Evangelistic Conference

Responsibility of Individual Christians for Personal Soul-Winning Emphasized in Meetings

"Evangelism, Every Christian's Job," was the theme for the annual Evangelistic Conference held last week at 2nd Church, Little Rock, under the direction of Dr. I. L. Yearby, secretary of evangelism for Arkansas, with Dr. Dale Cowling as host pastor.

Although something short of a record attendance was recorded — registration totaled 485 — the Conference proved to be a mountain-top experience all the way.

Dr. Yearby quietly announced at the closing session that he is retiring as evangelism secretary as of March 1 after five years in this place of service. (See editorial.)

At the opening session the pastors heard Paul Shipman, Mena evangelist; Eddie Martin, evangelist from Lancaster, Pa.; and Vance Havner, evangelist, Bible expositor and teacher from Greensboro, N. C.

"God places all men in one of two classes — those who are for him and those who are against him," Mr. Shipman declared. "God wants all men to be saved and His plan of winning the world is for every Christian to be a soul-winner," he continued.

"The fact that 65 per cent of the people of the world have never heard of Jesus Christ and God's plan of redemption is proof that Christians have departed from God's plan of winning the world," he concluded.

Speaking on "The Church Playing Solitary with Prospect Cards," Evangelist Martin emphasized that God is calling for all Christians to go out as Christian witnesses and soul-winners.

"The trouble with churches and church members today is that too many of them do not know how to spell the word 'go,'" Martin declared.

"Some spell 'go' l-o-o-k. They look at maps of benighted lands and cry, 'Oh, the poor heathen.' But they will not walk across the street to win a lost neighbor.

"Some spell it s-t-u-d-y. Preachers sit in their study majoring on producing letter-perfect sermons and do not to out to do personal soul-winning. Then when they get up to preach their perfect sermons they preach out of cold hearts.

"Some spell it p-l-a-n. We have so many meetings on how to do it that we don't have time to do it.

"Some spell it g-i-v-e. But bringing tithes and offerings to the church can never be a substitute for personal witnessing.

"Some spell it s-e-n-d; some spell it t-e-a-c-h; some spell it a-t-t-e-n-d; some spell it a-p-p-l-a-u-d.

"Spell it right—g-o. Go! Walk the streets searching for the lost. Ring doorbells to witness for Christ."

In the closing address of the opening session, Evangelist Havner said, "Evangelism is the fruit of revival and revival follows repentance.

"I am not too excited over the report that more than 100,000,000 Americans are church members. The FBI could not find three-fourths of them during revivals.

"You have statistical growth but not spiritual growth if churches grow but Christians do not.

"In 1954 we Southern Baptists had the slogan, 'A Million More (new members) in '54.' Somebody said, 'If we gain a million more members like some we have already, we are sunk!'

"If by revival we mean just more of what we already have, revival might be a calamity.

"What would you think of an orchestra that is always recruiting new members, but whose members would not come to practice or would not keep their instruments tuned?

"The blind spot of our church life today is repentance. Our greatest need is for repentance and revival in the local churches.

"When we get church members to be busy at any church assignment before they have repented, we defeat our purpose. Sending church members out to visit for the church when they are not right with God is a calamity.

"We will never get very far with our malaria brand of Christianity—fever and chill—fever and chill.

"We cannot receive Jesus Christ as Saviour and willfully and knowingly refuse him as Lord."

Conference Highlights

Secretary Whitlow Sees Great Prospects

DR. S. A. Whitlow, executive secretary, Arkansas Baptist State Convention, speaking at the Evangelistic Conference last week, said:

"THERE ARE great things in store for Arkansas Baptists if we dedicate ourselves to the task God has given us.

"Christ is a matchless example. He went about doing good. He healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, raised the dead. He is our matchless example in forgiveness. But He is more than an example — He is the Saviour, the Redeemer of the human race.

"An evil man will act in keeping with his own nature. Hence the necessity of the new birth, a change of Conference Quotes

"Havnerisms"

"We try to clean the world up. The movies have their self-cleaning spurts, and with what results! One of these days the Lord is going to give this old world a spring cleaning!"

"A church committee is often a group of the unfit appointed by the unwilling to do the unnecessary."

"The late Will Rogers showed great insight when he said of a European peace conference: 'Those fellows might get somewhere over there if it wasn't for human nature!"

