CONSTITUTION

Article I. — The Name

The name of this body shall be "The Arkansas Baptist State Convention."

Article II. — The Purpose

The purpose of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention is to assist the churches of the Convention in fulfilling their mission, and to encourage cooperative support of and involvement in our worldwide mission enterprise.

The Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention on May 9, 1963, shall be the doctrinal guideline for this Convention.

Article III. — Membership

Section 1. The Convention shall be composed of messengers from regular Baptist churches which are in sympathy with the principles and purposes of this Convention, and which desire to cooperate with other churches through this Convention.

Regular Baptist churches are those Baptist churches which in doctrine and in practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of The Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, and The Baptist Faith and Message shall not be interpreted as to permit open communion and/or alien immersion.

Section 2. Each co-operating church shall be entitled to three messengers, with one additional messenger for each additional one hundred members, or major fraction thereof above one hundred, provided however, that no church shall be entitled to a total of more than ten messengers.

Section 3. A standing Credentials Committee of five members shall be appointed by the president of the convention. No member of this committee may serve more than two consecutive conventions. The president of the convention shall fill vacancies and shall name the chairman each year.

Article IV. — Authority

Section 1. While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, this Convention shall never exercise any authority whatever over any church, nor shall it in any way interfere with the constitution of any church, or with the exercise of its functions as the only ecclesiastical body, but will cheerfully recognize and uphold the absolute independence of the churches.

Article V. — Officers

Section 1. The officers of this Convention shall be: President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Recording Secretary and Treasurer. Each officer of the Convention shall be elected annually, except the Recording Secretary and Treasurer who shall be the same as the Executive Director of the Executive Board, and shall continue in office until his successor in office shall have been elected and qualified.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the President to preside over the deliberations of the Convention and to discharge such other duties as may devolve upon the presiding officer of a deliberative body. He shall appoint all committees unless the Convention shall otherwise determine. In the absence of the President, one of the Vice-Presidents shall preside in his stead.

Section 3. The Executive Director of the Executive Board or his designee is authorized to execute and sign all official and legal documents involving transactions in agreement with the Constitution and Bylaws and/or approved by the Convention, the Executive Board or its Operating Committee.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the Director to keep a record of the proceedings of the convention, to edit and arrange publication of a suitable number of the minutes for distribution among the churches, as the Convention may direct, as soon as reasonably possible after the close of the session. He shall file and keep in order all papers deemed important to the work of the Convention.

Article VI. — The Executive Board

Section 1. This Convention shall elect a Board of Trustees as provided for in the Convention's charter. This Board shall be known as the "Executive Board of Arkansas Baptist State Convention." This Board shall be composed of one member from the bounds of each cooperating association with a membership up to 5,000, and one additional member for each additional 5,000 constituency, or major fraction thereof, provided however, that no association shall be entitled to more than five (5) members. In addition, the convention shall elect one lady from the bounds of each of the eight districts in the state to serve on the Executive Board. Upon the removal of any Executive Board member from the bounds of his or her association, his or her membership on the Executive Board ceases therewith; his or her successor in office shall be nominated by the Convention Nominating Committee and elected by the Executive Board to fill the unexpired term. No member of this board shall hold any remunerative office under the Convention or any of its institutions. One-third of this board shall be elected annually to hold office for three years, and a majority of the board members shall constitute a quorum. Any member of the Executive Board who misses all the Executive Board meetings and the Executive Board committee meetings for one year shall be automatically dropped from membership on the Board.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall be constituted and empowered by the Convention as its business and legal agent to administer all business committed to it by the Convention, and to employ such paid agents as it may deem necessary in carrying out the missionary, educational, benevolent and financial enterprises of the Convention. The Executive Board shall raise, collect, receive and disburse all the funds of the Baptist Cooperative Program, for both state and Southern Baptist Convention causes. The office of the Executive Board shall be a clearing house for administering the business affairs of the Convention, and a headquarters for Baptist information. Its books, records and files shall at all times be open for the reference and inspection of any co-operating church which may desire to examine them.

Section 3. The Executive Board shall render to the Convention annually a complete and detailed statement of all its business for the year.

Article VII. — Trusteeships

The Convention shall elect trustees to manage and to operate institutions and agencies it may possess, as follows:

Section 1. Ouachita Baptist University, 24; Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services, 18; Baptist Memorial Hospital (Memphis), 9; Southern Baptist College, 24; Arkansas Baptist Foundation, 15; Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, 9.

Section 2. One-third of the members of the Boards of Trustees shall be elected annually to serve for a term of three years. Any member of the Board of Trustees who misses all the meetings of that Board for one year shall be automatically dropped from membership on that Board.

Section 3. Each Board of Trustees shall elect from their membership a chairman and a recording secretary and such other officers as seems advisable.

Section 4. All trusteeships shall render to the Convention at each annual session complete and detailed reports of all transactions and business and any other activities for the year, and shall be subject to the direction of the Convention in all matters pertaining to administering the affairs of the institution with which their trusteeship is concerned.

Article VIII. — Operation of Agencies

Section 1. Each board, agency, and institution of this Convention shall submit to the Executive Board at its annual budget planning meeting, which is to be held prior to the annual meeting of the Convention, a detailed statement of its sources of income, and a budget of proposed expenditures for the ensuing year. When received and adopted by the Convention, these budgets shall become the basis for the operations for the ensuing year.

Section 2. Each board, agency and institution of this convention shall operate on the funds provided by the churches through the Cooperative Program and from special offerings solicited and received from individuals, corporations, foundations, the annual Family and Child Care offering, and the Dixie Jackson State Mission offering.

No additional appeals may be made to the churches without the recommendation of the Executive Board and the approval of the annual convention in session.

Section 3. A deficit in a board, agency or institution operational budget for any year shall be reported to the Executive Board and the convention in annual session.

Such deficit may not be carried over into the second year without the approval of the Executive Board and the convention in annual session as to how this deficit will be eliminated.

Article IX. — Meetings

Section 1. The Convention shall meet annually, “if God permit,” on a date to be fixed by the Convention. The Executive Board is empowered in emergencies to call special sessions of the Convention and to change either the time or place of meeting or both should the occasion demand.

Article X. — Amendments

Section 1. This Constitution and Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members voting and concurring in two successive annual meetings of the convention, except Article IV, which shall remain forever unalterable in substance.

Section 2. Any proposed amendment to this Constitution shall be presented to the Convention in writing, for its consideration, upon the first day of the annual session, and may be voted on, on any subsequent day during the session, provided adequate publicity has been given in previous announcement.

Article XI. — Parliamentary Authority

Kerfoot’s Parliamentary Law shall be the standard for deciding questions of parliamentary procedure.

