PRESIDENT'S CORNER

On being a 'reunion-holic'

By Jamie Dale
FSA President

I like reunions. It doesn't matter what kind—family reunions, class reunions, reunion of friends. I'll not only go to mine, but I'll attend yours, too, if you will ask me.

For the past several years, I have been on campus at Homecoming. There are usually several reunion groups there and it is a good time for everyone. However, I have heard people express regret that more of their former classmates had not returned. We tend to assume that since we are going back, everyone else is going also. This, unfortunately, is not always true.

The class of '53 has several "reunion-holics" as members. As soon as we have had one get-together, we start thinking about the next one. We have had three very successful reunions, and I believe there is a system that works. May I share with you what we have learned?

First, as soon as the notice of your reunion year appears in the bulletin (or before), then get to work. Without a coordinator, it is difficult to generate the enthusiasm that is necessary. So if you feel inclined, then volunteer. Or, you might suggest someone to do it. (I didn't volunteer; a nice friend did that favor for me!)

proceed and will direct you. The office will do all of the typing and mail-outs for you.

The third and most important step is the first letter that goes out to the class members. This should be written personally by the coordinator and should mention the date and the plans for the weekend. A committee of class members in your area can help you work out details. A card should be included with the coordinator's name, address, and telephone number on it. Each person should return this card with a statement of his plans. After most of the cards have been returned, then a second personal letter should be mailed. This will contain a list of those who plan to attend, along with more details on the weekend.

At this point, it will begin to get exciting. The phone will ring at the oddest times. People who had not planned to attend will suddenly decide to come when they realize that others are making the effort.

The fourth step depends on the individual class members. If there is someone you want to see, then call or write them and encourage them to come. Remember, enthusiasm generates enthusiasm.

We will return for our 30th in 1983. I can hardly wait!

WIMPY AT WORK—Although he retired several years ago from Ouachita's maintenance staff, W. A. "Wimpy" Hendricks still loves to cut a mighty swath with a bulldozer, such as preparing the area behind Daniel dormitory this spring for an expanded parking lot.

Dr. Thomas Turner (r.) with President Daniel R. Grant

Dr. Thomas Turner new academic vice president

Dr. Thomas J. Turner has been named vice president for academic affairs and Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences at Ouachita, effective August 1 to replace Dr. Carl Goodson, who is retiring.

Professor of physics, provost and chief academic officer at Stetson University, DeLand, FL., Turner is a Fellow of the American Physical Society and has served as a Visiting Professor of Physics and Astronomy at the University of North Carolina.

Before going to Stetson in 1978, Turner had taught at Clemson University, the University of New Hampshire and was chairman and professor of physics at Wake Forest University from 1956 to 1978.

He has served as secretary-treasurer of the Conference of Academic Deans of the Southern States in 1979, as vice president in 1980 and as president in 1981.

Turner is the author or co-author of more than 25 articles in professional physics journals and of "Good Science and Good Theology" in "Education of Christian Missions," published in 1981. He has also read invited papers on solid state physics in several international conferences in the United States, Japan, Germany, England and France.

He received the bachelor of science degree from the University of North Carolina in 1974, the master of science degree from Clemson in 1949, and the doctor of philosophy degree from the University of Virginia in 1951.

Married and the father of four children, he is a member of the DeLand Rotary Club and a deacon and Sunday School teacher at the First Baptist Church of DeLand.

Calling higher education "an exciting business," Turner said that being in a situation such as that at Ouachita "where you are encouraged to help a student become whole, is what Christian higher education is all about."

Turner said he believes the academic program at Ouachita should be "rigorous and demanding," but also marked by "caring and sharing" among the students, faculty and administrative staff.

Dr. Daniel R. Grant, OBU president, said Dr. Turner "brings with him remarkable credentials as a scholar in the fields of physics, and also a unique commitment to the critical value of Christian education. Ouachita is indeed fortunate to have a man of this dedication and stature to provide academic leadership in the years ahead."

Five retire after 90 years of service

Five of Ouachita's professors are retiring after investing 90 years of their lives in the lives of others.

Four of the professors have been conferred Emeriti Faculty status, which serves as recognition for 15 years in teaching capacity at OBU. The status has to be approved by the president of the University and the Board of Trustees and the Emeriti Faculty are: Dr. Dewey Chapel, professor of education and dean of graduate studies; Kathryn Jones, associate professor of mathematics; Dr. Carl Goodson, vice president for academic affairs and professor in religion; and Dr. Maurice Hurley, professor of psychology. Dr. W. C. Mims will also be retiring after 10 years as associate professor of education at Ouachita.

After years of investing part of their lives, the faculty finds it a little hard to leave. But Dr. Goodson says that he resolves to turn his office over in the best shape possible and in the smoothest way he possibly can.

Emeriti faculty usually serve the university in some capacity after retirement and Goodson is not finished with Ouachita. "I plan to return to the religion department and contribute what I can to that," said Goodson. "I want to work with the continuing education program here at Ouachita, also."

Goodson says he is looking forward to seeing the continuing life and activities of OBU. "There are plenty of educational, cultural, and inspirational events offered by our school."

At the Academic Awards Banquet April 27 at OBU, it was announced that the Board of Trustees had renamed the honors program at Ouachita to be "The Carl Goodson Honors Program," in recognition of Dr. Goodson's outstanding service to the school.

Dr. Chapel says his most enjoyable times as a professor have been in the classroom with students. "The effort that I put out and the response I get out of my students is the most gratifying, therefore I like teaching better than I like administrative work," said Chapel.

"I am looking forward to all the things that I will get to do, but I also have a twinge of regret when I look back at all the things that Ouachita has given me all these years," he said.

"I taught at Henderson for a semester and used to come over to Ouachita because my wife worked here. When the chimes would ring, I would get this "tingly" feeling all over and wish I could work here. I still get that same tingly feeling whenever the chimes ring," said Chapel.

"But I always said that when I reached 65 and didn't want to retire that I wanted someone to get a baseball bat after me," he went on.

Chapel also said that seeing his former students out in the world and doing well gives him a sense of satisfaction. "That's what makes teaching worthwhile."

After 22 years at Ouachita, Dr. Hurley says retirement for him will be a change, but one he is looking forward to. He views it as "just another phase in my life."

"My experience at Ouachita has been good and I have enjoyed my years here," said Hurley. "I plan to continue in some type of church related activity or mission work when I leave."

When Dr. Mims retires, he plans to, as he puts it, "do a little accounting and tax work just to keep my mind active."

