McCLELLAN DISPLAY—The late senator's office, recreated in McClellan Hall, includes his desk and chair from the Little Rock office, a portrait of his wife and other memorabilia including one of the owls in the collection he started after being tagged with the nickname of "wise old owl."

OFFICIAL PAPERS—Sandi McGuire, special documents librarian for the McClellan collection, is in the midst of inventorying the contents of 2,000 boxes containing government documents, correspondence, plaques and cartoons.

McClellan exhibit spans 50-year career

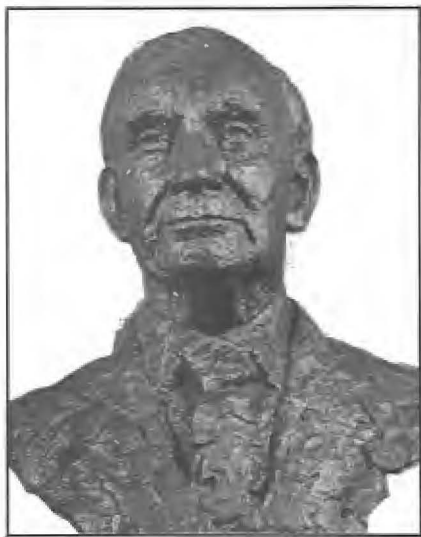

A permanent display of the physical memorabilia from the career of the late Senator John L. McClellan has been set up in the rotunda of the recently erected McClellan Hall.

The exhibit is based of four phases of the senator's career: McClellan the Builder, McClellan the Investigator, McClellan the Legislator and McClellan the Man. Significant plaques, awards and photographs that highlight these four phases are on display.

The first theme, McClellan the Builder, contains plaques and photographs, as well as a number of the instruments used in the groundbreaking for many Arkansas projects in which McClellan was involved. He was instrumental in the development of many water projects in the state, of which the best and most important example is the McClellan-Kerr Arkansas River Navigation System.

A video tape presentation explains McClellan the Investigator. Film clips from many of Senator McClellan's investigative hearings in the area of criminal activities in the labor-management field, organized crime, illegal operations in military service clubs and riots that occurred in the late 1960's highlight this phase of the display.

islation Senator McClellan supported emphasize McClellan the Legislator. In his 35 years as senator, McClellan introduced over 1,000 bills of which 145 were signed into law.

A re-creation of the Senator's office provides the last phase of the display, McClellan the Man. It contains his office desk and chair, his chair from the Senate Chamber, an oil painting of his wife and on eight minute film presentation of the high points of his personal life and career.

Summer Commencement Aug. 11, Bailey Smith to be honored

Forty-five students will receive degrees from Ouachita Baptist University in summer commencement activities Friday, August 11 at 10:30 a.m. in Mitchell Hall Auditorium, according to Registrar Frank Taylor. A total of 28 bachelor degrees and 17 masters degrees will be conferred.

Dr. Ben M. Elrod, president of Georgetown College in Georgetown, Kentucky, will deliver the keynote address at the exercises. Dr. Elrod is the former Senior Vice President and Director of Development at Ouachita Baptist University.

During graduation the Rev. Bailey E. Smith will receive an honorary doctorate of divinity degree. Smith is the pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church in Del City, Oklahoma. The church has the largest membership in Oklahoma and the fourth largest in the Southern Baptist Convention.

He is a native of Dallas, Texas and graduated from Ouachita in 1962 and from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas in 1966.

Elrod becomes president of Georgetown College

Dr. Ben M. Elrod, senior vice president and director of development at Ouachita, assumed his duties August 1 as president of Georgetown College in Georgetown, Kentucky, succeeding Dr. Robert Mills.

Georgetown College was founded in 1829 and is operated by the Kentucky Baptist Convention. Dr. Elrod will become the twenty-first president of the institution, which has an approximate enrollment of 1,000 students.

The Development Office at Ouachita is responsible for long-range planning, fund-raising, student recruitment programs and general supervision of the

On the wall of the second level of the building are enlargements of five of the Senator's favorite political cartoons. The Research Center, where the McClellan papers are housed, is located on the same level. The major items in this collection are letters from McClellan's constituents and his replies, and government documents, such as bound Senate hearings and voting records. Also, there are over 3,000 photographs covering all aspects of his life and career.

The Research Center is available to serious scholars upon approval. The memorabilia display is open to the public.

Bone and Garner promoted, two added to admissions staff

Larry Bone, director of admissions counseling at Ouachita, has been promoted to the position of development officer and director of admissions counseling effective June 15.

A 1967 graduate of Ouachita, Bone assumes new responsibilities in fund-raising while retaining oversight of the admissions counseling program.

Randy Garner, admissions counselor at Ouachita, has assumed the position of associate director of admissions counseling and directs the day-by-day activities of the admissions counseling office and staff. Garner is a 1975 OBU graduate.

