In Honor

Ralph W. Davis

Ralph W. Davis, retired Director of the Arkansas Church Training Department, was born March 16, 1909, at Alexander, Arkansas. When he was two months old his family moved to Benton. He lived with his family in Stephens for eight years and he then moved to Texarkana, Texas, where he completed high school. Davis later attended Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas, where he graduated in 1930 with the A.B. degree in English and Bible. He attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth and graduated in 1933 with the Th.M. degree with a major in Theology. His deep love for theology was encouraged by his favorite teacher, Dr. W.T. Conner.

Ralph Davis' rich pastoral experience began in Texas where he was pastor until he was called to the First Baptist Church in Ashdown, Arkansas, in 1936. He later served as pastor of the First Baptist Church in Bauxite until 1942 when he was called to his last full-time pastorate at Central Baptist Church, North Little Rock.

In January, 1945, he became Secretary of the Training Union Department of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. A separate department was soon established and Davis was its first director, a position he held until his retirement in May, 1974.

During those twenty-nine and one-half years his leadership was marked by several outstanding accomplishments. Over a period of twelve years approximately 400 college students were enlisted and trained to serve in a Summer Field Work Program. These students helped train church leaders and organized hundreds of Training Unions. They may be found in places of leadership and ministry today in many parts of the world.

During the years Davis was State Training Union Secretary he taught on the faculty at Ridgecrest for 15 years and taught the basic training book on Adult Training Union work over 125 times in 21 states. He also directed the State Assembly at Siloam Springs for three years, with over 1300 in attendance.

Davis began an annual State Training Union Convention in 1952 that has continued until the present time. This convention became a Youth Convention with attendance growing from 1,000 to 5,000.

Davis retired from the Convention in 1974 and became Director of the Little Rock Center of the Boyce Bible School. During these years he has taught 16 courses and has led the center to enroll approximately 340 different people, with several graduating each year.

Ralph Davis was married December 18, 1932, to the former Lois Ivey of Baird, Texas. Mrs. Davis died on July 10, 1983. The Davises have one daughter, Joy Vee, who lives in Atlanta, Georgia.

Ralph W. Davis - pastor, theologian and able administrator - has touched the lives of many persons who have been challenged and equipped to serve the Lord through His church.

In Memoriam

James Delano Threet

December 26, 1932 - September 29, 1983

James Delano Threet was born on a farm near Peel, Arkansas and attended school at Lead Hill and Yellville. He was active in BSU and summer missionary work while attending Arkansas Tech. He graduated from the University of Arkansas with a degree in agriculture and a commission of second lieutenant at Medina. He transferred to the Army Reserves and there served as division chaplain reaching the rank of lieutenant colonel for the 95th Division in Midwest City, Oklahoma. In 1957, he married Zelpha Brown and enrolled in the Golden Gate Seminary.

James pastorates were in Arbuckle, California; Pleasant Plains, Arkansas; Johnson, Arkansas; Peru, Illinois; established Pendleton Baptist Church in Oregon while serving for the Home Mission Board as a pioneer missionary; established church at Lake Zurich, Illinois. In 1980 he returned to Arkansas to become resident manager at Camp Paron.

James was at his best while working with people. He was compassionate, understanding and helpful. His children, Majorie, James Michael, and John respected and loved him. Undergirding all of his roles in life was his relation to Christ. He was a true soldier of the cross.

Russell Armer

April 16, 1916 - September 20, 1983

Russell Armer, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Horatio, Arkansas, went to be with the Lord September 20th, 1983. Russell was a man of tremendous courage and faith. He was called to the Horatio church in February, 1946, before graduating from Ouachita Baptist College, (now University). He spent his entire ministry from that point in his life with the people in that little Sevier County town. He was the epitome of "staying power." He was a good preacher and he never failed to declare God's message without compromise. Russell was God's man for that place and he knew it. He never sought other pastures. The Lord gave this dedicated pastor what Dr. Truett called "the Shepherd's heart." Preacher, friend, a devoted husband and father, and pastor are correct terms characterizing this fine, dedicated man of God. He truly loved the Lord, and he loved his church.

CONSTITUTION

Article I. — the Name

The name of this body shall be "The Arkansas Baptist State Convention."

Article II. — The Purpose

The purpose of this Convention shall be to awaken and stimulate among the churches the greatest possible activity in evangelism, Christian education, and benevolent work throughout its bounds and to the ends of the earth; to cultivate closer co-operation among the churches and to promote concert of action in advancing all the interests of the Kingdom of God.

The Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention on May 9, 1963, shall be the doctrinal guideline for this Convention.

Article III. — Membership

Section 1. The Convention shall be composed of messengers from regular Baptist churches which are in sympathy with the principles and purposes of this Convention, and which desire to cooperate with other churches through this Convention.

Regular Baptist churches are those Baptist churches which in doctrine and in practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of The Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, and The Baptist Faith and Message shall not be interpreted as to permit open communion and/or alien immersion.

Section 2. Each co-operating church shall be entitled to three messengers, with one additional messenger for each additional one hundred members, or major fraction thereof above one hundred, provided however, that no church shall be entitled to a total of more than ten messengers.

Section 3. A standing Credentials Committee of five members shall be appointed by the president of the convention. No member of this committee may serve more than two consecutive conventions. The president of the convention shall fill vacancies and shall name the chairman each year.

Article IV. — Authority

Section 1. While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, this Convention shall never exercise any authority whatever over any church, nor shall it in any way interfere with the constitution of any church, or with the exercise of its functions as the only ecclesiastical body, but will cheerfully recognize and uphold the absolute independence of the churches.

Article V. — Officers

Section 1. The officers of this Convention shall be: President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Recording Secretary and Treasurer. Each officer of the Convention shall be elected annually, except the Recording Secretary and Treasurer who shall be the same as the Executive Secretary of the Executive Board, and shall continue in office until his successor in office shall have been elected and qualified.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the President to preside over the deliberations of the Convention and to discharge such other duties as may devolve upon the presiding officer of a deliberative body. He shall appoint all committees unless the Convention shall otherwise determine. In the absence of the President, one of the Vice-Presidents shall preside in his stead.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a record of the proceedings of the convention, to edit and arrange publication of a suitable number of the minutes for distribution among the churches, as the Convention may direct, as soon as reasonably possible after the close of the session. He shall file and keep in order all papers deemed important to the work of the Convention.

Article VI. — The Executive Board

Section 1. This Convention shall elect a Board of Trustees as provided for in the Convention's charter. This Board shall be known as the "Executive Board of Arkansas Baptist State Convention." This Board shall be composed of one member from the bounds of each co-operating association with a membership up to 5,000, and one additional member for each additional 5,000 constituency, or major fraction thereof, provided however, that no association shall be entitled to more than five (5) members. In addition, the convention shall elect one lady from the bounds of each of the eight districts in the state to serve on the Executive Board. Upon the removal of any Executive Board member from the bounds of his or her association, his or her membership on the Executive Board ceases therewith; his or her successor in office shall be nominated by the Convention Nominating Committee and elected by the Executive Board to fill the unexpired term. No member of this board shall hold any remunerative office under the Convention or any of its institutions. One-third of this board shall be elected annually to hold office for three years, and a majority of the board members shall constitute a quorum. Any member of the Executive Board who misses all the Executive Board meetings and the Executive Board committee meetings for one year shall be automatically dropped from membership on the Board.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall be constituted and empowered by the Convention as its business and legal agent to administer all business committed to it by the Convention, and to employ such paid agents as it may deem necessary in carrying out the missionary, educational, benevolent and financial enterprises of the Convention. The Executive Board shall raise, collect, receive and disburse all the funds of the Baptist Cooperative Program, for both state and Southern Baptist Convention causes. The office of the Executive Board shall be a clearing house for administering the business affairs of the Convention, and a headquarters for Baptist information. Its books, records and files shall at all time be open for the reference and inspection of any co-operating church which may desire to examine them.

Section 3. The Executive Board shall render to the Convention annually a complete and detailed statement of all its business for the year.

Article VII. — Trusteeships

The Convention shall elect trustees to manage and to operate institutions and agencies it may possess, as follows:

Section 1. Ouachita Baptist University, 24; Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services, 18; Baptist Memorial Hospital (Memphis,) 9; Southern Baptist College, 24; Arkansas Baptist Foundation, 15; Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, 9.

Section 2. One-third of the members of the Boards of Trustees shall be elected annually to serve for a term of three years. Any member of any Board of Trustees who misses all the meetings of that Board for one year shall be automatically dropped from membership on that Board.

Section 3. Each Board of Trustees shall elect from their membership a chairman and a recording secretary and such other officers as seems advisable.

Section 4. All trusteeships shall render to the Convention at each annual session complete and detailed reports of all transactions and business and any other activities for the year, and shall be subject to the direction of the Convention in all matters pertaining to administering the affairs of the institution with which their trusteeship is concerned.

Article VIII. — Operation of Agencies

Section 1. Each board, agency, and institution of this Convention shall submit to the Executive Board at its annual budget planning meeting, which is to be held prior to the annual meeting of the Convention, a detailed statement of its sources of income, and a budget of proposed expenditures for the ensuing year. When received and adopted by the Convention, these budgets shall become the basis for the operations for the ensuing year.

Article IX. — Meetings

Section 1. The Convention shall meet annually, "if God permit," on a date to be fixed by the Convention. The Executive Board is empowered in emergencies to call special sessions of the Convention and to change either the time or place of meeting or both should the occasion demand.

Article X. — Amendments

Section 1. This Constitution and By-Laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members voting and concurring in two successive annual meetings of the convention, except Article IV, which shall remain forever unalterable in substance.

Section 2. Any proposed amendment to this Constitution shall be presented to the Convention in writing, for its consideration, upon the first day of the annual session, and may be voted on, on any subsequent day during the session, provided adequate publicity has been given in previous announcement.

Article XI. — Parliamentary Authority

Keefoot's Parliamentary Law shall be the standard for deciding questions of parliamentary procedure.

Article XIII. — Districts

The Convention shall establish such geographic districts as it may deem wise to facilitate its promotion, administration, and organization of its objectives, provided, it will never violate in any way the boundaries of any association within the area of the convention. The boundaries of such districts shall be drawn so as to provide equitable geographical and numerical voice and representation on all convention committees, commissions, boards, except the Executive Board, all trusteeships. Each tenth year hereafter, the whole matter of districts shall be readjusted to take in consideration the flow of membership in our Baptist churches.

BY-LAWS

In order to carry out the provisions of the Constitution, the following By-Laws are enacted for the government of the Convention.

1. Enrollment of Messengers

The Secretary of the Convention shall enroll, upon arrival, messengers who present proper credentials from the churches. These messengers, together with others who may be enrolled upon presentation of approved credentials during the session, shall constitute the Convention. Any contention concerning seating messengers shall be presented to a committee appointed by the President for recommendation to the Convention for its action.

2. Officers

The President, First Vice-President, and Second Vice-President shall be elected on the second day of the Convention, their terms of office to begin with the final session of the Convention.

The election of all officers shall be by ballot; provided, however, there is only one nomination for the office, then the Secretary or any other present may be directed to cast the ballot of the entire assembly for the single nominee.

The first vice president shall be nominated and voted upon and elected after balloting for the president has been completed and the winner announced, and the second vice president shall be nominated and voted upon and elected after the balloting for the first vice president has been completed and the winner announced.

Each officer of the Convention shall be elected by a majority of all votes cast.

In case of removal from office, by death or otherwise, of the President, the Vice-Presidents shall automatically succeed to the office of President in the order of their election. The President may not be elected for more than two consecutive terms.

The Treasurer of the Executive Board shall be also Treasurer of the Convention.

All elected officers of this Convention shall be members of churches cooperating with this Convention. This must also apply to members of the Executive Board and the institutional boards of this Convention.

3. The Executive Board

The Executive Board, being the legal trustee of the Convention, shall be empowered by the Convention to administer all business committed to it by the Convention.

The Executive Board is empowered to act for the Convention between sessions of the Convention, provided that it shall never exercise any authority contrary to the expressed will of the Convention.

When any unforeseen emergency occurs in any of the affairs of the Convention, or in any of the interest it controls, that in the judgment of the Executive Board requires action before the next session of the Convention, the Executive Board shall have full authority to take such action as may seem necessary, and all interests concerned shall be governed by such action, provided the Executive Board shall make full report of all matters pertaining thereunto to the next session of the Convention for its approval, and provided further, that nothing in this article shall be construed as giving the Executive Board authority to execute any matter already committed by the Convention to any of its Boards of Trustees or its institutions unless such Board when so commissioned shall decline to act on the orders of the Convention.

All proposals requiring the expenditures of money by the Convention, or the Executive Board of the Convention, from the annual budget, shall be considered by the Executive Board, before being presented to the Convention.

This Board shall be charged with the responsibility to have the books and financial affairs of each and all of the boards and institutions of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention audited annually by an accredited firm of auditors, all audits to be accessible to the Executive Board at its budget planning session, and to be included in the institution's report to the Convention.

Members of the Executive Board, having served two full terms of three years each shall not be eligible for re-election until as much as one year has elapsed. In determining eligibility for re-election, any individual filling a vacancy, shall be deemed to have served a full term if that individual shall have served two-thirds or more of a full term.

The various associations of Arkansas whose churches are affiliated with this Convention, may submit to the committee or nominations names of those whom they believe should be considered for membership on the Executive Board as members from that association.

4. Trusteeships

All trusteeships of this Convention shall be amenable to the Convention on all matters, through its Executive Board. No trusteeship shall conduct extra movements to raise money outside its regular revenue-producing sources, nor shall a deficit in running expense or debt be incurred without the approval of the Convention in session or of the Executive Board in case of aforementioned emergencies, except, as follows: when an emergency arises concerning the opportunity to purchase needed property for expansion, the president of the Convention, the president of the Executive Board and the Executive Secretary of the Executive Board (all three concurring) believing such an emergency exists and deeming it wise to incur indebtedness, may give the Trustees of an institution such permission, and make a full report to the Executive Board and to the next Convention in session.

Members of Boards of Trustees having served two full terms of three years each shall not be eligible for re-election until as much as one year has elapsed. In determining eligibility for re-election, any individual filling a vacancy, shall be deemed to have served a full term if that individual shall have served two-thirds or more of a full term.

Not more than two (2) members of a Board of Trustees shall at the same time be members of the same local church, nor shall more than six (6) members reside in any one association.

A member of a Board of Trustees of one institution of the Convention may not at the same time be a member of any other Board of Trustees of another institution of the Convention.

No member of a Board of Trustees of any institution of this Convention may at the same time be a member of the Executive Board of the Convention.

5. Committee Members

1. A nine-member rotating Nominating Committee, comprised of at least three laymen, will place in nomination at each annual convention names of persons to fill vacancies on all convention boards. At each annual convention, the president will appoint one-third of this committee to three-year terms to replace the one-third rotating off, plus filling any vacancies that may exist on the committee at that time. Nominations for all boards from this Nominating Committee must be as equitably divided as possible between the eight existing districts of our state convention. The president shall also name the chairman, who shall come from a one-year term member.

2. A member filling an unexpired term not having served the full term of years as provided by the Constitution, shall be, at the discretion of the Nominating Committee, eligible for election to a full term.

3. No member of a commission or committee delegated to study or make recommendations concerning our institutions shall be a member of any Board of Trustees of such institutions.

4. All associational missionaries or mission pastors receiving all or part compensation from the Convention through the Executive Board shall be considered employees of the Convention and shall not be members of any Convention or institutional board. The president of the Convention by virtue of his office shall be a member of the Executive Board for the duration of his term of office.

6. Constitution and By-Laws Committee

A standing Constitution and By-Laws Committee shall be composed of six (6) members to be nominated by the Nominating Committee. One-third of the membership (2) shall be elected annually to serve for a term of three (3) years. No member shall be eligible to serve more than two terms until one year has elapsed. In determining eligibility for re-election, any individual filling a vacancy, shall be deemed to have served a full term if that individual shall have served two-thirds or more of a full term.

The president of the convention shall appoint the chairman of the Committee each year. The chairman must be one who has been a member of the Committee for at least one year and may succeed himself until his tenure of eligibility shall expire.

The Constitution and By-Laws Committee shall be charged with the responsibility of advising the presiding officer concerning constitutional matters during the annual session of the convention with reference to matters which may arise from the floor or from other committees. The committee will act ad interim in all matters concerning the Constitution and By-Laws referred to it by the boards and agencies of the convention. The committee will receive all proposed constitutional changes before the convention and will be responsible for presenting them in writing, for convention consideration, upon the first day of the annual session, after adequate publicity has been given. The duties of the committee in no way preclude amendments to the constitution by messengers to the convention.

APPENDICES

1. Enrollment of Messengers (1980 Annual, page 37)

Any challenge to the seating of any church's messengers and the basis of the challenge should be presented in writing to the convention president, and the chairman of the Credentials Committee thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting of the convention.

The Credentials Committee will meet prior to the opening session of the convention and report their findings and recommendation to the opening session of the convention.

2. Performance of wedding ceremonies (1975 Annual, page 37)

The proper standard recommended by our State Convention for Southern Baptist ministers to perform wedding ceremonies in Arkansas (shall) be ordination.

3. Doctrinal Guidelines (1970 Annual, page 61)
 Report of the Committee of Twnty-Five adopted, including the recommendation that the SBC statement of faith of 1963. The Baptist Faith and Message, be adopted as doctrinal guidelines for our convention.
4. Appendices (1967 annual, page 40)
 Resolution adopted that a search be made of the minutes of the convention to discover policies and interpretations which have been adopted in past years, and these interpretations and policies be added at the end of the constitution and bylaws of the convention as appendices.
5. Church Ordinances (1965 annual, page 31)
 Resolution adopted, Whereas, in the past, the most general interpretation of the New Testament, and the most general interpretation of the Word 'principles' as it is used in Article 3, Section 1. of our constitution, and the most prevalent practice of Baptist churches in Arkansas with reference to the church ordinances, has been what is commonly called "close baptism" and "close communion", and
 Whereas, it is recorded on page 57 of the minutes of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention meeting in Fort Smith in 1937 that the Convention officially objected to the teaching of alien immersion and open communion in one of our seminaries, thereby establishing a precedence for future conventions, therefore.
 Be it resolved that the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, meeting in its 112th annual session, go on record as objecting to the reception of alien immersion and the practice of open communion, and
 Be it further resolved that we urge churches everywhere to re-examine the New Testament teaching on baptism and the Lord's Supper.
6. Federal Aid (1965 annual, page 43)
 Resolution adopted, Whereas, Arkansas Baptists have been faced with the issue of Federal aid to private institutions, and, whereas many feel that the acceptance of such funds violates the cherished Baptist position of the separation of church and state, therefore, be it resolved that the Arkansas Baptist Convention go on record as reaffirming our traditional Baptist position on the separation of church and state, and that we urge all of our Baptist institutions and programs to respect this principle.
7. Executive Board Recommendations (1963 annual, page 35)
 Voted that all recommendations of the Executive Board shall be published in the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine one month prior to the meeting of the state convention.
8. Violations of the Constitution (1960 Annual, page 29)
 Where there are violations of the Constitution on the Boards the Convention Nominating Committee (shall be) requested to make proper corrections.
9. Book of Reports (1959 annual, page 28)
 Voted that the convention constitution and by-laws be printed each year in the Book of Reports for the convenience of our messengers.
10. Baptist Memorial Hospital Trustees (1959 annual, page 29)
 Voted that the members of the Board of Trustees of the Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, not be included in the ruling which would prevent their serving on this board and one other convention board.
11. Capital Indebtedness (1959 annual, page 30)
 Voted that all requests for capital indebtedness by any convention institution or agency must be submitted to the Executive Board at least 90 days in advance of the July meeting of the Executive Board.
12. Out-of-state participation by Executive Board staff (1953 annual, page 22)
 Voted that we recommend the Cooperative Program as the best method of giving financial support to the Baptist work at home and abroad. We discourage any of the departments of our Arkansas Baptist work in accepting invitations to participate in the work of missions outside of our regular work within our state territory, at the expense of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention Departments involved. Further, we request our Executive Secretary of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and the President of the Executive Board confer with the heads of all Southern Baptist agencies expressing our concern about the practices of asking State Convention departments to give employees to such efforts outside our state, unless expenses and salaries are provided for by the agencies that use such workers.
13. Seating of Messengers (1949 annual, page 92)
 Resolution adopted that this convention refuse to seat any messengers from any church that accepts alien immersion; practices open communion; or affiliates with any branch of the Federal Council of Churches, World Council of Churches; or any other organization similar to or growing out of such.

14. To limit expenditures not previously studied and recommended that might be introduced by Messengers at Convention (1982 annual, page 63).

Motions made by messengers dealing with the internal operations or programs of an agency, institution or the Executive Board shall be referred to the elected board of the appropriate body for consideration, and report to the constituency and to the next convention in annual session. Any expenditure of funds up to $2,500 not already studied by the Executive Board shall be referred to that body for consideration and for a report to the next convention in annual session. Upon a two thirds vote of the messengers present and voting, items dealing with internal operations, or finances, will be considered at a subsequent session of the same convention as arranged by the Order of Business Committee.

THE BAPTIST FAITH AND MESSAGE

I. THE SCRIPTURES

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is the record of God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. It reveals the principals by which God judges us; and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. The criterion by which the Bible is to be interpreted is Jesus Christ.

Ex. 24:4; Deut. 4:1-2; 17:19; Josh. 8:34; Psalm 19:7-10; 119:11, 89, 105, 140; Isa. 34:16; 40:8; Jer. 15:16; 36; Matt. 5:17-18; 22:29; Luke 21:33; 24:44-46; John 5:39; 16:13-15; 17:17; Acts 2:16 ff.; 17:11; Rom. 15:4; 16:25-26; 2 Tim. 3:15-17; Heb. 1:1-2; 4:12; 1 Peter 1:25; 2 Peter 1:19-21

II. GOD

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

Gen. 1:1; 2:7; Ex. 3:14; 6:2-3; 15:11 ff.; 20:1 ff.; Lev. 22:2; Deut. 6:4; 32:6; 1 Chron. 29:10; Psalm 19:1-3; Isa. 43:3, 15; 64:8; Jer. 10:10; 17:13; Matt. 6:9 ff.; 7:11; 23:9; 28:19; Mark 1:9-11; John 4:24; 5:26; 14:6-13; 17:1-8; Acts 1:7; Rom. 8:14-15; 1 Cor. 8:6; Gal. 4:6; Eph. 4:6; Col. 1:15; 1 Tim. 1:17; Heb. 11:6; 12:9; 1 Peter 1:17; 1 John 5:7

B. God the Son

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ he was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself the demands and necessities of human nature and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His death on the cross He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, partaking of the nature of God and of man, and in whose person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

Gen. 18:1 ff.; Psalm 2:7 ff.; 110:1 ff.; Isa. 7:14; 53; Matt. 1:18-23; 3:17; 8:29; 11:27; 14:33; 16:16; 27; 17:5; 27; 28:1-6; 19; Mark 1:1; 3:11; Luke 1:35; 4:41; 22:70; 24:46; John 1:1-18; 29; 10:30; 38; 11:25-27; 12:44-50; 14:7-11; 16:15-16; 28; 17:1-5; 21-22; 20:1-20; 28; Acts 1:9; 2:22-24; 7:55-56; 9:4-5; 20; Rom. 1:3-4; 3:23-26; 5:6-21; 8:1-3; 34; 10:4; 1 Cor. 1:30; 2:2; 8:6; 15:1-8; 24-28; 2 Cor. 5:19-21; Gal. 4:4-5; Eph. 1:20; 3:11; 4:7-10; Phil. 2:5-11; Col. 1:13-22; 2:9; 1 Thess. 4:14-18; 1 Tim. 2:5-6; 3:16; Titus 2:13-14; Heb. 1:1-3; 4:14-15; 7:14-28; 9:12-15; 24-28; 12:2; 13:8; 1 Peter 2:21-25; 3:22; 1 John 1:7-9; 3:2; 4:14-15; 5:9; 2 John 7-9; Rev. 1:13-16; 5:9-14; 12:10-11; 13:8; 19:16

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the assurance of God to bring the believer into the fulness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

Gen. 1:2; Judg. 14:6; Job 26:13; Psalm 51:11; 139:7 ff.; Isa. 61:1-3; Joel 2:28-32; Matt. 1:18; 3:16; 4:1; 12:28-32; 28:19; Mark 1:10; 12; Luke 1:35; 4:1; 18-19; 11:13; 12:12; 24:49; John 4:24; 14:16-17; 26; 15:26; 16:7-14; Acts 1:8; 2:1-4; 38; 4:31; 5:3; 6:3; 7:55; 8:17; 39; 10:44; 13:2; 15:28; 16:6; 19:1-6; Rom. 8:9-11; 14-16; 26-27; 1 Cor. 2:10-14; 3:16; 12:3-11; Gal. 4:6; Eph. 1:13-14; 4:30; 5:18; 1 Thess. 5:19; 1 Tim. 3:16; 4:1; 2 Tim. 1:14; 3:16; Heb. 9:8; 14; 2 Peter 1:21; 1 John 4:13; 5:6-7; Rev. 1:10; 22:17

III. MAN

Man was created by the special act of God, in His own image, and is the crowning work of His creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by His Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God and fell from his original innocence; whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin, and as soon as they are capable of moral action become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore every man possesses dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

Gen. 1:26-30; 2:5, 7, 18-22; 3: 9-6; Psalm 1: 8:3-6; 32: 1-5; 51:5; Isa. 6:5; Jer. 17: 5; Matt. 16:26; Acts 17:26-31; Rom. 1:19-32, 3:10-18, 23:5-6, 12, 19: 6:6; 7:14-25; 8:14-18, 29; 1 Cor. 1:21-31; 15: 19, 21-22; Eph. 2:1-22; Col. 1:21-22; 3:9-11

IV. SALVATION

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, sanctification, and glorification.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace. Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer into a relationship of peace and favor with God.

B. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual perfection through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

C. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

Gen. 3:15; Ex. 3:14-17; 6:2-8; Matt. 1:21; 4:17; 16:21-26; 27:22 to 28:6; Luke 1:68-69; 2:28-32; John 1:11-14, 29; 3:3-21, 36; 5:24; 10:9, 28-29; 15:1-16; 17:17; Acts 2:21; 4:12; 15:11; 16:30-31; 17:30-31; 20:32; Rom. 1:16-18; 2:4; 3:23-25; 4:3ff.; 5:8-10; 6:1-23; 8:1-18; 29-39; 10: 9-10, 13; 13:11-14; 1 Cor. 1:18, 30; 6:19-20; 15:10; 2 Cor. 5:17-20; Gal. 2:20; 3:13; 5:22-25; 6:15; Eph. 1:7; 2:8-22; 4:11-16; Phil. 2:12-13; Col. 1:9-22; 3:1 ff.;

1 Thess. 5:23-24; 2 Tim. 1:12; Titus 2:11-14; Heb. 2:1-3; 5:8-9; 9:24-28; 11:1-12-8, 14; James 2:14-26; 1 Peter 1:2-23; 1 John 1:6 to 2:11; Rev. 3:20; 21:1 to 22:5

V. GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is a glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the cause of Christ, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Gen. 12:1-3; Ex. 19:5-8; 1 Sam. 8:4-7, 19-22; Isa. 5:1-7; Jer. 31:31 ff.; Matt. 16:18-19; 21:28-45; 24:22, 31, 25-34; Luke 1:68-79; 2:29-32; 19:41-44; 24: 44-48; John 1:12-14; 3:16; 5:24; 6:44-45, 65; 10:27-29; 15:16; 17:6, 12, 17-18; Acts 20:32; Rom. 5:9-10; 8:28-39; 10:12-15; 11:5-7, 26-36; 1 Cor. 1:1-2, 15:24-28; Eph. 1:4-23; 2:1-10; 3:1-11; Col. 1:12-14; 2 Thess. 2:13-14; 2 Tim. 1:12; 2:10, 19; Heb. 11:39-12:2; 1 Peter 1:2-5, 13; 2:4-10; 1 John 1:7-9, 2:19; 3:2

VI THE CHURCH

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is a local body of baptized believers who are associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel, observing the two ordinances of Christ, committed to His teachings, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth.

This church is an autonomous body, operating through democratic processes under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In such a congregation members are equally responsible. Its Scriptural officers are pastors and deacons.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages.

Matt. 16:15-19; 18:15-20; Acts 2:41-42, 47; 5:11-14; 6:3-6; 13:1-3; 14:23, 27; 15:1-30; 16:5; 20:28; Rom. 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:2; 3:16; 5:4-5; 7:17; 9:13-14, 12; Eph. 1:22-23; 2:19-22; 3:8-11, 21; 5:22-32; Phil. 1:1; Col. 1:18; 1 Tim. 3:1-15; 4:14; 1 Peter 5:1-4; Rev. 2:3; 21:2-3

VII. BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

Matt 3:13-17; 26:26-30; 28:19-20; Mark 1:9-11; 14:22-26; Luke 3:21-22; 22:19-20; John 3:23; Acts 2:41-42; 8:35-39; 16:30-33; Acts 20:7; Rom. 6:3-5; 1 Cor. 10:16; 21:11; 23:29; Col. 2:12

VIII. THE LORD'S DAY

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should be employed in exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, and by refraining from worldly amusements, and resting from secular employments, work of necessity and mercy only being excepted.

Ex. 20:8-11; Matt. 12:1-12; 28:1 ff.; Mark 2:27-28; 16:1-7; Luke 24:1-3, 33-36; John 4:21-24; 20:1, 19-28; Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:1-2; Col. 2:16; 3:16; Rev. 1:10

IX. THE KINGDOM

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

Gen. 1:1; Isa. 9:6-7; Jer. 23:5-6; Matt. 3:2; 4:8-10; 23:12-25; 28:13-15; 25:31-46; 26:29; Mark 1:14-15; 9:1; Luke 4:43; 8:1; 9:2; 12:31-32; 17:20-21; 23:42; John 3:3; 18:36; Acts 1:6-7; 17:22-31; Rom. 5:17; 8:19; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Col. 1:13; Heb. 11:10; 16:12-28; 1 Peter 2:4-10; 4:13; Rev. 1:6; 9:5-10; 11:15; 21:22

X. LAST THINGS

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

Isa. 2:4; 11:9; Matt. 16:27; 18:8-9; 19:28; 24:27, 30, 36, 44; 25:31-46; 26:64; Mark 8:38; 9:43-48; Luke 12:40, 48; 16:19-26; 17:22-37; 21:27-28; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:11; 17:31; Rom. 14:10; 1 Cor. 4:5; 15:24-28, 35-58; 2 Cor. 5:10; Phil. 3:20-21; Col. 1:5; 3:4; 1 Thess. 4:14-18; 5:1 ff.; 2 Thess. 1:7 ff.; 2:1; Tim. 6:14; 2 Tim. 4:1, 8; Titus 2:13; Heb. 9:27-28; James 5:8; 2 Peter 3:7 ff.; 1 John 2:28; 3:2; Jude 14; Rev. 1:18; 3:11; 20:1 ff. to 22:13

XI. EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by personal effort and by all other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

Gen. 12:1-3; Ex. 19:5-6; Isa. 6:1-8; Matt. 9:37-38; 10:5-15; 13:18-30; 37:43; 16:19; 22:9-10; 24:14; 28:18-20; Luke 10:1-18; 24:46-53; John 14:11-12; 15:7-8; 16:17-15; 20:21; Acts 1:8; 2:8; 26:40; 10:42-48; 13:2-3; Rom. 10:13-15; Eph. 3:1-11; 1 Thess. 1:8; 2 Tim. 4:5; Heb. 2:1-3; 11:39 to 12:2; 1 Peter 2:4-10; Rev. 22:17

XII. EDUCATION

The cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is co-ordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

Deut. 4:1, 5, 9, 14; 6:1-10; 31:12-13; Neh. 8:1-8; Job 28:28; Psalm 19:7 ff.; 119:11; Prov. 3:13 ff.; 4:1-10; 8:1-7; 11:15-14; Eccl. 7:19; Matt. 5:2; 7:24 ff.; 28:19-20; Luke 2:40; 1 Cor. 1:18-31; Eph. 4:11-16; Phil. 4:8; Col. 2:3; 8-9; 1 Tim. 1:3-7; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:14-17; Heb. 5:12 to 6:3; James 1:5; 3:17

XIII. STEWARDSHIP

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

Gen. 14:20; Lev. 27:30-32; Deut. 8:18; Mal. 3:8-12; Matt. 6:1-4, 19-21; 19:21; 23:23; 25:14-29; Luke 12:16-21, 42; 16:1-13; Acts 2:44-47; 5:1-11; 17:24-25; 20:35; Rom. 6:6; 22; 12:1-2; 1 Cor. 4:1-2; 6:19-20; 12; 16:1-4; 2 Cor. 8:9; 12:15; Phil. 4:10-19; 1 Peter 1:18-19

XIV. COOPERATION

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

Ex. 17:12; 18:17 ff.; Judg. 7:21; Ezra 1:3-4; 2:68-69; 5:14-15; Neh. 4:8; 1:5; Matt. 10:5-15; 20:1-16; 22:1-10; 28:19-20; Mark 2:3; Luke 10:1 ff.; Acts 1:13-14; 2:1 ff.; 4:31-37; 13:2-3; 15:1-35; 1 Cor. 1:10-17; 3:5-15; 12:2 Cor. 8:9; Gal. 1:6-10; Eph. 4:1-16; Phil. 1:15-18

XV. THE CHRISTIAN AND THE SOCIAL ORDER

Every Christian is under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in his own life and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Christ Jesus. The Christian should oppose in the spirit of Christ every form of greed, selfishness, and vice. He should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

Ex. 20:3-17; Lev. 6:2-5; Deut. 10:12; 27:17; Psalm 101:5; Mic. 6:8; Zech. 8:16; Matt. 5:13-16, 43-48; 22:36-40; 25:35; Mark 1:29-34; 2:3 ff.; 10:21; Luke 4:18-21; 10:27-37; 20:25; John 15:12; 17:15; Rom. 12:14; 1 Cor. 5:9-10; 6:1-7; 7:20-24; 10:23 to 11:1; Gal. 3:26-28; Eph. 6:5-9; Col. 3:1-2; 1 Thess. 3:12; Philemon; James 1:27; 2:8

XVI. PEACE AND WAR

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love.

Isa. 2:4; Matt. 5:9; 38-48; 6:33; 26:52; Luke 22:36; 38; Rom. 12:18-19; 13:1-7; 14:19; Heb. 12:14; James 4:1-2

XVII. RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

8. President Miller recognized John McClanahan, chairman, Resolutions Committee. The Resolutions Committee had requested through an article in a recent issue of the ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE that advance resolutions be mailed to the Baptist Building. The committee had received two resolutions from the Christian Life Council, (1) Separation of Church and State, (2) Prevention of Social Addictions. John McClanahan asked if there were resolutions to be presented at this time. Andy Kerr, pastor, Pleasant Hill, presented the resolution (3) “Immorality on Television.”

9. John McClanahan, pastor, Pine Bluff First, asked for a moment of personal privilege to ask in an unofficial way as a resident of Pine Bluff and on behalf of the city and Harmony Baptist Association a special welcome to Pine Bluff and southeast Arkansas.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTION CHANGES

10. Johnny Jackson, chairman, Constitution and By-laws Committee presented the two constitutional changes for consideration to be voted on at a later time to be set by the Order of Business Committee. (1) Constitution and By-law Changes 1982 (clarifying the eligibility of those on boards and committees who serve unexpired terms). (2) Change of the title for chief administrative officer (recommend that the title be changed to executive director). The Constitution and By-laws Committee will have one other recommendation to present that is not a constitutional change but deals with a reaffirmation of our present constitution and calling upon all leaders, institutions and agencies to follow the practice of our constitution. This recommendation will be presented at the appropriate time.

11. President Miller recognized Convention guests: Wilmer C. Fields, assistant to the Executive Secretary/Director of Public Relations, Nashville. Huey Perry, director, Institutional Chaplaincy, Home Mission Board. M.F. Mayo, supervisor, Broadman Consumer Sales, Sunday School Board. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Nichols, missionaries to Paraguay.

12. Ervin Keathley led the messengers in singing "I stand Amazed in the Presence of Jesus". Special music was presented by a group from different choirs of Harmony Association directed by Steve Landers, South Side, Pine Bluff.

13. President Miller introduced Don Moore, executive secretary, Arkansas Baptist State Convention for his message. Scripture Ephesians 3:14-19.

14. Fraternal greetings were recognized from our sister conventions in Alabama, Southern Baptist General Convention of California, Hawaii, Indiana, Louisiana, Maryland, Minnesota/Wisconsin, Mississippi, New England, New York, Northern Plains, Northwest, Oklahoma, Tennessee, West Virginia, New Mexico.

15. Allen Thrasher, second vice-president, introduced Milton Ferguson, president, Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary who brought greetings from the six Southern Baptist Seminaries. Neal Guthrie introduced Russell Miller, Mountain Home, president of Arkansas Baptist Men, who made a special presentation to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention from the Brotherhood Commission, Memphis, commemorating the 75th anniversary of Royal Ambassadors in Arkansas.

16. President Miller announced that 1,067 messengers had been registered at this time. He announced that the Constitutional and By-Laws Committee will make their report Wednesday afternoon, 2:55 p.m., set by the Order of Business Committee.

17. Former state convention presidents were recognized and the following were present: Don Moore, 1974-75; Johnny Jackson, 1978-79; Bernes Selph, 1960-61; W.O. Vaught, 1954-55; Thomas Hinson, 1968-69; Don Hook, 1966-67.

20. Ervin Keathley led the messengers in singing "Grace Greater than our Sin". Special music was presented by the Music Women of Arkansas directed by Jean Pilcher, Little Rock. Accompanist, Peggy Pearson.

21. President Miller presented Cliff Palmer, pastor, First, Springdale, who introduced James T. Draper, Jr., president, Southern Baptist Convention, for the closing evening message.

22. Jim Byrd, director of missions, Harmony Association, Pine Bluff, led in prayer to close the evening session.

SECOND DAY — MORNING SESSION

Wednesday, November 9, 1983

"Developing Believers"

23. The session was opened at 8:30 a.m. at Pine Bluff Convention Center, Pine Bluff, with President Dillard Miller presiding. Tanner, Riley, Fayetteville, led the messengers in singing "To God by the Glory" and "His Name is Wonderful".

24. President Miller recognized James Bryant, pastor, Grand Avenue Baptist, Ft. Smith who presented the theme interpretation for this session. Scripture Acts 2:42.

25. Lewis Drummond, Billy Graham Professor of Evangelism, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, led the Bible study. Scripture I John 2:28-3-24.

26. Johnny Biggs, executive director, Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services, presented their report.

27. Harry Trulove, president, Arkansas Baptist Foundation, presented the report from the Foundation. He introduced Larry Page, the new member on the Foundation's staff.

Voted: To Approved ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE Going to a Separate Board

28. Dillard Miller recognized Jim Adams, chairman of the ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE Study Committee. Jim Adams reported that on May 3, 1979, the Executive Board of the Convention approved the appointment of a committee out of the Program Committee to "study the possibility of the ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE being placed under the control and management of a separate board similar to the other boards of our convention." Later that year in August this same subcommittee of the Program Committee recommended to the Executive Board that a three year trial period be set up for the ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE to function under a separate board. The Executive Board approved this recommendation and it later was approved by the convention in November of 1979. It was agreed that the final decision regarding the ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE functioning under a separate board would be made at the 1983 Annual Convention. The ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE Study Committee was appointed and composed of Tommy Robertson, Bill Burnett, Charles Barfield, Jon Stubblefield, Lyndon Finney and Jim Adams. As a result of the study and evaluation made by this committee, Jim Adams moved that the ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE be allowed to function under a separate board. Motion was seconded. Jim Adams spoke to the motion and brought out three safeguards that the ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE by-laws contain, (1) the editor is to be nominated by the Personnel Committee in consultation with the Executive Secretary and then elected by the full ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE board. (2) The understanding is that the editor shall embrace the statement of faith adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963, commonly referred to as the Baptist Faith and Message. (3) That the editor shall adhere to the constitutional doctrinal actions of the ARKANSAS BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION, further appropriate space is guaranteed to all Baptist agencies, institutions and Executive Board programs. President Miller asked that ballots be lifted in favor of the motion. Motion carried.

29. President Miller recognized Everett Sneed, editor of the ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE, who presented the report from the NEWSMAGAZINE. Dr. Sneed thanked the Convention for sustaining the continuation of the separate board.

30. Tanner Riley led the congregation in singing "Redeemed How I Love to Proclaim It" and "There's Something About That Name".

Voted: To Elect President

31. President Dillard Miller called for nominations for president of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Gerald Taylor, Little Rock, nominated C.A. Johnson, Walnut Street Baptist Church, Jonesboro. Ken Lilly, Ft. Smith, nominated Cary Heard, Park Hill Baptist Church, North Little Rock. John Finn, Little Rock, nominated Jon Stubblefield, Central Baptist Church, Magnolia. Motion was made that nominations cease. Motion was seconded and carried. J.T. Harvill, chairman of the Tellers Committee, designated ballot #7 for voting. Results of the vote will be announced later.

32. Don Moore, executive secretary of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, presented a plaque of appreciation to Ken Lilly, president of the Executive Board of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, for his devotion to the cause of Arkansas Baptists and cause of Christ as expressed through Arkansas Baptists.

Voted: To Adopt Executive Board Recommendations

33. President Miller recognized Ken Lilly, president of the Executive Board, who presented the following recommendations:

(1) 1984 Budget

34. Ken Lilly moved the 1984 Budget be adopted as recommended (see pages 71-74).

(3) Publishing Salaries

35. Ken Lilly explained that presently the only salaries being published are those of the employees of the Baptist Building and since they are the only group in our agencies and institutions whose salaries are published it would be wise to discontinue this practice. Ken Lilly then moved that the following recommendation be adopted:

“The Executive Board requests that in an effort to be fair and consistent, no salaries will be published, but will be made available to any Arkansas Baptist upon request.”

Motion was seconded and carried.

(3) Southern Baptist College

36. Ken Lilly presented the following recommendation and moved for adoption:

The Executive Board recommends that the Arkansas Baptist State Convention approve the purpose of Southern Baptist College to achieve four year status according to the following plan and guidelines, said proposal having been requested by the Board of Trustees to the Program Committee and by that committee to the Executive Board.

The Board of Trustees of Southern Baptist College wishes to express appreciation to the Executive Board of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention for the official action taken on August 25, 1983, which commended our Trustees for "Faith and faithfulness in seeking to carry out the total task assigned them by Arkansas Baptist Convention, under the leadership of the Lord. . ." and for giving us time to share our rationale regarding our recent Board actions.

In the spirit of harmony and upon the suggestion of the Executive Secretary, the endorsement of the president of the Executive Board, and the consensus of the Executive Committee, we, the duly elected Board of Trustees of Southern Baptist College, believing that we have satisfied all reasonable objections raised in the 1982 state convention discussion related to our request for four-year status, in lieu of Southern Baptist College Trustees action of July 12, 1983, which is stated as follows:

"That we, as a Board of Trustees, adopt the motion stating that Southern Baptist College will proceed to establish a four-year program as expeditiously as we can, using sound judgment, and as funds are available;" do humbly and respectfully request of our parent body, the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, official approval in the following plan:

Assumptions as Modified

- I. The proposal presented to the Program Committee and the Executive Board has the joint sponsorship of the Board of Trustees of Southern Baptist College and of the Executive Committee of the Executive Board and that expressions of support for the proposal be presented by both groups before the Program Committee and the Executive Board.
- II. The Executive Board not merely be a conduit for the motion but rather an advocate for the motion.
- III. The time-table for the implementation of the deferred degrees will be accelerated or decelerated depending upon the development of adequate funding and available students.

Motion seconded. Ken Lilly spoke to the motion. President Miller asked that those who would be speaking for and against the motion limit their remarks to three minutes. Tommie Hinson, pastor, West Memphis, spoke for the motion. Richard Stiltner, pastor, Hope, spoke against the motion.

37. President Miller recognized Paul Sanders, Little Rock, who asked the privilege of making a motion. Paul Sanders stated that with a deep love of our Lord and Arkansas Baptists and with a desire for unity knowing that most of us has determined what we believe to be the will of God about this matter. In an effort not to further divide or hurt any brother or sister, I want to move at this time that we vote on this issue without further debate. Vote was taken to vote. Carried.

38. President Miller recognized J.T. Harvill, chairman, Tellers Committee, who designated ballot #3 for voting.

39. President Miller recognized Allen Thrasher, second vice-president, to preside for the last part of the session. Tanner Riley led the congregation in singing "Oh How He Love You and Me" and "Jesus Is Lord Of All". Special music was presented by the Music Men of Arkansas directed by Charles Wright. Pianist was James Burleson and Peggy Pearson was soloist on the flute.

40. Allen Thrasher, second vice president, introduced President Dillard Miller for the President's Message, "Ordination of The Pierced Hands".

41. J.T. Harvill, chairman, Tellers Committee, reported to the messengers that there would be a second ballot for convention president between Jon Stubblefield, Magnolia, and C.A. Johnson, Jonesboro. Ballot #1 was designated as the ballot for the run-off.

42. Ken Lilly, president of the Executive Board, announced the results of the voting for the Southern Baptist College request. 617 for the motion and 544 against. Motion carried.

43. Gordon Guest led the closing prayer.

SECOND DAY - AFTERNOON SESSION

Wednesday, November 9, 1983
"Functioning As Gifted Believers"

44. The Wednesday afternoon session was opened at 1:30 p.m. with Allen Thrasher, second vice president, presiding. Opening prayer led by Allen Thrasher. Phil Hardin, music director, Paragould First Baptist, led the congregation in singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" and "His Name is Wonderful".

45. Allen Thrasher introduced William Bennett, pastor, Fort Smith First Baptist, for the third theme interpretation. Lewis Drummond brought the Bible Study, text taken from I John 3:19-24.

46. Allen Thrasher announced that Jon Stubblefield, pastor, Central, Magnolia, had been elected president of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

Voted: To Elect First Vice President

47. Nominations were called for first vice president. Johnny Jackson, Little Rock, nominated Jack Bledsoe, Des Arc. Bill Lewis, Bryant, nominated Jesse Reed, Little Rock. Gordon Guest, Ft. Smith, nominated Ken Lilly, Ft. Smith. Emil Williams, Jonesboro, nominated Carl Bunch, Mt. Ida. Motion was made that nominations cease. Motion seconded and carried.

48. J.T. Harvill, chairman, Tellers Committee, designated ballot #2 as ballot for voting on first vice president.

Voted: To Adopt Report on Resolutions

49. Second Vice President Allen Thrasher recognized John McClanahan, chairman, Resolutions Committee. John McClanahan presented the following resolutions:

RESOLUTION #1 - ON SEPARATION OF CHURCH & STATE

In keeping with our historic tradition and biblical principles regarding separation of church and state,

BE IT RESOLVED that the 130th session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention again go on record reaffirming our belief in separation of church and state, and

BE IT RESOLVED we again register our strong disapproval of any further consideration for the appointment or funding of a special envoy or ambassador from the United States to establish diplomatic relations with the Vatican, and we instruct the officers of the Convention to send a copy of this resolution to the Arkansas Congressional Delegation and to the President of the United States.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Arkansas Baptists be asked to earnestly pray for such agencies as the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs and Americans United for Separation of Church and State as leadership is extended in this vital area of American life.

RESOLUTION #2 - ON ALCHOLIC BEVERAGE INTERESTS

WHEREAS, the Christian Civic Foundation has recently begun a petition campaign in our state to express strong objection to alcoholic beverage interests using local, state, national and international athletic events to promote consumption of their products, and

WHEREAS, such propagandizing takes unfair advantage of children and youth, contributing to the growing problem of teen alcoholism.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Arkansas Baptists actively support this petition drive to encourage President Reagan, Governor Clinton, state and national business, religious, educational, medical, athletic directors, coaches and legislative leaders to use their influence in stopping alcoholic beverage interests from taking unfair advantage of our most priceless heritage, the children and youth of our state and nation.

