FOREWORD

If the aim of education can be summarized in one word, surely it is "growth." One thinks it not unusual when he sees the change in a seedling growing into a towering tree, the development of a child maturing into manhood, the progression of well-laid plans evolving into a great edifice — all common occurrences accepted with little thought. Yet, as we look at the part growth has played in this year, we realize the expansion of the Arkadelphia community, the extension of the Ouachita campus, the rise in academic standards, and the maturing of each individual. It is this side of the school year that we are featuring for you as you look back on 1965.

Community Visualizes Constructive Expansion

Arkadelphia is rapidly growing with the addition of many new homes, several of which are built by Ouachita faculty. The Herman Sandford home is located in Ouachita Hills.

Progressing rapidly toward completion, Interstate 30 by-passes Arkadelphia to the west while speeding traffic to northwest Arkansas or to Texas.

Extending 243 feet high, and costing $50 million, the DeGray Dam, under construction by the U.S. Corps of Engineers, is a multi-purpose dam and reservoir which will provide flood control, hydro-electric-power, industrial water, and recreation when completed.

Bringing in new families and more tax dollars, this manufacturer of women's apparel, opening only last spring, is the newest of Arkadelphia industries.

Even though lack of funds delayed construction, the new gymnasium was ready for the second basketball game of the season.

Game rooms complete with stereo and television, club rooms, a spacious drawing room, and a kitchen are all contained in the new student center annex.

J. E. Berry Chapel is a great asset in the spiritual growth of Ouachita students, for it is here that the religious organizations such as the YWA's and the CCU, hold their periodical meetings.

Campus Size Doubles During 1954-64 Decade

Perrin Hall, a dormitory for women students, was completed in the spring of 1964 and occupied for two months by freshman girls. This year the dormitory is the home of upperclass women and has many modern facilities for their use.

West Hall, twin of Northwest, was completed in the spring of 1964 also. The dormitory is occupied by freshmen and upperclassmen who enjoy similar conveniences as provided in Perrin.

Activities

Activities Aid Growth Of Each College Student

Religion plays a big part in the lives of Mike Weber and Gary Alverson as they share personal devotions in the dorm.

Giving of his time for service, Don Smith conducts a class during the Negro Bible School, a project of the BSU. The Bible school is held every Saturday morning in the Negro Baptist church.

Leon Clements, Ouachita's leading basketball player, does preliminary workouts in physical education class.

School

*"Build thee more stately mansions, ,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!"*

Phelps Plans for Future, Foresees Student Needs

It has been said that a truly great college president is able to foresee all the needs of the students — both physical and mental. If this is true, then Ouachita has a great president in Dr. Ralph Phelps, Jr., who is serving in his twelfth term as president.

Dr. Phelps received his B.A. and M.A. from Baylor University. He earned his Th.M. and Th.D. at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary where he was also an associate professor.

In foreseeing the physical needs of the student, Dr. Phelps has made many plans for expansion and has supervised their execution. New dormitories, new class buildings, a new chapel, and a new gym have all been built during his administration.

The mental needs of the students have been fulfilled by the addition of many new courses to the curriculum and the addition of new faculty members.

His successful fight against legalizing gambling in Garland County won him commendation from the Arkansas Baptist State Convention last fall.

Presidents past and present — Dr. Phelps unveiled the portrait of the late Dr. J. W. Conger, first president of Ouachita, at Founders' Day program. The portrait was painted by Faunt B. Smith of Camden at the bequest of Mrs. Jane Flippen Perrin, late niece of Conger.

Trustees

Board Members Pledge To Progress of Ouachita

The Board of Trustees, governing body of Ouachita, is composed of 24 businessmen, doctors, and educators from every part of the state. The members of the board are elected by the Arkansas Baptist Convention for three-year terms.

Marvin Green, chairman of the board, presided at this year's meetings. The board meets on the second Thursday of every quarter during the year.

These board members serve without pay. They have one goal — the progress of Ouachita, and they are always willing to give of their time and effort to achieve that goal. Last summer the members took a historic step by voting unanimously to remove all racial barriers in the admittance of students to the undergraduate program at Ouachita.

Berry, Judge Edward Maddox, Thomas Keys, Marvin Green, Dr. John McClanahan, Jeral Hampton, William C. Hargis, Jr., Marlin Gennings, J. S. Colvert, Wade Willis.

Dr. Henry Lindsey, dean of faculty, relaxes after a hard day in the office. Serving his first term at Ouachita this year, he is in charge of all academic affairs concerning students and faculty.

Although Dr. Tom Gambrell is not always at his desk because of his many duties, he is always busy about the campus. In his office Dr. Gambrell decides on some matter of school policy for the future.

The office of Mrs. Neno Flaig, dean of women, is located in Cone-Bottoms Hall. It is here that female Ouachitonians congregate to confer with Mrs. Flaig about housing, judicial action, and problems.

Deans

They Work to Improve Relations of Students

The first person most Ouachita students meet is Dr. Tom Gambrell, dean of student affairs. From his office come catalogues, room reservations, work permits, and parking stickers. Dr. Gambrell's chief duty is enforcement of school policy. He received his B.S.E. at O.B.U. and his M.R.E. and D.R.E. at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has served as minister of education in several churches.

Acting as a liaison between the administration and women students, Mrs. Neno Flaig, dean of women, gives advice to women students. Among her varied duties is serving as head of the Judicial Board, women student government. Mrs. Flaig did undergraduate work at O.B.C. and then received her M.S.E. from Henderson State Teachers College. She has been a substitute high school teacher both in Victoria, Tex., and Arkadelphia.

Dr. Henry Lindsey, a new addition to the administrative staff, is the dean of faculty. This position requires him to be in charge of all academic affairs, including exam and class scheduling and assigning teacher responsibilities. He received his B.A. from O.B.C., M.A. from Louisiana State and Ph.D. from University of Denver.

Though this isn't really their line of work, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Burleson enjoy playing a game of ping pong whenever their busy schedules will allow a little time for some relaxation.

Mrs. Johnson's notebook is full of many plans for a busy year in BSU. Religious Focus Week was a big project in the spring.

Miss Crawford is kept very busy in her dual role. Here she looks over her many requests for applicants to fill jobs after college.

STAFF

Vital Personnel Manage Various Campus Areas

Important staff members are the life of every school. The public relations director, James Burleson, was in charge of correlating the activities of the college with the surrounding area. This included being in charge of attracting students to Ouachita and directing alumni affairs. He was assisted by George Johnson. Both are Ouachita graduates.

Mrs. Ruth Johnson directs student activities. Miss Frances Crawford has a double job — overseeing placement and assisting with the alumni affairs.

In charge of the post office located in the Student Center is Don Pennington. His job is not only to supervise the distribution of mail but also to supervise policies of the post office.

Miss Martha Greene keeps the OBC Bookstore running smoothly with the assistance of several student workers. Her tasks include ordering textbooks for courses taught here.

Although their jobs are quite diversified, Miss Greene and Mr. Pennington both perform vital tasks in the Student Center.

Typing information letters to prospective students is a routine job to Linda Casey, secretary to the registrar at Ouachita.

When Homecoming was postponed, the registrar's office sent countless letters to alumni. Beverly Johnston and Renella Hardin stuff envelopes.

Secretaries

Secretarial Duties Vary To Meet School Needs

The job of the secretary on a college campus is different from that of a regular secretary. Although the basic duties are similar, the college secretary cannot help coming into contact with student life. This can cause her job to be varied with unexpected duties.

Secretaries on Ouachita's campus are key figures in the smooth functioning of all campus life. Serving as assistants to the administrators, they often correlate the student needs with administrative policy.

Resident Counselors

Dorm "Moms" Function On Duty 24 Hours Daily

Serving as a resident counselor for college students is one of the most challenging, yet one of the most rewarding jobs on campus. The dorm "mom" (or "dad") comes into direct contact with every student in the dormitory.

Duties of the resident counselor are varied; in one day he or she may do such routine tasks as checking rooms and granting late permission to taking care of the problems that arise. Jobs of the resident counselors are twenty-four hour ones, for they are on constant call at all times.

Entertaining for one another on birthdays and other occasions is a regular part of dorm mothers' leisure time. Here are Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Bowers, Mrs. May, Mrs. Steele, and Mrs. Eunice Moore at going-away party for Mrs. Moore.

Physical Needs Fulfilled By Cafeteria, Infirmary

Two institutions on the campus that care for the physical needs of students are the cafeteria and the infirmary. All students living in dorms are required to eat in the cafeteria, so with a record enrollment, the cafeteria has expanded its preparation and services. Mrs. Charles Conner, dietitian, holds a B.S. degree from Mary Hardin-Baylor College and is in charge of planning and preparing meals.

The college infirmary is always open for any students who need its services. Regular hours for routine illnesses are established so that the nurses may attend classes, but emergencies are accepted at any hour. The infirmary is equipped to minister to all illnesses from a sore throat to those requiring confinement.

Planning meals for so many people 36 weeks plus 10 weeks of summer school is but one of the responsibilities of Mrs. Charles Conner.

When illness strikes, students are cared for in the school infirmary. Nurses Judy Davis and Eva McLeroy, here examining Sue Chappell, both received their R.N. from Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.

One vital task in working with the printed word is reading and re-reading, as News Bureau assistant director Bill Turley and director Claude Sumerlin can verify. Turley received his M.A. from the U. of Missouri and Sumerlin from Baylor U.

With the tremendous growth of Ouachita's student body came the need for a larger library staff. Mrs. Raybon, Mrs. Chapel, and Mrs. French file cards for books in the curriculum lab for education majors.

Librarian Mrs. Juanita Barnett, having degrees from Ouachita and from Peabody College, keeps the center of intellectual pursuit running smoothly. Here, she aids researchers Pat Logan and Elton Ballentine.

News and Library

Bureau Issues News; Library Adds Volumes

All written publicity about the school, students, or faculty is released by the news bureau. This department is also responsible for the publication of the SIGNAL, the school newspaper, and the OUACHITONIAN, the year-book.

Representatives of the news bureau travel thousands of miles each year in order to give adequate coverage to athletic events.

Having about 60,000 books and 406 periodicals, Riley Library is one of the finest college libraries in the state. For the past eight years about 3,000 volumes per year have been added, and the circulation for the past two years has doubled previous figures. Guiding this rapid expansion are Mrs. Juanita Barnett, librarian, and Mrs. Jean Raybon, assistant librarian.

EDUCATION

Future Teachers Apply New Professional Skills

Purposes of teacher education are to stimulate each student to develop and impart ideas clearly and effectively, to be able to apply the scientific approach to problem-solving, to participate in as well as appreciate creative endeavor, and to develop the art and science of teaching through scholarship and professional skill.

An important and thrilling experience for education majors during their senior year is eight weeks of student teaching in a public school. This year 15 seniors practice taught in the fall and approximately 80 in the spring at 15 teaching points within an 80-mile radius of the campus.

The Teacher Education Program is coordinated through a council composed of representatives from all academic divisions. It is fully accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education.

Education

Education Correlates All Academic Divisions

While students in the background enlist membership in the Student National Education Association through a coke party, Mr. Chapel, Dr. Kelley, Mr. Watson, and Dr. Wetherington discuss the outlook of the year's education program.

Members of the play production class each present a one-act play. Ruie Hazelriggs, Sharon Carwile, and Claude Fender make up the cast for "The Unsatisfactory Supper," student-directed by Carol Wilson.

Language students must have two hours of listening lab besides class work. Fran Holden, a sophomore from Pine Bluff, supervises a French lab, gaining teaching experience and increasing her own vocabulary.

Humanities

Student Lives Enriched In Humanities Courses

Humanities brings music, art, and literature to every student while some choose to develop individual skills in speech, English, journalism, drama, and languages.

Culture is broadened in the student as appreciation for drama and theater develops. Directing, acting, playwriting, and debating provide for student participation.

Literature courses acquaint students with the masterpieces of literature in English and with the relationships of this literature to the whole of Western culture. Other English courses enable each student to communicate effectively and to broaden horizons to new interests and appreciation of great writers of the past.