"You run onto a lot of good-fornothing people today who will say: 'Oh, yes, I believe in God!' The devils also believe, and tremble. But these fellows don't even tremble!"

"Christ says, 'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.' No alibis, no excuses will stand in the face of this. If we follow him, HE WILL MAKE US FISHERS OF MEN!"

"Faith is not believing God can it is believing God WILL!"

"The disciples said, 'We have toiled all night and caught nothing.' If you will just notice, anything that starts 'we' always ends with nothing."

"I want to be in more conferences where everybody realizes that we have nothing but what we have received. More of us need to cry out to God, 'I am a sinful man!' instead of 'I am a successful man.'" man's nature. Christ and Christ alone can save man from the ruin of his sins.

"You have statistical growth but not spiritual growth, if churches grow but Christians do not."—Vance Havner, at Arkansas Evangelistic Conference.

"Evangelism must hold the place of primacy in all our work, lest men die without hope. Regeneration alone is the soil out of which the Christian plant can grow. And grow Christians must.

"We must grow in grace and in knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We have the blessed promise of continued cleansing through the blood of Christ. We have the promise of wisdom in a dark world.

"We need to cultivate the grace of liberality as a shield against selfishness and that we might know more of the inner meaning of Christ's words: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'

"The fulfillment of these promises depends upon our being able to say, 'I know him in whom I have believed...'

"There is a hope for every child of God at the end of life's way. We ministers should magnify the Christian hope."

Is Christianity Facing Another Dark Age? Asks Baptist Educator, in Sounding Warning

WE LIVE in the heart of what is called "the Bible belt." It is hard for us to realize that Christianity is having a difficult time in much of the world. Some of our intellectuals, including the Historian Toynbee are writing already of the post-Christian era.

In much of the world, Christianity has been impotent or uninterested in meeting the needs of the people.

In the past 50 years communism has swept as many people, numerically, into its fold as Christianity numbers after nearly 2,000 years. Today communism and Christianity each number about 800,000,000 and these two great armies are engaged in combat to the death and there can be no compromise.

Shortly before he died, Dr. W. O. Carver, for more than 50 years a teacher at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, said:

"Present-day Christianity will never win this world. It is anemic. It has lost much of its original vitality and unless it experiences a new birth it-is on the way out as a moral force in the world."

It was a miracle that Christianity was able to gain a foothold in the world back in its beginning. By early 4th century, Christianity had established itself as the leading religion in the Roman world. But soon afterward came an alliance with government and Christianity went into eclipse for a thousand years of Dark Ages.

Martin Luther re-discovered two longforgotten books — Galatians and Romans — and sounded a trumpet blast in the ears of sleeping Christianity that brought the Protestant Reformation out of which the great religious dominations have come. But some of these great denominations seem to be but smoldering embers growing colder year by year.

It could well be that Christianity is headed for another eclipse, another season of darkness. If we are wise, we will look at the factors that caused Christianity to put on its bedclothes and go to sleep during the Dark Ages.

Christianity lost ground then because expectancy gave way to complacency. Christians no longer regarded the return of Christ as imminent. When Christians no longer feel that Christ may return at any moment, they become more concerned about the affairs of the world than their Christian duties and worldliness creeps in.

Another factor in the decline of Christianity was that faith was largely replaced by creed. As long as faith means unifying life around Christ as the center, Christians can stand. When the teachings of the church are sub, stituted for Christ himself as the saving and keeping power, the vitality of Christianity wanes.

The government tended to displace the gospel as the chief means of propagating the faith. When anything is substituted for the preaching of the Gospel of Christ as the prime and Christ-given means of winning the world, Christianity fails.

We have many wonderful organizations in the church today - Sunday school, training union, brotherhoods, etc. We would not be without these for they have their place. But the church advanced across the centuries without any of these and it could live without them. But the church cannot live without preaching.

Southern Baptists have heard themselves bragged on so much that they have believed a lot of what they have heard. We call ourselves "the fastest growing of the major denominations." But we might well consider some smaller groups who are out-growing us by leaps and bounds.

The secret of the growth of many of the smaller denominations is seen in the fact that the people in these movements have no difficult accepting the supernatural, they are not in the least inhibited emotionally, and they are accepting the responsibility of every member helping to propagate their faith.—Dr. Earl Guinn, president Louisiana College, from address to Evangelistic Conference.