"I think there comes a time in everyone's life that they feel it is important for someone younger to step in and take over, especially in the field of education," said Mims.

"My advice to anyone going into the field of education is to stick with it. It is a good field and there will always be jobs and people to educate."

Trantham selected as top teacher

Dr. William E. Trantham, who is resigning his deanship of the School of Music to become a full-time professor of music at Ouachita, has been selected as the Outstanding College Teacher of 1982 by the Arkansas State Music Teachers Association at their annual convention held recently in Russellville.

Trantham was selected by a committee for outstanding contributions to ASMTA and service to music in Arkansas.

He has been a member of the faculty at Ouachita since 1960. A native of Elkland, Missouri, he received his undergraduate degrees at Southwest Missouri State College. Both his M.M. and Ph.D. degrees came from Northwestern University.

An accomplished pianist, organist, music director and teacher, Trantham has received numerous honors, including the 1981 Musician of the Year awarded by the Arkansas Federation of Music Clubs. He has contributed widely to secular and religious publications.

Fran Coulter earns Ed.D. degree

Mrs. Fran Coulter, assistant professor of history at Ouachita, received her doctorate of higher education degree (Ed.D.) in history from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville in May.

Her dissertation topic was "A Historical Survey of Purposes of General Education at Selected, Independent, Liberal Arts Institutions."

Dr. Coulter received her bachelor's degree from Ouachita in 1964, and a master's degree in education from the U. of A. in 1969. She joined the Ouachita faculty in 1972. Her husband, Dr. Ed Coulter, vice president for administration, says that this makes them a "paradox."

Arrington completes doctoral program

Mike Arrington, director of academic skills development and assistant professor of history at Ouachita, will receive his Ph.D. degree in history in August from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville.

His dissertation topic is entitled, "A History of Ouachita Baptist College: 1886-1933."

Arrington received his bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees from the UA-Fayetteville campus.

He is a 1963 graduate of Nashville, Arkansas High School.

Arrington has been a member of the Ouachita faculty since 1973.

Faculty 'retreats' to Petit Jean

Thirty-seven Ouachita faculty members participated in a weekend retreat sponsored by the OBU Faculty Development Committee on April 2-4 at Mather Lodge on Petit Jean Mountain.

Four faculty members read papers they had written on topics considered to be of general interest to the group. Following their presentations, two faculty members responded and led discussions on each paper.

The presenters included: Dr. Joe Jeffers, associate professor of chemistry and biology, on "Genetics"; Bob Sanders, part-time business instructor, on "Water and the Law"; Dr. Tom Bolton, assistant professor of music, on "Opera"; and Dr. Tom Auffenberg, associate professor of history, on "Irish Problems."

Dr. Tom Greer, assistant professor of philosophy, conducted a worship service for the group on Sunday before they returned to Arkadelphia.

Dr. Charles Wright named music dean, Dr. Trantham returns to full-time teaching

Dr. Charles W. Wright has been named Dean of the School of Music at Ouachita, effective September 1. Wright is replacing Dr. William Trantham who has chosen to return exclusively to teaching duties within the School of Music.

Professor of Music, Director of Choral Activities, and Chairman of the Department of Music Education at Ouachita, Wright has been a member of the faculty since 1964.

He is president of the American Choral Directors Association of Arkansas and a past president of the National Association of Teachers of Singing in Arkansas.

Wright has served on the staff of Inspiration Fine Arts Colony in Eureka Springs. He has also performed as baritone soloist with the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra and the Shreveport Symphony Orchestra.

He is active as an adjudicator for junior and senior high school choral festivals and frequently serves as choral clinician for both high school and church choir clinics.

Since 1964, Wright has conducted the Ouachita Choir of 200 voices and the Ouachita Singers. His choral groups have toured throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe.

He holds memberships in the Music Educators National Conference and is the sponsor of a student chapter. Wright is also a member of Sinfonia and Pi Kappa Lambda.

Dr. Wright

Wright received his bachelor of arts, bachelor of music education, and master of music education degrees from Ouachita, and the doctorate of education degree in music from North Texas State University in Denton.

He is married to the former Margaret Woodfield of Pine Bluff. Mrs. Wright is chairperson of the department of accounting at OBU, and is a certified public accountant. The Wrights have one daughter,

Wright received his high school diploma in 1955 from McGehee High School.

Dr. Daniel R. Grant said, "Ouachita is most fortunate to have a person of Dr. Charles Wright's ability and training to carry on the tradition of excellence in music, established by Dr. Bill Trantham. I believe we can look forward to continued progress in all fields of music under Dr. Wright's leadership."

Arkadelphia drive reaches $494,000, total campaign pledges exceed $3.1 million

Pledges totalling more than $467,000 have been raised in the Arkadelphia Area Campaign of Ouachita's Centennial Advancement Campaign. More than $3.1 million has been pledged toward the Advancement Campaign since its inception in January, 1981, according to Roger Harrod, vice president for development.

OBU launched the Arkadelphia Area Campaign with a kick-off dinner on February 25 and adopted a base goal of $500,000 for the campaign.

The leadership named for the campaign is Sherwin O. Williams, Chairman; Jimmy Hobgood, Initial Gifts Division Chairman; Austin Capps, Major Gifts Division Chairman; and Otis Turner as General Gifts Division Chairman.

"We will wind up the Arkadelphia campaign some time in July, because we have to turn our attention to the other area campaigns in the state," said Roger Harrod.

"More pledge cards are turned in everyday, so the total is really climbing. Yesterday we got a pledge card for $2,000," said Harrod. "I am very pleased with the response we have received, because it reflects a positive attitude toward Ouachita," he added.

The two campaigns already completed at Ouachita are the Trustee/Former Trustee Campaign which raised more than $1,152,000 in cash and pledges, and the Faculty/Staff Campaign which surpassed its goal of $125,000 and challenge goal of $150,000 by raising more than $172,000 which is included in the total for the Arkadelphia Area Campaign.

Other areas of the Centennial Campaign include a nationwide Alumni Campaign involving more than 11,000 people with a base goal of $750,000 and a challenge goal of $1,250,000, and a Development Council Campaign with a base goal of $800,000 and challenge goal of $1.5 million. Both campaigns are still in the process of enlisting leadership.

The money raised by each of the campaigns will be used to build the new $4 million Health, Physical Education and Recreation Complex now under construction at Ouachita, and to increase the University's endowment.

