster is planning on doing evangelistic work. Signed by Mayme Roberston, church clerk.

PADDLE YOUR OWN CANOE? Of course you do. And you would no more expect your friends to pay your grocery bill than to pay your part of the church expenses. Pay your church first.

R. C. OTEY, pastor at Remount, reports good attendance at all services Sunday. A. B. Y. P. U. Training School recently with 25 in attendance. A revival is being planned for the near future.

LEVY BAPTISTS had five conversions during the day Sunday.

M. E. PATTERSON is entering EVANGELISTIC WORK in Arkansas. The Mt. Zion Baptist Church near Arkadelphia highly recommends Brother Patterson. He fights sin and preaches the gospel in the old time way. If you are looking for a man who loves God and preaches the truth in love, you will do well to get Brother Patterson.

J. H. REYNOLDS filled the pulpit at Baptist Tabernacle Sunday. The pastor, Homer B. Reynolds, is in a meeting at Booneville in a revival. The father filled the son's pulpit and reports 3 additions by letter.

DR. ARDEN BLAYLOCK, First Baptist Little Rock, reports 4 additions and 3 baptized Sunday. Brother O. G. Davis was liberated to preach. This is the fifth of our young men to be called to preach during the last 18 months.

LOYAL PRIOR, Woodlawn. The church is closing a two weeks Daily Vacation Bible School with commencement exercises Monday night. There was one addition by letter during the week.

FRANCIS J. McCONNELL SAYS: It is a function of the church in society to hold up the ideal without compromise.

DR. I. J. VAN NESS, who has been connected with the Sunday Board 34 years and who is now in his 75th year tendered his resignation to the Board, in it's recent session, effective one year hence. Dr. Van Ness has rendered valuable service to the Sunday School Board during his long years of service.

DR. ROBERT E. CRUMP becomee president of The Jonesboro Baptist College. Dr. Crump was formerly Dean of Oklahoma Baptist University.

Georgetown College recently conferred the degree of Doctor of Laws on President Pat M. Neff of Baylor.

FRANK TRIPP recently received the Honory degree of Doctor of Divinity from Mercer University in Macon, Georgia.

INDIANA BAPTISTS have decided to issue their denominational paper once every two weeks instead of weekly and decreased the price from $1.50 per year to $1.00. THE ARKANSAS BAPTIST is published each week at $1.00 per year. We hope soon to get back to 16 pages for keeps. For two months we are offering 5 subscriptions for $4.00. The 4.00 must come at the same time and 4 of the subscribers must be new.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity on W. W. Barnes, teacher of history in The Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth.

R. C. Buckner, son of Dr. Hal F. Buckner of the Buckner Orphans' Home and grand son of the late Dr. R. C. Buckner, become a Superintendent of the Louisiana Baptist Children's Home to succeed the sainted L. M. Cole, who died recently.

DR. CHAS. D. JOHNSON reports 813' more students in Baptist Senior Colleges in the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention than last year.

IT IS WITH DEEP REGRET that we announce the death of Dr. J. T. McGlothlin, who was business manager of The Baptist Sunday School Board. He was rendering great service to our people in that capacity.

J. B. HYDE, HEBER SPRINGS. We are in the midst of a D.V.B.S. that began June 11 with the first weeks average attendance of more than 130. We are to have a standard school and it will run through the full 4 weeks. Our evangelistic meetings will begin July 8 with Dr. R. M. Inlow doing the preaching and Mr. and Mrs. John Imrie to lead the singing. Dewy Stark, one of our former young men preached for us Sunday morning.

L. D. EPPINETTE, ASHDOWN. We ordained two new deacons Sunday morning, namely, Brethren F. T. Caldwell and J. P. Keith. There was one addition Sunday night. We had 55 in prayer meeting last Wednesday night which is about our average. The pastor is to conduct several revivals in nearby communities this summer.

