Associational Musings of a Baptist Editor

THE EDITOR of the Arkansas Baptist has managed to attend about half of the state's 44 Baptist Associations and to speak, at least briefly, at these annual meetings. Now we share with our readers some of our musings as we have hurried to and fro.

A SIGN on the front of a country store near Hardy struck us as being especially appropriate for denominational workers trying to "make" several associational meetings being held simultaneously: "If you can't stop, smile as you go by."

THE TIME allotted a denominational servant on the associational programs is like the salary of the average American. Whether it is much or little, it is all consumed. And never, never does the speaker complain that he has been allowed more time than he needs or feels he deserves! And some speakers are by the time assigned like a lot of people are by their salaries—always

"running in the red."

WE HAVE found the people attending the associational meetings to be "long suffering and kind." But we believe that if the rank and file of Arkansas Baptists liked half as much to sit in the pew as we preachers like to stand in the pulpit, attendance would be much better. The only folks who deliberately "walked out" on us were other denominational workers who had heard our talk one or more times before—reason in itself for a "walk out"—or who were trying to be at two or more places at the same time.

BLESS THE poor moderators' hearts! They have to "run the show," but even they have just 60 minutes in an hour and 24 hours a day. On the few occasions when the program was running behind time when it came time for us to appear, the gracious moderators reached out somewhere with a magical gavel and waved us in our allotted minutes. But some moderators are not quite scriptural. You write and ask for 10 minutes on the program, and they give you—10 minutes! Don't they know that if a denominational man compels them to give him 10 minutes they are supposed to give him 20!

MANAGING TO be on hand when an association has its peak attendance is like getting to the lake the day the fish are biting. A lot of times you are told, as you look out upon a sparse gathering, "You should have been here yesterday—every seat was taken!" The situation varied from one place to another. Some places they reported the biggest crowds at night, and, at other places, best attendance was during the day.

ONE NIGHT on the associational circuit we found ourselves—the plural here is purely editorial, for the editor was alone—putting up at a small, rather run-down tourist court, a block or two back from any main streets. The place was as quiet as a graveyard. It was so quiet we couldn't sleep. Came the dawn, finally, and we found out why it was so quiet. The editor had been the only customer to check in and had had the whole court to himself!

WITH THE bountiful meals served at the associations never out of his subconsciousness, the denominational worker during the fall meetings goes "to and fro in the earth, seeking what he may devour." Thanks to the dear ladies—and Arkansas is "The Land of Opportunity' for everybody who likes good cooking — there is always an abundance and an amazing variety of tasty vittles. Bless you, dear cooks, and may your tribe never decrease!

THE ASSOCIATIONAL circuit rider has occasion to observe, and, sometimes, dodge or outrun many different types of drivers on the State's excellent system of roads. Two types of drivers particularly make it hard for you to get to where you are going on schedule—those under 20 who want to average over 70; and those over 70 who want to average about 20.

WELL, IT'S been a great experience getting to see so many of our Arkansas Baptists. Our lives have been enriched and our hearts encouraged by the wonderful Christian fellowship. May we undertake greater things for the Lord as a result of our comings together.

The Quarterly Report

THE ARKANSAS Baptist Convention Churches gave $353,390.24 during the months of July, August, and Sep

This tember. $21,846.09 more than they gave last year, but still $21,052.61 short of our budget needs for the quarter. But, there is encouraging one trend on the giving, more churches gave through the Cooperative Program this last quarter than gave during the same quarter last year. This is good, but we can never be satisfied until very Baptist church in the Arkansas Convention gives a portion of its income through the Cooperative Program, each month. We realize that this is the ideal, but, it is scriptural and, therefore, not impossible. In Luke 6:38, Jesus said: "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to your again."

We have checked many of the quarterly Cooperative Program reports and find that there has never been a 100 per cent report from our churches. In fact, we have never had a 100 per cen annual report. Therefore, let us urg every church to send a check for the Cooperative Program during this Quarter. More and more of our churches are remembering the words of Jesus in Matthew 28:19-20, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."-Ralph Douglas

"The printed page never flinches, never shows cowardice; it is never tempted to compromise; it nevers tires, never grows disheartened; it travels cheaply, and requires no hired hall; it works while we sleep; it never loses its temper; and it works long after we are dead. The printed page is a visitor which gets inside the home and stays there; it always catches a man in the right mood, for it speaks to him only when he is reading it; it always sticks to what it has said, and never answers back; and it is bait left permanently in the pool."

