Attention!!!

Eight students at Ouachita Baptist University have been selected members of Praise Singers, a newly formed musical group sponsored by the Admissions Counseling Office at OBU.

The purpose of the group is to travel to various churches around the state as a missions service of the University as well as being an arm of the Admissions Counseling Office in recruiting for OBU. The groups first performances will be Sunday, January 13 at First Baptist Church of Sparkman during the morning worship service and at Second Baptist Church of Arkadelphia during the evening worship service.

For more information or to request an appearance of the group, persons should contact Richard Wentz, OBU Admissions Counseling Office, P.O. Box 3776, Arkadelphia, AR 71923, or call (501) 246-4531, ext. 594.

Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy. To the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, and dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. Jude 1:24-25

IMPERIALS

The Imperials, a nationally acclaimed contemporary Christian musical group, will be in concert at Ouachita Baptist University on Friday, January 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the Ouachita Physical Education Center. The performance is being sponsored by the OBU Student Entertainment and Lecture Fund.

General admission tickets for the concert are $5.00 for Ouachita students, faculty and staff, $6.00 for members of church groups and $7.00 for the general public. There is no reserved seating for the concert. For more information, persons should contact the office of Andy Westmorland, director of student activities at Ouachita at (501) 246-4531 ext. 539 or OBU P.O. Box 3793, Arkadelphia, AR 71923. Tickets go on sale December 17.

Lost or Found?

A blue & white striped jacket was left on the Ouachita bus about two months ago. If it belongs to you, please go by maintenance to pick it up.

Housing

The deadline for room changes for the Spring Semester is Wednesday, January 23rd, 1984 at 12:00 p.m. This can be done in the Dean of Womens Office or the Dean of Students Office in Terral Moore Hall.