Journalism courses train students for professional careers in newspapers, magazines, education and public relations as they study the art of communication.

Culture is enriched through the study of modern languages — French, Spanish, and German — with concentration on grammar and literature. Special interest is created through visual aids, biographies, and travelogues.

Dr. Finley Chu, chairman of the Division of Business and Economics and professor of economics, received his Ph.D. from Wisconsin U. and his D.R.E. from Southwestern Theological Seminary. He has the unusual hobbies of making picture frames from aluminum, other handicrafts, and running track.

Mr. Squires, one of the new faculty members this year, instructs a sophomore class in management.

Business and Economics

Students Are Offered Practical Experiences

Students desiring training in business and economics on the professional level, secondary education level, or to prepare them for the graduate level are extremely fortunate to study under well-informed faculty members in the Business and Economics Division.

This year the Professional Counseling Program has been created. Its purpose is to bridge the gap between the student and the business community. Students will learn from not only their classes, but also from observation. A businessman who is a counselor learns about these students, and invites them to his business to show them how it is organized and how important his business is to the community. It is felt that this new program will be beneficial to the business and economics students.

Fine Arts

Music and Art Influence Refinement of Campus

Continually growing, the Fine Arts Division again reached a new peak in numbers this year, both in faculty and students. Music students, training for vocations in performance, teaching, church music, and composition, contributed to the cultural life of the campus through their many performances. The art department helped college functions through its poster and program designs. Outside of the college community, students and faculty toured throughout the state to present Ouachita's superior music programs to expand further the division's good reputation.

The entire division searches unceasingly for new mediums of expression and performance, as evidenced by two new campus groups in the music department — the madrigal group and the brass choir.

Dr. Sutley further discusses the Eureka filing system with Roger Foster after a class session in "Pastoral Duties."

Dr. Berryman passes back test papers to his Sermon Preparation class. John Dillon seems pleased with his grade while Jim Andre checks his results.

Religion and Philosophy

More Students Prepare For Religious Vocations

Reaching each student, the Religion and Philosophy Division offers specialized courses as well as general education courses.

The religion section is designed mainly for students seeking careers in church-related vocations. However, all students study Hebrew Heritage and Christian Heritage, the study of the Old and New Testament.

One of the largest groups on campus is made up of students for the ministry. During the past years, the number of these students has increased more than 35 per cent.

Courses in philosophy deal with the principles underlying all knowledge and service to integrate man's ideas into a coherent and whole pattern.

Social Science

Political Students Active During Election Year

Since this was an election year, political science students had an opportunity to inform students of the platforms of various candidates and campaign for their favorites. The department also served as an information bureau to civic groups and high schools. The elections provided an excellent opportunity to fulfill the first concern of the division — the training of citizens who are morally responsible and who understand government and its processes.

The history department helps to develop understanding of the problems and contributions of the past as well as insight into present events by studying and analyzing important historical events.

Special emphasis is given to training pre-law students, social workers, civic workers, and teachers by this department. Instructors seek to describe and clarify accurately political thought for the student.

"Glued" to the television on the night of elections, students from all departments joined political science majors in a watch party.

Division Trains Students For Modernized World

Today science plays a most significant part in the nation. Math, physical science, and life science, as general education courses, expose all students to the wonders of science. Well qualified instructors have an advantage of training those who will enter such fields as medicine, pharmacy, research, engineering, teaching, and home economics in the well-equipped labs of Hamilton Moses. Students leaving this department are ready to go directly to work in their chosen field, or else into further study for various professions.

The home economics department teaches homemaking skills and offers practical courses to help girls to make future homes happy and comfortable. Many majors in this field enter home economy, dietetics, or the teaching profession.

Cadets Receive Awards As Military Leaders

The Distinguished Military Students are selected in accordance with AR 601-107. To be able to achieve this outstanding honor, one must possess leadership ability as well as academic qualities. After four years of service in ROTC, he must be in the upper one-third of his military class, and in the upper half of his college class.

When those qualified are approved by the board of officers, they are concurred by the president of the college and become Distinguished Military Students. One truly outstanding cadet becomes brigade commander.

ROTC Gains Recognition During Summer Camp

In addition to instruction in military sciences, map reading, weapons care, military history, and the Friday afternoon drill, Ouachita ROTC students participate each summer in a six-week camp program. This past summer Ouachita upheld its tradition by placing near the top in competition with other units. James Charles Conner, a Ouachita senior, brought further recognition to the school by placing first out of the 2,500 students attending in individual competition.

The Reserve Officers Training Corps at Ouachita is the oldest of five such programs in Arkansas and has gained nation-wide recognition as the "West Point of the Ozarks." The ROTC program is four years with the third and fourth years taken only by the outstanding students, most of whom upon graduation are commissioned into the United States Army with the rank of second lieutenant. The first two years of military science are required for all able-bodied male students.

"He Is Not Dead"

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you — oh, you, who the wildest yearn
For an old-time step, and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here.
Think of him still as the same. I say,
He is not dead — he is just away.

WHO'S WHO...

Top Students Selected For Special Honors

Outstanding recognition has been given to 24 senior students as they have been selected to represent Ouachita in Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities. This honor has been bestowed upon them by a vote of Student Senate and OBU faculty.

Each senior began earning this honor from the moment he approached Ouachita through his senior year by showing his outstanding abilities scholastically, and his worthiness for leadership. The character of one selected to represent Ouachita with this honor must be beyond and above all reproach.

Jean Balfour, from Little Rock, is a music theory major. She has participated in numerous activities. Among these activities are Y.W.A., OBU Choir, Singers, Musician's Guild, and Gamma Phi social club. Jean was elected to fill the second semester vacancy of secretary in the Student Senate. A favorite pastime is knitting.

Gordon Cagle, a chemistry major, is from Arkadelphia. He is a member of the Beta Beta Social Club and is active in the Chemistry Club, Math Honor Society, and the Gamma Sigma Epsilon Chemistry Fraternity. He enjoys hunting and fishing as hobbies.

Rita Bradley is a French major from Morrilton. She has served as Freshmen Class secretary, Senior Class senator, cheerleader for three years, and captain for two years. She is also a member of the EEE Social Club, Kappa Delta Pi, Sigma Tau Delta, SNEA, and the Young Democrats. She plans to teach French and English.

Ken Carpenter is a chemistry major and comes from Malvern. He has been active in the Beta Beta Social Club, Pershing Rifles, Scabbard and Blade, Pistol Team and Swimming Team. He also was a member of the State BSU choir. Ken's interests include water skiing, athletics and guns.

Diane Cato, a home economics major from Little Rock, has served as the EEE Social Club president, a Sophomore Class senator, and Colhecon treasurer. She was nominated as the Junior Class homecoming candidate. She participated on the YWA Executive Board and the AWS Judicial Board. She also held the office of State Secretary of the College Club of AHEA.

Leon Clements, a physical education and biology major from Kingsland, has earned the respect of opponents on the basketball court while rewriting numerous AIC records. But even more important, he has won the acclaim of fellow students and faculty members for his warm-hearted personality and his outstanding leadership ability demonstrated on the campus and in the classroom.

WHO'S WHO...

Ed Coulter, one of OBU's outstanding seniors, is a secondary education major from Hot Springs. He has served as president of his Freshman, Sophomore, and Senior classes, and of the BSU. He is an active member of the Beta Beta Social Club, Kappa Delta Pi, SNEA, and Blue Key. He enjoys water sports, football, basketball and music.

An accounting major from Thayer, Mo., Joe Franz has distinguished himself as a four-year letterman in basketball. He is also a member of the Beta Beta Social Club and Blue Key. In his spare time, he enjoys water skiing, tennis and chess.

Peggy Gullage comes all the way from Jackson, Miss. She is a music major and received the highest grade point in the Junior class. She is a member of the EEE Social Club, Alpha Chi, Kappa Delta Pi, SNEA, MENC, and the Madrigal Singers. She also participated in the Ouachita Choir, Ouachita Singers and was president of the Musician's Guild.

Renella Hardin, an elementary education major, is from Arkadelphia. She served as secretary of the EEE Social Club and is an active member of the SNEA and BSU.

David Kossover hails from England and his major is physical education. He was Arkansas state tennis champion for 1963 and 1964 and also the AIC tennis champion. He lettered in basketball for four years and received All-American Honorable Mention.

A business administration major from Waldo, Judith Ann Jackson has participated in various activities including Freshman Class senator, EEE Social Club, Phi Beta Lambda and the Psychology Club. She is also interested in reading, travel, and politics.

Wayne McGraw, a chemistry major, is from Jacksonville, Fla. He is a member of the Beta Beta Social Club, Pershing Rifles, Scabbard and Blade, Alpha Chi and the Chemistry Club. Other activities include the Gamma Sigma Epsilon Chemistry Fraternity, Math Honor Society, and Intramural All-Star Football team.

Michael Maksholo from Rhodesia has a double major in English and history. He has been president of the International Relations Club and is a member of the BSU, CCU and SNEA. He enjoys reading and tennis.

A music education major, Ellis Melton, is from North Little Rock. He is the drum major of the OBU band and is president of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonian and Alpha Chi. He is also an active member of the Musician's Guild.

WHO'S WHO . . .

Bill Neal, a physical education major, is from Du Quoin, Ill. He is an active member in the Beta Beta Social Club and the Physical Education Majors Club. He has shown his athletic ability by being on both the varsity basketball and baseball teams.

Celia Nourse is from Texarkana, Tex. and has a double major, English and music. She is a member of the OBU choir, the Singers and the Musician's Guild. She also participated in the Young Republicans, Sigma Tau Delta and Kappa Delta Pi. Her hobbies include reading, playing the piano, and sewing.

Jo Anne Pearman, an English major with a French minor, is from Almyra. During her college career she has participated in SNEA, YWA, Sigma Tau Delta, and Kappa Delta Pi. She is a member of the EEE Social Club. Her hobbies include reading and attending sports events.

Cherry Pemberton from Little Rock is a French major who has been a member of the SNEA, Young Democrats Club, BSU, and the EEE Social Club. She also has been a Pershing Rifle Honorary Sponsor, ROTC Honorary Sponsor, cheerleader, and a senator in the Student Senate.

A music major from Memphis, Tenn., John Hershel South has served as president of Sigma Alpha Sigma, and as president of the OBU band. He has also participated in Scabbard and Blade, Pershing Rifles, the Singers, and Phi Mu Alpha. He likes water skiing and hiking as hobbies.

Jane Pouzar Terrell, a history major from Little Rock, has been active in a variety of organizations. She was treasurer of her Junior Class and is a member of Gamma Phi Social Club, Alpha Chi, SNEA, and the Young Republicans.

WHO'S WHO . . .

Jerry Wayne Thompson's major is music education. Jerry, from Smackover, has served as president of Sigma Alpha Sigma, and has participated in band, OBU choir, and the Singers. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha, Pershing Rifles, ROTC, and MENC. His hobbies are hunting and listening to records.

Carol Wenzel, who has served as editor and co-editor of the Ouachitonian, is a journalism major from North Little Rock. Carol has also been a Signal staff reporter, a member of SNEA, Alpha Chi National Honor Fraternity, Gamma Phi Social Club, YWA, CCU, and BSU choir. Carol's hobbies are sewing, reading, cooking, knitting, and fishing.

A home economics major from Weiner, Doris Westerman was the recipient of the "Miss Home Economics Award." She is a member of Colhecon, Gamma Phi Social Club, Kappa Delta Pi, SNEA, and served as Junior Class secretary. She was a member of Homecoming Royalty one year and was ROTC Honorary Cadet Colonel.

Student Senate President

STUDENT SENATE

Officers, Student Senate Govern Student Body

Student Senate officers are elected each spring for the coming year. The Senate has full power to transact all business pertaining to student government, but the right of initiative and referendum may be exercised by the Associated Students.

The president appoints four agencies each year to handle matters of different concern. These are social, booster, elections, and finance. He also presides over all meetings of the association and of the Student Senate, enforces the constitution, and discharges any other duties delegated him by the Student Senate.

