Official Handbook
Ouachita Baptist University
1981 - 82
When any group of individuals come together to live in a society, there must be some regulations that are clearly understood by all members. Of paramount importance to all Ouachitonians is the GOLDEN RULE. When the members of the university society follow this one basic rule, few others are necessary. It is the goal of the administration that while one is a student at Ouachita, he or she will become a more responsible, considerate member of society, as well as a more intelligent, skilled individual. These assets can be achieved if every student at Ouachita seeks to create an academic society in a Christian environment. For the welfare of all members of the university family, the following regulations have been established as administrative policies.
College dormitory is an experience in social adjustment. Change from the privacy of one's home to the openness of a dorm can be a problem, but it is exciting. In order to live harmoniously one must respect the rights and privileges of others and must use the GOLDEN RULE as a standard for conduct.

Several bodies have been established to supervise dormitory conduct. The Head Resident, Resident Assistants, the Association for Women Students, the Student-Faculty Dispute Board, the Dean of Men and the Dean of Students are established to assist in enforcing dormitory residence regulations.

For men's and women's hours and related policies, reference should be made to the Student-Faculty Dispute Board, the Dean of Men and the Dean of Students, published elsewhere, determined in response to expressed preference of appropriately registered institutional students.

To the extent that they between men and women, they fall within the statutory exemption for religious institutions because the principle of in loco parentis (stand in the parent role) is inapplicable to Ouachita's relationship and religious purposes.

IN & CHECK - OUT

When one checks into the assigned room in the dormitory, the student will receive a description of the room and the condition of its contents. The student should check this document closely so that he/she recognizes the condition of the room. Before he or she receives the key, the student signs the check-in sheet stating that he or she accepts the room in the noted condition. Each student is held responsible for his or her room and its furnishings. Charges will be made for loss or damage to the furnishings, walls, ceilings, windows, screens, and the hall door of each dormitory room. Charges for damages to the halls, lounges, or any common property of any college residence will be prorated among the particular residents if individual responsibilities for such damages cannot be established.

Rooms must be thoroughly cleaned and trash removed to the outside prior to the time the occupant begins the check-out process. Failure to leave the room/hall clean will result in the assessment of a cleaning charge. When one checks out of a room he or she will be signed out by a member of the college staff. No room deposits will be returned until the damage report has been processed. Deposits are forfeited when one leaves during the semester.

Failure to check out of a room properly will result in an automatic $20 charge to one's account.
KEYS
A key is issued when one is checked into the dorm. The student is urged to keep his/her door locked at all times. This key is the only protection the college can give for safekeeping a student’s possessions, and the university assumes no financial responsibility for losses.

A fee is charged at the time of the receipt of the key, and this non-refundable fee is used by the dorm for social and other activities.

A lost key may be replaced by reporting the missing key to the Head Resident and paying a $5 replacement fee. If keys are not returned at the end of the semester, the lock will be changed and the cost of the lock and labor (approximately $50) will be charged to the student’s account.

MOVING
A student may not move from his/her assigned room without specific authorization from the Dean of Students’ or the Dean of Women’s office. A student will be charged a $20 fee for any unauthorized changes.

ROOM CHECK
Good housekeeping is necessary. It is the joint responsibility of roommates and or suite-mates to keep their rooms clean and orderly.

Each room will be checked weekly as determined by the Head Resident. A report will be given to the student, and a copy will be kept by the Head Resident. Should a student accumulate more than three reports during a semester, she will be subject to disciplinary action.

In order for a room to be "good" condition, clothing should be made, clothes should be kept in the drawers or closets, and books and other articles should be arranged so as to present an orderly appearance.

The Dean of Women and/or the Dean of Students may visit periodically during the room check.

QUIET HOURS
Relative quietness should characterize all dorms at all times. The hours after 9:00 p.m. are observed as absolute hours. The purpose of the period is to create conditions of sleep and study with maximum concentration and comfort. Radios, stereos, and TV’s should be turned to a minimum volume; loud talking, bull sessions, and other noisemaking activities should be stopped.

During final exam weeks, residents are expected to observe 24-hour quiet hours.

Residents who violate study hours and prohibit others from studying are subject to disciplinary action.

Failure to register the refrigerator will result in the loss of the use of the refrigerator. At the time of registration, each student who owns or rents a refrigerator must sign a statement giving the appropriate university authority the right to inspect the refrigerator upon just cause.

Bills are handled exclusively through the Southwestern Bell Telephone business office. If the student desires to have a private telephone, his name will be listed in the Arkadelphia directory. The phone company requires that the phone be listed in one name (i.e., one person in the room must be directly responsible for the phone and the calls made on it.)
