WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN
COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

This honor society has developed into an integral part of college and business life as an incentive for students to get the best results from their college experience, as a means of compensation to students for what they have already achieved, as a standard of measurement for students comparable to other recognized scholastic and service organizations, and as a recommendation of successful students to the business world. These students were selected on basis of the following characteristics of character, leadership, scholarship, and potentialities of future usefulness to society.

DEWEY STARK, an outstanding student on the campus for his versatile participation in campus activities, is a senior from Mountain Home. Outstanding member of the SAS, the BSU, Ouachita Players, Alpha Psi Omega and the varsity football team.

ROWLAND REED, now serving as assistant business manager of Ouachita for this year, is a senior from Pine Bluff. He is the president of the IRC and History Honor Society and a member of the Machine and Ledger Club.

EMIL WILLIAMS, senior from Searcy, holds the enviable position as president of the student body. Of the many responsible positions that he has held are the editor of Ouachita Signal both sophomore and junior years, president of the Ouachita Players, serves on the BSU Council, member of the Alpha Psi Omega and Beta Beta Clubs.

Head of the Girls' Student Government for this year is VELDA POGUE, senior from Fort Smith. She, also, is a member of both the Players and the Alpha Psi and has served in various offices for the Life Service Band, BSU Council, and the IRC.

CLARICE BROWN, senior from Hope, has been outstanding in all phases of campus life. She served as class officer and cheerleader for her first two years and has held offices of the clubs in which she is a member—Ouachita Players, EEE, BSU, Rel Ed and the student senate.

Swift-footed center on the Tiger team is JIGGS RAMSEY, junior from Bauxite. Jiggs is the only junior to receive the honor of Who's Who for the junior year. He is the president of his class which has sponsored many of the campus activities for this year. Jiggs, say many of his fellow students, is one of the friendliest and best liked boys on the campus. Jiggs holds offices in the "O" Association and the SAS.

Senior class prexy, PETE CHURCH from El Dorado, is outstanding in the religious activities on our campus. For two years he served as treasurer of the BSU and the Ministerial Association for one year. He now holds the office of vice-president of the BSU.

An outstanding debater, JOHNNY McCLANAHAN, senior from North Little Rock, was elected to the national debating fraternity, Pi Kappa Delta. Also outstanding in his religious work, Johnny was one of the representatives from Arkansas to work in Hawaii last summer in the mission field. Johnny served as state BSU president and Ridgecrest representative from Arkansas. He has held offices in both clubs and classes.

JIM ED CRITTENDEN, senior from Arkadelphia, started his college career as the president of the incoming freshman class. His interest in and ambition has helped Jim Ed to serve in many capacities in the journalistic field, sports editor and business manager of the Ouachita Signal for three years, official sports writer for the Ouachita News Bureau, sports editor of the Ouachitonian for two years. Jim Ed has been a member of various campus clubs, member of the book store staff and the SAS.
