CONSTITUTION

Article I. — The Name

The name of this body shall be "The Arkansas Baptist State Convention."

Article II. — The Purpose

The purpose of this Convention shall be to awaken and stimulate among the churches the greatest possible activity in evangelism, Christian education, and benevolent work throughout its bounds and to the ends of the earth; to cultivate closer co-operation among the churches and to promote concert of action in advancing all the interests of the Kingdom of God.

The Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention on May 9, 1963, shall be the doctrinal guideline for this Convention.

Article III. — Membership

Section 1. The Convention shall be composed of messengers from regular Baptist churches which are in sympathy with the principles and purposes of this Convention, and which desire to co-operate with other churches through this Convention.

Regular Baptist churches are those Baptist churches which in doctrine and in practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of The Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, and The Baptist Faith and Message shall not be interpreted as to permit open communion and/or alien immersion.

Section 2. Each co-operating church shall be entitled to three messengers, with one additional messenger for each additional one hundred members, or major fraction thereof above one hundred, provided however, that no church shall be entitled to a total of more than ten messengers.

Section 3. The Convention may appoint a committee on credentials at each session which shall make recommendations to the Convention with reference to seating messengers from any church not hitherto affiliated with the Convention.

Article IV. — Authority

Section 1. While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, this Convention shall never exercise any authority whatever over any church, nor shall it in any way interfere with the constitution of any church, or with the exercise of its functions as the only ecclesiastical body, but will cheerfully recognize and uphold the absolute independence of the churches.

Article V. — Officers

Section 1. The officers of this Convention shall be: President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Recording Secretary and Treasurer. Each officer of the Convention shall be elected annually, except the Recording Secretary and Treasurer who shall be the same as the Executive Secretary of the Executive Board, and shall continue in office until his successor in office shall have been elected and qualified.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the President to preside over the deliberations of the Convention and to discharge such other duties as may devolve upon the presiding officer of a deliberative body. He shall appoint all committees unless the Convention shall otherwise determine. In the absence of the President, one of the Vice-Presidents shall preside in his stead.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a record of the proceedings of the Convention, to edit and arrange publication of a suitable number of the minutes for distribution among the churches, as the Convention may direct, as soon as reasonably possible after the close of the session. He shall file and keep in order all papers deemed important to the work of the Convention.

Article VI. — The Executive Board

Section 1. This Convention shall elect a Board of Trustees as provided for in the Convention's charter. This Board shall be known as the "Executive Board of Arkansas Baptist State Convention." This Board shall be composed of one member from the bounds of each co-operating association with a membership up to 5,000, and one additional member for each additional 5,000 constituency, or major fraction thereof, provided however, that no association shall be entitled to more than five (5) members. In addition, the convention shall elect one lady from the bounds of each of the eight districts in the state to serve on the Executive Board. Upon the removal of any Executive Board member from the bounds of his or her association, his or her membership on the Executive Board ceases therewith; his or her successor in office may be named by the Nominating Committee of the Executive Board to hold office until the next meeting of the Convention. No member of this board shall hold any remunerative office under the Convention or any of its institutions. One-third of this board shall be elected annually to hold office for three years, and a majority of the board members shall constitute a quorum. Any member of the Executive Board who misses all the Executive Board meetings and the Executive Board committee meetings for one year shall be automatically dropped from membership on the Board.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall be constituted and empowered by the Convention as its business and legal agent to administer all business committed to it by the Convention, and to employ such paid agents as it may deem necessary in carrying out the missionary, educational, benevolent and financial enterprises of the Convention. The Executive Board shall raise, collect, receive and disburse all the funds of the Baptist Cooperative Program, both state and southwide. The office of the Executive Board shall be a clearing house for administering the business affairs of the Convention, and a headquarters for Baptist information. Its books, records and files shall at all time be open for the reference and inspection of any co-operating church which may desire to examine them.

Section 3. The Executive Board shall render to the Convention annually a complete and detailed statement of all its business for the year.

Article VII. — Trusteeships

The Convention shall elect trustees to manage and to operate its colleges, hospitals, orphanages and any other institutions it may possess, as follows:

Section 1. Ouachita Baptist University, 24; Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services, 18; Baptist Memorial Hospital, 9; Southern Baptist College, 24.

Section 2. One-third of the members of the Boards of Trustees shall be elected annually to serve for a term of three years. Any member of any Board of Trustees who misses all the meetings of that Board for one year shall be automatically dropped from membership on that Board.

Section 3. Each Board of Trustees shall elect from their membership a chairman and a recording secretary and such other officers as seems advisable.

Section 4. All trusteeships shall render to the Convention at each annual session complete and detailed reports of all transactions and business and any other activities for the year, and shall be subject to the direction of the Convention in all matters pertaining to administering the affairs of the institution with which their trusteeship is concerned.

Article VIII. – Operation of Agencies

Section 1. Each board, agency, and institution of this Convention shall submit to the Executive Board at its annual budget planning meeting, which is to be held prior to the annual meeting of the Convention, a detailed statement of its sources of income, and a budget of proposed expenditures for the ensuing year. When received and adopted by the Convention, these budgets shall become the basis for the operations for the ensuing year.

Article IX. – Meetings

Section 1. The Convention shall meet annually, "if God permit," on a date to be fixed by the Convention. The Executive Board is empowered in emergencies to call special sessions of the Convention and to change either the time or place of meeting or both should the occasion demand.

Article X. – Amendments

Section 1. This Constitution and By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting of this Convention, two-thirds of the members voting concurring in the measure, except Article IV which shall remain forever unalterable in substance.

Section 2. Any proposed amendment to this Constitution shall be presented to the Convention in writing, for its consideration, upon the first day of the annual session, and may be voted on, on any subsequent day during the session, provided adequate publicity has been given in previous announcement.

Article XI. – Parliamentary Authority

Kerfoot's Parliamentary Law shall be the standard for deciding questions of parliamentary procedure.

Article XII. – Districts

The Convention shall establish such geographic districts as it may deem wise to facilitate its promotion, administration, and organization of its objectives, provided, it will never violate in any way the boundaries of any association within the area of the convention. The boundaries of such districts shall be drawn so as to provide equitable geographical and numerical voice and representation on all convention committees, commissions, boards, except the Executive Board, all trusteeships. Each tenth year hereafter, the whole matter of districts shall be readjusted to take in consideration the flow of membership in our Baptist churches.

BY-LAWS

In order to carry out the provisions of the Constitution, the following By-Laws are enacted for the government of the Convention.

1. Enrollment of Messengers

The Secretary of the Convention shall enroll, upon arrival, messengers who present proper credentials from the churches. These messengers, together with others who may be enrolled upon presentation of approved credentials during the session, shall constitute the Convention. Any contention concerning seating messengers shall be presented to a committee appointed by the President for recommendation to the Convention for its action.

2. Officers

The President, First Vice-President, and Second Vice-President shall be elected on the second day of the Convention, their terms of office to begin with the final session of the Convention.

The election of all officers shall be by ballot; provided, however, there is only one nomination for the office, then the Secretary or any other present may be directed to cast the ballot of the entire assembly for the single nominee.

The first vice president shall be nominated and voted upon and elected after balloting for the president has been completed and the winner announced, and the second vice president shall be nominated and voted upon and elected after the balloting for the first vice president has been completed and the winner announced.

Each officer of the Convention shall be elected by a majority of all votes cast.

In case of removal from office, by death or otherwise, of the President, the Vice-Presidents shall automatically succeed to the office of President in the order of their election. The President may not be elected for more than two consecutive terms.

The Treasurer of the Executive Board shall be also Treasurer of the Convention.

All elected officers of this Convention shall be members of churches co-operating with this Convention. This must also apply to members of the Executive Board and the institutional boards of this Convention.

3. The Executive Board

The Executive Board, being the legal trustee of the Convention, shall be empowered by the Convention to administer all business committed to it by the Convention.

The Executive Board is empowered to act for the Convention between sessions of the Convention, provided that it shall never exercise any authority contrary to the expressed will of the Convention.

When any unforeseen emergency occurs in any of the affairs of the Convention, or in any of the interest it controls, that in the judgment of the Executive Board requires action before the next session of the Convention, the Executive Board shall have full authority to take such action as may seem necessary, and all interests concerned shall be governed by such action, provided the Executive Board shall make full report of all matters pertaining thereunto to the next session of the Convention for its approval, and provided further, that nothing in this article shall be construed as giving the Executive Board authority to execute any matter already committed by the Convention to any of its Boards of Trustees or its institutions unless such Board when so commissioned shall decline to act on the orders of the Convention.

All proposals requiring the expenditures of money by the Convention, or the Executive Board of the Convention, from the annual budget, shall be considered by the Executive Board, before being presented to the Convention.

This Board shall be charged with the responsibility to have the books and financial affairs of each and all of the boards and institutions of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention audited annually by an accredited firm of auditors, all audits to be accessible to the Executive Board at its budget planning session, and to be included in the institution's report to the Convention.

Members of the Executive Board, having served two full terms of three years each shall not be eligible for re-election until as much as one year has elapsed.

The various associations of Arkansas whose churches are affiliated with this Convention, may submit to the committee on nominations names of those whom they believe should be considered for membership on the Executive Board as members from that association.

4. Trusteeships

All trusteeships of this Convention shall be amenable to the Convention on all matters, through its Executive Board. No trusteeship shall conduct extra movements to raise money outside its regular revenue-producing sources, nor shall a deficit in running expense or debt be incurred without the approval of the Convention in session or of the Executive Board in case of aforementioned emergencies, except, as follows: when an emergency arises concerning the opportunity to purchase needed property for expansion, the president of the Convention, the president of the Executive Board and the Executive Secretary of the Executive Board (all three concurring) believing such an emergency exists and deeming it wise to incur indebtedness, may give the Trustees of an institution such permission, and make a full report to the Executive Board and to the next Convention in session.

Members of Boards of Trustees having served two full terms of three years each shall not be eligible for re-election until as much as one year has elapsed.

Not more than two (2) members of a Board of Trustees shall at the same time be members of the same local church, nor shall more than six (6) members reside in any one association.

A member of a Board of Trustees of one institution of the Convention may not at the same time be a member of any other Board of Trustees of another institution of the Convention.

No member of a Board of Trustees of any institution of this Convention may at the same time be a member of the Executive Board of the Convention.

5. Committee Members

1. A nine-member rotating Nominating Committee, comprised of at least three laymen, will place in nomination at each annual convention names of persons to fill vacancies on all convention boards. At each annual convention, the president will appoint one-third of this committee to three-year terms to replace the one-third rotating off, plus filling any vacancies that may exist on the committee at that time. Nominations for all boards from this Nominating Committee must be as equitably divided as possible between the eight existing districts of our state convention. The president shall also name the chairman, who shall come from a one-year term member.

2. A member filling an unexpired term not having served the full term of years as provided by the Constitution, shall be, at the discretion of the Nominating Committee, eligible for election to a full term.

3. No member of a commission or committee delegated to study or make recommendations concerning our institutions shall be a member of any Board of Trustees of such institutions.

4. All associational missionaries or mission pastors receiving all or part compensation from the Convention through the Executive Board shall be considered employees of the Convention and shall not be members of any Convention or institutional board. The president of the Convention by virtue of his office shall be a member of the Executive Board for the duration of his term of office.

6. Constitution and By-Laws Committee

A standing Constitution and By-Laws Committee shall be composed of six (6) members to be nominated by the Nominating Committee. One-third of the membership (2) shall be elected annually to serve for a term of three (3) years. No member shall be eligible to serve more than two terms until one year has elapsed.

The Constitution and By-Laws Committee shall be charged with the responsibility of advising the presiding officer concerning constitutional matters during the annual session of the convention with reference to matters which may arise from the floor or from other committees. The committee will act ad interim in all matters concerning the Constitution and By-Laws referred to it by the boards and agencies of the convention. The committee will receive all proposed constitutional changes before the convention and will be responsible for presenting them in writing, for convention consideration, upon the first day of the annual session, after adequate publicity has been given. The duties of the committee in no way preclude amendments to the constitution by messengers to the convention.

APPENDICES

1. Doctrinal Guidelines (1970 Annual, page 61)

Report of the Committee of Twenty-Five adopted, including the recommendation that the SBC statement of faith of 1963, The Baptist Faith and Message, be adopted as doctrinal guidelines for our convention.
2. Appendices (1967 annual, page 40)

Resolution adopted that a search be made of the minutes of the convention to discover policies and interpretations which have been adopted in past years, and these interpretations and policies be added at the end of the constitution and by laws of the convention as appendices.
3. Church Ordinances (1965 annual, page 31)

Resolution adopted, Whereas, in the past, the most general interpretation of the New Testament, and the most general interpretation of the Word 'principles' as it is used in Article 3, Section 1, of our constitution, and the most prevalent practice of Baptist churches in Arkansas with reference to the church ordinances, has been what is commonly called "close baptism" and "close communion", and

Whereas, it is recorded on page 57 of the minutes of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention meeting in Fort Smith in 1937 that the Convention officially objected to the teaching of alien immersion and open communion in one of our seminaries, thereby establishing a precedence for future conventions, therefore,

Be it resolved that the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, meeting in its 112th annual session, go on record as objecting to the reception of alien immersion and the practice of open communion, and

Be it further resolved that we urge churches everywhere to re-examine the New Testament teaching on baptism and the Lord's Supper.
4. Federal Aid (1965 annual, page 43)

Resolution adopted, Whereas, Arkansas Baptists have been faced with the issue of Federal aid to private institutions, and, whereas, many feel that the acceptance of such funds violates the cherished Baptist position of the separation of church and state, therefore, be it resolved that the Arkansas Baptist State Convention go on record as reaffirming our traditional Baptist position on the separation of church and state, and that we urge all of our Baptist institutions and programs to respect this principle.
5. Executive Board Recommendations (1963 annual, page 35)

Voted that all recommendations of the Executive Board shall be published in the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine one month prior to the meeting of the state convention.
6. Book of Reports (1959 annual, page 28)

Voted that the convention constitution and by-laws be printed each year in the Book of Reports for the convenience of our messengers.

7. Baptist Memorial Hospital Trustees (1959 annual, page 29)

Voted that the members of the Board of Trustees of the Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, not be included in the ruling which would prevent their serving on this board and one other convention board.
8. Capital Indebtedness (1959 annual, page 30)

Voted that all requests for capital indebtedness by any convention institution or agency must be submitted to the Executive Board at least 90 days in advance of the July meeting of the Executive Board.
9. Out-of-state participation by Executive Board staff (1953 annual, page 22)

Voted that we recommend the Cooperative Program as the best method of giving financial support to the Baptist work at home and abroad. We discourage any of the departments of our Arkansas Baptist work in accepting invitations to participate in the work of missions outside of our regular work within our state territory, at the expense of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention Departments involved. Further, we request our Executive Secretary of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and the President of the Executive Board confer with the heads of all Southern Baptist agencies expressing our concern about the practices of asking State Convention departments to give employees to such efforts outside our state, unless expenses and salaries are provided for by the agencies that use such workers.
10. Seating of Messengers (1949 annual, page 92)

Resolution adopted that this convention refuse to seat any messengers from any church that accepts alien immersion; practices open communion; or affiliates with any branch of the Federal Council of Churches, World Council of Churches; or any other organization similar to or growing out of such.

THE BAPTIST FAITH AND MESSAGE

I. THE SCRIPTURES

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is the record of God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. It reveals the principles by which God judges us; and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. The criterion by which the Bible is to be interpreted is Jesus Christ.

Ex. 24:4; Deut. 4:1-2; 17:19; Josh. 8:34; Psalm 19:7-10; 119:11, 89, 105, 140; Isa. 34:16; 40:8; Jer. 15:16; 36; Matt. 5:17-18; 22:29; Luke 21:33; 24:44-46; John 5:39; 16:13-15; 17:17; Acts 2:16 ff.; 17:11; Rom. 15:4; 16:25-26; 2 Tim. 3:15-17; Heb. 1:1-2; 4:12; 1 Peter 1:25; 2 Peter 1:19-21

II. GOD

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

B. God the Son

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ He was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself the demands and necessities of human nature and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His death on the cross He provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, partaking of the nature of God and of man, and in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the assurance of God to bring the believer into the fulness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. MAN

Man was created by the special act of God, in His own image, and is the crowning work of His creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by His Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original innocence; whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin, and as soon as they are capable of moral action become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore every man possesses dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

Gen. 1:26-30; 2:5, 7, 18-22; 3; 9:6; Psalm 1; 8:3-6; 32:1-5; 51:5; Isa. 6:5; Jer. 17:5; Matt. 16:26; Acts 17:26-31; Rom. 1:19-32; 3:10-18, 23; 5:6, 12, 19; 6:6; 7:14-25; 8:14-18, 29; 1 Cor. 1:21-31; 15:19; 2:1-22; Eph. 2:1-22; Col. 1:21-22; 3:9-11

IV. SALVATION

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, sanctification, and glorification.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace. Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer into a relationship of peace and favor with God.

B. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual perfection through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

C. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

V. GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is a glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the cause of Christ, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Gen. 12:1-3; Ex. 19:5-8; 1 Sam. 8:4-7, 19-22; Isa. 5:1-7; Jer. 31:31 ff.; Matt. 16:18-19; 21:28-45; 24:22, 31; 25:34; Luke 1:68-79; 2:29-32; 19:41-44; 24:44-48; John 1:12-14; 3:16; 5:24; 6:44-45, 65, 10:27-29; 15:16; 17:6, 12, 17-18; Acts 20:32; Rom. 5:9-10; 8:28-39; 10:12-15; 11:5-7, 26-36; 1 Cor. 1:1-2; 15:24-28; Eph. 1:4-23; 2:1-10; 3:1-11; Col. 1:12-14; 2 Thess. 2:13-14; 2 Tim. 1:12; 2:10, 19; Heb. 11:39-12:2; 1 Peter 1:2-5, 13; 2:4-10; 1 John 1:7-9; 2:19; 3:2

VI. THE CHURCH

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is a local body of baptized believers who are associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel, observing the two ordinances of Christ, committed to His teachings, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth.

This church is an autonomous body, operating through democratic processes under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In such a congregation members are equally responsible. Its Scriptural officers are pastors and deacons.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages.

Matt. 16:15-19; 18:15-20; Acts 2:41-42, 47; 5:11-14; 6:3-6; 13:1-3; 14:23, 27; 15:1-30; 16:5; 20:28; Rom. 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:2; 3:16; 5:4-5; 7:17; 9:13-14; 12; Eph. 1:22-23; 2:19-22; 3:8-11, 21; 5:22-32; Phil. 1:1; Col. 1:18; 1 Tim. 3:1-15; 4:14; 1 Peter 5:1-4; Rev. 2-3; 21:2-3

VII. BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

Matt. 3:13-17; 26:26-30; 28:19-20; Mark 1:9-11; 14:22-26; Luke 3:21-22; 22:19-20; John 3:23; Acts 2:41-42; 8:35-39; 16:30-33; Acts 20:7; Rom. 6:3-5; 1 Cor. 10:16, 21; 11:23-29; Col. 2:12

VIII. THE LORD'S DAY

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should be employed in exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, and by refraining from worldly amusements, and resting from secular employments, work of necessity and mercy only being excepted.

Ex. 20:8-11; Matt. 12:1-12; 28:1 ff.; Mark 2:27-28; 16:1-7; Luke 24:1-3, 33-36; John 4:21-24; 20:1, 19-28; Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:1-2; Col. 2:16; 3:16; Rev. 1:10

IX. THE KINGDOM

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

Gen. 1:1; Isa. 9:6-7; Jer. 23:5-6; Matt. 3:2; 4:8-10, 23; 12:25-28; 13:1-52; 25:31-46; 26:29; Mark 1:14-15; 9:1; Luke 4:43; 8:1; 9:2; 12:31-32; 17:20-21; 23:42; John 3:3; 18:36; Acts 1:6-7; 17:22-31; Rom. 5:17; 8:19; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Col. 1:13; Heb. 11:10, 16; 12:28; 1 Peter 2:4-10; 4:13; Rev. 1:6, 9; 5:10; 11:15; 21:22

X. LAST THINGS

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

Isa. 2:4; 11:9; Matt. 16:27; 18:8-9; 19:28; 24:27, 30, 36, 44; 25:31-46; 26:64; Mark 8:38; 9:43-48; Luke 12:40, 48; 16:19-26; 17:22-37; 21:27-28; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:11; 17:31; Rom. 14:10; 1 Cor. 4:5; 15:24-28, 35-58; 2 Cor. 5:10; Phil. 3:20-21; Col. 1:5; 3:4; 1 Thess. 4:14-18; 5:1 ff.; 2 Thess. 1:7 ff.; 2; 1 Tim. 6:14; 2 Tim. 4:1, 8; Titus 2:13; Heb. 9:27-28; James 5:8; 2 Peter 3:7 ff.; 1 John 2:28; 3:2; Jude 14; Rev. 1:18; 3:11; 20:1 to 22:13

XI. EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by personal effort and by all other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

Gen. 12:1-3; Ex. 19:5-6; Isa. 6:1-8; Matt. 9:37-38; 10:5-15; 13:18-30, 37-43; 16:19; 22:9-10; 24:14; 28:18-20; Luke 10:1-18; 24:46-53; John 14:11-12; 15:7-8, 16; 17:15; 20:21; Acts 1:8; 2:8-26; 10:

42-48; 13:2-3; Rom. 10:13-15; Eph. 3:1-11; 1 Thess. 1:8; 2 Tim. 4:5; Heb. 2:1-3; 11:39 to 12:2; 1 Peter 2:4-10; Rev. 22:17

XII. EDUCATION

The cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is co-ordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

Deut. 4:1, 5, 9, 14; 6:1-10; 31:12-13; Neh. 8:1-8; Job 28:28; Psalm 19:7 ff.; 119:11; Prov. 3:13 ff.; 4:1-10; 8:1-7, 11; 15:14; Eccl. 7:19; Matt. 5:2; 7:24 ff.; 28:19-20; Luke 2:40; 1 Cor. 1:18-31; Eph. 4:11-16; Phil. 4:8; Col. 2:3, 8-9; 1 Tim. 1:3-7; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:14-17; Heb. 5:12 to 6:3; James 1:5; 3:17

XIII. STEWARDSHIP

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

Gen. 14:20; Lev. 27:30-32; Deut. 8:18; Mal. 3:8-12; Matt. 6:1-4, 19-21; 19:21; 23:23; 25:14-29; Luke 12:16-21, 42; 16:1-13; Acts 2:44-47; 5:1-11; 17:24-25; 20:35; Rom. 6:6-22; 12:1-2; 1 Cor. 4:1-2; 6:19-20; 12; 16:1-4; 2 Cor. 8-9; 12:15; Phil. 4:10-19; 1 Peter 1:18-19

XIV. COOPERATION

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

Ex. 17:12; 18:17 ff.; Judg. 7:21; Ezra 1:3-4; 2:68-69; 5:14-15; Neh. 4; 8:1-5; Matt. 10:5-15; 20:1-16; 22:1-10; 28:19-20; Mark 2:3; Luke 10:1 ff.; Acts 1:13-14; 2:1 ff.; 4:31-37; 13:2-3; 15:1-35; 1 Cor. 1:10-17; 3:5-15; 12; 2 Cor. 8-9; Gal. 1:6-10; Eph. 4:1-16; Phil. 1:15-18

XV. THE CHRISTIAN AND THE SOCIAL ORDER

Every Christian is under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in his own life and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Christ Jesus. The Christian should oppose in the spirit of Christ every form of greed, selfishness, and vice. He should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

Ex. 20:3-17; Lev. 6:2-5; Deut. 10:12; 27:17; Psalm 101:5; Mic. 6:8; Zech. 8:16; Matt. 5:13-16, 43-48; 22:36-40; 25:35; Mark 1:29-34; 2:3 ff.; 10:21; Luke 4:18-21; 10:27-37; 20:25; John 15:12; 17:15; Rom. 12-14; 1 Cor. 5:9-10; 6:1-7; 7:20-24; 10:23 to 11:1; Gal. 3:26-28; Eph. 6:5-9; Col. 3:12-17; 1 Thess. 3:12; Philemon; James 1:27; 2:8

XVI. PEACE AND WAR

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love.