The Ouachita At 100 Campaign is designed to raise Ouachita to new levels of strength and excellence between 1981 and 1986; 1986 being the year Ouachita will complete 100 years of service as an institution of Christian higher education.

Divided into two phases, the Ouachita At 100's first phase will extend through HPER BUILDING—A construction crew works on Ouachita's $4 million health, physical education and recreation complex. The project is part of the school's Centennial Advancement Campaign leading up to the 100 anniversary of the institution in 1986. Pickens-Bond Company of Little Rock is the primary contractor of the new structure, which, when completed in the spring of 1983, will adjoin Rockefeller Field House.

1983 and will consist of two major objectives: (1) achieving a significant increase in the level of annual operating support by at least $500,000, and (2) financing the construction of two buildings—a health, physical education and recreation complex and a 2,000-seat auditorium. The estimated cost of each of the two buildings is $4 million.

During the Phase I period, the development staff at Ouachita will study and recommend to the Trustees the appropriate goals for the 1984-86 period. Further analysis of the list of needs required to attain Ouachita's Centennial Goals by 1986, estimated to cost $30 million, will be a part of this study in helping determine the Phase II goals.

Maj. A. D. Carnes new PMS, replaces Col. Doyle Herndon

Maj. Ambrus D. Carnes, associate professor of military science at Ouachita Baptist University, have been notified by the Department of the Army of his selection as Professor of Military Science at OBU, effective July 1. He replaces Col. Doyle Herndon who has been assigned to the Army War College in Pennsylvania.

Carnes joined the Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps cadre staff at OBU last July. Prior to coming to the school, he was assigned to the Army's Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Upon assuming command of the Ouachita program he takes charge of the oldest ROTC officer-producing program in Arkansas.

Carnes is a native of Brownwood, Texas. In 1965, he received his bachelor's degree from Howard Payne University in Brownwood and later a master's degree from the University of Alaska in Anchorage.

A materials/service management specialist with the Quartermaster Corps, Carnes entered the service in 1967 with time served in the National Guard and Officers' Candidate School. He completed two tours of duty in Vietnam, along with being stationed at Fort Lee, Virginia; Fort Hood, Texas; and Fort Richardson, Alaska.

He is the recipient of the Silver Star, Bronze Star, Air Medal, Combat Infantryman's Badge, and six Vietnam Service Medals, among others.

He and his wife, Judy, have two children; LeAnne and Greg.

TIGER TRAKS—The men's bike race was one of many competitive events featured during Tiger Traks '82 this spring. Started in 1975 by the Ouachita Student Foundation (OSF) for the purpose of raising scholarship money, the event this year generated seven $1,000 scholarships and twenty-eight $500 scholarships from contributions of businesses and individuals.

Elmer Goble takes leave for Olympics

Dr. Elmer Goble, director of the Baptist Student Union and director of religious activities and swimming coach at Ouachita, has been granted a two-year leave of absence from his post by the University to serve as the Southern Baptist Convention's Home Missions Board Coordinator at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles, Ca.

Goble and his wife, the former Jacque Sutley, will leave for Los Angeles in August to assume the post. He has been a member of the Ouachita staff since 1975.

He will coordinate the efforts of Southern Baptist Convention churches as they provide assistance to the athletes. Goble will work through the six area Baptist associations, the California Baptist State Missions Department, and the SBC Home Missions Board.

Jim Dann who joined the Ouachita staff in 1981, has been chosen the new swimming coach to replace Goble, effective September 1. Upon his return to the University in two years, Goble will resume his BSU and religious activities, but will leave the swimming coaching duties to Dann.

In addition to his coaching of the Tiger Sharks swimming team, Dann will serve as building activities coordinator for the new $4 million Health, Physical Education, and Recreation building now being constructed.

Professors awarded NEH grants

Two Ouachita faculty members have been awarded summer grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities in the amount of $2,500 each to attend seminars in their areas of interest.

Dr. Hal Bass, assistant professor of political science, will attend the University of California at Berkeley to participate in the seminar entitled "Evaluating in the American Political System."

Dr. Randy Smith, assistant professor of psychology, will participate in "The Radical Tradition in America" seminar which will be held at the City University of New York in New York City, NY.

Summer research grants announced

Two faculty members, Dr. Paul Hammond and Dr. Tom Aufferberg, have been selected to receive summer research grants in the amount of $2,500 each.

Hammond, assistant professor of music at OBU, will spend approximately one week in Philadelphia, Pa., researching the life of Jesse B. Aikin, Philadelphia tune-book compiler and inventor of the seven-shape system of notation. Since there is no known biographical information on Aikin's life, according to Hammond, he plans to search for data.

Aufferberg, associate professor of history, will spend six weeks in England and Ireland researching the Belfast riots of 1886. He will visit the British Museum in London and the Northern Ireland Public Records Office in Belfast, along with libraries in Dublin, to determine any parallels between the 1886 riots and the current Protestant and Catholic riots occurring in Northern Ireland.

In honor of Dr. W. O. Vaught

Immanuel Baptist Church pledges $300,000 for Bible chair

A pledge of $300,000 has been made to Ouachita in the form of an endowed chair in religion by Immanuel Baptist Church of Little Rock. The chair will be known as the W. O. Vaught Chair of Bible in honor of the church's pastor, Dr. W. O. Vaught.

In conjunction with Dr. Vaught's 37th anniversary as Immanuel's pastor, a special presentation of the endowment was made to Dr. Daniel R. Grant, president of OBU, during the regular church services April 18.

"The significance of this gift is that it was totally unsolicited by OBU," said Roger Harrod, vice president for development at Ouachita. "It really shows how the church views our institution."

Immanuel Baptist Church has a membership of approximately 4,000 people and an annual budget of $1.8 million. It is the state's largest Southern Baptist Convention congregation.

The donation to Ouachita was made through individual gifts and will be part of the Centennial Advancement Program at the school, which is designed to raise Ouachita to new levels of strength and excellence between 1981 and 1986; 1986 being the year Ouachita will complete 100 years of service as an institution of Christian higher education.

One of the goals of Ouachita's Centennial Advancement Program is the establishment of 20 endowed chairs by 1986. Endowed chairs have come to be unique means of assuring permanent support for an important area of study at a university, while giving permanent recognition for the name of some person whom the donors seek to honor for outstanding achievements.

The minimum requirement for an endowed chair at Ouachita is $300,000. A "fully endowed chair"—one that not only pays the salary of the professor who holds the appointment to the chair, but that provides additional income for such related expenses as secretarial support, travel expenses and professional development opportunities, requires $500,000.