Millard J. Berquist Midwestern President

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—(BP)—Millard J. Berquist, pastor, First Church, Tampa, Fla., has been elected president of Midwestern Baptist Seminary here, the newest theological institution in the Southern Baptist Convention.

Berquist will move to Kansas City during December, according to H. I. Hester, Liberty, Mo., president of the seminary board.

Berquist will be returning home. He is a native of Kansas City, Kans., was educated at William Jewell College, in nearby Liberty, Mo., and received his doctor's degree at Southern Seminary, Louisville.

He is a past president of the Florida Baptist Convention and past president of United Florida Drys. Berquist has been a trustee of Southern Seminary and has taken part in Home Mission Board preaching missions to Panama and Jamaica.

He has been pastor of First Church, Tampa, since 1947. He is the second pastor of that church to become president of a Southern Baptist seminary. Roland Q. Leavell, who preceded Berquist at Tampa, is president of New Orleans Seminary.

Hester said that Midwestern Seminary has made arrangement with Calvary Church, Kansas City, Mo., to use the church's educational buildings temporarily for its classes which begin in September, 1958.

The seminary is presently negotiating for "an extremely desirable site close to the heart of Kansas City," according to Hester. Announcements of the location of the property, if negotiations succeed, will be made at the meeting of the Southern Baptist Executive Committee in Nashville in December.

The Executive Committee must approve the purchase, he added.

Hester said that the state of Missouri granted the charter to Midwestern Seminary on the same day the board elected Berquist president. Berquist is already selecting a faculty, Hester continued.

GRACEVILLE, Fla. (BP) — George Gay, pastor of First Baptist church, Marianna, Fla., is serving as acting president of Baptist Bible Institute here until a permanent officer is elected.

Baptist Bible Institute was recently received by the Florida Baptist Convention to be operated under its control. A permanent president is expected to be elected soon.

Color Film Produced Relief, Annuity Board

DALLAS —(BP) — "The Years Ahead," a new color film produced for the Southern Baptist Relief and Annuity Board, has been released. It is available for use at annual State conventions.

The 16-minute film tells the story of a young Southern Baptist pastor, Ray Jenkins, and his family. Through a retired minister who is a member of his congregation, Pastor Jenkins learns about security and protection for a minister and his family.

A minister's widow, a disabled preacher, a friend, and others who depend on annuity checks from the Relief and Annuity Board tell Ray about protection for a minister and his family.

With the help of his friend, Ray learns how the Relief and Annuity Board administers retirement plans and safeguards the funds belonging to more than 19,000 Southern Baptists who are members of the plans.

"This picture is a source of information to those already in a retirement plan with the board, as well as to the thousands who have never taken advantage of their denominational protection program," according to R. Alton Reed, board executive secretary.

Each of the board's field representatives will have films to be used in their promotion work within states of the Convention.

Hays Interviewed

While Rep. Brooks Hays (D., Ark.), right, was in New York for a meeting on the Baptist Jubilee Advance, he was interviewed on Dave Garroway's program, "Today" (NBC-TV). Hays attended the Baptist Jubilee Advance meeting in his capacity as president of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Bryan Named Maryland Editor

GAINER E. BRYAN, JR., has been elected editor of the Maryland Baptist, official publication of the Maryland Baptist Union Association.

Now the director of public relations for the Kentucky Executive Board, he has been with Kentucky Baptists over three years. He and Mrs. Bryan will move to Baltimore, where he assumes his new duties, November 15.

The Maryland Bap-

MR. BRYAN tist, a monthly, has been edited by the general secretary, C. C. Thomas, who will retire December 31. In naming Roy D. Gresham general secretary-elect, the Maryland state Mission Board decided to elect a separate editor. The paper is to move toward weekly publication by stages.

Bryan, a native Georgian, graduated from Mercer University with a major in journalism and from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary with the BD degree. However, he is a layman.

After serving in the Navy in World War II, he was Mercer alumni secretary and editor; then a reporter for the Augusta Chronicle.