Article XII. — Districts

The Convention shall establish such geographic districts as it may deem wise to facilitate its promotion, administration, and organization of its objectives, provided, it will never violate in any way the boundaries of any association within the area of the convention. The boundaries of such districts shall be drawn so as to provide equitable geographical and numerical voice and representation on all convention committees, commissions, boards, except the Executive Board, all trusteeships. Each tenth year hereafter, the whole matter of districts shall be readjusted to take in consideration the flow of membership in our Baptist churches.

BYLAWS

In order to carry out the provisions of the Constitution, the following Bylaws are enacted for the government of the Convention.

1. Enrollment of Messengers

The Secretary of the Convention shall enroll, upon arrival, messengers who present proper credentials from the churches. These messengers, together with others who may be enrolled upon presentation of approved credentials during the session, shall constitute the Convention. Any contention concerning seating messengers shall be presented to a committee appointed by the President for recommendation to the Convention for its action.

2. Officers

The President, First Vice-President, and Second Vice-President shall be elected on the second day of the Convention, their terms of office to begin with the final session of the Convention.

The election of all officers shall be by ballot; provided, however, there is only one nomination for the office, then the Secretary or any other present may be directed to cast the ballot of the entire assembly for the single nominee.

The first vice president shall be nominated and voted upon and elected after balloting for the president has been completed and the winner announced, and the second vice president shall be nominated and voted upon and elected after the balloting for the first vice president has been completed and the winner announced.

Each officer of the Convention shall be elected by a majority of all votes cast.

In case of removal from office, by death or otherwise, of the President, the Vice-Presidents shall automatically succeed to the office of President in the order of their election. The President may not be elected for more than two consecutive terms.

All elected officers of this Convention shall be members of churches cooperating with this Convention. This must also apply to members of the Executive Board and the institutional boards of this Convention.

3. The Executive Board

The Executive Board, being the legal trustee of the Convention, shall be empowered by the Convention to administer all business committed to it by the Convention.

The Executive Board is empowered to act for the Convention between sessions of the Convention, provided that it shall never exercise any authority contrary to the expressed will of the Convention.

When any unforeseen emergency occurs in any of the affairs of the Convention, or in any of the interest it controls, that in the judgment of the Executive Board requires action before the next session of the Convention, the Executive Board shall have full authority to take such action as may seem necessary, and all interests concerned shall be governed by such action, provided the Executive Board shall make full report of all matters pertaining thereunto to the next session of the Convention for its approval, and provided further, that nothing in this article shall be construed as giving the Executive Board authority to execute any matter already committed by the Convention to any of its Board of Trustees or its institutions unless such Board when so commissioned shall decline to act on the order of the Convention.

All proposals requiring the expenditures of money by the Convention, or the Executive Board of the Convention, from the annual budget, shall be considered by the Executive Board, before being presented to the Convention.

This Board shall be charged with the responsibility to have the books and financial affairs of each and all of the boards and institutions of the Arkansas Baptist Convention audited annually by an accredited firm of auditors, all audits to be accessible to the Executive Board at its budget planning session, and to be included in the institution's report to the Convention.

Members of the Executive Board, having served two full terms of three years each shall not be eligible for re-election until as much as one year has elapsed. In determining eligibility for re-election, any individual filling a vacancy, shall be deemed to have served a full term if that individual shall have served two-thirds or more of a full term.

The various associations of Arkansas whose churches are affiliated with this Convention, may submit to the committee or nominations names of those whom they believe should be considered for membership on the Executive Board as members from that association.

4. Trusteeships

All trusteeships of this Convention shall be amenable to the Convention on all matters, through its Executive Board.

Members of Boards of Trustees having served two full terms of three years each shall not be eligible for reelection until as much as one year has elapsed. In determining eligibility for reelection, any individual filling a vacancy, shall be deemed to have served a full term if that individual shall have served two-thirds or more of a full term.

Not more than two (2) members of a Board of Trustees shall at the same time be members of the same local church, nor shall more than six (6) members reside in any one association.

A member of a Board of Trustees of one institution of the Convention may not at the same time be a member of any other board of Trustees of another institution of the Convention.

No member of a Board of Trustees of any institution of this Convention may at the same time be a member of the Executive Board of the Convention.

5. Committee Members

1. A nine-member rotating Nominating Committee, comprised of at least three laymen, will place in nomination at each annual convention names of persons to fill vacancies on all convention boards. Following each annual convention, the president will appoint one-third of this committee to three-year terms to replace the one-third rotating off, plus filling any vacancies that may exist on the committee at that time. Nominations for all boards from this Nominating Committee must be as equitably divided as possible between the eight existing districts of our state convention. The president shall also name the chairman, who shall come from a one-year term member.

2. A member filling an unexpired term not having served the full term of years as provided by the Constitution, shall be, at the discretion of the Nominating Committee, eligible for election to a full term.

3. No member of a commission or committee delegated to study or make recommendations concerning our agencies and institutions shall be a member of any Board of Trustees of such agency or institution.

4. All directors of associational missions or mission pastors receiving all or part compensation from the Convention through the Executive Board shall be considered employees of the Convention and shall not be members of any Convention, agency or institutional board. The president of the Convention by virtue of his office shall be a member of the Executive Board for the duration of his term of office.

(Changed from associational missionaries to directors of associational missions)

This was approved in the 1988 Convention and will need to be voted on in the 1989 Convention to be final.

6. Constitution and Bylaws Committee

A standing Constitution and Bylaws Committee shall be composed of six (6) members to be nominated by the Nominating Committee. One-third of the membership (2) shall be elected annually to serve for a term of three (3) years. No member shall be eligible to serve more than two terms until one year has elapsed. In determining eligibility for reelection, any individual filling a vacancy, shall be deemed to have served a full term if that individual shall have served two-thirds or more of a full term.

The president of the Convention shall appoint the chairman of the Committee each year. The chairman must be one who has been a member of the Committee for at least one year and may succeed himself until his tenure of eligibility shall expire.

The Constitution and Bylaws Committee shall be charged with the responsibility of advising the presiding officer concerning constitutional matters during the annual session of the Convention with reference to matters which may arise from the floor or from other committees. The committee will act ad interim in all matters concerning the Constitution and Bylaws referred to it by the boards and agencies of the Convention. The committee will receive all proposed constitutional changes before the convention and will be responsible for presenting them in writing for Convention consideration, upon the first day of the annual session, after adequate publicity has been given. The duties of the committee in no way preclude amendments to the constitution by messengers to the Convention.

APPENDICES

1. Enrollment of Messengers (1980 Annual, page 37)

Any challenge to the seating of any church's messengers and the basis of the challenge should be presented in writing to the Convention president, and the chairman of the Credentials Committee thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting of the convention.

The Credentials Committee will meet prior to the opening session of the convention and report their findings and recommendation to the opening session of the convention.

2. Performance of wedding ceremonies (1975 Annual, page 37)

The proper standard recommended by our State Convention for Southern Baptist ministers to perform wedding ceremonies in Arkansas (shall) be ordination.

