COBBLESTONES

I sat upon the cobblestones

Worn thin by many feet,
And looked in silent amenity

Upon an empty street.

Discordant matters of the past
Stirred the gloomy air,
And voices in the cobblestones
Conversed in whispers there.

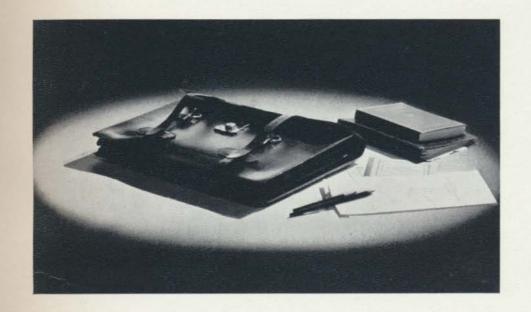

I leaned upon a dusty rock

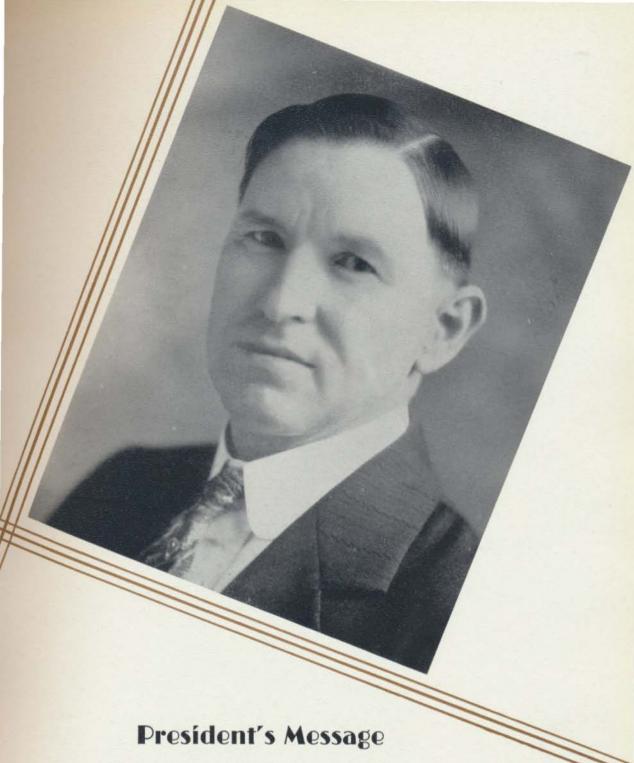

And from this obscure place
I saw upon the cobblestones

The history of a race.

DMINISTRATION

"Life is real, life is earnest." It is a kind of mile relay. You are not preparing for the race. You are now running. How well you can run today depends on what you did yesterday. How well you will run tomorrow depends on what you do today. You are due to run each quarter of the race. You have about finished the first lap. Yonder is your second self waiting to receive the baton to run the second lap. Farther in the future stands your third self waiting to run the third lap, and still farther stands your fourth self hoping that your third self will arrive on time with some reserve which will enable him to run well the last lap. Too many are falling out. Too few of us are training so as to run well the entire race. The race tomorrow will be won or lost today.

TO YOUTH

This I say to you.

Be arrogant! Be true!

True to April lust that sings

Through your reins. These sharp springs

Matter most Afteryears

Will be time enough for sleep.....

Carefulness.... and tears.

Now, while life is raw and new, Drink it clear, drink it deep! Let the moonlight's lunacy Tear away your cautions. Be Proud, and mad, and young, and free! Grasp a comet! Kick at stars Laughingly! Fight! Dare!

Arms are soft, breasts are white, Magic's in the April night— Never fear. Age will catch you, Slow you down, ere it dispatch you To your long and solemn quiet....

What will matter then the riot Of the lilacs in the wind? What will mean—then—the crush Of lips at hours when birds hush?

Purple, green, and flame will end In a calm, gray blend.
Only....graven in your soul After all the rest is gone
There will be the ecstasies....
Those alone....

—John V. A. Weaver.

THE WAGON OF CARE

The wagon of care rolls up the steep; Its wheels leave ruts in the sand, Slowly wending its way, we see it creep To the top of the hill where it stands-A silhouette on the gleaming road With its cargo of joy and care. It has come to the top with its precious load, Without mishap or despair. For the wagon of care rolls lightly along If with joy we share the load; It will lessen our troubles as we go on And make pleasant the tiresome road. We multiply our joys by sharing them; Our troubles divided should be. Oft times we find life's brightest gem 'Neath the wheels of adversity.

-May Laufenburg.