Secretaries of Mission Boards Express Thanks

NASHVILLE —(BP) — Executive secretaries of Southern Baptists' two mission boards have expressed gratitude to God and to Southern Baptists for $3 .-260,301 which their boards shared from advance Cooperative Program receipts in 1957.

Advance Cooperative Program receipts are those received after the Southern Baptist Convention has reached its basic budget, shared by about 20 agencies.

The convention reached its basic goal of $11 million early in October. Advance funds were those funds received from that date through Dec. 31.

The Home Mission Board's 25 per cent share of advance funds was $815,-075 and the Foreign Mission Board's three-quarter share was $2,445,226.

Dr. I. L. Yearby Retires

WHEN IS THE best time for a man to announce that he is retiring? That was the question Dr. Ira Luther Yearby, secretary of Evangelism for Arkansas Baptists, was asking his close friends a few days ahead of the annual Evangelistic Conference held here last week.

Dr. Yearby, who has reached retirement age, had been debating for some time when to give up a work very close to his heart. His physician helped him to decide on retirement. "I am not sick, and I have not had a heart attack," Dr. Yearby said with a reassuring smile as he announced his retirement at the closing meeting of the Evangelistic Conference Wednesday morning of last week. "I am not quitting, but hope to go on serving the Lord as my health and strength will permit. But I believe it best for the work, especially in light of the simultaneous campaigns of the next several months, to step out now and make place for a new leader."

In the five years since he came here as the first full-time evangelism secretary for the state, Dr. Yearby has endeared himself to the people of Arkansas. The impact of his dedicated life and of his preaching and promotion will continue to be felt for many years to come.

Those who attended the recent evangelism conference will agree that the conference itself provided a fitting climax to the career of this man of the Lord. It was the consensus of opinion of those who had been blessed by previous conferences directed by Dr. Yearby that the conference this year reached a new high in inspiration and spiritual preparation for labor in the every-day valleys of Christian service.

Who can measure a life like that of Dr. Yearby — one who has been a faithful preacher of God's word since he was a teen-age boy in his native Wake County, N. C. — who has served lovingly and effectively as under-shepherd of numerous flocks in God's kingdom — who has seen his only son grow up in the fear and the admonition of the Lord to fill a key soul-winning position himself as secretary of evangelism for Alabama Baptists?

We shall pray for him and Mrs. Yearby as they move back to their home in Oklahoma City. May they have many more years of fruitful service for the Lord.

Conference Quotes

Texas Pastor Calls For Personal Witnessing

THE MOST of the pastors I know are consecrated, dedicated men of God who are faithful in the discharge of their duties. They need help and encouragement.

I believe in the Book of Numbers, but also in the Book of Acts. We take great pride in our numbers, but it would be better if we took more pride in making our numbers count.

We are hearing a lot these days about "decisions" — decisions for what? Somebody reported more than a hundred decisions, with two joining the church! I never count a fish till I have him on my stringer!

We Baptists baptize the converts and lay them out on the bank to dry and some get mighty dry. In telling why he decided to be a Baptist, one fellow said "When they dip you, you are done!" That reminds me — do you know what the D's stand for in "D. D. degree"? They stand for "done done." And a lot of fellows are still trying to get D. D. degrees.

We must not forget that a big segment of our people in America are lost. In the city of Los Angeles alone are between three and four million people who do not know Christ savingly. In New York City there are six million who are lost. I do not know what the statistics are for Little Rock, but for San Antonio, a city of 500,000, half of them have no connection with churches.

Unless we evangelize we are going to be paganized here in America. Soulwinning is the personal and individual obligation of every Christian. And we cannot give first-hand testimony on a second-hand experience.

Let us ask ourselves individually: "Do I have a vital relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ?" If we do not have this relationship, everything is sounding brass and tinkling cymbal.

The prophets of old said, "Here am I, Lord," but many today are saying, "Where am I, Lord?"

The great need today is for people who know the Lord Jesus Christ some way other than hear-say.

If we have had a personal experience with the Lord, we can no more keep silent than birds can refrain from singing. Sin and death and hell are dreadful realities that men must be saved from. Heaven is a reality that men can be saved to.