Isa. 2:4; Matt. 5:9, 38-48; 6:33; 26:52; Luke 22:36, 38; Rom. 12:18-19; 13:1-7; 14:19; Heb. 12:14; James 4:1-2

XVII. RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

Gen. 1:27; 2:7; Matt. 6:6-7, 24; 16:26; 22:21; John 8:36; Acts 4:19-20; Rom. 6:1-2, 13:1-7; Gal. 5:1, 13; Phil. 3:20; 1 Tim. 2:1-2; James 4:12; 1 Peter 2:12-17; 3:11-17; 4:12-19

PROCEEDINGS

FIRST DAY – EVENING SESSION

Tuesday, November 6, 1971

Committees Appointed)*

1. The One Hundred Eighteenth Annual Session (123rd Year) of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, meeting in the Second Baptist Church, Little Rock, was opened at 6:45 p.m. with a musical prelude by the Handbell Choir of the Second Church, Archie McMillan, director.

The meeting was called to order by Tal D. Bonham, Pine Bluff, president. The convention theme was "Going On With Christ." Music for the convention was coordinated by Ural Clayton, Music Secretary, Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Betty Marshall, Little Rock, served as convention organist and Patricia Higgs, Walnut Ridge, as pianist. Beverly Terrell, Dallas, Texas was the guest soloist.

2. The Music Men of Arkansas, directed by Ural Clayton, sang the hymn, "All Hail the Power," followed by Beverly Terrell singing, "Sweet Holy Spirit." The President's Address was "Grieve Not, Quench Not, but be Filled," with scripture references from Ephesians 4:30, I Thess. 5:19; and Ephesians 5:18. The sermon was closed with the messengers in silent prayer and the Music Men singing, "Breathe On Me."

3. Voted: Convention Enrollment and Organization.

Don Moore, Fort Smith, moved that all messengers who have been duly elected from regular Baptist churches which are in sympathy with the principles and purposes of this convention and which desire to cooperate with other churches through this convention be seated to constitute the 118th annual session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Second by J. Harold Smith, Fort Smith, and carried unanimously.

Voted: That the printed ballots shall be the official ballots.

Eddie McCord, DeWitt, moved the printed ballots given to each registered messenger be approved as the official ballot for voting and that no other ballot be recognized. Second and carried.

A brief word on the Wednesday night session was given by W. O. Vaught, Jr., Little Rock. Dr. Bonham introduced his family and the church staff from South Side, Pine Bluff, and paid tribute to the church staff and membership for their love and understanding during his two years as president. The convention officers and their wives were introduced.

7. Report of Committee of Twenty-Five.

Wilson Deese, Chairman, made a brief statement concerning the work of the committee for two years and read the recommendation of the committee, which would be voted on in the Wednesday morning session.

"1. We recommend that the term "regular Baptist" as used in Article III, Section 1, of the Constitution of this convention be defined and interpreted by this 1971 session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention as those Baptist churches which in doctrine and in practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of 'The Baptist Faith and Message' which was adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, and adopted by the 1970 session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention as its doctrinal guideline.

"2. We recommend that the Constitution of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention be revised by adding to Article 2 the following sentence: 'The Baptist Faith and Message' as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention on May 9, 1963, shall be the doctrinal guideline for this convention.'"

“3. We recommend finally that the constitution of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention be revised by adding to Article III, Section I, this sentence: ‘Regular Baptist churches are those Baptist churches which in doctrine and in practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of ‘The Baptist Faith and Message’ as adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention.’”

8. Burton A. Miley, chairman, Constitution and Bylaws committee read the constitutional requirement for changes in the constitution. Eddie McCord read the following proposed amendment:

“The Constitution and Bylaws Committee recommends that the name Arkansas Baptist Home for Children in Article VII, Section 1, be amended to read “Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services.”

Don Hook read the following proposed amendments to the constitution:

“In the event that the report of the Committee of Twenty-five is adopted that paragraphs 3 and 4 be considered as proposed amendments to the constitution and that the Order of Business Committee be instructed to set a time upon which the proposed changes can be voted.”

Burton Miley moved that the Order of Business Committee find a place for action on these proposed amendments. Second and carried.

9. Carbon Sims, Pine Bluff, read a resolution on alcoholic beverages. Al Cullum, Fayetteville, read a resolution on pornography, alcohol, and immorality. Both resolutions were referred to the Resolutions Committee.

Dean Newberry announced that the proposed constitutional amendments would be acted on following the business period reserved for action on the Committee of Twenty-five report, at 9:15 a.m. Wednesday.

10. President Bonham introduced Grady Wilson, Charlotte, North Carolina. Following the hymn, “Love is the Theme,” and special music by Beverly Terrell and the Music Men of Arkansas, “Every Day is a Better Day” (Terrell-Bartlett), the closing message of the session was by Grady Wilson on the need for a spiritual revival in America. The text was II Chronicles 7:14.

The session was adjourned in prayer by J. Harold Smith, Fort Smith.

SECOND DAY – MORNING SESSION

Wednesday, November 17, 1971

(Committee of 25 Report – Constitutional Amendments – Executive Board Report).

11. The session was opened at 8:30 a.m. in Second Baptist Church, Little Rock, with a trumpet duo by James Feltenburger, El Dorado, and Clyde Snider, Searcy. Bill Canary, Harrison, led the messengers in singing, “I Love to Tell the Story” and “How Firm a Foundation.” Mr. Canary sang a solo, “I Shall Know Him.”

12. Linda Selph, Benton, senior student at Ouachita Baptist University, gave her personal testimony and prayer was by Tal Bonham.

The first in a series of four studies on the book of Job was given by D. David Garland, professor of Old Testament, Southwestern Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas.

13. Committee of Twenty-Five Report

Wilson Deese, chairman, moved the report be adopted as read in the previous session. There was a second. Brother Deese spoke briefly to the report. During lengthy debate on the report Amos Greer, Mountain View, spoke against the adoption of the report and Wayne B. Davis, pastor, Oak Grove, Van Buren, moved to amend the last paragraph of the report to read as follows:

“Regular Baptist churches are those Baptist churches which in doctrine and practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of ‘The Baptist Faith and Message’ as adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, and ‘The Baptist Faith and Message’ shall not be interpreted as to permit open communion and/or alien immersion.”

The motion to amend was seconded. In response to questions by L.H. Coleman, Pine Bluff, Chairman Deese reported that one member of the committee had moved out of the state and one member resigned after the report was formulated. Parliamentarian Bob Riley ruled that the will of the body was not to be frustrated and the appendices to the constitution are considered documentation but do not have the force of the constitution and bylaws.

Voted: that the time be extended twenty minutes to hear discussion on the amendment.

H. H. Harvill, layman from Humphrey, urged the defeat of the amendment citing it as out of order according to the constitution, Article IV, Authority. David Miller, Heber Springs, spoke for the amendment.

Hoyle Haire, Booneville, moved the previous question. Second and carried.

Voted: to vote on the amendment.

Voted: to amend the committee report.

Chairman Deese honored a request to read from “The Baptist Faith and Message” and read the two sections, Article VI, The Church; and Article VII, Baptism and the Lord’s Supper. A motion by Kenneth Threet, Piggott, that the report of the Committee of Twenty-five be tabled was defeated.

Voted: call for previous question.

Voted: to adopt the report of the Committee of Twenty-five as amended.

“1. We recommend that the term “regular Baptist” as used in Article III, Section 1, of the Constitution of this convention be defined and interpreted by this 1971 session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention as those Baptist churches which in doctrine and in practice adhere to the principles and spirit of 'The Baptist Faith and Message' which was adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, and adopted by the 1970 session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention as its doctrinal guideline.

"2. We recommend further that the Constitution of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention be revised by adding to Article II the following sentence: 'The Baptist Faith and Message' as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention on May 9, 1963, shall be the doctrinal guideline for this convention.

"3. We recommend finally that the Constitution of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention be revised by adding to Article III, Section 1, this sentence: Regular Baptist churches are those Baptist churches which in doctrine and in practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of 'The Baptist Faith and Message' as adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, and 'The Baptist Faith and Message' shall not be interpreted as to permit open communion and/or alien immersion."

14. Constitutional amendments.

Voted: that five minutes be given to act on the proposed constitutional amendments.

Burton Miley read the proposed amendments.

Voted: to amend the constitution, Article VII, Section 1; Article II; and Article III, Section 1.

Article VII, Section 1, be amended to change the name "Arkansas Baptist Home for Children" to "Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services."

Article II, be amended to add:

"The Baptist Faith and Message' as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention on May 9, 1963, shall be the doctrinal guideline for this convention."

Article III, Section 1, be amended by adding the following:

"Regular Baptist churches are those Baptist churches which in doctrine and practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of 'The Baptist Faith and Message' as adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, and 'The Baptist Faith and Message' shall not be interpreted as to permit open communion and/or alien immersion."

Following a request to speak by Brock Watson, Lake Village, a motion to return to the order of the day lost. Brock Watson made a statement concerning his practices and beliefs on the church ordinances.

15. Election of Officers

President Bonham called for nominations for president. Those nominated were: Rheubin L. South, North Little Rock; L. H. Coleman, Pine Bluff; Kenneth Threet, Piggott; and Dale Cowling, Little Rock. Voting by ballot was completed and the tellers retired to count the ballots as the order of the day continued.

16. Executive Board report

W. O. Vaught, Jr., president, brought the report of the Executive Board assisted by Jack Bledsoe, Monticello, chairman, Finance Committee. Dr. Vaught reported that 1971 receipts reflect a good increase over 1970, and a small increase in projected for 1972 over the 1971 budget.

Voted: that the Book of Reports be adopted.

Voted: that the budget for 1972 be adopted (see page 61).

Voted: that the following goal be adopted for the Ouachita-Southern Advancement Campaign, $3,000,000 — Ouachita Baptist University; $1,000,000 — Southern Baptist College.

17. Dale Cowling, host pastor, welcomed the messengers. Charles H. Ashcraft, executive secretary, welcomed the following newcomers to the work and fellowship of Arkansas Baptists:

 Jerry R. Wood, minister of music and youth, Trinity, Benton

Dean Newberry announced that time for the Baptist Book Store and Memorial Moments would be set for the period following the election of officers at 2:15 p.m.

18. Following the singing of "God of Grace and God of Glory" by the messengers, Dan Blake, Arkadelphia, read the scripture, Matthew 20: 20-28. The solo by Beverly Terrell was "Give Me a Vision." The Convention Sermon was "Dare to be Great," by R. Wilbur Herring, Jonesboro.

The president announced that a run-off vote would be necessary between R. L. South and Dale Cowling for the office of convention president and would be taken in the afternoon session.

The session was adjourned in prayer by Jim Berryman, Arkadelphia.

SECOND DAY – AFTERNOON SESSION

Wednesday, November 17, 1971

19. The session was opened by A.C. Uth, Searcy, First Vice President. The Ouachita Singing Men sang several numbers under the direction of Ray Holcomb, Arkadelphia. Charles Mayo, Benton, led the messengers in singing, "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me."

The testimony and prayer were by Jeral Hampton, layman, Booneville.

20. Following a testimony in song by Beverly Terrell, David Garland brought the second study in Job.

21. Ballots were cast in the run-off for president between R. L. South and Dale Cowling.

22. As announced by the Committee on Order of Business, the president called for the Memorial Moments, led by Minor Cole, Pine Bluff. Charles Mayo sang, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" and Minor Cole led in prayer.

MEMORIAL MOMENTS

Time will not permit calling the roll of our departed dead here. It would include some from almost every church in the convention. We will miss them but we rejoice for them that they have moved to a better world.

Rev. 14:13 says "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: They rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." This scripture is a voice from Heaven describing the blessed dead. Not those who die in fame or wealth but the Lord. This means they repented, believed, accepted and confessed Jesus as Saviour and Lord. Death is inevitable, universal and reasonable and some of us will be joining them soon. Only the departure time is uncertain.

The word "blessed" means happy, satisfied, at peace and a more abundant life. A seed must die to live a larger life and so must we. They are "happy" because they are beyond the limitations and conflicts of the flesh and the disappointments of this life. They are also beyond the reach of the Devil who gives us most of our problems here. They are "with the Lord" in a city with no night, tears, sorrows, pain or farewells.

We extend our understanding love and sympathy to the families of our beloved dead. It is our prayer that our dear Lord will fill the vacancy they feel in their lives with Himself and meet all their needs until that time when they are reunited in that "prepared place for those who die in the Lord."

In this moment of blessed memory may we stand and let the God of all peace speak to our hearts out of His word from I Thess. 4:13-18 and remain standing as we sing and talk to the Lord in prayer.

23. Morris Ashcraft, professor of theology, Midwestern Seminary, Kansas City, Missouri, brought the address on theological education. He was introduced by his brother, Charles H. Ashcraft, executive secretary.

24. President Bonham reported that R. L. South, North Little Rock, was elected president of the convention. Nominations for First Vice President were called for. Those nominated were Eddie McCord, DeWitt, and Paul Sanders, Little Rock. A ballot vote was taken.

25. Johnny G. Biggs, executive director, Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services, brought his report.

Voted: to adopt the report as printed in the Book of Reports.

26. Paul Ramsey, Beebe, educational assistant, Christian Civic Foundation of Arkansas, Inc., brought their report.

Voted: to accept the report as printed in the Book of Reports.

27. Wil Pruett, Benton, brought the report of the Arkansas Baptist Foundation, in the absence of Chairman Arlen Waldrup, El Dorado, who could not be present.

Voted: to adopt the report and the recommendation that undesignated gifts be given to Ouachita-Southern Advancement Campaign.

28. After the hymn, "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart," President Bonham introduced the closing speaker for the session, Justice Carleton Harris, Pine Bluff, Chief Justice, Supreme Court of Arkansas. Special music was by the Baptist Young Men's quartet from First, Benton, "I Need Thee Every Hour" and "I Met God in the Morning." Justice Harris' message was entitled "Committed Laymen."

29. President Bonham announced that Paul Sanders, Little Rock, was elected First Vice President. Nominations were received for Second Vice President. Those nominated were Mrs. Roy Snider, Camden; Carleton Harris, Pine Bluff, who requested his name to be withdrawn; Bill Bruster, Siloam Springs; and Dr. James Sawyer, Benton. A ballot vote was taken.

30. Miscellaneous Business

Kenneth Threet, Piggott, moved our convention continue to make every effort to encourage the churches previously excluded from our convention to comply with our convention's stated policies for fellowship and upon evidence of their so doing their messengers be admitted as messengers of "regular" Baptist churches upon the recommendation of the convention Credentials Committee. Second and carried.

A motion by J. Russell Duffer, Corning, was seconded and carried.

Voted: Inasmuch as this state convention has adopted "The Baptist Faith and Message" which was adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention as the doctrinal guideline, that "The Baptist Faith and Message" be printed in the 1971 minutes of this convention and the 1972 Book of Reports.

President Bonham reported that a runoff would be necessary for Second Vice President between Mrs. Roy Snider and Dr. James Sawyer. A ballot vote was taken. Dr. Sawyer was elected Second Vice President.

Lloyd Sparkman, Biloxi, Mississippi, former Arkansas pastor and president of the convention in 1952 and 1953, was present. Brother Sparkman brought brief greetings and led in the benediction for the session.

SECOND DAY – EVENING SESSION

Wednesday, November 17, 1971

31. The session was held in Robinson Memorial Auditorium and called to order by President Tal Bonham, at 6:30 p.m. The session was planned by W. O. Vaught, Jr., Little Rock, campaign chairman, as a great thrust for the Ouachita-Southern Advancement Campaign.

Special music was furnished in the opening of the session by the Ouachita Symphonic Band, conducted by Francis McBeth in the absence of Marvin Lawson, who was ill; Southern Baptist College Choir, Carl Sewald, conductor, Ouachita Singers, Charles Wright, Conductor.

32. "The Circus of Life," a dramatic presentation depicting the problems of a young girl choosing a college was given by the young people of Immanuel, Little Rock. Narrated slides on Ouachita Baptist University and Southern Baptist College campuses and their projected needs completed the presentation.

33. The climax of the session was Anita Bryant, singer-author, Miami Beach, Florida, giving a concert in testimony and song.

Following introductions of the members of the campaign steering committee, the meeting was adjourned in prayer by W. O. Vaught, Jr.

THIRD DAY – MORNING SESSION

Thursday, November 18, 1971

(Report of Nominating Committee – Report of Resolutions Committee)

34. With D. C. McAtee, Second Vice President, presiding the session was opened at 8:30 a.m. in Second Baptist Church. Jim Raymick, North Little Rock, led the messengers in singing, "I Love Thee" and sang a special arrangement of "Trust in the Lord."

James Tallant, Magazine, gave his testimony of the Holy Spirit in witnessing and led in prayer. David Garland brought the study for the session from the Book of Job.

35. James V. Lackey, Stewardship Commission, Nashville, Tennessee, brought a message on stewardship and acted as Southern Baptist Convention representative. Others present who were recognized were: Theodore R. Vandermeer, American Bible Society; Jase Jones, Interfaith Witness, Home Mission Board; James Kelly, Division of Chaplaincy, Home Mission Board. Other visitors present included Ray Rust, New Orleans Baptist Seminary; Taylor Daniel, Annuity Board; Worth Campbell, Broadman Films; and Charles Baker, Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis. Employees of Baptist Building were also recognized.

36. Conway Sawyers, El Dorado, told how Liberty Baptist Association helped to finance a curriculum guide for public schools on drug education which is now available through the Arkansas Department of Education. Ray Rushing, editor, The National Voice, Dallas, Texas, spoke briefly urging the messengers to encourage the teachers in each district to include the course which is required by Arkansas law.

Robert Bauman, manager, Baptist Book Store, Little Rock, called attention to items available through the book store for the pleasure and profit of the messengers.

37. George T. Blackmon, Arkadelphia, executive secretary, Arkansas Baptist History Commission, spoke briefly.

Voted: to adopt the report as printed in the Book of Reports.

38. Mason Bondurant, Jacksonville, announced that a showing of the Billy Graham film, "For Pete's Sake" would be in sixteen cities at local theaters over the state, January 12-18, 1972. The showing is an attempt to reach people for the Lord in "Operation Andrew."

39. President Bonham expressed appreciation to A.C. Uth, First Vice President, and D. C. McAtee, Second Vice President, who have served so ably during the year.

40. Report of Nominating Committee.

Padgett C. Cope, chairman, read the report of the Nominating Committee.

Voted: to adopt the report of the Nominating Committee (see pages 8-14).

41. Report of Resolutions Committee.

Paul Sanders, chairman, read the report of the Resolutions Committee.

Voted: to adopt Resolution #1, Appreciation to Governor Bumpers and Host City.

WHEREAS, we have received the finest cooperation from Metropolitan Little Rock in having our 118th Annual Convention; and

WHEREAS, we appreciate the Governor of our state, the Honorable Dale Bumpers, giving his time to welcome our Convention to the City of Little Rock,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we express our appreciation to Governor Bumpers and the City of Little Rock for their fine cooperation and hospitality.

Voted: to adopt Resolution #2, Appreciation to Host Church.

WHEREAS, we have received the most cordial reception by the Second Baptist Church of Little Rock, Arkansas, and by its Pastor, Dr. Dale Cowling,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we express our gratitude to the people of Second Baptist Church for all of their helpful provisions and to Brother Cowling and the Staff of Second Baptist Church for their gracious spirit and their cooperation.

Voted: to adopt Resolution #3, Appreciation to Convention President and State Executive Secretary.

WHEREAS, we recognize the superb contributions that have been made by the President of our Convention, Dr. Tal Bonham, who is the youngest president ever elected by this Convention, and by our State Executive Secretary, Dr. Charles Ashcraft, and

WHEREAS, we messengers to this Convention are grateful for the spirit of unity and evangelistic outreach that these men have encouraged,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we express to Brother Tal Bonham and to Brother Charles Ashcraft our grateful appreciation for the loving, Christ-like spirit in which they have led.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our appreciation for their encouragement of the work of our laity and the lay-involvement in this Convention and the work of Southern Baptists.

Voted: to adopt Resolution #4, Appreciation to our Parliamentarian.

WHEREAS, we have been honored by having Dr. Bob Riley, the Lieutenant Governor of the State of Arkansas, to serve this Convention as our Parliamentarian,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we express to him our appreciation for the outstanding service he has rendered to this Convention.

Voted: to adopt Resolution #5, On the Ouachita Baptist University and Southern Baptist College Campaign.

WHEREAS, the Lord has allowed Arkansas Baptists to establish two outstanding institutions of higher education, Ouachita Baptist University, and Southern Baptist College, and

WHEREAS, Arkansas Baptists recognize the value and importance to our young people, churches and to the Lord's work of a Christian oriented education,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we support to the fullest the Ouachita Baptist University — Southern Baptist College campaign individually and through our churches,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our gratitude, appreciation and encouragement to Mr. "Bo" Huffman for the time, energy and dedication he has given to this worthy campaign.

Voted: to adopt Resolution #6, on Labeling Alcoholic Beverages

WHEREAS, the harmful effects of alcoholic beverages upon the human body are well known and

WHEREAS, an increasing number of the fatal accidents on our nation's highways are caused by drivers under the influence of alcoholic beverages,

BE IT RESOLVED by the messengers of the 1971 annual session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention that we urge our elected representatives in Congress to initiate and support legislation to require the labeling of alcoholic beverages as potentially hazardous to the health and safety of the user and that copies of this resolution be sent to Arkansas members of Congress.

Paul Sanders read Resolution #7, Concerning Contemporary Morals, and moved its adoption. Al Cullum, Fayetteville, spoke concerning his original resolution. Terrell Gordon, Fayetteville, moved to amend the resolution to add:

That a copy of this resolution be sent to: the President of the United States, Chief Justice of Supreme Court of United States and Arkansas, United States Senators from Arkansas, United States Representatives from Arkansas, Governor Dale Bumpers, President of National Education Association, President of Arkansas Education Association, and shall be printed in Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine. Voted: to amend the Resolution.

Voted: to Adopt Resolution #7, Concerning Contemporary Morals, as amended.

WHEREAS, there is a growing concern because of permissiveness, license and even encouragement in the areas of pornography and illicit sex and other areas of moral laxity in our cities, towns, and on the campuses of our institutions of higher education,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Arkansas Baptist State Convention go on record as opposing legislation or the interpretation of existing legislation that would encourage immorality among our young people or adults,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we oppose the use of any "four letter" words or other offensive language on a TV series or cartoons that are slanted at children or youth,

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution shall be sent to the President Richard M. Nixon, Chief Justice of Supreme Court of the United States and of Arkansas, United States Senators from Arkansas, United States Representatives from Arkansas, Governor Dale Bumpers, President of the National Education Association, the president of the Arkansas Education Association, and shall be printed in the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine.

