Worley Oscar (W.O.) Vaught Papers. Riley-Hickingbotham Library Archives and Special Collections, Ouachita Baptist University, Arkadelphia, Arkansas.

Biographical/Historical note

Worley Oscar Vaught was born in Versailles, Kentucky, and grew up on a farm near Brooksville, Mississippi. He was a graduate of Mississippi College and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Following pastorates in Missouri and Texas, Vaught came to Little Rock in 1945 to become pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church, a position he held until April 1983. During his years at Immanuel, the church grew from one building to a complex covering two city blocks. For many years Immanuel led the state in contributions through the Cooperative Program, the denomination's funding arm for all convention-wide causes, and in gifts to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, which provides one-half of the total support for Baptist foreign missions. More than twenty churches grew out of the Immanuel fellowship during Vaught's tenure. The Immanuel tape ministry, begun eight years before Vaught's retirement, distributed 3 million sermon tapes world-wide.

Following his retirement from Immanuel, Vaught conducted Bible conferences across the nation. He also authored three books, Believe Plus Nothing, God's Calendar, and The Best is Yet to Be.

Vaught was a leader in state and national Baptist circles. He served as president of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and as president of the ABSC Executive Board. He also served on the Board of Trustees of Ouachita Baptist University and the Board of Arkansas Baptist Home for Children. In 1955, Ouachita Baptist College (now University) conferred on him the Doctor of Divinity degree. Members of Immanuel Baptist Church spearheaded the endowment of the W.O. Vaught Chair of Bible at Ouachita Baptist University in 1983.

Vaught was a member of the Relief and Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, president of the Southern Baptist Pastor's Conference, and vice-president of the Southern Baptist Convention. He served 16-plus years on the Southern Baptist Convention's Foreign Mission Board and was chairman of the Building Committee when the present headquarters building was constructed in Richmond, Virginia.

W. O. Vaught died December 25, 1989, at the age of seventy-eight. WOVen Teaching Ministries was organized shortly after Dr. Vaught's death to preserve and perpetuate the ministry of W.O. Vaught. The contents of this collection were assembled by WOVen and presented to Ouachita Baptist University in 1994.

Scope and Contents

In addition to sermon notes and worship service recordings, this collection includes correspondence, personal papers, political materials, and drafts of books. Vaught traveled to Israel, so the collection contains travel-related information, correspondence, photographs, and slides. Also found in this collection are materials concerning Immanuel Baptist Church in Little Rock, Arkansas, the Southern Baptist Convention, and Bible conferences.