Why have Christians left their witnessing to the lost? The devil puts fear into our hearts. We are afraid to speak to a lost person lest we drive him farther away from God. But a lost man is as far away from God as he can go—he is dead. What can you do to hurt a dead man?—Perry Webb, pastor of 1st Church, San Antonio, Tex., from an address at the Arkansas Evangelistic Conference.

Personally Speaking . . .

A Boy and His Dog

A RED short-haired dog of mongrel extraction almost ran over me one morning recently on a street corner in Park Hill.

Now there is a lot about dogs that I do not know, but I grew up with several of them, and I could tell that this one knew where he was going — which is more than can be said for a lot of human beings much of the time. And he was obviously in a very happy mood.

My curosity took me around the corner to see what the attraction was. You may have guessed. It was not another dog, but a boy — a school boy on his bicycle. Not more than ten minutes ago the young master had slipped off from Olde Towse, but now what a happy reunion! You would have thought they had not seen each other for at least six months — unless, of course, you know about boys and dogs.

In a world in which men and women are so frequently falling out with one another, and even nations, it is refreshing to observe the warm bond of friendship that exists between a boy and his dog.

The poet Francis Thompson, in "The Hound of Heaven," saw in the unfailing affection of a dog for his master an illustration of the love of Christ for the souls of men:

"I fled Him, down the nights and down the days;

I fled Him down the arches of the years:

I fled Him down the labyrinthine ways of my own mind; and in the midst of tears

I hid from Him and under running laughter.

Up vistaed hopes I sped;
And shot, precipitated
Adown titanic glooms of chasmed fears,
From those strong Feet that followed, followed after.

But with unhurrying chase
And unperturbed pace,
Deliberate speed, majestic instancy
They beat — and a Voice beat
More instant than the Feet—
'All things betray thee, who betrayest Me.'

The lost soul of Thompson's poem sought to escape the Hound of Heaven in every nook and cranny a man running from God can find — within himself, in his own intellectual achievements and in catering to his five senses; in earthly friendships, of men and women and even of little children. He ran to nature and to science. But in none of these could he find what he was seeking. Finally he discovers that all he sought was to be found in the One from whom he had fled across the years, as he hears Him say:

"'Ah, fondest, blindest, weakest,
I am He Whom thou seekest!
Thou dravest love from thee,
who dravest Me.'"

Letters to the Editor

THE PEOPLE SPEAK

APPRECIATED THOUGHTFULNESS

Dear Editor:
AFTER READING your personal letter, I think it only fair that I write this to explain the reason why I have discontinued taking the reason why I have discontinuous the Arkansas Baptist paper.

I and my sister who lives with me are not able to read much on account of eye trouble and we are all who live here. I can read some.

Have received the paper and read it many which I enjoyed.

Have received the paper and reachers which I enjoyed.
I'm sure you will understand and not feel puzzled about this. With best wishes for you and your family for a good 1958,
I am your Christian friend,

CORRECTION

Dear Mr. McDonald:

This communication concerns the cover of the January 23, 1958, issue of the Arkansas Baptist and the remarks made about it. On page 3 of the above mentioned issue this remark is made: "It is said to be the only Baptist church in the state operating a kindergarten." Please let me set the record streight. straight straight.

For the past six years, First Baptist Church, El Dorado, has operated a most successful kindergarten; and I am proud to say that for the past five years I have been a member of the teaching staff, which now includes five teachers and a principal. At the present time there are 106 children enrolled.

If you would like to run a news item or story on this kindergarten, I am sure that some one at the church would be glad to prepare it for you. We would certainly like for at least a correction of the above quoted statement to be run so that the Baptists throughout Arkansas will be in possession of the facts.

Thank you so much for your attention concerning this matter.

—Mrs. Fred Love,

-Mrs. Fred Love, Norphlet, Ark:

In 1952, under the leadership of Dr. Sam Church of El Dorado began a program of kindergarten work. That first year the church employed a principal and three other teachers to care for the 80 children who enrolled. The following year because of increased enrollment, another teacher was added to the faculty. At the present time we have a staff of six people, 5 teachers and a prinicipal with 106 children attending the school.

In this, our sixth successful year of operation, we would like you to know that we, too, have a kindergarten and that our experience with it has proved to us that week day religious education can be a blessing to the church and entire community. —Mrs. Edward W. Rogers, principal.