RESOLUTION #3 - ON LEGALIZED GAMBLING

In view of increased favorable publicity presently extended legalized gambling by state and national media, and

Considering the gaming interests are putting unusual pressure on southern states to join others in raising public revenue through legalized gambling, and

Considering that unnecessary risk taking is morally wrong and contrary to that section of the U.S. Constitution preamble which emphasizes the need of establishing justice and insuring domestic tranquility

BE IT RESOLVED that Arkansas Baptists send formal protest to the media for their part in promoting that which adds to the multiplicity of individual and social problems of our state and nation, and

BE IT RESOLVED that the churches of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention be asked to communicate their desires to state and national governmental leaders in regards to this proposal, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that pastors be asked to consider addressing more from the pulpit the growing problem of gambling, bearing in mind that the Holy Spirit often convicts of sin via human instrumentality.

RESOLUTION #4 - ON PREVENTION OF SOCIAL ADDICTIONS

In the face of a growing pluralistic society affecting every area of contemporary life, which often results in moral and spiritual breakdown of families, homes and society in general,

BE IT RESOLVED that Arkansas Baptists give emphasis to following the New Testament pattern of evangelism and discipleship through the local churches.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, in support of the above efforts, that continued prayerful and financial assistance be given the Christian Civic Foundation of Arkansas in its work of preventing addictions related to alcohol, other dangerous drugs, pornography and gambling.

RESOLUTION #5 - ON TELEVISION PROGRAMMING

WHEREAS, Arkansas Baptists are concerned with the moral tone of much of the television programming viewed within our state and across the nation, and

WHEREAS, it is our belief that television, being a public medium, should act with corporately responsible citizenship,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we commend the Arkansas Educational Television Network (AETN) for their recent action to reverse their previous decision to telecast programming within our state which would include nudity and sexual misconduct, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we call upon the national television networks, local Arkansas stations and cable companies, and their sponsors to demonstrate responsible concern for the moral tone of their programmings, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we urge Arkansas Baptist churches and individuals to express corporately and personally to the networks, stations, cable companies, and their sponsors strong objection to programs that present immorality as acceptable behavior.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we request the officers of this convention to send copies of this resolution to the governor of our state, to the program director of the Arkansas Educational Television Network, and to the program director of the National Public Broadcasting System.

RESOLUTION #6 - ON APPRECIATION

WHEREAS, the 1983 convention program has been used of the Lord to challenge and inspire us, and

WHEREAS, we the messengers recognize the dedicated leadership of our 1983 convention officers: Rev. Dillard Miller, president; Rev. W.L. Probasco, first vice-president; Dr. Allen D. Thrasher, second vice-president; Dr. Don Moore, executive secretary; and

WHEREAS, the one hundred thirtieth annual session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention has been enriched by the facilities of the Pine Bluff Convention Center and the assistance of the churches of Harmony Baptist Association, be it therefore

RESOLVED, that we express our appreciation to the Program Committee for their excellent work; to the convention officers for the outstanding way they have led us; and to the area churches who have contributed so much to the effectiveness of this convention.

50. Andy Kerr moved that all six resolutions be adopted as printed. Motion seconded. Following discussion, motion was carried.

51. Phil Hardin led the congregation in singing "I Love To Tell The Story" and "Share His Love".

52. Second Vice President Allen Thrasher introduced John Gilbreath, executive director, Baptist Medical System, Little Rock, who will be retiring in December, 1983. John Gilbreath presented their report and introduced Russell Harrington, new executive director.

Voted: To Adopt Convention Nominating Committee Report

53. Dennis Dodson, chairman, Convention Nominating Committee, brought the report of the Committee and moved its adoption (see pages 11 - 20) for all boards and committees. Motion seconded and carried.

54. President Dillard Miller announced a run-off would be necessary for first vice president between Ken Lilly and Jesse Reed. J.T. Harvill, chairman, Tellers Committee, designated Ballot #4 for voting.

55. Don Moore, executive secretary, presented a plaque to Nadine Bjorkman for her 26 years of service to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

56. Don Moore presented a plaque of appreciation for 23 years of service to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention to Lawson Hatfield, former director of the Sunday School Department.

Voted: On Constitution and By-Law Changes

57. Johnny Jackson, chairman, Constitution and By-Laws Committee, presented the following constitutional changes and moved their adoption:

The Constitution and By-Laws Committee recommends that the title of the Executive Secretary of the Executive Board be changed to Executive Director of the Executive Board. We further recommend that the wording of our Constitution and By-Laws be changed in the following manner to reflect this new title:

CONSTITUTION

Article V - Officers - Section 1:

The officers of this Convention shall be: President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President. Each officer of the Convention shall be elected annually. The Executive Director of the Executive Board shall also serve as the Recording Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, and shall continue in office until his successor in office shall have been elected and qualified.

Article V - Officers - Section 3:

The word "Secretary" shall be changed to "Executive Director".

BY LAWS

By-Law 2 - Officers

The next to last paragraph "the Treasurer of the Executive Board shall be also Treasurer of the Convention" shall be deleted as this matter is covered in Article V of the Constitution.

By-Law 4 - Trusteeships:

The words "Executive Secretary" in paragraph one shall be changed to read Executive Director.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAW CHANGES 1982

The following Constitutional Changes were approved in the 1982 Convention. According to Constitution procedure, changes must be approved in two consecutive conventions.

By-Law 3, Paragraph 6

"Members of the Executive Board, having served two full terms of three years each shall not be eligible for re-election until as much as one year has elapsed. In determining eligibility for re-election, any individual filling a vacancy, shall be deemed to have served a full term if that individual shall have served two-thirds or more of a full term."

By-Law 4, Paragraph 2:

"Members of Board of Trustees having served two full terms of three years each shall not be eligible for re-election until as much as one year has elapsed. In determining eligibility for re-election, any individual filling a vacancy, shall be deemed to have served a full term if that individual shall have served two thirds or more of a full term."

By-Law 6, Paragraph 1:

"A standing Constitution and By-Laws Committee shall be composed of six (6) members to be nominated by the Nominating Committee. One-third of the membership (2) shall be elected annually to serve for a term of three (3) years. No member shall be eligible to serve more than two terms until one year has elapsed. In determining eligibility for re-election, any individual filling a vacancy, shall be deemed to have served a full term if that individual shall have served two thirds or more of a full term."

Motion seconded and carried.

Voted: To Reaffirm Convention Constitution

58. Johnny Jackson moved that the following recommendation from the Constitution and By-Laws Committee as a means of reaffirming our present constitution as a just, fair, equitable and authoritative document be adopted:

The Constitution and By-Laws Committee unanimously recommends that the 1983 Arkansas Baptist State Convention reaffirm our convention constitution as being a just and equitable and authoritative document to serve as the final rule on all matters pertaining to our convention institutions, agencies, committees and programs of work. We further recommend that this convention call upon all trustees and employees of all agencies and institutions to faithfully abide within the clear guidelines of Article VII, Section 4, of our constitution which partially reads "all trusteeships shall be subject to the direction of the Convention in all matters pertaining to administering the affairs of the institution with which their trusteeship is concerned" and with By-Laws Section 4 which reads "All trusteeships of the Convention shall be amenable to the Convention on all matters through its Executive Board".

Johnny Jackson spoke to the motion. Motion seconded and carried.

59. President Miller announced that Jesse Reed had been elected the first vice-president.

60. Charles Baker, senior vice-president, presented the report from the Baptist Memorial Health Care System, Inc., Memphis. President Miller introduced Freddie Pike, newly elected director of the Sunday School Department, who reported that Sunday School enrollment has had a net gain of 5,000 for the year 1983.

Voted: To Elect Second Vice President

61. Nominations were called for second vice president. Ralph Douglas, Pine Bluff, nominated John H. McClanahan, Pine Bluff. Jerre Hassell moved that nominations cease and John H. McClanahan be elected by acclamation. Motion seconded and carried.

62. Phil Hardin, music director, Paragould First, led the congregation in singing "Jesus is All the World to Me". Dillard Miller led in prayer. Special music for the session was presented by Steve Landers, minister of music, South Side Baptist Church, Pine Bluff, and Bruce Rodnick, minister of music, Immanuel, Pine Bluff. Joe Atchison, pastor, South Side Baptist Church, Pine Bluff, preached the annual Convention Sermon, "Stability in the Church", scripture Colossians 1:23.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Don Moore, Executive Secretary-Treasurer

Personnel

The main ministries of the Executive Board are carried out by employees of the Executive Board. A number of changes have taken place during the year. The retirement of Nadine Bjorkman after 26 years and the resignation of Lawson Hatfield after 23 years were the most drastic. The reassignment of James Walker to fill both the Annuity and Stewardship positions took effect in July. Phil Copeland was employed as the assistant business manager. The Sunday School director and Evangelism associate positions remain unfilled at the time of this publication.

The year will close with at least five departments requesting additional personnel to assist in fulfilling the requests of the churches for assistance. No budgetary or program provision has been made for these.

Building

The building purchased in 1982 for expansion has been renovated. The D & H Construction Company was awarded the contract. Cost of renovation contract was $136,505. The Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine and Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Ministry are housed in the renovated facility at 601 West Capitol.

Programs

The Executive Board's Program Committee was charged with making a study of all agency and institutional projections of programs and funding for the next ten years "with a view to equitable and amicable relationships in the advancement of the cause of Christ in Arkansas and throughout the world".

A 1981 request for a special drive for funds to be given by Arkansas Baptist churches over the next three years as a climax to Ouachita's Centennial Advancement Campaign was denied, while they were encouraged to continue their other campaign for individual and corporate contributions.

The Executive Board voted to recommend to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention approval of a plan by which Southern Baptist College would become a four year college under the provisions outlined elsewhere in this book (pages 74-76).

Assistance to involuntarily terminated pastors and staff members is a matter expected to be addressed in the coming years.

Provision has been made for special events that will assist bi-vocational pastors.

Continued enthusiasm exists over the plan to move toward a 50-50 division of Cooperative funds between ministries in the state and beyond the state.

We are indebted to our gracious Lord and a dedicated staff for making this a record year in many areas of our ministry.

(2) Publishing of Salaries

The Executive Board requests that in an effort to be fair and consistent, no salaries will be published, but will be made available to any Arkansas Baptist upon request.

(3) Southern Baptist College Request

The Executive Board recommends that the Arkansas Baptist State Convention approve the purpose of Southern Baptist College to achieve four year status according to the following plan and guidelines, said proposal having been requested by the Board of Trustees to the Program Committee and by that committee to the Executive Board.

The Board of Trustees of Southern Baptist College wishes to express appreciation to the Executive Board of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention for the official action taken on August 25, 1983, which commended our Trustees for "Faith and faithfulness in seeking to carry out the total task assigned them by Arkansas Baptist Convention, under the leadership of the Lord..." and for giving us time to share our rationale regarding our recent Board actions.

In the spirit of harmony and upon the suggestion of the Executive Secretary, the endorsement of the president of the Executive Board, and the consensus of the Executive Committee, we, the duly elected Board of Trustees of Southern Baptist College, believing that we have satisfied all reasonable objections raised in the 1982 state convention discussion related to our request for four-year status, in lieu of the Southern Baptist College Trustees action of July 12, 1983, which is stated as follows:

"That we as a Board of Trustees adopt the motion stating that SBC will proceed to establish a four-year program as expeditiously as we can, using sound judgment, and as funds are available";

do humbly and respectfully request of our parent body, the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, official approval in the following plan:

Plan

I. 1984-85 - Initiate B.A. in Christian Ministries -

*Explanation:

This calculation is on an academic year and not the Convention fiscal year.

Assumptions as Modified

- I. The proposal presented to the Program Committee and the Executive Board has the joint sponsorship of the Board of Trustees of Southern Baptist and of the Executive Committee of the Executive Board and that expressions of support for the proposal be presented by both groups before the Program Committee and the Executive Board.
- II. The Executive Board not merely be a conduit for the motion but rather an advocate for the motion.
- III. The time-table for the implementation of the deferred degrees will be accelerated or decelerated depending upon the development of adequate funding and available students.

ANNUITY

Mrs. Nadine Bjorkman, Arkansas Representative

The Annuity Board continues to reinforce its position as a sound financial pension board with another year of outstanding performance. For the first time in its 63-year history, total assets administered by the board exceed the billion-dollar mark to close 1982 with $1,057,947,515, a 17.8% increase over 1981.

Investment income had a substantial increase in the fourth quarter to close the year with a record total of $120,502,580. This growth has continued thus far into 1983. As of June 30, 1983, total assets held in trust by the Annuity Board totaled $1,182,313,932. This is an increase of $243,114,736 over June 30, 1982.

Premiums and dues through the first two quarters of this year reached a record $45,775,947. A year earlier, the total was $44,090,415.

As of June 30 of this year, the board has paid a record $15,188,353 in benefits to 13,891 annuitants.

This report at the end of July will be my final report to you. I wish to thank you for the privilege of serving in the various areas of responsibility during more than twenty-five years.

The report on retirement in Arkansas as of June 30, 1983, shows 697 "employers" (churches and associations) with 1,006 "employees" participating. For this same period in 1976 there were 609 employers and 784 participants.

The records show that a total of 555 new retirement applications have been processed during the period beginning January 1, 1977 to date, with 1,416 upgrades and 113 new church or association employers. Participation in our plans is, of course, voluntary on the part of the church and the employees or ministers. The percentage of eligible participating churches and associations has increased from 48.68% to 53.49% at the end of June, 1983.

The Church Insurance Program designed for Southern Baptist church and association personnel has shown a healthy increase in Arkansas during the past six and one-half years.

Incomplete records in 1976 showed 196 persons with life insurance protection and 92 persons in the health insurance plan. The last report for this year, March 31, 1983, shows 559 persons from 379 churches and associations in the insurance program in Arkansas: 535 in the various life insurance plans, 147 with long term disability protection and 374 participating in the health insurance plan.

The following agencies are participating employers with the Annuity Board:

- Arkansas Baptist State Convention
- Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services
- Arkansas Baptist Foundation
- Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine*
- Ouachita Baptist University
- Southern Baptist College
- (Baptist Medical Center System, Chaplains only)

ARKANSAS BAPTIST ASSEMBLY

Freddie Pike, Interim Director

A record number of campers registered for the seven 1983 Arkansas Baptist Assemblies. The total enrollment was 6,274, an increase of 746 over the 1982 enrollment and 424 over the previous record set in 1980.

There were 315 professions of faith, 444 rededications, and 33 commitments to church-related vocations.

The following table gives the week by week information:

Week	Campers	Professions Of Faith	Church Related Vocations	Rededications
1	741	59	13	75
2	1041	55	3	111
3	746	20	1	25
4	762	44	6	37
5	975	51	1	96
6	1015	41	1	52
7	994	45	8	48
	6274	315	33	444

The Children's Park registered 1,212 fourth, fifth and sixth graders. This number includes 116 faculty members. Recorded decisions included 131 professions of faith and 129 other decisions.

The Children's Building registered 188 preschoolers and younger children and 87 workers, a total of 275.

Several improvements had been made prior to assembly time. The dining hall had been enlarged and refurbished. The 30-foot extension on the front of the building increased table space by fifty percent. The lowered ceiling, insulated walls, and enclosed windows made the air-conditioning more effective. The new outside siding and inside coat of paint made the building more attractive.

Upon the recommendation of the Operating Committee of the Executive Board, the dining hall was named Hatfield Hall, in honor of Lawson Hatfield, director of the assembly from 1971 until his resignation April 30, 1983. Dr. Hatfield was program director of the assembly prior to 1971. He was honored for his many years of service to the Arkansas Baptist Assembly during the sixth assembly.

Improvements in the Children's Park included an enlarged tabernacle with a new platform and an upgraded P.A. system.

A new P.A. system was installed in the large tabernacle. The adult Bible Teaching pavilion was enclosed and air-conditioned. Carpet was installed in all family units and the Business Office and Snack Shack were improved.

Seven assemblies are planned for 1984. The facilities are rented to four other summer camping groups and several winter-time retreats are administered.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

Tom J. Logue, Director

Baptist Student Center Construction

1. A beautiful new Baptist Student Center has been constructed on the campus of Southern Arkansas University, Technical Branch at Camden. It is our first center to include passive solar features for energy saving. This center brings to 14 the number of Baptist Student Centers owned by the convention.
2. Renovation of the inside of the Baptist Student Center at Southern Arkansas University at Magnolia was finished this summer in preparation for the addition to be completed next summer.

Personnel Changes

1. Two of our student workers have resigned to work in new convention areas. John Gilbert has accepted work in Cincinnati and Debbie Harless in Indianapolis.
2. Al Morris is our new director at Garland County Community College in Hot Springs.

3. Mike Weaver, BSU Director at the University of Arkansas in Monticello, has become Associate BSU Director at University of Arkansas in Little Rock.
4. Mike Fowler is our new BSU Director at Phillips County Community College at Helena.

Evangelism and Missions

1. Our churches reported 285 college students baptized in 1982.
2. This summer we had 40 summer missionaries, appointed and supported by their fellow students, on the field. Perhaps as many as another 40 of our students were appointed by the Home Mission Board. Each year our summer missionaries report several hundred professions of faith as results of their ministry.
3. Our mission opportunity continues with international students, as over 1,500 have chosen to study in Arkansas.
4. More than 125 students participated in spring break projects in Chicago, Cincinnati, Mississippi, and Washington, D.C.

BSU Third Century Campaign

1. Money continues to come in on the BSU Third Century Campaign. Perhaps another $50,000 will be received in 1983.
2. Ten Student-to-Student workers have been placed on ten campuses for 1983-84 because of the campaign, nine in Arkansas and one in Chicago.
3. The Campaign has also helped us support former Arkansans doing BSU work in Utah, Ohio, Indiana, New England, and Washington, D.C.

Thanks

To Arkansas Baptists for their continuing support of Baptist Student work on 27 Arkansas campuses. On half of these campuses, Baptist Student Union is the only Christian group at work.

BROTHERHOOD DEPARTMENT

Neal Guthrie, Director

The Brotherhood Department seeks to instill mission awareness in men and boys through the local church, association and state. Our central task is to teach what Southern Baptists are doing in the way of missions here at home and around the world, and then to get involved in mission support and service.

This year we have seen more units for Baptist men organize and an increase in R.A. Chapters in the churches. This increase is due largely to tireless efforts of pastors, interested laymen, directors and counselors, making sure that a mission organization for men and boys is available.

A great ministry has come into being in Arkansas. Baptist men have developed the Disaster Relief effort this past year and have helped in so many ways those who have been in crises. Over 1,500 volunteers helped in floods, tornadoes, and other types of disasters. Food, clothing, money, furniture, appliances, plus long hours cleaning up and feeding thousands have been a part of this ministry.

Baptist Men are celebrating 75 years of mission work. They held a banquet and meeting to commemorate the success of Brotherhood work these past 75 years and to pray for future years, that men and boys would stand fast in their task to win the world by the year 2000.

Royal Ambassadors gathered 1,500 strong to celebrate the 75th Anniversary with a parade in downtown Little Rock, a great celebration at the opening ceremonies of the 30th Annual R.A. Congress held in Park Hill Baptist Church in North Little Rock, and finally with the State R.A. Track Meet at the North Little Rock Northeast High School Stadium.

R.A. Camps continue to grow in attendance as boys come to learn and gain skills in goals for their lives through mission awareness, campcraft, nature, recreation and great fellowship. Many young men make life-changing decisions at camp.

Royal Ambassadors from Arkansas and other states are constructing a trail for the blind, a braille trail, in Burns Park in North Little Rock. This exciting ministry will be used by both the vision impaired and the sighted person to learn what God has created in His great outdoors.

In July, Arkansas Baptist Men and Pioneer Royal Ambassadors traveled to Alaska to help in a camp experience for youth and to build a new church building. This exciting mission drew participants from several churches in the state with 27 making the trip. Alaska Baptists continue to grow in strength and appreciate the help we can give in manpower with such projects.

A group of Jr. High boys and their counselors helped in a mission center near Tulsa, Oklahoma, in July. This was a first for this age and is under study by the convention as a possible annual event.

In the fall Brotherhood Training Conferences are held at eight different locations in Arkansas. There are leader training meetings designed to help the association and local church Brotherhood leadership.

It has perhaps been the best year ever for Lay Renewal. More churches are discovering this exciting event for their congregation. The Journey Into Lifestyle Evangelism continues to carry with it an impact on the lives of countless individuals as they discover what God has gifted them for and begin to share Christ through their special ministry. A new and exciting third weekend centered around discipleship is now ready and should carry with it new dimensions in the Renewal Journey.

Royal Ambassadors will close out the year with the Annual R.A. Happening. Boys gather from across the state to enjoy a Saturday filled with fun things to do, learning experiences, inspiration and a big lunch. The date is November 12, which concludes National R.A. Week.

It has been a great year for Brotherhood work. Baptist Men, Royal Ambassadors, Renewal, World Mission Conferences, Disaster Relief, Camps, Mission Projects, Conferences and the list goes on, have helped accomplish the tasks of Mission Education and Mission Action. It is a learn and do organization. The only organization in the church that is specifically designed to do this for men and boys. Sound interesting? Let us help you begin a total Brotherhood ministry in your church.

BUSINESS SERVICES

L.L. Collins, Jr., Director

The function of the Division of Business Services for the Arkansas Baptist Convention is two fold. The first is to provide support for the Executive Board departments of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. The second is to be supportive in the total work of Arkansas Baptists. The nature of that support is to be an enabler helping the above to function more efficiently in ministry and to realize the maximum use of the financial resources provided by Southern Baptists of Arkansas.

Several things have been accomplished to enhance that support. The building at 601 West Capital Avenue purchased in 1982 is at the time of this report being renovated. It will be occupied by the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine and the Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services. Because of this it became necessary to reevaluate the telephone communications. A system has been purchased from Allied Telecommunications Systems. That system has been installed. The parking lot is being refurbished and a fence added to provide additional security.

During the year Mr. Phil Copeland was added to our staff as Assistant Business Manager. He has basically four functions:

- (1) Central purchasing agent,
- (2) Control of inventory,
- (3) Supervision of printing and communications,
- (4) Photographic consultant for Executive Board personnel.

We are in the process of adding an IBM Personal Computer XT to our computer system. This gives us three basic units, the IBM System 32 which is out-dated and must soon be replaced, a Displaywriter (word processor) and the personal computer. The personal computer doesn't answer all our needs, but it is a step in an integrated plan of data processing.

It is the continuing commitment of the Division of Business Services to continue to supply the necessary support of the operation of Executive Board programs of Arkansas Baptists while at the same time emphasizing the greater stewardship of the total mission of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

CAMP PARON

Robert Ferguson, Business Manager

Camp Paron, located 45 miles west of Little Rock on State Highway 9, consists of 263 acres of beautiful rolling forested hills and open grassy area with dormitory type facilities for 210 persons. Situated adjacent to Ouachita National Forest, the setting is ideal for church and convention groups to "come aside from their busy schedules to enjoy the beauty and serenity it affords".

From July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983, thirty-six groups have used the facilities with total attendance of 2,843.

Summer youth camp schedules includes two weeks for National Baptists, two weeks for Royal Ambassadors, four weeks for Girls in Action, two weeks for local church camps, and eight overnight groups.

Chapel construction plans are progressing. We are hoping to finish construction this year. This Chapel will seat 350 persons in a most worshipful setting. We have needed the Chapel for many years. Neal Guthrie, State Brotherhood Director, is interested in contacting volunteers for all phases of the Chapel building program. Please call or write him if your laymen would help. We are working with the "Camps and Assemblies" committee of our State Executive Board. Any suggestions you may have to improve the service of facilities will be appreciated.

Rev. Bobby Bean is Resident Camp Manager. Information concerning facilities, rates and dates available can be secured by writing or calling Robert Ferguson, 525 W. Capitol, P.O. Box 552, Little Rock, Arkansas 72203, (501) 376-4791 in the Baptist Building.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COUNCIL

Robert A. Parker, Director

Having begun July 1, 1979, the Christian Life Council is in its fifth year of service. It exists as an agency of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention to help changed people change the world for Christ. Individuals and churches are urged to be constantly aware of the ethical implications of the gospel. It is extremely important not only to believe but to behave.