ATHLETICS

Coach W. I. Walton

Coach Walton has been with Ouachita as head coach for four years. In that time he has built one of the strongest athletic departments Ouachita has known since the time of Morley Jennings. Coach is known for his ability to develop men morally, physically, and mentally. He is loved by all who come in contact with him.

For the past two years he has had to labor under tiring circumstances. Not being able to play state teams, he was faced with the problem of out-of-state competition. In spite of handicape he produced teams that won a majority of their "big time" games. He has won Southwide recognition for his shrewdness, alertness, and stickability. Now that Ouachita will be able to play state teams again, Coach Walton is optimistically looking toward the future teams with hopes of many victories and few defeats.

Raymond Richards

CAPTAIN

"Rough House" Richards, a good name for a rough man. Rich was captain of the '37 Tigers and won a place in the heart of all fans as one of the best tackles in the history of the school. He could always be depended on to deliver in the pinch. In addition to his prowness on the gridiron, Raymond was voted the most popular boy in school in the annual Who's Who contest.

The man who fills Richards' place next year will have a hard time doing it. Rich played with a cool head at all times, and for every stone wall defense, he was the foundation. May other tackles follow in the path that he has made and in the end find the reward that is due them, that of a place on the roll of Ouachita stars.

Joe Arnette

SUB-CAPTAIN

Not until the middle of the '36 season did the fans of Arkansas realize that Ouachita possessed one of the fastest, most deceptive, and best pass receiving ends in the state. His power as a blocker, strong defense man, and alert leader has made for him a place in Ouachita and Arkansas football. Joe was voted the best athlete in school in the annual Who's Who.

Joe did not confine his abilities in one field but has made outstanding records in all our major sports. He was captain of the '38 basketball team and one of the highest scorers in the state. Joe will long be remembered for his manhood, sportsmansship, and perseverance.

SEPTEMBER 24, 1937

The valiant Tigers held their first tussle of the season in Shawnee, Oklahoma, with the O. B. U. Bisons, coming out in the finish one point behind. The weather was chilly and the field slightly damp from a drizzling rain but the Tigers played a fine game of ball, outgaining the Bisons 2 to 1, amassing 19 first downs to the Bisons 10. The game was full of line plunges by Reed and rifle-like passes by Smith. The Valiant Tigers returned home with a lost game but not a lost spirit. It will be remembered that last year the Tigers tied the Bisons, 14-14, here in Arkadelphia.

HARDIN-SIMMONS . . . 51

OCTOBER 1, 1937

The second game of the season took the Tigers deep into Texan territory to the prairie city of Abeline to play what turned out to be the worst defeat of the season. At home the Tiger fans listened in to the game through a leased wire obtained by the College Choir. The Tigers put up a great fight but were run over by the heftier cowboys who taught the Tigers how to play better ball in the future.

MURRY STATE 27

OCTORER 8, 1937

After recovering from bruises received in the Hardin-Simmons game, the Tigers took on the Murry State Teachers of Kentucky

"Thoroughbreds" here in Arkadelphia on the home field. Last year the Tigers journeyed to Kentucky only to be beaten 20 to 0. The return game this season held more promise for the Tigers who managed to score on the race horsemen by one scant touchdown. The counter was made by Smith in the last period on a pass from Reed. Smith's convertment was good.

OLE MISS 46 OUACHITA 0

OCTOBER 23, 1937

After an open date and a week's extra rest, the Tigers essayed to battle the Ole Miss "Rebels", traveling to Oxford by way of the Tiger bus. The Tigers as usual fought hard but were unable to break loose to score. Several chances offered themselves to the Tigers who were unable to take advantage of them. The last time Ole Miss mixed with the Tigers, the game was a tie and it was believed that the game this season would be closer. However, the Rebels ran the final score up to 46 to 0 in their favor and the Tigers returned home to work out for their next ordeal.

S. E. OKLA. TEACHERS . OUACHITA 53

OCTOBER 29, 1937

The next game for the Tigers proved to be a run-away for the Tigers and not an ordeal. The Tigers, reverting to a team in their "class" waylaid the unsuspecting Oklahoma Teachers S. E. to the tune of 53 to 0. The teamwork of Smith and Arnett was the outstand-passing and ball carrying proved to fans that the Tigers still had something left in the way of football.

Touchdowns were made by Arnett (3), Tilley, Richards, Benson, and Mann. Convertments were made by Smith. The Tigers made 23 first ers some much needed rest and then came the Louisiana College Wildcats, another team reported to be in the Tigers' "class". The game was played on Tiger home territory and was a thriller from beginning to end, featuring line plays by Reed, Baxter and Landers, with the aerial power delivered accurately by Smith. Tuochdowns were made by Arnett, Rankin, Baxter, Landers, Richards, and Mann. Smith made good four out of five placements. First downs for the Tigers equalled 15, while the Wildcats had only 10.