1ST CHURCH, FT. SMITH, TOO

EDUCATIONAL DIRECTOR David Meier of 1st Church, Ft. Smith calls our attention to the fact that his church is now in its 5th year of operating a kindergarten. "We now have three teachers and our kindergarten recently participated on several television programs," Mr. Meier sald.

The Editor is glad to make this correction and he appreciates the fine spirit and the positive approach of Brother Meier to our problem of getting to know the work of Arkansas Baptist churches better. He is inviting the Editor to his church to teach a study course. No doubt the Editor will learn more than any of those in his classes!—The Editor.

OLDEST AT IMMANUEL

I have just finished reading this week's Arkansas Baptist, and the interesting article about Mrs. McKinney. I am sure this write-up made Mrs. McKinney quite happy, and I am sure she well deserves the nice publicity for her active Christian life.

Lonsdale Conference Program Announced

THE FIFTH Annual Mid-Winter Bible Conference at Lonsdale, under the direction of Bernes K Selph, pastor of 1st Church, Benton, who serves the conference as dean, will be held Monday through Friday noon, Feb. 10-14.

The conference will open with a supper Monday night at 6, following which Dr. Peyton Kolb, of Little Rock, will speak on "Religion and Psychiatry," and Pastor Walter Johnson, of University Church, Fayetteville, will give a lecture from the Book of Acts.

The morning schedule, Tuesday through Friday, will be from 8:15 to 12:30 noon, and will include New Testament lectures by Dr. Johnson; lectures on archaeology, by Pastor S. W.

formed as to the oldest member of Immanuel Baptist Church, and I would like to correct this information for the record.

My grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Wright, 2118 Schiller, is Immanuel's oldest member, and not Mrs. McKinney. My grandmother, known to all as "Granny" Wright, is now 92 years of age, and will reach the ripe old age of 93 this coming September.

There is also another member of Immanuel who is older than Mrs. McKinney. She is Mrs. Ida Grooms, 3406 West 13th Street, and Mrs. Grooms will be 92 this coming April.

Mrs. McKinney is probably the oldest active member and maybe the oldest in membership—but not in age, as the article read. "Granny" Wright really holds the title of oldest member—and is quite proud of it, too.—Mrs. Frank Kinney.

Baptist Crosscurrents

Let Them Leave

THIS LITTLE piece deals with a difficult and delicate problem but a plain word needs to be said on the subject.

In some of our churches there are members who are not really Baptists in belief. We would guess that most of them are saved individuals (but not all). Most of them share the Baptist interpretation of the Bible on some points, especially on the subject of salvation through repentance and faith in Christ. But after that they are a long way from Baptist doctrines in other matters.

Usually they have joined a Baptist church to please some relative who is a Baptist. Sometimes they have joined because it was the neaerst church and therefore convenient. Occasionally they may have joined in order to meet the right people for social or business purposes.

The church has a responsibility to these people. They deserve to hear our Baptist doctrines plainly preached from the pulpit and clearly taught in Sunday school and special study classes. Incidentally, some of our Baptist pastors might be greatly surprised to hear some of the things which are being taught in some of their Sunday school classes on Sunday morning if they were to listen.

Often these people gladly come to accept the truth as held by Baptists when they are given an opportunity to hear it and a little time to grow in the faith. That is good. And it is not with them that this piece is concerned.

Unfortunately some members of Baptist churches when they have learned the Baptist position on a subject stubbornly refuse to accept it. They prefer a doctrine or doctrines which they have brought with them from some other denomination or which they have acquired somewhere along the way.

But that is not all. Sometimes they become zealous proponents of these false beliefs right in our Baptist churches. They contend earnestly for their misunderstandings and misinterpretations of the Scriptures and try to win other members of the church to their heretical views.

It is with them that we are concerned here.

Especially is this true of those who have come out of a Holiness background. They sometimes insist that "divine healing" does come by the laying on of hands of certain persons. They see "speaking in tongues" as an integral part of a genuine spiritual experience. They long for—and even profess to have received—a "second blessing" by which they have attained to "sinless perfection." People who sincerely and unalterably hold such beliefs properly belong in an Assembly of God, Pentecostal, Holiness or some similar church.