The director serves as liaison between the Convention and the Christian Civic Foundation of Arkansas. He assisted the Foundation's new director, John Finn, during sessions of the 1983 Arkansas State Legislature. The Christian Civic Foundation deals specifically, legislatively and educationally with the following social issues: ethyl alcohol and other dangerous drugs, pornography and gambling.

The Christian Life Council serves as a resource agency regarding many other social issues. Thousands of pertinent informational brochures are distributed each year. The director speaks at churches, associational and other denominational meetings, camps and assemblies.

A Christian Citizenship Conference was held July 1 at the Geyer Springs First Baptist Church. Several challenging and informative messages were brought by state and national governmental leaders. Dr. Larry Braidfoot, charged with promoting responsible Christian citizenship on the staff of the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, was the concluding speaker. Several Arkansas Baptists were presented plaques of appreciation for leadership in patriotism and community service.

Further involvement of the Christian Life Council the past year included working with the Arkansas Baptist World Hunger Committee, the Arkansas Interfaith Hunger Task Force, the Central Arkansas Food Bank, the Lord's Day Alliance of Central Arkansas, the National Conference of Christians and Jews and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Many articles have been written for publication by the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, to be better informed and equipped for effective Christian living. Baptists are urged to subscribe to and read each issue. The Christian Life Council endeavors to support the total program of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention in efforts to both win others to Jesus Christ and to disciple those won.

CHURCH MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Ervin Keathley, Director

The Church Music Department recorded a 3.7% growth in 1982-83. This translates into 1,784 more people being enrolled in the music ministry of our churches. The total music ministry enrollment now stands at 49,445. This is the 18th consecutive year this department has shown an increase in enrollment. We thank the Lord for His continued blessing.

Our department exists to assist our churches and associations in strengthening their ministry through the use of music. We attempt to do this through personal counseling and by providing meetings where we can train leaders and interpret resource materials.

1982-83 Music Department Highlights

I. Leadership Training

1. Associational Music Directors

Sixteen Associational Music Directors attended the Key-Leader meeting in May this year. We have made an effort to reach all the others with personal conferences.

2. Volunteer/Part Time Music Leaders

Two workshops were conducted again this year. Fifty-two leaders attended the one at Camp Paron in March and nineteen more came to Walnut Ridge in August to receive training in basic church music skills.

3. Full Time Ministers of Music

Ninety-seven music and youth leaders registered for the August youth conference designed to help them interpret and implement the 1983-84 theme of "Reaching Youth through Music".

II. Music Tournaments

1. Associational Tournaments

Sixteen associations conducted tournaments this year, with a total of 100 participants in six areas of musical competition. The number is growing each year. Winners of associational events are eligible to advance to the state tournament.

2. State Music Tournament

Winners of the State Tournament at Second Baptist Church in Hot Springs were:

Senior High Vocal Solo
 Junior High Vocal Solo
 Sr. High Hymn Playing-Piano
 Jr. High Hymn Playing-Piano
 Senior High Handbells
 7th & 8th Instrumental Solo
 9th & 10th Instrumental Solo
 11th & 12th Instrumental Solo
 Sr. High Instrumental Ens.

Lendell Black - Second, Conway
 LeAnn Foust - Forrest City, FBC
 Sheila Marlin - Walnut St., Jonesboro
 Traci Page - Cabot, FBC
 Carole Ann Clark - Camden, FBC
 Thomas Clary - Star City, FBC
 Ron Ennes - Geyer Springs, LR
 Mandy Draffen - Paragould, FBC
 Steve Wilks, dr. - Immanuel, Ft. Smith

3. State Vocal Ensemble Jubilee

Winners of the Ensemble Jubilee were:

Senior High, Small	Seeds of Joy - Monette, FBC
Junior High, Small	Duet - Monette, FBC
Senior High, Large Amplified	Chara - Mt. Home, FBC
Sr. High, Large Unamplified	B.A.S.I.C. - Forrest City, FBC
Jr. High, Large Unamplified	Living Free - Beech St., Texarkana

III. Music Festivals

1. Youth Festival	15 churches	18 choirs	531 singers
2. Children's Festivals	50 churches	50 choirs	1205 singers
3. Handbell Festival	20 churches	29 choirs	388 ringers
4. Ensemble Jubilee	16 churches	24 ensembles	174 singers
5. Adult Festivals	27 churches	27 choirs	987 singers

IV. Music Camps

1. Young Musicians Camp

610 campers, grades 4-6, from 42 churches enrolled for this exciting four day musical event. They received daily musical training plus the opportunity to sing in their choice of four choral works. There were fifteen decisions in our last worship service.

2. Music Arkansas

117 youth and adults from nineteen churches enjoyed a tremendous week of music and missions involvement. "Joy", by Ed Seabough and Bill Cates, and "A Call to My People", by Esther and Bob Burroughs, two mission cantatas, were learned and presented on the final evening.

We also had an outstanding band and orchestra experience for our instrumentalists.

V. Speaking Instrumentally

Our goal is to have a Pedalpoint (keyboard) Clinic in every association. Twelve leaders have been trained to lead these clinics, and so far ten associations have participated. Several others have scheduled or are planning a clinic. 143 keyboard instrumentals have been involved.

"Day of Instrumental Praise" and "Organist/Pianist Appreciation Day" are being observed in numerous churches.

VI. Summer of Music Missions

Tina Murdock and Lisa Nevin were enlisted to assist our department for nine weeks this summer doing local church music schools and giving individual help to music leaders. Tina is from Southside Baptist Church in Pine Bluff and is a recent missionary journeyman to Singapore. Lisa is from First Baptist Church, Cabot, and is a senior at Ouachita.

These girls did an excellent work according to the reports from the churches and pastors. We plan to offer the program again next year.

VII. Conclusion

This is the forty-third annual report of the Church Music department, established in 1941 as a part of the Religious Education Department, and the first state music program in our Convention.

CHURCH TRAINING DEPARTMENT

Robert Holley, Director

I. Introduction

In each of its five program assignments the Church Training Department's primary role is that of equipping church leaders. The projects and events conducted by the department are designed primarily for pastors, church staff, church secretaries, deacons, Church Training leaders, church Media Library workers, church recreation leaders, and church officers and committees. The department is responsible for and relates to five Sunday School Board programs: (1) Church Training, (2) Church Administration, (3) Family Ministry, (4) Media Library and (5) Church Recreation.

The following report is a summary of the major projects conducted by the department for 1982-83. In addition, the staff of the Church Training Department has been involved in personal consultations with a large number of churches, pastors and other church leaders in response to their requests for assistance.

II. Review of 1982-83

1. Church Training Program

1982-83 has been the first year of the Developing Believers emphasis, one of the three Bold Mission Thrust emphases for 1982-85. The year was marked by unusual growth in Church Training in our state and in the Southern Baptist Convention.

The projects conducted by the Arkansas Church Training Department were designed to help churches strengthen their training program. It is our objective to work with associations and churches to help provide the kind of training opportunities that will lead church members to grow toward maturity in Christ.

The following report includes the major projects and events conducted by the department during the past year.

- (1) There are 1,264 churches in our State Convention. They reported a total enrollment of 82,285, an increase of 4.5% above the previous year.
- (2) The annual Pastor-Director Retreat was held at Camp Paron on August 13-14 with 53 pastors and directors attending.
- (3) Thirty-four associations were represented at the Associational Church Training Leadership Conference with 144 participants on August 27-28.
- (4) Twenty-seven associations were represented at the annual Church Training Convention on October 26. Seventy-eight churches were represented with 202 persons registered in the conferences.

- (5) "M" Night was held in 31 associations in November. The total attendance was 5,492 with 417 churches represented, 338 pastors and 276 Church Training Directors.
 - (6) Youth-Adult Workshops were conducted in fifteen areas of the state in January with 259 participants from 24 associations and 96 churches.
 - (7) A State Developing Believers Launch Meeting was held in February to train associational leaders to interpret the Developing Believers emphasis for 1983-84. Thirty associations were represented with 65 participants.
 - (8) Metro-Youth DiscipleLife Consultants were conducted in the Concord Association in September to interpret the DiscipleLife emphasis for youth. There were 38 participants in the conferences and individual consultations.
 - (9) District Bible Drills and Speakers' Tournaments were held in each of the eight districts in March. There were 441 participants with 379 in the Children's Bible Drill, 49 in the Youth Bible Drill and 13 in the Speakers' Tournament.
 - (10) The State Youth Convention was held on April 1 in the Statehouse Convention Center in Little Rock with over 4,500 participants. David Hacker from Northvale Church in Harrison was selected as First Place Winner in the Youth Bible Drill and represented our state at Ridgecrest this summer. Jodi Bourland from First Church, Caraway, was selected as First Place Winner in the Youth Speakers' Tournament and represented our state at Glorieta.
 - (11) Twenty Associational Church Training Directors attended the Church Growth Conference for Associational Key Leaders on May 2-3.
 - (12) Our second MasterLife Workshop was conducted on May 16-20 on the Ouachita Campus with 33 participants from four states.
 - (13) Department staff led 14 associational leadership projects to train Church Training leaders and to interpret the Developing Believers emphasis.
 - (14) The department also assisted 13 churches in leadership training projects, as well as numerous personal consultations with pastors, staff and other church leaders.
2. Church Administration
- (1) Church Vocations Conferences were conducted during five weeks at Siloam Springs with 91 youth participating.
 - (2) A Church Secretary's Certification Seminar was conducted in August with 16 secretaries participating representing 11 churches and four associations.
 - (3) A Group Career Assessment Conference was conducted in November with twelve participants from nine churches.

- (4) An ABC's of Church Administration Conference was conducted for eight pastors in Trinity Association in January.
- (5) Four Area Church Administration Workshops were conducted in February for pastors, staff, deacons and church secretaries with 158 participants from 57 churches and 23 associations.
- (6) A Long-Range Planning Seminar was held in April with 21 participants.
- (7) A Minister of Education/Youth Seminar was conducted in April for Ministers of Education and Youth. There were 23 participants registered.
- (8) Area Summer Youth Ministries Conferences were conducted in May in four areas of the state with 76 participants from 76 churches.
- (9) Parent-Youth dialogues were conducted in two churches with 146 participants.
- (10) Deacon Ministry Conferences were conducted in seven churches with over 500 participants.
- (11) One conference was conducted for bivocational pastors on the Basics of Small Church Administration.
- (12) Individual consultation was provided for four churches in Youth Ministry and two churches in Church Vocations.
- (13) A Youth Ministry Course was taught for students at Ouachita and a leadership course at Boyce Bible School by Bill Falkner, associate in the department.

3. Family Ministry

Family Enrichment

- (1) Three area Strengthen Families Workshops were conducted in March. In addition, two Associational Strengthen Families Workshops were conducted with 210 participants.
- (2) Two Marriage Enrichment Retreats were conducted with 34 couples participating.
- (3) Marriage Enrichment Retreat Leader Training was conducted with six couples participating.
- (4) Consultation on Basic Marriage Enrichment Retreats was provided for an additional 18 couples.

Single Adult Ministry

- (1) The second annual State Single Adult Conference was held in February with 321 participants.

Senior Adult Ministry

- (1) Forty-two senior adults attended the Senior Adult Chautauqua trip to Glorieta sponsored by the department.
- (2) Arkansas joined five other states to sponsor the Mid-South Senior Adult Convention in September in Memphis. There were 93 participants registered from Arkansas.

- (3) A conference on Senior Adult Ministry was conducted on the Ouachita Campus in May with 93 senior adults participating.
4. Church Media Library
 - (1) A Media Library Conference was conducted in January with 37 participants from 17 churches and five associations.
 - (2) A Media Library Conference was planned and conducted in one additional association.
5. Church Recreation
 - (1) A Mini-Rec Lab was conducted by the department at Camp Paron in March with 40 participants.
 - (2) The department sponsored a group attending the Rec Lab at Glorieta in January with 12 people attending from our church.
 - (3) Individual consultation on Church Recreation was provided for five churches.

COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES WITH NATIONAL BAPTISTS

Robert Ferguson, Director

Cooperative Ministries with National Baptists in Arkansas is a joint effort of the Home Mission Board, SBC and the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. We seek to relate to National Baptists as brothers and sisters in Christ, and co-workers in various Christian ministries in order that churches and associations may be strengthened and non-Christians brought to a saving faith in Christ.

Six Student Summer Missionaries spent 10 weeks in 16 churches and 6 backyard Bible clubs conducting vacation Bible schools, camps and youth programs, enrolling 1,375 youth and resulting in 48 professions of faith. (summer 1983)

Nineteen college students and 20 seminary students were assisted with Scholarship program funds totaling $9,352.00.

Baptist Student Union activities at the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff, Reverend Lacy Solomon, director, enrolled over 500 students in Bible classes and various Baptist Student Union sponsored activities.

Extension Centers for in-service training enrolled 177 pastors and laymen in Bearden, Lewisville, Little Rock, Pine Bluff and Eudora. The Pine Bluff Center graduated 13 persons this year, at Arkansas Baptist College who worked for four years to achieve this recognition.

“Hart of the Hills” camp at Paron was attended by 361 campers in a two-week program with 15 professions of faith.

Forty-four Leadership Clinics and Institutes across the state enrolled 2,427 persons.

Joint Committees are organized as Ashley, Liberty, Central, Delta, Harmony, Tri-County, Pulaski and Southwest Associations, with other associations studying the idea.

The State Joint Committee has met twice with representatives from all three cooperating conventions in attendance.

Jointly sponsored Area Fellowship Meetings were held in El Dorado, Benton, West Memphis, Little Rock, Texarkana, Eudora and Gosnell with a combined attendance of 1,560.

Numerous Joint Baptist Woman’s Day of Prayer programs were conducted. We encourage our local and associational women groups look forward to this date of November 7, 1983.

Reverend Harvery Goodman Ministerial Student from Ouachita Baptist

University serves as assistant to the Chaplain at Tucker Intermediate Reformatory where young black first offenders are housed. Fourteen professions of faith and numerous rededications are registered.

Robert Ferguson, department director, spoke in 31 National Baptist Sunday morning worship services, ten 3-night church leadership clinics and seven associational leadership schools during the past year.

EVANGELISM DEPARTMENT

Clarence Shell, Director

We are experiencing a victorious spirit of evangelism in our state. It was a thrill to see our churches win and baptize 14,477 in 1982. We are planning, preparing and praying that God will save a record number of Arkansans in the year of 1983. This record was set in 1950 with 16,637 baptized. A number of our churches were involved in dynamic revivals this year. Hundreds of people were saved as a result of these efforts. Our churches are sharing a week-by-week perennial evangelism that reaches many people for Christ. The fires of evangelism have burned in our church camps with a large number of boys and girls being saved.

It is the consistent desire of our State Evangelism Department to plan and promote the concept of total evangelism. Our Lord commissioned us to make, mark and mature disciples in Matthew 28:19-20. We are committed to this type of evangelism. Our department objectives are as follows: (1) The ultimate objective is to lead our Christians to share Christ with each lost person in Arkansas. (2) To train our Christian youth to share Christ on every high school campus. (3) Train our laity to be lifestyle witnesses. (4) Prepare our churches to do mass evangelism. (5) Share methods and motivations with Directors of Missions and Associational Chairmen of Evangelism to assure an ongoing program of evangelism in each association.

The following events and programs have emphasized these objectives this past year:

The Evangelism Workshop at Camp Paron proved to be another great success. There were fifty-five leaders present consisting of Directors of Missions, Chairmen of Evangelism, PREP Men and Baptist Building staff personnel. These leaders shared in a refreshing program on personal witnessing, the theme being "Let's Go Fishing". This was developed under the emphasis of Call, Concern, Commitment and Courage to do personal evangelism.

The young people shared in two great Youth Evangelism Conferences. The theme was "Rejoice in Thy Youth" based upon Eccl. 11:19. These meetings were at Second Baptist Church, Little Rock and First Baptist Church, West Memphis. Hundreds of young people came to be challenged, called and motivated to become involved in personal evangelism.

Area Evangelism Conferences were conducted in Central, Jonesboro; Eagle Heights, Harrison; Oak Grove, Van Buren; and First Cullendale, Camden. There were 458 people who participated in these conferences. Many of these were bi-vocational pastors and laymen who do not attend the State Evangelism Conference. Dr. Leonard Sandeson, former Director of Evangelism for the Home Mission Board and Louisiana State Convention, was our featured speaker.

We enjoyed the great State Evangelism Conference at Geyer Springs First Baptist Church in Little Rock. The overall theme of this conference was "Developing Believers

In Lifestyle Witnessing". This was developed under the following emphases: Conversion, Characteristics, Channels, Commitment and Continuing in a Witnessing Lifestyle. Dr. D.L. Lowrie, pastor of First Baptist Church, Lubbock, Texas was our featured Bible teacher; Dr. Adrian Rogers, pastor of Bellevue Baptist Church, Memphis, was one of our featured speakers. One of the most delightful features in the Evangelism Conference was to hear a former president of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention speak in each session. The following men of God did a great job: Dr. Wilbur Herring, Reverend Don Hook, Reverend Tommie Henson, Dr. Don Moore and Dr. B.K. Selph.

We conducted a CWT National Training Seminar in March. This seminar was a cooperative effort between the Home Mission Board, the State Evangelism Department and the South Side Baptist Church, Pine Bluff. There were forty-eight participants trained in this seminar. Reverend Joe Atchison and his people did a fantastic job in entertaining and equipping of those who participated. We will conduct another seminar September 26-29 at East Side Baptist Church, Fort Smith, with Dr. Trueman Moore. At the present time, we have about fifty-five registered for this seminar. Presently, we have fifty plus churches in Arkansas participating in CWT. This is becoming one of the greatest movements in our convention for training personal witnesses.

These coming events are dedicated to help strengthen our churches in fulfilling our Lord's commission in Arkansas:

1. Area Evangelism Conferences - September 12, Southern Baptist College; September 13, Brinkley First Baptist; September 15, Ouachita Baptist University; September 16, Waldron First Baptist. Dr. Glendon Grober, Director of Evangelism in Brazil, will be our featured speaker.
2. National CWT Seminar - East Side Baptist Church, Fort Smith, September 26-29, 1983.
3. Evangelism Workshop - December 8-9, 1983, Camp Paron. Every Director of Missions and Chairman of Evangelism are encouraged to attend this meeting. This is a time of information, interpretation and inspiration in evangelism. The theme for this year will be "Growing an Evangelistic Church".
4. Youth Evangelism Conference - "Joy Explor" will be December 27-28, 1983, at Park Hill Baptist Church, North Little Rock.
5. Witness Commitment Day - January 8, 1984. Each pastor should preach on witnessing and challenge the members to make a commitment to be lifestyle witnesses.
6. State Evangelism Conference - This conference will meet at Immanuel Baptist Church, Little Rock, on January 30-31, 1984. The theme of the conference is "Commissioned to Boldness". The Bible teacher will be Dr. Vance Havner of Greensboro, North Carolina. The feature preachers will be Dr. Jimmy Draper, president of the Southern Baptist Convention and Dr. Carols McLeod, Director of Evangelism in Texas. There will be several special features with full time evangelists speaking and Laura Fry Allen of the Home Mission Board leading a seminar for women.
7. Golden Age Evangelism Conferences - May 7, 1984, Cherokee Village and May 8, 1984, Bella Vista.
8. Growing an Evangelistic Church Seminar - Rev. Bob Campbell of the Home Mission Board will lead this seminar May 23-25, 1984, at Camp Paron.

9. CWT National Seminars - First Baptist Church, Benton, March 12-15; Central Baptist, Magnolia, October 29-November 1.
10. Area Evangelism Conferences - September 10, 1984, Central Baptist, Magnolia; September 11, 1984, First Baptist Church, McGehee; September 13, 1984, First Baptist Church, Batesville.

Preparation help is available from the department of Evangelism of the State Convention for the following:

1. Revivals
 - A. Local Church
 - B. City-wide
 - C. Area-wide
 - D. Tent - The tent was scheduled ten times in 1983.
 - E. Association Partnership Revivals
 - F. Association Simultaneous Revivals

Printed helps available are:

Area Crusade Preparation Manual, Associational Simultaneous Revival Preparation Manual, Model Evangelism Plan for the Local Church. (These were written by Clarence Shell). WOW Team Strategy Brochure, Children's Worship Bibliography of Helps, Child Evangelism Helps for Children's Workers, Bus Ministry, Children's Worship. (These were written by Wes Kent).

2. Witnessing

- A. WIN (Witness Involvement Now) - This is designed for both adults and youth. There is a preparation time, participation time and a preservation time. There were seven classes taught in WIN at Siloam Springs this summer.
- B. WOW (Win Our World) - This is for junior high and senior high. There were fourteen WOW classes taught at Siloam Springs in 1983. Many church and associational camps also had WOW training available. The goal is to have a youth witnessing team on every junior and senior high school campus in Arkansas.
- C. TELL (Training Evangelistic Lifestyle Leadership). The Evangelism Department has two TELL machines and cartridges available for churches to schedule and use. The Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention granted a special funding to the TELL work to enable associations to buy TELL sets at the cost of $300.00. This compares with the regular cost of $894.00. We encourage each association to purchase one of these machines.
- D. Church Training Module on Witnessing - This is available from the Materials Services Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board.
- E. CWT (Continuing Witness Training) - National Training Seminars are available for the pastor, staff and a lay person to come and receive the training. These become equippers and go back to their local church and institute the program by each training two people in a thirteen week cycle. At the close of the cycle, these become equippers and they in turn train two people. This is a tremendous process to train a large number of witnesses for our Christ.

It is the hope of our department that every pastor in Arkansas will give priority to evangelism. Our prayer is that our people will continue in the New Testament concept found in Acts 8:4 "They that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word." Let us join hands and hearts to share Christ with every lost person in our state.

MINISTRY OF CRISIS SUPPORT

Glen D. McGriff

The ministry of this department has continued to experience a very positive growth. People are generally aware of the increasing amount of stress in our culture. There is also an understanding that church staff members are vulnerable to such stress. This awareness has contributed to a greater freedom for church staff members to seek help when they hurt.

Individual counseling has continued to be the major aspect of the department's function. The more than 10% increase in counseling appointments has made heavy demands upon daily schedule. Consideration is being given as to how the needs of those who seek help can be assured of an effective response.

Conferences and seminars have provided opportunities for expanded ministry. There is a great need for an expanded ministry to associations and churches in stress and conflict management. Conferences and consultation is a growing opportunity for meeting this need.

Pray for the department that God will continue to give strength and wisdom in responding to the pressures and problems of church staff members and their families.

STATE MISSIONS

Conway H. Sawyers, Director

The 1983 Dixie Jackson Offering theme "Arkansas: Ripe for Harvest" expresses well the challenge of Missions in our grand state. Many factors have brought about changes in the Missions scene that cry out for attention.

The Missions Department staff is dedicated to being both helpers and catalysts in trying to meet the mission challenge across the state. The Department's first associate is Pete Petty.

The following reports written by the Department Associates reflect only pertinent data of each and are not intended to detail all that any one of them does in fulfilling his program assignment.

DIRECT MISSIONS

Church Pastoral Aid: Many numerically small churches in the state cannot afford to provide competent pastoral leadership on any adequate basis to meet the needs of the community. In 1983 the Missions Department supplemented the pastoral salary of 36 small churches and missions amounting to approximately $70,000, enabling them to have pastoral leadership.

Missionary Salary Aid is being given to only one Association in the state.

In-Service Guidance is a cooperative ministry of the Home Mission Board, State Missions Department, Ouachita Baptist University, and Southern Baptist College. This program offers counseling and on-the-job training for ministerial students.

Boyce Bible School, Little Rock Center, continues to meet a growing need in the Central Arkansas area. Classes meet at Central Baptist Hospital in Little Rock on Friday nights and Saturday mornings. Boyce is an extension of Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky.

Arkansas-Indiana Linkage. The Arkansas Baptist State Convention Executive Board voted in 1981 to participate in an Arkansas-Indiana linkage project which has as its goal the establishing of 275 new churches and missions by January 1, 1990.

Four new churches have been started this year as a direct result of support from Arkansas churches. Approximately 100 Arkansas churches have participated in various mission projects such as: back yard Bible clubs, area surveys, revivals, leadership training, church construction and renovation, etc. We encourage other Arkansas churches to get involved in this project.