David Humble, a 1976 graduate, has become a full-time admissions counselor and David Martin of North

WILLIAMS HONORED—Lt. Col. Billy G. Williams, professor of military science at Ouachita, who retired this summer after 23 years of service, receives the Army's Meritorious Service Award from Dr. Daniel R. Grant, OBU president, as Lt. Col. Ken Hestand, the new PMS, reads the citation. Witnessing the ceremony is Col. Williams' wife, Norma. The award, one of the highest given by the Army to officers during peacetime, was presented to Williams for his "outstanding leadership by developing and initiating a revised curriculum which resulted in increased faculty and student support of the ROTC program."

Lt. Col. Billy Williams retires, PMS at Ouachita since 1973

Lt. Col. Billy G. Williams, Professor of Military Science at Ouachita Baptist University, will end a 23 year career in the United States Army with his retirement this summer, serving as OBU's Professor of Military Science since August 1973. Lt. Col. Kenneth G. Hestand, who reports to Ouachita from the U. S. Army Tropic Test Center in the Panama Canal Zone, where he has served since 1975 is scheduled to assume the duties of P.M.S.

Lt. Col. Williams' career has included a continued association with Ouachita Baptist University. After graduating from Earle High School in 1951, he attended OBU and graduated in 1955 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology and a commission as a second lieutenant in Field Artillery.

In his tenure at Ouachita Baptist University, Dr. Elrod, as head of the Development Office, has brought in an excess of $15 million in gifts and grants from private sources including the Co-operative Program, a unified giving program in Southern Baptist Convention churches.

Homecoming reunions announced

The 3's and the 8's, from 1943 through 1973, are scheduled for class reunions at Homecoming, November 17-18, when Ouachita plays Henderson.

The classes will receive letters outlining their plans, with events centering around a reunion buffet on Friday evening, the Alumni Buffet Saturday noon, with designated tables at each, dessert-coffees for the classes, and block seating in the reunion section at the game.

The Class of 1953, sparked by Jamie Blackmon Dale and Bennye Sims Meredith, is coming up with a "plus." They are inviting all of the members of the Ouachita Choir (and in those days that was a good percentage of the student body) who belonged from 1949-1953, to join them in a big combination reunion. Mr. Fred Becker, their choir director, and his wife, are planning to come from Savannah, Ga. for the event, which will begin for them with dinner at DeGray Lodge Friday evening.

Every reunion class is eager to let friends and students from their college generation be assured that they are welcome to join all or any part of these class get-togethers.

If you fail to receive mail about it, please contact the FSA Office for information and reservations.

Sandford book praised

Juanita Sandford, Assistant Professor of Sociology at Henderson State University, and wife of Dr. Herman Sandford, Professor of English at Ouachita, has authored two books, "I Didn't Get a Lot Done Today," and "Poverty in the Land of Opportunity: A Sociology of the Disadvantaged." She has received good reviews, commending the "Poverty" book, in particular as a valuable thorough-going study of the culture of the disadvantaged in Arkansas, relevant to the general citizen and teachers in other states and areas.

Morris writes play

The 300th anniversary of John Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress" is being celebrated at Ouachita and several area Baptist churches with the production of an original play entitled "Bunyan," initially presented at Verner Theatre August 11-10.

Dr. Gilbert Morris, professor of English at OBU, wrote the play which centers around John Bunyan, a leader of the Puritan revolt in seventeenth century England. He wrote the play using a grant from the Arkansas Foundation for the Humanities during the Summer of 1976.

Morris, who says that he is a novice at drama is pleased with the cast.

Mrs. Baker top musician

The Arkansas Federation of Music Clubs honored Mrs. Charles Baker (Sarah McDowell), a 1938 graduate of Ouachita, as Church Musician of the Year, and David and Hazel Cain Tate and their six children (the parents are 1948 graduates) as the Musical Family of the Year at their annual Awards luncheon in May.

Mrs. Baker, founder and president of the Malvern Musical Arts Club, has been active in church music for more than 45 years, having served as organist for Malvern's First Baptist Church for more than 30 years.

Stapps missionaries

Mr. Robert Stapp, associate professor of Art at Campbellsville College Ky., and a former Ouachita faculty member, and his wife Charlotte, have been serving this summer as missionaries through the College Professor Ministry of the Home Mission Board. They have been assigned to work with Spanish migrant workers in New Jersey in a special pilot project using university related personnel in summer missions work.

Mrs. Linnie May Barnett Davis of Little Rock, wore a corsage on Commencement Day, as a member of the 70th anniversary class. She looked great, kept up with everyone else, and gave us all a lift in spirits.

Misses Annie ('13) and June ('18) Medlock of Arkadelphia joined Miss Frances Crawford, Mrs. Gladys West Page (Honolulu, Hi.), Mrs. Joyce Shackelford Hawkins, of Foreman, Ar., and Mrs. Agnes Cowling Shaver, of Texarkana, Ar., in celebrating the 60th anniversary of their graduation from Ouachita at the FSA Luncheon on May 13.