3. Doctrinal Guidelines (1970 Annual, page 61)

Report of the Committee of Twenty-Five adopted, including the recommendation that the SBC statement of faith of 1963, The Baptist Faith and Message, be adopted as doctrinal guidelines for our convention.

4. Appendices (1967 Annual, page 40)

Resolution adopted that a search be made of the minutes of the Convention to discover policies and interpretations which have been adopted in past years, and these interpretations and policies be added at the end of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Convention as appendices.

5. Churches Ordinances (1965 Annual, page 31)

Resolution adopted, Whereas, in the past, the most general interpretation of the New Testament, and the most general interpretation of the Word 'principles' as it is used in Article 3, Section 1, of our constitution, and the most prevalent practice of Baptist churches in Arkansas with reference to the church ordinances, has been what is commonly called "closed baptism" and "closed communion," and,

Whereas, it is recorded on page 57 of the minutes of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention meeting in Fort Smith in 1937 that the Convention officially objected to the teaching of alien immersion and open communion in one of our seminaries, thereby establishing a precedence for future conventions, therefore,

Be it resolved that the Arkansas Baptist Convention, meeting in its 112th annual session, go on record as objecting to the reception of alien immersion and the practice of open communion, and

Be it further resolved that we urge churches everywhere to reexamine the New Testament teaching on baptism and the Lord's Supper.

6. Federal Aid (1965 Annual, page 43)

Resolution adopted, Whereas, Arkansas Baptists have been faced with the issue of Federal aid to private institutions, and, whereas many feel that the acceptance of such funds violates the cherished Baptist position of the separation of church and state, therefore, be it resolved that the Arkansas Baptist State Convention go on record as reaffirming our traditional Baptist position on the separation of church and state, and that we urge all of our Baptist institutions and programs to respect this principle.

7. Executive Board Recommendations (1963 Annual, page 35)

Voted that all recommendations of the Executive Board will be published in the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine one month prior to the meeting of the State Convention.

8. Violations of the Constitution (1960 Annual, page 29)

Where there are violations of the Constitution on the Boards the Convention Nominating Committee (shall be) requested to make proper corrections.

9. Book of Reports (1959 Annual, page 28)

Voted that the Convention Constitution and Bylaws be printed each year in the Book of Reports for the convenience of our messengers.

10. Baptist Memorial Hospital Trustees (1959 Annual, page 29)

Voted that the members of the Board of Trustees of the Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, not be included in the ruling which would prevent their serving on this board and one other convention board.

11. Capital Indebtedness (1959 Annual, page 30)

Voted that all requests for capital indebtedness by any convention institution or agency must be submitted to the Executive Board at least 90 days in advance of the July meeting of the Executive Board.

12. Out-of-state participation by Executive Board staff (1953 Annual, page 22)

Voted that we recommend the Cooperative Program as the best method of giving financial support to the Baptist work at home and abroad. We discourage any of the departments of our Arkansas Baptist work in accepting invitations to participate in the work of missions outside of our regular work within our state territory, at the expense of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention Departments involved. Further, we request our Executive Director of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and the President of the Executive Board confer with the heads of all Southern Baptist agencies expressing our concern about the practices of asking State Convention departments to give employees to such efforts outside our state, unless expenses and salaries are provided for by the agencies that use such workers.

13. Seating of Messengers (1949 Annual, page 92)

Resolution adopted that this convention refuse to seat any messengers from any church that accepts alien immersion; practices open communion; or affiliates with any branch of the Federal Council of Churches, World Council of Churches; or any other organization similar to or growing out of such.

14. To limit expenditures not previously studied and recommended that might be introduced by Messengers at Convention (1982 annual, page 63).

Motions made by messengers dealing with the internal operations or programs of an agency, institution or the Executive Board shall be referred to the elected board of the appropriate body for consideration, and report to the constituency and to the next convention in annual session. Any expenditure of funds up to $2,500 not already studied by the Executive Board shall be referred to that body for consideration and for a report to the next convention in annual session. Upon a two-thirds vote of the messengers present and voting, items dealing with internal operations, or finances, will be considered at a subsequent session of the same convention as arranged by the Order of Business Committee.

THE BAPTIST FAITH AND MESSAGE

I. THE SCRIPTURES

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is the record of God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. It reveals the principles by which God judges us; and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. The criterion by which the Bible is to be interpreted is Jesus Christ.

Ex. 24:4; Deut. 4:1-2; 17:19; Josh. 8:34; Psalm 19:7-10; 119:11, 89, 105, 140; Isa. 34:16; 40:8; Jer. 15:16; 36; Matt. 5:17-18; 22:29; Luke 21:33; 24:44-46; John 5:39; 16:13-15; 17:17; Acts 2:16ff.; 17:11; Rom. 15:4; 16:25-26; 2 Tim. 3:15-17; Heb. 1:1-2; 4:12; 1 Peter 1:25; 2 Peter 1:19-21

II. GOD

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

B. God the Son

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ he was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself the demands and necessities of human nature and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His death on the cross, He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the Person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, partaking of the nature of God and of man, and in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the assurance of God to bring the believer into the fulness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. MAN

Man was created by the special act of God, in His own image, and is the crowning work of His creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by His Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race.

Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God and fell from his original innocence; whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin, and as soon as they are capable of moral action become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore every man possesses dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

IV. SALVATION

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, sanctification, and glorification.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace. Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer into a relationship of peace and favor with God.

B. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual perfection through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

C. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

Gen. 3:15; Ex. 3:14-17; 6:2-8; Matt. 1:21; 4:17; 16:21-26; 27:22 to 28:6; Luke 1:68-69; 2:28-32; John 1:11-14, 29; 3:3-21, 36; 5:24; 10:9, 28-29; 15:1-16; 17:17; Acts 2:21; 4:12; 15:11; 16:30-31; 17:30-31; 20:32; Rom. 1:16-18; 2:4; 3:23-25; 4:3 ff.; 5:8-10; 6:1-23; 8:1-18, 29-39; 10:9-10, 13; 13:11-14; 1 Cor. 1:18, 30; 6:19-20; 15:10; 2 Cor. 5:17-20; Gal. 2:20; 3:13; 5:22-25; 6:15; Eph. 1:7; 2:8-22; 4:11-16; Phil. 2:12-13; Col. 1:9-22; 3:1 ff.; 1 Thess. 5:23-24; 2 Tim. 1:12;

Titus 2:11-14; Heb. 2:1-3; 5:8-9; 9:24-28; 11:1-12:8, 14; James 2:14-26; 1 Peter 1:2-23; 1 John 1:6 to 2:11; Rev. 3:20; 21:1 to 22:5

V. GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is a glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the cause of Christ, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Gen. 12:1-3; Ex. 19:5-8; 1 Sam. 8:4-7, 19-22; Isa. 5:1-7; Jer. 31:31 ff.; Matt. 16:18-19; 21:28-45; 24:22, 31; 25:34; Luke 1:68-79; 2:29-32; 19:41-44; 24:44-48; John 1:12-14; 3:16; 5:24; 6:44-45, 65; 10:27-29; 15:16; 17:6, 12, 17-18; Acts 20:32; Rom. 5:9-10; 8:28-39; 10:12-15; 11:5-7, 26-36; 1 Cor. 1:1-2; 15:24-28; Eph. 1:4-23; 2:1-10; 3:1-11; Col. 1:12-14; 2 Thess. 2:13-14; 2 Tim. 1:12; 2:10, 19; Heb. 11:39-12:2; 1 Peter 1:2-5, 13; 2:4-10; 1 John 1:7-9, 2:19; 3:2

VI. THE CHURCH

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is a local body of baptized believers who are associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel, observing the two ordinances of Christ, committed to His teachings, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth.

