The majority of the photos were taken by student photographers in the OBU photography department.

Portraits were provided by James Burge Photography of Sherwood, Arkansas.

The design on the cover, as well as the theme and section designs, were created by Audra Hinson.

All designs including the cover were created on the Macintosh iMac and Adobe InDesign CS. Body copy was set in Baskerville 10 pt. font. Captions were set in Struktur 8 pt. font.

Student Life headlines were Margarosa font and Unitus font. Background swooshes were created in Adobe Illustrator.

Academic headlines were Function. All book photographs were taken by Danny Brown Organization headlines were Myraid Pro and Struktur.

Sports headlines were Myraid Pro.

Theme fonts were Cursive Hand and Myriad Pro.

The 2009 Ouachitonian is a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, the Associated Collegiate Press, and the Arkansas College Media Association.

The 2008 Ouachitonian received a Gold-medalist rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and All-Columbian honors in two categories. The book also received seven Gold Circle awards for individual achievement. The Ouachitonian placed third in general excellence in the Arkansas College Media competition, and won 18 individual awards. Audra Hinson was named yearbook Editor-of-the-Year.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Editors Club

Lauren Farabough-2007, Megan Lindsey-2010, Audra Hinson-2008, 2009, Dr. Deborah Root- 1981 and sponsor since 1991, Erin Smith-2006.

After many long nights. After hours of clicking button after button. After many outburst at the printer, the book is finally done! Now you can take a seat, flip through the pages and relive the memories that meant the most to you. As I take my look though the book I will think of the people who made this book possible; the people who made this book special.

First of all, I would like to send a big thanks to everyone whose name is in the index. This means one of two things. One—you got out and participated in Ouachita life. Thank you for helping to make Ouachita a great place. And a very big thank you to those of you who got your pictures taken for the people section. After all, what is a yearbook without people? Two—you gave us a quote. Thank you for getting back with us and giving us what we needed to record your Ouachita experience for others to enjoy.

Next, I would like to thank the contributors. Whether you wrote a story for Dr. Root's class or were just my lucky friend who got roped into helping me... Thank you! This book would not be possible without your help, your stories, and your pictures.

Practicum friends, I know you probably only picked working for the Ouachitonian because I persuaded you with my sweet talk. So, thank you for putting up with us and doing all the little tasks that had to be done.

My staff, most of you have been with me for two years now. Wow! Thank you for helping to make two books amazing! I have enjoyed our time together. What would Wednesday nights have been like if I hadn't spent all of them with you all?

Tanner, I am so glad you joined us this year. Your sarcasm and funny comments kept me laughing. Thank you for volunteering so much of your time to help us get this book accomplished.

Anna, I am sad to say that my art skills will never live up to your wonderful drawings. I wish the best to you and your child...haha. Thanks for providing us with laughter and your smile every week.

Shea, even though you only really became a staff member at semester, I am still so grateful to have been able to work with you. I have no idea how this book would have gotten done without your dedication and wonderful writing. Thanks you so much for being so kind and shelving 5,000 books and spending hours looking for polaroids.

Katie, thank you for keeping me on top of things. Your daily e-mail reminders kept me in check and encouraged about getting this book finished. Your ability to do so many things and not put things off until the last minute amazes me. I wish I could be more like you in that way. I am so glad to have gotten to know you over the last two years and to have you as a friend. Good luck at seminary!

Becca, have you ever seen "Wicked?" I didn't think so. Maybe Megan will be give you more freedom to listen to whatever music you like. :) I don't think I could say thank you enough for all the help you have given me. Thank you for taking time out of your summer to help me finish this book. Your loyalty to the people you care about is so evident. That is such a good quality to have. Continue being the bubbly person that gets so excited about everything, not many people have that much energy!

Cassie, thank you for working hard on a section that you may not have enjoyed. Perhaps Megan will give you something new to do. Thank you for allowing me to be your friend. And thank you for providing us all with laughter through your sarcastic comments and cheerful spirit :). I really did like working with you. I promise. Keep working hard and believe that it will pay off some day. Good luck next year!!