'20

William H. and Olga Anne Oliver Berry, former missionaries to Brazil, are in Memphis, Tn. He has just added "Uncle Sam, You Must Be Born Again," to the Ouachita authors' shelf in Riley Library. Their four children are graduates of Ouachita, Ed and Bailey, '48; Tom, '49; and Betty Anne Crews, '52. The Ed Berrys attended the Ouachita Get-Together at the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Atlanta, with the happy news that they had both just received medical clearance to return to Brazil.

Their 55th reunion extended from Friday night's Reunion Buffet in the newly remodelled private dining room of Birkett Williams Cafeteria, through a Saturday morning Continental breakfast, campus bus tour, the FSA Luncheon, and an afternoon coffee.

The group included Floyd and Billie Hotwell Goodman of Dallas; Clarence and Estelle Benton Hardin of Arkadelphia; Mrs. Roy Hopper (May Belle Shaver), El Dorado; Mrs. Howard McClendon (Clara Boswell, '24), Waldo, Ar.; Mary McKnight, Bradley, Ar.; Mrs. Middleton Phillips (Rachel Fore), Many, La.; Lloyd Power, Durant, Ok.; Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Scoggins (Mary A. Cannon), Texarkana; Miss Essie Berry, Fort Smith, Ar.; and James H. Dean, Nashville, Ar.

There was a singular touch of sadness to the otherwise heart-warming reunion. Harry Slade and his daughter from Columbus, Ga. were in Arkadelphia Friday afternoon, planning to attend the evening dinner. Mr. Slade was taken ill and rushed back to a relative's in Little Rock. He died of a heart attack that night. "Boots" Nowlin ('32) recalls his being in Nowlin's Furniture Store twice on Friday, in excellent spirits and happy to be remembered.

Mrs. S. Russell Polk (Alma Thrasher), who retired from 38 years of teaching, three in Arkansas and 35 in Texas, where she was chairman of the English Dept., at McAllen High School, has moved to Norman, Ok. The Polks have two married daughters. She helped to organize Calvary Baptist Church in McAllen.

Dr. Bruce Price of Newport News, Va., Mrs. Bob Peterson (Elizabeth Seale) of Eudora, Ar., and Gunter Englund, of DeQueen, Ar. spent several months in preparation, contacting their classmates and friends, in preparation for their 50th reunion. The Peterson's were responsible for a big and beautiful anniversary cake, and among them they helped to assemble material for a biographical booklet giving whereabouts and activities of everyone they could trace.

Their very successful reunion, spanning Friday night and Saturday, included: Mrs. Harold Andrews (Cleddie Fay Cox, f.s.), Texarkana; Mrs. L.E. Gates (Sylvia Webb), Shreveport, La.; Mrs. R.K. Graham (Myrtle Shaver, '27), El Dorado; Harvin E. and Bertha Dobkins Heard, Phoenix, Az., with guests, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pearce and Mrs. Madlyn Rice Eubank; H.B. "Red" and Beulah Lee Reitzammer McManus, Texarkana; Dr. Joe Nichols, Atlanta, Tx., who gave autographed copies of his book, "Please Doctor, Do Something," to all the guests; Mrs. C.W. Pearson (Maurine Pickett), Hooks, Tx. her daughter, and granddaughter; William H. Power, McAlester, Ok., H.W. Reasoner, Little Rock; Col. Ernest A. Sallee, Arkadelphia, Rev. Lloyd Sparkman, Little Rock; and Lawrence E. Thrasher, McAllen, Tx.; and several spouses and guests.

Mrs. Maurine Pickett Pearson of Hooks, Tx., recalled in the biographical material she sent, the first North Central Inspection Ouachita underwent, as she remembers, in the spring of 1927.

"The inside of the old WWI barracks that served as a Chemistry Building had been painted a dazzling white. Apparatus and supplies were shined and arranged to the best advantage." She was awakened by rain on the day of the inspection, and when she dashed to the lab, she found the roof had leaked. She used all available containers to catch the drips, turned the gas heaters on high, and frantically mopped and wiped. She just finished emptying the containers, a variety of drying operations and hiding the mops and rags, when President A.B. Hill, Dr. North, the chemistry professor, and an august committee of inspectors headed straight for the chemistry building. Footnote, Ouachita passed the inspection.

Mrs. Vernon Shambarger of Arkadelphia was largely responsible for the success of the class reunion at Commencement, with much letter writing, a suggestion that a postcard of Old Main be printed, and efforts to provide the class with individual panoramic picture copies (unsuccessful). This was the deep-Depression class that had no yearbook and precious few of the college frills that most students fondly remember.

