New Faculty & Staff

Dr. George Biggs, Assc. Prof. of Music, has come to Ouachita from Barrington, Rhode Island. He taught several years at Barrington College as well as teaching at Messiah College in Grantham, Penn., and at Community College of Rhode Island in Lincoln. He holds degrees from Dartmouth College, Eastman School of Music, Wheaton College and the Ph. D. from Indiana University. He has worked in Electronic Music at the New England Conservatory. He has served as an organist and a choir director in several churches. He and his wife, Jean, have two daughters, both of which are married. Photography is one of his major interests, next to music of course.

Mr. Chuck Atkinson has recently joined the OBU staff as Asst. Business Manager. He is a native of Pine Bluff and a graduate of Ouachita. He holds degrees in Accounting and Business Administration. Before coming to OBU to work he was employed by the Citizens First State Bank in Arkadelphia. Chuck is single and enjoys various extra-curricular activities.