Duties of the first vice-president are the same as the president when he assumes that office for any reason. At other times he serves in the Senate as the representative-at-large from the Student Body.

The second vice-president is chairman of the Booster Agency, and fills in for the first vice-president when necessary.

The treasurer supervises all financial receipts and disbursements of the Senate. He keeps an up-to-date account of all Student Senate funds.

Keeping complete and available records of the Senate is the secretary's job.

Senate-sponsored broadcasts kept the fans posted with up-to-the minute reporting on out-of-town basketball games. Bob Willis and Eddie Rettstatt handled the commentary.

STUDENT SENATE

Many Campus Activities

Sponsored by Senate

Ouachita's Student Senate sponsors many yearly campus activities. Homecoming, Dad's Day, and Tiger Day are projects carried out by senate committees.

Broadcasting out-of-town AIC basketball games is one of the senate's largest projects. This year the Senate also sponsored broadcasts from the NAIA tournament at Kansas City, and contributed to funds for sending the cheerleaders on the same trip.

It is through the Student Senate that soft drink and candy machines have been placed in the dorms, and each dorm receives a kickback from these each semester.

Giving Ouachita a representative government, the Student Senate serves as a median between the student body and faculty. This organization provides co-ordination and support of all other campus organizations.

Sammy Watkins, chairman of Tiger Day, types plans for the all-day event held here April 2.

Ray Hardin and Paula Brown make plans for Dad's Day, an annual event for which they were co-chairmen.

Eugene Whitlow enjoys the morning newspaper in the lobby of Flippen-Perrin. The paper is ordered for each dorm by the Senate.

Freshman class officers include Bob Dawkins, president; Judy Philliber, treasurer; June Wright, secretary; and Paul Batson, vice president.

Sophomore class officers are Ronnie Coleman, treasurer; Dean Dickens, vice president; Tommy Carroll, president; and Pam Shipps, treasurer.

CLASS OFFICERS

Officers Force Behind Many Class Activities

senior from Morrilton; Judy Pat Neely, a junior from Warren; Sherlyn Davis, a sophomore from Searcy. Gold and purple pom-poms are effective in leading cheers.

Activities

*"The work has multiplied like stars at night
When darkness deepens: every noble deed
Lasts longer than a granite monument."*

RAY M. JOHNSON

Carolyn Brown purchases a freshman beanie that will be her constant companion for the next week, while Bill Dawson and Gene Spearman make plans for the torture ahead.

Many students have to re-arrange their schedules after desired classes have been filled and closed.

Dan Davies, one of the few lucky freshmen, is exempt from ROTC since he attended a military academy.

Enrollment Sets Record In Student Registration

Lines and more lines make up registration, and it is little wonder since these students are but a few of 1301, record enrollment.

Bob Willis punches buttons while the dazed expressions of Robert Crockett, Mary Ann Campbell, and Gordon Cagle reflect their exasperated feelings as they pay their way through the business line.

Registration is over at last, and these students find relief as they gather to discuss it all in the student center.

Donna Hadfield says "cheese" as Lee Floyd snaps pictures for student identification cards and Donna McCoy supervises.

Sharon Windham discovers that her expenses aren't over as Don Bryan breaks the news of book prices.

Although Cissy Bell is on trial at Kangaroo Court, it looks like Ed Coulter is having to defend himself.

Freshman initiation and singing to the Tiger every morning are all part of Ouachita tradition. When bad weather makes outside singing impossible, students are forced inside Mitchell Hall for the routine.

That Was The Week That Was—Frantic, Fun

Bob Dawkins addresses the first freshman class meeting after being elected president in a run-off race.

Re-painting the Tiger was the first project of the freshman class.

Bob Snider's group entertains with folk music during the Sophomore Talent Show in September.

Exuberant freshmen spring a surprise pep rally on unsuspecting upperclassmen as they leave their first Chapel and head for classes.

Tiger Spirit Awakens As School Greet's Fall

It can't be that bad, but maybe two cameras at one time frighten Nick Lanpher.

Sandra Martin and Jim Moody rehearse scene from the drama department's first play of the season, "Five Finger Exercise."

Kangaroo Court provides an opportunity for faculty members to have fun with the students, as these men can testify.

The crew agreed that getting ready for the show involved a lot of time and hard work, but that was half the fun.

Dads Are Entertained By Sons and Daughters

Moms and dads get acquainted while visiting their daughters at Johnson Hall, first-place winner in dorm displays.

Nominating her father as "Dad for the Day," Carolyn Yelldell sings "My Heart Belongs to Daddy" at the talent show.

Bill Derryberry, Tom Elliff, Ruffin Snow, and Doug Prichard entertain parents and students with some original songs.

Expressions are varied as students and parents discuss features of the talent show as they leave Mitchell Hall.

Ronnie Lewis, Bob Braswell, and Bill Dawson ham-it-up backstage before the show.

Parents and students fill the dining hall to overflowing during the pre-game dinner.

Proud papas watch intently from the sidelines as their sons score a 13-0 victory over Harding.

Leisure Moments Filled With Varied Activities

Rev. Bill Seward chats with Charlotte Halbert, Bob Dawkins, Judy Travis and Anita Wood during one of the occasional school picnics.

Jim Conner and Thomas Wilson display specimen of poisoned fish as Mr. Sandifer supervises study.

Student director Barbara Hall follows the script as Barbara Pannell and Spencer Honey rehearse for "The Apollo of Bellac," a one-act play by Guaudaux.

Tiger Trail boosts team to victory over the Harding Bisons.

Musically talented students, like the Malhinis, often form groups to entertain fellow students.

Brenda Dale signs out as she leaves Perrin.

The art of ironing is a skill quickly learned by most college boys. Mike Bigham practices by getting his shirts ready for classes.

Cooking is a favorite pastime of many girls. Linda Marie Devis and Linda Ream combine their talents for a Sunday night dinner in Perrin.

Dorm Provides Leisure, Opportunity for Study

Some students even study in the dorm, if they aren't interrupted by pesky photographer. Jim Bledsoe reviews for a test.

Marilyn Matlock gives Suzanne Russell a new hair-do for EEE formal initiation.

Hobbies give students a more varied dorm life. Ronnie Hankins tunes in his ham radio set.

Knitting fills many leisure hours in the lives of Ouachita coeds. Nola Shaddox gives Pat Jamoson advice on the sweater she is making.

It's cafeteria food but Janice Grigsby and Judy Hargan dish it out with a smile.

Jim Larkin, a member of the campus crew, helps to keep the Home management house running smoothly.

The library employs many students for various jobs. Dona Hatcher aids T. J. Cunningham at the reserve desk.

After classes, Malcolm Stuart and Bob Dawkins lend a steadying hand to Brenda Guinn as she tries her luck on a surf skate.

Students Ride Again Via Skates, Horseback

To buy or not to buy: that is the question on the mind of Jim Rees in the Ouachita Bookstore.

Carol Ann Wilson takes a break from work and studies by riding a horse at the OBU stables.

Adding Nursing School Helps University Status

After years of preparation, a vote of approval by the Board of Trustees, filing with the Secretary of State, and approval from the State Board of Education, Ouachita officially became a university on February 15, 1965.

Besides the Arkadelphia campus, Ouachita Baptist University also operates branch schools at Little Rock and Camden. The Arkansas Baptist Hospital School of Nursing became a part of OBU in January, and Mrs. Mildred Armour was appointed dean there. In the future, nursing students will study at both Little Rock and Arkadelphia to obtain a degree from Ouachita.

Dr. Phelps, Dr. Elrod, and Dr. Lindsey were leaders in paving the way and preparing the program for Ouachita to achieve university status.

Little Rock students register for evening classes at the branch there in February. Mr. Sandford and Dr. Wolber are assisting.

"We're a university now!" Dr. Phelps beams at this dream come true as he strolls across campus with a hot cup of coffee in hand.

Students at Ouachita's School of Nursing in Little Rock hear a lecture on anatomy by a doctor at Arkansas Baptist Hospital.

RFW speaker Charles Graves listens from the sidelines as the New Day trio entertains at the Coke Party. Jenny Boley, Marsha Riddle, and Sandi Sylvest compose the popular musical trio of students.

Enjoying a joke at the RFW Coke Party are Jeff Campbell, innocent Glynn McCalman, Leroy Summers, Bill Derryberry, and Charles Graves.

Charles Graves explains a point as he speaks in Chapel.

Mr. Kendall Berry talks with the boys in West Dorm. Seated on each side of him are Parvin Waymack and Paul Marus.

Evidence of Reddie spirit on the Ouachita campus was found on the paint-spattered Tiger one morning during Homecoming week.

Sally Spearman and Sandra Martin lend a hand in stuffing a float.

Cheerleaders and fans form a "Tiger Trail" to greet the team as they enter the field to play.

Campus Comes Alive As Homecoming Nears

With the spirit of rivalry running at high pitch, road blocks were set at all entrances to check the identity of persons entering.

First place winner in the dorm display competition was West Hall with their unique, "Tiger Square," predicting a Ouachita victory.

Suzanne Russell is chauffeured by a Tiger on the Junior Class float, "Ride to Victory," as the crowd waves from the sidelines.

Contestants arriving backstage before the pageant include Nancy Gardner, Sue Williams, Donna Merritt, and Sharon Carwile.

Representing Alpha Rho Tau, Emily McCarley models for the beauty pageant judges.

Twenty-five Beauties Parade Before Judges

Mary Etta Arnold tells Santa Claus what she wants for Christmas while he visits the Christmas party at Blake Hall.

Dr. Riley's daughter Megan is entertained with a Christmas story by Nancy Thompson, one of his students.

Gamma Phi members sing Christmas carols to the residents of West.

Carolyn Yeldell and Charles Covington entertain at West Hall's Christmas party festivities.

Babs Luckie presents a gift from Cone Bottoms to Mrs. Morgan at their annual Christmas party in the dormitory lobby.

Cathy Layman is packed and ready to go home for her Christmas holidays.

Sam McKinney leads boys from West Hall in caroling to the girls.

Parties and Caroling Highlight Christmastime

Johnita Higgenbotham leads the children in a game at the Alpha Rho Tau party held in the Upstairs Student Center before Christmas.

Pledges Learn Humility, Amuse Club Members

Sinfonia pledge Buddy Barnett is interrogated by Bill Dawson.

Dickie Murphy holds his composure as Carolyn Yeldell tries to distract him during pledging for Pershing Rifles in the fall.

Dick Rose leads Sinfonia pledges Joe Williams, Jim Rees, Buddy Barnett, and Bill Borland in singing their "Worm Song." Sinfonia was organized last year as an honor fraternity for male music majors. The group held its first pledging this spring semester.

Gammis Judy Pat Neely and Cherry Fisher discuss "rush" procedures with Becky Dryer during a tea in the Student Center drawing room.

Joy Cook is overcome with ecstatic emotion as she receives her much desired bid from EEE.

Many girls attend an organizational meeting for a new girls' social club.

Paula Ray entertains AOE rushees during a party at Citizen's Bank.

1,200 Prep Students Visit On Tiger Day

Cheryl Bechtelheimer and Ken, Martin sing a duet at the Tiger Day talent show as Carolyn Sue Hart accompanies.

Curious Tiger Day visitors investigate embryos in the biology lab.

Barbara Hill (left) of Hot Springs was selected as Tiger Day Queen. Claudette Shinn of Pickens was the first runner-up; Carolyn Blevins of Magnet Cove, second runner-up; and Barbara Glover of Arkadelphia, third runner-up.

Leading a cheer at the Tiger Day talent show are Jane Ellen Miller, Mary Beth Biggs, and Sharon Carwile.

Laugh and Be Happy-- The Motto of All OBUers

Keeping people happy seems to be Bill Derryberry's main ambition in life, or so it would seem to all OBU students. Combining a distinctive personality with original wit, Bill becomes the life of any party and literally keeps his audiences in stitches. It's no wonder he's the first choice in emcees for many of the club-sponsored events, including Dad's Day, Religious Focus Week, and the AIC Talent Show.