Those attending included: Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bishop (Laurine Thomas), Nashville, Ar.; Charles and Cordelia Tonry ('35) Condray, of Cheverly, Md.; Guy Fleming ('34), Lansing, Mi.; Col. ('34) and Mrs. Aubrey Halsell (Willene Hinsley), Hot Springs, Ar.; Mrs. Edith Carter Hardage, Little Rock, and Sue Carter Payne; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Herbert, Coker, Al.; Mr. and Mrs. Arlin Jones, Malvern, Ar.; Mrs. Hugh Means (Ruth Shaver), Baton Rouge; Lt. Col. and Mrs. Steed Rountree, Gainesville, Fl.; Dorothy and Maxine ('32) Sevedge, McCaskill, Ar.; Leon Sipes (f.s.), Little Rock; Miss Catherine Condray ('35), Arkadelphia; William Condray ('27), Lubbock, Tx.; Mrs. Leon Marler (Blanche Fleming, '34), Alexandria, La.; Mrs. Philip Guyol (Hazel Sample, '31), Arkadelphia; and Tom Leslie (f.s.), Paris, Ar.

Dr. Harold and Helen Mary West Rutledge are retiring from active teaching at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, but he will continue to assist on a limited basis in the School of Christian Training.

'36

Rev. Harvey and Alma Hope Elledge are remaining in Oklahoma City upon his retirement from 45 years in the pastorate. They have three daughters and two sons.

Dale Ward (f.s.) of Little Rock was given an entire page on the May 18 "Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine" entitled, "Found: an active Christian." It takes at least a page to enumerate his church, civic, denominational, and professional allegiances. "I've tried to give every Christ-centered job the same attention—if not more—than I would if it were the one I'm getting paid to do. I try not to miss a meeting or an appointment—and not to be late." His interests range from Thursday night visitation for Immanuel Baptist Church, to Pulaski County School Board, three different committee assignments with the Southern Baptist Convention, innumerable church, associational, and State Convention responsibilities, as well as the insurance firm with which he is associated.

Mr. Ward, incidentally, has given Ouachita a 1938 jacket, a collector's item that Dr. Grant may appear in at a pep rally.

"The Booneville Democrat" featured an "Unusual Ordination" that took place on September 8, 1935 at the First Baptist Church. It was an "old fashioned" rally day, with dinner on the grounds and an afternoon ordination service. Three young men were set aside from the gospel ministry that day: C.E. Bryant, Jr. (f.s.), Theron Price ('39), and Walter Watts ('45), all of Booneville. Today Dr. C.E. Bryant is Executive Secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, and was editor of the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine for several years; Dr. Price taught at Southern Seminary, and now is head of the department of Theology at Furman University; and Walter Watts, pastor of Coal Hill, Ar., has been an associational missionary, Bible teacher, evangelist, and writer.

'43

Dr. Pat and Jean Webster ('40) Moseley are in Ruston, La. where he is associate dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Louisiana Tech. He has been named Outstanding Faculty Member of the Year by the Tech chapter of Omicron Delta Kappa. He teaches chemistry, is director of research for the College of Arts and Sciences, serves on a number of boards and committees and is liaison person representing Tech to the Office of Federal Programs in Washington, D.C. The Moseleys have three children, all in the medical profession. Betty teaches Pediatric Nursing at the U. of A. Nursing School, Little Rock; young Pat, a cardio-vascular surgeon, is with a clinic in Orlando, Fl.; and Jim is interning at the U. of Tn. Med. School in Memphis.

Rev. Lehman and Virginia Bryant Webb of Little Rock, have been named missionary associates by the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board jointly supported by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

He will be known as Field Missionary for Church Extension in the State Missions Department. The Webbs have one daughter and two grandchildren. They have served with the Foreign Mission Board for seven years, pastoring the International Baptist Church, Singapore.

Rev. Preston Taylor ('50), former missionary to Argentina and currently pastor of First Baptist, Carrizo Springs, Tx., updates us on Billy Max Boyce (f.s.). Bill graduated in mechanical engineering from Oklahoma, and has been in Bartlesville as chief of overseas exploration and drilling for Phillips Petroleum. He has also been a very active member of Dr. Bill Cook's (f.s. '52) church, First Baptist.

He transferred to Norway on April 30, to become the new manager of the North Sea operations, including a plant at Teeside England and one at Emden, Germany, as well as the base at Stavanger, Norway. Bro. Taylor knows friends would want to know this new address: Bill Boyce, Diamantueien 15, Sandnes, Norway N-4300.

George ('49) and Carisma Ryan ("Dollie") Roth are in Little Rock where she has received a 1977 Freedoms Foundation Award for the series of patriotic programs and projects on flag and country which she conducted with her kindergarten class at Li'l People School. She joined with the American Legion in presenting American flags to five schools, and worked with Alpha Delta Kappa in several patriotic community programs and projects aimed at teaching her children fundamental American principles and history. Mr. Roth is a public relations representative for the State Social Services Department. They have a married daughter.

Dr. A.C. and Imogene Cagle ('57) Grigson, parents of five children, are in Texarkana where he is a CPA, following a number of years in Texas where he has been a principal, instructor, and Professor, in the public schools and at the college and university level. He also has maintained a private accounting and management consulting business. Dr. Grigson entered the Arkansas U.S. Senate race this spring as a "A Conservative Alternative." Nephew Bill Grigson, ('71), helped in his campaign. Arkansas Gov. David Pryor won the Democratic nomination.

