Dear Friend,

Twenty-five years ago, within a couple of weeks after I joined the Ouachita staff as the director of student activities, Holly Gresham (a student) and Carol Roper (the director of the Ouachita Student Foundation) visited with me about a new campus program that they intended to call Tiger Tunes. They attempted to describe the program to me: campus organizations would compete through a few short musical skits, in which they would be judged in the categories of choreography, costume, music, and theme and lyrics. I can't recall my exact reaction to their idea, but I hope that I managed to feign interest. I remember, however, that it seemed to me that it would be difficult to get anyone to pay good money to attend such a program.

welcome to ... Tiger Tunes ... 2003

Okay, so my predictions aren't always accurate. As you sit in the Jones Performing Arts Center, you are surrounded tonight by hundreds of Tiger Tunes enthusiasts. The program has become a huge success, to the extent that I receive dozens of complaints each fall from alumni, students, and other friends about the lack of availability of tickets. As one of my predecessors, Dan Grant (who was president when Tiger Tunes first took the stage of Mitchell Hall) used to say, "That's a nice problem to have."

Congratulations to the thousands of young men and women who have made Tiger Tunes a hit throughout these past 25 years, and best wishes to the cast and crew for this silver anniversary edition of what is now a Ouachita classic.

Now, sit back and enjoy the show (and be glad that you were lucky enough to get a ticket).

Sincerely,

Andrew Westmoreland

The Ouachita Student Foundation proudly brings you the Silver Anniversary of Tiger Tunes! OSF is committed to serving students through this annual production with one main goal in mind—to raise money for students through a process that is fun for everyone involved.

..... sponsored by OSF .....

Proceeds will benefit rising juniors and seniors through a scholarship program, allowing them to continue their Ouachita education. It is one of many ways in which OSF fulfills its motto and encompasses “students helping students.” We thank you for helping us meet our goal and hope you enjoy the show!