Ripples editor Raymond Caldwell looks over the shoulder of sponsor Mr. Gilbert Morris as they read a copy of last year's magazine.

RIPPLES

Student Writing Talent Displayed in Magazine

Each year the students of Ouachita contribute to and publish Ripples, a literary magazine sponsored by the English department. A compilation of the students' best creative works, Ripples contains art work, short stories, poetry, and prose. Its purpose is to discover and encourage literary ability among students, and to make their literary productions available to students.

Ripples is distributed each spring. Raymond Caldwell served as editor this year. Mr. Gilbert Morris was sponsor.

Staff members selecting works for this year's Ripples magazine include Sharon Duvall, Raymond Caldwell, Lindi Stilger, Margo Hicks, Anna Waldron, and Jimmy Green.

Many a B.S.U.er knows the gratifying feeling that comes from working with the children's Bible School each Saturday morning, a club project which has been in existence and operation for twenty years.

Spiritual Growth Promoted Through Active Service

Sponsorship of summer missionaries and mission points in Hot Springs, Pine Bluff and Arkadelphia are just a few of the activities the B.S.U. undertakes in the interest of Ouachita students.

The B.S.U. is interested in promoting the spiritual growth of each student. For this reason, Noonday devotionals, led by students, are held daily in Berry Chapel, B.S.U. choir meets on Monday night, religious focus week and three retreats are annual projects; participation in student week at Glorietta and Ridgecrest are stressed.

"The God We Worship," "Remember Thy Brother" and "Wise Men Worship" were topics discussed by Kenneth Chaffin, professor of evangelism at Fort Worth seminary, at the Union convention in Hot Springs.

Four Christmas parties were sponsored this year in connection with club projects. They included the Girls Training School, the Rehabilitation Center, International students and the Negro Bible School. Sammy Watkins served the club as president.

Ministerial Alliance

Guest Speakers Discuss Areas of Church Ministry

"Ministries of the Church," this year's Ministerial Alliance theme, provided program material for the club's 12 guest speakers, including Rev. Vernon Dutton, Matthew Memorial Baptist Church, Pine Bluff; Dr. Tal Bonham and Rev. Lex Acre, Southside Baptist, Pine Bluff.

Other speakers were Dr. Robert Smith, First Baptist, Pine Bluff; Rev. Walter Yeldell, Arkansas Baptist Convention president; Mr. Jessie Reed, executive secretary of state evangelism; Rev. Glenn McCalman, University Baptist, Little Rock; Rev. William Philliber, Calvary Baptist, Little Rock; and Rev. Glendon Grober, missionary to Brazil.

Dr. Ralph Phelps and Professors Bill Horton and Charles Wright also spoke to the group.

Club projects included Razorback license plate sales and a membership drive in the form of a spring fish fry.

Jim Crowder served as club president, aided by sponsors, Dr. James Berryman and Dr. Vester Wolber.

Christain Commission Union

Students Strengthened Through Christian Service

C.C.U. enables a Christian to strengthen his life and witness through service in various areas. It is an organization designed to allow Christians to work throughout the state. The main aim is to reach youth in a way that they might not otherwise be reached.

Major emphasis this year was evangelism. A revival seminar was held in the spring to train students for revival work in which they participated throughout the year. Attitude, personal evangelism, music, and teamwork in recreation were topics of discussion.

Inspiration received at the missions conferences in Fort Worth and New Orleans helped the club in the ministry to the 14 mission points it sponsors, including the Rehabilitation Center in Hot Springs and Benton State Hospital.

Realizing that all work and no play is good for no one, the club took time out in the fall for a hayride and again at Christmas for caroling and a party.

The special project for the year was placement in the student center of a tract rack containing many helpful pamphlets covering many areas of service. Dr. Wayne Peterson is sponsor.

C.C.U. officers, president, Russ Burbank; vice president, Pam Shipp; secretary, Racine Richardson; treasurer, Cliff Rawley; mission point chairman, Norman Wright; song leader, and Art Morris led the club in carrying out the Christian Commission, its aim.

Speakers and Houseparty Make Big Year For Y. W. A.

Programs and guest speakers such as Mrs. Clarence Allison and Mrs. Robert Denny challenged the girls at each of their monthly meetings. Campus president Carolyn Hart presided at these meetings.

The biggest event was the Y.W.A. houseparty when girls from many colleges and high schools throughout the state came to hear missionary speakers Rev. and Mrs. Glendon Grober from Brazil and Mrs. James Hamptson from Africa. The theme "Declare His Glory" was carried out in the speeches and decorations.

Mrs. R. E. Haygood, state W.M.S. director, Hazel Reeves help Glenda Lambert and Mary Eta Arnold register for Y.W.A. houseparty.

Dotty Ivy, Hazel Reeves, In Je Byun, Libby Wallace, and Charlotte Halbert don apparel of other countries for a program presentation.

Over 100 girls and leaders attend the "Boa Noche" houseparty banquet planned by Miss Mary Hutson, state Y.W.A.-Sunbeam director.

Sinfonia

Pledges Hold Carwash To Build Club Funds

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, a fraternity for music majors, held pledging this spring from February 15 through March 15, when the new members were formally initiated by the charter members.

The fraternity, sponsored by Dr. Bill Horton of the music faculty, held several social events during the year.

Sinfonia pledges Joe Williams and Bill Borland wash cars to help raise money for the new music fraternity.

Ray Hardin leads a group of Sinfonia members in singing around the piano as Bob Braswell plays. Singing are Doug Prichard, Ben Gray, Ronnie Lewis, Ray Vardaman, Ellis Melton, and Bill Dawson.

Raymond Caldwell, Jim Moody, and Margo Hicks sign the guest register at a reception for members of National Collegiate Players.

National Collegiate Players

Children's Theater Play Club's Major Activity

Sponsorship of the annual Children's Theater production is one of the major activities of National Collegiate Player's membership in the American Educational Theater Association and the American National Theater and Academy.

NCP's purpose is to foster interest in the arts, especially the dramatic arts, and to encourage an effort to perpetuate an appreciation of theater arts as the most representative form of art.

Membership in National Collegiate Players is highly selective. Qualifications for membership include junior standing, a grade point of 2.5 or better, a number of hours in drama courses, and service credits in theater.

The Ouachita chapter is composed of seven members and is sponsored by Mr. Dennis Holt.

Diapason

Interest in Organ Music

Draws Students to Club

The Diapason Club, composed of students interested in the field of organ music, was active in attending organ recitals, both at Ouachita and in surrounding cities.

The club held several parties throughout the year to enliven its program of activities. Miss Evelyn Bowden is the group's sponsor.

Bill Sorrells gives Ben Clements instructions in pinning the party pin on Linda Lewis; Tommy Brock looks for new recruits to sign up.

Sam Boyce, former candidate for attorney general of Arkansas, speaks to the club before the Nov., '64, election and urges everyone to vote.

Young Democrats

Election Year Stimulates Student' Political Interest

Since this was an election year, interest soared to a new high, and membership increased considerably.

Getting off to a strong start, the Young Democrats took an active part in the 1964 election. The gubernatorial campaign was an especially controversial one, with the opponents putting up a good fight to the very end. Before the election, meetings were held once a week at which great speakers from the state administration took part.

The purpose of the Y.D. club is similar to that of any governmental organization of institution—that being to increase awareness of all phases of government and what it is doing for the people.

A social was held late in the spring for all members, and delegates were sent to the state convention in April. Mac Roberson served as club president, Roger Harrod as vice-president, and Delores Williams as secretary.

Other officers serving this year include Jim Conner, treasurer; Clyta Edwards, reporter; Jerry Ball, Frances Goacher and Chavalit Manjikul on executive council. Dr. Riley was the club sponsor.

Don Pennington, Y.R. sponsor, and Clarence Allison, teaching fellow and pastor, discuss their favorite hobby — ham radioing — which enabled Pennington to talk to Barry Goldwater during the campaign season.

Young Republicans

Y. R.'s Say Moral Victory Is Better Than No Victory

The Young Republican Club had somewhat of a trying year with the defeat of both state and national candidates but the fight they put up was equal to no other ever staged.

Group discussions, held several weeks before the election, gave the students the latest statistics and aided in the outcome of the mock campus election, which gave the state to Rockefeller and the nation to Johnson.

When the polls had been closed and the authentic votes tallied, the group was still in high spirits, and felt as if a moral victory had been won anyway.

Activities during the year included the endorsement of a new constitution and attendance of the state Y.R. convention in April.

Mr. Bob Hightower, chairman of the Arkansas Young Republicans, was one of this year's feature speakers. Doane Robertson was club president.

Ben Owen talks with one of "Barry's Boys," Clarence Bengé, about the campus campaign and the latest newscast predictions.

Students Take Interest In Present World Affairs

The purpose of International Relations Club is to encourage interest in and the gain of information about world affairs. It has, this year, reorganized its program to provide for greater participation by members in planning and presenting programs.

Topic for discussion are determined by a board of directors. At the monthly meetings a discussion leader states the problem and an informal examination of the situation follows. The organization has done much to broaden the horizons of its members and to prepare them for a more responsible role in their world.

Topics of discussion this year have included "The Break-up of the Sino-Soviet Alliance," "The Viewpoints of Lyndon Johnson and Barry Goldwater on Foreign Policy" and "The Peace Corps as an Instrument of American Foreign Policy;" "German Reunification."

Officers and board members of the club were president, Lindi Stilger; vice-president, Chavalit Manjikul; secretary-treasurer, Fran Holden. Other board members were Merl Estep and Bill Holloway.

Ali Alkincilar, David Alvarez, Ho Soo Byun, Mansour Duhbiban, Sang-Kyu Kim, Chavalit Manjikul, Ben Mau listen as In Je Byun plays.

President, Lindi Stilger, leads the group in a discussion of "Japan As a Force in the Far East" at one of the club's regular meetings.

Senior women and faculty chose Rita Bradley, an English and French major from Morrilton, to receive the first Outstanding Senior Girl Service Award to be given. Selection was based on such things as attitude, character and service throughout her college career.

Another verdict will be passed at this judicial board meeting as "Miss X" goes on "trial" for coming in ten minutes late Saturday.

Association of Women Students,

Government of the Women By Women; For Women

Mary Beth Biggs shows the freshmen girls the appropriate attire for the President's reception. Other outfits modeled at the AWS style show were date dresses, classwear, churchwear and sportswear.

No girl complains about the mandatory membership in AWS realizing its purpose is to bring the girls together and create a respect for government.

Carrying out this purpose in the form of a judicial board, problems of discipline are brought before the thirteen members, consisting of six officers, a representative from each dorm and the Dean of Women, for discussion and settlement. The board decides, except in extreme cases, the penalty to be inflicted. Penalties range from call downs and date jerks to campuses — terms with which all female students are familiar.

The board's function is not all negative, however. Twice a year the club sponsors a one-penny night when girls are allowed to stay out till 12 p.m. providing their dates pay a penny for every minute they are out past 11:30 p.m. Proceeds from this project go to a Korean child whom the club sponsors.

AWS has this year initiated a scholarship which will be given to a freshman girl each year beginning next fall. Requirements will be set later.

Members take time out from studies to compare "Mountain Dew" bottles as well as the differences in each teacher's method of presentation.

Alpha Chi

Honor Fraternity Promotes Scholastic Excellence

Plans for the year were laid at a fellowship meeting at Dr. Riley's home at the beginning of the year. Officers installed at that time were president, Ellis Melton; vice-president, Shelby Bolton; secretary, Lindi Stilger; and reporter, Judith Dotson.

Eight new members who showed outstanding scholastic excellence were inducted into the club in December. Seniors in the top 10 per cent of their class were inducted in April.

Alpha Chi sponsored the showing of the movie "Battle Hymn" and sent a representative to the state convention in April.

Alpha Chi president, Ellis Melton, warms up the projector before showing the film to see that everything is in working order.