CHURCH EXTENSION, Lehman F. Webb

Starting New Work. There are approximately 100,000,000 unchurched Americans who do not relate actively to any kind of church. The thrust of urging our churches to start a new church-type mission is being continued beyond Pentecost Sunday back in May, 1983. We are striving to have 120 churches in Arkansas who will pledge to begin a new work during this 1983-84 church year. Arkansas has her proportionate share of the 100 million unchurched Americans, many of whom can be reached.

Portable Chapels. Increasing activity is being experienced in this area of work and we need to replace one of our chapels. Your continuing support of the Dixie Jackson Offering for State Missions will be of great help.

Continuing Theological Education. One of the broadest spectrums of the theological study opportunities on a continuing basis in our entire Convention is available in Arkansas. These are evidenced by Boyce Bible School, Seminary Extension Centers, Seminary Extension Home Study, Seminary Studies Program (formerly Seminary Satellite) and Doctor of Ministries Studies.

Seminary Extension Centers are located in various associations in the state and offer a basic or non-degree curriculum and a college level curriculum. Both curriculums offer wide and well balanced courses of study.

Seminary Extension Home Study Institute makes available the same courses as the Centers, but are taken through correspondence.

The Seminary Studies Program (Seminary Satellite) offers master's level work and assumes the student has finished college before entering this program.

The Doctor of Ministries program is a ministry to Arkansas Baptists by Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City, MO.

The Revolving Loan Fund. During the twelve month period ending May 31, 1983, $124,000 was loaned to eight churches, and we have 16 churches on the waiting list. We anticipate resuming the accepting of applications in January of 1984.

Building Aid Grant Fund. Thirteen churches have benefited from this fund in the amount of $32,000 during the past twelve months.

Church/Missions Site Fund has assisted in the purchase of five pieces of property at a total outlay of $46,438.

MISSION MINISTRIES, Pete Petty

Christian Social Ministries, Special Mission Ministries and Interfaith Witness are the three Home Mission Board programs assigned to Missions Ministries.

Christian Social Ministries. This area of work seeks to involve churches and associations in Christian ministries through training events, surveys, consultation, etc. A statewide conference was held May 17-18 at Paron on "Models for Local Church Ministries" and Dr. James Chavis, pastor of Dunwoody Baptist Church, Atlanta, was one of the keynote leaders.

Missions Department cooperates with the Brotherhood Department in the area of disaster. From December 1982 through March 1983 over $20,000 of disaster relief monies were distributed.

Migrant Mission Center in Hope is directed by Bob Gross. There were 75 professions of faith from July 1, 1982, to June 30, 1983. Estela Beloso is assistant to the director, and her native language of Spanish is extremely helpful. English and Spanish classes are taught during the year at the Center. Bob Gross also shares CSM work with churches in Southwest Arkansas Association.

Bartholomew Migrant Center, located at Hermitage is directed by Ariel Hernandez. In addition to services at the Center, two satellites have been started at Lake Village and Eudora. Visitation and services are still conducted on a number of farms. During the year July 1, 1982-June 30, 1983, 245 professions of faith were recorded.

Lester Meriwether, Home Missionary in the area of literacy, trained local people to teach migrants English, The Second Language. The response from the migrants has been excellent.

Central Arkansas CSM Consultant, Dean Preuett, continues to work with churches and associations in Central Arkansas. Early stages of planning for the Urban Training Cooperative has been done this year. In Little Rock, April 3, 1984, will be one of the major urban training cooperative meetings.

Special Mission Ministries is involved in resort and volunteer missions. Orientation was held for 26 summer missionaries June 7-10, 1983, at Mills Valley Retreat Center. These missionaries serve with local churches, associations, migrant centers, and resort ministries. Last year summer missionaries reported 57 professions of faith.

Volunteer mission groups of both youth and adults served in and out of state this year. Excellent reports have come from these groups. There continues to be a need to find places in Arkansas for mission groups to serve.

Interfaith Witness has as its purpose providing materials and conferences to equip persons to share a Christian witness to persons of other faiths.

Several training events were held during the year. Last November a Baptist-Jewish dialogue was held in Little Rock. Dr. Glen Englehart and Dr. Maurice Smith from the Home Mission Board presented major papers during the conference.

Dr. Maurice Smith led a study on Mormonism for interfaith witness associates. These associates are equipped to lead conferences in both churches and associations.

Interfaith witness conferences were held in North Arkansas Association, Concord Association, and National Baptists'.

LANGUAGE MISSIONS, Randy Cash

Ethnic Congregations — Arkansas Southern Baptist churches are reaching out to seven different language culture groups through the establishment of ethnic congregations. Being reached are 1.) Hispanics, 10 churches; 2.) American Indians, 1 church; 3.) Deaf, 23 churches; 4.) Indochinese, 8 churches; 5.) Chinese, 1 church; 6.) Filipinos, 2 churches; 7.) Koreans, 4 churches.

In addition to those listed, two other major ethnic groups have been identified in Arkansas, Asian Indians and Japanese. Smaller groups include Europeans, Arabs, Samoans, Eskimos, Hawaiians, and Guamanians.

As the ethnic population of Arkansas continues to increase, the need for ethnic Southern Baptist congregations (churches, missions, and ministries) is also increasing. In Fort Smith alone there are two Vietnamese congregations, a Laotian congregation and an Hispanic congregation, each with its own pastor. Lakeshore Drive Baptist Church is searching for a pastor-church starter to establish an Hispanic church in Little Rock. The Korean Church of Arkansas is a mission of the Park Hill Baptist Church in North Little Rock, they are looking for a fulltime pastor. Arkansas Baptist Churches are meeting the challenge of language-culture needs and ethnic Arkansans are responding.

Ministries to International — Fourteen churches are ministering cooperatively through "Friendship International", a program of outreach to international women. These ministries are presently in Pine Bluff, Little Rock and Fayetteville. Over forty nationalities from every continent are represented through these ministries. Internationals include exchange students, military personnel, tourists and business people.

Language Missions Conferences — The Language Missions Division of our Missions Department is attempting to serve Arkansas personnel, churches and associations through training conferences, evangelistic campaigns, and conferences emphasizing "in-reach" and discipleship growth. Annually the Baptist Deaf Ministries Conference is held at the First Baptist Church in Little Rock and serves to train deaf and hearing for missions outreach. This conference is "coupled" with evangelistic services usually led by a deaf preacher or a hearing preacher who signs. Ethnic crusades will become a part of Arkansas Baptist life as of April 1984 when the Vietnamese lead in an evangelistic crusade in Fort Smith. An interpreter's retreat is planned for October 1983 as well as the annual Language Missions Leadership Conference to be held at the Calvary Baptist Church in Little Rock in November 1983.

Future Work — Anticipated new missions work will be concentrated on American Indians in that they comprise the second largest ethnic group in the state and only one church is reaching them. Hispanics are another high priority group relative to the need for new work.

CHAPLAINCY MINISTRIES, Leroy Sisk

Chaplains employed by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Five full time chaplains and one part time chaplain continue to be employed by the Missions Department. In June, 1983, Rev. W.W. Dishongh replaced Rev. Ray Branscum as part time chaplain in the Pulaski County Jail. These chaplains reported a total of 374 professions of faith during 1982.

Student Chaplain Intern Program. This program initiated in January 1981, is a cooperative effort with the two Arkansas Youth Service Centers, Ouachita Baptist University and the Missions Department Chaplaincy Ministries. Three ministerial students in Junior or Senior classification follow an academic course of study under the supervision of Chaplains Benny McCracken and Doyle Lumpkin and earn three semester hours credit, while getting valuable practical experience. The interns are at the Youth Services Centers on Saturday and Sundays during the semester. They participate in all religious activities, visit dorms, conduct group Bible studies, participate in sports activities with the juveniles and relate to them as good role models. The program has received high acclaim from the institutions and participating students.

Correctional Chaplain Intern. With financial assistance from the Home Mission Board and the Arkansas Baptist State Convention a one year prison Chaplain Intern program was initiated on June 1, 1983. Rev. John Belken, a student at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary will be trained in the Arkansas Department of Correction under the supervision of Chaplain Dewie Williams. Rev. Belken will receive 12 semester hours credit for his training.

Volunteer Chaplains. Many pastors, church staff members and dedicated laymen are engaging in various types of chaplaincy across our state. These include military and national guard, hospitals, business and industry, and institutions such as jails, retirement and nursing homes, sheriff and police departments and fire departments. Interested pastors and church staff members are encouraged to call upon the Director of Chaplaincy for assistance in beginning volunteer chaplaincy programs.

STEWARDSHIP/COOPERATIVE PROGRAM DEPARTMENT

James A. Walker, Director

Arkansas Baptists continue to declare their commitment through sharing their resources. In 1982 the average resident member gave $300.64 through the local church. Contrast this with the per capita resident member gift of $122.92 in 1972. During this period Arkansas Baptists increased their gifts by 144.58 percent while inflation increased 82.82 percent.

The churches shared their resources for world missions. In 1982 the resident per capital giving was $6.36 for associational missions and $28.67 through the Cooperative Program.

The churches were assisted in the development of Christian stewards and promotion of mission support by the Stewardship Department through local, associational and state projects.

Over 500 requests came to the department for stewardship literature or budget promotional materials. Local churches and associations requested information from the Stewardship Department 472 times.

Thirty-eight state or associational conferences with a stewardship and/or mission support emphasis were conducted by the department director.

The director met with representatives or committees from twenty-nine churches on stewardship matters.

Twelve Christian money management sessions were conducted.

Eleven churches' committees consulted with the director about a capital funds program. Dwayne Fischer, who works with the Stewardship Department as a Challenge to Build consultant, has raised over $800,000 in three churches. Eight Challenge to Build consultants were trained July 7, 1983.

Glendon Grober, missionary-in-residence with the Stewardship Department, has multiplied the ministries of mission support through scores of presentations in churches and associations.

One hundred and sixty participated in a tax seminar on Social Security at the Geyer Springs First Baptist Church on January 26, 1983.

Many churches call the Stewardship Department for information on pastor/church staff salaries and benefits. An updated brochure, released in July 1983, details what churches in Arkansas are doing for those who minister through the churches.

These ministries are designed to encourage the development of Christian stewards and increase mission support through associational missions and the Cooperative Program.

*A statewide Prove the Tithes Day on November 6, 1983 and November 4, 1983.

*A Cooperative Program Breakfast to express thanks to the churches for their continued mission support.

*The annual Tax Seminar set for February 1, 1984, at Immanuel Baptist Church, Little Rock, Manfred Holck, Jr., publisher of Church Management and an outstanding conference leader, will conduct the conference.

*A large church stewardship seminar July 12, 1984, will focus on what successful pastors and churches are doing in stewardship.

*Seven area stewardship conferences are set for 1984.

August 27	Russellville	September 11	McGehee
August 28	Harrison	September 12	Little Rock
August 29	Springdale	September 13	Batesville
	September 10	Magnolia

*The Stewardship Department will assist in an orientation for missionaries furloughing in Arkansas at Ridgecrest September 4-6, 1984.

*Ed Pinkston, missionary to Ivory Coast, joined the Stewardship Department as a missionary-in-residence on September 1, 1983.

*The Stewardship Department will support the 1984 theme, Demonstrating My Growing Commitment, by encouraging individuals, through materials and church and associational conferences, to increase their level of giving with the tithe as a minimum goal. Churches will be encouraged to increase their Cooperative Program gifts by two to five percentage points by 1985.

*Long-range plans include participation in Planned Growth in Giving. This fifteen-year SBC adopted program projects that Southern Baptists will give twenty billion through their churches in 2000 with two and one-half billion being given through the Cooperative Program. Individuals will be challenged to increase their giving on an annual basis. The Planned Growth in Giving emphasis starts in 1985.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

Freddie Pike, Interim Director

This report reflects the Sunday School Department's efforts to support churches and associations in fulfilling the overall Sunday School task:

1. Reach persons for Bible study
2. Teach Biblical revelation
3. Witness to persons for Christ and church membership
4. Lead persons to worship daily
5. Minister to Sunday School members and non-members

6. Provide and interpret information concerning the work of the church and denomination.

Arkansas Baptist churches reported a gain of 3,749 in Sunday School enrollment during 1981-1982. The 1980-81 increase was 3,490. The 1982 Annual of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention lists a total enrollment of 250,136 in 1,264 churches.

In its continued effort to help churches strengthen their Sunday Schools through the associational organizations, department personnel gave assistance to 36 associations in 69 projects. These projects included training schools, 8.5 by '85 interpretation meetings, VBS clinics, age-group clinics, and growth workshops.

The Associational Faculty Training Clinic trained approximately 150 team members to teach the "Understanding" series.

The State Vacation Bible School clinic trained 266 team members to lead conferences in associational VBS clinics. Thirty-six associations were represented.

Twenty-seven associational Sunday School directors were briefed on the 1983-84 program in the Church Growth Conference.

Assistance was given to 56 churches in 76 local church projects. These projects included training schools, age-group clinics, People Search training, building consultations, and literature interpretations.

The Weekday Early Education Workshop was held in conjunction with the Missions Department. One hundred ninety-one directors and teachers of kindergarten day care, and Mother's Day Out programs from 42 churches were trained in this workshop.

The 1983 Sunday School Convention will be held September 19-20, 1983, in the Park Hill Baptist Church, North Little Rock. The theme of the convention will be "Compel Them — Our Bold Commission". Featured speakers will be Neil Jackson, Jr., Growth Consultant, Baptist Sunday School Board and Clarence Shell, Director, Evangelism Department, Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

One hundred eighty-five teachers and officers were trained to witness to the unsaved in the Teach, Win, and Develop Clinic.

Department personnel and selected conference leaders attended six training and planning projects sponsored by the Baptist Sunday School Board.

Freddie Pike and Martin Babb assisted the Baptist Sunday School Board in Metro Area Sunday School Enrollment/Training Clinics in Phoenix, Arizona, and Raleigh-Durham, North Carolina.

Department personnel presented Sunday School work to religious education classes in Ouachita Baptist University.

A Church Architecture Conference trained 65 church leaders and architects, and architectural consultations were held for 12 churches following the conference. Architectural consultations were held with 70 churches and associations during the year. Assistance is available for designing new building floor plans, remodeling, redecorating, and landscaping. Plans for associational homes and offices and campground drawings are also available.

Seven Arkansas Baptist Assemblies were programmed by the department. This was the 79th year for the assemblies and the 59th year for them to be held at the Siloam Springs location. The total registration for the seven assemblies was 6,274, with 315 professions of faith, 33 commitments to church-related vocations, and 444 rededi-cations.

After having served as department director for more than twenty-five years, Dr. Lawson Hatfield resigned to become pastor of First, Fordyce.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Julia Ketner, Executive Director

Purpose: The purpose of Arkansas Woman's Missionary Union is to assist churches and associations in missions education, primarily in the equipping of leadership and strengthening of existing work; to give promotion to the three special mission emphases on praying and giving; to provide assistance in beginning new WMU organizations; and to provide age-level activities for the strengthening of missions education.

Emphasis: In 1982-83, Woman's Missionary Union members were challenged to express dynamic accountability for missions involvement. "Life-Changing Accountability" led members to: 1) engage in planned prayer support for missions; 2) develop a personal ministering and witnessing lifestyle; and 3) increase personal giving for missions through the church.

Week of Prayer and Special Mission Offerings: Churchwide participation in prayer and giving was promoted during observances of foreign, home, and state missions. The 1982 offerings were: 814 churches giving $495,435.06 to the Annie Armstrong Offering; 705 churches giving $293,931.91 to the Dixie Jackson Offering; and 990 churches giving $1,686,430.50 to the Lottie Moon Offering. As of September 9, 1983, gifts of Arkansas Baptists through the special mission offerings for this year totaled $2,372,128.07, divided as follows:

Lottie Moon Offering	$1,771,153.81
Annie Armstrong Offering	554,784.15
Dixie Jackson Offering	46,190.11 (just being received)

Leader Training: Training for church and associational WMU leadership continues to be a priority. Assistance was given to thirty-nine church and fifteen associations as requested with the following statewide activities being offered for leader/member training:

Associational WMU Officers' Retreat, Camp Paron, 119 attending and 30 associations represented;

Statewide Church WMU Training Day, Immanuel Baptist, Little Rock, 19 conferences offered and 525 attending;

Seventeen Area Church WMU Leadership Conferences held in Little Rock, Pine Bluff, Hamburg, Paragould, Ft. Smith, Rogers, Harrison, West Memphis, and Magnolia. Night meetings were held in cooperation with the State Brotherhood Department.

Nineteen associational WMU directors were trained at the State Key Leader Meeting held at Central Baptist, North Little Rock in May. Department personnel presented the WMU program of work to Ouachita Baptist University students in religious education classes, to the Ministerial Alliance at Southern Baptist College, and to Boyce Bible School students.

Gift Magazines: Arkansas WMU provides home and foreign missionaries from Arkansas a magazine of their choice as an expression of love and appreciation. This is possible through love offerings taken during WMU Annual Meeting in March of each year plus a budgeted amount. Through August of 1983, 99 missionaries had requested and were receiving magazines.

Organizational Activities: Varied programs of state activities were held for missions inspiration, information, and challenge. These included:

State WMU Annual Meeting, Grand Avenue, Ft. Smith with approximately 600 attending;

A Young Adult Missions Meeting in cooperation with the state Brotherhood Department at Camp Paron with 63 attending;

Two Acteens Encounters, Southern Baptist College and Ouachita Baptist University, attended by 600; one week of GA/Acteens Camp at Paron;

Three GA Mother-Daughter Camps with 318 attending and four weeks of GA Camp with 376 in attendance. Those attending these camps gave $1,228.65 for the Cooperative Program.

MK Activities: During 1982, 40 MK's were recipients of a birthday card and a $5.00 check from Arkansas WMU. Also provided for the MK's was a retreat at the home of the John McAlisters in El Dorado.

Scholarships: Nancy Cooper Scholarships for the 1983-84 school year, in the amount of $400 each, were granted to Vickie Gill, Gina Godfrey, Lori Webb, Jerry Miller, Jr., students at Ouachita Baptist University, and to Celeste Dunn, student at Southern Baptist College. Gift scholarships were granted to two foreign missionaries to study for credit while on furlough in 1982-83; Mrs. Milton Lites, Taiwan, and Mrs. Jason Lee, India.

Statistics: Total membership reported on the 1981-82 Church Letters surpassed 27,000 for the first time since 1971; the number of churches with WMU increased, and 130 more age-level organizations were reported. Twelve associations were recognized for having 65% or more of their churches reporting WMU: Harmony, Mississippi, Mt. Zion, Calvary, Central, Caroline, Garland County, Independence, North Pulaski, Centennial, North Arkansas and Pulaski.

Starteam: On September 30, 1983, eight women selected to serve as STARTEAM for two years will conclude their work. Their contacts with churches without WMU have proved to be most successful.

State WMU Officers: Elected at the 1983 Annual Meeting in March were Mrs. Boyd Margason, Mountain Home, president; Mrs. Buddy Stockton, West Fork, vice president; and Mrs. Ken Hughes, Benton, recording secretary.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST FAMILY AND CHILD CARE SERVICES

Johnny G. Biggs, Executive Director

“Arkansas Baptist Home did a lot for me. You know what I was like when I got there. If it were not for all of you turning my views of the world around, I honestly think I wouldn't be alive today. I would have O.D.'d or been stabbed or shot or in jail. Arkansas Baptist Home gave me the happiest time of my life and that's something I'll always remember." These words from a former resident speak of this life-giving ministry of Arkansas Baptists. What is involved in turning his views of the world around? Many things. Basically it is found in the last paragraph of his letter: "In closing, there is the whole reason for Arkansas Baptist Home being there. Jesus Christ. It may sound strange coming from me, but the only 100% pure, definitely, for sure truth on the face of this earth are the words of Jesus. Believe it and you will always be at peace with yourselves."

What a blessing to know of this revelation in the life of one young man who came to us struggling, fighting and rebelling against most areas of life. For him, and thousands like him down through the years, I express gratitude to Arkansas Baptists for 89 years of continuous caring for children. You have a rich heritage of ministry. These past 12 months have been a great year for our ministry and we want to share with you the highlights of a meaningful year.

Arkansas Baptist Home for Children. It was our privilege and responsibility to provide care for 92 children at the Children's Home during the year. Through the work of the total agency staff, 60 children were admitted during this period and 47 children were released from the program. The majority of those released were returned to live with family members. Our staff is dedicated to helping youth come to grips with their personal and family problems; to help them grow and develop to realize their full God-given potential; and to build and strengthen family relationships whenever possible.

Religious Life On and Off Campus. Religious education is an important part of life on campus at Arkansas Baptist Home for Children. The vespers program on Sunday afternoon and Wednesday night is planned to meet the needs of children and youth. Attending Sunday School and church on Sunday morning is a part of teaching our youth the importance of the local church. Eighteen of our youth made professions of faith and were baptized into one of our local churches. Siloam Springs Assembly was a rich, growing experience for many of our youth during the summer. Camp sponsorships provided by Arkansas Baptists made this possible for our young people. A Religious Emphasis Week-end by Ouachita Baptist Student Union students was a time of Christian fellowship and spiritual enrichment. Three BSU summer missionaries made a positive imprint on the lives of our children and pointed them to a closer relationship with God. There were professions of faith made by 15 other children living in one of our off-campus programs, making a total of 33 youths who trusted Christ as their Savior.

Graduates. Five of our young people graduated from high school this year; one young lady from our foster care program and four from the Children's Home. All five of these young people will be entering college this fall! They will join six of our young people presently in college at Ouachita Baptist University and Southern Baptist College. We are proud of these youth and for their response to the opportunities that have been made available. They have worked hard to realize this goal and are to be congratulated upon setting even higher goals for themselves.

Sponsorship. An all-time high of 401 groups and/or individuals have made contributions to our sponsorship program. You have provided clothes, allowances, special needs, education needs, summer camp and love. The Sponsorship Program serves a double purpose. It provides for our children in a beautiful way and gives the sponsor a chance to share in Christian child care. Thanks to each of you.

Area Offices. Through our area offices located in Little Rock, Jonesboro, Fayetteville, Harrison and Hope, many families and children turn for help and direction with family and individual problems. Out of these offices, responding to requests, we have established satellite offices one day a week in Fort Smith, Pine Bluff, Blytheville and Dermott. We can respond quickly to requests for help from any section of our state. Eight hundred seventy-five new referrals, representing a wide range of family and personal problems, were processed through these offices. Requests for help come from schools, courts, mental health centers, Social Services, churches and individuals.

Foster Care - Group Home Care. Baptist families from throughout the state joined hands with our agency in providing foster care for 34 children during the year. Increased activity in foster care recruitment, training and placement were noted. Nine boys received care by living at our group home for boys in Jonesboro.

Emergency Receiving Homes. Through our Emergency Receiving Homes in Little Rock and Sherwood, we were able to minister to 205 children who needed care because of neglect, abandonment, abuse, family conflict, etc. Commitments from Calvary and Liberty Associations have resulted in work in these associations toward the development of a joint ministry to provide Emergency Receiving Homes in their areas of the state by 1984.

Finances. Financial support from the churches continues to be very strong and healthy. In 1982, we received $342,435 in direct gifts from the churches, which was a 2.4% increase over the previous year. One thousand fifty-five of our 1,269 churches made a direct contribution during the year, for which we are most grateful. We are thankful for the Cooperative Program support which provides a firm financial floor on which to build to meet the total needs of our child care ministry. The balance of our funds comes from endowment income, individuals, wills, estates and our purchase of care agreement with Arkansas Social Services.

We appreciate the opportunity to be your witness to many hurting children and their families. We want to be accountable and good stewards of the funds you entrust to our care. Pray for us as we translate your gifts into appropriate ministry that will bring about healing and glory to our Lord. Let us not forget that it was He who said, "Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, you have done it unto me."

ARKANSAS BAPTIST FOUNDATION

Harry D. Trulove, President/Treasurer

Defining My Growing Commitment was used by your Foundation in 1983 to encourage Christian stewards to act responsibly in the use of accumulated possessions. Due to the effort made by Baptist leaders, new avenues were opened and God's people were blessed. One June 30, 1983, assets managed by your Foundation exceeded $9,000,000 or 27% above June, 1982. The amount of income distributed to Baptist causes was 425% more than the amount provided by the convention for the operation of your Foundation.