Pastor O. C. Harvey is in Chicago taking a course in the Moody Bible Institute, but we are having good men to supply while he is away. Brother E. W. Milner gave us two excellent sermons the first Sunday.

as did Rev. Fred Ward the second, while on last Sunday Mr. Patishall of the Baptist Book Store in Little Rock, while not a preacher, brought us two mighty good sermons. We are anticipating a happy time with young Brother Maxfield Garrott, who is soon to go into missionary work in Japan, on the Fourth Sunday.

SPECIAL RELIEF AND ANNUITY BOARD LITERATURE

The Relief and Annuity Board has issued two excellent pieces of literature which are free for the asking to those who purpose to use them.

First, a playlet entitled "The Lord Will Provide," by Mrs. B. W. Vining, of Waco Texas—this is a one act play in three parts. It was rendered by the Department of Dramatic Art at Baylor University before a worthy audience in Waco Hall and witnessed by the Secretary of this Board. Later is was rendered in the First Baptist Church of Waco much to the delight and profit of the people. This playlet is offered to W. M. U.'s particularly and may be used by any other group in the church. Eight to ten copies are sufficient for the purpose of any group and these will be sent on application from responsible leaders.

Second a dialogue entitled "Light on a Great Service" for the use of Sunday Schools, B. Y. P. U.'s and W. M. U.'s—this dialogue may be rendered in twelve or fifteen minutes and wherever rendered will prove very informing and inspirational on the work of the Relief and Annuity Board. This dialogue is free for the asking and we trust it will be asked for.

HOT SPRINGS CHURCH. Our work continues to go forward notwithstanding the hot weather. We have had additions to the church each Sunday for the last eleven Sundays in succession. You can count on us for a check each month for denominational causes.

ROSS EDWARDS has just closed a revival in Third Baptist, Malvern. Brother Edwards did the preaching and J. R. Hale led the singing. There were 11 additions by baptism and one by letter. The church plans soon to enlarge the building.

ROBERT E. NAYLOR, Nashville, began a Daily Vacation Bible school last Monday with an attendance above 160.

BROTHER T. M. MCGEE of Kennett writes: Pastor C. F. Moffitt had a fine service Sunday, June 17 with over 100 in Sunday school. He preached on "The Fatherhood of God" to a house full of folks. Three additions by letter.

ROGER BUTLER WRITES: Joe Stiles recently assisted us in a B.Y.

P.U. Training school which had an average attendance of 66 with 53 taking examinations. The good women served supper each evening. Brother Stiles is a true yoke fellow and his help will long be remembered by our young people.

GREENWOOD BAPTIST are well pleased with their pastor J. B. Maxwell. There were 6 baptisms last Sunday.

LEE NICHOLS, Booneville: Yesterday was a great day here in the Lord's work. There were 13 additions to the church. The first week of our meeting closed with 51 additions, 39 being for baptism. Homer B. Reynolds is a hard worker and a good preacher.

L. L. JORDAN, BISCO CHURCH, Our revival begins the third Sunday in July with Brother W. R. Vestal of Carlisle doing the preaching. Two of our ladies have a God's acre planted in cotton and it is said to be the best cotton in this community. Pastor Jordan always makes good reports of his work.

LLOYD A. SPARKMAN, AUGUSTA. Our revival closed last night with 32 additions, 29 being for baptism and others to come later. The church is in fine spirit and such a cooperation is rarely seen any where. Brother C. L. Randall was with us through Friday night and I feel safe in saying he did the best work with our music and the young people that has ever been done in this church. The entire community feel indebted to him for the Bible work among the children. He will tie the young people and children on to the church wherever he goes. The people were exceedingly kind and loyal in their support of the pastor's efforts. We are happy in the service here and covet your prayers in the future.

DR. TRUETT IN TEXARKANA

M. T. Andrews

By invitation of the First Baptist Church, Dr. M. T. Andrews pastor, and the Beech Street Baptist Church, Dr. O. J. Wade pastor, Dr. Geo. W. Truett spent ten days in Texarkana in a revival meeting. The meetings were held in the Texas High School auditorium, the largest in the city. In addition loud speaking equipment was installed and hundreds who could not get inside the building heard the great preacher from a spacious lawn on the outside. No preacher who has ever been to Texarkana drew such crowds.

