

Power Trip on the Drip

by Matthew Clarkson

Sipping tea or coffee out of a mug
Makes me feel more important than I am.
Whatever else I'm doing, I feel smug.
What you think... I frankly don't give a damn!
Every time you ask a question I'll take
A long purposeful drink to make you wait.
Why, I'm the king of the world, for God's sake,
My life is anything but second rate.
I will criticize and always correct
Any tiny fault in you that I find.
I will make you work to earn my respect.
I will be blunt and always speak my mind.
I will leave my mark wherever I'm able.
I'm sorry... I just made a ring on your table.
