FORT SMITH MOTOR-CADE

There are indications of a fine attendance at the State B.T.U. Convention from our section. While I have no definite reports as to the size of the various delegations, the interest being manifested by the churches and B.T.U. departments point to a splendid attendance. Our own church, First Baptist, Fort Smith, has set as its goal, 50 in attendance from our own department. Something like 25 have already signed up, and we have just begun our personal solicitation; and feel that we shall have no difficulty in reaching our goal. We are making plans for a motor-cade, hoping to make transportation arrangements for all who wish to attend. We are anxious that our young people attend as it will mean much to our B.T.U. department as a whole, as well as to the individual delegates themselves. Personally, I would like to see every young person who has the slightest chance, go to this convention. Having attended all previous ones I know what a wonderful opportunity it brings. The blessings that come from its study periods, its inspirational periods, and the personal contacts formed, will last through many years. It will be the happiest Thanksgiving any B.Y.P.U. ever spent if spent at the State B.T.U. Convention.

Miss Irene Jones, Associate Director, First Baptist Church, Fort Smith, Arkansas.

FROM THE OZARKS— THEY'RE COMING!

Northwest Arkansas Baptists are anxiously anticipating the joy of fellowship they will have in the Annual State B.Y.P.U. Convention with Baptists from all other parts of the state. Delegations are expected to attend from every part of the District. Our section of the state will be well represented in the Convention. This Convention will be the best ever held in the state and every person, especially the young people, should attend if at all possible.

H. W. Blalock, President
Northwest District.

James Draper received 2 for baptism at Forester Sunday.

STATE B. Y. P. U. CONVENTION HIGHLIGHTS

NOVEMBER 28, 29, 30, 1934

LITTLE ROCK IMMANUEL CHURCH

Convention opens Wednesday afternoon, November 28. One to five p.m. Registration, home assignments, fellowship and sightseeing. Last session Friday night. Remain through.

Bed and breakfast free to all out-of-town registered delegates. Registration desk in Hamilton Moses class room, first floor.

Registration Fees: (Prices reduced since distribution of posters. Made possible by pre-registration campaign in Little Rock) Seniors and Adults, fifty cents; Intermediates and Juniors, twenty-five cents. Registration is not compulsory, but is urged. The Convention is financed through its registration fees.

The local committee under the leadership of L. E. Carroll, is anticipating your every need. Pulaski County and Little Rock will be ready for you.

Be sure to visit the attractive Book Store Exhibit which is being prepared for the Convention. Hundreds of special bargains are being shipped here for the Convention. Our new Book Store Manager will be introduced to the Convention.

The Annual Convention banquet will be held in the Immanuel church Friday night at 5:30. Tickets fifty cents. Only a limited number can be taken care of, so we suggest that you make your reservation when you register. Mr. Carl Jagers will be toastmaster.

The Program: The complete program was printed in last week's Arkansas Baptist. If you did not see it, borrow a copy and read it. We believe we are presenting this year as strong a program as has ever been presented in the state. Every Baptist in Arkansas may be benefited by the program. The general theme throughout is "Magnifying His Church." Every message will be related to this subject. Here are a few of the great subjects to be used and the speakers:

"Mispronounced Word"—Dr. Perry F. Webb.

"Extending His Church to Farthest Shores"—Dr. C. E. Maddy.

"Transfiguration Truths"—Dr. Robert G. Lee.

"Obeying the Authoritative Christ in the Use of our Bodies"—Dr. Robert G. Lee.

"The Mission of a Blood Bought Church"—Dr. T. L. Holcomb

"Saving the Sunday Night Evangelistic Hour"—Dr. T. L. Holcomb.

"The Glory of the B.Y.P.U. Movement.—Dr. E. P. Alldredge
"Magnifying His Church by Christian Living"—Rev. Arden P. Blaylock.

"Is He Satisfied With Me"—Dr. Calvin B. Waller.

"We Must Go Forward"—Dr. Otto Whittington.

"Ye Are the Salt of the Earth"—Rev. Alfred Carpenter.

"His Church a Builder of Character"—Rev. Wallace Rogers

"His Church a Lighthouse of Truth"—Rev. Robert E. Naylor.

"Magnifying His Church Through State Missions"—Dr. Bridges.

These are only a few of the messages that will inspire your souls. In addition, conferences on problems of youth and B. Y. P. U. methods, in charge of capable leaders, will increase your efficiency. Read the program printed last week for complete program. Come early and get full benefits from the Convention.

ATTENDANCE GOAL—TWO THOUSAND.

Meet Southwest Ark. in Little Rock

You may count on Southwest District at the State Convention. We plan to be there. To those who are wondering about school busses for transportation, come on. You'll have a great time. Last year when the bus from Hope Association headed for home after the grand Convention at Fort Smith some engine trouble caused a delay that made us late arriving home, so we were on the road at B.Y.P.U. time. The bus was dark, the whole crowd tired but B. Y.P.U. habits are good habits and some one suggested having service on the bus. A quarterless program was given of "Favorite scriptures and why," with everyone taking part. Songs followed and no one who rode the bus that night will ever forget that service, and the inspiration gained from the singing we agreed would for ever echo over those moon lit hills along the highway. It was a grand climax for a great Convention. So, all aboard for the State B.Y.P.U. Convention at Little Rock, with a whole bus load and share the thrills, inspiration and information that only a B.Y.P.U. Convention like Arkansas has, can give.

Mrs. Grace Mosley,
President Southwest District.

Southeast Arkansas Coming

Dear Bro. Edmunds:

We are expecting a large delegation from Southeast Arkansas at the State B.Y.P.U. Convention in Little Rock, November 28, 29, 30. We realize the need for new strength and new enthusiasm in our religious as well as physical world. It is very easy to slip into the mechanical routine of everyday life and lose our enthusiasm for the higher things in life. It takes something like a State Convention to wake us up to the responsibilities of living and give us the fellowship and contact with the leaders of our denomination. I believe that this will be the biggest and best Convention that has ever been held in this State and I am fully confident that Southeast Arkansas will do more than its share to make this Convention a success.

Looking forward to a successful and inspiring Convention, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Robert Hyatt
President, Southeast District.