Rev. Bill and Billie Jean Mosley ('50) Hickem, parents of four children, are in Jacksonville, Fl. where he is assistant executive secretary-treasurer of the Florida Baptist Convention, following an eight-year pastorate at First Baptist, Panama City.

He received an honorary doctorate from Stetson University in their May commencement, and has recently been promoted to full Colonel and elected to the staff and faculty of the army chaplain school, Fort Wadsworth, NY.

Bernie Hargis, Jr., received an impressive write-up in Warren, Ar. "Eagle Democrat" marking his 16th year as post-master. His family, including wife Sue Sutton (f.s.), who heads the First Baptist kindergarten program; son Bernie, III, with the SBC Radio & TV Commission, and Roxanne, ('78), were mentioned, as was his athletic record at Ouachita and at Warren High. He retired from the National guard two years ago as Lt. Col., and is now a Col. in the Reserve. He continues in the family automobile dealership, and managed the YMCA before becoming postmaster.

Nathan P. "Bud" Hudson has been elected president of the El Dorado, Ar. Chamber of Commerce. He is vice president for asphalt marketing with the Lion Oil Division of Tosco.

Carl "Jiggs" Ramsey received the Ed.D. degree in Education Administration from the University of S.C. with the thesis topic, "A Defined Minimal Skills Reading Program in a South Carolina School District." He and his wife, Virginia Cothran ('51), live in Manning, SC where he is Superintendent of Schools. Their children are Gail, Carl Jr., Kyle, and Amy. Carl, Jr. and Kyle plan to enter Ouachita in August, becoming the fourth generation of their mother's family to attend.

Mary Margaret Haynes, who teaches remedial reading in the public schools of Washington, Ar., has added Hempstead County Chamber of Commerce "Teacher of the Year" to her growing list of honors. In 1968 she was the only Arkansas teacher in a list of 135 to whom "Grade Teacher" paid tribute for their work with disadvantaged children. She is a former AEA Teacher of the Year, and is active in the Baptist Church, and in the work of the Pioneer Washington Restoration Foundation.

Dr. Claris A. Johnson, Jr., former pastor at Paragould, Ar., is now Director of Missions for Pulaski County Association, and living in Little Rock.

Dr. Joseph A. Callaway, Professor of Old Testament Archaeology at Southern Seminary, Louisville, with an imposing list of academic distinctions and affiliations, has been named Director of the Graduate Studies Program at Southern, offering the Th.M. and Ph.D. degrees in theology. Mrs. Callaway is the former Sara Tullos (f.s.). They have a daughter and a son.

Shelton and Wilma Owens Row are in Arvada, Co. where she teaches English and Reading in Oberon Junior High and he is Senior Accountant for The Housing Authority of the city and county of Denver, Co. Mrs. Row received the D.R.E. degree from Luther Rice Seminary in Jacksonville, Fl. in May, after 20 years of teaching in public schools in Oklahoma, Texas, and Colorado, as well as a private school in Maracaibo, Venezuela while they were living there. Her chief writing assignment was a biography of her pastor, Dr. Luther M. Mann, of Applewood Baptist Church, Wheat Ridge, Co. The Rows have a daughter and a grandson.

Jesse and Jo Ann Henderson (f.s.) Nutt, Elise and Jeremy, are in Kirkwood (St. Louis, Mo.) where he is with the Pre-Trial Release Program of the Missouri Division of Probation & Parole, and she is an Intake Interviewer with the St. Louis City office, Missouri Division of Family Services. They were glad to hear from Arkadelphia recently on local radio, with Alex Nisbit's "Dime Rhyme."

Rex Davis, a host on the early morning show, KMOX radio, in St. Louis, has "adopted" the penguins in the St. Louis zoo. When they became parents, he became grandfather. It is not possible to determine the sex of a newly-hatched penguin, so, Dr. Nisbet, who wakes up to the show with a dime for the following rhyme:

"Is Rex Davis' grandchild a sir?
This question we have to defer.
Let's call the child Ben,
And if it's a hen
Then we can call it Ben-Her."

A few days later someone else gave details about the location of Arkadelphia. They are looking forward to their Homecoming reunion November 17 and 18.

Rev. Elson and Opal Herndon have retired after 13 1/2 years as Administrator of the Baptist Retirement Towers, Kansas City, Mo., moving into a home in Overland Park, Ks. near Eugene ('58). Their other children are Doyle ('61) and Dorothy F. Jones.

Wes and Carol Burns (f.s.) Smelley are in Little Rock where he is in Personnel with Commercial National Bank and she is Director of Youth Homes, Inc. Carol has a bachelor's from Baylor, and a master's in Social Work from Columbia U.

Rev. Robert and Sarah Watson Eubanks, parents of three sons, are in Lead Hill, Ar. where he is pastor of Southside Baptist Church. He has been named to the Board of Trustees of New Orleans Baptist Seminary. The Eubanks have pastored in Kenner, La. and Ste. Genevieve, Mo. before returning to Arkansas.