Investment accounts are generally classified in one of three areas. They are: Pooled accounts, Non-Pooled accounts and the Group Income Fund.

The Pooled accounts share, on a unit basis, in the growth, dividends and interest of funds invested in approximately twenty-five different companies. Investments are spread between stocks, bonds, C.D.'s, and money market type securities. For the past twelve months these accounts realized income of 8% and a gain in value of 27%, for a total return of 35%.

Many of the Non-Pooled accounts experienced a similar growth and the Group Income Fund produced income of 10.7%. A complete audit of the agency appears each year in the Convention's Annual. For 1982, the audit can be found on pages 310-317 of the 1982 Annual.

All of this has been possible because of the vision of our forefathers and the leadership of the Holy Spirit. This convention marks the 35th birthdate of your Foundation. It was in 1948 that the Convention moved favorably on the recommendation from the Executive Board for the creation of your Foundation. Our forefathers saw the wisdom of educating our people to the importance of Christian estate planning; they saw that one agency could manage more efficiently and without duplication the endowment funds for all causes; they realized that additional dollars would be needed to join hands with Cooperation Program dollars if the financial needs of a growing ministry were to be met; they acknowledged the right of an individual to be provided with a channel through which financial support could be continued beyond life.

Although the ministry had been approved, it would take 27 years before the work would be established. The men who gave leadership to the work during these times were:

- ... John Freeman, who served as Foundation Director from 1950-1951.
- ... W.A. Jackson, who served from 1952-56.
- ... Ben L. Bridges, who served from 1957-59.
- ... Ed McDonald, Jr., who served from 1961-72.
- ... Roy Lewis, who served as Interim Director from 1972-74.

Each planted, others cultivated, and today we enjoy the fruits of their labors as the Lord brings forth the harvest. The Foundation is truly the lengthening shadow of those who have gone before.

More important than the dollars and cents handled by the agency are the people served by its ministry.

- ... An elderly lady came to a full relationship with her Lord through believer's baptism as a result of her inquiry about a Christian Will.
- ... In a local church, the present pastor and all former pastors were honored by the establishment of an endowment fund that will enable the church to more effectively fulfill its mission role in the community and around the world.
- ... An association moved closer to its goal to have funds available for special mission projects.
- ... Children, battered and bruised, were able to discover the real meaning of love in a Christian environment.
- ... An association camp program was strengthened as a fund was established in memory of a man who had served his Lord in a youth oriented ministry.
- ... In excess of 130 students received scholastic aid in our colleges and universities, thus enabling them to be better equipped to serve our Lord.
- ... Student to student workers in our BSU ministry helped over 200 persons make meaningful decisions for our Lord.

The list could go on indefinitely and each project was made possible because Christian stewards of the past chose to define their Christian commitment by making an immediate or a deferred gift through a trust or by Will through your Baptist Foundation.

As the trust agency of the convention, your Foundation can serve any cause related directly or indirectly to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Funds are currently managed for local churches, associations, BSU, Family and Child Care, Ouachita Baptist University, Southern Baptist College, State, Home and Foreign Missions, the Bangalore Hospital Fund, Bangalore, India, special scholarships, the Retired Pastors Support Fund of the Annuity Board, the Cooperative Program and many others. The only limitation seems to be the desire and imagination of the individual donor. The staff and Board of your Foundation stand ready to assist you in defining your growing commitment.

We are human enough to rejoice over the growth experienced by the Foundation, but much more desirous to hear our Heavenly Father declare, "Well done, good and faithful servant. . ."

ARKANSAS BAPTIST HISTORICAL COMMISSION

1607 Utopia Drive, Benton, Arkansas 72105

Bernes K. Selph, Director

Besides the cataloging, microfilming, book collecting, and histories received, your Historical Commission has two important reports to make this year.

First, through the generosity of the George Blackmon family we have received his papers. Mrs. Barnett tells me this is a "dream come true". The many boxes are a valuable addition to our collection, and we are most grateful to Mrs. Blackmon and the children for them. Dr. Blackmon, former professor at OBU, now deceased, served as Director of the Commission for several years.

Second, Mrs. Juanita Barnett retired from Riley Library, OBU, August 31. Arkansas Baptists are deeply indebted to this dear lady for the work she has done for our Commission. We would not be where we are in our preservation of our history had she not taken such interest in our work. Dedicated to her position and knowledgeable in her field she took delight in setting our collection in order. She greatly assisted your director, as well as all who sought help in research. Since she supervised our collection we will miss her sorely, but are sure that the one taking her place will build on her work.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE

J. Everett Sneed, Editor

"Informed Baptists are responsive Baptists," has been the motto of the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine for several years. Baptists want to be informed, and this is the responsibility given to the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine. The Charter of the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine states the purpose of the Newsmagazine as ". . . to report and interpret the events and movements that affect the well-being of the constituency of the Convention."

Religious news of local, state and national interest is featured. It is our goal to inform the Baptists of our state so that they will be more responsive to the cause of Christ.

The Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine is responsible to the Convention through the Board of Directors elected by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. This is the third year in which the Newsmagazine has operated under a separate Board. From the perspective of the editor and staff this plan is proving exceedingly advantageous. The Board, under the leadership of Tommy Robertson, Director of Missions for Liberty Association, has provided invaluable input which is assisting both the effectiveness of the Newsmagazine and its financial stability. The Board, which consists of ministers, journalists, attorneys, business men and women, provide a unique resource for the Newsmagazine staff.

The Newsmagazine currently has approximately 65,000 subscribers. There are 812 churches who have the Newsmagazine in their budget to send to every resident family.

This was the third year for the utilization of a seminary student as an intern. The use of students working on a Masters Degree at one of our seminaries has proven most advantageous. This program allows a seminary student to evaluate his interests in Christian journalism on a first hand basis.

The Newsmagazine is currently in the process of moving to in-house typesetting. The staff will be setting all of the type for the Newsmagazine by early 1984. This new arrangement will assist churches in two ways: (1) it will reduce the expenditure of funds slightly; and (2) it will make it possible for us to carry important stories much more quickly.

The greatest problem confronting the Newsmagazine continues to be finance, particularly, the cost of second class mailing. The postage required to mail the Newsmagazine has increased since 1972, when the cost was less than $14,000. The Newsmagazine estimates that postage costs will be approximately $200,000 in 1984. In order to maintain a balanced budget, it has been necessary for us to increase our subscription cost in past years.

We have been successful in 1983 in holding our subscription rates at the present level. We hope that it will not be necessary for us to increase subscription rates in 1984. This depends entirely on whether or not second class postage rates remain stable.

Our readers will be notified through the pages of the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine if any increase occurs in subscription costs. We will make every effort to keep our readers informed as to the action of Congress concerning the postal subsidy.

The Newsmagazine desires to help guide the general welfare of Arkansas Baptists for the glory of God, while striving for journalistic excellence.

Since every Baptist church is totally autonomous, it is essential that we have proper information in order to properly serve God together. The best instrument for disseminating news and information to Arkansas Baptists is the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine.

The Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine is thankful for the reception it receives. We express our sincere appreciation to all those who encourage churches to place the Newsmagazine in the church budget for all resident families. Let's join hands together to inform Baptists so that they can respond as God would have them do.

BAPTIST BOOK STORE
9101 W. Markham, Little Rock, Arkansas 72205
Robert C. Barnett, Manager

The Baptist Book Store in Little Rock, in its 82nd year of service, is striving continually to grow with the churches and their members - and has projected the image and theme - PARTNERS IN GROWTH. We are constantly seeking out methods of distribution of materials to assist people and churches in their growth effort in new experiences and in gaining new insights.

The earliest beginning of the Baptist Book Store in Little Rock dates back to 1901 and the most recent significant event is the moving of the store location to 9101 West Markham in order to provide a convenience of driving and shopping for our customers. The new location has over 8,000 square feet of sales floor space and is conveniently located just off I-630 on the corner of John Barrow Road and West Markham near the Baptist Medical Center.

The purpose of the store is to provide merchandise easily available to all people in our area. In doing so, we believe this enables churches and people to be equipped to witness to a world that does not know a SAVIOR, and to provide adequate help for teaching and training in the church, the home, and each individual believer.

Through the distribution of catalogs, we seek to inform our customers of many of the materials we have available for them. The Baptist Book Store Catalog is made available in August of each year and the Fall/Winter Catalog is available each October as well as some special emphasis catalogs. Our purpose is to pinpoint areas of need with precise product and service suggestions. These tools, if kept accessible at all times by our customers, will provide the Baptist Book Store an opportunity to become more effective as PARTNERS IN GROWTH with those we serve.

The budgeted anticipated sales for the year beginning October 1, 1983, through September 30, 1984, is $1,280,000. All orders received by mail and long distance telephone will be shipped from our Baptist Book Store Mail Order Center, 3359 Winbrook, P.O. Box 161121, Memphis, Tennessee 38116.

It should be noted that a significant percent of the Little Rock Baptist Book Store's earnings and the Sunday School Boards' earnings will be invested back into the Arkansas Baptist State Convention by the Sunday School Board.

Dedication in service is our goal and is expressed in our slogan - PARTNERS IN GROWTH.

BAPTIST MEMORIAL HEALTH CARE SYSTEM, INC.
Memphis, Tennessee
Joseph H. Powell, President

This report covers the period May 1982 through April 1983. The statistical portion of the report is for the calendar year 1982.

Baptist Memorial Health Care System, Inc, is the parent body of Baptist Memorial Hospital and eight other affiliate hospitals in Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas. It was established with the approval of the Baptist Conventions of Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee to provide flexibility needed to give optimum health care in the 1980's and beyond.

The Health Care System established lease agreements with the 112-bed Forrest

Memorial Hospital, Forrest City, Arkansas, and the 72-bed Carroll County General Hospital in Huntingdon, Tennessee; and a shared services agreement with the 276-bed Golden Triangle Regional Medical Center in Columbus, Mississippi.

Affiliates in the Health Care System made progress in the following areas:

Baptist Memorial Hospital-East opened 22 additional beds to increase its capacity to 407 beds. The unit has a license for 417 beds.

Construction began on the 70-bed Baptist Memorial Hospital-Lauderdale, a new one-story physicians' office building began at Baptist Memorial Hospital-Tipton, and a Health-Plex near the Baptist Memorial Hospital-Medical Center to house a new sports medicine clinic, long-term cardiac rehabilitation, health education programs and materials warehousing.

A Sudden-Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) Center and an out-patient diagnostic clinic offering the newest screening methods for detecting cancer of the breast were opened at Baptist Memorial Hospital-East.

At the Baptist Memorial Hospital-Medical Center, hyperthermia, a new form of cancer treatment, was introduced. It uses heat to treat certain cancers, aiding in remission and relieving pain.

At Baptist Memorial Hospital-Tipton, Lifeline (a personal telephone emergency service for the elderly and handicapped) was inaugurated.

A regional emergency medical service was initiated in the West Tennessee counties of Tipton, Lauderdale and Obion. The service included new ambulances operated by highly-trained personnel.

In the area of new equipment, digital subtraction angiography, (DSA), a new diagnostic tool for diseases leading to heart attacks, strokes or hypertension, was installed at Baptist Memorial Hospital-Medical Center, reducing the need for arteriograms.

A microwave communications system connecting the Medical Center and the East units was installed, opening the way to sophisticated medical communications methods and electronic mail.

Baptist Memorial Hospital opened a new department of clinical engineering and named as Director, Michael Gerkin, a clinical engineering specialist. One of the department's functions is to install and trouble-shoot diagnostic and therapeutic medical equipment.

As a community service, Baptist Memorial Hospital distributed more than 100,000 copies of a booklet describing ways to respond to 40 different medical emergencies.

Baptist Memorial Hospital also sponsored a 26-week radio talk show featuring medical specialists who shared health care information with the community weekly.

Baptist Memorial Hospital helped bring free health screening services to more than 15,000 persons at health fairs in ten counties in West Tennessee, North Mississippi and Eastern Arkansas.

In the area of continuing medical education, Baptist Memorial Hospital offered 14 regional seminars and four national conferences, attracting more than 2,500 persons.

The Department of Religion met a wide range of needs through pastoral care, worship services, conferences, education and ministry opportunities.

Two chaplains were added to provide specialized assistance to cancer patients and urology/nephrology patients.

The volunteer chaplaincy program was extended to affiliate hospitals in Ripley and Covington, Tennessee; Corning and Forrest City, Arkansas; and Booneville, Mississippi.

Chaplains began a support program for spouses and other family members of surgery patients.

In other action, the department formalized an agreement with the Memphis Institute of Medicine and Religion to provide training services for Chaplain interns taking clinical pastoral education.

Administrative changes included selection of Larry Walker, administrator of Corning Community Hospital, as the new administrator of Baptist Memorial Hospital-Forrest City. He was succeeded at Corning by William E. Torrence, Jr., of Chattanooga.

Mark Melton, an administrative assistant at Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, was named administrator of Baptist Memorial Hospital-Tipton, and William Tuttle, administrative resident, was chosen to replace him.

Delores C. Moyer, administrator of Crippled Children's Hospital School, and Melville Harris, an administrative resident, were named administrative assistants at Baptist Memorial Hospital.

The cardiac rehabilitation patient education program at Baptist Memorial Hospital won a first place award for outstanding achievement in competition sponsored by the American Hospital Association.

Baptist Memorial Hospital was cited by Ladies Home Journal as one of the 13 best hospitals in the South.

Dr. W. Fred Kendall, II, of Union City, Tennessee, was elected chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Health Care System, succeeding William A. Crabill of Marks, Mississippi.

Personnel of Baptist Memorial Hospital were recognized in significant ways:

Dr. Frank S. Groner, president emeritus, received a Distinguished Service Award from Baylor University and the Outstanding Senior Citizen of Memphis Award from the Downtown Kiwanis Club.

Joseph H. Powell, president, was elected to a three-year term as director of the Southeastern Hospital Conference and named to the Board of Trustees of the National Committee for Quality Health Care.

Robert F. Scates, senior vice president, was presented the L.M. Graves Memorial Health Award for 30 years of service to the Mid-South in health care planning.

Stephen C. Reynolds, vice president, was chosen from among 300 nominees for the 54-member Leadership Memphis class.

Roger Struble, vice president, received the first annual District President's Award from the Tennessee Hospital Association for outstanding leadership.

E. Eric Muirhead, M.D., director of Pathology, received the leading award of the International Society of Hypertension for his discovery involving a hormone secretion which controls blood pressure.

Herbert A. Taylor, III, M.D., specialist in obstetrics and gynecology, was elected president of the Medical Staff for 1983.

Randolph Ramey, M.D., radiologist, was appointed Chief of Staff for 1983.

The following statistical report is for the calendar year 1982:

CHRISTIAN CIVIC FOUNDATION OF ARKANSAS, INC.

410 Medical Arts Building / 1120 Marshall Street
Little Rock, Arkansas 72203

John Finn, Executive Director

The following is a report on activities of the Christian Civic Foundation, covering the twelve-month period from September 1, 1982, to September 1, 1983.

New Executive Director - Dr. Edward W. Harris retired effective December 31, 1982, after ten and one-half years of outstanding leadership as Executive Director for the Christian Civic Foundation. The new Director, Rev. John Finn, who assumed the position effective January 1, 1983, is a familiar figure among Arkansas Baptists, having served two years as President of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, and fifteen years as Director of Missions for the North Arkansas Association. We anticipate great progress under his leadership.

Relocation of Office - On April 24, the offices of the Foundation were moved from the Donaghey Building to Room 410 Medical Arts Building, 1120 Marshall Street, Little Rock. We invite our friends and supporters to visit us in our new, larger quarters. Free parking is available in any of the Arkansas Rehabilitation Institute's parking lots, located across Marshall Street from the Medical Arts Building and the Arkansas Rehabilitation Institute (formerly Central Baptist Hospital).

Alcohol-Narcotic Education Program - In the 1982-83 school year, because of two reasons, the Foundation was unable to offer the services of an Educational Assistant to the schools of Arkansas. The primary reason was the lack of financial resources to pay the salary and expense of the Assistant, and provide the necessary materials for the program. The Board also believed it would be an act of wisdom for the new director to give guidance in the selection of an Assistant.

The Foundation believes strongly that this program must be revived and again offered to the schools. The problems of alcohol and drug abuse continue to increase at an alarming rate, reaching into all segments of our society. We are committed to this program and at present it is our Number One priority.

The new Director promptly launched an effort to obtain the necessary finances. He worked long hours, traveled many miles, made numerous personal contacts by letter and phone and spoke before many groups in attempts to gain the necessary resources to employ the assistant no later than September 1, 1983.

We regret our objective was not achieved. The primary factor appears to be the timing. Churches and church groups had already adopted 1983 budgets and were hesitant to include the Foundation until the 1983-84 budget process begins.

We, at this point, are very optimistic that the necessary finances will be available for us to begin our search for an Educational Assistant January, 1984.

Drug Quiz and Weekly Columns - The Drug Quiz columns were sent each month, through May, free-of-charge, to 57 newspapers in the state. They were discontinued at that time, because our Executive Committee felt a more effective approach would be weekly columns, written by our Executive Director, dealing directly with Arkansas issues in the areas of our concern.

The first of these were mailed in late May, under the heading "Arkansas Citizenship", for publication in June. Approximately 19 newspapers have expressed a desire to print the articles on a regular basis, or at intervals.

These newspapers, having a total circulation of 236,533, are: Southern Standard, Arkadelphia; Star-Progress, Berryville; Brinkley Argus; White River Journal, Des Arc; England Democrat, Times-Echo, Eureka Springs; Grand Prairie Herald, Hazen; Baxter Bulletin, Mountain Home; Pocahontas Star Herald; Clay County Democrat, Rector; Wynne Progress; Courier News, Blytheville; Hope Star; Pine Bluff Commercial; Evening Times, West Memphis; Arkansas Democrat, Little Rock; Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine; Arkansas United Methodist; The Pentecostal Gleaner (Assemblies of God).

If your paper is using the articles, we would appreciate your calling or writing your editor, thanking him/her for printing the articles. If your paper is not printing the articles, it would be helpful for you to speak to the editor encouraging him/her to consider printing the articles. We believe that this is a vital part of our program, because it conveys important information, while keeping the name of the Christian Civic Foundation before the public.

The Christian Citizen - Lack of financial resources, time and decision prevented the publication of our newsletter in 1983.

The decision was made that, as soon as possible, we begin a monthly mail-out to Board members and supporters of the Foundation. The newsletter will carry articles of interest and a financial statement. We hope, in the very near future, to begin the mail-out.

Local Option Elections - The most significant effort in the November 1982 election was made in Greene County. Brother Carroll Gibson, Director of Missions for the Greene County Baptist Association, joined in full cooperation with the Church of Christ leaders, who initiated the election to vote the county dry. We want to commend Brother Gibson for the fine work he did in this election. In spite of insufficient support from other church leaders and the fact that the effort was late in getting started, the election was lost by little more than 700 votes, from a total of 12,599 votes cast. Without question, if they had started earlier, and if they had had the full support of all church leaders, an overwhelming victory would have been realized.

There were also elections in three wet Conway County townships, with two voting dry.

An election in the city of Jacksonville, in Pulaski County, was initiated by the wets when the ABC Board withdrew permits they had issued in an area that the Board discovered had formerly voted dry, and that the geographic boundaries were later changed. Brother Harvey Webb, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Jacksonville, and others worked very hard and won a convincing victory for the dry forces in the election.

Private Club Suit - Mr. Frank Lady, attorney for a Lawrence County citizens' group, has a suit before the Supreme Court challenging the constitutionality of Act 132 of 1969 (the private club mixed-drink law). We hope that soon the court will rule. This group of determined citizens are in need of financial support. Should you be in the position to help and desire to be supportive, please communicate with Mr. Lady of Jonesboro.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Board - The Board continues to come under attack from citizens. In a letter to the Board members and Governor Clinton, we stated our position. Our position is that the Board is not to be in the business of promoting the liquor industry. It has the responsibility of controlling, regulating and enforcing laws and regulations relating to the industry. In a letter to us, Governor Clinton concurred with our position.

We continue to advise groups, as requested, who appear before the Board in opposition to the issuance of permits. Our Executive Board has written three articles for newspapers relating to ABC Board procedures. You can obtain copies of these articles by contacting our office.

The 1983 Legislature passed legislation restricting the number of liquor permits (restriction based upon population). In view of this legislation, the number of applications for beer permits will increase. Citizens opposing the issuance of permits should familiarize themselves with the statutes and ABC Board regulations and procedures.

Arkansas General Assembly - The 74th General Assembly of Arkansas convened in January, 1983. Our Executive Director was on the scene from the beginning to the end. He carefully monitored legislation relating to our areas of concern.

The Supreme Court, during the session, did not rule on the constitutionality of Act 132 or 1969. However, the Senate passed by a vast majority a bill that would have been Act 132 verbatim. Because of our opposition, it was called back to Senate and died a well deserved death before consideration at a public meeting of the House of Rules Committee.

We carefully monitored the DWI legislation, expressing our opinion before proper committees and legislators. It was the Director's privilege to be invited by the Governor to be present for the signing of the bill.

We also were successful in stopping a bill authorizing Sunday sale and production of wine at the wineries.

Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. We must continue our efforts in the Legislature.

Pornography - The Director has initiated movement to combat the evil plague of pornography spreading rapidly across the state. It is beginning to infiltrate the heart of our society. The Devil is using it to attack human sexuality and the home. We must stand against this evil. We are in the process of gathering information, informing individuals and groups concerning this evil plague and related crimes. Our base of support in this area is being widened and increased.

Officers for 1983 are as follows:

- President, Dr. Erwin L. McDonald
- First Vice-President, Dr. Earl Carter
- Second Vice-President, Mr. Roland M. Shelton
- Third Vice-President, Rev. John Thompson
- Secretary, Mrs. Roy E. Snider
- Treasurer, Rev. Don Hook

We are beginning to see increased interest for support of the Foundation as indicated by the following:

(1) The two Methodist Conferences, at their annual meetings, voted to permit the Foundation to present our program and needs to the churches and make a direct appeal for financial support. We have completed by mail an appeal to the churches to be included in the budgets. We are being encouraged by the positive support given to us by Bishop Hicks and other leaders of the United Methodist Church.

(2) Dr. Merle Harris, Superintendent of Assemblies of God, has written a personal letter to his churches encouraging support for the foundation. He also gave us permission to approach the churches with our program needs and to make a direct appeal to the churches. We have, by mail, contacted every Assembly of God church requesting financial assistance.

(3) An increased number of Baptist churches are including us in the budget. Since September 1, 1982, seven new Baptist churches have contributed. Four Baptist churches have renewed their giving, having contributed in the past, but not last year.

(4) An increased number of Baptist Associations have placed us in the budget. Since September 1, 1982, one new association has placed us in the budget for $100 per month, and two have increased their contributions. Many associations are demonstrating an interest in supporting the Foundation. The Director has presented our program and needs to the following associations: Central, Concord, Pulaski, North Pulaski, Tri-County, and Southwest.

(5) An increased number of individuals are contributing. Since January 1, 1983, we have added forty new individual contributors.

If this trend continues, we believe that by January 1, 1984, the income will be sufficient to employ an Educational Assistant, purchase the necessary materials and equipment needed for a strong program in the areas of responsibility assigned to us.

We are deeply grateful for the Convention support, and to Dr. Don Moore, Dr. L.L. Collins, Rev. Dillard Miller, President, Dr. Everett Sneed and Rev. Bob Parker for their unwavering interest in and support of the Foundation at all times.

OUACHITA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY

Arkadelphia, Arkansas
Daniel R. Grant, President

Ouachita Baptist University has completed its 97th year of service to Arkansas Baptists in the cause of Christian education. Just as the 96 previous years would have been impossible without the sacrificial support of Arkansas Baptist churches and their members, so it was equally true of this 97th year. Only five of the fifty other senior Baptist colleges received more annual dollar support from their state conventions last year than Arkansas Baptists provided for Ouachita. (These were Oklahoma Baptist University, Louisiana College, Mississippi College, Samford University, and Baylor University). Of the total Cooperative Program funds given by Arkansas churches in 1982, the proportion spent on Christian education in Arkansas (OBU, SBC, and ministerial student aid) was 21.8 percent. Eight state Baptist conventions gave a higher percent of their total Cooperative Program funds than Arkansas' 21.8, but all eight states were supporting more Baptist colleges than Arkansas does, thus providing less dollar support per college. The Cooperative Program is Ouachita's life-blood and, without its growing strength in commitment to Christian education, Ouachita cannot expect to maintain and increase its strength in service.

