I AM MUSIC

Servant and master am I, servant of those dead, and master of those living. Through me spirits immortal speak the message that makes the world weep, and laugh, and wonder, and worship.

I tell the story of love, the story of hate, the story that saves, and the story that damns. I am the incense upon which prayers float to heaven. I am the smoke which palls over the field of battle where men lie dying with me on their lips.

I am close to the marriage altar, and when the grave opens I stand near by. I call the wanderer home, I rescue the soul from the depths, I open the lips of lovers, and through me the dead whisper to the living.

One I serve as I serve all; and the king I make my slave as easily as I subject his slave. I speak through the birds of the air, the insects of the field, the crash of waters on rock-ribbed shores, the sighing of wind in the trees, and I am even heard by the soul that knows me in the clatter of wheels on city streets.

I know no brother, yet all men are my brothers; I am the father of the best that is in them, and they are fathers of the best that is in me; I am of them, and they are of me. For I am the instrument of God.

DEDICATION

We, the staff and student body wish to dedicate this volume of the Ouachitonian to Miss Frances Crawford, who in her most patient and quiet way has helped each one of us to attain the goal toward which we are working. Without her kindness, cheerfulness and encouragement, college life would not have been so pleasant. She has contributed much to our memories of OBC.

HE IS

For the responsive a wise counselor;

In fields sacred and secular, an instructor;

Of ultimate goals – comprehensive;

Of worth or detriment – apprehensive;

Through administrative progress, an organizer;

To sagging overtures, a stabilizer;

For the tortoise-paced, a directive;

For flagging hopes – inspirational;

To superb-sonic spurts – restraining;

In constructive urges – sustaining;

In neighborliness, an exemplifier;

To be your friend, an aspirer.