NOVEMBER 19, 1937

Following the win from the Louisiana Wildcats, the Tigers traveled into the Delta regions to battle the Delta State "Statesmen". The Tigers got off to a bad start in the mud and rain but put up a brilliant fight to push over their only score of the game. Late in the third period a Tiger drive from midfield carried the ball to the Detla six yard line where Delta was penalized for being offsides, putting the ball on the one yard line. Landers plunged the ball over on a sneak play. The convertment failed.

The Tigers played one of the best games in their history on Turkey Day this season against St. Mary's University of San Antonio, Texas. The battle was fought on the Tiger gridiron and kept fans on their toes to see what was going to happen next. The game was featured by long runs and forward passing. Doug Locke was outstanding for the "Rattlers", making many a gain through the Tigers' defense. The Tigers were scored on early in the game, but became lively in the third period and by sustained drives pushed the ball to the Rattlers two-yard line from where Tilley plunged over for the first Tiger score of the game. The Tigers lost mainly by fumbles and intercepted passes. The second Tiger tally came in the last period by line plunges and power drives using Tilley and Landers as wedges. Smith did his part by passing short aerials to Tilley and Reed. After reaching the Rattlers two yard marker, Landers pounded over to score. Both placements by Smith were good, leaving the score 33-14 in favor of the Rattlers. Scoring touchdowns for Ouachita were Tilley and Landers; for the Rattlers. Locke (2), Richter and Todd. Wyble and Roy made the placements. Ouachita made 22 first downs to the Rattlers 8.

scorers with 14 points,

The feed-boys gave the Tigers their first defeat of the season, winning by a margin of seven points. The Tigers led the scoring by one point at the half. The Tigers missed many easy shots in the game and Fred Strickland fell down in his scoring, making only two field goals. Ouachita made good on only seven shots out of twenty-five from the foul-line, while Goodwin was the only Tiger to make a creditable score, with 11 points. Hatfield, New, Walkard, and Armbrust starred for the Little Rock team while Berry, Vannoy, and Goodwin were best for the Tigers.

OUACHITA WARREN

Ouachita defeated the Dr. Pepper five in a game featured by brilliant goaling. James Vannoy revealed that he was stellar material, playing carefully both on the floor and in shooting field goals. Fred Strickland, again using his famous one-handed shots, led in the scoring with a total of 14 points, while Vannoy was second with six field goals. Berry played a fine defensive game breaking into the scoring column three times to make six points. Outstanding players of the Warren five were Monk and Cuthbertson, former stars of the Bradley Lumber Company team. Croswell was high scorer for Warren with eight points.

OUACHITA . . DES ARC . . .

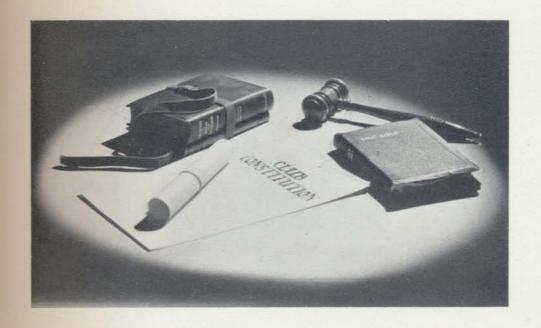

Brilliant floor work and straight shooting by Fred Strickland, Goodwin, and Reed, and good all-around defensive play, especially by Berry, Tiger guard, en-abled Ouachita to defeat the Des Arc Independents. Jim Lee Howell, former University of Arkansas All-Southwestern guard, with several of his team-mates, made it a little hard on the Tigers who gradually pulled ahead to a substantial lead middle-ways of the final half. Frank Reed was outstanding in floor work and several times made fine goal shots,