For nearly five years he was with the Sunday School Board. As superintendent of young people's work in the Sunday School Department, he originated the Military Service Membership Plan and wrote several leaflets still in use. He was also associate editor of the Sunday School Builder.

Bryan's free-lance stories and articles have appeared in the Arkansas Baptist, Home Life magazine, other Sunday School Board periodicals, and daily newspapers in several states. Last summer he wrote a series on the Billy Graham crusade in New York for several daily and denominational papers, including the Arkansas Baptist. His story on Roman Catholic encroachments on the public schools of a Kentucky county, appearing in this paper, was featured on the cover of a recent issue of Christian Century.

Bryan is the son of Gainer E. Bryan, Sr., Atlanta, state Training Union secretary of Georgia, and Mrs. Bryan.

DR. DUKE McCALL, president of Southern Seminary at Louisville, will appear on the weekly CBS religious TV program "Lamp Unto My Feet" representing his denomination, Sunday, November 10.

Produced in cooperation with the Southern Baptist Radio-TV Commission at Fort Worth, "Lamp Unto My Feet" originates in New York City from Columbia Broadcasting System studios at 9:00 a.m. (EST).

ohnson Named President Baptist Divinity School

On October 8, Dr. Ralph M. Johnson was inaugurated as president of Berkeley (California) Baptist Divinity School. He succeeds Dr. Sanford Fleming, who has retired after twenty years of service.

Southern Baptists will be especially interested in this event, since President Ralph Johnson is the son of Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, pastor of Third Bap-tist Church, St. Louis, and past president of the Baptist World Alliance. Both father and son are alumni of Southern Seminary, Louisville. A feature of the inaugural ceremonies was the address of the father as he took part in the induction of his son into the presidency of the divinity school. The younger Dr. Johnson has previously served as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Sacramento, Calif., and of Yakima, Wash. Since 1951 he has been general director of the Council on Missionary Cooperation of the American Baptist Convention.

THREE MEMBERS of the Sunday School Board are enrolled this semester for graduate study at Southwestern Seminary, Fort Worth, Tex. They are: A. V. Washburn, newly elected secetary of the Sunday School Department; Harvey T. Gibson, director of administration for the Training Union Department; and James Lackey, director of Young People's work for the Training Union Department. They are studying in the School of Religious Education.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (BSB) — The phone rings. You answer and a voice says, "There's been an accident. A bad one. Your son's alive, but we aren't sure about your husband. You'd better hurry to the hospital."

It happened just like that to Edna B. Hawkins of Marietta, Georgia. She tells her remarkable true story, "When the Man of the House Is Sick," in November Home Life, the Christian Family Magazine, published by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

THE 11TH NATIONAL convention of the Spanish Baptist Union, meeting in Second Baptist Church, Barcelona, September 26-28, admitted four new churches into the Union, established a cooperative program to help dependent churches and to finance the committees and agencies of the Union, and approved several amendments to its constitution.

Attending the sessions of the convention were 125 messengers from 38 Baptist churches all across Spain and a number of visitors. At the front of the church was a large, hand-drawn

Conformity and Controversy

In an article on Nonconformity in the current issue of the Atlantic, which concerns itself mostly with that subject in the field of art, Ben Shahn makes an observation that may well apply in other areas than art. He writes:

"Today a conformity is more than anything else the retreat from controversy."

Controversy is necessary in a democracy. Democracy cannot function without free and open expression in which there will inevitably be differences of opinion and conviction. In any large group, however united it may be in purpose and objective, there will certainly not be absolute unanimity.

For some years Southern Baptists have been free from the divisive controversies that in the past imperiled their fellowship. Many of these controversies were due to sheer ignorance. With the increased circulation of the state denominational papers, and with the improvement of other media of communication, there has been a more widespread understanding of the basic integrity and motive of the spiritual efforts in which we engage. This has contributed to unity and made needless and inept so much of the controversy of the past. Also, in past years, Baptists were plagued periodically by the emergence of a certain type of leader who gained notoriety by intemperate attacks and dishonest accusations against the denomination and its leaders. These men were demagogues. Many of them were clever and shrewd. Southern Baptists have become too intelligent and have learned too many lessons the bitter way, to ever allow themselves to be stampeded by one lone individual as in the past.