Future Benefits Multiply In Field Of Mathematics

Panels, guest speakers and "math bees" made interesting program material for Sigma Gamma Sigma. The special feature of the year was Mr. Buddy Boren, civil engineer for the DeGray Dam Project in conjunction with the Corps of Engineers. Mr. Boren spoke on "Mathematics Applied in Engineering," indicating examples of everyday math problems encountered in engineering through the use of slides.

Social events of the year included initiation of 11 new members and the annual Christmas party at home of Dr. Seward, the club sponsor. Entertainment at the party was provided by working out unique mathematical puzzles and quizzes.

Serving the club in the administrative capacity this year was president, Mike Cosgrove; vice-president and program chairman, Donna Hadfield; secretary, Cheryl Friday, and social chairman, Judy Dotson.

Kappa Delta Pi

Sixteen Members Added To Education Fraternity

Pledge week, conducted the second week in October, added 16 new members to Kappa Delta Pi Education Honor Society. Formal initiation was held in the reception room of the student center with president Johnny Owens in charge.

Other officers participating were vice-president, Ed Coulter; secretary, Judy Dotson; treasurer, Beverly Tucker, and sounselor Dr. Kelley. Now members were honored at a party at Dr. Kelley's in November.

Spring activities included the Regional Kappa Delta Pi Convention at North Texas State University, Denton, and a joint meeting with Henderson in March, with OBU serving as host.

A briefing for student teachers was held just before leaving for assignments on March 22.

Fran Coulter does a monologue at one of the Kappa Delta Pi regular meetings. Educational problems are easily brought to light this way.

Scientific Topics Arouse New Interest In Science

"Medicinal Herbs," "Admission to Medical School," "Geochemistry," "DNA," and "Radio-Biology" were topics discussed by guest and student speakers Dr. Lewis from Little Rock Medical Center, Dr. Clark from Henderson State Teachers College, Mr. Thomas Ellis, Mr. Joe Nix, Bob and Jim Sykes, Gordon Smith, Judy Dotson, Cheryl Friday and Bill Wingfield.

Biology Club combined work with play in a Christmas party when everyone brought a grocery item of some sort to make a basket for "Buster," custodian of Hamilton Moses, when his home burned shortly before the holidays.

The chemistry club was responsible for the lab displays on Tiger Day. Students were stationed in the various labs to explain the displays to visitors.

Science club officers for the year included: presidents, Thomas Wilson and Wayne McGraw; vice-presidents, Jim Sykes and Curtis McManus; secretary-treasurers, Louise Pinson and Eva Gamble.

Lab sessions give students a chance to test their theories, but the right answer doesn't always come easy — this calls for a break.

Dr. Everett examines the infra-red spectrophotometer (right) and the electroanalyzer (left) to see that they are in perfect order.

Dr. Mundie inspects Jerry Bibb's cat to see how much fluid it has and how near ready it is for the final step — dissection.

Science is not all work as this group proves. Mike Crotts receives only praise and encouragement on this job, as smiles indicate.

Home Economics Major Interest of Members

Colhecon president Marilyn Matlock makes plans with the other officers: Ann Chesser, Susan Ritter, Sandra Cash, and Judy Dellinger.

One of the best known activities of Colhecon, a club for home economics majors, has been selling sloppy-joe sandwiches in the dorms.

Its many activities began with a reception for freshman home economics students, and continued throughout the year, concluding with the annual spring outing to honor the club's senior members.

Under the leadership of president Ann Ellis, Colhecon met regularly, held a Christmas banquet, and attended the college club section of the Arkansas Home Economics Association in the spring.

Other officers for 1964-65 were Vida Hill and Brenda Dale, vice presidents; Dorris Westerman, secretary; Diane Cato, treasurer; Virginia Pasley, reporter; and Marilyn Matlock, historian. New officers for next year were elected and installed in the spring.

Colhecon also elects Miss Home Economics and Miss Freshman Home Economics each year.

Sandra Cowling shows Colhecon members a new type of stitch she used on the striped shirt she made for her brother in clothing lab.

SNEA

Students in Education Find Association Helpful

Students majoring in education are brought together in the Student National Education Association.

Under the leadership of Gloria King, president, and Dr. A. B. Wetherington, faculty sponsor, the group held a hamburger fry, several coke parties, and attended the state education convention.

Members of SNEA, one of the largest groups on campus, receive four publications during the year: a national magazine, national newspaper, a state magazine, and a state collegiate newsletter. The Arkansas Journal of Education published a feature article by a Ouachita member, Linda Marie Davis, in its December issue.

Faculty and students turned out for the annual hamburger fry at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wetherington.

O. B. U.'s Active Club For Its Active People

Members of the Women's Physical Education Majors-Minors Club and co-sponsors Mrs. Goff and Miss Downing began the year by attending the physical education sections of the AEA Convention in November.

Guest speakers at the regular monthly meetings included Mr. Wayne Williams of the Ouachita physical education department, who spoke on various aspects of track and field, and Dr. Stanley, head of the Henderson physical education department, who gave a lecture concerning graduate work in physical education.

The WPEM Club is in charge of operating the concession stand at all home basketball games. The proceeds from this go into a joint account with the newly organized Men's Physical Education Club and are used for purchasing equipment in the Physical education department.

WPEM members were guests of the MPEM Club at a cook-out in the City Park in November.

Knowing that the concession stand is a very popular place at half-time, Mrs. Goff pitches in and helps the girls serve the crowd.

After a vigorous discussion of speedball, badminton, tennis, and golf, the girls take time out for cookies, Cokes, and light talk.

Girls Bring Ouachita Into Spotlight Sports Day

Three out of four is a pretty good average in anyone's book and that the record Women's Recreation Association came back with from sports day at Arkansas State College in Jonesboro in October. The girls placed first in both speedball and track and third in pool.

In the spring, Ouachita attended the outing at Devil's Den Campout Area sponsored by the University of Arkansas.

W.R.A. girls sold doughnuts in the dorms every Saturday morning to pay for their homecoming float upon which their candidate, Brenda Young, rode.

Cheryl Rodgers, Camille La Grossa, Jeffrey Graves, and Vicki Roberts served as club officers.

Student Psychologists End Second Successful Year

OBU'S Psychology Club is in its second year of service to the psychology department and to its members. Its purpose is to stimulate interest in the field of psychology and to encourage independent research by students associated with the department.

The club meets in conjunction with the monthly afternoon departmental seminars. This year members attended the annual Institute in Psychiatry and Neurology at North Little Rock, and plans are being made for psychology majors to take an extensive tour of the Menninger Clinic and several other psychiatric institutions during the summer.

Officers who served during the 1964-65 school year are president, James Millaway; vice president, Larry Kircher; secretary, Joan Balfour; and treasurer, Robert Hicks. Mr. Maurice Hurley and Mr. Kenneth Moxey served as co-sponsors for the club.

Dr. Hurley brings a brief dissertation at a monthly club meeting.

Students are encouraged to present new concepts and ideas to the club for discussion so that all might benefit from teamwork involved.

English Fraternity Aids Campus Literary Interest

The national society of Sigma Tau Delta is an out-growth of the English Club at the Dakota Wesleyan University, Mitchell, S. D. Plans made there resulted in the nationalization of the order in 1924. There are 100 chapters in this country.

Ouachita's Beta Zeta chapter originally dates back to 1930; not until 1954, however, was the present charter issued. Miss Holiman is one of these charter members. This year's chapter initiated 12 pledges, bringing the total to 19 members. Eligibility is extended to persons having maintained a 3.0 grade average in the area or related field of English. The senior with the highest average this year, Beverly Tucker, assumes the presidency.

At the informal initiation, according to tradition, each inductee read his original composition. They were later formally presented national certificates and signed into the permanent record.

Johnita Higginbotham was commissioned to re-create permanently the society's national emblem, symbolizing sincerity, truth, and design.

Miss Rasberry and Dr. Lindsey reviewed several New York plays at one of the monthly programs planned around topics of literary interest which promote intellectual curiosity in a congenial spirit.

Mrs. Black and Miss Holiman served as co-sponsors.

President Beverly Tucker, vice-president, Nancee Dickson, and secretary-treasurer, Margo Hicks proudly display the new club emblem.

Sigma Tau Delta members review their aims—to encourage worthwhile reading, promote mastery of written expression, stimulate search for truth and beauty, and provide fellowship for English students.

Jean Jinks shows Benjamin Mau's interpretation of Ouachita's social, spiritual, political and physical aspects to Emily McCarley and Dian Ray.

Alpha Rho Tau

Campus Artists Find Opportunities For Service

To lead the club in learning more about art and promoting an interest in it was the responsibility of president Dianne Richey; vice-president, Ronnie Hankins; secretary-treasurer, Jean Jinks; pledge master, Paul Stallings; and reporter, Johnita Higginbotham.

Concentrated week of pledging began with a tea for the club's three new pledges, Carolyn Blazin, Benjamin Mau, and John Harris, and was climaxed by a banquet at which time the new members presented a skit on art.

The annual Christmas party in the upstairs student center is something special for Alpha Rho Tau for it is at this time that the club helps a less fortunate family have a Merry Christmas. This year was no exception and happiness was the keyword to the Christmas of one of Arkadelphia's Negro families.

Art projects for the year were many and varied as usual, ranging from preparation of private and organizational displays for local affairs to campus projects such as the AIC Talent Show. Proceeds from these projects help the club with operating expenses.

Mr. Raybon looks on with interest as John Harris and Tommy Carroll begin work on the signs for the AIC Talent Show held in April.

Phi Beta Lambda

Business Fraternity Looks Good at State Convention

Nine new members — Donna Bonds, Billy Huddleston, Margaret Kilbury, Sang-Kyu Kim, Madonna Leath, Marion Mack, Bubba Ramsey, Allen Smith, and Stewart Smith — were inducted into Phi Beta Lambda this year. All accounting, business, business education, economic and secretarial science majors are eligible.

Guest speakers at the club's regular meetings have been Mr. Browne, president of Crow-Burlingame, Inc., who spoke on the automotive parts in wholesale trade; Mr. Ewing, vice-president of Citizen's National Bank in Arkadelphia, who spoke on the future of banking; and a representative from Proctor and Gamble Corp., who spoke on opportunities with the company.

Several Ouachita business majors placed in the contests at the state convention in Little Rock in the late spring. They were Doyme Robertson, first in economics; Lillian Greathouse, third in shorthand; Marion Mack, second in Accounting I; Kay Dodson, second in typing; and Diane Sadler, third in typing.

Phi Beta Lambda sponsored Betty Shaw, club sweetheart, in the Ouachitonian Beauty Pageant. She also represented the club in the homecoming royalty.

A candy sale running through January and February provided the club with a money-making project.

Campus Favorite Retires From Years Of Active Duty

Fall pledging began as usual for the Delta Kappa Deltas with an elaborate series of parties which introduced the rushees to the "better side" of pledge life. Having only three pledges, the girls decided to postpone pledging activities until spring.

By spring, the club, composed of seven graduating seniors, had decided it best to disband since all the members would be practice teaching later in the semester.

It was rough calling it quits after so many years, but Deltas have a lot of good memories to carry with them—pledge parties, weekend excursions at the King's Inn in Hot Springs, homecoming floats, and many more.

Projects and Parties Give Gamma's an Eventful Year

Gamma Phi's had two very eventful semesters. Fall pledging added 20 new pledges who worked hard to make the hot chocolate drop-ins after each home football game successful.

One of the biggest parties, excluding the annual Christmas caroling party and the mid-winter "Magic Moments of Winter" banquet, was the spring rush party following the theme "My Dream Come True," in which Pat Turpin led pledges Diana Beard, Robin Bradley, Jan Ezell, Donna Jenkins, Sandy Martin, Nancy Rogers, Pam Shipps, Margie Stobaugh, Libby Wallace and Carolyn Yeldell in making a wish so that it would come true. Carolyn Hart climaxed the program by singing "A Dream Is a Wish Your Heart Makes."

The sale of bulletin boards and candy and sponsorship of Sadie Hawkins Day constituted the club's projects for the year.