People came in large groups from cities and towns within a radius of 100 miles from Texarkanas. Often there were as many as twenty-five pastors from adjoining towns seated on the platform. Evangelistic singer Joe Trusse'l led the song services, and there are none better. He is an artist of rare ability. Highland Park, W. R. Covington pastor, Rose Hill, David M. Phillips pastor and College Hill church, Rev. Burnside pastor, all cooperated enthusiastically.

Dr. Truett never preached more effectively. He is, in the language of Dr. John E. White, still the "plainmountain-hearted, love-torn George Truett, the man who woos cowboys in Texas to their knees, and wins American cities." The impact of his blessed ministry will rest on our city for generations to come. There were hundreds of rededications of life, and large numbers professed faith in Christ and are attaching themselves to our churches. The weather at times was excessively warm, but it never diminished the crowds.

FORK UNION COMMENCEMENT

Dr. J. J. Wicker, President of Fork Union Military Academy, Fork Union, Virginia, reports the best session with the largest attendance in the history of the Academy. The graduating class numbered nearly fifty, coming from twenty-five different states and some from foreign countries. Last session there were forty applicants above the normal capacity of this fine school and already the enrollment is three times as large as the corresponding period a year ago. New quarters are being erected so that many more students can be accommodated next session. Dr. Wicker is determined to make Fork Union Military Academy one of the most outstanding Christian Schools in the country. Rat rules, dancing and other hindrances to the highest Christian standards were banished three years ago, and in the four depressing years this fine Academy, owned by the Baptists of Virginia, has more than doubled its attendance.

Dr. Wicker will be glad to send a catalogue to any parents who are interested.

CHRIST'S MEMORIAL

M. E. DODD — $1.25

In the treatment of a cherished theme, the great preacher gracefully combines fine intelligence, genuine spirituality, and practical helpfulness. Here are some meditations on the meaning, the significance, the observance of the Lord's Supper. They cannot be read sympathetically without a clearer conception and a deeper appreciation of Christ's Memorial.

BIBLICAL BACKGROUNDS

J. MCKEE ADAMS — $3.75

This title accurately describes Dr. J. McKee Adams' scholarly researches in Biblical lands. The book is authoritative in every sense, and is illustrated with scores of pictures taken by the author, and further illuminated by maps drawn especially for this volume. This study will displace all other works in its field, and will prove indispensable to the serious Bible student.

THE PLACE

Ferncliff is a beautiful little resort about seventeen miles west of Little Rock. Cottages are arranged around a beautiful lake, hundreds of gallons of pure mountain water pour over the dam all the time. Each cottage is equipped with running water and shower baths, beds, etc.

HOW TO REACH FERNCLIFF. Everyone is expected to get to the grounds themselves. However, those who come by train or bus who desire free transportation out from Little Rock may go to Second Baptist Church, Eighth and Scott Streets, by 4:00 on the opening day of camp and someone will take you out. This will be free if you notify Miss Hutchison that you expect this transportation. Otherwise the charge will be $1 each way for this transportation. Those coming by car will drive out the Twelfth Street Pike, following pavement until it ends, continue straight ahead for about three miles to Ferndale, a small store in the fork of the roads, take the left-hand road for about one-half mile, and there is camp.

EXPENSES. A registration fee of $1.25 for Y. W. A.'s, and $2.00 for G. A. and R. A. Camps is to be sent in to Miss Margaret Hutchison 407 Federal Bank and Trust Bldg., Little Rock, ahead of time. This covers all expenses except eating. That will be paid for as each meal is eaten. Should anyone be providentially hindered from attending camp, the registration fee will be refunded. Register soon.