For this freedom from bitter controversy the denomination has reason to be grateful. However, to whatever degree this freedom from controversy is due the pressures toward conformity which affect so many areas of contemporary life, to that degree do we give injury to the processes of true democracy. To go away from a Baptist convention, for example, with thousands in attendance, and boast that in all the sessions not a negative vote was cast, may perhaps reveal a danger. Such a unanimity may betray the sickness of conformity. Genuine unity is not threatened by differences of opinion and conviction, freely expressed. A more valid and secure unity may be attained by freedom of expression than the surface unanimity which may be a surrender of the individual to conformity. Baptists have always been non-conformists. May they continue to be so, in the spirit of independence and in the atmosphere of fraternal love.—The Baptist Review

Ploughing Must Be Done

Though the cart creaks it will get home with its load, and the old horse, broken-kneed as he is, will do a sight of work yet. There's no use in lying down and doing nothing because we cannot do everything as we should like. Faults or no faults, ploughing must be done, and imperfect people must do it too, or there will be no harvest next year. Bad ploughman as John may be, the angels won't do his work for him, and so he is off to do it himself. Go along Violet. Gee whoa! Depper!—Spurgeon

Spanish Women Meet

Delegates representing some 650 members of 32 Woman's Missionary Unions met in Second Baptist Church, Barcelona, Spain, for the ninth biennial convention of the Spanish Baptist W.M.U. In keeping with the theme, "Christ in the Home," a model home, complete with figures, was displayed at the front of the church.

Counselor's Corner

By Dr. R. Lofton Hudson ARE INFANTS SAVED?

QUESTION: Most of our churches teach that before a child reaches "the age of accountability" that he or she is under the blood of Christ and is therefore saved. Where in the Bible is this found? Or is this just taken on the reasoning that a child cannot accept or reject Christ before he understands this? How does this square with the scripture that says

DR. HUDSON scripture that says that he that believeth not is condemned?

ANSWER: Do you remember the words of King David when his infant son died? He said, "I shall go to him but he will not return to me" (2 Sam. 12:23). This does not throw much light on your question but it does a little. Apparently he felt that the child was safe with God.

No, there is no single passage that can be cited as conclusive proof of the salvation of infants. But do we need any? What kind of a God do we have revealed through Jesus Christ? Would he send my child to hell (or even to limbo, whatever that is) for something that Adam did? This is simply preposterous. All we know about God and his ways with man indicate that such a view of God is false and an insult to the Almighty.

You do not need any one passage, not if you know the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Let's not insult God by making him worse than a sadistic criminal.

"He that believeth not" applies to all who have seen the light and rejected it.

1,048 Associational Minutes Microfilmed

NASHVILLE —(BP) — All recoverable minutes of 1,048 Baptist associations of churches have been microfilmed by the Southern Baptist Historical Commission, according to Commission Executive Secretary Norman W. Cox.

Of these, 628 associations are co-operating with the Southern Baptist Convention, two are co-operating with other Missionary Baptists, and 418 associations are Primitive Baptists.

Among Southern Baptist associations of churches, all recoverable minutes from Illinois, South Carolina, Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, and Tennessee have been microfilmed.

The Commission has orders to microfilm minutes of associations in Georgia, Oklahoma and Louisiana. They are to be filmed in 1959.

Garrett To Work With Public Affairs Group

WASHINGTON —(BP)— W. Barry Garrett, editor of the BAPTIST BEA-CON, weekly Baptist newspaper published in Phoenix, Ariz., has been elected associate director of the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs.

He is the first associate director of the Joint Committee and will be in charge of the "expanded information services to be provided by the Committee," according to C. Emanuel Carlson, director.

Garrett will have offices in Washington and will move to his new position Jan. 1.

In announcing the election of Garrett as an associate, Carlson said:

"Mr. Garrett has a splendid background for this work. As a pastor he served churches both in the Southern Baptist Convention and the American Baptist Convention. He has experience both in the eastern and western areas of our country.

"As an editor and writer, he has become known for his thoughtful analyses of denominational life. He has been particularly interested in the meaning of the Christian life as it is related to national and world affairs."

The Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs is operated jointly by six Baptist conventions, including the American and Southern Conventions. Located in Washington, it helps keep Baptists informed on public issues bearing on religious liberty and the separation of church and state.