42. Jim Raymick led in the singing of "Oh How I Love Jesus." Following a solo by Beverly Terrell, "Reach Out and Touch Others," the closing message of the session was by Tom Skinner, evangelist, Brooklyn, New York.

The session was adjourned in prayer by Lex Eaker, Sheridan.

THIRD DAY – AFTERNOON SESSION

Thursday, November 18, 1971

43. The session was called to order at 1:30 p.m. in Second Baptist Church, President Tal Bonham presiding. Jack Price, Music Coordinator for Harrington Crusades, New Orleans, La., led the messengers in singing, "At Calvary." Beverly Terrell sang "Grace So Amazing" (Bartlett).

44. The testimony for the session was by William H. Ward, Luxora, who led in prayer. David Garland brought the concluding study on Job.

45. Tal Bonham introduced the newly elected officers who made brief remarks.

46. Charles H. Ashcraft, executive secretary, brought a message on "The Second Chance," using the text from Jonah 3: 1-10.

Harold Clower, London, moved that Dr. Ashcraft's message be printed in the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine. Second and carried.

47. Darrell Cluck, Fort Smith, Co-Chairman, Ouachita Baptist University Human Relations Committee of the Student Senate was granted the privilege, by common consent, of the convention, to read the following statement of concern. No action was taken.

We, the undersigned students of Ouachita Baptist University, wish to express our discontent with the recent action of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention with regard to their recall of recent literature, the cover of which depicted a racially mixed group, and which the Sunday School Board deemed "potentially inflammatory," as students of a Christian institution, and as a group of concerned Christians, we feel that this action is inconsistent with the example of our Lord.

48. W. O. Vaught, Jr., called for and received a standing vote of thanks for President Tal Bonham and for his tireless devotion during the past two years.

49. Jack Price led the messengers in singing, "All Hail the Power," and sang a solo, "Some Golden Daybreak." The closing message of the convention was by Bob Harrington, the chaplain of Bourbon Street, New Orleans, La.

50. Tal Bonham presented the gavel to Dr. James Sawyer, Benton, Second Vice President. The other new officers could not be present because of a funeral.

Lt. Governor Bob Riley presented an Arkansas Traveler Certificate to Bob Harrington.

51. The One Hundred Eighteenth Annual Session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention was adjourned in prayer by Dr. James Sawyer.

Cooperative Program Receipts

The total Cooperative Program receipts for the first nine months of this year have totaled $2,068,251.45. This corresponds with a total of $1,875,538.46 for the same period last year, or an increase of $192,712.99. This 10.28% increase over last year, if the trend continues, will be especially helpful to the institutions and others who receive funds from the Capital Needs section of our budget.

The response to our emphasis on the Cooperative Program in 1971 has been gratifying. A plan for long-range objectives for Stewardship-Cooperative Program Development, prepared by Roy F. Lewis and recommended to the board by the Program Committee was adopted as follows:

"I. Prerequisites for Growth

1. We will seek detailed stewardship information on each church and association, so as to know better how to serve and assist each.
2. We will attempt to enlist in every church a stewardship chairman, or at least some church officer other than the pastor, who can keep the church informed on all stewardship activities and resources available.
3. We will attempt to enlist an active stewardship chairman in every association and then provide him with adequate training to function effectively.

"II. Stewardship Development

1. We will provide a systematic educational process aimed at raising the motivation of every tither away from a legalistic concept of stewardship toward the higher New Testament claims of a total commitment to Christ.
2. We will provide opportunities for faithful tithers to discover the greater joy of sacrificial giving over and above the tithe.
3. We will provide opportunities for non-tithers to grow in grace and Christian stewardship, without embarrassment, as they learn of the claims of Christ on material possessions.
4. We will encourage faithful Christian stewards, and churches successful in stewardship, to share their testimonies and their methods with others.
5. We will offer assistance to each church and association in the development of an adequate, balanced budget.
6. We will encourage each church to observe some type of annual stewardship emphasis, and will make available to the church the best possible resource material, literature, and aids.

"III. Cooperative Program Promotion

1. We will encourage church finance and budget committees to state proposed missions contributions in - terms of a percentage of the total budget.

2. We will encourage each church to adopt, or follow, a regular, systematic and orderly plan of annual increases in mission giving on a percentage basis.
 3. We will encourage each church to submit contributions on a weekly basis.
 4. We will strive to interpret and personalize the ministries supported through the Cooperative Program and to keep every Baptist fully informed on the need for and use of his mission money.
 5. We will attempt to express denominational appreciation for, and give worthy recognition to, those individuals, churches, and associations who have demonstrated outstanding leadership in the support of Southern Baptist mission causes.
 6. We will encourage and assist churches in utilizing visual aids and displays for presenting and explaining the Cooperative Program.
 7. We will suggest that churches with surplus funds at the end of the year, or with receipts in excess of budgeted expenditures, consider additional, lump-sum contributions to missions through the Cooperative Program."

Staff Reorganization

The executive board approved a staff reorganization plan and authorized the forming of a separate department for Stewardship-Cooperative Program. Roy F. Lewis, Lilburn, Georgia, pastor was called to head this department and assumed his duties on April 1, 1971. Mr. Lewis also serves as assistant to the executive secretary. T. K. Rucker remains as Annuity secretary, jointly employed with the Annuity Board, Dallas.

The duties and responsibilities of the business manager were assigned as follows: Lawson Hatfield to serve as assembly director, in addition to his duties as Sunday School director; C. H. Seaton as camp manager in addition to his duties with the Brotherhood Department; J. O. Smith was named building manager; and Lera Stokes as printing room manager.

Jesse Reed has been named director for the Evangelism Department, effective January 1, 1972. Joe Donald Rubert, Houston, Texas has been employed as the new chaplain for the Rehabilitation Center in Hot Springs.

We regret to announce the resignation of J. T. Elliff as director of the Missions Department. He assumed his duties with the Capital Baptist Association, Oklahoma City, November 1.

District Study

The 1970 convention directive for the executive board study of the district boundaries was carried out by the Operating Committee of the executive board. That report as received from the committee is as follows:

"We recognize that there are problems related to the boundaries and size of districts within the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Some may be too small and some too large, both in area and population.

“We live in a state that has been changing from rural to urban. The population has also changed in many areas. Super highways, good communications and fast automobiles are the order of the day. These factors, and others, may create need for a realignment of our district boundaries in the future.

“We feel that district boundaries should be aligned in such a way as to be of the best service to the most people. However, we recognize the right of each church to choose those churches with which she wishes to be affiliated. Furthermore, we believe that the initiative to change boundaries should come from within (from the churches or associations in that area).

“We also recognize that there is a danger of hanging on to a geographical entity where its usefulness is past or the area cumbersome. There is a danger posed by individuals and/or churches, or groups of individuals and/or churches, who may attempt to use such geographical areas to gain certain personal aims.

“A greater danger is that the basis of representation of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention may be undermined. Representation in the Arkansas Baptist State Convention has never been on a geographical basis above the association (1848-1902) (1879-1902). Since 1902, representation in the convention has been by local churches only. To utilize geographical areas as the basis of representation could, in effect, lead to several small conventions on a district basis.

“THEREFORE, we recommend that no action be taken at the present time to realign the districts, because:

“1. To this time no idea or suggestion has been presented that would advance the promotional, administrative, or organizational aspects of the programs and objectives of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

“2. That too great an emphasis on districts as a basis of representation on boards and committees could adversely affect the programs and objectives of the Convention. Through the years there have been four basic areas of Baptist work, the church, the association, the state, and the Southern Baptist Convention. Churches elect messengers to all of the above, but none to districts.

“3. Ample provision has been made in the Constitution and By-laws for representation on boards and committees (Article VI, Sec. 1; Article XII; Bylaws 4 & 5) that it is the responsibility of the Nominating Committee to recommend such persons as they see fit to serve on all boards and committees.

“4. Therefore, we strongly recommend that districts should exist primarily to facilitate the promotion of our convention work. At the present six departments in the Baptist Building utilize the districts as the basis for projecting their work: Sunday School, Church Training, Music, Brotherhood, W.M.U., and Evangelism.

“5. To realign these geographical areas only on a numerical basis would greatly increase the cost to these departments and would be no guarantee of increased efficiency or compatibility among the churches.

— E. E. Boone, Chairman; Leslie Riherd”

Ouachita-Southern Advancement Campaign

The Ouachita-Southern Advancement Campaign, authorized by the 1970 convention, has been launched and a Steering Committee named. W. O. Vaught, Jr. serves as chairman, R. L. South, vice chairman, and other members are: Daniel Grant, president; Ben Elrod, William Downs, and H. E. Raines, represent Ouachita Baptist University; H. E. Williams, president, Kenneth Threet, Woodrow Behannon, and Padgett Cope, represent Southern Baptist College; in addition to Charles H. Ashcraft, executive secretary, and Ralph Douglas, member at large. Alvin (Bo) Huffman, Jr., a prominent Blytheville Baptist layman was chosen as campaign director with Robert L. Cargill, Director of Development for Oklahoma Baptist University, as consultant.

Churches have been divided into two groups, Advance and General, according to financial ability, and area directors, association chairmen and coordinators, and church chairmen have been named. Temporary financing of the campaign has been provided by the executive board.

REPORT FOR COMMITTEE OF TWENTY-FIVE

We, your Committee of Twenty-Five report as follows:

1. We recommend that all duly elected messengers from regular Baptist churches who have registered shall be seated; and that they, together with all late registrants who meet these qualifications shall constitute the convention for the 1971 sessions of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

2. We recommend also that the term "regular Baptist" as used in Article III, Section 1 of the Constitution of this convention be defined and interpreted by this 1971 session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention as "those Baptist churches which in doctrine and in practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of 'The Baptist Faith and Message' which was adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, and adopted by the 1970 session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention as its doctrinal guideline.

3. We recommend further that the Constitution of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention be revised by adding to Article II the following sentence: "'The Baptist Faith and Message' as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention on May 9, 1963 shall be the doctrinal guideline for this Convention".

4. We recommend finally that the Constitution of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention be revised by adding to Article III, Section I this sentence: "Regular Baptist churches are those Baptist churches which in doctrine and in practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of 'The Baptist Faith and Message' as adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention."

ARKANSAS BAPTIST FOUNDATION

Ed F. McDonald, Jr., Executive Secretary

During the year our directors have met four times on a quarterly basis. Their faithful efforts are reflected in our audit which revealed 5.79 percent income on investments. These efforts continue to make the best investments for Baptist causes.

Baptist causes received the following sums from the Foundation since our last report.

Ouachita Baptist University	13,546.83
Southern Baptist College	3,743.90
Arkansas Baptist Home for Children	261.56
State Missions	776.41
Foreign Missions	208.50
Home Missions	174.75
Cooperative Program	450.89
Other beneficiaries	568.69

January bulletin inserts were mailed to churches using them for "Make Your Will Month." Four Seminars on Estate Planning were promoted. These will be continued in 1972. Our board has established an investment pool for more efficient management of funds.

Our assets as of August 31, 1971 were $336,303.26. This is an increase of 63,821.79 over our $272,481.47 reported last year. These figures are based on book values at time of receipt. The market value will be higher.

The Foundation Secretary was invited and spoke on stewardship in thirteen churches. He is available on request and without cost to any church who needs his services.

The directors and secretary have offered their services in the Higher Education Campaign. We especially would stress that people include these causes in their wills as well as their gifts. We covet your prayers, solicit your support, and welcome all helpful suggestions.

We recommend the receipts from undesignated gifts be given to Ouachita-Southern Advancement Campaign.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE

Erwin L. McDonald, Editor

Except for the very first years of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and for a slight interruption during the Civil War, Baptists of churches affiliated with the State Convention have had their Baptist paper as a steady line of communication. In good times and bad, in war and peace, in depression and prosperity, the paper has fulfilled its vital ministry of informing, inspiring, promoting, and giving direction in Baptist affairs. But the effectiveness of the paper has been hindered or helped by its circulation and use or lack of use. At one time, in the middle of the depression of the 1930s, the paper almost perished, its paid circulation dropping to 1,000.

The current year has been a difficult one for religious publications generally across the nation. The costs of production have gone up, as has postage, and the dependability of the postal service has deteriorated. Consequently, most religious papers such as ours have sustained losses in circulation, many of them substantial.

The Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, despite a necessary increase in its subscription rates, has come through the year in good condition, thanks to the 779 churches of the state which have the paper in their budgets to go to all their families. But there has been a slight decrease in circulation. As of September 27, the circulation was 58,564. This is a decline of 1,052 from the total of a year ago.

On the positive side, the paper has been greatly improved in its over-all appearance, with a new choice of type, an improvement in the quality of printing, and improvements in layout and editing. Compliments have come to the paper from readers far and near.

Now, more than ever, our church members need to receive and read their state paper on a regular basis. With a greatly increased mission emphasis and the current campaign to strengthen Ouachita University and Southern Baptist College, Arkansas Baptists need as never before to keep posted on Baptist aspirations and achievements.

We appeal to pastors and other church leaders to help us increase our circulation and the effectiveness of our ministry as the state paper. If your church is not now sending the paper to its families, let us urge you to do this, starting real soon.

Editor R. G. Puckett of The Maryland Baptist has said:

“No religious group in the world has a system of state news publications to match Southern Baptists. We have the greatest opportunity to be informed about our denomination, to spend our opinion and to publicize our successes (and failures) of any Christian body. While it is a blessing to possess so great an opportunity to be informed, it is at the same time an awesome obligation to take advantage of this great storehouse of fact and event. A Baptist who says that the state Baptist paper has nothing that interests him is making unfortunate revelation about himself.”

ARKANSAS BAPTIST STATE ASSEMBLY

Lawson Hatfield, Director

The objective of the state assembly is to support the Arkansas Baptist State Convention in its constitutional purpose . . . “to awaken and stimulate among the churches the greatest possible activity in evangelism, Christian education, and benevolent work throughout its bounds and to the ends of the earth; to cultivate closer cooperation among the churches and to promote concert of action in advancing all the interests of the Kingdom of God.

The program of the state assembly seeks to reach its objective by:

1. Providing facilities and operating the assembly as a service to the programs of the convention.
2. Offering training for church leaders, church members and others of all age groups in Bible study, stewardship and missions.
3. Providing worship, witnessing and evangelistic opportunities.
4. Planning fellowship and recreational activities.
5. Encouraging all boards, agencies and institutions of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention to provide an informal meeting place for denominational leaders, church leaders and members.
6. Cultivating and training young people, our leaders of tomorrow.

A report and evaluation of the three 1971 assemblies follows.

The total registration of 2,437 is reflected in the following figures which are listed for the three consecutive weeks: 759, 991,687. This is 241 more than last year. In addition there were many visitors in the services each week.

Four weeks are scheduled for 1972.

The assembly program reflects a variety of study and fellowship opportunities for the many people in attendance. The Children's Building was well staffed for good learning experiences for preschool children. In three weeks the building was used by about 90 children and leaders.

A Children's Assembly (Grades 3 through 6) is conducted in a separate area by a good staff of leaders and ministered to about 480 in this group.

The Youth-Adult Assembly is the largest in attendance, with about 1,850 participating in the three assemblies. Bible study classes for young people and special studies and organizational work was offered for adults. Several special studies were provided for some groups including an "On-to-College" class. A large special choir produced "Natural High," a contemporary folk-type musical for youth, on Friday night each week.

During the three assemblies 1,094 of those in attendance made decisions. Of these, 117 were professions of faith, 58 were surrenders to special service and 919 were rededications.

A new dormitory was opened for the 1971 summer season. Additional improvements in facilities are underway.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

Tom J. Logue, State Director

1. Our twenty-one campuses reported 165 conversions among college students this year.
2. Arkansas had 172 students in mission projects, 6 during Christmas, 91 during Easter and 75 who gave their summer to mission activities.
3. An emphasis on campus evangelism in the school year 1971-72, directed by Arliss Dickerson of Henderson State College, will see hundreds of students in special Bible studies this fall and most of our campuses in special campus WIN weeks. Other parts of the special emphasis on campus evangelism include a campus appearance of the NEW LIGHT SINGERS, an underground evangelism campus newspaper, and a mobile book display which will be set up in Student Union buildings.

PERSONNEL CHANGES

Allen Rankin, a recent graduate of Mississippi College, has become Associate at the University of Arkansas.

Rick Ramsey, a recent graduate of McNeese State University, Lake Charles, Louisiana, has become an Associate at Arkansas State University.

Doug Dickens, a graduate of Ouachita and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, is the new Baptist Student Director at Ouachita.

CENTER CONSTRUCTION

Arkansas Tech. The beautiful new Baptist Student Center at Arkansas Tech is now a reality. The dedication for the new facility was held March 30, 1971.

Arkansas State University, Beebe Branch. The first Baptist Student Center built by volunteer help was erected this past summer at Arkansas State University, Beebe Branch. BSU Director Don Norrington led in the construction, assisted by Summer Missionaries Steve Sigsby of Arkansas State University and Charles Wright of Arkansas State University, Beebe Branch. The center is of contemporary style with rough hewn cedar and brick exterior.

BROTHERHOOD

C. H. Seaton

Interest in missionary education and involvement in mission activities is on the increase in our state. This is reflected in the request for information regarding Baptist Men and Royal Ambassadors. Almost every association has shown an increase in the number of churches requesting information and the number of new organizations indicated.

As men come to understand the full impact of missionary education and involvement in mission activities they show a much greater willingness to become a part of the total Brotherhood program. Baptist Men's organizations provide opportunities for men to learn about missions and to become actively engaged in missions, through their churches, in the church community. Royal Ambassadors provides an opportunity for men to guide boys in missionary education and for boys to be involved in mission activities.

Churches should report all phases of Brotherhood work, both Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador Chapter on the church letter to the association. It would be helpful if each church would send the names of all Brotherhood officers to the Brotherhood Department. A postage free card for use in sending the information is sent to each church.

Since the last report several exciting and important meetings have been held. On November 2, 1970 the state Royal Ambassador Fellowship Supper was held with 400 boys attending. Missionary Don Doyle was the speaker.

January 24 was observed as Baptist Men's Day in a large number of churches. Those churches reporting indicate good results from the emphasis on men's opportunities and responsibilities.

About 250 men representing every section of the state attended the Baptist Men's meeting in Baring Cross Church in North Little Rock. The theme for the meeting was "Sharing Christ with One or One Thousand." Laymen from across the state shared with those attending their testimony on Sharing Christ. Dr. H. E. Williams and Dr. Charles Ashcraft brought challenging messages on Stewardship and Sharing Christ.

At Geyer Springs Church on May 7-8, the State Royal Ambassador Congress was held. The Congress attendance was almost 800. Some 600 boys consumed 1,000 hot dogs to open the Congress on Friday afternoon. "Mission Emphasis and Involvement in Mission Action" was the congress theme. Sidney Carswell, missionary to Brazil, and Steve Ditmore, missionary to Peru, were missionary speakers. Bobby Field, member of the Razorback football team was featured in personal testimony. Pedro Ruiz, United States Air Force, shared with the boys through pictures opportunities of sharing Christ as a member of the Armed Forces.

June was Royal Ambassador Camp month. Something new was added this year. A special week-end camp for 6-8 year olds and their fathers. Forty-two attended this week-end camp and had a tremendous time. Several fathers commented that this was the first time they had really had the time to get to know their sons. Plans are to repeat the weekender in 1972.

Royal Ambassador camps for 9-17 year old boys were conducted the last four weeks in June. Visible results show 40% of the boys attending made some decision during camp. Decisions include 19 out of 20 lost boys accepting Christ as Saviour, 14 surrendering for full time Christian vocations and 57 rededications. Only eternity will reveal the real value of Royal Ambassador camps in the lives of boys and the decisions that were made.

Plans for the coming year involving men and boys in missionary education and mission action include: Royal Ambassador Fellowship Supper on November 8; the state wide Baptist Men's Meeting scheduled for March 17-18, 1972; the Royal Ambassador Congress scheduled for May 5-6; The month of June will be time for Royal Ambassador Camps and the Baptist Men's Retreat.

Each October a series of leadership training is scheduled in each district for Brotherhood officers on the associational and church level.

We give thanks to God for His blessings this year. Our prayer is that He may continue to bless the area of missionary education and mission activities of Baptist Men and Royal Ambassadors, and that every church will come to recognize the need for providing an adequate program of missionary education for their men and boys.

The Brotherhood Department stands ready to assist churches in any way possible. Call on us if we may be of service to you.

CAMP PARON

C. H. Seaton, Camp Manager

Camp Paron facilities have been utilized extensively during the year.

During June the facilities were used for Royal Ambassador Camps, followed by Girls' Camps during July.

Other departments using the facilities include B.S.U., Church Training, Evangelism, Missions and Music. Several other groups used the camp for youth retreats, associational retreats, young adults, choir and deacon retreats.

Some improvements were made during the year. All buildings were painted during the summer. Plans are to begin painting the interiors in early spring. New shower walls have been installed, replacing the decaying wood walls. The new walls are constructed of four inch concrete blocks to be painted, matching interior colors. These walls will be permanent and will not decay from usage.

New campfire pits were constructed for each unit of cabins. A large bell, gift of W.M.U., was placed near the dining hall. Chalk boards were placed in the Activities Building and available for each pavilion.

New black-out curtains were placed in the Activities Building. The curtains not only add to the appearance of the building, but make possible daytime showing of movies and colored slides for teaching during the day.

A continuing program of improvements and securing of needed equipment is planned for the future.

CHURCH MUSIC

Ural C. Clayton, Secretary

Music in our Southern Baptist churches is experiencing a steady growth. In worship, music involves both old and young in personal praise, adoration and commitment. In witness, music proclaims the message of salvation to all who hear. In education, music imparts sound doctrine and scripture truth. In ministry, music comforts and gladdens hearts, reaches multitudes through radio and TV, and serves as an arm of love extended by the church to those who need its ministry.

The tasks assigned to the state and local church ministry are: to teach music; to train persons to lead, sing and play music; to provide music in the church and community; and to provide and interpret information regarding the work of the church and denomination.

In helping to accomplish these tasks and the church's main functions of worship, proclamation, education and ministry, six areas of music needs are developed through state, district and associational channels to provide a balanced local music program. These areas are: congregational, organizational, graded choir, instrumental, special ministries, and administrative.

A church has a music ministry, and should so report it on the annual uniform church letter to the association, when it (a) elects or calls a music director (volunteer or paid) and (b) when the music director is charged with the responsibility of developing the church music program.

The work of the department has been planned and directed by the District Music Directors and committees composed of local church music leaders, under the supervision of Ural C. Clayton, department secretary. Mr. Clayton completed his first year in the department on August 1, 1971.

I. STATE ASSISTANCE TO ASSOCIATIONS AND CHURCHES

A. District Music Directors — The state is divided into eight districts with a district director serving as music representative between the state office and local associations and churches. These district directors who have served in 1971 are: District 1 — Northwest, Don Edmondson; District 2 — North Central, Hamp Valentine; District 3 — Northeast, Charles Butler; District 4 — West Central, Phil Whitten; District 5 — Central, Dick Hennings; District 6 — East Central, John Richardson; District 7 — Southwest, Morris Ratley; District 8 — Southeast, Carbon Sims.