This church is an autonomous body, operating through democratic processes under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In such a congregation members are equally responsible. Its Scriptural officers are pastors and deacons.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all ages.

Matt. 16:15-19; 18:15-20; Acts 2:41-42, 47; 5:11-14; 6:3-6; 13:1-3; 14:23, 27; 15:1-30; 16:5; 20:28; Rom. 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:2; 3:16; 5:4-5; 7:17; 9:13-14; 12; Eph. 1:22-23; 2:19-22; 3:8-11, 21; 5:22-32; Phil. 1:1; Col. 1:18; 1 Tim. 3:1-15; 4:14; 1 Peter 5:1-4; Rev. 2-3; 21:2-3

VII. BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the wine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

Matt. 3:13-17; 26:26-30; 28:19-20; Mark 1:9-11; 14:22-26; Luke 3:21-22; 22:19-20; John 3:23; Acts 2:41-42; 8:35-39; 16:30-33; Acts 20:7; Rom. 6:3-5; 1 Cor. 10:16, 21; 11:23-39; Col. 2:12

VIII. THE LORD'S DAY

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should be employed in exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, and by refraining from worldly amusements, and resting from secular employments, work of necessity and mercy only being excepted.

Ex. 20:8-11; Matt. 12:1-12; 28:1ff.; Mark 2:27-28; 16:1-7; Luke 24:1-3, 33-36; John 4:21-24; 20:1, 19-28; Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:1-2; Col. 2:16; 3:16; Rev. 1:10

IX. THE KINGDOM

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

Gen. 1:1; Isa. 9:6-7; Jer. 23:5-6; Matt. 3:2; 4:8-10, 23; 12:25-28; 13:1-52; 25:31-46; 26:29; Mark 1:14-15; 9:1; Luke 4:43; 8:1; 9:2; 12:31-32; 17:20-21; 23:42; John 3:3; 18:36; Acts 1:6-7; 17:22-31; Rom. 5:17; 8:19; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Col. 1:13; Heb. 11:10, 16; 12:28; 1 Peter 2:4-10; 4:13; Rev. 1:6, 9; 5:10; 11:15; 21:22

X. LAST THINGS

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

Isa. 2:4; 11:9; Matt. 16:27; 18:8-9; 19:28; 24:27, 30, 36, 44; 25:31-46; 26:64; Mark 8:38; 9:43-48; Luke 12:40, 48; 16:19-26; 17:22-37; 21:27-28; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:11; 17:31; Rom. 14:10; 1 Cor. 4:5, 15:24-28, 35-58; 2 Cor. 5:10; Phil. 3:20-21; Col. 1:5; 3:4; 1 Thess. 4:14-18, 5:1 ff.; 2 Thess. 1:7 ff.; 2; 1 Tim. 6:14; 2 Tim. 4:1, 8; Titus 2:13; Heb. 9:27-28; James 5:8; 2 Peter 3:7ff.; 1 John 2:28; 3:2; Jude 14; Rev. 1:18; 3:11; 20:1 to 22:13

XI. EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by personal effort and by all other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

Gen. 12:1-3; Ex. 19:5-6; Isa. 6:1-8; Matt. 9:37-38; 10:5-15; 13:18-30, 37-43; 16:19; 22:9-10; 24:14; 28:18-20; Luke 10:1-18; 24:46-53; John 14:11-12; 15:7-8, 16; 17:15; 20:21; Acts 1:8; 2; 8:26-40; 10:42-48; 13:2-3; Rom. 10:13-15; Eph. 3:1-11; 1 Thess. 1:8; 2 Tim. 4:5; Heb. 2:1-3; 11:39 to 12:2; 1 Peter 2:4-10; Rev. 22:17

XII. EDUCATION

The cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is coordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

Deut. 4:1, 5, 9, 14; 6:1-10; 31:12-13; Neh. 8:1-8; Job 28:28; Psalm 19:7ff.; 119:11; Prov. 3:13ff.; 4:1-10; 8:1-7, 11; 15:14; Eccl. 7:19; Matt. 5:2; 7:24ff.; 28:19-20; Luke 2:40; 1 Cor. 1:18-31; Eph. 4:11-16; Phil. 4:8; Col. 2:3, 8-9; 1 Tim. 1:3-7; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:14-17; Heb. 5:12 to 6:3; James 1:5; 3:17

XIII. STEWARDSHIP

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

Gen. 14:20; Lev. 27:30-32; Deut. 8:18; Mal. 3:8-12; Matt. 6:1-4, 19-21; 19:21; 23:23; 25:14-29; Luke 12:16-21, 42; 16:1-13; Acts 2:44-47; 5:1-11; 17:24-25; 20:35; Rom. 6:6-22; 12:1-2; 1 Cor. 4:1-2; 6:19-20; 12; 16:1-4; 2 Cor. 8-9; 12:15; Phil. 4:10-19; 1 Peter 1:18-19

XIV. COOPERATION

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

Ex. 17:12; 18:17ff.; Judg. 7:21; Ezra 1:3-4; 2:68-69; 5:14-15; Neh. 4; 8:1-5; Matt. 10:5-15; 20:1-16; 22:1-10; 28:19-20; Mark 2:3; Luke 10:1ff.; Acts 1:13-14; 2:1ff.; 4:31-37; 13:2-3; 15:1-35; 1 Cor. 1:10-17; 3:5-15; 12; 2 Cor. 8-9; Gal. 1:6-10; Eph. 4:1-16; Phil. 1:15-18

XV. THE CHRISTIAN AND THE SOCIAL ORDER

Every Christian is under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in his own life and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Christ Jesus. The Christian should oppose in the spirit of Christ every form of greed, selfishness, and vice. He should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

Ex. 20:3-17; Lev. 6:2-5; Deut. 10:12, 27:17; Psalm 101:5; Mic. 6:8; Zech. 8:16; Matt. 5:13-16, 43-48; 22:36-40; 25:35; Mark 1:29-34; 2:3ff.; 10:21; Luke 4:18-21; 10:27-37; 20:25; John 15:12; 17:15; Rom. 12-14; 1 Cor. 5:9-10; 6:1-7; 7:20-24; 10:23 to 11:1; Gal. 3:26-28; Eph. 6:5-9; Col. 3:12-17; 1 Thess. 3:12; Philemon; James 1:27; 2:8

XVI. PEACE AND WAR

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love.

