I am well aware that everyone says this, but "I can hardly believe I'm about to start my last year of college." I never could have imagined it would go by as quickly as it has, but I'm grateful I still have one year left. I also could not have made it to where I am without the help and support of countless people. Danny Brown warned me about being photo editor for two years, rather than the normal one, claiming it wore him out and took away his passion for photography. I need everyone to cross their fingers for me in the hopes that this won't happen to me as I enter my second year as photo editor!

Being at OBU has allowed me to develop some incredible relationships that will surely last far years and years to come. The liberal education has been about much more than just schooling; I have learned about life, leadership and love.

Sa, I want to thank everyone for all the love you have each shown me. (Everyone includes far more people than I could list here!)

Megan, I can't wait to see the finished product that we've worked so hard on all year! You've done a great job and I've really enjoyed working with you and being able to drop by your office any time! Good luck at UALR!

Becca and Cassie, can't wait to see what you two are capable of next year!

Holland, great work on The Signal all year. I wish you the very best of luck in your marriage...you will love it as long as you keep loving each other! Thanks for always sharing your snacks with me.

Rance, how and why were we not friends earlier? I can always count on you when I need an honest opinion! Thanks for putting me in a good mood, even when I didn't want to be.

Emma, you are one amazing girl, and I'm really going to miss you. Good luck with your new job-you're a great graphic designer and an inspiration. I'm very glad your office was closest to mine!

Jeff and Deborah Root, thank you for your guidance, advice and kind words...please keep them coming for my last year! The two of you have been a tremendous part of my OBU experience.

To all my other professors at Ouachita, thank you, thank you, THANK YOU for your time and dedication, and for passing on your interest for a subject to me. I love to learn and each of you has made it both possible and enjoyable. I also need to say thanks for always replying to my e-mails about coming to classes, recitals, and lectures to take pictures...thanks for putting up with my camera's clicking!

To my work study girls, thank you for listening to my rants and sharing your talent with the Ouachita community and me. Each of you has a lot to offer and I wish you the best of luck!

Danny Brown, I'm so glad I was able to come to OBU and take your esteemed place as photo editor after you graduated. I cannot express how much I enjoyed working and hanging out with you in the office. I miss your funny stories and, of course, the jangling of your keys from down the hall. I really hope Cali works out for you guys, and that Panavision continues to treat you well. Thanks for the training!

Holly, I've loved working with you all summer and becoming best friends in just a few weeks. You're going to be an awesome editor and even greater sports broadcaster. Love you!

Partida (about to be Howard), thanks for being such a great friend to me...I've missed living with you this past year, but I'm ready for you and Sky to move close after you get married! Can't wait. You're an amazing girl and I can't tell you how grateful I am for your friendship. Love you, and I'll try to hold it more together at your wedding than you did at mine!

Henley (about to be Richardson), you and me? We're like two peas in a pod. You're the greatest pal I could ask for, and I promise to "never call you a bad friend." I hope one day we can make a coffee table book together and don't know what I'll do when you and Barret move away. Love you!

Mom and dad, thanks for still being there after 21 years of me! I know that I will always be able to count on both of you, which means more than you know. Thanks for showing me what a great (high school sweetheart) marriage looks like, and for your continued support. Because you pushed me to give 110 percent for so long, I think I'm up to 120 percent now! I love you both.

Benjamin, thanks for putting up with me being gone so often for the sake of shooting. You're the greatest husband I ever could have asked for, and I can't wait to see what the rest of life has to offer us. I know it'll be an adventure, but as long as it's with you, nothing else really matters. Thanks for your support and for always making me laugh, favorite. 'Till the stars go blue.

To all my other friends, comrades and fans, thanks for your encouragement and help in getting me to get where I am today. Sydney, Cessany, Stefani, Holland, Walchuk, Zac, Teron, Katie: ya'll are all awesome, thanks for always making me grin!

Until next year, may peace be with you!

Callie Stephens

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

As I sit here in the office, in the chair that I have become all too familiar with for the past four years, I can hardly believe I am writing my Editor's Letter. I find myself to be just as excited about the Ouachitonian as I was the first day I toured the mass communications building at Ouachita. This has truly been an unforgettable journey. One that I will never forget! And the Ouachitonian, along with all the great people that make it possible, has been a significant part of my time at Ouachita and why I love this place so much.

To my wonderful staff: you are all so talented. I enjoyed working with each and every one of you and I want to thank you all for making the book what it is.

Becca: You are so special to me. I want to thank you for your endless encouragement. There were times that a few sweet words from you were what got me through a stressful time in the office! You have a wonderful heart and I know you will be a fantastic co-editor next year. Thank you for everything. (And let this be an apology for that one time where I made you do approximately 20 pages in two weeks...I owe you.)

