My dearest Martha:

I cannot express the pleasure your coming brings to me, nor the regard I have for it in truth. The Spirit which you express has arisen ideas of seeing you, and their appearance has caused me no little pain, for it is our custom to see you every month or so frequently. That would I not wish. To see you at this moment, or I am counting the day, as they are on for the time to arrive, when you shall sit down in the chair or get on the ride, expect ourselves to make your stay more so comfortable as to keep you happy. Little Margaret's birthday was this 1st of May, she had a little party, the young ladies looked eny, danced the Laodice, Otho &c., they also played...
