Besides making several outstanding choral achievements, the Choir was invited to represent Ouachita at the Southern Baptist Convention in Louisville, Kentucky, this year.

The Ouachita Singers preformed the traditional "Messiah" at Christmas, in addition to selections from Bach's "St. Matthew Passion" and the oratorio, "Elijah."

Choir Trips

They move as slow as a herd of cattle, don't they, Charlie?

James Burleson, president of the choir, and his brother Warren, make preparations for departure.

All aboard and ready to travel—finally!

The Band has become one of the most popular phases of Ouachita school life. They have been present at football games, both home and out of town, as well as the basketball games. The Band presented a Fall concert and a Spring concert, featuring some of the compositions of its conductor, Francis McBeth.

The Band was a vital asset to the Tiger Spirit throughout each game.

Highlights and Activities

Frosh

... And so began the "beanie brigade."

Registration—where many a headache begins and ends.

A word to the wise should be sufficient.
The annual faculty reception where first impressions are made.

The Student Senate reception—more first impressions!!

Orientation

Speech-making was the order of the day.

An old game, known at O.B.C. as the "reptile ramble."

Boisterous example of that ole' Tiger spirit.

Memories of Freshman-Sophomore Day—and remember who won!

Two rival Freshman groups in action.

Ouachita County Fair

Don't worry, Gene. Things have to get better, they couldn't be worse.

"All together on the second verse now."

"Save your Confederate money, boys . . ."

Faculty Talent Program

Presenting . . . Miss Calculate.

One of the few times in the year the faculty lets their hair down.

Miss Take and her classic clarinet.

The winner, Miss Cue, alias Francis McBeth, and "her" victory bouquet.

*Reception for Mrs. Gene Henry
Rudolph*

The charming Mrs. Rudolph is still radiant after her twenty years of service to Ouachita. At her position of honor, she stops to chat with several of the faculty members in attendance at the reception.

B.S.U. State Convention

One of the first and most inspiring events of the year was the B.S.U. State Convention, held this year on Ouachita campus. Among the speakers was Baker J. Cauthen, one of the Southern Baptists' greatest workers.

Here is where the conferences took place.

Arkansas State B.S.U. turned out in full force.

Dr. Baker James Cauthen

This was the team that helped to make the convention a success.

This year shall always be remembered by the students, faculty and visitors of Ouachita as one of the best in the history of Little Theater productions. Everything from suspense, drama, love, action and comedy kept the audience either on the edge of their seat or filled with laughter. To Mr. Holt and the student producers we say "congratulations" and "thank you" for a fine season.

O.C.C.

The Ouachita College Circuit has been a dream at Ouachita for some time. With the help of the Administration the dream came true at four o'clock October 27, 1958. Since then OCC has been operating nine hours a day, five days a week while school is in session. Programs have consisted of music, news, special interviews, and devotional programs. Plans are being made that next year OCC will be even greater service to the Ouachita campus. The beginning announcers were Gene Boone, Leon Lowe, Eddie McDonald, Dan Whitaker, and Gordon Bassinger. Later David Jordan, Bailey Smith, James Postlewate, Bob Duggar, Don Lawrence and Beverly Spearman were added to the staff.

MARTY GILBERT, student director of O.C.C.

Student disc jockeys, Eddie McDonald and Leon Lowe.

Halloween Carnival

Dr. Phelps crowns Jo Ann Grahm Halloween Carnival Queen.

"My hero!?"

"Me, Tarzan—You Jane."

"Neptune,
I presume?"

"A great show!" commented Miss Ray.

Dodge or Drown!

It must be the result of water on the brain.

Must be Chinatown . . . but with pine trees?

Limber up the ole' pitchin' arm, Blegg!

Homecoming 1958

Homecoming 1958. One of the biggest events of the school year. Building floats, parade, judging, crowning and football game all filled this exciting week which shall always be remembered for its victories—victory for the Queen and Homecoming maids; dormitory decorations; floats; and the OBC Tigers' triumph over its opponents, Mississippi College, 31 to 0.

The Rho Sigma Social Club float "Steam to Victory" took first place; shown here with Emily Balcom, Rho Sigma sweetheart.

First place winner in the dormitory decorations was Conger Hall with its theme "Choctaws Tastum Gud Like An Injun Shud."

"Doggone these cheap nails. You better not bend this time."

"How much time do we have left?" asks Tom Davis as the Ministerial Association work to complete their entry, "And The Tigers Rose To Victory."

It all started with the students trying to make like would-be carpenters and construction personnel fighting through mashed thumbs, staple-stuck fingers, and sleepless nights but nevertheless completing their floats in time to place them on line for the big parade which began on the OBC Campus. . . .

S.A.S.: Kathy Hutto and "A Work Of Art."
 Sophomore Class: Wencie Bonds and "We Octo-push the Tigers."
 Gamma Phi: Bettye Adney and "Autumn Leaves."
 B.S.U.: Polly Jones and "Web 'em Up, Tigers."

S.N.E.A.: Pat Boldosier and "Victory Tiger Tradition."
 Pershing Rifles: Marilyn Sawyer and "Fort Victory."
 Beta Beta: Helen Garrott and "Toeing for Victory."
 W.C.F.: Mary Dunnavant and "Hi Ho It's Off To Win We Go."

... moved through the streets of Arkadelphia ...

... and ended on the stadium grounds where the floats were placed on display during the game. Following the game a reception was held for the Queen and her court ending the Homecoming festivities for this year.

Dr. Phelps congratulates "Queen Hut."

B.S.U. Christmas Banquet

The tables were arrayed with Christmas decorations and pretty ladies.

Beauty Pageant

February 17 was the date of this highlight of the school year. The Beauty Pageant, sponsored by the Ouachitonian Staff, had as its theme An Enchanted Evening. Such student talent as Charlie Wright, Ron Kelly, Theresa Henthorne, Girls' Ensemble, Tri-Tones and others helped to make this event a successful one. Pictured below are twelve of the twenty finalists announced that evening.

Kathy Hutton and Gene Petty

Judy Overton and Richard Stubblefield

"I don't see no creature."

The Rough Riders.

"There'll always be another play."

The Line-up.

"See any members!!"

"Ouachita, we sing thy . . . hello, Miss Croft!"

Sir, your dignity is showing.

Our esteemed Student Body President.

And they say they don't believe in evolution?

Round and round she goes and where she stops nobody knows.

"Jim Dandies" to the rescue.

"Taste good like ice cream should."

If she can stand 'em, she deserves a flower.

Interesting?

"What! Take a picture of a girl on a flying bicycle? Don't be silly."

"It is untrue to say that it is false to say that it is true . . ."

"He wants to turn it but I won't let him."

"Of course this means murder if I get caught."

"Aw, don't take it so hard, there were only 500 questions."

"Think we'll ever find a job?"

Dance, ballerina, dance.

"Yakety-yak!!"

Pajama Game.

"Pray, pledges, pray."

"Standing on the corner watching . . ."

Going somewhere??