Others refuse to accept the Bible teaching on the security of the believer and cling to the idea of "falling from grace." They fear for their own future and raise questions in the minds of others about their salvation. Sometimes they believe that immersion is only one form of baptism and all are acceptable. We suppose that the proper place for such people is in a Methodist church.

Others deny the inspiration and infallibility of the Word of God. They doubt the virgin birth of Christ. They believe his resurrection was an hallucination in the minds of the early disciples. They explain the Biblical miracles on a naturalistic basis. We are not sure just where they belong, but it is not in a Baptist church.

And there are others—but not space to name them all.

These people deny the plain teachings of the Bible and the truths for which our Baptist forefathers died. Moreover, they seek to win others to their distorted views.

seek to win others to their distorted views.

Each of them should be talked to individually and in loving concern by the pastor. Each should be given an opportunity to change.

Then, if they will not accept Baptist beliefs, they are in honor bound to withdraw from our Baptist churches and join other denominations. This will be best for everyone. It should not be necessary for the church to have to ask them to leave.

-The Baptist Messenger (Okla.)

Tyronza's 1st Church Has Dedication Service

DEDICATION SERVICES were held for the 1st Church, Tyronza, Jan. 19.

The original church was built and dedicated in 1927, but in 1948 the auditorium was lengthened and a $125,000 educational plant was added. This debt has been retired, the complete church redecorated, and the auditorium airconditioned.

To finish paying this indebtedness, the congregation has raised $17,900 over and above the budget in the last three years and has given 27 per cent of the budget through the Cooperative Program. One of the members divided $12,000 for different causes. He gave $6,000 to foreign missions out of that amount.

Four former pastors returned to assist Earl C. Edwards, the present pastor, with the dedication services. They were T. R. Hammons, Forrest City: Russell J. Clubb, Millington, Tenn.; Boyd Eldridge, West Memphis; William M. Pratt, El Dorado.

A Story of Courage Despite . . . Th

Closed Doors In Madrid

By ARNOLD T. OHRN

"ENTER INTO His gates with thanksgiving"—that is the Scriptural quotation printed on the wall above a doorway inside the building at Calle Madre de Dios 41 ("Mother-of-God Street").

The door leads into a small chapel, where the 40 or so members of the 2nd Baptist Church of Madrid once used to worship.

In fact, use of the building was "authorized" by the governor as far back as June 22, 1949, through the granting of a permit to hold "private Evangelical worship services."

The Doors Are Sealed

But on July 17, 1954, the Spanish police came and placed government seals on the double doors, thus mocking the inscription over them with a virtual DO NOT ENTER.

What was the reason? The police simply told Pastor Jose Beltran that they had orders to do so because the church had engaged, they said, in open proselytizing.

And this remark by a policeman is all the "explanation" the church, its former pastor, and its present pastor have ever been able to get. Pastor Beltran attempted to see the police and later the governor of Madrid about the closing of the chapel, but was refused in-terviews in both cases. The church has sent four "petitions" to the police, two to the governor of Madrid, and two to Generalissimo Franco, Spanish Chief of State. But every petition or inquiry remains unanswered. No word of explanation has throughout these years been vouchsafed the patient little church. The church did not even receive any notification ordering the chapel closed, nor have they been given a copy of the orders under which the police took action. Nor has any member of the church actually been charged with proselytizing.

During these last three years vandals have smashed the windows and destroyed furniture. But the worst hardship for the church has been the necessity of meeting in another part of the city, at a considerable distance. Transportation costs more than many of them can afford.

Services Start Again

The next chapter in this story began in October 1957. Paper seals glued to wooden doors do not last forever. Moisture did its work. Deterioration set in, and one day the last bits dropped off. Why not enter the chapel again? The original permit had never been revoked. No injunction had ever been sent them forbidding them to enter. If they entered they would not be violating any government seals or any law. Nobody, high or low, ever bothered to answer their petitions.

Perhaps the authorities no longer cared about the whole matter? Why not begin services again? And so they did.

The Closed Door

Three services had been held when, on October 17, 1957, the police returned and sealed the doors once more. The present pastor, Jose Nunez, was taken to police headquarters, subjected to interfogation, and later released. It seems that legal action against him is now pending, supposedly on the charge of having broken government seals.