In thanking Arkansas Baptists for this generous support, and in reporting on Ouachita's stewardship of these funds during the 1982-83 year, an effort is made to focus on five topics that summarize the highlights of our labor together in the cause of Christian education.

I. CHRISTIAN EXCELLENCE AND DENOMINATIONAL SERVICE

The 1,691 students at Ouachita during the 1982-1983 year (more than 2,000 in non-duplicating enrollment) were exposed to an unusual variety of Christian programs and personalities, some on a required basis and others on a voluntary basis. Illustrative of the variety is a little pamphlet entitled "40 ways to be involved in the OBU ● BSU," describing programs of Bible study, churchmanship, discipleship, evangelism, Noonday, share seminar, adopt-a-grandparent, backyard Bible clubs, big brothers and sisters, Children's Colony, nursing home ministry, prison ministry, BSU Choir, Ouachita Players, puppet team, Christian Focus Week, fall retreat, Christmas missions, spring break missions, summer missions, international student ministry, and many more. These voluntary activities and programs are important, but they cannot replace the contributions of weekly required Chapel and required Bible courses in Old Testament and New Testament for all students.

Contemporary Christian concerts were provided by the Cruse Family, Cynthia Clawson, Chris Christian, White Heart, David Meece, and September. The Christian drama group, After Dinner Players, performed in Chapel during the year. Other Christian personalities to speak in Chapel or on other occasions included Max Briley, Faye Burgess, Robert L. Campbell, L.L. Collins, Roger Copeland, Arliss Dickerson, Doug Dickens, John Dresbach, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eitelman, Doug Ezell, Nick Garland, Don Harbuck, Dale Holloway, Mike Huckabee, Ron Kelly, Tom Logue, Lynn Loyd, Don Moore, Dr. and Mrs. John Henry Moore, Nathan Porter, Kerry Powell, Mike and Von Rogers, Len Sehested, Bailey Smith, Clyde Spurgin, Tom Urey, Martha Vastin, and many others. The missionaries-in-residence were Dr. and Mrs. Bill Bullington, from Ghana, West Africa. He taught a class in missions during the fall semester. Missionaries-in-residence for the fall of 1983 are Dr. and Mrs. J.A. Lee from Bangalore, India, and the spring of 1984 will be Dr. and Mrs. John W. Monroe from Zimbabwe. Ouachita's missionary-in-residence program is a tremendous force on campus for Christian world missions. An outstanding group of 45 students devoted their spring break to mission work in the Johnning Baptist Center in Washington, D.C. Students were heavily involved in summer missions, the OBU CONTACT Teams, the Missionary Journeyman Program, the US-2 Program, and appointment as career foreign missionaries. Both of Ouachita's exchange programs, with the Nigerian Baptist Convention and with Seinan Gakuin University in Fukuoka, Japan, continue to have strong missions implications. During the 1982-83 year Ouachita students Keith Titsworth and Cindy Brown were in Japan, and Gina Godfrey and Delores Triplett were in Nigeria. Japanese students at Ouachita were Hideko Ueno, Hiroko Azuma, and Hiroshi Korechika, and Nigerian students at Ouachita were Ebenezer Sokunbi and U.K. Madugu. Former Ouachita exchange student from Nigeria, John Amromare, has returned to work in the Church Training Department of the Nigerian Baptist Convention in Ibadan. These two exchange programs seem to be working so well that it is easy to take them for granted, but they are of tremendous value in the cause of Christian education and world missions.

Ouachita has 277 students preparing for church-related vocations, including 113 ministerial students, 59 in church music, 32 for missions, 29 for religious education, 25 for youth ministry, and 19 for other church-related vocations. A major in family life and ministry and church recreation is being made available for the first time in the 1983-84 academic year. This program is planned to help meet the growing need in Southern Baptist churches for staff members required for family life centers and their programs.

In addition to the education, nurture, and Christian training of enrolled students each year, Ouachita is providing a growing variety of denominational services during the school year and in the summer. For example, during the past year Ouachita hosted the Acteens Encounter, the WMU Executive Board Workshop and meeting, a MasterLife Seminar, a senior Baptist conference, two Baptist music camps for all ages, the annual Ouachita Church Music Workshop, the Pastors' Bible Conference, led by Dr. Don Moore and Dr. Tom Urrey, a Christian writers' workshop, led by Dr. Gilbert Morris, a summer youth directors' workshop, the annual Ouachita Youth Choir Day, church Super Team competition during Ouachita's Tiger Traks Weekend, the Annual Recognition Dinner for Directors of Associational Missions (with the award going to Rev. Carroll Gibson, director of missions of Green County Association), and numerous Christian concerts throughout the year attended by youth groups from various churches.

Ouachita music groups such as the Ouachi-Tones, Singing Men, Ouachita Singers, University Choir, Chamber Singers, Agape, Ordinary People, Jesus Christ Power & Light, Under Construction, share their Christian witness in song hundreds of times throughout the state and beyond. Some of these are official groups, and others are self-starting informal groups. Other groups such as the Ouachita Players, a Christian drama group, and No Strings Attached, a Christian puppet ministry, share the Gospel in unusual and creative ways. One of the outstanding events of the year at Ouachita, with churches in the area being invited, is the International Food Fair and Festival, sponsored by the Ouachita BSU with strong assistance from international students and more than forty MKs (missionary kids). Again last year large numbers of students served in churches throughout the state in part-time staff capacities and as full-time summer staff members. There is absolutely no indication that Ouachita students are waiting until graduation to become significantly involved in Christian ministry.

II. ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE AND VOCATIONAL PREPARATION

Under the leadership of Dr. Tom Turner, completing his first year as vice president for academic affairs and dean of the School of Arts and Science, Ouachita made good progress in academic excellence and vocational preparation. Separate academic and administrative computer facilities were provided for the first time, along with the strengthening of the computer science curriculum and moving to a major in computer science. The purchase of a VAX 11/750 computer, and the employment of Dr. Alton Crawley, an experienced professional in computer science, will provide much needed strength for the entire faculty and student body. Academic areas of concentration were strengthened by adopting a program of specific "minors" that should eliminate some of the complexities of degree plans and provide greater marketability for degrees.

Ouachita's Faculty Development Program continues to pay dividends with five faculty members earning their doctorates during the year, increasing the proportion of faculty with doctorates to 53 percent, the highest it has ever been. The faculty has engaged in a comprehensive self-evaluation program, an enlarged program of summer sabbaticals and research grants, and an expanded program of academic enrichment grants. A workshop for training departmental chairmen was held in collaboration with Henderson State University and conducted by the American Council on Education, with support from the Joint Educational Consortium. These and other supporting programs were coordinated by a strong Faculty Development Committee. Funds for faculty travel to professional meetings are still seriously inadequate, but the faculty seems to be very understanding of this situation.

Ouachita's academic program is unusual in its wide range of impact, from the highest to the lowest academic achievers. From the Honors Program for the high achievers, to the Academic Skills Development Program for those who have special learning needs. Ouachita has a deep and abiding interest in every student. Few colleges have a wider range of outside lecturers available. Provided each year are the Birkett Williams Lectures, the J.E. Berry Lectures, The Ross Foundation Lectures, and the SELF Lectures. The student-directed SELF-sponsored "Last Lecture Series" is a popular program in which individual faculty members are invited to give a lecture as if it were the last they would give in their life. A wealth of musical and artistic opportunities are provided through the Joint Educational Consortium concerts, SELF concerts, and the recitals of individual faculty members and students. The annual Washington Seminar, Honors retreats, the Japan and Nigeria Exchange Programs, and academic enrichment trips for specific classes and groups, complement the regular work in the classroom. The Ouachita Student Foundation sponsors a number of "Dinners for 20" each year, in which alumni in particular professions are invited back to discuss with Ouachita juniors and seniors "what it is really like" after college. The Upward Bound and Special Services Programs assist college and pre-college students with special learning and motivational needs.

III. STEWARDSHIP IN BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

One of Ouachita's Centennial Goals is the "maximum development of the beauty and usefulness of the Ouachita campus," including the impressive challenge of several major construction projects. One of these was to build a much needed new health, physical education, recreation, and athletics complex at a cost of $4,000,000. This beautiful and useful building was completed and dedicated in April of 1983. In quality, economy, and efficient multi-purpose design, it is second to none in the state, and has already attracted the enthusiastic compliments of participants in the NAIA national Swimming Championship, 1200 Arkansas Girls State delegates and staff members (second largest in the nation), visiting church groups and summer conference participants and, even more important, Ouachita students, faculty and staff. The task of correcting long-standing maintenance problems, modernizing old facilities, and trying to keep up with needed repairs and renovation, continued to be a major one during 1982-83. A pitched roof was built on Moses-Provine Science Center to eliminate leakage problems; Berry Chapel was redecorated; a data processing center with back-to-back facilities for academic and administrative needs was constructed in Lile Hall; new plumbing and central heating facilities were installed in Cone-Bottoms Dormitory; and there were numerous repair and improvement projects including re-roofing, re-carpeting, repair or replacement of air-conditioning units, and extensive painting, carpentry, plumbing, and electrical work done by a dedicated and over-worked maintenance staff. The Ouachita family and the entire Arkadelphia community were deeply saddened by the loss of maintenance employee Ken Stanley in the early summer of 1983, in an electrical accident while helping to restore power to the campus following a late night thunderstorm.

IV. PROBLEMS OF THE GROWING BUDGET CRUNCH

While receiving much good news about Ouachita Baptist University, Arkansas Baptists need to know there is also bad news concerning a serious "budget crunch" for almost all private colleges and universities in the United States, including Ouachita. Ouachita's administrative staff would not be faithful stewards to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention if the difficulties of this current crisis were not reported as accurately and regularly as possible. There are two major parts of this financial crisis as it affects Ouachita:

1. Student enrollment prospects (the number of Arkansas high school graduates) have begun sharply declining, and will decrease more than 20 percent over the next four years. Ouachita's full-time equivalent enrollment (FTE) decreased 3.6 percent in the 1982-83 year. Each one percent decline in FTE enrollment costs Ouachita more than $50,000 per year in reduced income. The reduction in number of high school graduates is expected to level off in the late 1980's, but Ouachita has no operating reserve fund to call upon in this time of financial reversal. Arkansas Baptists' concern for, and involvement in, Ouachita's efforts to remain financially stable, are not merely a matter of voluntary choice. A series of recent court decisions make it clear that the Convention is liable for the indebtedness of institutions such as Ouachita, that it owns and operates. Fortunately, through strong and conservative fiscal leadership from Business Manager, Joe Franz, and Vice President for Administration, Ed Coulter, Ouachita completed its 1982-83 fiscal year in the black again, for the thirteenth consecutive year. This was accomplished only after sharp midstream revisions in the budget, and belt tightening by an understanding faculty and staff. The Convention's new unified budget plan has helped to ease some cash flow problems.

2. In addition to the problem of the declining number of high school graduates, and the adverse effect on college income, there is the continuing problem of rising utility costs, including electricity, gas and telephone costs. All of these continue to increase at well above the inflation rate, and Ouachita has had to increase its utilities budget from $500,000 to more $750,000 (a 50 percent increase) in the short span of two years. The budget strategy for 1983-84 was the most conservative in fourteen years, with a commitment to filling no vacancies in faculty and staff unless absolutely necessary, encouraging early retirement, cutting back on the teaching load of part-time teachers, avoiding "meat ax cuts" across the board, while trying to preserve areas of special strength, awarding salary increases only in cases of unusual merit, and planning a midstream budget review for possible budget revision after fall enrollment is determined and actual income and expenses are better known.

V. OUACHITA'S CENTENNIAL ADVANCEMENT PROGRAM

In recognition of the challenge and inspiration of reaching one hundred years of achievement and growing strength in Christian education through Ouachita Baptist University by the year 1986, the Arkansas Baptist State Convention in November of 1976 adopted a resolution endorsing ten "Centennial Decade Goals" for Ouachita. In the spring of 1981 the Ouachita Centennial Advancement Program was launched and some of the more pressing needs were incorporated in Phase I (1981-82) of this program under the able direction of Roger Harrod, vice president for development. God has clearly blessed this program, both in terms of increased operating support and important additions to the campus buildings and grounds. In addition to the financing and constructing of the beautiful new multi-purpose HPER complex, at a cost of $4,000,000, a 51-unit apartment complex just three blocks from the central campus (Starlite and Lancelot Apartments) became available on a miraculous self-amortizing basis, allowing one of the major goals of improved married student housing to be met. Several new endowed chairs have either been established or are very near to being established, including the Lena Trimble Shepperson Endowed Chair of Music, the W.O. Vaught Endowed Chair of Bible, and the Clarence and Bennie Sue Anthony Endowed Chair of Bible. The L.J. (Dutch) Funderburk Endowed Scholarship for ministerial students was established during the past year by a generous gift of $100,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Funderburk.

Phase I of OCAP has involved "home base" campaigns for pledges and cash gifts from Ouachita's faculty and staff, trustees and former trustees, Development Council members, the Arkadelphia community, and Ouachita alumni and other former students. All of these campaigns went well above "base goals" recommended by professional consultants, and most of them went beyond the "challenge goals". Successful area campaigns with individuals, businesses, and foundations in the Little Rock and El Dorado areas, have raised additional funds for meeting the Phase I Centennial Goals. These efforts made it possible in January 1983, to claim two generous challenge grants from the Mabee Foundation (for $500,000) and the Kresge Foundation (for $250,000). Foundations outside the state are increasingly impressed with the kind of support Arkansas Baptists and other friends within the state are giving to Ouachita. As we approach the completion of Phase I of OCAP, Ouachita trustees and staff are planning the objectives for Phase II (1984-86), and the various area campaigns with individuals, businesses, and foundations, with hopes and prayers that Ouachita's Centennial Celebration will see new and stronger levels of operating support, and such new buildings as an information-age library complex (through new construction and renovation), and auditorium, a humanities building, completion of the modernization of Moses-Provine Science Center, and dramatic beautification of the ravine and riverfront. It should all be a source of pardonable pride for Arkansas Baptists.

Without detracting from the importance of the Ouachita Centennial Advancement Program, it is even more important to have steadily increasing support for Ouachita through the Cooperative Program of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. It has been, still is, and will continue to be the number one factor in the strength of Christian education at Ouachita. In considering each new worthy cause that competes for limited Cooperative Program funds in future months and years, Arkansas Baptists need God's wisdom in weighing the practical requirements and relative merits of the old and the new. As Cooperative Program support continues to grow stronger, Arkansas Baptists' ministry of Christian education through Ouachita will undoubtedly grow stronger.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST COLLEGE

Walnut Ridge, Arkansas
D. Jack Nicholas, President

Southern Baptist College approaches with eagerness and excitement its task of touching the lives of young men and women with a liberal arts education permeated with the spirit and values of Christ at a time when our nation is grappling with problems that result from lost values and abandoned virtues. SBC perceives this time to be a period during which a truly authentic Christian college can make a profound difference in the lives of the young men and women on its campus and even in the larger society. To those purposes we re-dedicate ourselves.

North Central Evaluation

During the past academic year, Southern Baptist College underwent its periodic examination by the North Central Accrediting Association. During the month of January, four team-members appointed by the NCA spent three days on the campus studying institutional documents and literature, and evaluating the programs of the college. The North Central Evaluation Team, after its visit and examination, recommended that the accreditation of Southern Baptist College be continued with no stipulations, no interim reports, and no focus evaluations; and that the next comprehensive evaluation be scheduled in 5 years, the maximum period of which a two-year school is accredited. Naturally, those connected with Southern Baptist College are pleased and gratified by this very strong affirmation of the quality of its program.

On June 20, 1983, the Executive Board of the Commission of Higher Education of the North Central Association approved the recommendation of the visiting Evaluation Team.

Enrollment

The 1982 enrollment headcount, 409, reached the highest level since the fall of 1971. However, the full time equivalent enrollment was only slightly up over the fall of 1981 due to a larger number of part time students. Night school enrollment increased markedly as a result of growing enrollments in Computer Science and Data Processing.

Nonduplicating enrollment (the number of different individuals enrolled during the year) reached 573, also the largest figure in many years.

In a period of dwindling college age population and student financial aid cuts, the college is most grateful for this slight growth in enrollment.

Academics

As mentioned earlier, an Evaluation Team from North Central Association visited the campus of Southern Baptist College to appraise the quality of its programs. Nothing this writer could say would carry stronger weight than the comments concerning SBC by that team from North Central Association. Of the faculty, the NCA team remarked, "The faculty are well qualified, have participated in recent professional development activities, and are committed to the college mission." . . . "It was clear to the visiting team the faculty was strongly dedicated to the mission of the college and was deeply committed to the task they face. They comprise one of the most important resources of the college."

One of the more significant developments in academics during the past was the expansion of the offerings in Data Processing. The computer laboratory was moved into larger quarters and additional computers were added bringing the number which are available for instruction to 19.

Concerning the library, the North Central Team remarked:

"The library at Southern Baptist College is well housed in an attractive and reasonably maintained facility at the west end of the campus. Adequate for current needs, there is some potential for flexibility in space and function at the east end. An extension of the stacks is projected for the future and will become a priority matter should the college be granted baccalaureate status...Should the baccalaureate proposal come to pass, the staff is prepared to move immediately forward in strengthening collections and has indeed already researched professional literature on standard four-year holdings and prepared for the possibility."

Fiscal Operations and Physical Plant

The Vice-President for Business Affairs, although the audit has barely been started, has assured the president that Southern Baptist College operated in the black in the last fiscal year and enjoyed a small surplus of between $8,000 and $9,000.

The North Central Evaluation Team commented:

"The financial condition of the college has improved and the accounting procedures have been updated."

"The capital indebtedness has gone up remarkably little in light of the expansion program that has taken place since the last (NCA Evaluation) visit; (1) the Mabee Student Center was opened in the fall, 1977; (2) eight new married student apartments were constructed in the fall of 1977; (3) three new tennis courts were completed in 1978; (4) a new president's home on the west side of the campus was completed in 1979; (5) lastly, SBC opened the new 33,000 sq. ft. multi-purpose Southerland-Mabee Center, including a gym, drama stage, handball courts, weight-lifting rooms, and other facilities. In comparison, the 1973 indebtedness was $424,580; the 1978 indebtedness was $310,715; and as of December 31, 1982, the indebtedness is $688,386."

"The Vice-President for Business Affairs has aggressively worked to make the business office more efficient and up-to-date. Between 1981 and 1982, he has initiated replacing the hand-posting payroll system and the NDSL from a hand-posting to a data processing system. He has set up the budget for 1982-83 under the AICPA audit guide and the NACUBO audit guide. He has also kept the vendors on a 30-day period."

"Overall, Southern Baptist College is in better current and capital indebtedness position than the previous team found in 1978."

Student Life

Southern Baptist College has, for a small college, set in place a remarkable array of services aimed at facilitating student development outside the classroom. Commenting on some of these, the North Central Committee remarked:

“There are programs on student leadership and on the techniques of peer counseling. There is a program to provide an early warning of the student’s academic or social difficulty in order to provide prompt counseling. There are informative booklets on many topics...The reaction of the student body is quite positive. They seem to feel that the programs of the Office of Student Development are worthwhile.”

“The students with whom the visiting team talked were cordial and friendly. They found their academic tasks challenging and the college very supportive, both spiritually and socially.”

Long Range Planning

Mention has been made in previous reports about the long-range planning effort, the North Central Committee states:

“Long-range planning at Southern Baptist College has been directed in recent years toward the proposal for four-year, baccalaureate status. In that particular effort, planning has been based on an excellent appreciation of SBC origins, a sound understanding of current resource, and a reasonable projection of the demands and challenges of the future. The principle vehicle of this phase of long-range planning has been a feasibility study generated out of a joint faculty/administration study committee. The document’s focus is comprehensive, has been successful in generating campus support for the proposed adventure, and as the primary source of Trustee conviction that the proposal has merit and should continue to be pursued.”

“The team recognizes the situation the institution finds itself in, confronting the 1980’s and the 1990’s as a private, two-year, primarily liberal arts college. The baccalaureate program appears to be a viable option. The team also advises that research should be continued regarding the ramification of the four-year proposal in the light of library enhancement costs, faculty salary improvement, faculty credential improvements (new PH.D’s), and equipment purchases. The college should also be fully cognizant of the extremely difficult position the four-year, church-related, co-educational, liberal arts college in higher education today, and not underestimate the extreme challenge to the admission’s report, which, because of normal attrition over the four-year period, must bring in ever larger classes of freshman to provide viable and cost effective classes at upper division levels.”

Aspirations for Future Service

Two of the major factors contributing to the failure of the Convention to approve the request of Southern Baptist College to offer four-year programs were its Title III involvement and its request for additional allocation for the Convention. After the Convention, upon assessing what had happened, the Board of Trustees of Southern Baptist College and the administration and faculty re-affirmed the conviction that SBC should still endeavor to move to four-year status and the Board took action to terminate the Title III funding and to drop the immediate request for an additional allocation from the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Moreover, the Board moved to launch a $1,000,000 fund-raising campaign, the "New Dimension Campaign," to provide the funds necessary to make the transition from two to four years in the three degree areas, and has since voted to move gradually, degree by degree, into the Baccalaureate programs.

It is hoped that the Convention in November 1983 will approve the request of Southern Baptist College to move to a four-year status with these conditions.

WORLD HUNGER COMMITTEE REPORT

H.E. Williams, Chairman

The 1982, Arkansas Baptist churches contributed $129,848.50 through the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, for the relief of hunger and disasters over the world. Of that amount 20% was diverted to the Home Mission Board to answer the most critical needs in the homeland. The Home Mission Board expended about $20,000 of their allocation to help stricken Arkansas churches and individuals during the severe floods of December and January.

The amount given by our churches came from approximately one out of four Arkansas Baptist churches. What an indictment this is when we observe that three out of four churches did nothing to help with this increasing burden of world hunger and catastrophic emergencies! Surely every church should do something. Jesus very clearly said, "You give them something to eat."

Over a billion people on the earth are hungry every hour of the day. Another billion are hungry of ten during a year. Some twenty-five million are visited by major calamities annually, calling for great outlays of emergency provisions on short notice. Over thirty-two million Americans live constantly below the poverty level, indicating that most of them suffer hunger and malnutrition all of the time.

It is estimated that forty-thousand die every day from hunger and disease resulting from hunger. Of those who die each day, thirty-thousand of them are helpless children. One might feel helpless to prevent the death of forty-thousand people. However, Jesus would remind us that they die one at a time — one at a time. One person could provide enough to help one other person to live.

Southern Baptists generally gave $5,857,566.94 for hunger and relief ministries. However, the calls were so great from all over the world that the Foreign Mission Board spent some $8,107,921.04. This means that they spent $2,250,354.10 more than they received from the churches. The surplus that our churches had sent in previously, much to the surprise of our leadership, made possible this expenditure. That overexpenditure practically wiped out the overage and now if a major calamity such as famine, war, earthquake, or hurricane should strike, we would be hard strapped to answer the call.

Arkansas Baptist churches should make every possible effort to do something for world hunger/relief ministries. If the other three-fourths of our churches would do as well as the one-fourth does, the gifts would run over $500,000. That would surely be more pleasing to the Master and might begin to approach what we should be doing in this vital ministry.

“Inasmuch as you did it unto the least of these my brethren, you did it unto me.”

Jesus.

Every church should do something, even if it is not their best.

ARTHUR YOUNG

The Executive Board
Arkansas Baptist State Convention
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have examined the accompanying statements of assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions of the Executive Board, Arkansas Baptist State Convention at December 31, 1983 and 1982, and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements, changes in operating fund balances and changes in special fund balances for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Executive Board's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements and in accordance with accounting practices followed by non-profit denominational organizations. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements mentioned above present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions of the Executive Board, Arkansas Baptist State Convention at December 31, 1983 and 1982, and the results of cash operations of the funds for the years then ended on the basis of accounting mentioned in the paragraph above, which has been applied on a consistent basis during the period.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

The Executive Board maintains its records on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, revenue and related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and disbursements are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In accordance with accounting practices followed by non-profit denominational organizations, no provision has been made in the accompanying financial statements for depreciation of properties.