Garrett will cover the Washington scene and provide releases to Baptist editors in the six co-operating conventions, according to Carlson. "He will not only seek out news at the national level that will be of interest to our editors, but he will also counsel with them on the interpretation of national issues and problems of religious liberty," Carlson said.

Born at Mangum, Okla., Garrett is a graduate of Baylor University and Southern Baptist Seminary. He served as pastor of churches in Indiana, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Oklahoma before going to Arizona.

Atlantic City Rally Caps Jubilee Advance

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. —(BP)—Seven Baptist conventions in the United States and Canada plan to be represented here at a rally in May, 1964, celebrating the 150th anniversary of organized Baptist work on a national scale in North America.

About 40,000 persons are expected to attend. The rally will be for inspiration and fellowship.

Baptist work on a national scale started in Philadelphia in 1814 when the General Missionary Convention of the Baptist Denomination in the United States for Foreign Missions was formed. The convention is commonly referred to as the Triennial Convention because it met every three years.

The rally here will culminate the period of Baptist Jubilee Advance in which the seven Baptist groups are participating. Special years of observance have been set for 1959 through 1964.

The Southern Baptist Convention is one of the seven groups. At their 1956 Convention in Kansas City, Southern Baptists approved 1964 as a year of Third Jubilee Celebration.

Over 2,000 Churches

Use Forward Program

NASHVILLE — (BP) — More than 2,000 churchee have ordered material this year to present the Forward Program of Church Finance of Southern Baptists.

The churches are using these materials in their campaigns to pledge church budgets to 1958.

Included in the Forward Program of Church Finance are materials which have been tested successfully over a period of years by various churches, and which have been compiled into one program to aid Southern Baptist churches.

Baptist Public Relations Workshop Is Planned

The Fourth Southern Baptist Public Relations Association Workshop will be held at the Home Mission Board Building and Baptist Tabernacle in Atlanta, Ga., February 17-18, 1958. An informative program has been planned featuring well-known, professional public relations men as well as members of the association.

Edward J. Forio, vice president of Coca Cola Company and chairman of the Georgia Crusade for Freedom Committee, figures prominently on the program. Dr. John Drewry, dean of Journalism, University of Georgia, will be the speaker for the banquet.

The program will begin with an analysis of the position of Baptists in public relations fields. There will also be exhibits, films and special interest groups on news, printed materials and exhibits, visual aids, fund raising and pictures, with special sessions for executives led by Fred Smith, son of a Baptist minister in Tennessee, of Fred Smith Associates, Cincinnati, Ohio. Projects promoted by individual members of the organization will be presented to the entire group.

Does Nature Padlock Her Treasures?

By THELMA CARTER

NATURE PUTS padlocks on many of her secrets and throws away the keys! Among her treasured possessions are seed — big seed, little seed, bulky seed, and seed of almost no weight.

Our Bible tells us that on the third day of the creation God said, "Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit . . . whose seed is in itself . . . and God saw that it was good" (Genesis 1:11-12).

Naturalists, scientists, and seed growers discover more about the oils, food nutrients, and medical uses of seed every year. But when it comes to the miracle of growth — the will to live within a seed, its development and the harvest to come — they have only ideas and opinions. No one has yet created a seed out of the elements of nature. Only God is able to do this miracle.

In order to protect her natural world, nature hides and masquerades her seed. Petunia and tobacco seed look alike, as do cabbage, turnip, and wild mustard seed. Plants are more easily identified by their leaves, stems, flowers, and fruits than by their seed.

Take a moment to look at the seed borne on tops of swaying stalks, cleverly hidden inside tough envelopes, wrapped around cobs, and hidden inside squashy fruits and berries. Husks, pods, cones, burrs, darts, cotton-wrapping, and over-shadowing leaves protect seed from view.

About the time seed growers think they have the perfect formula for raising a particular seed, nature changes her natural world. Lush, fertile soil (seedbeds) of one region of the world suffers drought. Dry, arid areas of our earth receive unexpected rain.

Yet the miracle of seed remains unchanged and unsolved!

What Is Fog?

By THELMA C. CARTER

THERE ISN'T A day of our lives that we do not thrill to nature's many varied gifts. We accept them — sun, moon, and stars, gentle rain and cooling winds — as part of our everyday lives.