So now the door is closed. Or is it? The membership has grown from 42 to 53 during these distressing three years. During the last five years 16 people have been baptized. "Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it," were the words of our Lord to another church in times of persecution. The 2nd Baptist Church of Madrid believes they have real meaning in 1958.—The Baptist World.

Four Cities Qualified For '61 Convention

NASHVILLE (BP) — Four cities which have invited the 1961 session of the Southern Baptist Convention are qualified to accommodate it, according to a report to the Southern Baptist Executive Committee.

The cities are Dallas, Detroit, Los Angeles, and St. Louis. Los Angeles is qualified only on condition that a sports arena with a 16,000-seat capacity is completed in time.

Several factors enter into qualifications. They include adequate hotel space to accommodate about 10,000 to 12,000 persons coming from out-of-town points. The auditorium must have enough seats for attendance which averages 12,500 to 15,000 and the auditorium must be close to hotels at which Conventioners are staying.

Of the four qualified sites, only one has been the site of a Convention session in recent years — St. Louis in 1954. The Convention met once in Dallas, in 1894. It has never met in Detroit or Los Angeles. Its only meeting in the Far West was in San Francisco in 1951.

Detroit recently became a potential Convention site with the organization of the Michigan Baptist Convention with offices in that city.

Convention sites through 1960 have been picked — Houston in '58, Louisville in '59, and Miami Beach in '60.

The Convention session at Houston will decide on the site of the 1961 meeting. It does not necessarily have to select one of the four cities mentioned.

February—Surprise Package!

By THELMA C. CARTER

By THELMA C. CARTER

FEBRUARY IS a surprise-package month. One day you may awaken to a world of lacy ice crystals on trees, shrubs, and weeds, the next to a blizzard and screeching winds.

Sometimes February is a fairyland with trees like giant glistening chandeliers of ice. Then, as if a fairy had waved a magic wand, there comes the invasion of the sun followed by the click and crash of the ice-crystal world.

In some parts of our continent, February covers the fields and mountains with snow and dresses the trees in soft snowdrifts. God's great works are to be seen in many forms and designs in this particular month. "For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth" (Job 37:6).

February, the second month of the year and the last month of the winter season, is a continuously changing month. It is the shortest month, with only twenty-eight days—except when leap year gives it twenty-nine.

If you have a chance to walk in the woods during the last month of winter and come upon some animals or birds

A Gift for a Shut-in

By CAMILLA WALCH WILSON

DO YOU remember how pleased you were when your friends sent you cards or gifts while you were ill? Here is a suggestion you might like to carry out the next time one of your friends is in the hospital or ill at home.

Copy the big apple with the old-fashioned saying, "An apple a day keeps the doctor away." Use rather stiff paper. After you finish the picture, cut it up like a puzzle and place the pieces in a small envelope.

Shop for a large red apple. Wash the apple and polish it. Wrap the apple in red cellophane and tie up the four corners with red ribbon.

Write a little note to your friend to put into the envelope with the puzzle. Tell him to work the puzzle and follow its advice. Fasten the envelope, with the note and the puzzle inside, to the ribbon tied around the cellophane.

This will be a different gift that your

seeking food, you'll see how the magical hand of nature has changed the colors of the natural world.

The bright colors of some birds have become drab. The northern brown weasel becomes white ermine. Snowshoe rabbits, that are brown and gray in summer, become almost white when snow comes. Even fox squirrels turn from red to gray.

You can sense the impatience of winter's final month. It is as if she were listening and waiting for the whisper of bird song and tender green.

The Teaching Ministry of the Church

By DR. J. F. QUEEN

(Southern Baptist College)

February 9
Acts 8:26-35; I Tim. 4:6-16;
II Tim. 2:1-2

LAST SUNDAY our lesson was about the privileges of church members. Today we are to learn about a spirit filled deacon on a soul-winning journey with ability to teach. Then we will observe the record of a great teacher teaching a young preacher how to preach and to teach. The Word of God inspired by the Holy Spirit must be the young preacher's

It was about five years after the crucifixion of Christ that Philip, one of the seven deacons chosen as recorded in Acts 6, started on a journey of soul-winning. He first went into the chief city of Samaria and had a great revival—"And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake." Then the angel of the Lord directed him, not to a greater situation with more people to hear him, but into a desert.