Note 2: Investments

Purchased investments are recorded at cost; investments received by gift are recorded at market value at the date of acquisition. At December 31, 1983 and 1982 investments were as follows:

	1983		1982
	Book value	Approximate market value	Book value	Approximate market value

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Woman's Missionary Union investments consisted of the following at December 31:

	1983		1982
	Book value	Approximate market value	Book value	Approximate market value
Arkansas Baptist State Convention pooled investments	$ 91,706	$ 91,706	$ 84,457	$ 84,457
Arkansas Baptist Foundation - Nancy Cooper Trust Fund	22,000	25,704	22,000	23,582
	$113,706	$117,410	$106,457	$108,039

Note 3: Funds held in escrow - Lottie Moon offerings

The Executive Board's policy is to hold all offerings for Lottie Moon Foreign Missions which are received subsequent to October in escrow until the following year. Funds held in escrow amounted to $872,529 and $709,937 at December 31, 1983 and 1982, respectively.

Note 4: Employee benefit plan

The Convention has a non-qualified, voluntary, contributory employee retirement benefit plan administered by the Annuity Board, Southern Baptist Convention, for all full time, permanent employees.

Total retirement expense was $172,912 and $157,123 for 1983 and 1982, respectively, which represents 10% of the participating employees' compensation. Generally, under the terms of the plan the contributions from employer and voluntary contributions from employees, up to 15% of their compensation, are placed in the employee's account and upon retirement, these funds plus investment earnings are used to purchase an annuity for the employee.

Note 5: Reclassification

Certain 1982 amounts have been reclassified to conform to 1983 presentation..

I have examined the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions of Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services at December 31, 1983 and the related statement of revenue collected, expenditures made, capital additions, and changes in fund balances for the year then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances. The statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions and the related statement of revenue collected, expenditures made, capital additions and changes in fund balances for the year ended December 31, 1982, were examined by other auditors whose report dated February 1, 1983, expressed an unqualified opinion on these statements.

As described in Note 1 of the Notes to Financial Statements, the accompanying financial statements are prepared on the cash basis and, accordingly, they are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In my opinion, the financial statements mentioned above present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions of Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services at December 31, 1983, and the revenue collected and expenditures made during the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 1983 and 1982

Note 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

The financial statements are presented on a fund accounting basis using the cash transactions method. Revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Plant assets

Expenditures by the general fund for plant acquisitions are accounted for as transfers to the plant fund. In accordance with accounting policies of non-profit denominational organizations, no provision is made for depreciation of properties.

Other matters

Income from investments and all gains and losses arising from the sale, collection, or other disposition of investments and other noncash assets are accounted for in the fund owning the assets.

Note 2: Investments

Purchased investments are recorded at cost; donated investments are recorded at market value at the date of gift. At December 31, 1983 and 1982 investments were as follows:

	1983		1982
	Cost	Approximate market value	Cost	Approximate market value

Note 3: Employee benefit plan

The Agency has a non-qualified voluntary, contributory employee retirement benefit plan administered by the Annuity Board, Southern Baptist Convention, for all full-time employees who have completed one year of service. Total pension expenses were $48,102 and $48,055 for 1983 and 1982, respectively, which represents 10% of the participating employees' compensation. Generally, under the terms of the plan the contributions from employer and voluntary contributions from employees up to 15% of their compensation, are placed in the employee's account and on retirement, these funds plus investment earnings are used to purchase an annuity for the employee.

JOHN D. TONEY, JR., C.P.A.

The Board of Directors
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have examined the statements of assets, liabilities, and fund balances of the Arkansas Baptist Foundation as of December 31, 1983 and 1982, and the related statements of operations, changes in investment fund balances, and investment income and distributions for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. The statement of assets, liabilities, and fund balance as of December 31, 1982 and related statements of operations, changes in investment fund balance, and investment income and distributions for the year then ended were examined by John D. Toney and Associates, P.A., Certified Public Accountants. We have since succeeded to the practice of such firm.

As described in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Foundation's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements with certain modifications. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the assets and fund balances of the Foundation on a cash basis as described in the preceding paragraph at December 31, 1983 and 1982, and the results of its transactions for the years then ended on a consistent basis.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 1983 and 1982

Note 1: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Except for an accrual to record accounts receivable from the Cooperative Program, the financial statements are presented on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements. Certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Depreciation has been recorded utilizing the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Description	Estimated Useful Life
Automobiles	3 years
Office furniture and equipment	3-5 years
Data processing equipment	5 years

Amounts charged to operating expenses for depreciation aggregated $11,305 and $13,783 in 1983 and 1982, respectively.

Note 2: Investments

Investments are carried at cost or the fair market value of the instrument at the date of contribution. The Foundation does not adjust the cost of debt securities for amortization of premium and accretion of discount. Any premium or discount is recognized at the date of maturity or the date of sale, and the related gain or loss is then recognized.

The carrying value and estimated market value of the investments at December 31, 1983 and December 31, 1982 are as follows:

December 31, 1983 and 1982Note 3: Pension Plan

The Foundation provides a pension plan covering substantially all employees through the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. The pension expense for the years ended December 31, 1983 and 1982 was $14,672 and $11,911, respectively. At December 31, 1983, there were no unfunded liabilities.

Note 4: Lease Obligations

The Foundation entered a lease agreement in January 1981, to lease its office space for a period of three years. The lease agreement will expire in January 1984, and requires rental payments of $15,750 per year until expiration.

Note 5: Income Taxes

Arkansas Baptist Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Note 6: General Information

The Arkansas Baptist Foundation was incorporated under the laws of the State of Arkansas in 1949. Its purpose is to encourage Baptists in the proper management and final distribution of accumulated possessions. The Foundation is authorized to receive by will or through trust, gifts for the benefit of any institution or agency supported by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention or the Southern Baptist Convention.

The Board of Directors is composed of fifteen persons. Five are nominated each year by the convention's nominating committee and elected at the annual session. The by-laws require that at least two-thirds of these be laymen. Investments are made through a committee after careful evaluation of recommendations from investment counsel.

There are no fees or commissions charged by the Foundation. The operational budget is provided by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Thus, gross income generated from investment is distributed to the designated beneficiary.

I have examined the accompanying balance sheet of Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, Inc. at December 31, 1983, and the related statements of support, revenue and expenses, changes in fund balances, and changes in financial position for the year then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances. The balance sheet and the related statements of support, revenue and expenses, changes in fund balances, and changes in financial position for the year ended December 31, 1982 were examined by other auditors whose report dated February 10, 1983 expressed an unqualified opinion on those statements.

In my opinion, the financial statements mentioned above present fairly the financial position of the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, Inc. at December 31, 1983, and the results of its operations and changes in financial position for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 1983 and 1982

Note 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

The Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, Inc. is a non-profit Arkansas corporation organized to operate a printing and publishing business to aid and support the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

Basis of accounting

The financial statements are presented on a fund accounting basis utilizing the accrual method.

Marketable securities and investments

Marketable securities and investments are recorded at identified cost, if purchased, or at fair market value at date of gift, if donated.

Plant assets

Property and equipment are carried at cost. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Barton subscription deferred revenue

The Barton subscription deferred revenue account was established by donations from the Arkansas Baptist Foundation to provide free subscriptions of the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine for needy ministers throughout the state.

Blind ministry deferred revenue

From time to time, Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine will receive donations that are to be used to provide tape ministry to the blind throughout the state. This deferred revenue account was established to disclose the amount of unexpended restricted donations of this type.

Note 2: Property and equipment

Note 4: Employee benefit plan

Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine has a non-qualified, voluntary contributory employee retirement benefit plan administered by the Annuity Board, Southern Baptist Convention, for all full-time employees. Total pension expenses were $14,403 and $11,624 for 1983 and 1982, respectively, which represents 10% of the participating employees' compensation. Generally, under the terms of the plan the contributions from employer and voluntary contributions from employees up to 15% of their compensation, are placed in the employee's account and on retirement, these funds plus investment earnings are used to purchase an annuity for the employee.

We have examined the balance sheet of Ouachita Baptist University at May 31, 1983, and the related statements of changes in fund balances and current funds revenues, expenditures and other changes for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the financial statements mentioned above present fairly the financial position of Ouachita Baptist University at May 31, 1983 and the changes in fund balances and the current funds revenues, expenditures and other changes for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Gentlemen:

We have examined the balance sheet of Southern Baptist College as of June 30, 1983 and the related statements of changes in fund balances and current funds revenue, expenditures, and other changes for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the financial position of Southern Baptist College at June 30, 1983 and the changes in fund balances and the current funds revenues, expenditures, and other changes for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,

SOUTHERN BAPTIST COLLEGE
Summary of Significant Accounting Policies
June 30, 1983

The significant accounting policies followed by Southern Baptist College are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader.

Accrual Basis

The financial statements of Southern Baptist College have been prepared on the accrual basis except for depreciation accounting as explained in notes 1 and 2 to the financial statements. The statement of current funds revenues, expenditures, and other changes is a statement of financial activities of current funds related to the current reporting period. It does not purport to present the results of operations or the net income or loss for the period as would a statement of income or a statement of revenues and expenses.

To the extent that current funds are used to finance plant assets, the amounts so provided are accounted for as (1) expenditures, in the case of normal replacement of movable equipment and library books; (2) mandatory transfers, in the case of required provisions for debt amortization and interest and equipment renewal and replacement; and (3) transfers of a nonmandatory nature for all other cases where applicable.

Fund Accounting

In order to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of the resources available to the Institution, the accounts of the Institution are maintained in accordance with the principles of "fund accounting." This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds that are in accordance with activities or objectives specified. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying financial statements, funds that have similar characteristics have been combined into fund groups. Accordingly, all financial transactions have been recorded and reported by fund group.

Within each group, fund balances restricted by outside sources are so indicated and are distinguished from unrestricted funds allocated to specific purposes by action of the governing board. Externally restricted funds may only be utilized in accordance with the purposes established by the source of such funds and are in contrast with unrestricted funds over which the governing board retains full control to use in achieving any of its institutional purposes.

Endowment funds are subject to the restrictions of gift instruments requiring in perpetuity that the principal be invested and the income only be utilized. Term endowment funds are similar to endowment funds except that upon the passage of a stated period of time or the occurrence of a particular event, all or part of the principal may be expended. While quasi-endowment funds have been established by the governing board for the same purposes as endowment funds, any portion of quasi-endowment funds may be expended.

All gains and losses arising from the sale, collection, or other disposition of investments and other noncash assets are accounted for in the fund which owned such assets. Ordinary income derived from investments, receivables, and the like is accounted for in the fund owning such assets, except for income derived from investments of endowment and similar funds, which income is accounted for in the fund to which it is restricted or, if unrestricted, as revenues in unrestricted current funds.

All other unrestricted revenue is accounted for in the unrestricted current fund. Restricted gifts, grants, appropriations, endowment income, and other restricted resources are accounted for in the appropriate restricted funds. Restricted current funds are reported as revenues and expenditures when expended for current operating purposes.

Other Significant Accounting Policies

Other significant accounting policies are set forth in the financial statements and the notes thereto.

Southern Baptist College
Notes to Financial Statements
June 30, 1983

1. Investments exclusive of physical plant are recorded at cost if purchased. If received by gift it is carried at fair market value at the date of acquisition except certain issues which have declined in value where it was evident such decline was not due to temporary market conditions. See Schedule A-1 for more detail listing of investments owned by Southern Baptist College.

On January 27, 1976 Southern Baptist College and Arkansas Baptist Foundation negotiated a contract whereby the Foundation would administer endowment investments for the college. Initially investments with a book value of $63,923.79 were transferred to the Foundation. According to the Foundation the June 30 market value of these investments was approximately $47,343.87. The June 30 book value of units owned in the Pooled Investment Group was $43,264.17. Additional funds were transferred to the Foundation on July 27, 1981. The $31,709.19 transferred was used to purchase corporate bonds. During 1983 distribution of income received on this amounted to $3,593.39. Other amounts are periodically transferred to the Foundation.

In addition to these Southern Baptist College is the ultimate beneficiary of investments with a market value totaling approximately $222,295.68 also held in trust by the Arkansas Baptist Foundation. Since these investment are periodically changing in nature as they mature or are sold and the proceeds reinvested it has not been feasible to pick up the individual investments and record them in the books of Southern Baptist College. The Foundation regularly distributes the income earned on these investments to the college. The book value of these as of June 30, 1983 was reported as $161,627.99.

2. Physical plant and equipment are stated at cost at date of acquisition or fair market value at date of donation in case of gifts except that an appraisal performed May 31, 1965 by a qualified, independent appraiser resulted in an adjustment being recorded on the books at June 30, 1965. An increase of $687,865.81 was recorded for fixed assets composed of an increase in land of $51,840.00; an increase in buildings of $670,961.49; and an increase in roads and utilities of $34,935.68. During the current year additional books comprising the library were capitalized at their estimated value. This resulted in a net increase in assets and fund balance in the amount of $158,082.00. Other assets totaling $267,463.43 were removed from the books as structures which were demolished.

No provision for depreciation has been taken into consideration in the property, plant and equipment as set forth in the Balance Sheet - Exhibit A. The Southerland Mabee Center is pledged to Pocahontas Federal Savings and Loan Association on a mortgage with a balance of $285,094.91 at June 30, 1983. The apartments for married students are pledged to Pocahontas Federal Savings and Loan to secure a mortgage on which $95,800.10 was owed at June 30. The President's home is also pledged to Pocahontas Federal Savings and Loan on a mortgage with a balance of $49,574.50. A mortgage to Independence Savings and Loan with a balance of $128,908.55 is secured by the Fine Arts Building. Other assets pledged to secure notes are the air conditioning systems in the girls' dormitory to Arkansas Louisiana Gas. The computer and telephone equipment to Planters & Stockman Bank and the bus also to Planters and Stockman Bank.

3. A detailed listing of notes and mortgages with a split-out of that portion due within one year is shown as Schedule A-1 at page 4 of this report.
4. A statement of changes in Fund Balances is not shown in the report for the current year. Restructuring of the various funds was finalized during the current year to complete conversion to true "fund" accounting and to bring our records and accounting into compliance with guidelines and requirements published by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Nacubo and accreditation bodies. It was not feasible to reclassify revenues and expenditures between the various funds to enable us to present the above statement accurately. Such information will be available for the year 1983-1984 and such a statement can be rendered in the report to show the change from current year balances as we will then have completed two fiscal years under approval fund accounting.
5. Reserve and excess funds are kept invested in certificates of deposit or money market accounts. Checking accounts are also interest bearing accounts where possible. Total interest earned during the fiscal year on such short term investments amounted to $23,054.02.
6. Accounts receivable at June 30, 1983 were only $14,029.61 with a reserve of $3,519.25 representing those believed to be uncollectible. This apparently reflects good collection results as no time since I became involved with your audit have our receivables been so small an amount.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated balance sheet includes the accounts of Baptist Memorial Health Care System and the hospitals it owns. These corporations are consolidated as of their individual fiscal year ends. Consolidated corporations, their fiscal year ends, and number of months of operations included in the financial statements are as follows:

	Fiscal Year End	Number of Months of Operations
Baptist Memorial Health Care System, Inc.	December 31, 1982	12
Baptist Memorial Hospital (Memphis, Tn.)	September 30, 1982	12
Baptist Memorial Hospital - Tipton	June 30, 1982	12
Lauderdale Hospital, Inc.	June 30, 1982	12
Baptist Memorial Hospital - Union City (As of Date of Purchase)	July 1, 1982	0
Baptist Memorial Hospital - Booneville, Inc.	September 30, 1982	4-1/2
Baptist Memorial Hospital - Corning, Inc.	December 31, 1982	12
Baptist Memorial Hospital - Eastern Ozarks, Inc.	July 31, 1982	4

Non-hospital subsidiaries are included on the equity basis. These subsidiaries and their fiscal year ends are:

American Industrial Development Corporation	April 30, 1982	12
Southern Surgical Supply Company	April 30, 1982	12
Medical Financial Services, Inc.	April 30, 1982	12

All material intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. All consolidated hospitals are tax exempt under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Inventories are priced at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out method) or market.

At the advice of the American Hospital Association, independent appraisals of certain property and equipment were obtained in 1962 and 1964. The appraisals are reflected in the accompanying statements by showing an increase of $8,843,321 in the assets. Depreciation is computed on the appraised values.

The buildings and equipment are depreciated principally under the straight-line method. Certain assets have been depreciated by accelerated methods for Medicare purposes. The additional reimbursement resulting from accelerated depreciation has been deferred.

Revenues received under cost reimbursement agreements are subject to audit and retroactive adjustment by third-party payors. No provisions for retroactive adjustment have been made.

NOTE 2 - HOSPITALS ACQUIRED

A. On July 1, 1981, the System, through Baptist Memorial Hospital - Tipton (BMH-Tipton), purchased the assets and liabilities of Tipton County Memorial Hospital. According to terms of the agreement, Tipton County used the net purchase price to establish an indigent care trust fund totaling approximately $880,000. The net book value of assets purchased exceeded the cost by approximately $176,318. Values assigned to property, plant and equipment have been reduced by that amount to reflect the purchase.

In order to obtain the Hill Burton release effective April, 1984, the deed conveying certain of the real property to BMH-Tipton reserves to the County the right of possession, use and occupancy until April, 1984. In the interim, the county is leasing and granting to BMH-Tipton all its right, use, occupancy and possession of this real property. As a part of the purchase BMH-Tipton has agreed to make capital improvements including installation of a new roof, upgrading the heating and air conditioning system, and construction of a professional office building.

The indigent care trust fund was established to assist qualified indigent individuals in paying for hospital care and ambulance services provided by BMH-Tipton. Requests for payment are submitted to the fund's Board of Trustees who may authorize payment out of the income of the fund.

A portion of the purchase price was used to establish a loan escrow fund to repay two loans due from Tipton County Memorial Hospital to the Farmers Home Administration. The loans, totaling $1,034,611 at July 1, 1981, are to be repaid by April 30, 1984. The fund is to be invested as directed by BMH-Tipton. Any amount remaining after full payment of the loans is to be immediately repaid to BMH-Tipton.

BMH-Tipton also agreed to provide, at cost, administrative services and supplies and furnish use of existing space to the county-owned ambulance service.

B. On July 1, 1980, Lauderdale Hospital, Inc. (Lauderdale) leased the property, plant and equipment and assumed the other operating assets and liabilities of Lauderdale County Hospital from Lauderdale County, Tennessee. With an initial term of two years, the lease is renewable at the option of Lauderdale in increments of two years for the effective useful life of the leased property. Annual rental is $1. Lauderdale is presently constructing its own facility at a projected cost of $9,000,000.

C. Effective January 1, 1981, Baptist Memorial Hospital-Corning, Inc. leased the property, plant and equipment and assumed the other operating assets and certain liabilities of Corning Community Hospital, of Corning, Arkansas from Corning Community Hospital, Inc. The lease extends for 26 years with options for two extensions of 25 years each. Baptist assumed liability for payments on city of Corning revenue bonds outstanding totaling $3,260,000 maturing at intervals through July 1, 2006. Rent thereafter is $1 per month. At the termination of the lease, Baptist will return net assets substantially equivalent to those assumed at the commencement.

NOTE 2 - HOSPITALS ACQUIRED

D. On April 1, 1982, Baptist Memorial Hospital - Eastern Ozarks, Inc. purchased the assets and assumed the liabilities of Eastern Ozarks Community Hospital, Inc., a 40 bed hospital in Arkansas. The net book value of assets purchased exceeded the liabilities assumed by $444,366. Values assigned to property, plant and equipment have been reduced by that amount to reflect the purchase.

E. As of May 17, 1982, Baptist Memorial Hospital - Booneville, Inc. leased the property and assumed the other assets and certain liabilities of Northeast Mississippi Hospital from the city of Booneville and the county of Prentiss, Mississippi. The lease extends for 25 years with options for two renewals of 25 years each. Baptist assumed liability for payment of two General Obligation Bonds totaling $500,000. After payment of the bonds, rent will be $1 annually. Upon termination of the lease, Baptist will return net assets substantially equivalent to those assumed at the commencement of the lease.

F. On July 1, 1982, Baptist Memorial Hospital - Union City purchased the assets and assumed certain liabilities of the Obion County General Hospital from Obion County, Tennessee for $16,000,000. The purchase price consisted of $12,000,000 cash; $2,500,000 placed in trust of indigent care, and $1,500,000 depreciation recapture to be paid to medicare.

NOTE 3 - INVESTMENTS

American Industrial Development Corporation (AIDC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Baptist Memorial Hospital (BMH-Memphis) is accounted for by the equity method.

BMH-Memphis regards its investments as part of a long range investment policy. The cost of these investments is approximately equal to market value.

	Cost or Basis
AIDC	$ 10,459,924
Short-Term Investments	28,284,090
Bonds and Note	8,178,693
Cash	415,920
	$ 47,338,609

NOTE 4 - DUE FROM AFFILIATES AND LONG-TERM DEBT - AFFILIATES

The accounts of the various companies are consolidated as of their respective fiscal year ends as discussed in Note 1. Accordingly, the balances recorded in Due From Affiliates and Long-Term Debt - Affiliates reflect the intercompany balances not eliminated because of the different year ends. Due from Affiliates is the net non-eliminated trade account balance. Long-Term Debt - Affiliates is the net non-eliminated intercompany notes payable.

NOTE 5 - LONG-TERM DEBT

At the respective fiscal year ends, long-term debt consisted of the following:

9-1/2% Notes to Seven Insurance Companies Payable in Semi-Annual Principal Payments Plus Interest Through 1999 Collateralized by a 500 Bed Unit with a Carrying Value of $28,700,000.	$ 33,440,000
5.07% Mortgage Payable in Monthly Installments of $123,333 Including Interest Through 1988 Collateralized by a Building Complex with a Carrying Value of Approximately $25,000,000.	6,831,941
5% Mortgage Payable in Monthly Installments of $7,184 Including Interest, Collateralized by Real and Personal Property with a Carrying Value of $1,859,865.	1,297,809
Various Mortgages Payable at Interest Rates of 3% Through 17% (Weighted Interest Rate 6.12%) Each Collateralized by Personal or Real Property.	1,731,641
Various Notes Payable at Interest Rates of 0 to 16% (Weighted Interest Rate 9.74%).	327,202
	43,628,593
Less Portion Due Within One Year	2,537,355
	$ 41,091,238

NOTE 5 - LONG-TERM DEBT

The following is a summary of the anticipated future payments of long-term debt at September 30, 1982:

Year Ended September 30,
1983	$ 2,537,355
1984	2,435,274
1985	2,532,696
1986	2,693,275
1987	2,882,636
Later Years	30,547,357
	$ 43,628,593

NOTE 6 - CAPITAL LEASES

Substantially all of the assets of two of the hospitals (Corning and Booneville) are capitalized under the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 13. The general terms of these leases are disclosed in Note 2. Additionally, certain leased data processing and technical equipment has been capitalized.

The following is a schedule, by years, of future minimum lease payments under capital leases together with the present value of the net minimum lease payments as of the respective fiscal year ends:

Year Ended September 30,
1983	$ 398,493
1984	378,249
1985	373,884
1986	374,144
1987	335,888
Thereafter	8,816,610
Total Minimum Lease Payments	10,677,268
Less Amount Representing Interest	5,009,223
Present Value of Net Minimum Lease Payments	5,668,045
Less Present Value of Portion Due Within One Year	87,800
Long-Term Obligations Under Capital Leases	$ 5,580,245

NOTE 7 - RETIREMENT PLANS

Certain Subsidiaries of Baptist Memorial Health Care System, Inc. have defined contribution retirement plans which cover substantially all full-time employees after one year of employment. Most employees are covered by plans administered by the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Typically, each covered employee contributes 5 percent of his salary and the employer contributes 10 percent.

NOTE 8 - SELF INSURANCE

Baptist Memorial Hospital (Memphis, Tn.) has a self-insurance trust fund for essentially all of its professional and general liability. Contributions and year end liability levels are actuarially computed.