Dalton H. Barnes has received the Doctor of Ministry degree at Phillips University, Enid, Ok. He has been chaplain of the Oklahoma City Police Department since his retirement from the Army in 1975. The Barnes' (she was Krysteen Lewis, f.s.) have two daughters.

OBU REPRESENTATIVES—Six Ouachita beauties participated in this year's Miss Arkansas Pageant in Hot Springs, four as contestants and two as members of the Court of Honor. The new Miss Arkansas, Naylene Violet Vuurens, a former OBU student who transferred to the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, has announced that she will return to Ouachita this fall as a junior. Pictured are (seated) Mona Lynn Rowe, Miss Ouachita Baptist University and fourth runner-up; and Bonnie Carolyn Holbert, the retiring Miss Arkansas. Standing are: Vicki Camille Martin, Miss Little Rock and Miss Congeniality; Teresa Ann Trull, Miss Pine Bluff; Carolyn Marie Hansen, Miss Stuttgart; Martha Jane Smith of Camden and Paula Jane Woodall of Little Rock, both members of the Court of Honor.

Rev. Ed and Greta McFerrin (f.s.) Pinkston, stationed in Abidjan, Ivory Coast, are furloughing in one of Immanuel Baptist Church's (Little Rock) missionary homes. He has been in charge of producing the first Theological Education by Extension (TEE) manual prepared by Baptist publications, for use in French-speaking West African nations and other French language countries. This is the first in a series of 36. Two of the four Pinkston children, David and Debbie, are at Ouachita.

'57

Dr. James K. Brewer has been named Head of the Department of Educational Research, Development and Foundation at Florida State U., Tallahassee. The Brewers (she is the former Mary Beth Routon), have three children.

'58

Charles and Jane Middlebrooks Cardine, parents of six children, including identical twins, are in Chantilly, Va., where he is a teacher and builder-contractor, and she writes, teaches drama classes, acts and directs plays. "I don't make a living but do pay for my children's music lessons and provide for our dinners out," she writes. Last September she directed "Puss In Boots," touring elementary schools with it. It was chosen as one of 50 acts, from over 600 auditions to be performed at the International Children's Festival at Wolf Trap, Va. where Elizabeth Taylor and Beverly Sills are board members. The play was one of only two amateur groups in the otherwise professional line-up. Mrs. Cardine, who has received awards in drama in church, community and the schools, was invited to audition again this year but does not have the time.

Ralph H. Sullinger is Controller of

'59

Lt. Col. James and Linda Ridgeway Buckner, parents of three children, are at Fayetteville, Ar., where he has been assigned as P.M.S. of the R.O.T.C.

'61

Rev. Perry and Joyce Crowe Purtle and their two children are in Little Rock where he is pastor of Heritage Baptist Temple. They come from Canyon Creek Road Baptist Church, Richardson, Tx. which he organized and pastored since 1972. "Christian Life" cited it as having "the fastest growing Sunday School in Texas."

Ray and Mary Jane McClure Riley and their two children are in Beaumont, Tx. where he is City Manager. He held the same position in Fort Smith, Ar., where he served as West Central Advisor on the FSA Board.

Mrs. Flo Perry Jones, widow of Jody Jones, AIC basketball player, and their son Perry live in Arkadelphia where she is employed with Citizens First State Bank. Perry, a '78 graduate from Arkadelphia High School, has been appointed to the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, NY. He is a member of the National Honor Society, was on the Student Council, in Key Club, a delegate to Boys' State where he served in the House of Representatives, and received the 1977-78 Bausch-Lomb Science Award.

of eight), received half of the front page of an April Sunday supplement section of the "Arkansas Gazette" for the unique job they are doing in the field of child care.

Their interest developed when they sought day-care for their own two sons, and led to their becoming one of the three centers in the country following the detailed, highly controlled University of Kansas Plan for infants and toddlers. They travelled the country in developing their program, and now are a model for far-ranging visitors. Mrs. Schuh has written the 40 program units containing weekly subjects that guide their teachers.

Paul O. Orton has moved to London, England where he is playing in the Buffet Musical Instrument Company's Saxophone Quartet. Upon his arrival in June he married Margaret McElrath, of Louisville, Ky., a violinist in the Kingswood String Quartet of London.

Dr. Brian A. and Mary Frances Warmath Nelson, Barry, Richard, and foster daughter Sonia, are in Murphysboro, Il. where he is senior pastor of the First Baptist Church. He has authored recent articles in national clergy magazines and has published a book of his sermons through Bethany Press, "Hustle Won't Bring the Kingdom of God," Jesus' Parables Interpreted for Today.

John and Margie Stobaugh ('68) Halbert and their two daughters are remaining in Little Rock, but he has moved from the directorship of the Pulaski County Council for the Ageing to the Baptist Medical Center where he is Director of the Human Resources Study. He will undertake to tie the patients, professional and supportive staffs of the Christian hospital into a more cohesive whole, with an emphasis on the personal touch.