THE CAFETERIA. This is a new feature to camp. Meals will be served cafeteria style. Everyone chooses what he wishes to eat and pays for it then. A safe average per meal is 25 cents. Allow

THE PLAN

A registration fee will be paid in advance to W. M. U. Headquarters (if providence hinders one from coming this fee will be refunded) and the meals are paid for as eaten. Meals will be served cafeteria style. One can make his meals little or much. A safe allowance is 25 cents per meal.

at least that much or more for eating. We suggest G. A.'s and R. A.'s allow themselves $4.50 or $5.00 for meals. They may come out for much less, however. The savings is their own. Y. W. A.'s had better allow themselves $1.75 for meals. They, too may come out for much less. The Y. P. Secretary will help the younger campers to choose wisely and economically wholesome, well-balanced meals.

RECREATION. There is a splendid lake in which to swim. Life guards will be on hand during every swim period. No one will be allowed in the lake except under supervision. Two-splendid, well-conditioned tennis courts, horseshoe pitching, croquet, treasure hunts boxing, stunts hiking, and games of all sorts furnish the time with wholesome fun.

CAMP NURSES. There will be a Camp Nurse at both the Y. W. A. and G. A. Camp. They are from the Baptist State Hospital.

WHAT TO BRING. Two sheets, towels, soap, own toilet articles, thin blanket, pillow and case if desired, camping clothes and shoes, bathing suit, your own recreational equipment such as tennis rackets, baseball gloves, balls, kodak, BIBLE and PENCIL. Parents may write you at Ferndale, Arkansas, care Baptist Camp. Mail takes a day longer to get there than to Little Rock, so allow this extra time.

Christ Our Authority, By J. E. Lambdin, Baptist Sunday School Board, Price 50c.

This book is the proceedings and addresses of the Third Southwide B.Y.P.U. Conference, held at Nashville, Tennessee, December 27-29, 1933. The report of the Conferences alone would solve almost any problem that would arise in the B.Y.P.U. Then those inspirational addresses. There is a mine of inspirational material here for preachers and other religious speakers and workers. Surely those who were fortunate enough to attend this Conference returned to their respective churches and Unions better Christians and more loyal members. And those who did not attend would do well to secure a copy of this book and read it.—M.F.L.

Southern Baptist Missions, Edited by J. E. Lambdin, Baptist Sunday School Board, Price 20c.

This book is composed of the reports of the Foreign Mission Board, and the Home Mission Board, which were presented to the Southern Baptist Convention in meeting at Fort Worth. These reports have been divided into lessons suitable for mission study in various mission study courses. They bring every phase of Missions right down to the present. Every Southern Baptist Field is mentioned, with a report of the work and the workers of the various fields. It is a source book of information and inspiration to every one interested in this vital subject.—M.F.L.

Resurrection and Ascension Glories, By Warren L. Steeves, W. B. Howell and Co., Price 15c.

This little booklet portrays very vividly the scenes of Gethsemane, Calvary, the Resurrection and the Ascension. It is true to the New Testament story. The booklet is bound in cloth and would make a suitable award to classes, or a gift at Christmas or Easter or birthday, etc.—M. F. L.

ON TO SILOAM

In just about ten days, on July 2nd, to be exact, the twenty-eighth annual ARKANSAS BAPTIST ASSEMBLY will meet at Siloam Springs. Do you plan to be one of the several hundred present? If not, you are about to miss a most delightful, inspiring and practical vacation. Reservations are coming in and it appears that we will have our largest crowd in many years. We have a very limited number of cottages and we urge again that you make your reservation at once before all cottages are taken.

Next week Editor Cossey is giving us a special Siloam issue of THE ARKANSAS BAPTIST. In this issue the complete program and information in detail will appear. Folders and posters giving this information have been sent to all churches. but we have noticed that some to whom we sent failed to display them in the church. If yours is not displayed notify us and we will send you our attractive folders which answer the many questions you are asking about the Assembly.