B. Festivals — Choir festivals were promoted for different age groups, and this program continues to be one of the most widely approved and acclaimed programs in our state music ministry. The department sponsored five festivals for Young Musicians in April at North Little Rock, Pine Bluff, Rogers, El Dorado, and Wynne; also two festivals for youth choirs, in February, in Little Rock. Churches interested in organizing choirs come to observe the festivals and later organize for service in their local church. Each choir attending learns a group of songs to sing in the massed chorus and learns two numbers to sing for adjudication and rating.

C. Summer Music Camps — A comprehensive program of music education and spiritual enrichment makes up the curriculum of our two state music camps — Youth and Adult Music Conference in June, and Music Camp for Young Musicians in August. These camps are held in Arkadelphia at Ouachita Baptist University and First Baptist Church. Classes are provided for accompanists, song leaders, graded choir leaders, choir members, and volunteer and full-time music directors.

The theme for Youth Music Camp this year was Hymnology and the Performing Arts. The program curriculum and services were designed to promote this emphasis. The highlights for this camp were the performance of "The Nazarene", a music drama; "Now Hear It Again", a youth musical; the Kodaly sight singing method; and the spiritual emphasis through the Bible studies and worship services.

The outstanding features of Music Camp for Young Musicians were three choir concerts: "Lo, A Star!", "Concert of the Masters", and "The Freedom Song", the Kodaly music reading classes; the three preschool and children's choir leadership classes; and the worship services.

D. Preschool and Children's Choir Leadership Clinics — During 1971 we have conducted eleven such training opportunities. In April, one each in Fort Smith and Little Rock; classes at both music camps; six one-day area clinics in August in El Dorado, McGehee, West Memphis, Jonesboro, Rogers, and Hot Springs.

E. Schools of Music — Six schools were sponsored.

F. Church Music Workshop — Our Department and the Church Music Department of Ouachita jointly sponsored this event for part-time music directors, graded choir workers, and ministers of music. Musical training and spiritual renewal were the highlights of the event.

II. OUTREACH

A. Festivals

In the 5 festivals for Young Musicians, 54 choirs participated, total attendance of 1590

In the 2 Youth choir festivals, 42 choirs participated, total attendance of 1619

B. Choir Day

Choir Day at Ouachita in September was sponsored by Ouachita and promoted by our department. Over 1400 participated in the rehearsals and the half-time program at Ouachita's first home game of the season.

C. Music Camps Attendance:

20th Annual Youth and Adult Music Conference – attendance 303
 12th Annual Music Camp for Young Musicians – attendance 536

D. Music Tournaments:

1. Associational – 9 associations reported tournaments held
 Hymn Playing Division (Piano) – 9 finalists
 Hymn Playing Division (Organ) – 2 finalists
 Song Leading Division – 2 finalists
 Vocal Solo Division – 6 finalists
 These finalists participated in the statewide tournament.
2. State Music Tournament Winners:
 Senior High Piano – Sharon Whittenburg, First Church, Judsonia
 Senior High Organ – Loranelle Johnson, First Church, Warren
 Senior High Song Leading – Robert Erwin, Imboden
 Senior High Vocal Solo – David Mitchell, Immanuel, Pine Bluff
 Junior High Piano – Gale Heard, Watson Chapel, Pine Bluff

IV. CONCLUSION

This is the 30th Annual Report of the Arkansas Baptist Music Ministry – the oldest such state music organization in the Southern Baptist Convention, begun in September 1941, as the "Arkansas Baptist Musicians."

The department personnel earnestly request your continued prayer support for the effectiveness of their service and the music program's tasks and ministries.

CHURCH TRAINING

Ralph W. Davis, Secretary

The Church Training Department has been assigned the following programs:

- Training Union
- Vocational Guidance
- Church Administration
- Family Ministry
- Church Library
- Church Recreation

I. Promotion of Training Union Work

The objective of your Church Training Department in the area of Training Union promotion is to assist the churches in establishing, conducting, enlarging and improving their training program. The church tasks assigned to the Training Union are:

- Orient church members
- Train church members to perform functions of the church
- Train church leaders
- Teach Christian theology, Christian ethics, Christian history and church polity and organization
- Provide and interpret information regarding the work of the church and denomination

The study areas assigned to the Training Union are:

- Christian theology
- Christian history
- Christian ethics
- Church polity and organization

The three divisions of training assigned to the Training Union are:

- Member Training
- New Member Training
- Leader Training

1. State Meetings.

- (1) State Youth Convention – April 4, 1971, Robinson Auditorium, Little Rock. Estimated attendance of 3,700 young people, representing most of the associations and many of the churches in the state.
- (2) Preschool-Children's Workshops
The Church Training Department cooperated with the Sunday School, Church Music, and W.M.U. Departments in planning and conducting two state Preschool-Children's Workshops. One was held in Fort Smith on April 27 and one in Little Rock on April 29. Fifty-nine churches and nineteen associations were represented. The total registrations for the two workshops was 219.
- (3) State approved workers who assist in all phases of our work are:
Preschool – Mrs. J. W. King and Mrs. James Griffin
Children – Mrs. Robert Rucker, Mrs. Faber Tyler and Mrs. James Zeltner
Youth – Mrs. James Dean, Mrs. Ruth Tolleson and Mrs. Ray Pearce
Adult – Cecil Weller
General Officers – James A. Griffin

2. District Work.

- (1) The following eight men serve as district representatives in Arkansas:
 - Northwest – Dean E. Newberry
 - North Central – S. D. Hacker
 - Northeast – Harold Ray
 - West Central – Orville Haley
 - Central – Earl Long
 - East Central – Robert Tucker
 - Southwest – John Holston
 - Southeast – Klois Hargis

In addition to these eight district representatives there are forty-eight age group workers in the eight districts who are enlisted and trained to assist associations and churches with their training program.

3. Personal Consultations.

Over 200 pastors were visited by the secretary or associate during the first nine months of the calendar year of 1971. Plans were made to visit approximately 75 additional pastors during the fall months of 1971. These have been personal visits with pastors in their church with the purpose being to get better acquainted with them, to discuss with them their local church training program, and to share material with them.

Individual church work in the form of conferences and clinics were conducted in a number of churches.

4. Associational Work.

- (1) "M" Night – November 30, 1970
 - Number of associations conducting "M" Night – 41
 - Total attendance – 8309
 - Number of churches represented – 665
 - Number of pastors present – 533
 - Number of Church Training directors present – 431
- (2) Associational Two-Night Clinics.

During 1970, 40 four-night leadership schools were conducted in Arkansas helping the churches prepare for the changes that began in October, 1970. During the first nine months of 1971, two-night "follow-up" clinics that were conducted in the following associations: North Pulaski, Dardanelle-Russellville, Red River, Black River, Independence, Faulkner, Mississippi County, Greene County, Trinity, Current River, Gainesville, Little River, Buckner, Clear Creek, Little Red River, Washington-Madison, Carroll, Big Creek, Rocky Bayou, Benton County, Mt. Zion, Tri-County, Arkansas Valley. Clinics have been scheduled for the last three months of the calendar year of 1971 in the following associations: Liberty, Boone-Newton, Central, White River, Bartholomew, and Hope.

5. Drills and Tournaments.

The Bible Exploring Drill (for older children), the Youth Bible Drill (for younger youth), and the Youth Speakers' Tournaments (for older youth) were held in the eight districts, March 22-April 2. District winners in the Bible Drill and Speakers' Tournament participated in the state drills and tournaments. In the Youth Bible Drill, Paul Coleman, Immanuel Baptist Church, Pine Bluff, placed first and represented Arkansas at Ridgecrest.

In the Speakers' Tournament, Tony Lairamore, Haven Heights Baptist Church, Fort Smith, won first place and represented Arkansas at Ridgecrest.

II. Program of Vocational Guidance

Sixteen men have been selected and trained to help us in this area. The counselors are: Kay Mansell, Jim Tillman, John Holston, Andrew Setliffe, Gerald Taylor, Jim Davis, Mason Craig, Hilton Lane, D. B. Bledsoe, Coy Sample, Charles Smithson, Edward L. Powers, Gerald Jackson, Norman Sutton, Eugene Ryan, and Nodell Dennis.

Vocational Guidance counselors assisted in two associational camps and in the three state assemblies at Siloam Springs. They conducted vocational guidance conferences, and individual conferences at these camps for those who felt God calling them to a church vocation.

A state Career Conference was conducted at Camp Paron on May 14-15, 1971, for junior and senior high youth. Approximately 100 attended the conference.

Robert Holley, associate in the church training department, has been assigned the leadership of this program and works in cooperation with the Vocational Guidance Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board.

III. Program of Church Administration

The following nine men serve as church administration consultants: Harold Taylor, Roy Gean Law, James Zeltner, James Griffin, Harry Wigger, Ross Williams, Ray McClung, Zane Chesser, and Clayburn Bratton.

Pastors retreat was conducted May 17-19, 1971, at Camp Paron in cooperation with the State Missions Department. Our department was responsible for enlisting Dr. James Sullivan, Baptist Sunday School Board, who led conferences on Baptist polity.

Plans have been made for six area-wide church administration workshops to be conducted in six areas of Arkansas in 1972.

The Secretary of the Church Training Department serves as State Consultant and works in cooperation with the Church Administration Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board.

IV. Program of Family Ministry

The Arkansas Church Training Department cooperates with the Program of Family Ministry, Baptist Sunday School Board, in promoting the work of family ministry in Arkansas.

The following five family ministry consultants were trained Feb. 25-26 to assist churches and associations:

Ronald Griffin, pastor, Marshall Road Church, Jacksonville
Bernard Beasley, pastor, First Church, Marked Tree
Nodell Dennis, pastor, First Church, Trumann
Bill Bruster, pastor, First Church, Siloam Springs
Van Evans, minister of education, First Church, El Dorado

The structure of family ministry in a church is built around three aspects: church-home cooperation, education for marriage and family living and care of families.

On July 8-10 Nodell Dennis conducted "Teen Time" for the youth of Marshall Road Baptist Church, Jacksonville. The theme for the conference was "A Christian Understanding of Sex." Two conferences were conducted each night, one for Junior High and one for Senior High youth, one hour each. They reached 35 youth in a most profitable conference.

Our five consultants are available for use in conferences and also for associational youth rallies, Christian Home Week in churches, etc.

V. Program of Recreation

Mr. Jim Maloch, Second Church, Little Rock, serves as state recreation director. He assists in the promotion of recreation at the state workshop, youth convention, etc.

Mr. Maloch and two leaders from the Church Recreation Department of the Sunday School Board trained several recreation workers in the State Recreation Instructors Course, May 10-11, 1971.

These workers are available to go to churches to help them plan their program of recreation at no expense to the church.

VI. Program of Library Work

The three following library consultants assist churches and associations in library work: Mrs. Robert Chambers, Lepanto; Mrs. Robert Tucker, West Helena; and Blanche Mays, Wynne.

These workers helped several churches set up or improve their libraries during the year. They are available to assist churches in beginning or improving their libraries, at no expense to the churches except entertainment while on the field.

EVANGELISM

Jesse S. Reed, Director

This has been a good year in personal witnessing and revivals.

Our 1972 theme is "Living the Spirit of Christ in Expectancy and Creativity." An essential factor in evangelism is enthusiasm. There is a spirit of expectancy in enthusiasm, the ability to convince others.

MISSIONS

Twelve months have recorded much advance in our State Missions program, particularly in three areas.

Our chaplains have recorded an unbelievable number of conversions as an indication of the impact of their ministries. Weekday ministries are being undertaken by more and more churches. One association has hired a full-time staff director for this ministry. More than satisfactory gains have been made in Work with National Baptists.

Direct Missions

We have assisted the following number of churches during the year of 1971: Church Building Aid, 4; Church Pastoral Aid, 23; Student Preaching, 13; New Mission Sites, 4; and Missionary Salary Supplement, 12 associations.

We have begun a mission at Horseshoe Bend Estates under the guidance of First Baptist Church, Melbourne. We are looking for a permanent sponsor for this work who will be willing to underwrite a $30,000 building, and a permanent sponsor for Bella Vista with $80,000-$100,000 building. Please pray with us about sponsors for these two places. Very satisfactory work has begun on two sites the Missions Department helped purchase in Central Association, Hurricane Lake Baptist Church and Indian Springs Mission.

Chaplaincy Ministries

The INSTITUTIONAL chaplaincy continues to expand in meeting the opportunities that open to this aspect of State Missions.

Full-time chaplains employed by the Convention include: E. A. Richmond, Boys, Training School; W. H. Heard, Tuberculosis Sanatorium; Dewie Williams, Cummins Prison; Marion Reneau, Girls' Training School; and Joe Rubert, Hot Springs Rehabilitation Center.

Student chaplain David Purkiss, Ouachita University, serves on weekends at the McRae Unit of the Children's Colony under the Student Aid program.

Ralph Shaddox is serving effectively as Craighead County chaplain, Jonesboro, principally assisting the Sheriff's, Juvenile, and Welfare Departments. He receives a stipend from Chaplaincy Ministries to assist in his work.

Chaplains serving through this ministry reported 226 definite conversions in 1970 and 158 during the first six months of 1971.

The BUSINESS-INDUSTRY chaplaincy has received its best impetus during the past year from pastors who are offering to serve as volunteer chaplains in small community industries, motels, nursing homes and hospitals, military reserve units, and city governmental agencies. These pastors are able to relate to many persons who are unsaved or inactive as church members and lead them to Christ and a meaningful church relationship. Promotion of this volunteer ministry can be done with the help of the Director of Chaplaincy Ministries on an individual or associational basis.

A total of 21 Baptist pastors and ministers are serving as MILITARY chaplains in Arkansas. Others have applications for commissions pending. Preaching and counseling opportunities in military reserve units opens a tremendous field for evangelism to pastors involved.

Deaf Ministry

There are classes for the deaf in eight associations: Calvary, Central, Concord, Harmony, Liberty, Ouachita, Pulaski (2), and Washington-Madison, and an immediate need to develop classes in two other associations, Mt. Zion and Tri-County. This will probably require the training of hearing people to take the leadership in these classes.

Sign language classes to train workers have been conducted in Harmony, Central, Pulaski, and Calvary Associations. Two of these are in progress now. Out of these classes, 18 people have been secured who have learned the sign language sufficiently to help in one way or another in conversing with the deaf.

The Arkansas Baptist Conference of the Deaf has planned a two-day statewide meeting of the deaf and deaf workers at one of our associational camps. This will include inspirational and fellowship meetings, and it is hoped that out of this conference will come a workshop for the deaf and interpreters on methods and problems related to work with the deaf.

A youth camp planned for 1971 could not be scheduled because of a conflict between opening and closing dates for the School for the Deaf and available dates for one of the assembly grounds, so we are making plans for a weekend retreat with the youth during the school term.

World Missions Conferences

We have scheduled five World Missions Conferences for 1971 and seven for 1972. The mission boards now request that all World Missions Conferences be scheduled a year in advance. The work of directing these conferences includes securing state speakers, correspondence with associational missionaries and mission boards, and conferences with associational leaders.

Special Missions Ministries

Work accomplished since January 1, 1971 includes: 14 surveys, joint participation with the Home Mission Board and Harmony Association for an associational Special Ministries Director, two volunteer associational Special Ministries Directors.

We now have 39 churches with various types of weekday program.

Plans for the future include a Christian center for migrants at Hope. Fifty-nine thousand migrants stayed overnight at the government rest camp the last 12 months. The Home Mission Board has agreed to a 50-50 financial participation to hire a director for this work the first of January. They feel it is one of the greatest opportunities for witness in our Southern Baptist Convention. The Hope rest camp is one of three in the nation.

Future plans also include a workshop for ministry to other faiths, the establishing of additional adult and juvenile rehabilitation programs, and the completion of orientation booklet and film on non-traditional ministries.

Work with National Baptists

Working with National Baptists in Arkansas is a cooperative effort of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. We seek to share our Lord with every resident of Arkansas and to win as many as we can, teaching them all things that Jesus commanded. To accomplish this we will seek to strengthen National Baptist work by increased understanding and involvement, and through direct work in leadership training, summer camps and activities, A.M. & N. Student Center and fraternal relations.

Four student summer missionaries worked in Sunday Schools, Training Unions, choirs, and youth programs. They conducted 13 Vacation Bible Schools, enrolling 950, and registered 75 professions of faith.

Rev. Lacy Solomon, teacher-missionary at A.M. & N. College in Pine Bluff, conducts an energetic program, enrolling 220 students in classes and other students in various B.S.U. activities held at the center.

Our small scholarship program is provided for worthy students who apply. Camp Hart of the Hills, comprising 73 acres with accommodations for 100 persons, provides five weeks of camping opportunities including our first music camp held this summer. Extension classes for in-service training enrolled 120 in three centers: Camden, Lewisville, and Helena. Leadership clinics and institutes are promoted in numerous areas of the state. Associational joint committees at Helena, Camden, Little Rock, and Pine Bluff are now organized. Numerous other areas of ministry are performed as the opportunity arises. Fraternal greetings, sermons, addresses, conferences, and Christ-like good will are among the daily schedule of our work.

STEWARDSHIP – COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

Roy F. Lewis, Secretary

A new spirit of optimism seems to prevail among Arkansas Baptists and it is reflected in stewardship and world mission support.

A new record was set in July for Cooperative Program receipts. It was the largest amount ever received in a summer month and was the second highest month in the convention's history. It is anticipated that the total receipts for 1971 will set a new record.

In April, just prior to assuming my new duties as secretary of the department, I attended the National Stewardship Seminar at Glorieta sponsored by the SBC Stewardship Commission. It was the first and only such meeting ever held by Southern Baptists, and the theological insights gained and shared there should favorably affect our work in Arkansas for years to come.

A five-volume set of books with an exegesis of every stewardship passage in the Bible was published in limited quantity by the Stewardship Commission. Some have been distributed to associational missionaries and selected leaders, and others were made available at cost to pastors and church libraries.

A monthly report of Cooperative Program receipts has been enlarged into a Stewardship Newsletter and is mailed monthly to pastors and associational missionaries. In addition to an up-to-date report on Cooperative Program receipts and a comparison with the previous year, it also provides an opportunity for sharing stewardship news and announcements monthly.

The department is using weekly its allotted space in the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine. The column is being used to inform our people about the Cooperative Program and to share ideas, techniques, materials and opportunities in stewardship promotion. A deliberate effort is being made in the column to enlarge the missionary vision of our people and to create a greater feeling of stewardship responsibility in our churches.

Most of our tracts and printed materials are obtained from the Stewardship Commission where volume printing keeps the cost to a minimum. However, some items designed to meet specific needs of our Arkansas constituency will be produced locally. At present, four such items are in process and others are being planned.

At the end of June, the record of Cooperative Program gifts from the churches for the first half of 1971 was compared with the same period for 1970. Each associational missionary was notified of the churches in his area that had either made no contribution or had decreased its gifts by 50% or more. In some cases where it seemed advisable, further contacts were made directly with the churches. This has resulted in a larger number of churches that have now contributed to missions through the Cooperative Program.

At the same time, over 200 letters of appreciation were sent to churches that had increased their Cooperative Program gifts by 50% or more as compared to the previous year. This simple expression of appreciation seems to have been of great encouragement to the churches and resulted in gracious responses from many of them. Other plans are being made to continue giving recognition where it is deserved and to encourage such churches to share their testimonies with others.

During the year steps were taken to revise the remittance envelopes used by the churches in submitting Cooperative Program and designated gifts, hopefully eliminating several points of confusion in the past. Postage-paid envelopes are now being provided to the church treasurers and they are encouraged to send contributions weekly.

Perhaps the most significant accomplishment of this year was the approval of a program of work for the department by the Program Committee of the Executive Board. The program is both idealistic and practical, and both visionary and realistic. It is being implemented as rapidly as possible and holds great promise for Arkansas Baptists.

Plans are being made for a state-wide stewardship clinic to be held in a central location on February 29, 1972. An attempt is also being made to visit personally with every associational stewardship chairman.

Every church is urged to observe Cooperative Program Day on April 16, 1972, and Cooperative Program Month in October. Materials are provided to the churches without charge for these purposes.

Each church is also encouraged to accelerate its growth in stewardship by using one or more of the several stewardship plans and aids produced by the SBC Stewardship Commission.

There is every reason to believe that the immediate future will bring great advancement to Arkansas Baptists in stewardship development and mission support.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lawson Hatfield, Director

The objective of the Sunday School Department is to support the Arkansas Baptist State Convention in its constitutional purpose . . . "to awaken and stimulate among the churches the greatest possible activity in evangelism, Christian education, and benevolent work throughout its bounds and to the ends of the earth; to cultivate closer cooperation among the churches and to promote concert of action in advancing all the interests of the Kingdom of God."

The Sunday School Department seeks to accomplish its objective by helping churches establish, conduct, enlarge and improve their program of Bible teaching. The Bible teaching program includes two major areas: Sunday School and extension activities.

Sunday School, the basic approach of the Bible teaching program, consists of age-graded Bible classes meeting regularly on Sunday morning, or, in some mission situations, on Sunday afternoon.

Additional facets of the Bible teaching program which are provided for organizationally by the Sunday School are called extension activities. The following extension activities may be included in a church's program of Bible teaching: Vacation Bible School, Weekday Bible Study, Bible Conferences, Fellowship Bible Classes, Bible Study Course, New Sunday Schools, Family Bible Study, and Correspondence Bible Study.

Church Architecture consultation is available through the Sunday School Department.

The director, Lawson Hatfield, relates primarily to local church assistance, church architecture, and adult work.

Don Cooper, associate director, relates to associational promotion and Vacation Bible School work. He serves as youth division consultant.

Mrs. Mary Emma Humphrey, children's division consultant, relates to the promotion of weekday Bible study and work with the mentally retarded.

Miss Pat Ratton serves as preschool division consultant, edits the Sunday School News, and relates to kindergartens and day care programs.

Beyond the Baptist Building, the work is promoted by district directors and forty-four associational Sunday School organizations.

1. Bob Wright — Benton, Boone-Newton, Carroll, Washington-Madison.
2. Harold Elmore — Big Creek, Rocky Bayou, Van Buren County, White River, Independence, Little Red River.
3. Leslie Riherd — Black River, Current River, Gainesville, Green County, Mississippi County, Mt. Zion, Trinity.
4. Roy Gene Law — Buckner, Clear Creek, Concord, Dardanelle-Russellville, Ouachita.
5. Billy Kimbrough — Buckville, Central, Conway-Perry, North Pulaski, Pulaski, Faulkner.
6. Roy Cook — Arkansas Valley, Caroline, Centennial, Tri-County, Calvary.
7. Roy Chatham — Caddo River, Hope, Little River, Red River.
8. William Kennedy — Ashley, Bartholomew, Carey, Delta, Harmony, Liberty.

I. SUNDAY SCHOOL PROMOTION

1. The objective of the program of Sunday school promotion is to assist churches, associations, and the state convention in establishing, conducting, enlarging, and improving Sunday School program in churches.
2. Tasks of the Sunday School include:
 - (1) Teach the Biblical revelation
 - (2) Reach persons for Christ and church membership
 - (3) Perform the functions of the church within its constituency
 - (4) Provide and interpret information concerning the work of the church and the denomination
3. Following is a summary of the projects the department promoted during the past year:
 - (1) State
Two Preschool-Children's Workshops — 219 registered; 59 churches represented.
Outreach Institute — 80 registered; 26 churches represented.

Sunday School Bus Outreach Ministry Conference — 127 registered; 73 churches represented.
Sunday School Convention — 360 registered; 72 churches represented; 25 associations.