Mary Ann Otwell, who won national recognition for the women's basketball team she organized in 1974 at Panola Junior College, Carthage, Tx., has been named assistant basketball coach for women at Stephen F. Austin State U., Nacogdoches. Her team won the national (NJCAA) championship in 1977 and '78, after reaching the play offs in 1978 and '78. In 1977 she was named NJCAA Coach of the Year, Texas Sportswriters' Coach of the Year, and Texas Junior College Coach of the Year, and in 1978, she received the NJCAA honor a second time.

Dr. Danny and Damaris Whitson Coker ('66) and their three children are in San Francisco where he is Director of Missions for the Peninsula Baptist Association, and has just been awarded the D.Min. degree from Golden Gate Seminary. The Cokers have made summer missionary Jane Chu, Ouachita senior, and daughter of Dorm' Mom, Rosemary Chu and the late Dr. Finley Chu feel very much at home in the San Francisco area.

Rodney and Ceilia Nourse Eatman and their three children have been in Ann Arbor, Mi. where he has completed his Ph.D. degree in Theatre at the U. of M. and she has been an administrative assistant at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. She will become a full-time homemaker when he assumes his duties as Director of Theatre at the University of Pittsburg at Johnstown Pa. in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry W. Thompson and their two children are in Dallas where he is senior consultant in equities marketing with the life, health and financial services department of the regional office of The Travelers Insurance Companies.

James N. Davis writes from Taif, Saudi Arabia, that "I'm continuing the love affair with Arab people which I began last summer in Algeria." He will be teaching English as a second language until March, '79. "After many detours," he continues, "I plan on beginning the Ph.D. in Applied Linguistics in September, '79.

Sisters Charlotte Halbert Kirby and Judy Halbert Leagans ('69) were appointed with their husbands, by the Foreign Mission Board for service in South America. Ben Kirby has been pastoring Trinity Church in Portland, Me., and will be a teacher in extension in Venezuela. They have a daughter and a son.

The Cecil Leagans, parents of two daughters, have been in Livingston, Tx. where he has been Minister of Outreach and Youth, and will be serving in Columbia.

A third sister, Sammie, and her husband, Bill Fuller (both '73), still are in Essex, England where Bill is doing graduate work. They all hope to be home in Star City for a reunion in August. After that they'll provide a variety of interesting places for family and friends to visit.

Star City, Ar. and the Halbert parents pause now and then to wonder how it happened they produced three world citizens within one family in one small town.

BLEACHER RENOVATION—Installation of aluminum seating at A.U. Williams Field has increased stadium capacity to 5,500, with an additional 16-row section provided between the 30-yard lines on the home side. The new section will have bench-type backs and will be used for reserve seats. A new pressbox and concession stand are also being constructed. Work on the stadium is expected to be completed in time for Ouachita's opener Sept. 9 against Bishop College.

David and Judy McCaig Jones, and Scott David, are in Oselola where he is Service Manager for the city and she teaches second grade. She has an M.S.E. from the U. of Ar.

Bill and Mary Etta Arnold Wells, Deanna, Tresea, and KY, are in Memphis where they own and operate Mr. Bill Day Care Center, he as Physical Director, and she as Program Director and teacher.

Danny (f.s.) and Nell Dickerson Ponder, Ben and Jacob Michael, are in Little Rock where he is a pharmacist with Baker Rexall and she has been looking after her three men, with plans to return to teaching this fall.

Brad and Susan Andrews Thompson, Jr. are in Knoxville, Tn. where, for the past five years he has been Senior Claims Representative with Aetna Life Insurance Co. They are active members of First Baptist Church, where he sings in the choir, is on several committees and is a substitute Sunday School teacher.

Dwain Roark, formerly in Jena, La., is basketball coach at Arkansas College, Batesville.

Johnny Hooks is the new defensive coordinator for the UAM Boll Weevil football team. He worked five years with the Pine Bluff Zebras who shared the state AAAAAA football crown last year.

Mrs. Peter Musgrave (Helen Gennings) rated a nice write-up and picture in the Batesville "Daily Guard" under the heading, "Former Beauty Queen Discovers New Missions to Spread Happiness."

The article touched on her activities as Music Director and Pastor's Aide at First Methodist Church, and her work as a Lamaze teacher at Gateway Vo-Tech school. She and husband Pete had such a successful experience with the method when Mandy was born three years ago, she devotes a part of her time to sharing the training.

Doug Kellner, who has been back at Ouachita this summer completing his MME degree, teaches high school orchestra in Owensboro, Ky.

Kenny and Sharon Baldrige Bauser are enjoying the country life on their seven acres in Grafton, Il. After hours they can do the good food. During the day, he is electrician with a local oil refinery, and she is executive secretary for Alton Water Company.

Jon and Judith Smith (f.s.) Solberg, Craig Michael (2½) and Tami (10 months), have moved from Wisconsin back to Letcher, SD, where he farms and she teaches school.

Jerry Smith, formerly a Student Foundation Facility Coordinator with Indiana University's Foundation in Bloomington, is now a Community Development Specialist with CADC in Benton, Ar.