But there is one of nature's handiworks which never fails to mystify us, even frighten us at times. It is fog.

Have you ever awakened on a cool, still morning to see fog ballooning down a valley, across a stream, rising along a riverbank, or even settling in your back yard? Perhaps you've stood on a mountain peak and watched fog billowing down the mountainside.

If you have, you know the feeling of wonder at the silvery, shimmering curtain that takes away your view of the world about you!

The writer of Psalm 135:7 tells us: "He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; . . .he bringeth the wind." Winds sweep fog away like magic. Fog is never a permanent thing.

MEDICAL WORK BEGUN

Under a burning tropical sun, a few curious Africans gathered in Nalerigu, Ghana, on September 16, for the groundbreaking services for the Baptist hospital. The text for the service was, "The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build" (Nehemiah 2:20), and the Africans were told that the medical work now beginning is an expression of Christ's compassion and love. The beauty of delicate misty fog will fascinate you — unless you are a navigator of a ship at sea or alone at night in an unfamiliar forest. Then dense fog creates a ghost world, and you can scarcely see one hundred feet away. Sometimes you cannot see your hand before you.

Ship sirens shriek warnings in fog. All manner of radar warnings protect airplanes in fogs! Fog areas are mapped in detail on our North Atlantic coast line where they occur so frequently.

Fog is part of the earth's water system, caused by a mixture of cool and warm air. In reality, fog is a cloud. Men who have measured fog say it is an almost unbelievable natural creation. A block of fog three feet wide, six feet high, and one hundred feet long contains less than one-seventh of a glass of water. A swallow of water, if it were transformed into fog, would contain some sixty billion tiny droplets of fine mist.

FOUR NEW MISSIONS IN CANADA

Four new missions have been started in Canada by Southern Baptists since July 15. Eleven churches and five missions in Western Canada are now cooperating with Southern Baptists through the Oregon-Washington convention. Canada's population on September 1 was 16,745,000. Total membership of all Baptist groups in Canada is less than 175,000. "I'VE BEEN thinking, my son, of retiring next year and leaving the business to you."

A Smile or Two

"There's no hurry, is there, Dad? You go ahead and work for a few years more and then we can retire together."

A MOUNTAINEER on his first trip to a large city was fascinated by the asphalt streets. Scraping his feet on the hard surfaced ground, he said to his son, "Well, I can't blame them for building a town here. The ground's too hard to plow anyhow."

A MAN bought a parrot and in trying to make him talk he kept repeating, "Hello, hello."

Finally, the parrot opened one sleepy eye and said, "Line's busy."

A NAVY RECRUIT had forgotten to bring his rifle from the firing range, and when he went back for it, it was nowhere to be found.

When he was told he would have to pay for it, he protested: "Suppose I was driving a Navy jeep and somebody stole it, would I have to pay for that, too?"

He was politely informed that he would have to pay for all government property lost.

"Now," said the recruit, "I can understand why the captain always goes down with his ship."

"YOUNG MAN," sternly asked the father, "do you think you should be taking my daughter to night clubs all the time?"

"No, sir," replied the boy, then continued hopefully, "let's both try to reason with her!"

THE MOST valuable sense of humor is the kind that enables a person to see what it isn't safe to laugh at.

THE MAID had just answered the door bell.

"It was two ladies," the girl explained to her mistress, "and I said that you were not at home."

"And what did they say?"

"One said to the other, 'Well, Friday's not such an unlucky day, after all!"

"I WISH I had enough money to buy an elephant."

"Now why do you want an elephant?"

"I don't. I want the money."

JACKSON, Miss. —(BP)— A Church in Mississippi wanted to give encouragement to its pastor by running an article in the weekly church bulletin entitled "Boost the Pastor a Bit." Sunday School Lesson

Worship Through the Lord's Supper

By Fritz E. Goodbar

November 3 I CORINTHIANS 11:20-34. With this lesson we turn aside from the study of personalities of the Old Testament to begin a study of Paul's letters to the early Christian churches. All of those letters were for definite But purposes. his first letter to the Corinthian church was for more than one purpose and our lesson today deals with the manner in which the very sacred ordinance we call The Lord's Supper should be observed. We are justified in calling this ordinance The Lord's Supper because the Bible refers to it in those terms and we do' well to shun other names which may produce confusion.