We hope our preachers will take advantage of the Preachers' School in connection. Dr. W. E. Denham, of St. Louis; Dr. J. W. Storer, of Tulsa; Dr. L. M. Sipes, of Little Rock; Rev. Clyde Hickerson, of Hot Springs; and Dr. B. L. Bridges will make up the faculty for this school. And, in addition, you get the main hours of the assembly program. Brother Pastor come with a good delegation from your church. We are trying to build a great summer encampment for our Baptist constituency and we need your presence and moral support. Remember, pastors of part time churches may get rates of $7.00, which includes room, board and tuition. Wives of these pastors are entitled to the same rate. Where can you go for nine full days and get the combination program which we offer at such rate? On to Siloam.

Ridgecrest

Ridgecrest does not interfere with Siloam. There are those in Arkansas who can go to both. Some prefer Siloam. Some prefer Ridgecrest. There are enough Baptists in Arkansas to support both of these places. We know of several already that plan to attend Ridgecrest. A large number should attend. For the benefit of our readers we print again the dates of the various programs at Ridgecrest. A continuous summer program from June 14 to August 26 is offered. You simply choose the week you prefer. The two weeks that our readers will be particularly interested in are as follows:

July 22-28 the Southwide Sunday School Conference. Among those who will appear on this program will be: Dr. J. Henry Davis, of the Louisville Seminary; Dr. J. Dean Crain, of South Carolina; Dr. Ellis Fuller, of Georgia; Dr. I. J. VanNess, of Nashville; and the heads of each of the Sunday School Departments of the Sunday School Board.

The following week, July 29-August 3, the Southwide B. Y. P. U. and B. A. U. Leadership Conference will be held. On this program will be: Mr. J. E. Lambdin, our Southwide B. Y. P. U. Secretary; Dr. J. O. Williams; Dr. R. G. Lee; Dr. G. S. Dobbins; Dr. E. P. Alldredge; Dr.

REVIEW

—In the past twelve lessons based on the thirteen last chapters of the first Gospel we have Matthew's record of the last year of the life of our Lord upon earth.

1. Confessing and Following Christ (Lesson 1) involves the deity, the church, the death, and the Lordship of Christ. Jesus was the Son of God The Son of God was the founder of the church. The founder of the church was our atoning Saviour. The atoning Saviour is our living and reigning Lord.

2. The Child and the Kingdom (Lesson 2) presents the little child in the midst of the disciples and the Lord's blessing of the little children. From the child and the disciples we learn that the purity of childhood furnishes the model for the man. The child and the world show that the peril of childhood involves a woe to the foe. The child and the Father implies the divine protection of childhood. The child and the Saviour show that the presentation of childhood invites the benedictions of the Lord.

3. Jesus Teaches Forgiveness (Lesson 3) impressing upon us the principle, the parable, and the program of forgiveness. Constant forgiveness of a brother is the divine principle laid down. Contrasted forgiveness of servants is the divine illustration given. Conditioned forgiveness from the Father is the divine program marked out.

4. Our All for the Kingdom (Lesson 4) emphasizes the power of God and the reward of sacrifice. The peril of riches was exhibited in the rich young man who was shown to be a slave to wealth. The power of God is exhibited in the disciples of Jesus who had left all to follow him.

5. Christ's Standard of Greatness (Lesson 5) is taught during an episode in which we glimpse the sorrowing Saviour, the two ambitious disciples, and the indignant ten. Promotion by salvation is the achieve-

VanNess; and others. Mr. Lambdin says, "There will be conferences for general officers and all departments, stories for working out plans, mountain-tops of inspiration, and unmatched fellowship."

Daily Vacation Bible Schools

A number of churches are holding a D.V.B.S. this summer and have failed to notify our office. Several new ones were reported this week. We are anxious to have a complete list of schools this summer and will thank you to get us this information at your earliest convenience. We are glad to report that a number of small churches are having good schools this week. For instance, Bradley, Ark., reports a good school with 58 enrolled. Mrs. F. M. Cochran is the director.

ment of Christ. Promotion by suffering is the lot of the martyrs. Promotion by service is the path open to all. Serve and be great.

6. Jesus Acclaimed as King (Lesson 6) brings us the record of the triumphal entry into Jerusalem. The disciples prepared for the triumphal entry, The multitude joined in it. The city was startled by it. He came into his own but they received him not. Let us make Christ our king.