Alan, you had three jobs yet you still came over here and helped after you graduated... WOW! Thank you so much. Thank you for always being an encouraging friend. For always reminding me that it will get done and that the book will look amazing. I know that you will go far in life. You are so good at what you do and always go beyond what is asked of you. Hopefully you feel like you know me a little more after this year since you didn't know me last year. Ha Ha. Really, I am so glad to have you as a friend and I will be expecting to hear from you while I am far away.

Kim, or should I say Mrs. Beasley? Hello, childhood friend. We have been together so long and I REALLY don't know what I am going to do being so far away from you. You are the best friend. I am glad you found Alex last summer and that ya'll are so happy together. You too, have always been a huge source of encouragement for me. Thank you so so so much! You did a great job as community editor and I hope it will help you if you finally decide on a job one day... What is it now, graphic design? I know I will stay in touch with you so, I am not worried. You are wonderful!

Megan, well, I'm turning the reins over to you. And YOU CAN DO IT! I know you will do a wonderful job. Don't worry about anything. You can call me until October 8 and then you can e-mail me and I can call you back. But, I don't expect too many calls. You are talented and smart and I know you will make a great book. Thank you for your support over the past two years. Thanks you for being so willing to help and for indexing all those pages... I know that isn't a fun job. I have enjoyed spending so much time with you through the staff and the EEEs. Keep me updated on how things are going and where life takes you.

Chloe, I am glad you were always right across the hall. I am thankful that you allowed me to continually interrupt your work so you could come across the hall and look at mine. You were a wonderful editor and I am glad I was able to share this experience with you.

Danny, oh Danny. Do you miss my e-mails yet? How about my text asking you where you are? You have been a great Photo Lab Editor and have been so much fun to work with. Not to mention that you are a great friend. From your signature keys rattling as you ran down the hall, to you laying on the couch sharing your opinions, you kept this department lively. Sorry the photomontage never worked out. Maybe Megan could try it? Good luck to you and Kimmie in LA.

Dr. Deb, I truly do not believe there is a better yearbook sponsor in the world. I am so glad I have been able to spend the last four years under your guidance and leadership. Thank you for giving me freedom and at the same time doing so much to help me along the way. You are not just a sponsor, but a friend. I will miss you as I travel around the world, but I promise I will come visit sometime and that I will send you messages on facebook.

Whew... So many people to thank. My friends, thank you for taking time to come down to visit me in the office, for writing funny notes on the board, and even for dragging me out of this office to have fun. Kelsey, Kalee, Kiley, Kim, Becca, Paige, Rachael, Abby, JulieAnne, Laura and even you Sam, you are the greatest friends. Thank you so much for always being there for me.

Lauren Farabough, thank you for showing me the ropes my first few years. Thanks for being someone I could look up to and thank you for being such a great friend. I will miss Friday lunches and Monday dinners, but I am sure you will still hear from me often.

Mom and Dad and I guess Zack too, thank you for being such a wonderful and supportive family. I really could not have made it this far if it were not for all the support and love I have gotten from you. Mom, thank you so much for coming up here with me this summer and doing anything you could so I could complete this book.

Well, I am sure I have forgotten someone. I can be a forgetful person. The book is done. That is really all I can think about. I hope everyone enjoys it...

Audra Hinson

I suck at writing. I think that's why I take the pictures, but here's a shot at one voluntary piece for the yearbook. I feel like I owe to those who have given their efforts and heart to me. I was the photo editor for two years, which was unusual since the former editors have mostly done it for their senior year only. I am one of a handful of us unusual folk. The past two years the editor positions have been handled by people in my similar situation.

I have to tip my hat (or bandana) to those special people. Chloe, you have done a great job with the Signal these past two years. When it was so close to graduation, you were already accepted to Newhouse and everyone had checked out, you continued to give 110 percent for the publication. That perseverance will set you apart from the crowd in Syracuse. Thanks for your friendship, advice and venting sessions. You are a great friend and I look forward to seeing your Pulitzer, graphic design work or whatever talent you decide to make your career.