- (2) Associational
Eleven training schools — 876 registered; 130 churches represented.
14 associations were assisted in 16 one-night training or planning sessions.
- (3) Church
10 training schools.
25 churches were assisted in 30 one-session training or planning conferences.
- (4) Convention-wide
Department personnel participated in 5 convention-wide planning meetings.

II. VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL PROMOTION

Following is a summary of the projects the department promoted and assisted:

A state VBS clinic for associational team members; 47 associations represented with 300 total attendance.

Trained 6 college students for BSU and Mission Departments.

22 associations reported conducting 27 VBS clinics with 2,241 present. Department personnel assisted in 7 associational VBS clinics.

III. WEEKDAY BIBLE STUDY PROMOTION

The objective of the program of weekday Bible study promotion is to assist churches, associations, and the state convention in establishing, conducting, enlarging and improving weekday Bible study in the churches. Weekday Bible study includes formally scheduled opportunities for concentrated teaching of the Bible and other curriculum areas for pupils of public school ages in weekday Bible study classes and other programs for children in kindergarten, child care programs, and nursery schools.

Fifty-five churches provide kindergarten and/or day care ministries. Churches are showing concern for some special groups as reflected in providing Sunday School teaching in 30 departments for the mentally retarded.

IV. CHURCH ARCHITECTURE CONSULTATION

The objective of the program of church architecture consultation is to interpret the relationship of property and buildings of a church and to provide information and consultation to churches and denominational organizations concerning all phases and details of planning and securing appropriate property and buildings.

Through personal visits and correspondence 41 churches were referred to the Church Architecture Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Mrs. J. A. Hogan, President
Nancy Cooper, Executive Secretary and Treasurer

“Baptists and missions:
 It goes together like fire and burning.
 We're a people and a purpose.
 We journey in obedience to a disturbingly great commission.”

– Ed Seabough

Woman's Missionary Union is “a people” – Baptist women, young women, girls and preschoolers – “and a purpose” – MISSIONS!

Fulfillment of that purpose calls for implementation of the church tasks for which it is responsible, i.e.

1. Teach Missions
2. Engage in Mission Action
3. Support World Missions through Prayer and Giving
4. Provide and Interpret Information Regarding the Work of the Church and Denomination

In an effort to help churches achieve their tasks, activities were promoted on five levels: national, state, district, association and local church.

National Activities

- May 31 WMU, SBC Annual Meeting, St. Louis. In a series of testimonies entitled "Dimensions of Success" the work of two churches in Arkansas was featured. Dr. Don Harbuck, pastor, and Mrs. T. Shad Medlin, president of Baptist Women, First Church, El Dorado, shared experiences in the realm of study. Dr. Dale Cowling, pastor, and Mrs. Robt. Buice, leader of Baptist Women, told of special ministries of Second Church, Little Rock.
- July 22-28 WMU, SBC, Conference, Glorieta. A bus was chartered for 36 of the 85 registered from Arkansas.

State Activities

On state level, activities of Woman's Missionary Union major on training of leadership and upon providing motivation.

- March 5-6 Acteens Happening for High School Girls, First Church, Conway, with more than 500 in attendance.
- March 30-31 WMU Annual Meeting, Pulaski Heights Baptist Church, Little Rock, featuring missions in song and message, and critical issues as relating to youth. Mrs. J. A. Hogan of Fort Smith was re-elected president.
- July 5-31 Four 6-day Girls' Camps, Paron. There were virtually two simultaneous camps with separate activities — one for girls in fourth through sixth grades, and the other for junior high girls. Registration totaled 394 with 44 professions of faith, 66 rededications, 23 indicating a call to special Christian service. Julia Ketner and Sara Wisdom were directors.
- Aug. 10-11 WMU Houseparty, Ouachita Baptist University, Arkadelphia. Special training was offered in 14 realms of WMU work. A total of 184 were housed and fed on campus with that many others attending.
- Aug. 19-20 WMU Houseparty, Southern Baptist College, Walnut Ridge. Schedule followed at Arkadelphia was repeated. On-campus guests numbered 123 with 71 others attending.
- Aug. 26 Conference for Associational WMU Directors, Immanuel Church, Little Rock. Attendance totaled 55.

District and Area Activities

- Oct. 19-28 Annual District WMU Meetings (8) at Fayetteville, Booneville, Nashville, Fordyce, Benton, Batesville, Jonesboro, Forrest City. Mrs. J. A. Hogan, state WMU president, presided since there is no formal district WMU organization.
- April 26-
May 7 Area Meetings for Baptist Young Women (10) at Fort Smith, Springdale, Rogers, Harrison, Jonesboro, Little Rock, Pine Bluff, Crossett, Camden, Hot Springs. Nan Owens, Director of Adult Division, was in charge.

Associational Activities

Upon invitation, the WMU field services staff offered leadership training in 13 associations and individuals served as inspirational speakers in ten additional associational meetings.

Local Church

When schedules permitted, help was given local churches in leadership training and sharing missionary information and inspiration. In this capacity 35 individual churches were visited.

Interprogram Activities

- | | |
|------------------------|--|
| March 1-5
and 22-26 | Leadership Readiness Conferences were held in each of the eight districts. Denominational plans for 1971-72 were interpreted in 14 conferences by representatives from SBC agencies. It is no secret that response was disappointing — total of 509. Nan Owens was state WMU representative on the team. |
| April 27
and 29 | Preschool and Children's Leader Workshops at Fort Smith and Little Rock. In cooperation with Sunday School, Church Training and Music Departments specialized training was offered. Registration totaled 219 from 59 churches in 19 associations. |

Miscellaneous

It is a privilege for Woman's Missionary Union to promote observances of the Weeks of Prayer for Foreign and Home Missions and the Season of Prayer for State Missions and attendant church-wide offerings which exceeded previous records: $465,209 for Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions; $137,899 for Annie Armstrong Offering for Home Missions; and $78,043 (1970) for Dixie Jackson Offering for State Missions.

Conclusion

Words of encouragement are blowing across the state. We have no definite figures to substantiate gains, but many people have reported that individuals and even organizations lost to change upon entering the "sizzling '70s" have been reclaimed.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST FAMILY AND CHILD CARE SERVICES

Johnny G. Biggs, Executive Director

"Who raises a child of his own flesh lives with nature; who raises a child of another lives with God." Mertios

Children placed with the Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services receive some of the best of care available in Arkansas. Here men and women who have devoted their lives to care for children represent Arkansas Baptists in a unique ministry. Each Baptist shares in this ministry that is far reaching in the lives of many people. Young people who need an understanding, helping adult can work out their problems in one of the many services available. Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services has a counseling service for families and children, a treatment and guidance program at Monticello, referral services, foster care for individuals, group homes for children, and other related services. Families from our Baptist churches can receive help from one of our trained counselors in the state. They can be assured of confidential and reliable professional help. Many have taken advantage of these services.

Teenagers with many adjustment problems have found their way to our Agency. Many have received help immediately and remained in their own homes. Others have needed extended help and were admitted to the Arkansas Baptist Home for Children. During the past year 186 children have received this type of service.

Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services, as it reaches out to help people in need, has continued to place emphasis on the total family. Our staff has been busy with discharge planning for our children as well as taking new children into care. During the course of the year we provided care for 72 children at the Children's Home. Our workers are continually taking applications for additional children who need this type care. This past year we made discharge plans for 42 children from the Children's Home. After the child has received care and is returned to his home, a follow-up service is provided by the area office social work staff.

Approximately 45 have been in our foster care program. The institution at Monticello continues to serve all types of children with problems.

During the course of the year, our two area offices handled 286 new referrals involving approximately three persons per referral. The needs presented have been as varied as the number of referrals. These were individuals, with personal and family needs, who turned to our trained Christian counselors for help. Through our area offices, many local churches have become involved in extending Christian fellowship and help to these troubled families. We are grateful for the opportunity to be a part of the Arkansas Baptist team that seeks to follow Christ's example of ministering to the total man.

The Board of Trustees has opened an area office in Monticello this year which will serve southeast Arkansas. A trained social worker with his office at the home in Monticello will be available to work with individuals and churches. A new filmstrip telling the story of our expanded ministries has been distributed to each association.

In ministering to the needs of children who turn to Arkansas Baptists for the fulfillment of their needs, we are interested in improving the quality of their lives. In addition to meeting their pressing needs for professional direction and care, their spiritual needs are given priority. Some of our children learn about the love of Christ for the first time while at the Home. We are grateful that fourteen of our children made professions of faith during the year and others made the decision to rededicate their lives to our Lord.

We try to help our children make meaningful discoveries and decisions about themselves, their families, and their relationship to God — all relating to the quality life.

This past year the Board of Trustees sold 160 acres of land adjoining the main campus. This money was placed in the Endowment Fund and will continue to help children. The Board felt that more children would be helped by selling the land and investing the money. The Endowment Fund has continued to grow within the past few years. Many people have placed the home in their will.

In June the Board accepted the resignation of Maurice Caldwell, Executive Director. Mr. Caldwell will serve with the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention as a social worker missionary in Peru.

Mr. Johnny Biggs was employed as the new Executive Director. Mr. Biggs has been with the home since 1968 and has served as area director in Little Rock. Mr. Biggs' office will remain in the Baptist Building in Little Rock.

Mrs. Earlene Clearman has been employed as director of the Little Rock office.

Baptist Memorial Hospital Memphis, Tennessee

Frank S. Groner, Administrator

The year 1970 was significant in terms of the growth of services and facilities at Baptist Memorial Hospital. A new five-bed Hemodialysis Unit was opened to serve patients with kidney disease; fifty-one patient beds in the new Union East wing were opened for service; a school to train respiratory therapy technicians was opened; and parking facilities for the public and employees were expanded. With the closing of the Crippled Adults Hospital, the Lamar Unit of Baptist Hospital established a special outpatient clinic as part of a program designed to continue providing care for patients formerly served by the Crippled Adults Hospital.

The hospital's Engineering Department continued to pave the way for increased services through construction and renovation projects. A renovation and remodeling program for the Madison East Unit was begun with 25 beds being remodeled at a time. X-ray and laboratory facilities were developed in the Emergency Department. New locker facilities were developed for all service employees. In an effort to render better services, satellite pharmacies were installed throughout the hospital to serve approximately 300 beds each. As a part of a central kitchen renovation project, new automated dishwashing facilities were installed to clean the dishes resulting from approximately 4,000 patient meals being served each day.

Reverend Brooks Faulkner, consultant in Church Administration for the Baptist Sunday School Board, was the guest speaker during the hospital's Religious Emphasis Week. A new organization known as the Christian Students Association was formed in an effort to provide a program of interest for all the students of the hospital. Miss Catherine Holt, who worked as a secretary in the Personnel Department, left the hospital to teach in the Baptist Women's College in Abeonkuta, Nigeria, as part of the Journeyman Missionary Program of the Southern Baptist Convention.

A record number of students graduated from the hospital's many educational programs. Dr. Milford O. Rouse, past president of the American Medical Association, spoke at commencement exercises during which 41 student nurses graduated. The School for Medical Record Science developed an affiliation with Memphis State University.

The employees and medical staff of the hospital deserve special recognition, for in the final analysis they are the hospital. Dr. A. J. Ingram, chairman of the Orthopedic Department, was awarded Union University's Distinguished Service Award. Miss Catherine Sterling was selected as "Most Involved Nurse" in competition conducted by the Tennessee Nurses Association. Miss Sterling retired in 1970 after 37 years of service at Baptist Memorial Hospital. Dr. Fenwick Chappell, a charter member of the American College of Emergency Physicians, filled the newly created post of Emergency Department Medical Director. Mrs. Nina Basham, Director of Nursing Service, retired after 21 years in that position. The new Director of Nursing Service is Miss Elizabeth Farnell. Miss Farnell is a graduate of Baptist Hospital School of Nursing in New Orleans, Louisiana, and received her master's degree in Nursing Education and Administration from the University of Texas. One hundred twenty-four employees having employment anniversaries of five years or multiples thereof received pins in recognition of their service. The group represented 1,625 years of service to the hospital.

The hospital and its friends were saddened by the death of Mr. Hays Owen, Jr., who died on June 26, 1970, at age 47. Mr. Owen was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1954 and served as Chairman of the Executive Committee during 1964 and 1965. Mr. Owen was president of the Board of Trustees from 1966 until his death. Mr. Owen's unique qualities of leadership provided a standard which will serve as a benchmark for the future. Mr. Cameron Dean of Tribbett, Mississippi, first vice-president of the Board of Trustees, served as president of the Board until the annual meeting in December. At the annual meeting of the Board, Dr. Robert L. Orr, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Dyersburg, Tennessee, was elected to succeed Mr. Owen as president of the Board.

Continuing efforts are made to manage the hospital in the most efficient manner possible in keeping with good patient care. Recent Financial statistics published by the American Hospital Association indicated that Baptist Memorial Hospital had the lowest cost per patient day of any private hospital in the United States of 800 beds or more.

The following statistics give some indication of the breadth of the hospital's social ministry during 1970:

Number of beds	1,565
Number of bassinets	72
Pounds of laundry	7,157,468
Patient meals per day	3,726

Arkadelphia, Arkansas

Daniel R. Grant, President

The past year at Ouachita Baptist University was a good year, measured by almost any standard. It was a year of encouragement and excitement about the tremendous surge of support among Arkansas Baptist laymen and pastors for Christ-centered education at their senior university and their junior college. It was a year of new commitment and enthusiasm in the cause of strengthening Christian higher education, rather than of pessimism and fatalism about the problems many private colleges and universities are having.

Evidence of renewed confidence in the future of Ouachita is abundant on every hand, on the campus, in the Arkadelphia community, and throughout the state. In response to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention's decision in November of 1970 to approve a major fund-raising campaign for Christian higher education, a decision was made to conduct a "kick-off campaign" on the campus and in the Arkadelphia community during the months of April, May, and June, 1971. What better test can there be of Ouachita's future than the measure of support given by the "homefolks" — those who know Ouachita best?

Ouachita faculty, students, and all employees, worked for a goal of $50,000 under the able leadership of Dr. Ben Elrod, Vice President for Development. In just one month they pledged the amazing total of $79,000 (158% of the goal), to be paid over the next three years. Arkadelphia business leaders accepted a goal of $200,000 for Ouachita and in just two short months pledged $240,000 (120% of the goal). The total of $319,000 is undoubtedly the most money ever pledged by the Arkadelphia community in any campaign, and Arkansas Baptists can only be deeply gratified at this local vote of confidence and example of sacrificial support for one of their Baptist institutions.

The state-wide campaign, under the inspired leadership of Dr. W. O. Vaught, Jr., Dr. Rheubin South, and Mr. Alvin (Bo) Huffman was given a tremendous boost in the early summer of 1971 by the vote of Immanuel Baptist Church, Little Rock, to pledge $250,000 to the campaign. To give more details of this campaign would only duplicate information available elsewhere, but it cannot be stressed too much that the future of Ouachita Baptist University is inextricably bound up in the success of this campaign among the 1200 Baptist churches in Arkansas.

In the face of declining enrollment in many private colleges during 1970-71, Ouachita's enrollment turned upward, with more than 2,100 different students enrolled during the 12-month period, including graduate, undergraduate, and special students. Summer school enrollment in 1971 was the highest in history, 595 for the first term, including 72 graduate students and 206 workshop students. The 1971 fall enrollment of 1,375 included an increase in full-time students over last year, a larger freshman class, the largest entering music class in history, and the largest enrollment of graduate students in history. The number of special students decreased with Ouachita's withdrawal from off-campus centers at Camden and the Blytheville Air Force Base. From September 1, 1970 to August 31, 1971, 268 students were granted bachelor's degrees and 33 received master's degrees.

Christian objectives continue to be in the forefront of both classroom and extra-classroom activities at Ouachita: all students are required to take courses in Old and New Testament; chapel attendance is required of all students; Dr. John Drakeford gave the Ralph Smith lectures; Christian Focus Week featured a team of outstanding Christian laymen and theologians on the theme "Tell It All, Brothers and Sisters!"; noonday worship services were held each day in Berry Chapel; and a large number of "self-starting" groups of students interested in Christian witnessing presented programs of drama, music, preaching, mission action, and recreation in churches and communities all over the state as well as beyond the boundaries of Arkansas.

While quantitative measures are difficult to make concerning the spiritual achievement of an institution, many hundreds of decisions for Christ and personal commitments to church-related vocations are made every year as a direct result of the Ouachita students and faculty members who go out over the state every week to preach and lead in music, youth, and recreation programs of our churches. The opportunity of these students for regular fellowship with one another on the campus and the sharing of their learning experiences with a large number of other students who have the same commitment is an invaluable part of their spiritual encouragement and growth. During the year 1970-71 a total of 173 students were preparing for church related vocations, including ministerial students, foreign and home mission volunteers, and those planning careers in church education and music. In addition, an increasing number of lay students are working full time during the summer months as directors of youth activities in local churches.

The Ouachita campus is serving increasingly as a conference center for denominational groups, especially in the summer months, with faculty and students assisting in many of these.

Although the level of faculty salaries at Ouachita continues to be a serious problem in the recruiting of new faculty members and the retaining of old ones, the current – but probably temporary – "buyer's market" has eased this difficulty somewhat. Several excellent additions and replacements to the faculty have added to Ouachita's academic strength. Following the good news of Ouachita's continuation of accreditation by the North Central Association in 1970, specialized national accreditation examinations took place in the fields of music and teacher education in 1971. Examiners for the National Association of Schools of Music were highly complimentary of Ouachita's school of music and gave full accreditation to both undergraduate and graduate degree programs. The nine-member examining team from the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education gave a very glowing report on Ouachita's teacher-education program to its parent body in Washington. Their formal decision on continued accreditation for Ouachita will be made in the fall of 1971, but there is good reason for optimism concerning this decision. Arkansas Baptists can be very proud of the growth and accomplishments of Ouachita's teacher-education program and school of music.

Historic steps were taken early in 1971 that will have far-reaching effects on the physical development of the Ouachita campus. Campus planners were employed by the Board of Trustees to prepare a revised long-range campus development plan. At the time of this report the study is still in progress, but preliminary proposals point toward the constitution of an exciting new "mega-structure" in a U-shaped area at the juncture of the Ouachita River and the ravine. New buildings in this mega-structure to be made possible by the fund-raising campaign are a student center, a classroom-office building, and a music-fine arts complex. Attractive features in connection with the proposed student center are an overlook structure at the riverfront and a pedestrian bridge connecting the men's dormitory area to the student center. At a time when literally millions of federal and state tax dollars are building beautiful buildings on state college campuses in Arkansas, these proposed buildings will help make Ouachita an attractive place for our Baptist young people. Construction is expected to begin early in 1972.

Ouachita's budget for the fiscal year 1970-71 was $3,112,072, and is $3,300,000 for the year 1971-72. The Cooperative Program of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention continues to be the indispensable lifeline of support for Ouachita, with $472,380 coming from this source, including $78,124 from the capital needs portion of the Convention's budget. Arkansas Baptists again ranked seventh among all states in the Southern Baptist Convention territory in dollar support for its four-year college.

Without this kind of support Ouachita could not hope to remain a quality university dedicated to educational and Christian excellence. As this kind of support from Arkansas Baptists is sustained and strengthened, Ouachita will intensify its efforts in the critical battle for the hearts and minds of our young people.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST COLLEGE
Walnut Ridge, Arkansas 72476

H. E. Williams, President

Southern Baptist College, "The Campus of Christian Purpose" had one of her best thirty years during the 1970-71 session. A greater degree of spiritual maturity, academic excellence, and involvement was attained during this year, among the 1326 students, on the Walnut Ridge campus, at the Blytheville AFB Resident Center, and the extension centers at Piggott, and Senath, Missouri.

The administration, faculty, and student body are ever conscious of the spiritual emphasis and Christian philosophy of Southern Baptist College. The weekly chapel hour of the entire college family is religiously oriented. Student activity promotional assemblies are held in addition to these Wednesday assemblies in order to entirely give spiritual emphasis to the Wednesday assemblies.

The influence of all of the religious organizations on the campus is greatly felt by the entire college community and surrounding area as these groups witness and minister on the campus and off-campus. These groups are the Ministerial Alliance, The Baptist Student Union, The Baptist Young Women, and The Helpmates, which is an organization of the wives of ministerial students. These groups and the dedicated faculty lead hundreds to Christ yearly. Each year, many students are saved and join Baptist churches. The college is definitely Baptist and positively Christian in attitude and action.

Many churches have been organized, and more than 70,000 members have been added to Baptist churches in the area served by Southern Baptist College during her 30 years of service. Recently a poll revealed one third of the pastors of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention to be former students of Southern Baptist College.

Many former students are now serving Christ and Southern Baptists in foreign mission fields. President Williams has stated that the "sun never sets on all of Southern's sons and daughters at the same time because they are spread all around the world on the many mission fields.”

The administration and faculty are conscious of a continuing and increasing degree of academic excellence as the students grow and develop during their two years at Southern. Each year a greater number continue to do well academically in other educational institutions as they finish their senior college work. More and more Southern students are entering graduate schools for higher degrees yearly. Former Southern students, who have earned graduate degrees, are now teaching in senior Baptist colleges and leading state universities.

The academic growth, development, and excellence of Southern Baptist College from her humble beginning in 1941 with her small, but dedicated faculty and student body, to full North Central accreditation in 1963, to her large body of effective, Christian, professional academicians of today is truly a marvelous work of the grace of God, to Whom we shall ever give thanks.

Southern Baptist College is student centered. This has been her emphasis during her thirty years of service. This is evidenced by the rapport between faculty and students, by small classes, capable and concerned counselors, by personal relationships of faculty and students during the two years of the student on the campus and even after he leaves the campus. Personal help is given to meet all needs of the student which arise. These needs could be spiritual, personal, social, financial, or academic.

Hundreds of students have testified that it was the personal interest of administration and faculty which was the turning point in their academic life. Southern's administration and faculty have been and shall continue to be personally involved in the lives of their students as the need arises. God forbid that we should ever lose the image of personal involvement.

The size of the student body and Christian philosophy encourages personal rapport, relationships and involvement. The student body is large enough to meet the needs of the students and small enough to enable personal contact.

Southern Baptist College wishes to thank each of you for your support of Christian education through the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Continue to pray, to give, to recruit students for Southern. Very prayerfully and conscientiously consider your sacred stewardship as you give to Cooperative Program this year, and to the Ouachita-Southern campaigns in 1972 and 1973.

May the serious consideration of our “Over and Above” giving to these three great “kingdom enterprises” cause each of us to have a great sense of re-dedication to the will of God as we are early in a new decade, the 70's, preparing students to live in the world of the 80's.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST HISTORY COMMISSION

George T. Blackmon, Executive Secretary

I. ORGANIZATION

The History Commission was set up by a resolution in the 1960 annual session of the convention to replace the Baptist Historical Society of Arkansas. It is composed of nine (9) members, one from each of the eight (8) districts and a member-at-large as chairman. The convention elects each member to a three (3) year term; one third rotate off each year. At its 1965 annual session, the convention elected Dr. George T. Blackmon executive secretary to an indefinite term.

II. HOLDINGS

Its holdings now are over 350 reels of positive microfilm of minutes, periodicals, and histories of local churches, associations, and state organizations of eleven (11) different denominations of Baptists in Arkansas. Over forty (40) reels have been added since the last annual session. Ten (10) reels of Baptist papers in Arkansas before 1860 and twenty (20) reels of the Comper papers have been added.

III. PROJECTS

This year, more than any other, the files have been source materials for people preparing biographies, church histories, association histories, and other items of research.