Other gifts from within Immanuel's church membership are expected to bring in an additional $200,000 for Ouachita, which will fully endow the chair, according to Bob Gladden, chairman of deacons at Immanuel.

The Dr. W. O. Vaught Endowed Chair of Bible will accomplish four objectives: (1) It will provide a way to honor Dr. W. O. Vaught, (2) provide the assurance of permanent financial support for the teaching of the Bible at Ouachita, not just for a few years, but for decades and centuries as the endowment continues to provide income, (3) provide financial support for the entire faculty, as it relieves the budgetary requirement for the support of the one faculty member who holds the endowed chair, and (4) provide an effective means of helping young people in Arkansas to receive a Christian education by strengthening OBU.

Tigers win all-sports trophy

The 1981-82 Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference All Sports trophy is presented to President Daniel R. Grant (l.) and to Athletic Director Bill Vining, Sr. (r.) by AIC Commissioner Harry Hall during the Athletic Banquet May 4. Ouachita, which captured the honor by edging out Harding University by one point in the final standings, has won the trophy four of the past five years. The award is based on results of eight AIC sporting events. Although the Tiger athletes did not win a single title, the overall strength of the Ouachita athletic program was evident, according to Vining.

TIGER SHARK—Blair Thomas, a junior, gasps for air after a sprint in a Ouachita swim meet. He has a double major in pastoral ministry and physical education, and is the nephew of Mrs. Ruth Ann Wade, Home Economics instructor.

BENGAL NETTER—Bernardo Fernandez, a senior psychology-sociology major from Mexico City, has been a member of the tennis team throughout his Ouachita career.

Kolb selected as new registrar

Mike Kolb, 36, has been named as the new registrar and director of admissions at Ouachita. He replaces Frank Taylor, who resigned in June.

For the past four years, Kolb and his family have lived in Arkadelphia, where he was employed by Exxon Coal, Inc., as an independent land man in coal and lignite development in southwest Arkansas.

A graduate of Chapel Hill High School in Tyler, Tx., he received his B.B.A. degree in 1974 from Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Tx. After graduating from SFA he worked for about four years in a real estate management firm in Nacogdoches before moving to Arkadelphia.

Kolb and his wife, Sharon, are members of the First Baptist Church of Arkadelphia, where he serves as Director of the Adult I Sunday School Department. They are parents of three children: Clint, 6; Holly, 4; and Katie, four months old.

Three members of the Jim Brown family (above)—Jim, Joyce, and daughter Debra (l.)—received their master of science in education degrees from Ouachita May 8. Jim, who is president of Environmental Services Co., Inc., in Little Rock, and his family are among the most enthusiastic fans of the Tiger athletic program. Other family members present for the occasion were daughter Sherrie Brown Sharp and her husband, Paul, both Ouachitonians who live in Conway; and the Brown's youngest son, David.

Three honored during 96th Commencement

Honorary degrees were presented during spring commencement to Rev. Ernest E. Mosley of Springfield, IL, executive director of the Illinois Baptist State Association, Doctor of Divinity; and to Hugh R. Wilbourn, Jr., of Little Rock, chairman emeritus and chairman of the executive committee of the board of directors of the Allied Telephone Company, Doctor of Law. The Distinguished Alumnus award was presented to Dr. Bernes Selph of Benton, pastor emeritus of the First Baptist Church of Benton and former president of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

Speakers for commencement were Randall O'Brien, instructor in religion, and Jay Shell of Clinton, a senior and vice president of internal affairs for the Student Senate, chosen by vote of the senior class.

Alumni campaign to be kicked off Nov. 13

A base goal of $750,000 and a challenge goal of $1,250,000 have been set for the national alumni phase of the Ouachita at 100 Advancement Campaign to begin November 13.

The kick-off luncheon on Saturday, Nov. 13, which will precede the homecoming game with Harding University, is expected to draw 500 former students, according to development officer Larry Bone, who said the alumni campaign will run through the spring of 1983. The drive is currently in the enlistment stage for class chairmen and class captains, he said.

Campaign objectives for the overall advancement program, which will end in 1986, Ouachita's 100th birthday, include a new health, physical education and recreation complex now under construction and a new auditorium, each at a cost of $4 million. A third prime objective will be to provide $500,000 in increased annual operating support, which will be accomplished by increased endowment or increased annual giving.

Projects to be funded by the increased support include endowed chairs, instructional equipment, materials and library acquisitions, scholarships for deserving students, other financial assistance for students and faculty together in joint education and service, and programs that strengthen Ouachita's role in developing staff and lay leadership for the local church and denomination.

One chair has already been endowed since the Advancement Campaign began, the Betty Burton Peck Chair of English. Three other chairs are in the process of being endowed: the W. O. Vaught Chair of Bible, the Clarence and Bennie Sue Anthony Chair of Bible and the Addie Mae Maddox Chair of Music.

11 major summer maintenance projects planned

In addition to the day to day maintenance and upkeep at Ouachita, the school's physical plant has undertaken several additional projects for the summer, totaling $225,000.

Bill Harkrider, maintenance director, and Dr. Ed Coulter, vice president for administration, have programmed 11 major projects for completion by the end of August with numerous smaller projects also on line.

The major projects penciled for completion are:

- Installation of a new heating system and renovation of plumbing in Cone-Bottoms women's dormitory.

- Redecoration of Berry Chapel which will include new pew cushions and repainting furniture and walls.

- Putting a pitched roof on Moses-Provine Science building which will include an observation deck.

- Recarpeting Flenniken Hall.

- Several projects in Birkett Williams Hall, which will include putting new ceiling tile in the entrance and kitchen area.

- Installing a new ceiling and redecorating the first and second floors of Terral-Moore Hall.

- Installation of kitchenettes in O.C. Bailey women's dormitory and Cone-Bottoms women's dormitory.

- Installation of curbs and gutters around the parking area of Blake Hall men's dormitory.

- Renovation of 23 Lancelot and Starlite Apartments.

- Rebuilding of Frances Crawford women's dormitory air conditioning system.

- Updating hot water equipment in Frances Crawford women's dormitory and Ernest Bailey men's dormitory.

Coulter said there will also be many other small projects and has hopes of being able to resurface the tennis courts before the summer is over.

He also mentioned that in his opinion he feels that the department is "doing an outstanding job, due to the fact, that the school is also taking care of large groups of visitors on campus, who require many special needs."

Workers spruce up Home Management House (L), install pitched roof on Moses-Provine.