Isa. 2:4; Matt. 5:9, 38-48; 6:33; 26:52; Luke 22:36, 38; Rom. 12:18-19; 13:1-7; 14:19; Heb. 12:14; James 4:1-2

XVII. RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

Greg Kirksey moved the adoption of Recommendation No. 1 - 1990 Arkansas Baptist State Convention Budget. Motion carried.

Recommendation No. 1
1990 Arkansas Baptist State Convention Budget

I. State Programs	$	7,945,595
II. Southern Baptist Convention		5,574,405
	$	13,520,000

Greg Kirksey moved the adoption of Recommendation No. 2 - 1990 Priority Emphases and Goals. Motion carried.

Recommendation No. 2
1990 Priority Emphases and Goals

1. "Here's Hope - Jesus Cares for You" Simultaneous Revivals

The "Here's Hope" revivals is a Southern Baptist Convention emphasis for 1990. The Southern Baptist Convention goals include 100 percent participation by state conventions and associations and 80 percent of the churches.

The baptism goal is 175,000 as a result of the "Here's Hope" revivals. Other goals include 13-15 million sets of scripture distributed, training one million Sunday School workers in evangelism, and other goals related to placement of summer missionaries, interns, Praxis leaders, church planters, retired ministers and Mission Service Corp pastor-type leaders.

Effective decision counseling and new member follow-up are essential to assure meaningful church membership and to help address the inactive non-resident member situation in our churches. Preparation for the Simultaneous Revivals must also include strategies for "Conserving the Results of Evangelism."

Preparation for the revivals also includes prayer. The Daniel Prayer Plan will focus on individual commitment to pray for "Here's Hope" revivals.

Goal: Our goal is to enlist 1,000 churches/missions to participate in "Here's Hope-Jesus Cares for You" revivals and follow-up activities by December 31, 1990.

Goal: Our goal is to lead 500 churches to provide decision counseling/New Member Follow-up for new converts and transfer members by September 30, 1990.

Goal: Our goal is to enlist 10,000 persons to participate in the Daniel Prayer Plan related to "Here's Hope-Jesus Cares for You" revivals by June 1, 1990.

2. Guatemala-Arkansas Partnership

1990 will be the first full year of the Guatemala-Arkansas Partnership. Partnership missions has the potential to involve hundreds of Arkansas Baptists in mission projects such as evangelism, church program development, construction, church planting, medical and dental, agricultural and others that will be planned in conjunction with the Guatemala mission and convention.

Goal: Our goal is to involve 281 churches in the three year Guatemala-Arkansas Partnership. The criteria for evaluating this goal is:
76 Churches in 1990.
85 Churches in 1991.
120 Churches in 1992.

3. "Share Hope-"

"Share Hope-" will be a major emphasis on Sunday School as the vehicle of church growth, supporting simultaneous revivals, and giving strong, continued support to the baptism goals of the convention.

Three major thrusts make up this emphasis. They are:

- 1) "Share Hope - Start a Class." This is a continuation of the 1989-90 emphasis to begin 400 new teaching units resulting in 9,200 new enrollees in Sunday School.
- 2) "Share Hope-Bring Them In." This will include an enrollment/high attendance campaign, "Fill My House," with suggestions to tie the campaign date to the "Here's Hope" revival in each church. "Bring Them In" also will offer suggestions and materials using the Sunday School organization to promote attendance at the "Here's Hope" revivals.
- 3) "Share Hope-Reach 10." This phase will relate to the Baptist Sunday School Board emphasis. The major idea will focus on individual commitment to enroll 10, each class enrolling 10, etc. A major thrust will be promotion of "The Final Four" emphasis during the last four months of the church year.

Goal: Our goal is to lead a minimum of 600 churches to participate in some phase of the "Share Hope" emphasis by September 30, 1990.

4. Directions 2000

The Directions 2000 Planning Group is developing objectives, goals and action plans for 1991-1995 Executive Board programs. 1990 will present a good opportunity to launch these plans in the fall as the new church year begins.

By having the launch of the Directions 2000 plans at this time, our promotion can be complemented by the Southern Baptist Convention promotion related to Bold Mission Thrust plans for the same period of time.

Goal: Our goal is to launch the Directions 2000 plans by December 31, 1990.

5. "Families Touching Families"

"Families Touching Families: will encourage and assist churches to develop programs to reach lost and unchurched families, family members, single adults and senior adults.

The strategy is for churches to meet the strategic needs of these groups of people by conducting special emphasis days (Christian Home Emphasis, Senior Adult Day and Single Adult Day and special events to strengthen marriage and parenting relationships) as intentional forms of outreach and ministry. This emphasis will be supported in the curriculum of the following programs: Sunday School, Church Training, Church Administration, Church Music, WMU and Brotherhood.

Goal: Our goal is to lead 400 churches to conduct Christian Home Emphasis, Senior Adult Day and other family ministry projects by December 31, 1990.

Greg Kirksey moved the adoption of Recommendation No. 4-Proposal to Change Name of Southern Baptist College. Motion carried.

Recommendation No. 4 Proposal To Change Name of Southern Baptist College

The Executive Board recommends that the name of Southern Baptist College be changed to Williams Baptist College, effective August 15, 1990, when the celebration of its 50th anniversary will begin.

I. Rationale for changing the name.

1. Points made by a committee appointed by the Education Commission of Southern Baptist College to study Christian higher education among Baptists in Arkansas includes the following:
 - A. The name of Southern Baptist College should be changed.
 - B. The present name is inappropriate and confusing, conveying an impression that the school is operated by the Southern Baptist Convention.
 - C. The present name affects a status wholly and unrepresentative of the institution and its program.
2. Reasons Southern Baptist College staff have given for the need for a change of the name.
 - A. The name is confusing to those not acquainted with Southern Baptist College. In a national meeting, when Southern Baptist College staff share that they are with Southern Baptist College, they are often asked, "Which one?"
 - B. The name seems to suggest to many that the institution is a Bible college or seminary rather than a liberal arts institution.