EEE

Quality Plus Quantity Make E E E's Winner

The 1964-65 school year was a busy one for the EEE's. A house-party at Willow Beach began the year, preceded by fall pledging which added 24 new members. Spring pledges were Barbara Battle, Joy Cook, Betty Corrington, Becky Dryer, Glenda Vonne Lambert, Kitty Nowlin, Ann Pollard, Peggy Smith, Jeannie Thomas and Sharon Windham. Becky Dryer and Harriet Gabbie were chosen as "best pledges."

EEE's homecoming float, "Sail to Victory," did just that when it and the club's candidate, Judy Cook, won second place. Judy was also a finalist in the Quachitionian Beauty Pageant.

December brought "An Old-fashioned Christmas" banquet, new club pins, an emblem for the student center and an informal all-school drop-in which honored sponsor Miss Queen and club dad, Dr. Coppenger.

Spring activities included a tea for practice teachers, the reopening of the Fumes, and a banquet honoring all graduating senior girls.

Sandwich sales were the club's main money-making project. The special project was a candy sale.

Beta Beta

A Properly Proud Club With a Positive Purpose

All 56 members of the club, including 14 graduating seniors, are rightly proud of this year's accomplishments. Their "Tiger In Our Tank" homecoming float won first place and their candidate, Mary Beth Biggs, was crowned queen. Mary Beth also represented the club in the Ouachitonian Beauty Pageant.

The purpose of the club, to break down any existing social barriers between ministerial and lay students on campus, led the boys to adopt a church visitation program in which the boys participated in all aspects of church work for enjoyment and experience as one of their projects. The club tries to maintain a balance between lay and ministerial students in its membership.

Ken Carpenter and Wayne McGraw served as club presidents. Mr. William Horton was club sponsor.

Sally Spearman, a sophomore English major from Dallas, represented Rho Sigma in the Ouachitonian Beauty Pageant December 7.

Red Shirts Pick Winners In All Areas of Activity

New shirts, wind-breaker jackets and cowboy hats, along with their usual outstanding intramural record, helped distinguish Rho Sigma members on campus this year.

Rho Sigma not only had the No. 1 intramural football team, but it was the undisputed champions of both swimming meets, placing first in all 100 events. It also supported three basketball teams.

The boys proved the prophecy "third time's the charm" by placing third in homecoming float competition, and by being represented in the homecoming royalty by third runner-up, Judy Pat Neely.

Officers for the 1964-65 school term include: presidents, Johnny Wilson and Harold Ellis; vice-presidents, Pryor Wheat and Larry Duncan; secretaries, John Estes and Charlie Williams; treasurer, David Clem; chaplains, Atherton Hiatt and Hugh Floyd; sgts.-at-arms, Marcus Everett and John Estes; pledge masters, Pryor Wheat and John Estes; athletic director, David Trower.

Cherry Fisher was chosen club sweetheart, and Coach Buddy Bob Benson was sponsor.

Following this game, the Shirts celebrated an undefeated intramural football season with a barbeque victory party at the Wesley Foundation.

An all-school coffee break sponsored Monday and Tuesday nights from 7 to 10 p.m. by Rho Sigma helped ease tension during final exams.

Five Seniors Receive Honorary Membership

Fall pledging brought eight new members — Billy Hargis, Scotty Hardin, Frank Harwood, Robert Hicks, Rodney Holloway, Tommy Page, Allen Smith, and Gordon Smith— into the club and started the ball rolling.

Four graduating seniors — Jerry Cash, Leon Clements, Jim Davis and David Kossover — were given honorary bids and sworn into SAS in a candle-light ceremony March 17. Coach Bill Vining and Sponsor George Johnson witnessed the event along with 13 pledges — David Chitwood, David Claybrook, Richard Clements, Dave Cook, Charles Covington, Ronnie Crouthers, Steve Epperson, Frank Hash, Bryan Keller, Bill Meeks, Jim Phelan, Dwight Weaver, and James Young — who also took the oath. Four red roses, the club flower, and the club plaque served as decorations.

The annual alumni meeting at the Elk Horn Bank honored the club's first president, Joe Bill Gillespie.

A Christmas banquet at Homer's, a hamburger fry and Valentine party at the Legion Hut, an outing at T. J. Cunningham's in Hot Springs, and a spring outing dotted the S's agenda this year.

Hershel South and Thomas Wilson shared the presidential responsibilities. Other officers included: vice-president, Stewart Smith; secretaries, David Lewis and Parvin Waymack; treasurers, Ken Gray and Jerry Kossover; chaplain, Jerry Reeves; pledge master, Joe Jeffers; sgt.-at-arms, Don Miller and custodian, Bob Willis.

Year's Activities Give Member Many Memories

A variety of activities offered this year's AOE members many memorable moments. The birth of the Pennington's first child made the boys honorary godfathers, and a trip to Ft. Worth to visit former president Bob Watkins gave the boys renewed vigor.

Sportswise, the club placed second in intramural football and the No. 1 basketball team, playing in new gold jerseys, stole first place with an undefeated season. Janis Morehead, freshman from Benton, was chosen as homecoming candidate.

The AIC Talent Show, the boys biggest project of the year, was held April 9 in Mitchell Auditorium. A second project, an annual alumni news letter and roll was initiated by spring pledges Jack Breedlove, Gary Cheatham, Joe Gore, Charles Hatch, Wayne Johnson and Bobby Ridgell. Fall pledges were Ali Alkincilar and David Richard.

Officers for the 1964-65 year include: presidents, David Odum and Chuck Piker; vice-presidents, Mike Crotts and George McGill; secretaries, Mike Crotts and Merl Estep; treasurers, Mike Keller and Paul Marus; reporter, Benjy Kirby; chaplain, Troy Stair; pledge masters, Chuck Piker, Jay Fickle and Mike Keller; sgt.-at-arms, Dale Cartmel.

Barbara Daniels, freshman elementary education major, was chosen club sweetheart and represented AOE's in the Ouachitonian Beauty Pageant.

Yearbook

Film, Folks, and Frenzy Add Up to Ouachitonian

Work on the 1965 Ouachitonian began early in the fall with a staff of 21 students. Co-editors Carol Wenzel and Linda Marie Davis made assignments and a deadline schedule for each section. Layouts were drawn, pictures taken, copy written, a cover was designed, captions and headlines were written, and class portraits were made under their supervision.

The responsibility of selling advertisements and planning that section belonged to Business Manager Pat Hamilton, who also kept the books in order.

Many new friendships were formed as staff members worked behind the scenes to help prepare a yearbook that would be an accurate history of 1964-65. Competition in the Arkansas College Press Association encouraged members to put forth extra efforts to produce the best annual possible.

Co-editors Carol Wenzel and Linda Marie Davis look through old magazines for layout and picture ideas to use in the Ouachitonian.

Paper Seeks to Inform With Bi-monthly Editions

To report the news, and to print it in the highest traditions and standards of journalism as taught by the journalism department — this is the goal of the editor and staff of the Ouachita Signal.

In the 16 editions printed this year, the staff strove to follow all journalistic principles — to put forth an award-winning Signal. In doing so, it kept the students up to date and informed about campus activities and events.

The Signal is staffed by journalism students who work long hours to produce a Signal the students will enjoy. Signals are placed in the Student Center every other Tuesday for students to pick up at their convenience.

After presenting their first performance at Noonday early in the fall, the Ouachita Singers pause on the steps of J. E. Berry Chapel.

Ouachita's largest musical group is the 110-voice choir directed by Mr. Charles Wright. The Christmas concert is a yearly event.

Choir tour is a highlight of the year. Judy Hill helps load the school bus before departure from campus in the fall.

A new musical group, the Madrigals, performed at Christmastime with seasonal music in a festive but informal setting in Chapel.

Choral Groups

Madrigals Make Debut As New Musical Group

For the first time in many years, a new choral group has been organized at Ouachita. Known as the Madrigals, the 12-voice group is limited to membership by invitation only. Mr. Bill Horton directs the group in rehearsal but it performs undirected. The repertoire consists of secular songs from the Middle Ages which are seldom performed or heard in public today. The Madrigals gave two Chapel performances besides singing at high schools and other functions.

Ouachita Singers is another select musical group. Directed by Mr. Charles Wright, 28 members gave their first performance at the Arkansas Baptist Convention in El Dorado in November. A five-day tour was taken in December, then a spring tour was conducted in April to various churches and schools of the state.

Ouachita Choir appeared on KTHV-TV with music for the Christmas season. Two major performances in the spring were "And Isaiah Prophesied" by Francis McBeth and "Requiem" by Faure in March, then "The Seven Last Words" by Dubois in April.

Pershing Rifles

Parades, Competition Activities of Drill Team

Company N-7 of the National Society of Pershing Rifles completed one of the most successful years in its history. Seventeen new members pledged in the fall.

Activities included firing the company howitzer at all home football games, participating in Seventh Regimental Unit competition, and performing in various parades and drill meets.

Under PR Captain Jim Lawrence, the Pershing Rifles completed the fall semester with a field maneuver.

Sponsor and Honorary Captain for the year was Miss Cherry Pemberton. Captain McCown served as faculty sponsor.

PR pledges have their "rifles" inspected by upperclassmen, Mike Dacus and Robert Hicks.

Gripes are aired by pledges before members arrive at an informal meeting in the fall.

ROTC Cadets Pledge Military Honor Group

Scabbard and Blade is a national military honor fraternity composed of the outstanding ROTC cadets of the advanced corps in colleges and universities across the United States. Membership is dedicated to the spread of intelligent information concerning the military organization of the nation.

Company E, 14th Regiment, completed a successful year under the leadership of Capt. Ed Scarborough.

Major undertaking of the first semester was writing and publishing a Ouachita Military Alumni Directory. The company also pledged eight new members.

Second semester activities included an officers' wives orientation program for future Army officers' wives, and a trip to Little Rock Air Force Base. Members of Company E also made trips to high schools in Arkansas to present the new ROTC program.

Military sponsor Cherry Pemberton looks at some new clippings on the Scabbard & Blade bulletin board located in Bill Walton Gymnasium.

Six featured twirlers added extra interest to parades and marching exhibitions during home football games. Beginning at left, they are Karen Stewart, Pat Turpin, Betty Pamplin, Darla Buckhannon, Carol Brown, and Helen Seward in uniform at A. U. Williams Field.

Director Marvin Lawson leads the band in practicing a new piece.

The brass section of Ouachita's Tiger band adds depth to the musical quality as it rehearses for its halftime performance.

Drum major Ellis Melton directs the band during halftime of a home football game. He has held the position for four years.

Band officers include Doyle Combs, vice-president; Pat Turpin, secretary-treasurer; and Danny Lowe, president.

Band Offers Outlet For Student Talents

Offering an outlet to all students who are musically talented is the Ouachita University band. To meet different needs, the band divides its activities into two sections.

The 60-piece marching Tiger band plays at all home football games, pep rallies, and for other special occasions. Adding color to the marching formations are six majorettes.

Second is the concert band, which presents each year two concerts of music for listening pleasure. The stage band plays music of a faster and more peppy nature.

The bands take two tours each year to perform for nearby high schools. All are under the direction of Mr. Marvin Lawson.

Baby Doll, Sharon Carwile, and Archie Lee, Claude Fender, discuss the old lady in "The Unsatisfactory Supper," student directed by Carol Ann Wilson.

"Oh, how thin it is!" exclaims Witch, Margo Hicks, in the Children's Theatre Production of "Hansel and Gretel."

L. D. Hoover plainly shows that this is not quite what he had in mind as he kneels before Sharon Carwile in "The Ugly Duckling," directed by Raymond Caldwell.

Carol Sue Gibson and Sally Spearman enact a scene from Sue Williams' student project, "Not My Cup of Tea."

Drama

Campus and Community View Many Productions

Once again the theater department was able to overcome the obvious handicap of limited facilities and to achieve satisfaction in the success of this year. There were four major productions viewed by the campus and the community. Mr. Dennis Holt directed "Five Finger Exercise," "Liliom," and "Antigone." "Desperate Ambrose" was presented under the direction of Mr. Don Pennington.

