Biographical/Historical note

The earliest telephone directory in this collection was produced in 1931 for the Arkadelphia area in Clark County, Arkansas. The directories list, alphabetically, the head of household, address, and phone number of an individual residence, and most include a separate listing for businesses with address and phone number. Many of the later directories include a map of the area and numbers for emergency services and government agencies.

Scope and Contents

This collection includes telephone directories from Arkadelphia, Arkansas, and surrounding communities.