Mr. Goodbar recently retired from the pastorate following several years as pastor at Danville. He and Mrs. Goodbar now reside in Little Rock.

Fortions of three verses in the eleventh chapter of I Corinthians should command our attention in an especial way as we make this study. First: "Keep the ordinances as I have delivered them unto you," I Cor. 11:2. Second: "This do in remembrance of me," I Cor. 11:24. Third: "Let a man examine himself and so let him eat of that bread and drink of that cup," I. Cor. 11:28.

It is most unfortunate that much controversy has arisen over the ordinances our Lord left to His churches, and even at the early date in Christian history of this Epistle confusion and error had arisen over the observance of the ordinance of The Lord's Supper. It was because of this Paul gave to the Corinthian church and to us these explicit directions.

I. "KEEP THE ORDINANCES AS I DELIVERED THEM UNTO YOU."

The same word translated "keep" in the verse quoted above has been translated three other ways in the New Testament. Twice it is translated "hold:" three times it is translated "hold-fast;" and one time it is translated "retain." All of these words carry the supreme idea that the church should be very careful to keep the ordinances exactly as they were delivered and not to add to or subtract from them and thus defeat their real purposes. But already this Corinthian church had perverted the Lord's Supper and verses 17 through 22 of Chapter 11 point out those errors, viz:

First. Divisions among them. "I hear that there be divisions among you . . .

When you come together in one place this is not to eat the Lord's supper." (Marginal translation — "Ye cannot eat the Lord's supper.") The clear teaching is that there should not be divisions among the membership. All should be of the same faith and order.

Second. The second error was in making it a meal to satisfy hunger or thirst, I Cor. 11:21-22. The Lord's Supper was never intended to be a banquet or even a meal to satisfy our appetites.

Third. Not a fellowship feast for a select few, I. Cor. 11:22. The Corinthian Christians were reminded that they had homes in which to eat and drink.

Therefore, in view of these errors and others that might creep in, Paul gives us the reason for and the manner of observing The Lord's Supper.

II. "THIS DO IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME." I Cor. 11:24.

Paul is here quoting what Jesus had revealed to him and it gives unmistakably the reason for the ordinance.

Our Lord who knows the spirit of man, knows that we are very forgetful and it is our nature to accept blessings as a matter of course. How easy is it for us to forget that our salvation is possible only because Jesus, the Son of God, bore our sins in His body on the tree. How easy for us to forget that by His stripes we are healed and by reason of His shed blood our sins are remitted.

Therefore, this ordinance with the broken bread as a symbol of His broken body and the fruit of the vine as a symbol of His shed blood is to bring to our remembrance afresh and anew what Jesus did for us and is doing for us and will do for us. That there be no mistake about it these words are repeated: "This do in remembrance of me." This excludes everything else.

When we come to the Lord's table, which we should do as often as necessary to refresh our memories and see by these symbols our crucified Saviour, we cannot but humble ourselves and with hearts filled with gratitude go forth to give our lives for Him who gave His all for us; for

Upon that cross of Jesus mine eyes at times can see

The very dying form of One who suffered there for me

And from my smitten heart with tears, two wonders I confess,-

The wonders of His glorious love and my own worthlessness.

Elizabeth C. Clephane III. "BUT LET A MAN EXAMINE HIMSELF AND SO LET HIM EAT OF THAT BREAD AND DRINK OF THAT CUP," I. Cor. 11:28.

Paul concludes his direction to the church by reminding the individual that he is the one who is either observing The Lord's Supper in the right or the wrong manner. If we observe it and are at odds with the other members; or to satisfy our hunger or to enjoy fellowship with others we are missing the mark and doing it unworthily. But if we do so in order that our memories may be refreshed about what Jesus has done for us and in worship of Him we are worthily partaking of it.

Even at this late date in the Christian era the churches need to guard, keep and often observe this ordinance as delivered by Jesus and the members individually need to see in the symbols that Jesus provided for their redemption at a terrible cost. When this is done Christ's command has been fulfilled and grateful hearts with reawakened wonder and worship will exclaim, "My Lord and My God!"