- C. Connotes to many a narrow parochialism which has adverse implications for both development and admissions. Some donors are willing to support Christian higher education but are not willing to support a narrow, parochialism. Many students within 20 miles of Walnut Ridge, as well as beyond assume that the only people who attend Southern Baptist College are preachers or mission volunteers.
 - D. Concerning the influence of the name upon the development activities, director's of foundations have told us, "You've got all the money behind you that the Southern Baptist Convention has, you don't need our money."
 - E. To recognize and commemorate the tenacious, sacrificial service of H. E. Williams who spent virtually his entire productive life in the building of the college.
- II. The Board of Trustees approved on December 1, 1988, a recommendation from the faculty and administration of the college that the name of Southern Baptist College be changed to Williams Baptist College, effective August 15, 1990, when the celebration of its 50th anniversary will be started.

Greg Kirksey moved the adoption of Recommendation No. 5-Proposal to Change Name of Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care. Motion seconded. Gary Corker, pastor, First, Fisher, questioned the name change and made an appeal to the messengers to vote no on the recommendation to change the name of Family and Child Care.

Motion carried to change the name from Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care to Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes and Family Ministries.

Recommendation No. 5 Proposal To Change Name Of Family and Child Care

The Executive Board recommends that the name of the Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services be changed to Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes and Family Ministries.

The rationale for the agency name change is as follows:

- (1) The Arkansas Baptist Home for Children is our heritage; since 1894.
- (2) We have encountered more and more people who fail to understand the relationship of our agency to the Arkansas Baptist Home for Children.
- (3) The suggested new name will give more immediate identification to our Children's Home ministry with "Children's Home" being a part of the agency name.
- (4) It will also give immediate recognition of the other Children's Homes and group care facilities that are a part of our ministry.
- (5) It also recognizes that part of our focus is on families and family-related problems.

- (6) More importantly, it has "ministries" in the name which actually describes our heritage. In 1894, our agency was founded on a strong religious conviction that God is served as we serve our fellow man in His name. The Master himself in reaching out to those in need, pointed the way with a message that has endured across the centuries: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."
- (7) Our agency name should be descriptive of the work we perform as an agency of the convention; we believe this name change will provide that clarification.

37. Joe Fitzgerald led the messengers in singing "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus."

President Heard announced the time for election of the second vice-president. Delton Beall, pastor, Forrest City First, nominated Clytee Harness, pastor, Grand Avenue, Hot Springs. Jimmie Garner, Director of Missions, Trinity Association, nominated H. E. Williams, retired president of Southern Baptist College. Don Phillips, chairman, Tellers Committee, designated Ballot No. 7 for voting.

H. E. Williams was elected second vice-president with 651 votes; Clytee Harness, 425.

68. Paul Williams, minister of Music, Calvary Baptist Church, led the messengers in congregational singing.

69. Voted: To Adopt Resolutions

President Heard introduced the presentation of recommendations to be made by members of the Resolutions Committee.

70. David Crouch, chairman, Resolutions Committee, recognized Stephen Hatfield who presented Resolution No. 1 and moved its adoption. The motion carried.

Resolution No. 1: Appreciation

WHEREAS, we the messengers recognize the dedicated leadership of our 1989 convention officers; Cary Heard, president; Delton Beall, first vice-president; Mark Brooks, second vice-president; Don Moore, executive director; and

WHEREAS, the one hundred thirty-sixth annual session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention has been enriched by the prayers, fellowship, and facilities of the First Baptist Church of Little Rock;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we express our appreciation to the Program Committee for their excellent work, to the convention officers for the excellent way they have led us, and to the host church, the pastor, John Wright, and staff for their gracious contribution to this convention.

71. Michael Trammell presented Resolution No. 2 and moved its adoption. The motion carried.

Resolution No. 2: The Christian Civic Foundation

WHEREAS, The Arkansas Christian Civic Foundation for more than a quarter of a century has been giving strong leadership to efforts relating to the serious social problems of Alcohol and other dangerous drugs, gambling and obscenity; and

WHEREAS, such efforts are facilitated by working with local, state and natural law making and law enforcement bodies.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Arkansas Baptist State Convention commend Rev. John Finn, the Executive Director, and the Christian Civic Foundation for their outstanding leadership on moral issues;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED to commend those who have given financial support to the Christian Civic Foundation and urge others to invest in the ministry of this agency.

72. J. R. Debusk presented Resolution No. 3 and moved its adoption. Seconded. Bob Parsley, pastor, First, Dardanelle, moved to amend the resolution by adding to the first paragraph the following: "we implore those publishing newsletters for statewide distribution to cease this practice in the name of christian harmony and brotherhood." The amendment failed. Resolution No. 3 was adopted.

Resolution No. 3: Love And Unity Among Arkansas Baptists

WHEREAS, in recent months an atmosphere of disharmony among Arkansas Baptists has been evidenced, and

WHEREAS, we are called on by Scripture to unite together in mission endeavors to reach our world for Christ;

BE THEREFORE RESOLVED, that Arkansas Baptists live out the Scripture admonition in Ephesians 4:29-32, "let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

73. Larry Pillow presented Resolution No. 4 and moved its adoption. The motion carried.

Resolution No. 4: Concern For Moral Issues

WHEREAS, there are perpetual moral problems such gambling, pornography, drug and substance abuse, sexual immorality, school-based clinics, and racism,

WHEREAS, these endanger the very foundation of our families and churches, and

WHEREAS, we have historically promoted Christian righteousness and personal holiness,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we affirm our historic opposition to these moral evils through the various ministries of our state convention, associations, local churches and individual efforts.

74. David Crouch moved the adoption of Resolution No. 5. The motion carried.

Resolution No. 5: Abortion

WHEREAS, both medical science and biblical references indicate that human life begins at conception, and

WHEREAS, Southern Baptists have traditionally upheld the sanctity and worth of all human life, both born and pre-born, as being created in the image of God, and

WHEREAS, current judicial opinion gives no guarantee of protection of pre-born persons, thus permitting the widespread practice of abortion on demand, which has led to the killing of an estimated four thousand developing human beings daily in the United States, and

WHEREAS, social acceptance of abortion has begun to dull society's respect for all human life, leading to growing occurrences of infanticide, child abuse, and active euthanasia.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers to the 1989 Arkansas Baptist State Convention affirm that all human life, both born and pre-born, is sacred, bearing the image of God, and is not subject to personal judgments as to "quality of life" based on such subjective criteria as stage of development, abnormality, intelligence level, degree of dependence, cost of medical treatments, or inconvenience to parents.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we abhor the use of federal, state or local tax money; public, tax-supported medical facilities; or Southern Baptist supported medical facilities for the practice of selfish, medically unnecessary abortions, and/or the practice of withholding treatments from unwanted or defective newly born infants.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call on all Arkansas Baptists to exercise their roles as Christian citizens in actively supporting appropriate and responsible legislation that is designed to significantly decrease abortions in Arkansas and throughout the United States; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the Arkansas Baptist State Convention call upon our cooperating churches and members to support and work toward that which will assure the highest regard for life, born or unborn; and in Christ-like love to provide alternatives to abortion through counseling, housing and adoption placement services for unwed mothers with specific intent of bringing them into a relationship with Jesus Christ and/or a sense of Christian responsibility.