A high score and a low one which does not indicate that the game was punk at all. No sir, the Tigers fought for every point and they can tell you they had some competition in the form of Dick Nance, former Ouachita basketball sensation, who was high-man for Goodyear with 15 points. Goodwin again was out in front of the heat with his usual 20 points and missed several minutes of the game at that. Berry, Benson, and E. Smith were other Tiger players in fast floor work. Willard Goodwin, stellar Tiger center, was high scorer of the game with 12 points, again falling below his usual 20 points. Joe Arnett of the Tigers and Eddins of the Reddies made eight points each, while Suitor of Henderson and Berry of Ouachita starred in their respective guard positions. The latter portion of the game was furiously fought, the Reddies getting a four point lead before the Tigers managed to score, but another series of brilliant plays brought the Tigers well out in front. The largest crowd of the season witnessed the Reddy downfall.
OUACHITA	OUACHITA 62 ASHDOWN
Arkansas State Teachers made it two straight in this game, having won from the Tigers previously, 56-34. Ouachita was trailing by thirteen points at the opening of the second half but excellent shooting of Robert Smith, Arnett, and Goodwin enabled the Tigers to pull up within two points of a tie. Superior foul-throw shooting won for the Teachers. Each team scored 18 baskets, while the Teachers counted nine of their 23 free throws and Ouachita only five of their 19. C. L. Turner led the scorers with 13 points.	One of the fastest and one of the "pushovers" of the Tigers' season was this game with Ashdown Independents. "Slim" Goodwin hadn't quite begun his usual 20 points per game but was coming closer to his objective, making 14 as high man of the game. Joe Arnett worked hard also, making a total of 12 points. The Tigers jumped on the boys from Ashdown so hard during the first period that it was not necessary for them to expend so much effort. Cobb, of Ashdown, was ranking scoreman for his side with six points.
OUACHITA	OUACHITA
Yea, Reddies! Yea, Tigers! So it was with each side as they rooted for their time-old enemy. After a quiet season or so with Ouachita out of the Conference and so unable to hold athletic relations with Henderson, the Tigers at last were admitted into fellowshipship and so the first of two games with the Reddies, their "across-the-ravine-enemy". This first game was fought with thrills and spills as the boys bumped elbows in a desperate attempt to come out on top. The Tigers got the jump on the Reddies early in the first half and by the time the half was ended the score stood in favor of the Tigers as 26-13. During the last half, the Reddies outplayed the Tigers, making 16 points to the Tiger's 14.	The Tigers began their basketball season with one of the best, if not the best games by skinning Louisiana Tech by two points. The game was fast and snappy with Miller of Tech and Fred Strickland of Ouachita taking the lead in scoring honors. Berry, playing at the Tiger's guard post, turned in a fine performance as floor man and ball passer, foreshadowing his prominent part in future Tiger games. Fred Strickland began this season as he did ones of the past, by using his excellent overhand shots for baskets. The first game saw the dedication of the Tigers' new gym.
However this two point gain was not enough to help them win. Goodwin, ace Tiger center, was so heav- ily guarded that the ball was fed to Robert Smith	OUACHITA who consequently fed it to the basket totaling in all 15 points to be high man of the game. Eddins of the Reddies was second in scoring with 13 points and Goodwin fell half-way below his usual 20, making only 10 points.	The second string, in support of the Tigers, proved their capabilities of suporting the main team by participating in a game of their own against Friendship, outdistancing the "Friendly" boys by nearly twice their score. The game was not so fast as it was spirited, with the Tiger lads doing all they
OUACHITA	could to run up a creditable score. However, the Friendship five were not asleep, giving the lads enough competition to cause them to work for what they got. E. Smith of the Tigers was ahead with the individual scoring, making eight points while Strother of Friendship cut it in half, making only four. The 'subs' are to be lauded for their fine attitude and their excellent participation in all Tiger gave them the game. The Reddies had plenty of	games of this season.

LIFE

We all are made from this Earth's common clay,
And given breath by One who lives above.
He put us here to live our lives each day,
In meekness, mercy, truth and Christian love.
He gives us many tools with which to work;
And many tasks he asks us to perform.
And if we strive and pray and never shirk,
He'll help us in our lives His will to form.
Though some may seek to learn Life's mystery,
And peer into God's universal plan,
They seek that which is not for them to see,
While still within the realm of mortal man.
But rather let us give ourselves to Him
And let Him work in us His every whim.

AN OLD CLASSMATE OF MINE

As one who cons at evening o'er an album ail alone,

And muses on the faces of the friends that he has known,

So I turn the leaves of Fancy, till, in shadowy design,

I find the smiling features of an old classmate of mine.

'Tis a fragrant retrospection,—for the loving thoughts that start

Into being are like perfume from the blossom of the heart;

And to dream the old dreams over is a luxury divine—

When my truant fancies wander to that old classmate of mine.

CALENDAR

Sept. 9.—Well, well, seems like we are all back—well, at least most of us. Who's that cute freshman boy? Professor Hoppe? Oh, excuse me.

Sept. 10.—Everyone painfully dressed for the too, too formal reception. A boresome time was had by all. I take it back, it was worth any amount of elaborate dressing to see Geneva and Frances with a brand new pair of male lovers.

Sept. 11.—Year starts off the usual bot O. B. C. style . . . with a fire—no damage, with the exception of burnt biscuits.

Sept. 12.—Don't tell me Sunday and quiet hour are here already. The Freshmen take orders—and attend S. S. and church in a straight line.

Sept. 13.—Gee! Don't tell me every Monday in the year is going to be like this!