Dr. Goodson commencement speaker, Dr. John Steely to receive honorary degree

Dr. Carl Goodson, retiring vice president for academic affairs and dean of the School of Arts and Sciences at Ouachita, will be guest speaker at OBU's summer commencement exercises Friday, August 6, at 10:30 a.m. in Mitchell Hall Auditorium.

During graduation exercises, Dr. John Edward Steely will receive an honorary doctorate of divinity degree. Steely is professor of historical theology at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, N.C.

Fifty-one students will receive their diplomas, including 21 bachelor's degrees and 30 master's degrees.

A military officers commissioning ceremony will be at 9 a.m. in the Formal Lounge of Evans Student Center. Three U.S. Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps cadets will receive their second lieutenant bars from Major A. D. Carnes, professor of military science.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Grant will host an informal coffee for the graduates and their families between 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. on the bridge of Evans Student Center.

A native of Almyra, Steely graduated magna cum laude from Ouachita in 1944 and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky., in 1955. He is a member of the American Society of Church History, the Society of Biblical Literature, North American Patristic Society, Association of Baptist Professors of Religion, and the Southern Baptist Historical Society.

He has served churches in Arkansas and Illinois and was dean of administration and head of the department of Bible and Religious Education at Southern Baptist College in Walnut Ridge before going to Southeastern in 1963.

Steely is author of several book chapters and articles and co-authored the book "The Baptist Way of Life" with Brooks Hays.

Frances Scott dies, taught music at OBU

Mrs. Frances Cooper Scott, assistant professor of music at Ouachita, and widow of David B. Scott, former associate professor of music, died July 6, 1982 in a Little Rock hospital.

Mrs. Scott, who is survived by her son Shannon and daughter Sara, taught at Ouachita since 1939. Memorials may be made to the OBU music scholarship fund.

CLASS NOTES

What can we say except we're sorry, and at the same time very pleased to confess that a bereavement we reported was grossly exaggerated! Somehow word came to us that Mrs. Edward S. Couch (Elizabeth Parker) of Texarkana was deceased, which we dutifully reported. We are delighted to correct that and tell you that she is very much alive, still teaching some piano pupils and a ladies' Sunday School class at Beech St. Church. She has also served as a volunteer at Wadley Hospital. Please forgive! And thanks for your understanding.

Mrs. J. S. Gifford (Mary Ella Robbins), a charter member of the Gold Tiger Club in May, 1979, marked her 60th class anniversary by sending a contribution to Ouachita in honor of the event. Although she and her husband of 57 years were not able to attend this year's Gold Tiger dinner, they recalled the first one when she received her Gold Tiger pin and certificate. Her late brother, Wiley H. Robbins ('19) had shared with them in that event.

Mr. Robbins is retired military, and she is a former teacher. They have a son and a daughter.

Mrs. C. C. Petty (Lillian Estelle Towles) is a retired schoolteacher, living in Star City, Ar.

Bob Stover, '70, City Hall correspondent for the Arkansas Gazette newspaper uncovered a fact that would have been lost to Ouachita if he had not collected Big League chewing gum baseball cards. He's the one who discovered that Travis Jackson, the shortstop on the NY Giants in the 1920's-1930's, played ball at Ouachita College before starting his professional career. This past March, he and A. B. (Happy) Chandler were named by the Veterans Committee to the Hall of Fame.

Jackson, 78, and living in Waldo, Ar., broke into professional ball with the Little Rock Travelers before joining the Giants. Casey Stengel once called him "the finest bunter I ever saw." Burleigh Grimes, a fellow-Hall-of-Famer, also credited him with being "as good a shortstop as I ever saw if not the best!"

In 1960 he was inducted into the Arkansas Hall of Fame.

Rev. Harry A. and Elizabeth Huddleston Borah live appropriately in Youngstown, Az. where they continue active in the First Baptist Church of Sun City, the only one of its kind in the Southern Baptist Convention composed entirely of retired people except for the pastor and his wife.

RETIREMENT GIFT—Mrs. Ruby Beard accepts an engraved silver tray as a retirement gift from Dr. Daniel R. Grant. The presentation was made at a recent reception held in her honor in the Drawing Room of Flenniken Memorial Building. By August, she will have completed 27 years of service at Ouachita.

Bro. Borah, who is 80, is a retired Army chaplain from World War II and Korea, and a former missionary of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board. He has just retired from the associate pastorate of the Sun City Church on February 28. He's glad to report he's "among the living and doing well!"

Lewis and Louise Searcy Bennett live in Rison, Ar. where they are retired, he as a businessman and she, after 13 years as Cleveland County Director of Social Services. She stays active in the First Baptist Church and the Rison Garden Club. Her father, B. Y. Searcy, graduated from Ouachita in 1892.

Robert F. and Elizabeth Seale Peterson are in Eudora, Ar. where he has retired from farming and ginning and she from teaching English, serving as an elementary principal for 18 years, and high school counselor for nine years.

Early in their marriage they lived in six different states along the Mississippi River and Great Lakes in connection with his job with LaCrosse Dredging Co. During the war he was a CPO with a Navy Construction Battalion in New Guinea and the Philippines.

Now they devote their time to Lay Witness Missions, going as team members into many kinds of churches in many sections of the country. They are active in church and community, have a big garden, go fishing, and have traveled in the U.S., Canada, Hawaii and Europe.

Their daughter, Rogna ('69) is married to LTC Kenneth Hilton ('58). They are stationed in Houston, Tx. and have three sons.

This year's Gold Tiger Reunion outgrew the "den" in which it had been meeting, in the Birkett Williams Alumni Room, and moved to the banquet room in Evans Student Center. Numbers who attended in their own reunion year returned to welcome the Class of '32 members into their ranks. (See "The President's Letter" concerning happy reunionholics who find their way back to the campus when occasions present.)

Mrs. Harlow Sanders (Pauline Drake, '17) came with her daughter-in-law from Pine Bluff, Ar.; Frances Crawford ('18) of Arkadelphia, had as her guest former Home Economics faculty member, Mrs. Annette Hobgood of Crossett, Ar.; Mrs. C. B. Cooper (Hazel Rogers, '19, '20, '21), brought Miss Martha Greene, former bookstore manager. Both are from Arkadelphia. Mrs. J. G. Cothran (Mary Louise Riley, '20, '21), of Greenville, SC, who was visiting her brother, Dr. Warren Riley ('26) in El Dorado, Ar., was able to attend, thanks to the solicitous arranging of her grandson, Carl Ramsey, Jr., a graduating senior.