75. David Crouch moved the adoption of a resolution concerning federal legislation that would federal fund child care that Mrs. Orman Simmons, member Little Rock First, had asked to be brought before the Convention for approval. Motion seconded. Roy Gean spoke against the resolution. Following discussion, the motion to consider the resolution was withdrawn.

76. Voted: To Adopt Constitution and Bylaw Changes

Jim Pate, chairman, Constitution and Bylaws Committee, moved the adoption of the proposed constitution changes that were approved in the 1988 Convention and according to Constitution procedure, changes must be approved in two consecutive conventions. Motion carried.

Bylaws - Section 5 - "Committee Members"

4. All directors of associational missions or mission pastors receiving all or part compensation from the Convention through the Executive Board shall be considered employees of the Convention and shall not be members of any Convention, agency or institutional board. The president of the Convention by virtue of his office shall be a member of the Executive Board for the duration of his term of office.

(Changed from associational missionaries to directors of associational missions)

77. Don Moore presented a plaque to President Heard in appreciation for his two years service as president of the Convention.

78. The officers for 1990 were presented: Mike Huckabee, pastor, Beech Street Baptist Church, Texarkana, president; Daniel Grant, retired president of Ouachita Baptist University, Arkadelphia, first vice-president; H. E. Williams, retired president of Southern Baptist College, Walnut Ridge, second vice-president.

79. The one hundred thirty-sixth session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention was adjourned with prayer by Mike Huckabee.

There Were 1,610 Messengers Registered for the 1989 Convention

EXECUTIVE BOARD REPORT

Don Moore, Executive Director

The Executive Board has been ably chaired this year by Greg Kirksey, pastor, Hillside Baptist Church, Camden. The committee chairmen have been, Jim Gattis, Little Rock, Operating Committee Chairman; Sonny Simpson, pastor, Watson Chapel Baptist Church, Pine Bluff, Program Committee Chairman; Keith Robbins, Fayetteville, Finance Committee Chairman. Meetings were held November 1, 1988, December 6, 1988 and September 5, 1989.

PERSONNEL

Floyd Tidsworth, Associate, Church Extension, Missions Department, resigned to go with the Home Mission Board. Jack Ramsey, Field Consultant, Church Planter Strategist, Missions Department, was promoted to this position and began his work April 1, 1989.

Leroy Sisk, Associate, Chaplaincy Ministries, Missions Department, retired May 31, 1989. Carter Tucker was employed as Missions Department Associate, Chaplaincy Ministries, to replace Leroy Sisk.

Jim Lagrone, Associate, Evangelism Department, resigned to take a pastorate. Randy Brantley, Minister of Youth, Central Baptist Church, Jonesboro, was employed and began his work September 25, 1989.

BUILDINGS

The Executive Board employed Larry Bone and Associates, Little Rock, to conduct a capital fund-raising campaign for the upgrading of dormitory facilities and replacing the tabernacle at Siloam Springs. Larry Bone and Associates had been employed by the Operating Committee of the Executive Board to do a feasibility study to see if money could be raised to restore the facilities at Siloam Springs. The research confirmed the feasibility of implementing a one-time capital campaign to provide funds to restore the facilities at Siloam Springs. The approach will be to activate alumni in a state-wide campaign based on a "friends" of Siloam Springs structure and divided into the eight Arkansas Baptist State Convention districts. This will not be a church-wide campaign, only to individuals.

After more than 20 years of service the Baptist Building air conditioning system had to be replaced this year.

PROGRAMS

The Southern Baptist Convention in June 1989 approved the name change for the Baptist Sunday School Board's Church Training Program to Discipleship Training and will become effective October 1, 1989. In compliance with this action, the Executive Board approved the name change of the ABSC Church Training Program to become effective October 1, 1989.

Thirty-two people including 10 pastors, three staff members, three directors of missions, three laypeople and 15 department and administrative leaders did extensive planning for the Executive Board programs for 1991-1995. After reexamining and restating the Purpose of the Executive Board programs, more than 20 areas of major need in our churches were identified. The needs were further grouped under five major headings. One each year will be highlighted with special projects. They are Support Missions, 1991; Strengthen Families, 1992; Grow Churches, 1993; Perform Ministries, 1994; and Reach People, 1995.

At least 300 projects will be undertaken over the next five years to address these needs. Practicing Prayer will be a five year emphasis along with the Cooperative Program.

“Building God’s Family” is the theme under which these ministries will be performed.

The Executive Board approved that the Christian Life Department be discontinued and that the offices and resources of that department be applied toward the establishment of a Church Leadership Support Department.

The purpose of the department will be to address the leadership needs of churches, pastors, staff, deacons, church officers and committees. Special emphasis would be placed upon ministries that would reduce church conflict, termination of pastors and staff, and reinforce the single staff church and the bivocational ministry.

The department will relate directly to the Church Administration Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board; relate to state church program departments as a liaison to single staff and bivocational ministries. It will be under the direct supervision of the administration. Weekday Early Education will stay with the Sunday School Department. Youth ministry coordination will stay with the Church Training Department. Church secretarial support will continue with the Church Training Department. Ministers of Education will continue with the Church Training Department.

It is anticipated that the director and one full-time secretary would make up the department.

AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

- (1) Providing opportunities for development of leadership, relational and administrative skills.
- (2) Conducting activities that would strengthen pastor/staff and deacon relationships.
- (3) Providing opportunities for church leaders to improve their caring skills.
- (4) Administering the assistance for pastors/staff who have been terminated.
- (5) Arranging for and promoting Career Assessment Conferences.
- (6) Training associational pastoral ministries directors.
- (7) Maintaining the resume file and providing such information for churches requesting help in finding a pastor or staff person.
- (8) Promoting and conducting, as time allows, conferences on stress management, time management and conflict resolution.
- (9) Strengthening deacon and committee ministries.
- (10) Developing a strategy for addressing the termination phenomenon.

IMPLICATIONS

- (1) Funds from the Christian Life Department would be transferred to the new Church Leadership Support Department.
- (2) Some funds budgeted by Administration and Church Training for Church Administration activities and resume services would be transferred to the Church Leadership Support Department.
- (3) The time freed up in Church Training would be dedicated to greater efforts in Discipleship Training.
- (4) The Christian Social Ministries office in the Missions Department will take on the responsibility of providing information for individuals and churches in the area of moral and ethical concerns.
- (5) Funds would be transferred to Christian Social Ministries for the purpose of maintaining an adequate supply of materials and for some travel. No attempt will be made to provide a spokesperson on the moral and ethical issues of the day.
- (6) The Christian Life Council could be discontinued since there will be no department to relate to.

OTHER ACTIONS

The Executive Board recommended that the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine consider doing a one page feature article each month on a local church of different size and location that is reaching people.