Sept. 14.—From all appearances Fort Smith turned out pretty well this year. Honest! I didn't know they were in her.

Sept. 15.—Today we awake to find the once insignificant play-boy James Shaw has become the president of the high and mighty Junior Class. Observe what a friendly smile, a pat on the back, and a sprinkling of brains will do for a fellow.

Sept. 16.—Slowly but surely the day has gone by for many a homesick freshman.

Sept. 17.—The B. S. U. reception, presenting "The New Faces of 1937". It turned very cold and so ice cream was served for refreshments. That White fellow made a mild sensation with his "Rainbow on the River".

Sept. 18.—The Red Shirt picnic went off with a bang. The S. A. S. picnic went off on wagons. The campus is left with a full moon, but that's about all.

Sept. 19.—The Devil will get you, Freshman, if you don't go to church", said the seniors. Unable to decide which was the worse, the devil or the seniors, everybody went.

Sept. 20.—Y. W. A. candle light services. Sept. 21.—Tiger spirit comes out of hiding for the first pep meeting of the year. Witness the new cheer leaders—Hanson, Reagan, Thompson, and Herrington.

"THE BEST BARBECUED SANDWICHES IN TOWN" Sept. 22.—The Freshmen know not what befall their heads this night. But sure enough it was hair that fell—all over the night, all over the floor, so unexpectedly and so unevenly.

Sept. 23.—The Tigers leave for their first game amid the glory of shining, bald heads. Good luck, Tigers!

Sept. 24.—In spite of all the mild threats, and coca cola bets, the Tigers went down in brave defeat. Guess the referee wasn't watching his business.

Sept. 24.—It is rumored that since Schooley and Dr. Grant are both presidents, it is a difficult task to keep their mails separated.

Sept. 26.—Turned cold right out of a clear blue sky. All unaware and unexpected it found us unprotected.

Sept. 27.—Gradually we're find out what took place at Camp this summer. Even the former president of the junior class has been heard saying, "Go to Kansas, young man—to the land of opportunity."

CENSORED!

(Was what the editor thinks of the business manager!) Sept. 28.—Even after three years of college education the Senior girls apparently can't tell the difference between horses and freshmen. They all have to be sheared. Shucks! It was all a joke.

Sept. 29.—Noticed that Dr. Grant's shrubbery is wearing off. Queer, isn't it?

Sept. 30—Cone-Bottoms went from bad to worse tonight with the local. Why do upper classmen have to be aroused from peaceful slumber at mid-night with shrieks and howls just because freshmen have to be trained?

Oct. 1.—O. B. C. was gloriously defeated over a long distance hook-up from Hardin-Simmons tonight. Cheer up, boys. Remember the Alamo.

Oct. 2.—The younger one of the Strickland stock seems to have a yen for the ladies, too. Don't forget, Claud, we human beings have only two arms.

Oct. 3.—Rain! Rain Rain!—and more rain. P. S.: We are "all wet."

Oct. 4.—Question: What is the longest period of time known to man? Answer: From Monday morning until Friday night as viewed from Monday morning.

Oct. 5.—Pep march in perfect (?) formation (???). Could the pep be due to Professor Hoppe or to Wheaties Well, perhaps we'd better lay off accusations.

Oct. 6.—Pep meeting tonight. Even Captain Richards was present. A hint to the wise—or unwise: Freshmen, you had better brush up on the manly art of speech making.

Oct. 7.—Ouachita went Hollywood this morning in a big way. Main feature-Tarzan and his mate on the loose.

Oct. 8.—Another big game—for Murry.

Oct. 9.—Wonder what the connection is between radios and aviation. For information see Pate.

Oct. 10.—Twenty-five visitors from Warren were seen roaming around the campus today. What's in the air?

Oct. 11.-Mudday water in our shoes.

Oct. 12.—Girls bloom out in blue ribbons, high-top hats, and baby caps. Are we getting sophisticated or is it just that old collegiate spirit?

Oct. 13.—The editor of the annual makes a startling appearance in pink trousers. No insinuation—it just reminded me of pink elephants.

Oct. 14.—Wild geese squawked all night.

Oct. 15.—Senior picnic out at the bluff. And the moon was just that kind.

Oct. 16.—High Hat barn party. Real High Hat in a Real Barn. Didn't know such things happened. Even the cobs were real. Shucks! It was really a "grained" affair.

Oct. 17.—I can spend six days a week in solitude and never moan,

But Sunday evening is a time when no one ought to be alone.

Oct. 18.-Just what did happen today?

Oct. 19.—Gee! Some people get all the breaks. Take, for instance, Abraham Lincoln—what boyhood experience did he have that our own Dean Witherington failed to have? And yet, just look how things turned out! Just one of life's paradoxes.

