University Heights Baptist Church, Tallahassee, FL

In the fall of 1967, Ronnie and I moved to Tallahassee, FL for me to attend graduate school in History at Florida State University. Through friends Rebecca and Barton Starr, we wound up at University Heights Baptist Church on West Call Street, just west of the campus. We had attended Evergreen Baptist Church and Birmingham's Mountain Brook Baptist Church in Alabama; this was our second foray into becoming part of a different church. The first was our home church, the one into which we were born. The second we had settled on reasonably quickly without connections. UHBC was the only Tallahassee church we tried.

UHBC remained our church home until we left in the late summer of 1971 for Arkadelphia—well, save for our absence while I was in the Army. It was small and its membership allowed us to become active even in leadership roles. We sang in the choir and I taught a Sunday School class and eventually had Sunday School and Training Union leadership roles and there I was ordained as a deacon.

In 1970, I was tasked with writing a brief historical sketch. The church's minutes were extant going back to its founding and before (1952), Association minutes were available for the whole time, and miscellaneous letters and items were floating around.

Last year, I discovered that the church didn't exist anymore, at least not in the form with which we were familiar. Northwoods Baptist Church, 3762 Capitol Circle Northwest, website says that "We first opened our doors in January 1947 as University Heights Baptist Church under the pastoral care of T.J. Larkin. Between 1947 and 1992, University Heights saw dramatic changes—from saying hello and goodbye to at least nine pastors, to new buildings designed to hold the growing number of members. As our membership grew, so did our areas of impact. On April 5, 1992, we had our first service in our new location in northwest Tallahassee. On January 6, 2002, our newest facility "The JoyDome" was complete and we held our first service in this unique facility." There's a UHBC Google entry for that address. But the 1755 West Call Street address no longer sites the structure in which we worshipped.

Below are the sketch I wrote in 1970, my notes from church and association minutes, and additional items I copied.

UHBC Church History Sketch by S. Ray Granade, 1970.

It began in a building just evacuated by a Presbyterian Sunday School. Perpetually small, it has been a microcosm of the universal church. Infighting over matters secular and spiritual has sown dissension which at times would seemingly only be resolved by an exodus of the losers. Yet through it all has remained the Christian fellowship and concern which characterized the New Testament church. And in an age of non-involvement and lack of concern for others, this church has maintained a family air and obeyed the Biblical injunction to evangelize and to strengthen its stakes and lengthen its cords. The dangers to the church have been, and will no doubt remain, the formation of cliques and the lure of self-satisfaction.

There is little information on University Heights Baptist Church's early years. The First Presbyterian Church conducted a Sunday School in the Mabry Heights Recreation Center for a time. But they decided to leave those facilities and form a church (now Presbyterian Westminster Church on Chapel Drive, overlooking FSU, its birthplace in Mabry Heights, and its successor in the Recreation Center, UHBC). In late January, 1947, First Baptist Church voted to take over operation of a Sunday School in the center. The new directors decided, as had the Presbyterians before them, to enlarge their program and abandon the recreation center. A few months after beginning operations, First Baptist Church purchased a lot and small house from local painter Hiram D. Jones. After a payment of $6,125, the first church was granted title to the lot on West Tennessee, about a mile west of their original location. In preparation for the new tenancy, the church moved the house to the rear of the lot and widened an interior doorway to form an auditorium from two rooms. Under the direction of Alphonse Prichard, work began on a new building at the lot's front. By March, 1948, the building was, though incomplete, ready for occupancy by worshipers and first pastor Rev. T.J. Larkin. On March 28, communicants held their first service in the new structure—led by Truett Farmer in place of the pastor who was at Thomasville Road Baptist Church that Sunday. By the April 10 service, the new building was complete and awaiting dedication. The Litany of Dedication for the University Heights Baptist Church, Branch No. 1 of the First Baptist Church of Tallahassee, Florida, was read at 3 o'clock on a hot mid-May afternoon. After this May 16 service, the distinguishable entity of a new church was apparent.