The Commission has continued to search out minutes of old churches and of associations of Baptists in Arkansas for microfilming.

It has increased its microfilm files of the General Baptists to the largest and most complete single file anywhere by combining by loans several private files.

Another cooperative project by the Commission and Riley Library is the binding of materials. When a sufficient quantity of consecutive annual copies of a given organization is obtained by gifts to warrant, the library has it bound. This project now comprises over 250 volumes, over one hundred were added this year. The Commission sincerely requests every Baptist, church, association, or other organization to aid in this project of conserving Baptist history by gifts of all duplicate materials one may have.

Membership in the Southern Baptist History Society is five dollars ($5) per year. Fees and applications should be mailed to Dr. Lynn May, Executive Secretary, 127 Ninth Avenue, North, Nashville, Tennessee 37303.

BAPTIST BOOK STORE
408 Spring Street
Little Rock, Arkansas 72201

Robert H. Bauman, Manager

Over a period of four decades Southern Baptists have come to rely on their local Baptist Book Store as the answer to their needs for good books, Bibles, sacred music, church supplies, audio visuals, teaching aids, and materials of a general inspirational nature.

With age has come confidence in knowing that Baptist Book Stores were designed originally to answer the needs of a growing, pulsating denomination, providing for the membership and the physical requirements of the open-country church as well as the large city church. The original idea is still prevalent today, and, although Baptist Book Stores often serve the general public and various other denominational groups the largest group served continues to be Southern Baptists.

The Baptist Book Store is at your service . . . constantly striving to improve ways of service to you, supplying you with the materials and methods that will help you best, and providing a Christian witness in each locality served.

In order to fulfill this purpose and render this service there is invested $57,400 in leasehold improvements and $29,590 in furniture and fixtures. An average inventory of $110,000 has been maintained throughout the year.

There are fifteen dedicated employees ready to serve you. They are grateful for the opportunity and for their part in the over-all effort of Southern Baptists as they seek to carry out the Great Commission of our Lord.

The type of service which has always been the aim of Baptist Book Stores is now embodied verbally in the slogan — "Service With A Christian Distinction."

CHRISTIAN CIVIC FOUNDATION OF ARKANSAS, INC.

301 Waldon Building, Little Rock, Arkansas 72201

W. Henry Goodloe, Executive Director

Local option elections held during the 1970 General Election placed Stone County as the 44th dry county in Arkansas, and again kept Baxter County in the dry column.

The Marion County court case testing the constitutionality of Act 132 is still pending, and no specific date can be determined at this time when the case will be decided.

The 1971 Regular Session of the Arkansas General Assembly, January 11-March 12, was a busy and generally fruitful session. The Executive Director was present for each daily session and our trusted Legislative Assistant, Reverend Roy H. Galyean, was retained for strategic appearances as limited funds would permit. The most significant action of concern to the temperance cause was the repeal of the so-called Fair Trade Liquor Law.

Possible legislative action for which we need to be alert may involve (a) lowering the legal drinking age to 18, (b) reducing the tax on mixed drinks and further liberalizing the provisions of the mixed drink laws, (c) proposing a state lottery to raise revenues, and (d) trying, again, for legalization of casino type gambling.

During the 1970-71 school year, the Alcohol-Narcotics Education Program was conducted in 110 schools, reaching over 60,000 students. Eighty-three scheduled appearances have already been confirmed for the 1971-72 school year, which is twenty-one more than for the same period last year.

Requests are constantly coming to our office for alcohol and narcotics education films and other drug and alcohol literature. Teenagers over the state continue to be the largest group requesting information and help. Through the generosity of individuals within the Executive Committee, the new drug and alcohol film, "A Crutch For All Seasons," has been purchased and is also in constant circulation.

Present members of the Executive Committee are as follows:

- President — Mrs. R. E. Snider
- First Vice-President — Rev. David P. Conyers
- Second Vice-President — Rev. Carter Rogers
- Third Vice-President — Mrs. Payton Kolb
- Secretary — Mr. Dale Ward
- Treasurer — Rev. Don Hook
- Executive Director — Dr. W. Henry Goodloe

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

In this first year of a new decade when Southern Baptists are re-examining the Spirit of Christ, the American Bible Society's statement of purpose takes on new meaning and significance. In the words of ABS General Secretary Laton E. Holmgren: "The sole purpose of all Bible Society activity is — and always has been — to provide men, in intelligible and convincing speech, with the record of the 'wonderful works of God.' . . . It is this concern for the redemption of the world — for the whole life of the whole man in the whole world — that permeates the work and witness of all those concerned with the Bible Society movement. . . . If possible every man on earth must be told of the Savior in his own tongue and given the opportunity to surrender his life to Him. This can only be done if we 'press with vigor on.'"

Today we are living in an Age of Revolution, and, as such, this purpose must be our primary goal. The challenge of an "age of revolution" calls for nothing less than our fullest devotion and obedience to this divine imperative. An unprecedented challenge faces the churches today to reach mankind with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This is due not only to the rapidly increasing population but also to the rising rate of literacy. Each year adds approximately 70 million new adult readers.

The American Bible Society is profoundly aware of the need not only to keep up with the normal increase in demand for the written Word of God but also to anticipate perceptively the conditions and circumstances within which people will be living in this decade of the Seventies.

In the Bible Society, as well as in the church, we note with deepened concern the moral and spiritual decline of the burgeoning population, the increased threat of starvation in many parts of the world, and the dramatic potential of modern technology for man's destruction as well as for his prolonged life on earth. All of these factors make imperative an increased sensitivity of human conscience to injustice, inequities among men and the ever-present threat to peace and goodwill among all people.

DISTRIBUTION

During the past year the American Bible Society distributed almost 100 million Scriptures throughout the United States (99,595,465 Bibles, Testaments, Portions and Selections), an increase of 30.7% over 1969. This is an all time record, and reflects the continued growth and interest in use of the Scriptures both within and outside the church. Particularly significant in 1970's distribution pattern was the large increase in the number of Selections circulated. By using these door openers to God's Word, it is possible for the Society to increase greatly the number of people it reaches, since the Selections are much smaller and less expensive to produce than New Testaments or complete Bibles. These Scripture Selections can also pinpoint the needs of individuals in the situations of life in which they find themselves, with a view to assisting the reader in seeing the Scriptures as relevant to his personal circumstances. Two major distributions took place in South Carolina and Arizona. An attempt was made to reach every home with a New Testament or a packet of specially designed Selections (passages shorter than a Book of the Bible). In addition to the distribution program in the United States, the American Bible Society is part of a fellowship of 49 Bible Societies around the world at work in 158 countries and territories. The world distribution of these Societies totaled 173 million, equivalent to one copy for every 21 persons in the world.

SCRIPTURE TRANSLATION

Scripture distribution, however, is only one part of the Bible Society story. In many nations today man is overwhelmed by the amount and variety of literature available to him, much of it seeking to distort or pollute his dignity. The printed Word of God can compete in such an atmosphere only if it is presented in translations men can read and easily understand, and in formats that will impel their attention. Since 1966, when the Bible Society translation of the New Testament first appeared in Popular Spanish and Today's English, the Word of God has been capturing men's minds in rapidly rising numbers — so much so that similar common or popular language translations are now being produced in English, French, Spanish, Portuguese, Thai, Taiwanese, Japanese, and five languages of the Philippines.

During 1970 the ABS aided in providing technical assistance to more than 3,000 translators working in more than 800 languages and dialects. Translators' institutes were held in Cameroon, Costa Rica, Hungary, Iran, the Philippines, South Africa, Taiwan, and Upper Volta. At the close of 1970 at least one Book of the Bible had been translated in 1,431 languages and dialects — complete Bibles, 244; New Testaments, 329; and Portions, 853.

"GOOD NEWS FOR MODERN MAN"

Special mention should be made of this New Testament translation by the American Bible Society in Today's English Version. First published in September, 1966, more than 26 million copies have been distributed, and Southern Baptists have made extensive use of this translation.

"THE PSALMS FOR MODERN MAN"

This is the first Book of the Old Testament in Today's English Version, and was available to the public on December 1, 1970. This translation has been made in free verse, and the translators have tried to put the Psalms in easy flowing, rhythmical lines that can be effective in public worship as well as in private devotion. The line drawings were especially prepared to accompany the text.

THE BOOK OF JOB

This will be the next Book of the Old Testament published in Today's English Version, and will be available in the fall of 1971 in time for Southern Baptists' January Bible Study in 1972.

MINISTRY TO BLIND

Each year the Society continues to build its service to more than 400,000 blind people in the United States. In 1970 a total of 548,345 Scriptures in special formats (Braille, records, tapes), were provided for the blind, a 45.8% increase over 1969. The Society marked its 135th Anniversary to the blind in 1970. The entire New Testament is now available on 15 tape cassettes in Today's English Version and King James Version in an attractive album. Individual Books are also available.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS SUPPORT THE WORK

Southern Baptists consider the American Bible Society an essential part of their own worldwide mission program and believe in the missionary importance of giving to the American Bible Society.

Resolutions commending the work of the Society and requesting the churches to contribute to its support have been adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention. The American Bible Society is worthy of the support of Arkansas Baptists and we encourage the churches to support its ministry.

Through gifts to the American Bible Society, Southern Baptist churches have shown their deep and continued interest in providing the Word of God for every man in his own language. Here is the record for recent years.

1966	$233,896	1969	$232,765
1967	$218,509	1970	$233,185

The 1970 gifts from Southern Baptist churches, totaling $233,185 stood first among all denominations. Gifts to the American Bible Society from all churches in the United States totaled $1,413,045.

Although Southern Baptists stand first in total gifts, the per capita gift from more than 11.6 million members is only a little more than 2 cents per year.

Southern Baptists can lead, even in per capita gifts if every church will give. The help of each Southern Baptist church is needed. Has your church given this year? Here are suggestions, based on what many churches are doing:

Smaller churches	$10 to $60
Larger Churches	$60 to $300
Greater city churches	$300 to $600 or more

Please send the gifts from your church to your Baptist state office, marked "for the American Bible Society".

ANNUITY BOARD

Southern Baptist Convention
Dallas, Texas

R. Alton Reed, Executive Secretary

(January – June, 1971)

A dream came true at the Annuity Board in 1971! For the first time in its 53 year history, the Board is able to place in the hands of Southern Baptist Protection program members a personalized statement, showing their benefits and coverage in the retirement and insurance programs.

The Statements of Member's Accounts report total payments credited to the member in 1970. They also provide two estimates of annual retirement benefit at age 65. One estimate computes the benefit should the member make no further payments; the second computes the benefit if the member continues to make payments as he did during 1970.

Pastors, church staff members and denominational employes in several states received their copies of the Statement early in the year. Others were able to secure theirs in June at the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in St. Louis.

There are 24,756 employes of Baptist churches and agencies actively participating in the Board's basic Plan A. Active members in the supplemental Plan B number 11,690, and there are 4,276 in the variable Plan C. These members represent 18,583 churches and associations and 195 agencies in 33 states.

In 1971, $4.8 million have been paid in benefits by the Board. In 53½ years the total benefits paid have amounted to $86.9 million.

Age retirement, disability, widow, child, education and variable benefit recipients number 7,183. There are 422 persons receiving relief grants which amounted to $68,869 during the first six months of 1971.

Persons actively participating in the Board's life insurance and disability income protection plans number 23,430. A total of 21,949 persons enrolled in the health insurance plans.

Death claims paid for 67 members during the year amounted to $799,416.12. There have been 22 disability claims requiring $30,895.33.

Arkansas State Convention Report

There are 579 churches and associations with 679 employees currently participating in the Southern Baptist Protection Program. In this state convention, the number of new members enrolled in Plan A during the first six months of 1971 is 22. There are 4 state Baptist agencies in the program which include:

Arkansas Baptist Convention
Arkansas Baptist Home For Children
Ouachita Baptist University

FOREIGN MISSION BOARD

Southern Baptist Convention
Richmond, Virginia

Baker J. Cauthen, Executive Secretary

Missionary Support

The sending out and maintaining of missionaries is primary in Southern Baptist overseas missions through the channel of the Foreign Mission Board. At the close of 1970 the Board had an overseas missionary staff of 2,501. This included 165 missionary associates, 4 special project medical personnel, and 121 missionary journeymen. Appointments during the year totaled 182 (92 career, 18 associates, 64 journeymen, 1 special project medical couple, and 6 career reappointments). Between January and May, 1971, 35 more were added.

Hundreds of calls for reinforcements in personnel have come from Missions (organizations of Southern Baptist missionaries) and national conventions in dozens of countries. Some requests, repeated from previous years and still urgent, are yet unfilled.

On May 1, 1971, Southern Baptist missionaries were under appointment to 76 geographical or political entities.* New fields added in 1970 were Laos, Mozambique, Surinam, and Upper Volta. A couple was assigned to Barbados on an exploratory basis. On the date of this printing, missionaries assigned to Upper Volta were in language school in France, and those appointed for Mozambique were awaiting visas.

*Angola, Argentina, Austria, Bahamas, Barbados, Belgium, Bermuda, Botswana, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Dahomey, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Egypt (U.A.R.), Ethiopia, France, French West Indies, Gaza, Germany, Ghana, Guam, Guatemala, Guyana, Honduras, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Iran, Israel, Italy, Ivory Coast, Jamaica, Japan, Jordan, Kenya, Korea, Laos, Lebanon, Leeward Islands, Liberia, Libya, Macao, Malawi, Malaysia, Mexico, Morocco, Mozambique, Nigeria, Okinawa, Pakistan, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines, Portugal, Rhodesia, Senegal, Singapore, South West Africa, Spain, Surinam, Switzerland (Baptist Center), Taiwan, Tanzania, Thailand, Togo, Trinidad, Turkey, Uganda, Upper Volta, Uruguay, Venezuela, Vietnam, Yemen, and Zambia. (Work in Libya and Turkey is with an English-language Baptist church in each country.)

Evangelism and Church Development

Underlying all our missionary endeavors is the ultimate purpose of leading people to new life in Jesus Christ and the cultivation of New Testament churches. Organized churches with which Southern Baptist missionaries are related on mission fields now total 5,853, of which 75 percent are self-supporting. Work and accomplishments reported are largely those of national churches, leaders, and conventions, with the assistance of missionary co-workers and resources from Southern Baptists.

The program of evangelism and church development includes many types of ministry: radio and television, English-language churches, lay-leadership training, stewardship promotion, camps and conferences, work with women, men, and youth; music, and religious education.

During the year, large-scale evangelistic efforts centered in Asia (in relation to the meeting of the Baptist World Congress in Tokyo) and in Central and East Africa. Other areas carried on less extensive projects.

The number of Baptist radio and television programs increased, and special communications workshops were held in several areas during the year. Radio work in Angola was launched in 1970.

Schools and Student Work

The training of national leaders is a prerequisite to strong indigenous churches. Educational institutions under Baptist auspices in various lands may include all levels from kindergarten through university. Of special importance is the development of pastors and other church leaders through theological schools and in programs below the full seminary level.

In 1970 a theological institute was opened in Venezuela; the Mindanao Baptist Bible School in the Philippines moved to a new campus; a lay-preacher training program was initiated in Indonesia; and a pastor's school in France was reopened. The Arab Baptist Theological Seminary in Lebanon added a summer school for pastors.

New programs in student work were started in France, in Vietnam, and in Taiwan. Student center buildings were added in the Philippines and Zambia.

Publication Work

Publication ministries are an integral part of Southern Baptist overseas missions, as all kinds of Christian literature are provided for purposes of evangelism and the developing of vigorous church life. Our missionaries are related to publishing centers in 24 lands and to informal literature production programs in a number of other countries. They assisted in producing over 27 million pieces of literature: tracts, books, periodicals, Bibles, hymnals, and other items.

The most remarkable expansion of publishing efforts took place in the development and outreach of correspondence courses. Enrolment in the Bible Way Correspondence School in Zambia reached 15,000 by the end of 1970. Correspondence courses also enrolled 2,000 persons in India and 3,500 in Pakistan.

Hospitals and Medical Care

The program of hospitals and medical care serves the physical needs of thousands of people who would otherwise be neglected and often opens strategic doors for evangelistic witness. During 1970, missionaries and national workers engaged in this ministry treated more than 51,000 inpatients and saw nearly 930,000 outpatients.

Critical personnel needs continue throughout Nigeria and in Indonesia, and to a lesser extent in other lands. The hospital in Ghana expanded its facilities in 1970, and a dental center in eastern Nigeria was reopened. Special progress was noted in less formal medical clinics and dispensaries in several countries. Clinics in India were seeing 3,000 patients a month, and those in the Dominican Republic were ministering to nearly 10,000 people per month.

Benevolent Ministries

Benevolent ministries include agricultural programs, good will and community centers, children's homes, and direct relief work. During 1970 the Foreign Mission Board provided funds for emergency and recurring relief in several countries. Assistance was continued for Nigeria, to relieve suffering and the severe malnutrition problem caused by the recent civil war there. Vietnam was another area with continuing pressing needs for direct relief.

Relief aid was given in areas suffering from natural disaster — East Pakistan, Peru, the Philippines, and Brazil — where drought, typhoon, earthquake, or flood resulted in great human distress. In Brazil, following the floods, a small furniture factory was opened to provide replacement furniture and also employment opportunity.

Agricultural work was expanded through the development of a Baptist Rural Life Center in the Philippines, the securing of property for a demonstration farm in Pakistan, and local agricultural projects on several mission stations in Liberia.

Good will and community centers in 17 countries reached people in varied ways: literacy classes, home-making courses, Bible study clubs, recreation programs, and evangelistic services. The children's homes maintained by Baptists in mission lands cared for nearly 1,200 boys and girls last year.

Contributions

At the end of 1970, Southern Baptists' contributions for foreign missions totaled $31,503,218 (a per capita gift of $2.71, one cent more than in 1969). The 1970 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering had reached a total of $16,220,105 by May 1, 1971.

Approximately 50 percent of the Southern Baptist Convention Cooperative Program funds are made available annually for foreign missions. This is the basis upon which sustained advance can be built. Still needed urgently on overseas fields are land, buildings, and equipment, amounting to several million dollars' worth.

HOME MISSION BOARD

Southern Baptist Convention
Atlanta, Georgia

Arthur B. Rutledge, Executive Secretary-Treasurer

An extensive restructuring of the staff of the Home Mission Board climaxed the year 1970. The plan is to strengthen and expand the Board's efforts to assist churches in missions and evangelism.

Three sections were formed: Planning and Coordination, Program Implementation, and Program Services. Within the Planning and Coordination Section, there are four regional coordinators who will work with state conventions in budget and mission planning.

A Personnel Division was created, composed of the Missionary Personnel Department, plus the offices of Personnel Development and Office Personnel Services. This division takes on the added function of including counseling services for missionaries.

Missionaries Number 2,222

At the close of 1970, there were 2,222 home missionaries which is thirteen less than 1969. This reduction was caused by the rising cost of living and a slowdown in giving. Executive Secretary Arthur B. Rutledge said, "This meant some mission opportunities could not be taken, particularly in the newer areas of the Convention. Reports from the field tell of many exciting and fruitful accomplishments."

Of these missionaries, approximately two-thirds are supported jointly with state conventions and serve in the fifty states, Puerto Rico, and Panama.

Evangelism Develops Lay Materials

A training plan was put into operation for lay evangelism, including materials, spiritual preparation, and training which prepares laymen in sharing their faith. Many key cities will have training in lay witnessing in 1971.

The division also has projected plans for use of television in the presentation of the Christian faith and the addition of a staff member for youth evangelism in high schools.

942 Chaplains Serve

Southern Baptist ministers served as chaplains in the military, hospitals, institutions, and industry. There were 617 on active duty with the military and 325 in other positions, in addition to 701 part-time chaplains. These ministers reported 11,086 professions of faith and 850 units of work started, such as new worship services, Bible classes or Sunday Schools.

Church Loans Assist 126

Church loans were made for 126 churches for $3,926,871 and 81 other loans for more than $4,000,000 were committed. High interest rates and tight money affected this ministry during the year.

New Churches Started

About 350 new churches and church-type missions were established in 1970. Concerns for starting new work have been incorporated into SBC planning processes for the future.

“Extend Now,” a method for starting new churches, is being promoted to make use of small group Bible study, community events, and scheduling of regular meetings. The plans will aid in ministering, witnessing, and starting new churches.

Church growth in pioneer areas increased twenty-five percent over the previous year as about 300 new churches and 900 home-type fellowships were established. Baptismal ratio in these states was one new convert to four church members. New conventions were organized for Pennsylvania-South Jersey and for West Virginia. The Baptist Convention of New York began functioning January 1, 1970.

Language Missions Grows

Language missions for Southern Baptists includes 1,032 missionaries in 41 states, the District of Columbia, Cuba, Panama, and Puerto Rico. New work was begun with Japanese and Filipino people in Hawaii and with Spanish-speaking people in New Orleans. Anglo and language churches are sponsoring missions with language groups in their areas. The work in Cuba continues in spite of hardships with an increase in baptisms over the previous year.

Community Ministries

The Home Mission Board objective is used in this ministry program. Bringing men to God through Jesus Christ was practiced as workers reported 3,126 professions of faith. During the year, 35 new works were started among disadvantaged people in 15 cities, and 500 churches and Baptist centers were assisted in the development of church community weekday ministries.

Interfaith Witness

The name for the Department of Work with Nonevangelicals was changed to Interfaith Witness. The new name was selected to strengthen and give a broader, more definite title. The department produced and distributed pamphlets to assist churches to witness to those of non-evangelical beliefs. In one church, there were 47 and in one association, there were 318 of other sects baptized last year.

Summer Missions Expand

Student summer missions personnel reached a new high of 940, sponsored by the Board and by BSU (202). These workers reported 6,645 professions of faith. Approximately 846 are expected to serve as student summer missionaries in 1971.

Cooperative Program

The “Cooperative Program Travel Guide” was produced and distributed by the Home Mission Board to state and Southern Baptist Convention leaders. Concern and information were emphasized for people who wanted to visit these mission places, most of which are supported through the Cooperative Program.

Scriptures

Missionaries reported people saved and led to use the Word of God to witness because of extensive distribution of Scriptures. The Division of Communication operated the distribution project in cooperation with the American Bible Society. The Scriptures were paid for by the ones ordering them or by unsolicited donations. Hundreds of Scriptures were sent free because, through the plan with the American Bible Society and some volunteer donations, almost $15,000 was made available for the sending of free Scriptures.

Motion Pictures

Two motion pictures produced in cooperation with Broadman Films have been used extensively to help churches in their work. What Is the Church has had a record distribution and letters from church leaders indicate the film has been very valuable in helping the church see what it should do to be the church. The City – Where the Action Is presents realistically the opportunities of churches in our growing cities.

“The Home Mission Board gave increasing attention to its efforts to assist the churches in carrying out our objective of winning Our Land for Christ.

The Board will give a major emphasis to a full commitment by every Southern Baptist in missions and evangelism.” – Arthur B. Rutledge.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Southern Baptist Convention
Nashville, Tennessee 37203

James L. Sullivan, Executive Secretary-Treasurer

The Sunday School Board has faced the challenge of the 70's with emphasis on evangelism and soul winning. WIN materials, prepared by the church training department, have been designed to aid the local church in its task of winning men to Christ. The Sunday School department has thrust forth a new emphasis in its People-to-People program, another emphasis on growing Sunday Schools and winning people through an evangelistic outreach emphasis.