Oct. 20.—Question for debate; Resolved: That this would be a grand old world if Dr. Daily gave easier tests.

Oct. 21.—Decision: Affirmative wins by unanimous vote.

Oct. 22.—The guilt of forgetting, dear diary, weighs down on my conscience at night;

> I suffer and groan in the silence, but nothing can force me to write.

Oct. 23.—Saturday and hash.

Oct. 24.—Sunday? How strange, and yesterday was only Saturday.

Oct. 25.—Speech and English majors flocked to see Emile Zola at his best.

Oct. 26.—Pledges present program in Dramatic Club. What is this world coming to when an insignificant pledge informs actors and actresses that all big oak trees were nuts like them. What about it, Kenneweg?

Oct. 27.—Dr. Yates gave an "opportunity", which didn't even "warm" our hearts.

Oct. 28.—Red Vannoy comes to the happy conclusion that when all the dishes are broken there won't be any more to wash.

Oct. 29.—Whotta day! Hordes of wideeyed High School seniors invade the campus. Tigers dutifully win game 50-0 to produce good influence. O. B. C. night life—E.E.E.'s go Halloween in the basement, while the S. A. S.'s go to jail.

Oct. 30.—To the tune of Tom-Toms, barkers, and dreamy tunes from the orchestra, the super-special junior carnival came off. The juniors, running true to form, elected Her Majesty Marjorie Meador and His Majesty Herman Hankins, queen and king.

Oct. 31.—Cone-Bottoms avoid quiet hour by attending L. W. A. Halloween tea. Tch! Tch! Those naughty boys! They have painted the windows down town.

Nov. 1.—Blue, Blue, Monday, without even a silver lining.

Nov. 2.—Today the real character of Andrew (Amity) Widner was revealed in chapel. He is a bigamist. Watch your step, girls!

Nov. 3—Good old Wednesday has arrived again and again we have nothing to dress up in.

Nov. 4.—Ho! Hum! Rather boring day. Just another fire. It's really wonderful the way Ouachita keeps up her traditions.

Nov. 5.—Choir and others pull out for Conway and the B. S. U. convention. 'Tis whispered a former O. B. C. graduate turned Walter Winchell this week-end and collected enough evidence to fill a column of Pert.

Nov. 6.—Kewpies entertain in elegant style, centering decorations around the venerable turkey.

Nov. 7.—Sunday with its grapefruit, hotcakes, Sunday School and church — and, oh yes, the rush home after church to grab a davenport. After all it does take a little of the Spartan to brave the blasts in spite of love.

Nov. 8.—Oh! That shock back into reality. I knew there was something I had forgotten—mid-semester tests begin today.

Nov. 9.—Wanted: Relief for overloading a weak brain.

Nov. 10.—The gridiron heroes of Louisiana College arrive. Looks like a wet day for the game.

Nov. 12.—W. C. F. banquet goes off with a "gobble". It's pert-nigh Thanksgiving, you know. The freshmen throw another picnic. These freshmen get around, they do.

Nov. 13.—There was a lot of frivolous frolicing at the Frivolous Frolics tonight. You remember that brunette in the Fort Smith trio? Well, she was elected as band sweetheart. Couldn't be the drum major could it?

Nov. 14.—O. B. C. swells with pride at its write-up in the paper.

Nov. 15.—Since the title of the show today is Conquest, perhaps that accounts for this statement heard from a certain young lady. Well, Garbo might be able to give me some tips, but I doubt it.

Nov. 16.—The history of all the world with war and greed is weighted;
But somehow though I live here too, I don't feel implicated—said Walter.

Nov. 17.—Y. W. A. annual banquet all done up in a band box.

Nov. 18.—Rain, rain, go away, Fred and Margaret want to play.

Nov. 19.—Mama, those men are here again. Nov. 20.—Remember those hash Saturdays we have talked about? Well—ditto.

Nov. 21.—Oh wind, if this be Sun. How can I ever stand Mon.

Nov. 22.—No rest for the poor and wicked.

Nov. 23.—"The Children's Teeth" presented at the Dramatic Club. I bet that will put Shakespeare on the map.

Nov. 24.—B. S. U. goes social tonight.

Nov. 25.—Biggest pep meeting of the year. Crammed full of Tiger spirit . . . in preparation for the Ouachita-St. Mary's game.

Nov. 26.—I'm filled with gratitude today, and bright and blue the sky, Because I'm filled with Turkey too, and also mince meat pie.

Dec. 1.—Just seventeen more days, four hundred eight hours, and 24880 minutes and a lot of worry until the holidays.