As if anxious to follow the heritage of ecumenicism, its patrons decided to abandon UHBC. At First Baptist's request, the Florida Baptist State Mission Board assumed responsibility for operating the fledgling mission on June 9, 1949. Rev. D.O. Alderman took over pastoral duties after Larkin left. But within a month, mission operation had been returned to First Baptist.

Evidently tired of being treated in such cavalier fashion and longing for that local autonomy which is one of the distinguishing characteristics of Baptist churches, mission members decided to act. Seventy-three people signed a registered letter, dated June 4, 1949. Agreeing that "the time has come that we resent being called a mission," they wrote to Clifford Walker of Jacksonville to set aside a Sunday in June to meet with them "for the purpose of organizing...a regularly constituted independent Missionary Baptist Church." Considering themselves financially able to pay a pastor and meet other church costs, the signers noted that "We have not had a pastor for a month now, only preaching and prayer meeting. The attendance, interest and gifts have been dropping steadily." Nothing would be done, they pledged, until they had Walker's reply.

After five months without a pastor, UHBC called the man who would lead them to constitution as a church. He assumed his duties on October 5, 1949. Fred Sliger had already preached there for two Sundays, September 18 and 25, when he officially became pastor. The church was small; on his first Sunday there had been 94 in Sunday School, 20 in Training Union. Nearly a year had passed since the letter had been sent to Walker. Yet everyone was abiding by his word. Finally the waiting was over. On May 7, 1950, 56 charter members and guests shared that wonderful moment when a new, independent church officially began. Within a year, membership had climbed to 162.

UHBC has been under the leadership of a number of pastors. After Larkin, the State Mission Board assumed operation of the mission for a month, and Rev. D.O. Alderman took over pastoral duties. Rev. Fred Sliger followed, serving from 1949 to 1953. When Sliger left for a Miami church, UHBC called Rev. J.B. Ansley from west Florida. Two years later, Dick Gwyn replaced Ansley. In 1958, Charles Phipps took control after moving from the eastern seacoast. When he left in 1960, the church called Rev. John Temoshchuk as pastor. The present pastor, Rev. Charles Breeden, arrived at UHBC in 1970.

Buildings, land, ministers, and integration have provided the major topics of the church's history. Two ministers, Ansley and Gwyn, have left under less than ideal circumstances. In 1966-7, UHBC found itself embroiled in a controversy over whether or not to admit Negroes to services, or to membership. After heated debate and much maneuvering by both sides, the church declared that anyone could enter worship services and that UHBC would pursue an open-door policy where membership was concerned. Perhaps the greatest test the church has faced in its short two-decade life, the question of integration caused some to leave the church and go elsewhere—or nowhere. Yet this question was tied to another, and the surface gives the appearance of a power struggle, a clash of personalities. But beneath the surface lies the problem faced by many churches, especially autonomous Baptist ones, teaching the priesthood of the believer. The difficulties lay upon a solid base of Christians seeking what they considered the will of God for their own lives and for the church's life.

Two years after the official constitution of UHBC as a church, the basement of the “new building” (then four years old) was excavated and 15 new Sunday School rooms added. Additional adjacent property was purchased, for the church was growing—membership had reached 244. A new two-story educational building was completed in 1954, the auditorium enlarged and remodeled, with new pews and furniture installed. Sponsoring a Boy Scout troop, the church provided a scout house. Three years later, another tract of land was purchased. The twelve new acres stood behind the church on West Call Street, and provided ample room for future expansion. The church decided to erect new facilities on the land, after a three-acre strip on the west side had been sold. In 1962, a new three-bedroom pastorium was built on the back of the lot. After three years of planning and building, a new church was completed on the West Call property and the old facility sold. The church fortunately resisted the temptation to sell some land and pay off the debt, leaving the church room to grow in the future. The church operated, as it still does, a nursery-kindergarten as a church arm.