The Children's Theater presented "Hansel and Gretel," directed by Nancee Dickson. There were five "One-acts," under the direction of students, presented each semester.

Drama is a vital part in the lives of all human beings. Under the leadership of Mr. Holt, Ouachita's drama department fulfills its obligation to the community.

Hansel, Billy Ray Tarkington, and Gretel, Jenny Boley, sleep under the watchful eyes of the Witch, Margo Hicks, in the production directed by Nancee Dickson.

"Liliom," a modern classic, was the second major production, directed by Mr. Dennis Holt. Pictured are Gale Montgomery and Cheryl Bechtelheimer.

"Hey, guys, I'm Desperate Ambrose!" This rip-snortin' comedy was presented under the direction of Mr. Don Pennington. The proceeds were given to the BSU Summer Missions project.

Margo Hicks consoles her son, Jim Moody, in the serious drama, "Five Finger Exercise," written by Peter Shaffer.

Drama

Plays Spell Success For Drama Department

Employed to instruct Sandra Martin, Raymond Caldwell taught the entire family a most important lesson in "Five Finger Exercise." Mr. Dennis Holt once more did an outstanding job of directing.

Debaters Display Talent In National Competition

Debate is one opportunity Ouachita has to compete with larger schools and universities around the nation.

Ouachita debaters have competed against Louisiana State University, University of Texas, Baylor, the University of Arkansas, New York University, and Harvard.

The debaters took six trips to compete in tournaments around the country. They climaxed their season with a debate against Harvard in chapel.

Members of the debate team are students interested in speaking and debating. Mr. Jim Campbell, assistant professor of speech, was the new debate coach this year.

Sharon Duvall and John Harris assist with a high school speech and debate tournament here, sponsored by the Ouachita debate team.

Members of the Ouachita debate team practicing for their next meet are Bill Hollaway, Paul Rhoads, Chavalit Manjikul, and Margaret Sengel. Their navy blue blazers are a new addition.

Hoy Spear and Gregg South practice for the AIC meet in April when they attempted to re-gain the championship.

Rifle Team

Marksman Rebuilding, See Bright Future

After a lean year in which it lost the AIC championship, the Rifle Team has started a comeback under the coaching of Sgt./Maj. Hall Allen. A group of young and eager marksmen show signs of becoming the nucleus for another winning team.

The Tiger marksmen squad has four freshmen and two sophomores among its 11 members. They are expected to become the stars of the future team when they have gained necessary experience in their field.

Ouachita boasted the perennial AIC championship for years until 1964, when it dropped into second place after its coach was transferred by the Army. Sgt./Maj. Allen has the team thinking of winning again.

When the firing title "crossed the ravine" last spring, it was the first time Ouachita had failed to finish ahead of the Reddies in the sport in a long time.

There Is Certainly No
Substitute For Victory

Head coach Rab Rodgers and assistant Buddy Bob Benson shaped football players into a football team in an amazing short time.

Don Puckett and Terry Young, two outstanding Tiger tackles, served as co-captains for the "64" campaign.

Tigers Battle to 4-5-1 Season Record

Williams (42) scoops up the punt and is on his way to a 75-yard touchdown against Southeast Oklahoma.

Ouachita lacked one point having a .500 season. That one point would have not only improved the average but it would have made the Tigers victorious in their Turkey Day game with Henderson which ended 6-6. But footballs are not round and don't always bounce the way one wants them to.

There were bright spots in an often unhappy season, though. Three Tigers were named to the All-AIC team. They were Don Puckett, Jack Mills and Gaylord Solomon. Mills and Solomon will be back next year. Freshmen such as Johnnie Johnson and Jim Hogan ran surprisingly well against college competition. Jim Jordan punted a total of 2,703 yards and averaged 37.6 yards a kick.

In February of 1965 it was announced that Buddy Bob Benson would take up the reins of head coach and Rab Rodgers would assume the job of athletic director.

Don Puckett, Gaylord Solomon, and Jack Mills, outstanding Tiger linemen, were chosen by the AIC players and coaches for the All-Conference team.

Puckett, a senior co-captain, was selected at tackle. Solomon, who played the Henderson game with a sprained ankle, was placed at offensive guard. Mills, an outstanding Tiger pass receiver, was picked as an offensive end. Mills was second in the AIC in pass receiving with 265 yards.

Don Miller, a junior guard, and John Estes, a junior safetyman, received honorable mention.

The Tigers traveled to Southeast Oklahoma State for the season opener and won, 16-12. The statistics had the Tigers on the bottom throughout the game, but the visitors from Arkadelphia held the advantage in the only statistic that counts.

Charlie Williams returned a punt 75 yards in the final minute of play for the winning TD. A 53-yard pass play from Frank Spainhour to Jack Mills set up the initial touchdown, which was scored by Robert McGlothlin.

Mills had seven receptions for 107 yards. Terry Young paced the defense with 10 tackles.

The Tigers were defeated by the Bears at Conway, 27-19. The host jumped into an early lead with two touchdowns in the first quarter. Jim Turner, a junior Bear half-back, scored both and ended up with three touchdowns.

Ouachita's initial score came in the second quarter when Charlie Williams punched in from the four. The Bears carried a 19-6 lead into the dressing room at the half. The Tigers scored twice in the last half. A two-yard plunge by Robert McGlothlin capped a 55-yard sustained drive.

The last score came on a 15-yard pass from Jim Jordan to John Estes.

The Tigers were weakened by the absence of two starters. Frank Harwood was out with a twisted knee, and Jack Mills missed the action because of strept throat.

Ouachita Whitewashes Harding by 13-0

The Tigers defeated the Harding Bisons, 13-0, in the annual Dad's Day game. Johnie Johnson, a freshman from Watson Chapel, scored both touchdowns. The first was set up with a pass interception by John Estes, who intercepted it on the Tiger 28 and returned it to the Bison 46. From there, Jim Jordan completed two quick passes to Jack Mills' and Estes. Johnson carried it from the four. Robert McGlothlin booted the point after.

The Tigers capitalized on Harding mistakes for both touchdowns. The first was the interception and the second was a fumble by the visitors. After a short drive, Johnson took it in from the eight.

Arkansas A&M whipped Ouachita, 13-6, at Monticello. The Tigers had two touchdowns called back on offside penalties. Jim Jordan kept the Tigers out of trouble much of the night with strong punting. He kicked seven times for an average of 41 yards per kick.

Ouachita's lone TD climaxed a 52-yard drive. Frank Spainhour passed to Jack Mills on three consecutive third down situations, and Spainhour finally scored from the one.

Chuck McFall and Jigger Ramsey were outstanding on defense.

The Demons were assessed 318 yards on penalties but the Tigers were still unable to score. A pass from Frank Spainhour to Jack Mills which would have been a touchdown was called back on an offside penalty. The Tigers got inside the Demon 30.

Henderson's Agee (83) attempts to turn in the Tiger's Williams (42).

The Arkansas Tech Wonder Boys defeated the Tigers, 13-3, en route to an AIC championship. The Tigers controlled the first half and at intermission led, 3-0, on a field goal by Robert McGlothlin.

Tech's Lawrence stunned the Tigers with an 88-yard kick-off return for a TD the first play of the second half. The Wonder Boys controlled the game from then on out.

In the second quarter, quarterback Frank Spainhour completed a would-be touchdown pass to end Jack Mills, but Mills was declared out of the end zone.

Tech capitalized on three Ouachita fumbles, and returned to Russellville with a sure share of the conference crown.

Millsaps 15

Ouachita handed Millsaps College of Jackson, Miss., a 21-15 defeat at Jackson. All three of the Tigers' touchdowns were run over by freshman Jim Hogan, a 200-pound freshman fullback.

The Tigers took the opening kick off and marched 74 yards to score. Frank Harwood kicked the extra point. In the second quarter the Majors fumbled on their own 26. Frank Spainhour worked the Tigers to within striking distance and sent Hogan over from seven yards out.

The Tigers' final tally came when Lane Strother intercepted a Major pass on the OBU 18 and returned it to the Millsaps' 43. On the second play from scrimmage Hogan rambled 38 yards for the TD.

McGlothlin (31) rambles against the Reddies. Powell (26), Dawson (29) moves in for the tackle as Benton (54) looks for a block.

Tigers Battle Reddies to 6-6 Turkey Day Tie

Ouachita crossed the Ravine to do Turkey Day battle with Henderson and returned with a 6-6 tie. The Tigers fought the favored Reddies for 60 minutes of the best kind of football. Defense was the key to both teams' efforts. There have only been two other ties in the history of the rivalry. The deadlocks were in 1914, 0-0, and in 1927, 6-6.

Henderson scored first on a 17-yard pass from quarterback Larry Walker to end Mike Steelman. Don Miller broke through to block the point after. Ouachita ran a series of downs, punted and then the Reddies for three downs. The Tigers took over on their own 39.

Frank Spainhour passed to Jack Mills for a 10-yard gain to the Tiger 49. A quick pitch to Charlie Williams got Ouachita 16 more yards. Robert McGlothlin hammered the middle of the Reddie line for four more. The ball then rested on the Henderson 30. Another quick pitch to Williams from Spainhour, aided by a key block by McGlothlin, and the Tiger scatback scampered 30 yards for the touchdown.

Strother (25) bats away a pass intended for Reddie Horace Jennings (33) as Estes (12) moves up.

Tigers Sweep to 27-10 Season

Coach Bill Vining celebrated his tenth year at Ouachita by guiding his Tigers to a third place finish in the NAIA tournament in Kansas City.

Leon Clements averaged 26.5 points per game, scored a total of 954 points, and pulled down 452 rebounds. The senior from Kingsland made the first team All-AIC for the third year.

David Kossover, Ouachita's All-AIC playmaker, averaged 17.3 points per game and drilled clutch baskets on many occasions. His free throw percentage was .809.

Clements, Kossover Named to All-AIC Team

Leon Clements and David Kossover were chosen by the coaches and players of the AIC to represent OBU on the all-conference team. It was Clements' third year to be selected plus an honorable mention as a freshman. Kossover was selected also last year and was and is known around the league for his effective set shot from outside. The pair accounted for 1,492 points this season. Clements broke 10 AIC records including most career points (2,518). Kossover and Clements share the record for most free throws in an AIC tournament (70).

The senior nucleus of the Tiger team was Jerry Cash, Joe Franz, Leon Clements, Bill Neal, and David Kossover.

David Kossover drives in for a layup in the Hendrix game, which the Tigers won, 67-64.

The Tigers went to the AIC tournament in Pine Bluff and met Southern State in the opening round. The Tigers took the lead in the second half and kept it for an 83-69 win.

Clements scored 32 points, 22 of them in the second half, breaking two tournament scoring records. The records were most field goals (85) and most total points (216).

The second game found Ouachita pitted against Hendrix. The Tigers trailed six to 10 points practically all night. In the final 15 minutes the Tigers again applied the full-court press which had been successful the night before. Ouachita finally went ahead to stay with 13 seconds left on the clock. Clements got 28, and Kossover added 11 in the 67-64 victory.

The final opponent was John Brown University, who had beaten ASTC the night before. The Tigers led most of the way, including a 40-36 advantage at intermission. Clements and Kossover combined for a total of 56 points. Bill Neal collected 12 and Jerry Cash got 10. The Tigers won, 85-78.

Ouachita Sweeps To Third Place In NAIA

Bill Neal defends against a Lincoln University player.

In the first round of the NAIA national tournament at Kansas City the Tigers whipped Lincoln University of Jefferson City, Mo., 83-76. Leon Clements scored 29 and snapped up 21 rebounds, and David Kossover added 26.

Lewis College (Ill.) was the second-round foe for Ouachita and the Tigers led all the way to a 77-61 victory. Clements collected 36 and Kossover hit 22.

Kossover hit two free throws with three seconds to go to nip third-seeded Southern University of Baton Rouge, La., 65-64. Robert Moore put in 19 points and Clements had 18. Clements hurt his ankle in the latter part of the game.