Nancy Cooper (f.s. '27) and R. A. "Brick" Lile ('27), both from Little Rock, Ar. attended the festivities, as did Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson (Elizabeth Seale, '28) from Eudora and Lemoyne Nuchols (f.s. '28) from Dumas.

John Malcolm Moore, of Arkadelphia, represented the Class of 1929, the first to be inducted into the Gold Tiger Club.

Dr. Charles Holt, of Shreveport, La., class president, led a lively contingent of the Class of 1930 who were inducted in 1980. Their number included: Mrs. Raymond Poulsen (Anne Humphreys), Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Weiss (Donnie Watts), from Dumas, Ar.; Mrs.

R. B. Watson (Margaret McCarroll) Mrs. John Luckie (Doris Elsberry, f.s. from Pine Bluff, Ar.; Collins and M. Ruth Perry, from Springdale, Ar.; Lonnie and Jessie O. Meachum of Plains, Ar.; Neva Bennett Talley-Mo with Judsonia High School classmate Clyde Whitt, and Elma Cobb, from the Rock; and Mr. and Mrs. Rus Woodell (Martha Clark), Evelyn Bow and Robert Thomasson, and Jett and Itha Virginia Stuart Black, all of Arkadelphia.

The 1931 group (excluding a spouse two attached to the '32 inductees) included J. T. Stocks of Smackover, Ar., Mrs. Mosley (Grace Millsapps) of Camden (faithful Elderhostel attendee); Irma per, Mrs. Philip Guyol (Hazel Sam and her guests, Mrs. Vernon Moore Shamburger ('33), all of Arkadelphia.

Col. Shelby L. and Donna Dem Gillette of Memphis, Tn., led the anniversary class of Gold Tiger inductees with enthusiasm and imagination. They brought several of their friends to join the weekend events: Bruce and Bill Kendall, Bill and Mary Petty, Rus Dodds, Mrs. Leona Troxell and Mrs. Liam D. Buchanan, widow of Col. W. Buchanan, ('29).

The out-of-staters included: Dr. Mar ('31) and Whitfield Cannon Vick, B. Rouge, La.; Mrs. W. J. (Dossie Flem Sedberry, Marshall, Tx.; Mrs. Charles Deevers (LaVerne Bell) from Clinton, with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Morris and Col. John R. and Jean Dale, Antonio, Tx.

The Arkansans included Miss Elva land of Little Rock, with her guests, Theo Holland Storey ('28), and Mrs. Holland Sansovich ('36) of North Little Rock. Mrs. Ben Bridges (Vivian St completed the Little Rock representation.

Mrs. John C. Meador (Frances Ben from Fordyce, had four grandchildren in Ouachita spouses graduating Commencement Day, and she enjoyed seeing to appear in a variety of activities in OCAP '82 slide presentation during Fr evening's program. Her guests were Herbert and Eloise Abernathy Ham (f.s. '34) from Little Rock.

T. Julian and Irene F. Wood of Cherokee Village, Hardy, Ar. expressed appreciation for their ties with Ouachita beginning with his father, Rev. C. Wood ('04), a Distinguished Alumnus.

Mr. and Mrs. Arle ('30) and Dor Figley Queen of Judsonia, Ar. had as guests their son Charles and his wife Alice Reaves Queen (both '62), from Arton, Tx.

Maxine Sevedge was accompanied by her sister, Dorothy ('33), both of McCas Ar.

The Arkadelphians included: H "Bill" ('30) and Elizabeth Daniel Mc lan, Mrs. Sarah Hardage York, and N Welch.

Dr. James and Virginia Tompkins Tull, parents of two children, are in V Forest, NC. where he is Emeritus Professor of Theology at Southeastern Baptist Seminary. He has just added a copy of most recent book, The Atoning God published by Mercer University Press, 1982, to the Ouachita authors' shelf in the Rile Library.

Mrs. W. Luther Steuart (Christine Stranburg), widowed in 1975, and mother of two children, lives in Hot Springs where she has retired from 32 years of elementary teaching. She holds a Life Membership in the PTA, and has been president of the Hot Springs Education Association, and Retired Teachers' Association.

She was named B&PW "Woman of the Year" in 1960, and "Christine Steuart Day" was observed in her honor in 1970. As a historian, she wrote "110 Years of Service," a family record of teaching in Garland County, for the Hot Springs Record, and compiled a history of Second Baptist Church where she serves as librarian.

In addition to belonging to city, state and national Retired Teachers' Associations, she is a member of the VFW Auxiliary and serves as a volunteer teacher with the Laubach Literacy Program. Sister Mamie Ruth Abernathy is a '52 graduate, and daughter Charlotte Bell graduated in '66.

Phil H. and Corinne Brashears Taylor are in Sparkman, Ar. where he is a gin owner and cattle buyer, and she has retired after 34 years of teaching high school social studies. She has been president of Dallas County Teachers' Association, and they are members of the United Methodist Church. Their daughter Caroline, Mrs. Gordon Merritt, teaches English and journalism in Corpus Christi.

Dr. Paul R. and Susie Ruth Little Aiken, parents of three children, are in Snellville, Ga. where he has pastored First Baptist Church and now is associate pastor of Rainbow Park Baptist Church, Decatur. He pastored Kirkwood Church, Atlanta, for 17½ years, was a member of the Texas Baptist Convention staff for three years, and has served as assistant to the President and Chaplain at Atlanta Baptist College for two years. Mercer University, Macon, Ga., has honored him with a D.D. degree.

He has served as a trustee of Ouachita, Atlanta Baptist College, Bishop College, Dallas, and Butler College, Tyler, Tx., as well as being chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Arkansas Baptist Children's Home. He has further been a member of the "Time, Place, Preacher Committee" of the Southern Baptist Convention, been on the Radio & Television Commission, and been a missionary with the Home Mission Board.

He has been president of the Atlanta Baptist Pastors' Conference and preached the Georgia Baptist Convention Annual Sermon in 1963.

Dewey (Blackie) and Christine Chaney (f.s.) Blackwood, parents of two sons, are in El Dorado, Ar. where he has retired as Safety Engineer with Lion Oil Co., and she is a saleslady. He is a deacon in Second Baptist Church, and is a member of the U.S. Army Retired Officers Association and American Safety Engineers Association.

LTC (Ret.) J. Walter and Mary Spear Brandon are in Orlando, Fl. where he has been a teacher-administrator, having served with the U.S. Army for 32 years, and completed 24 years in education as a biological science teacher at Oak Ridge High School, Orlando, in 1977. He is a deacon in First Baptist Church, a Rotarian, and a member of Phi Delta Kappa. The Brandons have two children.

