

Through The Years

... the memories of school will sharpen your appreciation for one of our greatest resources—our institutions of learning. Education conditions the mind to a fuller appreciation of the finer things in life, among which is our wonderful variety of beautiful and useful trees. Trees—another major resource—and the countless products made from their wood, are a source of never-ending pleasure to people of intelligence and discriminating taste. Bradley-Southern is proud to be a part of Arkansas' great forest industry.

Wimpy and Dr. Yeoman take time out to watch the birdie.

Your LITTLE ROCK LIBRARY BINDERY wants to take this opportunity to congratulate OUACHITA COLLEGE on its growth in the past 12 years.

We well remember the old structures that once covered the campus with its beautiful shade trees. I remember when I first started calling on Ouachita for binding. Dr. Grant would tell me of the history of Ouachita and give me a few of his personal books to bind and I would be on my way, because the College was forced to repair most of their books. I am sure Dr. Grant would not recognize the campus he once loved. It is one of the South's most beautiful.

We too have grown along with Ouachita in the past 12 years. THANKS to your help and cooperation. It thrills me to go into your new LIBRARY with all its modern equipment and see the beautifully bound vols.

LITTLE ROCK LIBRARY BINDERY (Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jackson and employees) are happy to be your friend and servant.

FROM THE EDITOR:

At first the 1959 OUACHITONIAN was but a dream, a stack of pictures, a folder of information and a long road ahead of many hours of work but with the final production this dream became a reality. This would not have been possible, however, without the cooperation of all those who have had a part in its publication. Therefore, I say "thank you"

To the Administration and Faculty for their consideration and help.

To the Student Body for their cooperation in choosing their pictures and giving the necessary information.

To the Departmental Divisions for their consent in shooting action pictures of the classrooms while they were in session.

To the Personalities of Ouachita in meeting scheduled assignments for their pictures.

To the Sports Department who took time out from busy practice schedules to give us needed pictures for their section.

To the Organizations: Academic, Religious, and Social, for their response in payments for their pages and handing in the required information for their organization.

To the Military Department for its wonderful cooperation and undivided attention in helping the editor in every possible way.

To the Music Department for their concentrated assistance in gaining necessary pictures.

My thanks also to Campbell's Studio of Little Rock for the class photography, Mr. Jim Long, representative for the publishers, and to Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas; but most of all to my Assistant Editor, Nan Spears, the Chief Photographer, John Baker and his staff, the Business Manager, B. W. Hathaway, and to the endeavors of a fine Editorial Staff of workers for a job well done, I give my deepest appreciation. The theme of the book is "Remembering" and I shall always remember what everyone has done.

Sincerely,

GENE BLAGG, Editor