There he found one man only, riding in a chariot, who held a high position under Candace, the queen of the Ethiopians. The man had been to Jerusalem to worship which indicates that he was reared in a Jewish colony and was a Jew. He was reading Isa. 53. With haste as directed by the Holy Spirit, Philip ran to him. He sat in the seat of the chariot with the Ethiopian who was a eunuch and asked him if he understood the scripture he was reading. He said he didn't but needed some one to teach him.

The passage of scripture the eunuch was reading was familiar to Philip. Verses 32 to 35 had too much in them for the stranger to the grace of God to understand. Philip began with these verses to teach a lost enquiring man about Jesus. Five years before this occasion, Jesus was crucified on the cross; this story or prophesy was the fulfillment of it. No doubt he taught that the blood of Christ cleanses from all sin, that He paid a debt that the sinner could not pay, that He saw the travail of His soul and was satisfied. No doubt Philip taught him the Great Commission—make disciples, baptizing them-for when they came to a place suitable for the ordinance Philip baptized him "and he went on his way rejoicing."

In I Tim. 4:6-16 Paul taught Timothy to teach people to turn from superstition to the truth as found in the Christian religion. He seemed to be afraid that Timothy might think too much on the "godless and silly myths" and fail to apply himself to the training of his mind in godliness.

Superstition has no present nor eternal values but Christianity "holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come." Paul was afraid that Timothy's youth might be a hindrance especially if he did not stay close to the Book. Older men who knew the Old Testament and had the Judaizers' interpretation might give Timothy much trouble. But Paul believed that he could overcome their opposition if he gave time to study, preaching, and teaching. Paul was afraid that Timothy did not have the right value placed on the gift he had received in his ordination.

Paul did not think it was enough just to study, preach, and teach, but he must practice what he preaches and teaches. He said, "Practice these duties, devote yourself to them, so that all may see your progress." By being well prepared for preaching and teaching he would save others from error as well as himself.

Alexander Whyte commenting on these verses said. "Take heed to thy doctrine indeed, but, first and last, take most heed to thyself. Fix thy very best and thy very closest attention on thyself. This is thy main duty as a pastor. Do not set thyself forward as a pattern to thy people. Only, make thyself a perfect pattern to them. For that minister who constantly and increasingly takes heed to himself in his walk and conversation; in preaching better and better every returning Sabbath; in discharging all the endless duties of his pastorate in season and out of season; in holding his peace in controversy; and in a life of secret faith and secret prayer; God Himself will see to it that such an apostolic minister will be imitated and celebrated both as a pattern minister and a pattern man; both before his people and before all his fellow-ministers."

After Paul was placed in the Roman prison the second time he wrote II Timothy. He was deeply concerned, still, about Timothy just as he was when he wrote his first letter. He said, "Now, my son, be strong in the grace of Christ Jesus, and as for the instructions I gave you in presence of many witnesses, transmit them to trustworthy men, that they may be competent to teach others" (Moffatt). He gave the same admonition as to being strong as God gave Joshua three times, Moses once, and the children of Israel once—"be strong and of a good courage." Timothy must teach and train others to carry on after he has laid the foundation of Christianity.

The following points may be drawn from today's lesson:

- (1.) Laymen can be and should be soul-winners. The gospel was spread abroad when persecution came to the church of Jerusalem. Men and women, not the apostles, preached and taught the story of redemption throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria.
- (2.) God does not always lead soulwinners to conspicuous places. The desert could not offer a population of many people for a business man who was well trained for soul-winning. But the Holy Spirit said go, and he went. He taught a man the plan of salvation and we are told the Coptic churches of Africa trace their history back to Philip and the eunuch.
- (3.) The word of God in the hands of a trained and educated soul-winner is the chief need in every missionary enterprise. This does not mean that one must have a college degree but he should be able to know God's message according to God's word.
- (4.) A teacher should not underestimate his gift to teach, neither should he overestimate it. Some have the gift to teach children, some young people, and some adults. Happy is the person who finds his gift and its proper size. The Greek philosopher who said "Know thyself" should be the desire of every teacher of God's word.
- (5.) Last but not least of the points of interest is right living. It is very essential in making teaching effective. The teacher's preparation, prayer life, and daily walk, must be in line with his teaching if he expects those who hear him to believe him.