Dr. David and LaMena Nichols Brown, parents of four sons, are in Montgomery, Al. He is pastoring a small church and serving as Professor of Sociology and Religion at Alabama State University. They enjoy good health and busy schedules, and recall they were somewhat pioneers when they attended Ouachita as a married couple.

In a recent letter to Dr. Daniel Grant, they recalled that his father, Dr. J. R. Grant, granted them their degrees in May, 1937. They enclosed a contribution in memory of Walter J. Nichols, her father, who attended Ouachita at the turn of the century, and took part in their graduation ceremony at Dr. Grant's request.

Mercer University-Atlanta (Ga.), is beginning construction of The Monroe F. Swilley, Jr. Library, named in honor of the first and only president of Atlanta Baptist College. When the college merged with Mercer University (Macon) in 1972, he became vice president of the university, a position he holds today.

Dr. Swilley and his wife, the former Martha Snuggs, parents of three children, live in Mableton, Ga. He has pastored in Birmingham, Al., First Baptist, Pine Bluff, Ar., and Second-Ponce de Leon Baptist Church, Atlanta, where he ministered for more than 23 years.

He has served as president of the Georgia Baptist Convention, vice president of the Foreign Mission Board, director of the Atlanta Traffic & Safety Council, member of the state Alcohol Study Commission and director of the Georgia Association for Pastoral Care. In 1969 he was named "Clergyman of the Year" by the Christian Council of Metropolitan Atlanta.

He is active in civic and church organizations.

Herman Hankins, Sr., who with his wife, the former Marjorie Meador ('39), lives in Arkadelphia, has gone and retired again. In 1975 he closed a 35 year career in the military as a Major General in the Army Reserve. Under his leadership, the 95th Division became known as the outstanding training division in the country. On February 28 of this year, he completed 20 years of service to the City of Arkadelphia which has included alderman, fire chief, city engineer, and most recently, City Manager. He has been succeeded in that position, incidentally, by Ouachitonian Ken Wasson ('74). The three Hankins children, Herman, Jr. (f.s. '54), and Jean Ellen, (f.s. '55), and Jimmy ('75), have all attended Ouachita.

After planning every minute of every day of his life, he claims, "I'm not planning anything. I'm going to do what I want to do." After 40 years of a successful marriage he observes, "Love is a part of it but you have to like each other, enjoy each other's company." Marjorie is his biggest fishing competitor. He calls her a pretty good fisherman. "Notice I didn't say fisherperson. She doesn't belong to E.R.A. She's got it unequal and that's the way she wants it. She thinks what's hers is hers and what's mine is hers too," he says with a grin.

Rev. I. Houston and Allen Wilson Lanier of Louisville, Ky., parents of four children, have retired from 19 years in the pastorate and 18 years in mission work. He has been Director of the Mountain Mission Program for 34 counties in Eastern Kentucky for the Kentucky Baptist Convention. He served on the Committee on Arrangements for the Southern Baptist Convention, meeting in Chicago in 1950, and has been a member of the executive board of the Illinois, Indiana and Kansas Baptist Conventions. He was the first area missionary for Indiana with the Home Mission Board, has been active in local service clubs, and has taught seminary extension courses. Dr. Sammie Crawford Greer, professor of English and past department head at Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, is going to Converse College, Spartanburg, SC, this fall as Dean. Her department chairman, in a letter to all English majors described the loss in an interview as being "of our master teacher: and of our good friend and colleague. She leaves a very difficult space to fill, as it is so much more than the simple position of faculty member that she is for us here. She leaves a spiritual space in the lives of those she's worked with behind her. The commitment and dedication she's brought to her duties at Wesleyan have been a true inspiration to us all."

A senior English major adds, "I feel genuinely sorry for all those who won't have the opportunity, as I have had, of studying literature with Dr. Greer."

The Tom Urey family made George Dolan's column in the Forth Worth paper when their pet ferret, Woozel, got caught in the dishwasher. Dr. Tom describes her as independent as a cat, as affectionate and playful as a puppy and "an unrepentant, confirmed thief."

Daughter Carolyn brought the stray home from the nature center at Greer Island where she worked. She was named Woozel as a cross between a very small weasel and a very large worm.

During the holiday season Woozel found her way into the dishwasher between Mrs. Urey's trips in loading it. Five minutes after it was started, they heard a scream and immediately guessed it was Woozel going through the cycles. Just 10 to 12 inches long, she was completely lifeless, with glazed and whitish stare, when they got her out.

Dr. Urey kind of wrung her out and then pumped two or three little breaths into her muzzle, shaking her. She hacked a little, began to breathe, and within an hour was evidently going to make it. By the next night, she was back and into everything.

The article ends, "Dr. Urey had become, probably, the only member of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary faculty ever to give a ferret mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

It reminds one of the time Dr. Francis McBeth of the Ouachita music faculty referred to the book he was writing, "How to Administer Mouth-to-Mouth Resuscitation Without Becoming Emotionally Involved"

He is exploring the use of video taping in all aspects of ministry, is interested in singles, the new ecumenical campus ministry at Amarillo College and "Habitat for Humanity," a low-cost housing project.

Connie Bowie Limbird, living in Knoxville, Ar., has provided the most amazing account of crossing paths with fellow Tigers that has ever come our way:

"January 4 my mother and I unexpectedly met Randy Woodfield ('73, '75) part time music director at 47th or 49th St. Baptist NLR) at LR's Breckenridge Village. He was excited about touring with the Ark. Children's Opera Theater—or whatever the correct name is—this spring. The story is similar to Pinocchio and Randy is the toymaker. Dr. Wright will know the correct information.

January 30 at FBC-LR Chris Crosby Robinson ('71, '74) and SAI—Hot Springs Junior High music teacher) and I visited at a Handbell Workshop. Mrs. Lucy Cabe, one of our SAI patronesses formerly from Gurdon, was also there. Another SAI, Peggy Pearson ('74—secretary for the ABC Church Music Dept. and Randy's church pianist) was in charge of registration.

February 23 Lois Kirkpatrick ('73, '75) and SAI—junior high choral director for Pulaski County Schools) and David DeArmond ('77—senior high choral director in LR, maybe McClellan H.S.) were adjudicators for the Northwest Arkansas Choral Festival at Subiaco. They were busy that day so we only visited a few minutes. I was there to accompany the Hartman girls' ensemble. Lois was mourning the death of her 9 year old dog—besides that she looked terrific!!