7. Christianity and Patriotism (Lesson 7) were emphasized by Jesus in the Temple in his answer to certain captious questions designed to entrap him and discount his teaching. One was the political question of paying tribute to Rome and another was a theological question of differentiating divine commands. The discussion of the poll tax due to Caesar emphasizes the duties of good citizenship. The discussion of the great commandment in the law of Moses magnifies the spirit of good citizenship.

8. The Future of the Kingdom (Lesson 8) was described by Jesus in the Temple, stressing vigilance in the parable of the Virgins. Folly and wisdom in preparation were manifested before the bridegroom started. Folly and wisdom in waiting were shown by the virgins while the bridegroom tarried. Folly and wisdom in reward were evident when the bridegroom came.

9. The Last Judgment (Lesson 9) is pictured by Jesus in concluding his sermon on "The Last Things." There is the gathering of the nations before the throne. There is the approval of the righteous and the sentence upon the wicked. Finally, there is the separation for eternity.

10. Jesus in the Shadow of the Cross (Lesson 10) made his prediction of apostolic stumbling on the way to Gethsemane. The pressure of sorrow weighed heavily upon him as they entered the Garden across the brook Kidron. The prayer of submission was offered in the midnight solitude of the Garden. The perfidy of betrayal was exhibited in Judas who led the armed squad to the gate tion to life, in relation to the known today and the near tomorrow, and not to the unknown eternity. We hear much of love of God: Christ spoke much of love to man. We make a great deal of peace with heaven; Christ made much of peace on earth. Religion is not a strange or added thing, but the inspiration of the secular life, the breathing of an eternal spirit through this temporal world. The supreme thing, in short, is not a thing at all, but the giving of a further finish to the multitudinous words and facts which make up the sum of every common day.—F. E. Calvert, Ft. Smith.

On June 5th registration certificates for the Baptist World Alliance, No. 467, was received in Atlanta, Georgia, indicating that that many people have already registered and the word comes that additional registrations are being received daily from many lands. Write today to Dr. Hight C. Moore, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn., for your Baptist World Alliance credentials.

Remember that the Transportation Committee has secured for you an unusually advantageous hotel rate in New York at the New West-on Hotel Madison Avenue at Fiftieth Street. If you reserve and pay in advance through Mr. Walter Ward, Atlanta, Georgia, the rate is $1.50 per person per night for room and bath. The rate to all others, addressing the hotel direct is $2.00. This rate is a special concession on the part of the Baptist management of the hotel to their Southern Baptist brothers and sisters.

MOTHERS OF MEN

Rev. C. C. Young

General Lew Wallace, long time governor of New Mexico, in his book Ben Her says: "God could not be every where, so he chose to create and cradle mankind in the arms of a mother's love." means that the ministry of a mother's love is superior to that of angels or other divine beings.

Just recently I read a true story of a family in a peculiar situation. A boy of the home had dropped out of sight ten years before (as often happens) and had just returned a disreputable wreck. He went out bright and clean and had returned soiled and blighted with the mess and muck of sin. The father was sullen about the boy's presence in the home; the brothers and sisters were silent in their anger, but the mother had a song of joy in her heart over the return of the lost boy. In fact the home would have been a madhouse and almost a murderhouse, except for the mother's restraining influence in love.

Ships That Go To Sea

About 50,000 ships sail the seven seas and they all go out with hope of reurn. In the old days, about two thousand were lost every year but not so many now, due to wireless and radio. So the mothers of men send their sons out as ships to sea with hope of return but many of them are swallowed up as if by some great monster, though not so many as twenty years ago, due to better means of communication and identification.

The mother of John Quincy Adams sent her son out as a ship to sea. He was the second president of the United States and he himself became the sixth president. Near the end of his long career, he said: "All that I am, my mother made me!" Grover Cleveland' mother sent her son out as a ship to sea. He became high sheriff, district attorney, mayor of Buffalo and twice president of the United States. In the midst of one of his campaigns, he wrote to an older mother: "O how, I wish our mother was alive, for her prayers always gave me strength."