Dec. 2.—Dr. Gillintine talked in chapel. Her Chinese coolie never knocked before entering her room. She said, "Knock". He said, "No use, Madam, I always peep over the transom before entering".

Dec. 3.—Yeldell lay awake at dawn and thought, how sad it was all over town,

> Lay other freezing souls like him, who had to put the window down.

Dec. 4.—Red Shirts celebrate in white shirts at the Eastman. Heard riding in the Arlington elevators was the high light of the evening, eh, Mildred?

Dec. 14.—Prof. Stewart really put the cops in the shade when it came to speeding. For information, see the cops.

Dec. 15.—Xmas program at the church.

Dec. 16.—Of washing, dressing, work, and meals my frantic days consist. I hardly live at all. It's such a labor to exist.

Dec. 17.—O. B. C. debaters really strut their stuff in Batesville. They must be going in for cup monopoly.

Dec. 18.—Hurrah! Home for the holidays. Jan. 4.—Back from the holidays.

Jan. 5.—Just lack one nice, fat, juicy new year's resolution having them all broken. Thank Goodness! I won't have to worry about them any more.

Jan. 6.—We've just discovered that Ouachita has made a sad mistake in the past. Pluto was stirred to unusual activity on the ball court tonight—and we didn't even know it was in him.

Jan. 7.—Schedule of final exams makes its appearance in the Signal. Looks final in more ways than one.

Jan. 8.—B. S. U. reception for the Naylors. Jan. 9.—And Sun. is supposed to be the day of rest.

Jan. 10.—It's not too late to order your Ouachitonian.

Jan. 11.—I love to have a waiter kind who hides the haughty way he feels, And treats me like an equal, till I quite enjoy my humble meals.

Jan. 12.—Well, may'be the boys' dorm is going to be completed after all.

Jan. 13.—Dr. Pettigrew's book store menu has changed from peanuts to potato chips.

Jan. 14.—Who invented this calendar of events anyway!

Jan. 15.—And today is another day that just happened this way.

Jan. 16.—Goforth still has his appetite.

Jan. 17.—A right cheerful day for "Blue Monday".

Jan. 18.—Nice looking car, Woodie. Alicia must have a pretty good job.

Jan. 19.—We had another one of those Wed. night dinners tonight.

Jan. 20.—So ambition burns within our hearts, eh, Chinn?

Jan. 21.—And so Virginia just sat and waited.

Jan. 22.—This day holds nothing to inspire my pen.

Jan. 23.—"Kayo" Reece swallowed her gum—which accounts for her being so stuck-up today.

Jan. 24.—Odd how these inexperienced new students think they have to register the first day of the semester.

Jan. 25.—Looking at the new freshmen we are reminded that some of the "cocks of the walk today" were once in such a shape.

Jan. 26.—Still registering. It's a wonder we don't go crazy: everything we want this semester was offered last semester and everything we wanted last semester is offered this semester. Funny old world, isn't it?

Jan. 27.—Been wondering all day who will get Silbie's ring next.

Jan. 28.—Things still going and coming. Dean Blake left for L. S. U., and Miss Frances' cat came home again.

Jan. 29.-The same Sat. special.

Jan. 30.—If Ouachita would pay Myrick for being a field worker, may'be we could have some more beautiful Bettys on the campus.

Jan. 31.—Gee whiskers! the first month of the new year has done went and gone. The baby has a new tooth.

Feb. 1.—It suddenly turned into ear muff weather. Why, oh why, weren't we warned in time. Tiger squad is entertained at a banquet. All the good, old jokes were present—well, old jokes anyway.

Feb. 2.—The editors tell us the Ouachitonian will go to press March 1. We wonder. Seniors elect new vice-president. So what?

Feb. 3.—Dr. Grant attends an educators meeting in Nashville, Tenn. We aren't sure but we can just imagine he gave them some good pointers on campus behavior — as it should be!

Feb. 4.—Dean Witherington decides he wants to go fishing as usual! Debators are in Tahlequah.

Feb. 5.—Debators come home scalped by the Indians, unbowed but defeated.

Feb. 6.—One of those days when it's a pain in the neck to keep the calendar of events. (Oh pardon me! That slipped).

Feb. 7.—Suddenly was reminded today—in the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to . . . we leave it to your imagination. Am I right, Rosie and Frank?

Feb. 8.—Out of the great, grand, stupendous senior minstrel which came off tonight, there came a riddle: What is it that Jeanette MacDonald has that Kenneweg hasn't got? What about it, Smitty?

Feb. 9.—William Hall Preston, Southwide B. S. U. secretary, visits the campus. Too bad, Mary F. and Frances! It was rather a temptation.

Feb. 10.—"There were ten pretty girls in the village school"—then I came to college. Boy, whotta let-down!, says Loyd Moore, and added, "Their loss was Ouachita's gain".