I accidentally discovered the Ark. State Music Teachers Assoc. Convention at Ark. Tech, March 4, where Miss Queen, my piano teacher, was presiding officer. Very briefly (and much too short) I spoke with her, Dr. Trantham, Ouida and George Keck, and met Russell Hodges.

The next day, Friday, March 5, I went back to Tech for the Baptist Handbell Festival. Phil ('73) and Shirley Grant Hardin ('74) introduced me to their son, Tad. Phil is music director at FBC Paragould for my former Bentonville pastor, Winfred Bridges! That night I met Janine Reeves, one of Miss Queen's present students, before she performed for the ASMT banquet.

Peggy Pearson was also helping run the festival.

About 9:00 a.m. Sat., March 6, I ran into Gene Trantham, who came to the ASMT for the day. My freshman year he was just starting piano lessons (well, maybe it was his 2nd year) and he was only 6 or 7. He and Rachel would occasionally play for us in piano class. Now he's a sophomore and going for 2 music degrees. Today (3-13-82), he's singing at Disneyland with the Singing Men!

Anyway, after that I went to the bell festival and observed again. Sandy Matthews Wetzler ('73—3rd grade teacher at Lake Hamilton) spotted me in the audience. The previous weekend she had visited in LR with Kay Fudge Roberts ('72—lives in Searcy where Don has started his own physical therapy clinic—I think that's the correct type) and Ann Medford Hedrick ('73 from Brinkley). Sandy and Kathie White ('73 & SAI—senior high choral director in Hot Springs), were performing with a handbell choir from Central Baptist Church, Hot Springs. Kathie said she and Anne Coppenger ('72) had a terrific 3 weeks when Anne visited her in Scotland. Oops, back to the festival... Kathie had talked with Casey Kerr Starkey ('72) who was playing with a Jacksonville group. Also there was Lee Walker ('77) from FBC Star City. We didn't talk any though. Larry Grayson ('75) FBC Camden was on the program but didn't show up.

Beth Gladden Coulson ('75) was on Channel 4 news this past Monday representing a controversial client. They didn't tell her name but I saw her several times and it was definitely Beth.

Do you know if Gay Gladden Pappin ('73) has finished her doctorate degree? Do she and Joe still live in St. Louis? Phil didn't even know.

Those are the only Ouachitonians I've seen—pretty good for 3 months of surprises!"

Now about Connie herself. Her husband Bob is district fisheries biologist from Atkins to the Oklahoma border for counties on both sides of the Arkansas River. She taught music at Lamar for three years, and since has been taking work at Tech toward a second degree. She's tried computer science, taken some organ, and life-saving, as well as advising the SAI chapter. She directs the handbell choir at First United Methodist Church in Clarksville, and promises to strip and refinish her grandmother's dining room suite this summer after a five year wait.

Don and Shirley Egbert Henry (f.s.) are in Wichita, Ks., where he is a systems engineer with IBM Corp.

Kathy Vining, executive director of the Pulaski County Cancer Society, Vicky Vining Crawley, and present student, Cheri, not to mention their two other sisters, brother and dad, Don Vining, and the entire Bill Vining clan of Ouachita, are all mighty proud of Peggy Sue Caudle Vining (Mrs. Don), who has been named Arkansas' Mother of the Year by the Arkansas Democrat. Her tribute identifies her as "Wife to Don Vining for 34 years, she is also a poet (twice named Poet of the Year, she has served as literary chairman for the Arkansas State Festival of the Arts for 13 years), kindergarten teacher, composer, artist and tireless volunteer to some of the worthiest of causes. Mrs. Vining is a woman with a joy for living and an uncanny knack for getting things done. Her serenity and patience in the midst of an ever-present whirl of activity go in tandem like the eye of the hurricane."

Stephen Kyle and Lois Ann Tipton Cox ('75) are in San Jose, Costa Rica, in language school, he as a minister and she as a teacher, committed to foreign missions.

The calls, notes and other shocked inquiries we have received concerning the Ron Chandler and Kevin Wieser families since the March bulletin, attest to the warm regard in which both are held by their friends and to the way the paper is being read.

What happened is that birth notices came in from both of them after the alumni

Your Will and Ouachita

Are you puzzled about wills?

Maybe you've asked yourself these questions: can I prepare my own will? Can I use a form will? If I make a will now, will it ever have to be changed or up-dated? Are there any good personal and financial advantages to having a will? Is there a better way to support my favorite charities or institutions?

Good questions. And Ouachita Baptist University will be happy to give you some answers without any obligation or cost.

For more information about wills, please write Lloyd Cloud, Senior Development Officer, Ouachita Baptist University, Box 754, Arkadelphia, AR 71923, or call 246-4531, Extension 169.

Your Will and Ouachita

Every woman needs a will

Wills are not just for widows with large estates. They are for single women, young mothers, wives who own property jointly with their husbands, women who want to control the distribution of their property or estate after death, mothers with minor children, and women with a sense of mission and stewardship who want to help Ouachita Baptist University after death.

For confidential information about wills, and without obligation or cost, please write to Lloyd Cloud, Senior Development Officer, Ouachita Baptist University, Box 754, Arkadelphia, AR 71923, or call 246-4531, Extension 169.

OPRYLAND PERFORMERS—Carrie Sligh, '82 of Gurdon and David Rickard, a senior from Pine Bluff, have been selected from nationwide auditions to perform six days a week this summer at Opryland in Nashville, Tenn.

OUACHITA BIBLE LANDS TOUR

Sponsored by Former Students' Association

This year we are offering two options for our annual post-Christmas Bible Lands tour. Those who have already seen Egypt and Jordan may prefer to visit Athens, Corinth, and Delphi. Those who have already toured Greece may now choose ancient Petra in Jordan and the pyramids and other antiquities in Egypt. We shall all be together in Israel.

If the present conflict in the Middle East should continue, of course we shall cancel and return all monies. However, our experience has been that conditions are usually settled enough by our departure date that we enjoy very good tours. In fact, in the twenty-three years we have been going, we have only had to cancel twice. We are always made welcome by both Arabs and Jews.

ISRAEL, EGYPT, JORDAN—December 27-January 6. $1,745 from New York includes all meals and most other costs. Escorted by Dr. Cecil Sutley, Religion Department.

ISRAEL and GREECE— December 29-January 8. $1,875 from New York includes all meals and most other costs. Escorted by Dr. Gene Petty, Religion Department.