The mother of Abraham Lincoln, though hard pressed by poverty and with little help from her husband, sent her son out as a ship to sea and he returned with a valuable cargo. He lived a short life but it cast the longest shadow in the nineteenth century. While president of the United States, he said: "All that I am or ever hope to be, I owe to my angel mother." This is the origin of the phrase "angel mother," he being the first man who ever used it in that connection, though millions had felt it.

The mother of Benjamin West sent her son out as ship to sea. As a boy artist, he painted a picture and his mother kissed his cheek, saying: "Benjamin, you'll be a greater painter some day," and he fulfilled her mother-love prophecy. Almost the same story is told of James Whistler whose painting of his mother was first sold for six hundred dollars now could not be bought for a million.

Imagine, if you can, the mother of Jesus and the mother of Judas Iscariot meeting face to face sometime after Pentecost, which is entirely possible. The mother of Judas might well have said: "We both sent sons out as ships to sea. Your son went out with hope and returned with a valuable cargo but mine was lost as the victim of his own sins and hands. Besides that, my son betrayed yours. O will you forgive men and love me, for I am lonely and bereft." And Mary could well have said: "There is nothing in YOU to forgive, for you did your best, and certainly I'll love you." Then the curtain goes down on the drama of the ages, with two sobbing women embraced in each other's arms. Their heart sore sympathy is far superior to what an angel could give either one, and general Lew Wallace was right when he said: "God could not be every where, so he chose to create and cradle mankind in the arms of a mother's love."

A NEGRO'S DEFINITION OF A CHURCH

Dr. T. O. Fuller, pastor of the First Negro Baptist Church, Memphis, in his address before the recent Southern Baptist Convention said that his definition of a church was "a body of immersed believers in Christ, called out from the world by the preaching of the Gospel, associated under covenant, and organized to do team work in the redemption of the world."

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Democratic Electors of Pulaski and Perry Counties:

I announce my candidacy for the office of Circuit Judge, First Division, Sixth Judicial Circuit.

To those of you who do not know me, let me say that I have resided in Little Rock for the past 38 years, during the first 14 of which I was in business, and that I have been constantly engaged in the practice of law for the last 24 years, which, I am convinced, amply qualifies me for the position I seek.

I have been a lifelong Democrat and have always taken an active interest in public affairs, but have never before sought an office.

It is my intention to make an energetic personal canvass of the circuit, seeing as many of you as I possibly can before election day. During the campaign I shall try to put before you enough information about myself and my qualifications to enable you to make an intelligent choice between the candidates.

Christ. The spite against the cross was borne by the taunted Christ. The sacrifice on the cross was made by the dying Christ. Thus it was that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures.

12. The Risen Lord and the Great Commission (Lesson 12) brings before us the radiance of resurrection day in Jerusalem and the far look of Commission day in Galilee. The conquering Christ rose from the dead and the commanding Christ gave the Great Commission.

Electric Rates

for RESIDENTIAL and COMMERCIAL SERVICE

again reduced!

The Arkansas Fact-Finding Tribunal has announced the conclusion that rates for residential and commercial electric service in Stuttgart should be reduced 9 per cent. Stuttgart petitioned for a reduction of 20 per cent.

The Tribunal's finding was announced after an investigation requiring several months, and which included survey, inventory, appraisal and study of a large part of our system and our operations. The Tribunal's finding is not warranted by the facts or the record. A rate reduction is not justified at this time. With the possible exception of some farm products, prices on everything are up. A comparison will convince that nothing has come down so much as in cost in past two decades as electric service. In the past, as business increased and unit costs decreased, due to higher efficiency, we made repeated reductions, so that today rates are 59 per cent to 74 per cent below pre-boom prices. With volume and revenues down, and with operating costs and taxes up, certainly a rate reduction is not justified.

But:

Rather than become involved in litigation with any of the communities we serve, and in accord with our policy of doing for all whatever we do for one, we are going to put into effect the reduction for residential and commercial service in all towns on our interconnected system in Central, Southern and Eastern Arkansas, effective with bills for July service, payable in August.