Cassie: It has been a blast being a "yearbookie" with you. I always looked forward to catching up with you and hearing your funny stories. You are incredibly talented and will no doubt impress many people next year with your gifts. Thank you for all your great work. Always remember that you are GREAT at what you do. Next year will be amazing with you and Becca as editors together!

Tanner: Oh, Tanner. Not only are you awesome at pretty much everything you do, but you are my go-to person for the latest "info". I absolutely loved being part of Kappa Chi with you, as well as working on the book with you. You are very talented and I can't wait to see where those talents take you!

Shea: Thank you for always writing amazing stories and never, ever complaining! I have really enjoyed having you as a part of the team.

Amy Lynn Wentz: Thank you for always being such a hard worker. I really appreciate how much you were willing to help me, no matter what the bizarre task was! Not only did we get to do fun EEE things together, but we got to bond in the yearbook office as well. Love you.

Abbey: You blessed me this year more than you will ever know. The Lord is so evident in you and I am so thankful for the opportunity to have seen you shine with His love. I want to be just like you when I grow up.

Thank you for being so wonderful.

Breanne: Basically, you rock! Amazing writing and ad skills. I know a good yearbookie when I see them, and you are definitely one of them! I'm so glad I got a chance to work with you. Thank you for all of your hard work.

To all of my practicum workers: I obviously could not have done this without you guys. Every story, every interview and every quote was very much appreciated. Thank you all for providing me with great material for this book!

Rance: I can't even think about the Ouachitonian office without picturing at least one of these things: late night Comm Law study sessions, EEE "artwork" (usually consisting of napkins/sticky notes), a white board covered in YOUR handwriting, or 6 Degrees of Separation (celebrity version, of course). I'd like to think you have something to do with that! I am truly blessed to have had the chance to even know someone as talented, interesting and fun as you! From the bottom of my heart, thank you for each and every uplifting and encouraging word of advice you've given me over the past four years. They will not be forgotten. I look forward to seeing what great things you'll accomplish. And I expect to be recognized when you are famous. Thanks for everything, RancEEE.

Alan: THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!!! You are wonderful. I am so grateful for all the sports stories you wrote and for all the times you came to the office to help me. You were such a blessing to me. Thank you for all you've done for me!

Adam: Thank saving me countless times. Like Rance, I can't really think about the Ouachitonian office without flashing back to 6 Degrees of Separation freshman year. You are very talented and I consider myself blessed to know you!

Lauren: I feel that I REALLY need to express some gratitude to my best friend for several reasons. For always getting me through any stressful time, for providing what seemed like choreographed dance moves with Rance in the office, and for always reminding me that the book will be great and I can do it. It meant so much. I love you.

Callie: I bet you are extremely glad this particular book is done, huh? I for one am not, because that means we no longer have an excuse to hang out after class! You were so wonderful to me this year. Thank you for helping me put together this book. You made this book possible with your incredible photography skills that I will forever be jealous of. You did such a fabulous job. I am so happy to call you friend.

Jeff: Well, you've put up with me for four years now. I could say you're pretty lucky, but I think I am the lucky one because of it. I have so enjoyed having you as a professor and advisor, but most of all, as a friend. Thank you for all of your kind words, support and help whenever I needed it. You made me love Ouachita from the very beginning, and I thank you for that.

Deborah: Another yearbook down!! We did it! Words cannot express my gratitude for the opportunity to edit the Ouachitonian my senior year. You have been so many things to me during my time at Ouachita. You are a fantastic advisor, fellow EEE sister and professor. Your support has meant so much to me. It has truly been an honor to work with you, but it has been a privilege to learn from you. It was so much fun and I gained many things from this experience that I will take with me wherever I go, and I owe it all to you. Thank you, Deb.

To my family: Ouachita has changed my life. Thank you for giving me this experience. Your love, support and encouragement mean everything to me. I love you all.

So, I hope all of you Ouachitonians enjoy the book as much as I did creating it. It has been an honor being your editor. I look forward to what Ouachita's next facelift will be...

It was place that was welcoming to all who entered. A place where the chimes of Berry Chapel still rang through the trees and where reminders of those who came before us were evident.

Although it remained a place that was true to the values upon which it was founded, Ouachita experienced changes never seen before. Lives were changed inside the classrooms, in the halls of the dorms, on the athletic fields and in the community.

It was a facelift to remember, and one that helped define the Ouachita of today and of the years to follow.

The Tiger mascot waves the Ouachita flag during the homecoming game. Flags were seen around campus on game days, as well as in the hands of fans as they cheered in the stands.