Established by the trustees of the Sunday School Board on August 13, 1970, and put into operation on October 1, 1971, the Church Services and Materials Division is part of an overall reorganization of the board. Allen B. Comish came from the pastorate to accept the responsibility of director of this division.

Four other divisions were established through the board's reorganization by action of the trustees of the board. These are the Assembly Division, Book Division, Management Services Division, and Broadman Division.

Three groups are included in the Church Services and Materials Division: church program organizations group, church program services group, and the central support group. National student ministries is an entity in the church services and materials division.

The Sunday School department, church training department, and church music department are included under the church program organizations group. Four other departments – church architecture, church administration, church library, and church administration are included in the church program services group. Included under the central support group are the art services department, material services department, promotional materials department, and research services department.

Glorieta Baptist Assembly in New Mexico and Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly in North Carolina are included in the Assembly Division. The Book Store Division includes the advertising and sales promotion department, campus stores department, central stores department, eastern stores department, and western stores department.

Four other departments are included under the Broadman Division: Broadman products department, Broadman consumer sales department, Broadman trade sales department, and Broadman marketing services department.

Included under the Management Services Division are the systems department, property management department, procurement department, manpower development department, Dargan-Carver Library department, administrative services department, and the accounting and control department.

The new organization was established in order that the board might better serve the needs of the churches of the Southern Baptist Convention.

In an effort to bring into being a worthy Bible commentary designed for pastors and serious lay students, the board began publication of the Broadman Bible Commentary. Preliminary planning was done in 1967 by an advisory group of pastors, professors, state paper editors, executive secretaries, representatives from Broadman Press, and other Southern Baptists. The first two volumes were released in September, 1969.

Southern Baptists voted in the business session of the Southern Baptist Convention in Denver in June, 1970, to request the Sunday School Board to withdraw Volume I of the commentary from further distribution and that it be rewritten with due consideration to the conservative viewpoint, referring the matter to the elected trustees, consisting of laymen and pastors from Southern Baptist churches.

The Sunday School Board complied with the convention request. The elected trustees voted to have the commentary withdrawn during their first meeting on August 12, 1970.

No specific dates had been set by the convention as to when the rewriting of Volume I was to be done. Honest questions arose: Can a person rewrite a volume that he had not previously written? If another man wrote the volume, is it not a different volume? Copyright questions were also brought up. The board agreed to follow the convention request to the letter, and began to explore with the writers of the comments on Genesis and Exodus the possibility of their rewriting their sections. Before this arrangement could be completed a motion was passed at the 1971 Southern Baptist Convention in St. Louis stating that the board had not carried out the 1970 motion and further instructing the board to find a new writer for Volume I.

Again the board complied with the motion. On June 9, 1971, the board halted action on rewriting the commentary. After much discussion, the elected trustees asked the administration of the Sunday School Board to seek to secure a new writer for the commentary on the text of Genesis. This has been done. The new writer will be Clyde T. Francisco, John R. Sampey professor of Old Testament Interpretation at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

This brief report can deal only with the most significant major situations in the ministry of the board. Its trustees, administration, and workers continue their commitment to meet the needs and wants of Southern Baptist churches in reaching out to the lost with a saving faith, and in educational programs to lift Christians to Christlike maturity.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMISSION

Southern Baptist Convention
Nashville, Tennessee 37219

Foy Valentine, Executive Secretary

The Christian Life Commission's emphasis on applied Christianity is finding good acceptance among Southern Baptists. In the associations, state conventions, and various Southern Baptist Convention agencies, there is a growing commitment to Christian action. The response of local churches has been especially encouraging.

During the past year, numerous articles and stories on applied Christianity were channeled by the Commission through practically all of the state Baptist papers, Southern Baptist Convention agency publications, and other mass media outlets. The Commission's literature program has been substantially strengthened by ten new "Issues and Answers" pamphlets covering the subjects of aging, capital punishment, consumer credit, generation gap, open housing, pollution, population explosion, revolution, sex education, and taxation. The Commission now has some 70 tracts in print and available for helping churches emphasize the practical dimensions of the Christian faith. A complete and illustrated order form is available upon request.

The Christian Life Commission's conference program has developed especially well during the past year. The largest national seminar ever sponsored by the Commission was held in New York in March on "National Priorities and Christian Responsibility" with more than 400 in attendance. Three of the addresses from the conference were carried nationally on the National Broadcasting Company's "Faith in Action" program. All the addresses have been printed in booklet form and are available from the Commission for $2.50 as a study resource. Four regional conferences scheduled for 1971 have proven to be a new and helpful way of getting the Commission's emphasis on applied Christianity out to a wider audience than ever before.

A new approach to providing pastors and other church leaders with resource materials on the pressing moral issues of our times has been utilized this year. Three carefully researched resource papers on pollution, urban crisis, and drugs have been printed and inserted in Home Missions magazine, and others are projected for the future.

In response to the need for guidance in Christian sex education, the staff of the Christian Life Commission has worked with the Church Training Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board to prepare Christian Sex Education: A Resource Packet. This material, available in the Baptist Book Stores, can be used by pastors and church leaders in developing responsible teaching about sexuality in the home and the church. The packet contains a basic booklet with a theology of sexuality plus a variety of reprints, pamphlets, and bibliographies to be used in Christian sex education.

The Christian Life Commission has also focused on drug education by developing for the Seminary Extension Department an Independent Reading Program for pastors entitled Programs Pastors Face: Helping People with Drug Problems. This program is designed to give pastors basic factual information about drugs plus a Christian critique of drug abuse. It also suggests resources for helping people who have drug problems.

The Christian Life Commission's objective is to help develop the kind of Christian morality, both private and public, which undergirds the total Southern Baptist witness for Jesus Christ. God is calling Southern Baptists to act responsibly in all phases of life, permeating the community as the salt of the earth and the light of the world. In response to this calling from God, the Christian Life Commission is dedicated to emphasizing the application of the Christian faith in the world.

EDUCATION COMMISSION

Southern Baptist Convention
Nashville, Tennessee

Ben C. Fisher, Executive Secretary-Treasurer

The year of 1970 was a year of transition for the Education Commission. After eleven years of service Rabun L. Brantley retired on September 30 and was succeeded by Ben C. Fisher.

In June of 1970 a special self-study committee of the Education Commission made its final report. This two-year study resulted in a careful examination of all existing programs and the recommendation of new services and emphases for the Commission.

The self-study committee concluded that the basis for the continuation of our Baptist witness in higher education includes a determination on the part of the individual institutions to live within stated Christian purposes, the willingness of these institutions to serve the denomination in vital relationships and the willingness (even while limiting enrollments and expansion of facilities) to strive constantly for academic excellence.

In addition to the traditional services which our Baptist colleges render to our denomination and to our people, these institutions have given strong moral leadership in an age of moral decline. They have refused to bow to the popular dictum that a college has no responsibility for student conduct. They have refused to allow radical minorities, either in the student body or faculty, to take over or disrupt the orderly process of instruction. While championing academic freedom and the right to peaceful assembly, Baptist colleges have not allowed the substitution of violence for the power of persuasion nor permitted anarchy in the guise of dissent or civil disobedience. To this extent they have served not only their denomination but they have served all of higher education in this country.

The Baptist Education Study Task identified as a major problem that of denominational relations and communications. The current crisis in higher education has caused our educational institutions to realize more fully the importance of Baptist support and opportunity to assert their uniqueness particularly in statement of Christian purpose and commitment.

Church-related colleges are the last live option for post-high school training in a Christian atmosphere. At these colleges Christian codes of conduct are expected and these expectations are stated in writing. Christian standards are never more perfectly achieved on the campus than they are in the local church. However, the witness is present in both precept and example.

Christian colleges continue to make a vital contribution in both the training of church-related vocational workers and lay leadership.

Institutional Changes. — Presidential changes for the past year were: James R. Staples assumed the presidency of California Baptist College; N. H. McCrummen was elected president of Judson College, replacing acting president Fleetwood Carnley; Grady C. Cothen resigned from the presidency of Oklahoma Baptist University to become president of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary; Robert L. Lynn is serving as interim president at Oklahoma Baptist University; John E. Johns who had been serving as acting president of Stetson University assumed the presidency; Thomas S. Field was named president of William Jewell College; L. A. Foster retired as president of Missouri Baptist College — Hannibal-LaGrange-St. Louis campuses — and has been succeeded by Frank B. Kellogg; Harold E. Lindsey now heads North Greenville Junior College; Joseph H. Cosby retired as president of Hargrave Military Academy and Vernon T. Lankford assumed the presidency; Hubert B. Smothers has assumed the presidency of Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy. Valley Baptist Academy, Harlingen, Texas, H. E. Gary, president, has been added to the list of institutions.

Enrollment and Support. — During the past year state conventions and the Southern Baptist Convention gifts to the schools totaled $21,722,922, or a decline of $3,395,213. Of this amount $18,118,787 was for operations, $3,551,385 for capital needs, and Oklahoma Baptist University received $52,750 from the state convention as an addition to their endowment fund.

Donations, gifts and grants for the year amounted to $15,047,553. The total assets of the schools reached an all-time high of $723,601,269. The endowment funds increased by $12,284,512, making the endowment total for the schools $211,958,139.

The schools had a total enrollment for the year of 108,606. For the same period 15,900 graduated from the schools. The libraries now have 5,223,589 volumes.

Church-Related Vocations. — Volunteers for church-related vocations totaled 14,219 for the year. This is a slight decline of 321 over the past year. No doubt this is due to some schools reporting only their ministerial students.

A comparison for the last two years follows:

PROGRAM REPORT

1. The Program of Christian Education Leadership and Coordination.

The following represent major program accomplishments for 1970: completed two-year long-range self-study; new programs developed; reevaluated Baptist Education Study Task and developed plans for further implementation; worked with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in resolving problems of accreditation related to Baptist policy; established new policies for using THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST EDUCATOR more effectively in acquainting college administrators, faculty members, and trustees with CoConvention programs and leadership; developed programs of work with other Southern Baptist agencies for the purpose of more effectively promoting the work of Southern Baptist colleges and schools; coordinated the planning of the annual and midyear meetings of the Association of Southern Baptist Colleges and Schools; released regular news stories, feature stories, and pictures to the editors of Baptist state papers; compiled educational statistics including information on budgets, facilities, enrollments, fund raising, alumni, and church-related volunteers; presented the Commission at national and regional meetings of educational organizations and learned societies and compiled specific information for Baptist college administrators — cost, curriculum, communications, etc.

Program goals for 1972 include: National Colloquium on Christian Higher Education emphasizing college denominational relations, Christian purpose, financing, trustee orientation; continuing improvement of THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST EDUCATOR and increase circulation to Baptist leadership; and a convocation in Nashville of professors of religion for the purpose of establishing better communication between Southern Baptist Convention personnel and faculties on Baptist college campuses.

2. The Program of School and College Studies and Surveys

The major accomplishment for 1970 was the revision of goals and objectives under Program 2. These suggested program changes are being reviewed by the Program Committee of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention; worked with graduate students who are doing doctoral theses in some areas of Southern Baptist life; assisted with special services and surveys to individual institutions; worked as an advisor with the United College Board for the advancement of black colleges.

Major program goals for 1972 include a program of trustee orientation to assist states and/or institutions to develop annual trustee orientation programs with special emphasis on denominational relations; to work with the Seminary Extension Department in developing a program of adult education on Baptist college campuses, to work with the appropriate Southern Baptist Convention agencies to encourage all Baptist colleges to develop a field work program which will give college students an opportunity to practice their church-related vocation while still in college.

3. The Program of Teacher Recruitment and Replacement

The following represent the major accomplishments of the program of teacher recruitment and placement. A careful study by the Commission of the future needs of the recruitment service, in the light of the current oversupply of doctorates in all major disciplines concluded for the foreseeable future the emphasis on the recruiting of teachers outside of Baptist colleges would no longer be necessary. The Commission worked out new relationship with the Cooperative College Registry which means in the future that its financial support will come directly from institutions and individual registrants rather than denominational boards. Questionnaires were circulated to Baptist college presidents and deans who gave strong indications that our Baptist registry should be updated and kept in force. The present abundance of qualified personnel will make it possible for the Commission to engage in more selective recruitment. One of the greatest needs currently facing Baptist colleges is to find academically qualified teachers and administrators who are committed Christians and loyal to the denomination.

Program goals for 1972 include: updating and upgrading our Baptist placement service; visitation of selected graduate schools where the type of candidates suitable to the needs of Baptist schools are most likely to be found; and publication of an updated pamphlet which describes the services of the Baptist registry which can be mailed to all Baptist college personnel and to graduate students.

4. The Program of Assistance in College Recruitment

Program accomplishments for 1970 include: the publishing of the 1971-73 edition of the SOUTHERN BAPTIST CAMPUS DIRECTORY, and informational tracts; the promotion of eighteenth annual emphasis on Baptist College, Seminary, and School Day, using the theme, "The Gift of Leadership." At the request of the SBC Program Committee turned over COLLEGE AND CAREER and all vocational guidance tracts and materials to the Vocational Guidance Department of the Sunday School Board; and reestablishing liaison with the Sunday School Board for promoting the Conventionwide annual emphasis on Baptist College, Seminary, and School Day.

Program goals for 1972 include working with the Baptist Sunday School Board to develop a new program of Christian Vocational Guidance Centers on Baptist college campuses for the purpose of assisting students to know themselves better and to identify those occupations for which they have the greatest talents; promotion of annual Conventionwide emphasis on Christian colleges, seminaries, and schools; producing the 1973-75 SOUTHERN BAPTIST CAMPUS DIRECTORY as well as literature connected with the annual emphasis; regional recruitment conferences for developing Conventionwide emphasis.

THE RADIO AND TELEVISION COMMISSION

Southern Baptist Convention
Fort Worth, Texas 76116

Jack Gregston, President
Paul Morris Stevens, Executive Director

An average of 2,395 radio-tv stations in the world broadcast one or more programs produced and distributed by the Radio and Television Commission each month in 1970. During the year, greater efficiency was achieved in reaching the spiritually needy through 182,844 separate broadcasts.

Response to the programs it produces for radio and television is the "name of the game" at your Radio and Television Commission. The booklet Trek To A New Dimension, which is sent to many individuals who write in to various Commission programs, is one area of impact which follows the radio or tv broadcast. During a 13-month period beginning April, 1970, 151 individuals accepted Christ in response to this booklet, 214 rededicated their lives to Him, and 124 asked for additional help.

JOT, the animated cartoon program for children, was on 99 stations at the end of the year — 63 of the top 100. Four new episodes were added to the 13 original films in the series, and although the number of children responding to JOT was down, there were still more than 100,000 cards and letters received.

County Crossroads, newest of the Commission programs, has risen to 345 stations and draws more mail than all other combined radio programs produced by the Commission. An offer of counseling has been added to this country and western format and the program now is making an even greater spiritual impact.

Powerline, the teenage top 40 music program doubled its stations in 1970, and now is broadcast by 523 stations. It remains the "most religious" program put out by the Commission, in spite of what it sounds like to adults. It pulled 2500 letters from young people during the year, including some of the deepest spiritual problems ever encountered at the Commission.

The new concentration on counseling by mail and in-depth follow-up to the spiritual needs expressed by listeners and viewers has been especially rewarding in the past 12 months. A special follow-up packet is sent to individuals making definite decisions and to those who indicate they want additional spiritual help. Personal Bible study is encouraged, with a mini-correspondence course of six lessons. About 1500 people were involved at this level during the year.

The Centurymen, 100-voice male singing group, looked back on a year which included: three weeks rehearsal and recording, two albums, a 30-minute NBC telecast, two appearances on NBC Radio's Great Choirs of America, appearances at SBC, Denver, Honor America Day, July 4, Lincoln Awards, February 12, produced 60 songs for domestic program use and seven for Spanish programs. In the fall, 1971, a rehearsal in New York City is scheduled, coupled with a network tv appearance.

Eight hours of broadcast time was given by the television networks during the year. A production crew spent eight days in Israel in April (1971) filming the documentary, Where Jesus Lived for ABC-TV, to be shown in October. The film features Joe Ann Shelton singing at various sites in the Holy Land, and Dr. Paul Stevens lecturing to a tour group who made the pilgrimage.

Plans continue for release of the first series of The Human Dimension on January 1, 1972. This series will replace The Answer, which has been running on the nation's television stations since it was launched in the spring of 1965. The Human Dimension will feature documentary on contemporary subjects, with relatively few dramatic episodes.

Work is now in progress for production of a 30-minute animated Christmas special featuring JOT and his friends.

Radio and television programs, other than those already mentioned, are as follows, with the number of stations which carry them each week:

The Baptist Hour, 433; "MasterControl" 567; The Answer, 105; Control * Central, 133; Momentos De Meditacion, 164; Strength For Tomorrow (Japanese), 3; Portuguese Baptist Hour, 1; Voice of Hope (Chinese), 4; Voice of Peace (Russian), 5; The Navajo Program, 7; The Portuguese Program, 4; Good News (Polish), 7; Cantonese Baptist Hour, 3; State News Program, 230; Manna In The Morning, 52; Music To Remember (M), 110; Music To Remember (S), 73; Youth Speaks To You, 12; Adams Spots, 58.

HISTORICAL COMMISSION

Southern Baptist Convention
Nashville, Tennessee 37203

W. Morgan Patterson, Chairman
Lynn E. May, Jr., Executive Secretary

The Historical Commission and the denomination suffered a great loss through the death on January 15, 1971, of the Commission's executive secretary, Davis C. Woolley. He had served, creatively and effectively, as the executive of the Commission since September 1, 1959. At the age of sixty-two he died of multiple myeloma after being hospitalized for nearly four months. Significant achievements mark the period of almost twelve years during which he served as head of the Commission. He wrote one book, revised another, and edited two major works, including the Encyclopedia of Southern Baptists, Volume III, released by Broadman Press, May 15, 1971. In 1965 he led the Historical Commission to launch its own 64-page journal, Baptist History and Heritage. He achieved notable success in leading Southern Baptists to become more aware and appreciative of their history and to preserve and utilize the materials of their history. He also contributed significantly to the total denomination, especially through his years of service as chairman of the Inter-Agency Council and of this Council's Coordinating Committee.

On April 19, 1971, Lynn E. May, Jr., was elected executive secretary of the Historical Commission. He had been research director since 1956.

HIGHLIGHTS OF 1969-70

Observing the Convention's 125th Anniversary. — The Commission contributed significantly to the meaningful observance of the 125th Anniversary of the Southern Baptist Convention in 1970. By means of research, provision of resource materials, and consultation, assistance was given in the preparation of the audiovisual presentation and other anniversary features at the Denver meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Commission's Denver Convention exhibit, which displayed pictures of several meetings of the Convention since 1870, attracted wide attention and won an Honorable Mention award. Leaflets distributed to the churches provided guidelines for a meaningful observance of the anniversary. To promote interest in this important milestone in the life of the denomination, the Commission distributed through the Baptist Press copies of line drawings featuring the formation of the Convention in Augusta, Georgia, in 1845. The Convention-wide History-Writing Contest conducted during 1970 encouraged churches to write and publish their history during the anniversary year. The documentary anniversary film, "Dimensions of Courage," circulated widely among the churches and associations, stimulated further the interest of Southern Baptists in their heritage.

Encyclopedia of Southern Baptists, Volume III. — Launched in 1969, this continuing project was given a major thrust toward completion during 1970. A total of 1,251 manuscripts were received, edited, and styled by the Commission staff for Volume III of the Encyclopedia of Southern Baptists. Submitted to Broadman Press in four installments, all copy has been set in type and has been read in galley proof. With the aid of state, agency, and area chairman for the Encyclopedia, the staff has coordinated the project and kept it on schedule for publication in May, 1971.

Research Projects. — Although deeply involved in the publication of Volume III of the Encyclopedia of Southern Baptists, the Commission staff completed 215 research projects to provide Baptist historical data for agencies, conventions, associations, churches, editors, writers, and others.

Publishing and Indexing. — The Commission's 64-page historical journal, Baptist History and Heritage, launched as a semi-annual publication in 1965, became a quarterly journal in 1970. Response to this enlargement of the publication of articles on Baptist history, biography, bibliography, and history news has been gratifying. A significant achievement of the year was the publication of the Historical Commission Handbook, a 56-page manual which sets forth the organization, principles, and methods of work of the Historical Commission. It contains copies of all primary documents and a description of activities and relationships involved in the operation of the Commission. The Southern Baptist Periodical Index – 1969 was compiled and published by the Commission in cooperation with sixteen other Convention agencies.

Expanding Resources Through Microfilm. – Copies of rare books, minutes, periodicals, manuscripts, and other materials from many repositories in the United States and foreign countries were added to Dargan-Carver Library, the Commission's Baptist research center, by means of microfilm. The Commission published a supplement to its 1969 Microfilm Catalog.

Library Agreement and Formula. – A comprehensive restudy of the agreement between the Sunday School Board and the Commission for operating the Dargan-Carver Library was completed. On the basis of the two-year study, charges for library space and services, and the procedure for handling the library materials of the Commission were revised to the mutual satisfaction of both agencies. The completed agreement and formula were approved by the agencies and have been implemented by the staff.

PROGRAM REPORT

The Program of Recording, Procuring, and Preserving Recording

Through the subprogram of recording, assistance is offered to all recorders of Baptist life and work. Consultative and advisory services are provided for clerks of churches and associations, recording secretaries of state convenyions, and recorders of other denominational groups to assist them in the preparation of minutes, reports, and other materials that will become primary source materials for historians. Similar assistance is rendered to editors of state papers who are recording the ideas, plans, activities, and accomplishments of Baptists week by week. The Commission seeks to help all Baptist recorders improve the quality of their records by striving for accuracy, clarity, and comprehensiveness.

Much of the assistance offered by the Commission to Baptist recorders is given in cooperation with other Convention agencies. Through the Sunday School Board's Church Administration Department and its publications, the Commission offers guidance to church clerks. The Commission cooperates with this Board's Research and Statistics Department in conducting conferences on denominational statistics and history at Ridgecrest and Glorieta Baptist assemblies each summer. Through these conferences and literature distributed in cooperation with the Home Mission Board's Associational Administration Service, guidance is offered to associational clerks and state recording secretaries. The Commission also assisted in leading a statewide conference for associational clerks.

The Oral History Project initiated by the Commission in 1964 continues to provide a means of recording significant data on the life and work of Baptists. Interviews with denominational leaders of long standing, addresses delivered at the annual meeting of the Historical Commission and Southern Baptist Historical Society; proceedings of the last annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention, Southern Baptist Pastors' Conference, and Woman's Missionary Union (recorded by the Radio and Television Commission and deposited with the Historical Commission); and addresses from other denominational meetings were recorded on tape and deposited with the Historical Commission during the year.

Procuring Historical Materials

The Commission engages in a constant search for rare and out-of-print Baptist materials. Many of these items are procured through the medium of microfilm or photoduplication. The Commission procures books, pamphlets, periodicals, annuals, and other currently published materials by purchase and subscription, or they are received as gifts from interested individuals and agencies. The largest group of materials accessioned by the Commission during the year was the 37,242 associational annuals received when the Sunday School Board transferred ownership of these materials to the Commission. With this large addition to the associational annuals already placed in Dargan-Carver Library by the Commission, the latter now holds in the permanent files of this research center a total of 42,509 annuals. Several thousand duplicates from the integrated file of annuals are being made available to other libraries. During the twelve months ending September 30, 1970, other accessions included: 484 books, 133 pamphlets and tracts, 1,170 annuals received from associations and state conventions, 137 volumes of periodicals, 14 archival collections, and 99 anniversary brochures and histories. The estimated value of the 2,162 items purchased or donated to the Commission totaled $2,805. A total of 83 individuals donated materials to the agency.