Unlimited possibilities for service to God and community await the expansion of the church, for the land remains. And the greatest part of the church is the closeness, the family air that prevails. Even in a church misunderstanding, that spirit prevails. A primarily young church, UHBC experiences almost complete membership turnover every half-decade. Yet the spirit remains. It is not uncommon to have a member say that he or she loves this church as no other, hates to leave Tallahassee because of the church, or that it's family. This type of spirit is to the glory of God, and will go far in aiding the membership to show the surrounding community what Christian living is, and what a difference Christ can make in a life.

On Sunday, January 30, 1955, J.B. Ansley, Pastor of the above Church, requested all the men of the Church to meet with him at 2:00 P.M. In said meeting Pastor Ansley related an incident that transpired Monday, September 13, 1954, with Pastor and Mrs. Ansley and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gandy in the Pastor's living room. In this meeting Mrs. Gandy related to Mrs. Ansley: "Mrs. Ansley, I am desperately in love with your husband and God has directed me to take Brother Ansley as my husband and have a baby by him." After much other discussion before the men as a whole, the laymen of the Church were dismissed and the meeting turned over to C.R. Riles, Chairman of the Board of Deacons. Chairman Riles appointed the following committee to interview Mr. Gandy upon the matter: W.R. Rice, P.L. McGlamery, John Ellington and R.D. O'Brien. On Friday evening, February 4, 1955, the above committee with Pastor Ansley, interviewed Mr. Gandy at Perry, Florida. Mr. Gandy related with identical expressions the happenings in the Pastor's living room, to wit: On September 13, 1954 that his wife did state to Mrs. Ansley that she was madly in love with Brother Ansley and God had told her to take him and have a baby with him. The above committee agreed that Mr. Gandy's story paralleled completely the story as related by the pastor.

After the committee failed to arrive at a solution to the problem, the Deacon Board was called back into session on Saturday evening, February 19, 1955. By general agreement a decision was reached that Mrs. Gerald Gandy was an undesirable member and a detrement [sic] to the future progress of the Church. At a subsequent meeting of the Deacons on Sunday evening, February 20, 1955, with Mrs. Gandy present, further effort was made to solve the problem. Mrs. Gandy was arrogant, malicious and completely uncooperative, and left the meeting before adjournment. After Mrs. Gandy's abrupt departure the Deacons were in unanimous agreement that further efforts of conciliation were futile, and make the following recommendation to the Church:

The Board of Deacons have come to the conclusion that Mrs. Gerald Gandy is guilty of designs, conduct and speech unbecoming to a Christian, and recommend that the Church in special business meeting withdraw fellowship from Mrs. Gandy and give to her a notation of dismissal from our membership. Signed C.R. Riles, Chairman, R.D. O'Brien, Secretary.

Minutes

The University Heights Baptist Church held a special business meeting, Wednesday, February 23, 1955.

Opening prayer was given by Brother Levy.

Brother Riles opened the meeting with a statement that the Board of Deacons had a resolution to be presented to the Church. He said, "It was a resolution that he hated to see presented to any Church."

The attached resolution was read by Brother Riles.

Jack Perkins made a motion to accept the resolution, it was seconded by Gene Townsend.

Brother Harrison asked for the floor. Quoted. "I haven't had nothing to do with this as I wanted to know nothing about it. Others have felt the same way. I believe what Brother Ansley and Family have said about it. I also, believe what Brother Gandy said about it, and only today I had a telephone call at my home from Mrs. Gandy's sister-in-law and said that she had heard what was to take place at the Church tonight against Mrs. Gandy. He, (Mr. Gandy) is my brother and he has abused and persecuted his wife and also, she has acted under his pressure on this matter." I believe what she said.

Brother Ansley quoted the following. "It was true at 2:30 that morning that he demanded that she go and tell them. She said you have got to help me with it. You, (Mr. Gandy) must go and confess to the family and see me through this thing. He demanded that she come and tell it herself, as he didn't want our home broken up."

Mrs. Gandy spoke again, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they are doing."

Jennie Lou Kent asked for the floor. "I know I am young but I feel as if I'm part of this Church and should have something to say. As Gordon spoke tonight we should help people who are in trouble and come to us. If we don't help them as Christians who will?"