Audra, you are a great editor, but you already knew that Miss Editor of the Year. Kudos to you staying after to finish the book, even after you have graduated. I will miss your constant reminders that you lived in Peru. I wish the best of luck to you with IMB, wherever you may be. Remember to have the most fun that you can have. Thank you so much for putting up with me. I probably had some of the best times in the yearbook office harassing you and your staff.

Rance, you are extra unusual since you will be an editor for three years. You are a very talented man and I can't wait to see you in a major motion musical. You have brought many laughs to the Signal within the office and online. Keep up the hard work that you have given and never stop creating. I will miss our redneck conversations on where in the world this society is going.

Now, to my staff. You guys have been amazing. There is absolutely no way that this book could have been published without you guys. Thank you for putting up with my tangents. I loved seeing your faces every time you walked into that office.

Kara, your artistic head of yours brought great creativity to the staff. Thanks for your hard work and dedication to do things last minute. I can't wait to see your hard hanging in some fancy gallery one day. Remember to never stop creating.

Jared, you're a funny dude and a great friend. Thanks for everything that you have done with the Photo Lab and the memories that we now share together. Your drawings have always impressed me. Keep up the great work I know the Photo Lab will miss you, but the News Bureau will be grateful.

Anna, you like me will never step foot into that office as an OBU photographer ever again. It's sad to see us both go, but I am so excited to see what's in store for you. Thank you for four great memories together, you have been alongside with me for the longest out of everyone. Thank you for your hard work, keep working like you do, I look forward to seeing you doing great things.

Jessica, the youngest out of all of us, but your photography has brought so much to us. You are a very talented young woman. Keep up what you are doing, you are a great asset to the photo lab. Thanks for your help with all these last minute assignments.

Callie, I cannot wait to see what else you will bring to the publications for next year. You have been a tremendous help and an inspiration. You deserve every bit of the photo editor position. Good luck for the next two years. You are a part of that unusual group. I know you will do great work. Don't let the little frustrations of the job get you down. You will do so many great things besides make the Photo Lab the best it's ever been. Good luck to you and your marriage. You are a great friend and I will miss you dearly.

Thank you everyone that has been a part of my life. There are so many of you. Dr. Ozmun, Mr. Bettis, Dr. Jeff and Deborah Root and Dr. Downs, thank you for everything that you have done and taught me inside and outside of the classroom. I will miss you guys and the fun world of the Mass Communications building. Dr. Motl, you are a great professor and an inspiring one at that. Dr. Sonheim, thanks for teaching me about creating. Steve Phillips, your outrageous ways of teaching have actually taught me some things, thank you for everything. Thank you to the guy on the lawn mower who always says hello, I never got your name Lawn Mower Man. Fourth floor, you will never leave me. My roommates and the Waffle House crew, I can't go on because I don't have enough space, but there are too many words to say about you guys anyways. Landon, Jimmy, Alan, Jon, Vince and Craig I will miss you, come see me in Cali. Kimmie, my wife and the most important person of all, I love you, without you there is no reason for this letter or anything I do for that matter. Thank you students for all the memories and all the life lessons. I will cherish these days forever.

TODAY IS YESTERDAY

It did not matter if you stepped onto CAMPUS for the first time this year, four years ago or even 100 years ago. There was something about being on campus that made one feel at HOME and made memories come to LIFE.

Ouachita was not a UNIVERSITY that was easily forgotten. And it was not a university that easily forgot its alumni. STUDENTS saw alumni names as they walked the sidewalk to class. They saw benches DEDICATED by past CLUBS. They looked at the names on monuments and the TIGER. They learned about the people behind the names on buildings. It was evident as students walked around campus that YESTERDAY made Ouachita into who it is today. Let's just say,

TODAY IS YESTERDAY.

The Processional Seniors walk down the senior sidewalk for their last time as Ouachita students. The names of the graduates, starting with the Class of 2000, was etched onto the sidewalk.