Quinn and Martha Perry Morgan are in language study in Bulawayo, Rhodesia. They have had some first-hand experience with cobras, but have had other things to think about, such as the part-time work he has already been able to do in the publishing house, a move closer to town, and the first little Morgan scheduled to arrive in late June. See 1974 for a further note on troubled Rhodesia.

All-time record established by Ouachita donors in '77-'78

OBU donors gave at an all-time record level in the fiscal year which closed May 31, 1978. The total amount received was $2,451,813.21, an increase of $99,157.27 over last year.

The list which follows is composed of the names of the persons, institutions, agencies, and firms giving DIRECTLY to Ouachita during the period June 1, 1977 - May 31, 1978. For the purposes of grouping contributors by amount of contribution, you will notice that we have organized three giving clubs: Century Club - minimum of $100; Patrons Club - minimum of $500; and President's Club - minimum of $1,000.

Ouachita's gifts and grants from private sources exceeded two million dollars for the fifth consecutive year in fiscal 1977-78. That record of giving is all the more remarkable because of the completion of payments of numerous pledges including most of the Ouachita-Southern Campaign pledges.

Pressing needs and unparalleled opportunities compel us to ask you to continue to contribute even while thanking you for your contributions during the past year. Contributors' requests for anonymity have been honored and their names do not appear on the list.

RECRUITING POSTER—Newly designed departmental logos are featured on the recruiting posters currently being used by the admissions office. A return postcard allows interested students to request brochures on each of the departments. If you would like to have a poster to display in your own school or church, please write the admissions office at Ouachita.

Tigers win 1978 AIC All-Sports trophy

Ouachita has won the 1978 Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference All-Sports Trophy for the first time since the inception of the trophy in 1964.

Ouachita has a total of 73 points through the nine varsity sports which the AIC recognizes—football, cross-country, basketball, swimming, bowling, golf, tennis, baseball, and outdoor track. In the All-Sports Trophy race points are given out on a basis of finish with 11 points for first, nine points for second, eight points for third, etc.

The Tigers were followed in the standings by the University of Central Arkansas-70, Harding College-61½, Henderson State University-53½, Arkansas Tech University-53, Southern Arkansas University-50, Hendrix College-46½, University of Arkansas at Monticello-31, College of the Ozarks-14½, and Arkansas College-14.

"The winning of this award has been one of our goals for the Ouachita athletic program. It is immensely gratifying to see it realized for our athletes, coaches, students, our OBU family and our fans," said Bill Vining, OBU athletic director.

In winning the trophy, Ouachita swept three outright championships—tennis, golf, and track, and shared another in basketball.

Dr. Daniel R. Grant, president of Ouachita, commented, "The All-Sports Trophy is an achievement Ouachita has come close to in previous years but has never before won. I want to congratulate Athletic Director Bill Vining and his excellent staff of coaches for this outstanding accomplishment. I am especially pleased for the many Ouachita team members who have worked so hard in the nine different competitive sports in the AIC. We were extremely fortunate to win four of the nine championships in a conference as strong as the AIC."

Only four league schools have ever won the All-Sports Trophy with UCA leading the race with eight trophies, SAU has five to its credit, while Harding has won it once.

Payton named NAIA District 17 Coach of the Year

Larry Payton, head tennis coach at Ouachita, has been named as National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics District 17 Coach of the Year, according to Duke Wells, district chairman.

Payton, a graduate of Southwest Baptist College in Bolivar, Missouri, and Director of Student Activities at Ouachita, has coached at OBU for the past four years.

Vining, Gravett to coach in international competitions

Ouachita's athletic department is continuing to receive national recognition through the selection of OBU coaches for international competition.

Bill Vining, head basketball coach and athletic director at Ouachita, has been selected as head coach of the United States Collegiate Sports Council's Men's Basketball Team which will represent the U.S. at the 1979 world University Games next summer in Mexico City.

Dr. Bob Gravett, head track coach and chairman of the physical education department, has been selected as assistant coach of the Men's Track Team for the same event, according to Glen Davies, executive director of the U.S. Collegiate Sports Council.

Vining was also named head coach of the USA All-Star Team which will go to Russia in August to compete for the Yuri Gagarin Cup. The team is sponsored by the Amateur Basketball Association of the United States of America, and is composed of 12 of the top NCAA freshmen and sophomore college players in the nation.

The trip is part of the Olympic Development Program designed to prepare the United States' possible Olympic athletes for the 1980 games.

OBU golf team receives $2,000 endowment from Williams

A $2,000 endowed gift for the Ouachita golf program has recently been established by Arkadelphia businessman Ralph Williams, Jr., in honor of the late J.L. "Nick" Carter.

Carter, beginning in 1954, served as Ouachita's Business Manager, and later as Supervisor of Properties and Golf Coach.

The endowed fund will remain open for monetary additions by interested alumni and friends, according to Dr. Ben M. Elrod, senior vice president and director of development at the University.

Williams is a 1948 graduate of Ouachita and during his college days was an All-Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference golfer.