Mrs. Fish asked for the floor. "We as Christians should not let this thing go on as we have children to raise and are trying to raise them right," quoted by Mrs. Fish.

Brother Harrison took the floor again. "I think we should try to help people who are under pressure. I believe Mr. Gandy is a sick man all he would have to do would be present facts to any judge and have her committed to a mental hospital."

Motion was made by Gene Townsend to stop open discussion and vote.

Brother Riles appointed a committee to count the votes. 45 members voted "Yes," 11 voted "No."

Brother Riles said tomorrow there would be a notice of dismissal made out and forwarded to Mrs. Gandy.

Brother Rice dismissed the congregation with prayer.

Resp. Submitted,

Evelyn Faircloth, Church Secretary

The Litany of Dedication for the University Heights Baptist Church, Branch No. 1 of the First Baptist Church of Tallahassee, was read May 16, 1948, at 3:00 PM. Less than a year before this dedication, the mission work leading to it began. On January 22, 1947, the First Baptist Church appointed Mr. W.H. Cates as superintendent of a Sunday School in the Mabry Heights Recreation Hall.

The Mabry Heights Sunday School moved within several months to a small house and lot on West Tennessee Street. Ground was broken for the church and by March of 1948, the church was—though not completed—ready for occupancy under the direction of its first pastor, Rev. T.J. Larkin.

Rev. William Fred Sliger, as mission pastor, assumed the leadership of University Heights Branch on October 5, 1949. On May 7, 1950, University Heights Baptist Church was constituted and Mr. Sliger became pastor. At that time University Heights' membership totalled 56.

The enrollment had reached 152 by the first anniversary celebration of the church.

After Mr. Sliger's four years at University Heights, Rev. J.B. Ansley was called as pastor in the summer of 1953. Two years later, Rev. Dick Gwyn answered the Church's call to lead its congregation and promote further its full organizational work.

In 1958, Rev. Charles Phipps became the pastor at University Heights Baptist Church. along with his theological training, he brought his knowledge in the field of personal and family counseling.

Today, on the ninth anniversary of its constitution as a church, University Heights, standing at one of the entrances to the Florida State University, owns eleven and a half acres of choice land on West Call Street right across from the Church's present location. The spring revival services of the Church have recently ended. Rev. Thomas Cuttino, evangelist, told the congregation in his last message that no church in Florida has an opportunity greater than that of University Heights Baptist.

May, 1965, marked the 15th anniversary of the ministry of this church and the completion of a new sanctuary and educational building on the new property at 1700 W. Call St. Our ministry at our new location brought about an upsurge in attendance at all services and a more significant participation in involvement and sharing.

On January 8, 1967, our church started her first mission in the Lake Bradford community. Ten mbrs and Rev. E.W. Perryman started the work. Today we have 48 mbrs in the mission.

Recently our church received into our fellowship a person of the Negro race, thus giving evidence of our desire to show the love of God with all people.

During the past year we had some rewarding experiences. Our church received ninety new mbrs into our fellowship, and gave $3,360 to mission work outside our church.

For the first time in the history of our church one of our young men Thomas E. Prewitt is responding to a call to become a preacher of the Gospel.

Rev. I.E. Rouse

When the exigencies of the depression era forced the college to close in 1940, its facilities were used as army officers' housing for nearby Camp Shelby. In 1946 Mississippi Woman's College re-opened and underwent major renovations. Dr. I. E. Rouse was elected president in 1946 and served until 1956. In 1953 the Mississippi Baptist Convention voted to move the college into coeducational status after more than four decades of admitting only female students. This vote necessitated a new name for the institution. In 1954 the board of trustees selected the name of William Carey College in honor of the eighteenth century English cobbler-linguist whose decades of missionary activity in India earned him international recognition as the "Father of Modern Missions."

Sarah Allman Rouse, distinguished spouse of I. E. Rouse, was not only wife of the President but also Dean of Women.