With Clements out of the lineup, Ouachita yielded to Oklahoma Baptist University, 66-53. Kossover ended the night with 12 points and Don Mansfield added 10.

In the consolation game for third place, Ouachita won over Fairmont, Va., 77-71. Kossover paced the Tigers with 30 points. It was the first time an Arkansas team had ever won third. Central State of Ohio waxed Oklahoma Baptist in the finals, 85-51, to take the title.

Kossover was named to the first team all-tournament and received the Charles Stevenson Hustle Award. Clements was named to the second-team all-tournament. Coach Vining received an award for being the coach having the most influence over his team.

Leon Clements receives the trophy for third in the national tournament as Joe Franz, Bill Neal, and Jerry Cash look on.

NAIA All-America

Clements Sets 10 Conference Records

Climaxing his career by being named to the first team of the NAIA All-America, Leon Clements finished his career at Ouachita with 10 records in the AIC. He had the most career points (2,518); the most season points (954); the most season free throws (398); the most regular season points (746); the most field goals in an AIC tournament (99); the most points in an AIC tournament (250) and the most free throws in an AIC tournament (70) — a tie with David Kossover.

Joe Franz shoots his jumper against Fairmont in the final game. Don Mansfield (51) waits for rebound.

The baseball team is made up of on front row: Rick Keller, Ricky Pierce, Charlie Williams, Paul Brown, and Ken Sneed. Second row: Dave Cook, Raboo Rodgers, Jack Mills, Larry Thrash, Sam Tinsley, and Cleetis Judkins. Third row: Van Barrett, Bruce Cash, Joe Calhoun, John Estes, Dwight Ledbetter, Jim Jordan, and Larry Kirk.

But Finish Second, 8-4

Returning lettermen plus outstanding freshmen make the Tiger baseball outlook for 1965 bright. Returning lettermen include Van Barrett, Sam Tinsley, Charlie Williams, Cleetis Judkins, Larry Kirk, Jim Jordan, David Jackson, and Gary Chunn. Chunn is the only returning pitcher.

Freshmen will see a lot of action. Paul Brown, Dwight Ledbetter, and Bruce Cash will lend much-needed pitching support. Ricky Pierce has taken over as the Tiger second baseman.

Cleetis Judkins stretches a single into a double as a Henderson player bobbles the ball.

First baseman Van Barrett (20) and Jim Jordan run down a Henderson player who got caught off first base.

Butrell, Bill Meeks, Ed Scrimshire, Jim Hogan, Bill Dumas, Gary Stephens, and Dub Townsend.

Track

Cindermen Spend Another Year Rebuilding

Coach Wayne Williams began the season as track coach and continued the rebuilding program begun by coach Buddy Bob Benson last year.

Paul Rogers and Gary Stephens competed in their fourth year of AIC meets. Stephens set a new league record in the pole vault last year of 13-7.

Jim Hogan takes the baton from Paul Rogers in the 440-relay.

The Tiger cindermen, under the coaching of Wayne Williams and Buddy Bob Benson, planned to spend another year in rebuilding. Eight of the sixteen-man squad are freshmen.

The only returning lettermen with experience are Paul Rogers, a short distance man, AIC pole vault record-holder Gary Stephens, and Lane Strother, 440.

Stephens traveled to Sioux Falls, S. D. last summer to win fifth in the nation.

Heaving the shot is big Bill Dumas, 225-pound sophomore.

Distancemen for Ouachita this year are Dub Townsend, Buddy Key, Roy Vandiver, and Bill Meeks.

Smith, Jo Bottoms, manager Fay Matthews, and manager Nora Johnson. Back row: Kay Matthews, Eva Gamble, Janice Jones, and Lynde Benton. This was Miss Downing's third year with the Tigerettes.

Sixth Consecutive Title Captured by Tigerettes

For the sixth year in a row, the Tigerettes reigned supreme in Arkansas as they copped the state championship title for the eighth time in 10 years.

In winning the state AAU tournament, held this year at Oak Grove High School in North Little Rock, the Tigerettes had to defeat Southern State College, 59-40, then Pine Bluff Sharpshooters, 59-31, in the semi-finals, before taking a 53-42 victory over Everetts Glass of Little Rock.

Not only did they retain their title, but the Tigerettes also had four members placed on the All-State team, and sophomore Connie Kelch was named the "Most Valuable Player" of the tournament. Chosen for the All-State first team were Connie Kelch and Kay Matthews, for her fourth year. Sharon Smith and Clara Arnold, both juniors, were named to the second team. It is the third year for Sharon's honor.

Kay Matthews (31) and Jo Bottoms try to steal the ball from a Piperette player, while Connie Kelch comes in to assist them.

Sharon Smith taps the ball to Kay Matthews as Clara Arnold moves in during a home game against the Raytown Piperettes of Missouri.

The Tigerettes opened play this season with a 57-33 victory over the Arkansas Baptist Nurses. Dot Drummond put in 14 points to lead all scorers.

Raytown Piperettes, Omaha Comets, and Iowa Wesleyan each made two-game visits to OBU before Christmas and each claimed the win. Ouachita came close to having its first victory in the National Girls Basketball League when Iowa Wesleyan edged by, 42-40, after the Tigerettes had held as much as a 14-point lead in the third quarter.

After the holidays, the Tigerettes came back to defeat Stuttgart, 66-28, on the home court. A three-game trip to Texas brought that many losses from the Dallas Crestettes and Wayland's Flying Queens, then two more beatings were taken at Nashville by the national champion Nashville Business College.

A Stuttgart player attempts to score as Tigerettes Melba Calhoun, Dot Drummond (43), Lynda Benton, and Connie Kelch (51) come under for the rebound.

Tigerettes Sport 9-14 Record for Season

In February, the Tigerettes took third place at the eleventh annual LaRose Invitational Tournament in Houston. Kay Matthews and Connie Kelch were both placed on the All-Tournament team. After defeating Deer Park, 49-36, the Tigerettes fell victim to the Wayland Flying Queens, 52-39. A consolation game against the San Antonio Bubbles gave Ouachita third place with its 63-30 victory. Jo Bottoms sacked 18 points, Kay Matthews scored 17, and Connie Kelch added 12 more to the winning tally. Champions of the tournament were Wayland's Flying Queens, who defeated their own "farm team," the Queen Bees, in the finals.

NBC came to Arkadelphia in March to claim two more victories, then the Tigerettes traveled to Tech and won, 49-31. In their last home game of the season, the Ouachita girls put down Pine Bluff Sharpshooters, 54-36. Clara Arnold led all scorers with 24 points.

Kay Matthews, the team's only senior, was high scorer for the year with 211 points. Jo Bottoms, a sophomore, was second highest in scoring with 175, and another sophomore, Connie Kelch, was third with 150. Freshman Lynda Benton ranked fourth with 137, followed closely by junior Clara Arnold's 132.

Sharon Smith and Eva Gamble were outstanding on defense as they snatched the rebounds and kept the backboards cleared.

Kay Matthews comes down with the rebound for Ouachita as Jo Bottoms stands ready to pull them away from the surrounding Piperettes.

Continuing their emphasis on femininity, the Tigerettes again dressed in travel uniforms for all road trips. A white neck scarf was added this year to the white blazer with purple emblem, white blouse, purple skirt, and black heels, which were introduced last year in attempt to portray the Ouachita slogan, "Queen of the College World."

Miss Downing served as president of the National Girls Basketball League this year while coaching the Tigerettes for their third season. It was the team's sixth year with the National League, a powerful group of eight teams from across the nation. Although the Ouachita girls cannot claim a National League victory, they have gained much experience from the competition.

Girls' Swimming Team Newest Group at OBU

A girls' swim team was a new addition to OBU's sports program this year. Swimming meets were held at Ouachita and at Hendrix before the state AIC meet was held in November at Hendrix.

Hendrix, the strongest team, won first place, with State Teachers second and Henderson, third, OBU came in fourth and A&M finished fifth.

Pat Turpin and Kay Matthews were divers for the Ouachita team. Among the team members was In Joe Byun, champion swimmer of Korea. Miss Margaret Downing coached the girls.

Ouachita girls participated in a swim meet in Ruth Lamb Memorial Pool before the state meet at Hendrix College in November.

Four members of the girls tennis team were Clara Arnold, Camille LaGrossa, Dotty Best, and Connie Kelch.

Nine girls came out for tennis this spring. Only one, Kay Stone, was a returning letterman. The schedule of meets included competition with Hendrix, Tech, State Teachers, and Henderson.

The AIC meet was scheduled for the first of May at Walker Courts in Little Rock. Ouachita has won first place in singles and doubles for the past two years. Mrs. Hazel Ann Goff has coached the team for the last three years.

John Sawyer serves the ball.

Tennis

Ouachita Netters Dominate Conference

Since the arrival of David and Jerry Kossover, Ouachita has dominated Arkansas tennis competition. David Kossover has been the AIC champion for the last three years and is now ranked No. 1 in the state. David and his brother Jerry were last year's doubles champions and are expected to repeat.

The Kossovers will get help from John Sawyer, freshman Steve Epperson, and David Wallace.

Jerry and David Kossover, top doubles team in the AIC, teamed up last year in the national tournament to gain a third-place finish.

Golf

Golf Team Takes Fourth In 1964 AIC Tournament

When the Ouachitonian went to press, the golf team had competed in two matches. They defeated Hendrix, 17½-21½, and Arkansas A&M, 10½-7½. Charles Carver was medalist in both matches.

Ineligibility kept last year's team leader, Johnny Williamson, from competing this year. He was taking too many hours. Charles Carver, who shot a 163 in last year's AIC tournament, is the only returning letterman. The Tigers took fourth in the AIC tournament last year.

Charles Carver, only returning letterman from last year's team, steps up to the ball.

Robin Covington, a freshman from Little Rock, follows through on an iron shot.

Swimming

Swimming Team Displays Improvement

Through the dedicated efforts of Coach Billy Goff, the Ouachita swim team displayed a tremendous improvement over last season. The eight-man team competed in numerous meets and for the first time played host to three AIC meets.

Dennis Watts, a freshman from Crossett, set an unofficial AIC record for the 500-yard free-style during a dual meet with Southern State. The time was 7:37.2. The old record was 7:40.

The swimming team is expected to grow, after the finest showing in its short history. Ouachita's swimming facilities are second to none in the AIC.

Intramurals

Red Shirts Win Football Championship

Ouachita's intramural program includes football, basketball, and track. Each contest is a hard fought battle. The program is sponsored by Coach Wayne Williams.

The intramural football champion was Rho Sigma Social Club, closely followed by the Betas and AOE.

The basketball program found 20 teams competing. Each team was to play every other team once. The season was never finished because of the Varsity Cage success in Kansas City.

A track program is planned for the spring months.

Chuck Piker takes the snap for the AOE's as the Red Shirts charge.

Johnny Wilson rounds end behind the blocking of fellow Red Shirts Gene Spearman, and Mike Fisher as intramural All-Stars Byron Brock and T. J. Cunningham pursue. The All-Stars won, 6-0.

All-Star Thearon McKinney (3) attempts to evade Red Shirt blockers Warren Burleson and Johnny Wilson as David Trower carries the pigskin.

James Burleson of Ouachita and Mrs. Gene Drummond, wife of a Henderson professor, combine their talents in "The Music Man," presented by the Arkadelphia Philharmonic Club in March.

ADS AND INDEX

The community of Arkadelphia and surrounding areas offers much to the collegian who is willing to find it. And in turn, the student offers much to the community. One could not very well exist without the other. As in all areas of life, it can be said of this situation that you get as much out of something as you put into it.

Faculty Members Eat, Drink, and Be Married

Mr. Orr, Dr. Phelps, and "Wimpy" Hendricks proudly display their catch from a fall fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCommas beam from the steps of J. E. Berry Chapel where they were married by Dr. Phelps on March 26.

Dining in the Home Management House are Mr. Moxey, Mrs. Jones, Dr. Lindsey, and Annette Crockett on the back, then Mrs. Lindsey and Robert Crockett in front.