We are doing this for 3 reasons:

1. To demonstrate our willingness to co-operate to the fullest extent possible in whatever is considered best for all concerned, and to avoid controversy at a time when there should be peace and harmony among the people and institutions and communities of the State.
2. To make fair test of the declared statement that people would use more electric service if rates were lower.
3. To do everything we can to promote national recovery by stimulating business and buying in the communities we serve, by inducing merchants and others to make full use of the possibilities of one of the greatest selling forces and builders of morale . . . electric illumination.

These rates will be the lowest ever made in Arkansas by a tax-paying institution. (More than 11 cents of each dollar paid us for service goes for taxes.) At these rates, there should be great increase in the use of electric refrigerators, ranges, and other convenient and economical electric equipment. Electricity at these rates is so cheap that none can afford to deny themselves the convenience, economy and comfort possible through the use of electric fans, refrigerators, ranges, cleaners, mixers, lamps, and the numerous other servants which take drudgery out of housekeeping and put more profits into stores and other commercial establishments.

THREE IMPORTANT MATTERS

We Call the Attention of the Brotherhood to Three Important Matters that Present Themselves this Month and Early in July

I. An Offering For Central College

Next Sunday, June 24, Is The Day

1. Central College has been operated by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention for about 40 years.
2. It has trained hundreds and hundreds of girls and has won many of them to Christ and to the Baptist faith. Last year there were 164 students, with 37 graduating.
3. It is a school where Christ, the Bible and Prayer have major places. There is always a distinct Christian atmosphere in the school.
4. During the last year the school has paid operating expenses, has added improvements worth about $13,000, paid the teachers up to date and owes less than $1,500. An old debt of $47,000 has also been settled in full.

5. The College is a standard junior college for girls,—fully accredited, being a member of the North Central Association.
6. The College has no endowment. In lieu of this the State Convention has authorized it to conduct a campaign during June to supplement its income, and thereby remain a standardized school.

CHURCHES AND INDIVIDUALS, MAKE YOUR OFFERING NEXT SUNDAY. SEND IT TO J. S. ROGERS, PRESIDENT, CONWAY, ARK.

II. The June Round-Up For Missions

This is a crucial month with the Cooperative Missionary Program. We earnestly request the churches to remember the mission causes this month. During the first quarter (January, February and March) we received as much money as the budget called for. But April and May did not yield as much as we needed. Let us catch up in June, the third month of the second quarter, just as we caught up in March, the third month of the first quarter.

Several good churches have not sent in anything recently. Ask your treasurer if he has thought to mail us a check during the last month. Surely, surely ANY church could do something for missions. Our state missionaries have started to work with a vim. But we must support them, and the rest of the work. Let us all "come in" for some kind of a share in the work this month.

Please, Please Mail Us Your Check On July 1 For All Mission Money On Hand

III. Bible Conference and Preachers' School

Beginning, July 2, at Siloam Springs, Arkansas, we begin a ten-day Preachers' School and Bible Conference. This is in connection with the Baptist Assembly. A great program has been arranged. Pastor C. V. Hickerson, of the First Church, Hot Springs, will preside over the school. During the first hour each morning, 8:40 to 9:30, Dr. W. E. Denham, of St. Louis, will conduct a study, the nature of which will be Exegetical and Expository. During the second hour, 9:40 to 10:30, Dr. J. W. Storer, of Tulsa, Okla., will conduct a study in "Preachers' Problems." During the third hour, 10:40 to 11:30 Dr. L. M. Sipes, of Little Rock, will lead in the discussion of "Great Bible Doctrines." The General Secretary will be there to assist in whatever way he can. This program will be informing, inspiring, and powerful. By all means every preacher who possibly can do so ought to avail himself of the opportunity of attending this school. Your board for the entire period will be only $11.00. If you are pastor of a 'part time' church it will be only $7.00. Write to us for particulars about entertainment if there is anything you don't know.