In pursuing its long-range objective to secure copies of everything written by or about Baptists, the Commission continues to utilize microphotography as a major means of procuring materials for its library and in turn making these materials available to other libraries. Copies of rare books, annuals, periodicals, manuscripts, theses, and other materials from repositories in the United States and foreign countries were secured by means of microfilm. During the year 185,762 pages of materials valued at $2,786 were added to the library. This brings the total number of pages of materials procured on microfilm for Dargan-Carver Library to 8,909,608. The Commission continues its effort to lead every Southern Baptist church to assure the preservation of its records by having them microphotographed. In pursuit of this goal the Commission had microphotographed the records of 734 churches by the end of September, 1970.

The archives maintained by the Commission for Southern Baptists continues to grow in size and value. One of the most significant additions during the year was the 2,500-page collection of materials from the '70 Onward study groups, 1963-66. Other major accessions included: the Mattie Straughan Collection, Baptist Student Union Study, J. W. Storer Collection, and the minutes of the Southern Baptist Business Officers' Conference, 1965-70.

Special projects conducted during the year have been the means of procuring other valuable materials. In preparation of the manuscript for Volume III of the Encyclopedia of Southern Baptists the Commission has procured 1,251 historical and biographical monographs. These manuscripts, which contain documentation not included in the published volume, will be placed in Dargan-Carver Library. Emphasis on the 125th Anniversary of the Southern Baptist Convention and the History-Writing Contest sponsored by the Commission have encouraged an increasing number of churches and associations to write and publish their history. During the year the Commission received histories and anniversary brochures from ninety-nine churches and associations.

The Baptist Biography Data project launched by the Commission in 1958 continues to bring into Dargan-Carver Library vital information on living and deceased Baptist leaders. As of September 30, 1970, this file included 8,210 biography data forms.

Preservation of Materials

The materials gathered by the Historical Commission since it was chartered in 1951 are preserved in the Dargan-Carver Library which is jointly operated by the Commission and the Sunday School Board. The executive-secretary of the former and Service Division director of the latter serve as directors of the library. The two directors, Helen Conger, librarian, and Lynn E. May, Jr., research director of the Commission, meet monthly for consultation on the operation of the library. Hubert B. Smothers, the Board's director of the library, resigned September 1, 1970, to become president of Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy. The Commission pays the Board for the space occupied by its materials and for the services of the library staff in processing and circulating these materials. Payment is made in accord with the terms of an agreement for operating the library. A restudy of the agreement and the formula and procedures for implementing it, resulted in a revision of these documents. The changes were put into effect October 1, 1970.

Microphotography is utilized by the Commission to preserve materials that are deteriorating because of age or improper handling. Church records and other only-copy materials are duplicated and preserved on microfilm. The Commission publishes an annual supplement to its Microfilm Catalog and makes these materials available to other libraries.

The Program of Utilization

The materials procured and preserved by the Commission are of greatest value to the denomination when they are utilized to help Baptists understand and appreciate their history and its meaning. To that end the Commission's materials are being used continually by the Commission's staff, by representatives of other agencies, and by individuals doing historical research. Many techniques are employed by the Commission to aid Baptists in utilizing the materials of their history.

Publishing

In April, 1969, in cooperation with other Convention agencies and state conventions, the Commission launched a project to produce a supplemental volume to the two-volume Encyclopedia of Southern Baptists (1958). As coordinator of the project, the Commission staff procured, processed, verified, edited, and styled copy for the 608-page Volume III of the Encyclopedia scheduled for release by Broadman Press, May 15, 1971. The Commission's executive secretary, Davis C. Woolley, served as managing editor for Volume III.

In January, 1970, the Commission initiated quarterly publication of Baptist History and Heritage, the 64-page historical journal issued semi-annually by the Commission since 1965. An additional 90 pages of historical articles were contributed by the Commission for publication in three issues of The Quarterly Review of the Sunday School Board. Articles to stimulate interest in Baptist history and to serve the history needs of the denomination were channeled through the periodicals of several Convention agencies. The Commission published and distributed a leaflet to guide state Baptist historical agencies in their work. The Historical Commission Handbook, a 56-page manual, was published to provide basic information for Commission members, staff, and others on the operation of the agency. The Commission also published another annual volume of the Southern Baptist Periodical Index in cooperation with sixteen other Convention agencies.

Special Emphases

Special emphasis was given to the observance of the Southern Baptist Convention's 125th Anniversary in 1970. Through research, provision of resource material, consultation, distribution of 3,000 copies of a special pamphlet, distribution through Baptist Press of line drawings on the organization of the Convention in 1845, publication of articles on the Convention's history, and a special Convention exhibit at Denver, the Commission contributed to a meaningful observance of this anniversary. A History-Writing Contest conducted during 1970 encouraged churches to write and publish their history during the anniversary year.

Study and Research

The staff conducted 215 research projects to provide historical, biographical, and bibliographical data for conventions, associations, churches, editors, writers, and others requesting assistance during the year. A cross index to the cumulative file of research projects enhances the utilization of the Commission's historical collection. The executive secretary and research director postponed scheduled study leaves because of their involvement in the production of Volume III of the Encyclopedia of Southern Baptists. Study grants were given to assist Timothy Cho, graduate student at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, in his study of Korean Baptists, and Jesse L. Nutt, graduate student at University of Kentucky, in his study of W. O. Carver.

Indexing

The Commission has continued emphasizing the preparation of indexes to provide more adequate "finding aids" to assist researchers in locating and utilizing information in the resources of Baptist Libraries. Through the publication of the annual Southern Baptist Periodical Index, the Commission offers to researchers 10,000 author and subject entries to articles in thirty-seven periodicals published by Convention agencies. An annual list of "Thesis Subjects Approved" provides a guide to graduate research in six Convention seminaries. The Commission continued to encourage state papers to index both current issues and back files of their publications. Special assistance was given to The Christian Index of Georgia in its indexing project during the year.

Conclusion

Grateful appreciation is expressed to state Baptist historical agencies for their assistance in the projects of the Commission. Grateful acknowledgement is made to all individuals and agencies contributing materials to the commission. The Southern Baptist Historical Society, auxiliary of the Commission, has strengthened the efforts of the Commission in serving the history needs of the denomination. Spencer B. King, Jr., of Georgia, president of the Society; F. Wilbur Holmbold of Alabama, vice-president; H. I. Hester of Missouri, secretary, and the 400 Society members have assisted in the projects of the Commission.

In 1971 the Historical Commission will observe its 20th Anniversary of service as a chartered agency of Southern Baptists. As a part of this observance, the Commission is publishing Southern Baptists and Their History by H. I. Hester, in April, 1971.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST HOSPITALS, INC.
New Orleans, Louisiana 70115

Hardy M. Harrell, Executive Secretary-Treasurer

Southern Baptist Hospital, New Orleans, Louisiana
Baptist Memorial Hospital, Jacksonville, Fla.

Statement of Outlook – Southern Baptist Hospitals, Inc., has mixed emotions in presenting its last annual report as an Agency of Southern Baptist Convention. Its hospitals are committed to serve mankind in a Baptist oriented Christian ministry. Its forty-five years history of health care service speaks for itself. This corporation looks forward to a continued ministry of health care services as opportunity opens its doors, in the same Christian atmosphere as prevailed before. If the service or counsel of those of these hospitals, actively engaged in day to day hospital service, is needed by SBC Agencies, they await a call.

Development and Expansion of Hospital Facilities – Statements such as these were not heard in hospitals a few years ago but are common today. Computerization Service, Coronary and Medical Intensive Care Unit, Rehabilitation Medicine Department, and Radiation Therapy and Treatment Center. A hospital that does not have these services in the latest facilities and trained personnel is not the hospital that is selected by doctors and patients for service.

New Orleans – Health Unit Reduces Death Rate at Baptist – The installation of a coronary intensive care unit at Southern Baptist Hospital has enabled the hospital to reduce the mortality rate of heart attack patients from 30 percent to 13.8 percent. Approximately 75 percent of deaths due to heart attacks occur within the first five days following the infarction, with 29 percent occurring within the first hour. Prior to the concept of intensive care, the mortality rate at Baptist was the same as that in leading, accredited hospitals across the nation. Another first for Baptist Hospital and this area – a deep-freeze Blood-Bank – a highly improved method of storing blood. New Orleans is looking at other projects for development and expansion. An extended clinic service is anticipated; a branch hospital on the west bank of the Mississippi River.

Jacksonville – Its Development and Expansion program was caught in the tremendous upsurge of construction cost in every area including interest rates. A mortgage loan sufficient to complete the present expansion program with a price tag of over $30,000,000 has been secured from the Western and Southern Life Insurance Company. Construction is well on its way. There is a medical Linear Accelerator in development reported to score 80 to 90 percent success in the treatment of Hodgkins disease, a cancer of the lymph system which takes the life of about 3,300 Americans annually. The Linear Accelerator is often called an atom-smasher. With the coming of such improved equipment there must also be coming trained personnel to operate it.

The Program of Routine Patient Care – During the fiscal year ending September 30, 1970, the two hospitals rendered 281,332 days of patient services to 35,983 inpatients other than newborns. There were 5,599 newborns who received 22,477 days of service. The hospitals served 55,402 outpatients during that period.

Medicare — The net cost or loss in Medicare forced upon these hospitals by the Government is not considered charity, but is included in the program of routine patient care. During the fiscal year the two hospitals discounted bills of Medicare patients which resulted in the cost of $708,557. In addition, discounts to other governmental agencies amounted to $37,068.

The Program of Hospital Care for People with Special Needs — Charity Free Service — There were patients served in the outpatient clinics and also in the inpatient service resulting in a cost to the hospitals of charity free service for the current fiscal year of $754,501. In addition to the above charity free costs to the hospitals, physicians on the medical staff rendered medical charity free service to those patients valued at more than $325,000. There were 313 persons who participated in the educational program during the fiscal year of 1970: Medical Technicians 33, Medical Residents 11, Radiological Technicians 40, Surgical Technicians 15, Graduate Nurse Training 102, Pastoral Care 33, Student Nurses 20, Physical Therapy 3, Administrative Resident 1, employees participating in an educational assistance program 45, Laboratory Technicians 10. The cost of the education program for the year was $947,889.

At the convention of SBC in 1970 the hospitals were released, not upon their request, but with their agreement. The hospitals have never received tax funds as a loan or grant. At the same time a new corporation was approved by SBC to continue the Hospital Agency until the Convention meeting this year. A final vote on dissolving the agency will be taken at the Convention in St. Louis.

GOLDEN GATE BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Mill Valley, California

Harold K. Graves, President

In its 27th year, Golden Gate Seminary had another near record enrollment of 327. It was just short of last year but had more enrolled in the basic degree programs. New students entering during the year numbered 125.

International students continue to seek admission to Golden Gate in large numbers. There were 54 of these this year. Out students came from 42 states as well. Almost every year the number of students from Baptist colleges declines. Only 39% of the student body are in this group this year.

Dr. Elmer L. Gray returned to the seminary as Academic Dean after three years away serving with the staff of the Sunday School Board. In addition, Dr. Gordon Green came to the faculty to replace Dr. J. Winston Pearce who retired. Dr. J. Kenneth Eakins began his teaching of Old Testament in the summer of 1970. Dr. W. A. Carleton, dean for 17 years, continued in limited service as Distinguished Professor of Church History.

There were 60 who received degrees or awards at the spring commencement. Considerable faculty attention has been given to a restudy of the curriculum with a view to improve the academic program. This new basic degree of Doctor of Ministry will be added with the 1972-73 year. This is in addition to the M. Div., which most men receive who plan for the pastorate. The M.R.E. and M.R.E. with Music Major continue as the other basic degrees offered.

A video tape recorder, a portable language laboratory, and cassette tape recorders for the Library were put in use this year — expanding the mass of teaching aids being added regularly.

The new four-week September term for basic language study, orientation of new students, and elective courses began the new calendar which includes three quarters and a half-quarter to round out the year. The whole concept of field education or in-service training is being restudied with a view toward more effective practices of one's ministry.

Resources remain critical as Golden Gate continues to seek improvement in its program of training. We are grateful for your support through prayer, sending students, and the Cooperative Program.

There were 14 students from Arkansas enrolled in the seminary this year.

MIDWESTERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Kansas City, Missouri 64118

Millard J. Berquist, President

S. W. Eubanks, Van Buren, Arkansas, President, Board of Trustees

During the past two years Midwestern Seminary's administration and faculty have conducted a thorough and intensive self-study of its program of work over the preceding ten years. Graduates and other former students have cooperated to a very high degree in enabling us to look objectively as results of our academic and professional endeavors.

Comprehensive questionnaires were prepared and sent to all former students and the senior class. The Sunday School Board's Department of Research and Statistics was of tremendous assistance in securing and tabulating the results and in making recommendations based on the findings.

The self-study was made as a part of the process of applying for accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Full accreditation of our current degree programs was granted in March of this year.

Much cause for encouragement was found in the responses that came from former and current students. However, in keeping with the tenor of the times, a deep need was expressed for additional emphasis on the practical aspects of the gospel ministry. As a result, the M. Div. and M.R.E. programs are being restructured so as to give the curriculum much greater flexibility, and the student much wider selectivity with two and one-half times as many free electives. After introductory and core courses are completed the individual is given opportunity to pursue a major in his chosen field of interest and endeavor. This new program is to be inaugurated in the fall of 1971.

A second highly distinctive innovation to be introduced at the same time is a schedule of eleven four-week terms. Each term will provide opportunity for intense concentration on two two-hour courses, instead of fragmenting one's time and efforts over numerous courses of study over a sixteen-week period. This "Midwestern Plan" will also enable the administration to utilize the resources of the community and the denomination as skilled specialists in various fields are engaged for one month of concentrated teaching in their particular specialties.

Serious study has also been given, as in all the other five seminaries, to the possibility of simultaneously initiating a Doctor of Ministry (D. Min.) degree program. This has now been voted by our Trustees to begin in September, 1972.

Midwestern is in the midst of one of its most creative and productive years, and great gratitude is felt toward our churches and convention for their loyal and gracious support.

NEW ORLEANS BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Grady C. Cothen, President

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Continues to Serve: The first classroom work began in October, 1918, after the Southern Baptist Convention voted the school into being in 1917. When the Seminary was founded, the city of New Orleans had six Southern Baptist churches. Today there are seventy churches and nine missions. In addition, four churches have Spanish-language departments, and one has a Japanese dialogue group. Seminary students helped begin, and still work in, many of these. More than 5,350 alumni now serve in 47 states and 50 nations. The Seminary is located on a 75-acre campus valued at more than $7.4 million.

Grady C. Cothen Elected President: The Seminary Board of Trustees elected Dr. Grady C. Cothen as the sixth president of the Seminary on September 17, 1970. He assumed his new duties in mid-November and was formally inaugurated May 8, 1971. Cothen, a graduate of NOBTS, is a former executive secretary of the Southern Baptist General Convention of California. He came to the Seminary from Oklahoma Baptist University, where he had served as president since 1966.

Faculty and Staff Members Added: The coming of Dr. Earl M. Owen, Jr., to the music faculty last fall has greatly strengthened the academic position of the School of Church Music. Owen, who came to NOBTS from Western Carolina University, holds a D.M.A. degree from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, where he was an associate professor of theology, comes to New Orleans from California, where he has been editor of the Baptist state paper since 1963. A Th.D. graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, where he was a teaching assistant for two years, Young has a graduate major in systematic and historical theology, and a minor in philosophy of religion. Dr. Ray P. Rust, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Bastrop, Louisiana, for the past 15 years, joined the staff in April, 1971, as executive assistant to the president.

Curriculum Revision Committee at Work: The faculty has been organized into committees which are studying the entire seminary curriculum in an effort to determine the most effective means of training ministers for the 1970's and 1980's. As a part of this study, alumni of the Seminary have been asked to evaluate their seminary experience in the light of current demands upon them today. This information will serve as a basis for subsequent curriculum revision.

Music School now Fully Accredited: The NOBTS School of Church Music was promoted from associate to full membership in the National Association of Schools of Music at the Association's meeting in November. New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is also accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools and by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Seminary Offers Eight Graduate Degrees: Degrees offered by the Seminary's three schools are: School of Theology — Master of Theology, Master of Theology-Honors Program, and Doctor of Theology; School of Religious Education — Master of Religious Education, Specialist in Education, and Doctor of Education; School of Church Music — Master of Church Music, Specialist in Education, and Doctor of Education. Plans are being finalized for the Doctor of Ministry degree, which New Orleans, along with the other Southern Baptist seminaries, will offer beginning in the fall of 1972.

Enrollment Reaches 739: The cumulative enrollment for the 1970-71 school year totaled 739 different persons who enrolled during the year.

Students Participate in Missions and Serve Churches: Every student completes two years of supervised mission work while attending the Seminary. Many students serve as pastors or staff members of churches in three states within commuting distance of New Orleans during their seminary career.

Prayers Requested for Seminary Needs: Southern Baptists are asked to pray for solutions to the needs at the Seminary for more funds for student aid and for faculty and staff salaries.

SOUTHEASTERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Olin T. Binkley, President

The Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is a school of theology established and maintained for the education of competent and devout Christian ministers. It provides courses of study leading to the Master of Divinity degree, the Master of Religious Education degree, the Master of Theology degree, and the Certificate in Theology. After careful study of educational needs and resources, the Faculty and Trustees have approved a course of study leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree effective in 1972.

The purpose and educational effectiveness of this seminary, which is owned and operated under the authority of the Southern Baptist Convention, are manifested in its 2,442 graduates who are at work in the churches across this nation and in the Christian enterprise throughout the world.

The enrollment of students in programs of study for the 1970-71 academic year was 609.

On June 26, 1970, O. L. Cross was elected Business Manager. Jerry Niswonger was elected Director of Development effective November 1, 1970. The Board of Trustees granted Sabbatical Leave for the 1971-72 academic year to Dr. Leo Green and Dr. John Eddins. They approved also a special leave for Dean Raymone B. Brown for the 1971 Spring semester and summer session.

In preparation for the regular ten-year reappraisal by the accrediting agency, a study of the school as a whole was made by the Faculty, Administration, and Trustees during the 1969-70 session. On the basis of this study and of the report by a visiting team of scholars the Commission on Accrediting voted unanimously to reaffirm the accreditation of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary with no notations.

At the beginning of the twenty-first session the Faculty, administrative staff, and students are grateful for what has been achieved on this campus and are committed to the education of Christian ministers in harmony with the mind of Christ.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Louisville, Kentucky

Duke K. McCall, President
Edward L. Byrd, Chairman of the Board

What happens on the campus of Southern Seminary is only the final step in a long process of nurture which begins in the home church, where Sunday School teachers plant the seeds of Christian faith, where pastors proclaim the word of God and issue the call to Christian service, and where laymen take a personal interest in the development of those whom God would call into his ministry.

Without the local church, Southern Seminary would have no students, for every student we have is sent to us by a local church with an official recommendation approved in business session. The local church sets apart these God-called men and women for ministry and sends them on to us for training. We could not fulfill our role without the vital help that has preceded us in the home church.

The presence of 1,166 students on the campus challenges the 84 members of the faculty and instructional staff. The 106 acres of campus include 40 major buildings representing the past concern of Southern Baptists for an educated ministry. The new facility, Cooke Hall, built last year with funds borrowed against capital needs allocations from the Cooperative Program.

The Seminary is organized into three schools: The School of Theology with 725 students and 39 teachers, the School of Church Music with 136 students and 23 teachers, and the School of Religious Education with 218 students and 13 teachers.

We are currently engaged in a major self-study required periodically by our accrediting agencies, the American Association of Theological Schools, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and the National Association of Schools of Music. The purpose of the self-study is a full evaluation of all we do in every aspect of our work.

In the past year we have added a month of teaching to our academic year, which now includes two regular semesters and three one-month terms. These "J-terms", in January, June and July, provide for special travel and research courses as well as standard work. Our facilities are thus in use at least 11 months of the year, for maximum economy and flexibility.

In 1972 the Seminary will offer the Doctor of Ministry degree, with a strong focus on excellence in the practice of the ministry in addition to our time-honored insistence on a high level of academic preparation. We believe this drastic overhaul of our teaching program will help us continue to meet the challenge of the local church as God's agent of ministry in a troubled world.

SOUTHWESTERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Fort Worth, Texas 76122

J. T. Luther, Chairman, Board of Trustees
Robert E. Naylor, President

Continuing growth in enrollment, expanding emphasis upon continuing theological education, an intensified restudy of curriculum, and innovative teaching methods mark the entrance into the seventies of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

The emphasis for 1970-71 conveys the Southern Baptist Convention objective for seminaries "to provide theological education, with the Bible as the center of the curriculum, for God-called men and women to meet the needs for trained leadership in the work of the churches."

The 2,171 accumulative enrollment for 1970-71 is the largest in ten years and an increase of 75 over the 1969-70 year. Of this number, 1,384 were in the School of Theology, 577 in the School of Religious Education, and 212 in the School of Church Music. There were 428 graduates during the year.

Continuing Theological Education was emphasized in conferences for intensive Bible study in certain metropolitan areas of the nation, multiple conferences on campus for church and denominational leaders, and a program promoted by Fleming Library for the use of its services.

General Robert Preston Taylor was named Director of Development, and Colonel Clayton Day was elected Director of Institutional Resources. Faculty members elected included Phillip Briggs, associate professor of educational administration; Gene Tunnell, adjunct professor of social work; and Justice Anderson, guest professor of missions. The retirement of Alpha Melton and Gracie Knowlton at the end of the academic year was announced.

Plans for capital improvements include construction of a Children's Building, remodeling of Price Hall, construction of four additional apartment houses in the J. Howard Williams Memorial Student Village, Physical Fitness Building, and faculty housing.

The audit on July 31, 1970, revealed seminary assets to be $20,430,193.90.

AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

We have examined the financial statements of the following institutions which are under the control of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention for the year ended as set forth below:

Name	Address	Year Ended
Executive Board, Arkansas Baptist State Convention	Little Rock, Arkansas	12/31/71
Ouachita Baptist University	Arkadelphia, Arkansas	5/31/71
Ouachita Baptist University Endowment Fund Committee	Arkadelphia, Arkansas	5/31/71
Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services	Monticello, Arkansas	12/31/71
Arkansas Baptist Foundation	Little Rock, Arkansas	12/31/71

Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the financial position or the assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions of the respective institutions, as of the specified dates, and the results of operations or the cash receipts and disbursements for the periods then ended on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Note: The Arkansas Baptist State Convention in its meeting November, 1959, approved the borrowing of funds up to $200,000.00 for the purchase of a Baptist building site with the indebtedness to be liquidated from Cooperative Program Budget items designated "capital needs" for this purpose. Instead of borrowing from outside sources, certain of these expenditures were financed by borrowing from the surplus and accumulated monies of the various other funds of the Convention. In November, 1967, the Convention approved the borrowing from outside sources of funds up to $900,000.00 for the above purpose.

OPINION

We have examined the Balance Sheet of Southern Baptist College as of June 30, 1971, and the related Statements of Current Income and Expenditures for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying Balance Sheet and the related Statements of Income and Expenditures, present fairly the financial position of the Southern Baptist College at June 30, 1971, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.