Feb. 11.—E. E. E.'s go to town in a gracious style with a dinner at the Caddo. How about a little duck, Virginia?

Feb. 12.—A S. A. S. dinner in the Valentine manner with the chief form of amusement throwing hearts (candy). Everybody took a few tips from Mae West.

Feb. 13.—Why has everyone became so sentimental, sweet, and friendly? Spring? No, too early. Oh, I just remembered—tomorrow is Valentine Day and who doesn't like a box of chocolate candy?

Feb. 14.—It worked. Even the package man made two trips Tuesday. What's next best to having a boy friend at college? Answer: one at home who can send you Valentine candy.

Feb. 15.—Just a valentine hangover. Everyone works the test "How well are you liked" in the Signal. General outcome, 78. (Highest possible score, 79). Roommate's estimate, 20.

Feb. 16.—Oh dear, I never realized a year had so many Wed's. until I came to Ouachita.

Feb. 17.—For signs of spring these days notice the trees, flowers, and the grass, and the steps of Cone-Bottoms Hall at night.

Feb.18.—Mid-South debate tournament gains momentum at Henderson. Mr. Archibald judged in the girls' division. Boy, whotta break for the visiting girls!

Feb. 19.—Durant carries off the honors. W. E., why did you ask the girl from Pittsburg if she didn't think a little walk might soothe her nerves?

Feb. 20.—Freshman heads resemble Heaven no more. We begin to see a little parting there.

Feb. 21.—No one at home. Please knock some other time.

Feb. 22.—Who said Mondays were blue? Why they're positively black.

Feb. 23.—We wonder why Frances and Maxine O. are going out of their way to smile and speak to the council members.

Feb. 24.—It didn't work girls. So sorry. Better luck next time, but band boys do have their attractions, don't they.

Feb. 25.—When, we wonder, is Frances going to settle down and be sensible about this affair?

Feb. 26.—All's quiet on the Cone-Bottoms front—in fact too quiet for fun.

Feb. 27.—Home Ec'ers strut their stuff in Hobo style. We notice all had high aims.

Feb. 28.—Choir goes on trip. Pen Lyle, when will you remember to watch for strangers—or may'be should we take a tip.

Feb. 29.—Annual goes to press. It's a grand old life, if you live through it.

Robert Smith: "I like a girl who's able to think."

Elizabeth Scarborough: "Yes, opposites always attract."

Frances Tow: "My pal, Joe Burt, is going to surprise everybody at the party tonight by singing, so I guess I'll accompany him."

Benson: "On the piano?" Tow: "No, to the hospital!"

Ray Woodell: "I'm going to ask you a riddle. What makes my life so miserable?"

Mrs. Woodell: "You got me." Woodell: "That's right." Walter Dunn: "Did you hear the audience weep when I died in the last scene?"

A. J. Goforth: "Sure. Can you blame them? They knew you were only acting."

Thomas Chinn: "Say, Vesta, didja wear those flowers I sentcha?"

Vesta Horne: "Nothing else but, big fellow."

Chinn: "Golly, that musta been a startling costume!"

When the teacher asked Tilly what the lesson was that could be learned from the bee, he replied: "Never to pat one on the tail."

Willie, the stooge, says: "A medical student was studying to be a surgeon and all he did was cut classes, open gin bottles, and operate his roadster."

Marjie Thomas: "But, darling, I'm going to spend an evening at home tonight with my books."

Ray Vanoy: "I'll be over, then." M. Thomas: "You're not a book."

R. Vanoy: "But didn't you tell me I was a novel chap?"

Williard Bratton: "I'm sure that wasn't a marriage license the clerk gave me last month." Geneva Adams: "Why not?"

W. Bratton: "Ever since I've been living a dog's life."

Claude Durrett: "I'll be back at midnight to carry you off and tomorrow we'll be married. Do you think you can slip away without detection?"

Aletha Sloan: "Oh, certainly. Mother and father have both promised to help me."

Willie The Stooge says the old belief that if you drop a knife or fork it means company, is quite true. What's more, if you miss a knife or fork it means the company has gone.

Mary Lynn Protho: "I wish I had a nickel for every boy I've kissed."

Sody Matlock: "Yes, I bet you'd rush right out and buy a package of gum."

Willie The Stoogs says whenever you see women covered with diamonds you may know some man's fortune has gone on the rocks.

- Just two little school girls.
- 2. Stiles rolls his own. . .
- 3. Our Business Manager at-tending to business.
- 4. Last year's Seniors doing a little courting.
 5. Ditto No. 4.
- 6. What is this—a barber college?

7. Could we have interrupted a bull session?