The Board recommended that Southern Baptist College and Ouachita Baptist University consider having a required personal evangelism course in any degree, related to ministry in the churches, particularly Bible, church music and religious education.

MINISTRY

The Executive Board staff traveled over 580,000 miles the past year conducting over 1,000 conferences. They have been in over 2,000 churches for various conferences and meetings. We continue to give God the glory for His giving us the opportunities to share the ministries of the Executive Board programs.

Recommendation No. 2
1990 PRIORITY EMPHASES AND GOALS

1. “Here’s Hope — Jesus Cares for You” Simultaneous Revivals

The “Here’s Hope” revivals is a Southern Baptist Convention emphasis for 1990. The Southern Baptist Convention goals include 100 percent participation by state conventions and associations and 80 percent of the churches.

The baptism goal is 175,000 as a result of the “Here’s Hope” revivals. Other goals include 13-15 million sets of scripture distributed, training one million Sunday School workers in evangelism, and other goals related to placement of summer missionaries, interns, Praxis leaders, church planters, retired ministers and Mission Service Corps pastor-type leaders.

Effective decision counseling and new member follow-up are essential to assure meaningful church membership and to help address the inactive non-resident member situation in our churches. Preparation for the Simultaneous Revivals must also include strategies for “Conserving the Results of Evangelism.”

Preparation for the revivals also includes prayer. The Daniel Prayer Plan will focus on individual commitment to pray for “Here’s Hope” revivals.

Goal: Our goal is to enlist 1,000 churches/missions to participate in “Here’s Hope — Jesus Cares for You” revivals and follow-up activities by December 31, 1990.

Goal: Our goal is to lead 500 churches to provide decision counseling/New Member Follow-up for new converts and transfer members by September 30, 1990.

Goal: Our goal is to enlist 10,000 persons to participate in the Daniel Prayer Plan related to “Here’s Hope — Jesus Cares for You” revivals by June 1, 1990.

2. Guatemala-Arkansas Partnership

1990 will be the first full year of the Guatemala-Arkansas Partnership. Partnership missions has the potential to involve hundreds of Arkansas Baptists in mission projects such as evangelism, church program development, construction, church planting, medical and dental, agricultural and others that will be planned in conjunction with the Guatemala mission and convention.

Goal: Our goal is to involve 281 churches in the three year Guatemala-Arkansas Partnership. The criteria for evaluating this goal is:

76 Churches in 1990.

85 Churches in 1991.

120 Churches in 1992.

3. “Share Hope —”

“Share Hope —” will be a major emphasis on Sunday School as the vehicle of church growth, supporting simultaneous revivals, and giving strong, continued support to the baptism goals of the convention.

Three major thrusts make up this emphasis. They are:

- 1) “Share Hope — Start a Class.” This is a continuation of the 1989-90 emphasis to begin 400 new teaching units resulting in 9,200 new enrollees in Sunday School.

- 2) "Share Hope — Bring Them In." This will include an enrollment/high attendance campaign, "Fill My House," with suggestions to tie the campaign date to the "Here's Hope" revival in each church. "Bring Them In" also will offer suggestions and materials using the Sunday School organization to promote attendance at the "Here's Hope" revivals.
- 3) "Share Hope — Reach 10." This phase will relate to the Baptist Sunday School Board emphasis. The major idea will focus on individual commitment to enroll 10, each class enrolling 10, etc. A major thrust will be promotion of "The Final Four" emphasis during the last four months of the church year.

Goal: Our goal is to lead a minimum of 600 churches to participate in some phase of the "Share Hope" emphasis by September 30, 1990.

4. Directions 2000

The Directions 2000 Planning Group is developing objectives, goals and action plans for 1991-1995 Executive Board programs. 1990 will present a good opportunity to launch these plans in the fall as the new church year begins.

By having the launch of the Directions 2000 plans at this time, our promotion can be complemented by the Southern Baptist Convention promotion related to Bold Mission Thrust plans for the same period of time.

Goal: Our goal is to launch the Directions 2000 plans by December 31, 1990.

5. "Families Touching Families"

"Families Touching Families" will encourage and assist churches to develop programs to reach lost and unchurched families, family members, single adults and senior adults.

The strategy is for churches to meet the strategic needs of these groups of people by conducting special emphasis days (Christian Home Emphasis, Senior Adult Day and Single Adult Day and special events to strengthen marriage and parenting relationships) as intentional forms of outreach and ministry. This emphasis will be supported in the curriculum of the following programs: Sunday School, Church Training, Church Administration, Church Music, WMU and Brotherhood.

Goal: Our goal is to lead 400 churches to conduct Christian Home Emphasis, Senior Adult Day and other family ministry projects by December 31, 1990.

Recommendation No. 3 DIRECTIONS 2000

The Executive Board recommends the approval of the Directions 2000 Planning Group proposed purpose statements for the Executive Board programs, the department/programs purpose statements, needs, objectives, goals and promotion plan for 1991-95 with the theme, "Building God's Family."

The objectives and goal areas with the year of emphasis are:

- 1991 — Support Missions
- 1992 — Strengthen Families
- 1993 — Grow Churches
- 1994 — Perform Ministries
- 1995 — Reach People

In addition, two foundation emphases will undergird the five-year program of activities. They are "One for All," a Cooperative Program emphasis, and "Practice Prayer."

Recommendation No. 4

PROPOSAL TO CHANGE NAME OF SOUTHERN BAPTIST COLLEGE

The Executive Board recommends that the name of Southern Baptist College be changed to Williams Baptist College, effective August 15, 1990, when the celebration of its 50th anniversary will begin.

I. Rationale for changing the name.

1. Points made by a committee appointed by the Education Commission of Southern Baptist College to study Christian higher education among Baptists in Arkansas includes the following:

- A) The name of Southern Baptist College should be changed.
- B) The present name is inappropriate and confusing, conveying an impression that the school is operated by the Southern Baptist Convention.
- C) The present name affects a status wholly and unrepresentative of the institution and its program.

2. Reasons Southern Baptist College staff have given for the need for a change of the name.

- A) The name is confusing to those not acquainted with Southern Baptist College.

In a national meeting, when Southern Baptist College staff share that they are with Southern Baptist College, they are often asked, "Which one?"

- B) The name seems to suggest to many that the institution is a Bible college or seminary rather than a liberal arts institution.
- C) Connotes to many a narrow parochialism which has adverse implications for both development and admissions.

Some donors are willing to support Christian higher education but are not willing to support a narrow, parochialism.

Many students within 20 miles of Walnut Ridge, as well as beyond assume that the only people who attend Southern Baptist college are preachers or mission volunteers.

- D) Concerning the influence of the name upon development activities, director's of foundations have told us, "You've got all the money behind you that the Southern Baptist Convention has, you don't need our money."
 - E) To recognize and commemorate the tenacious, sacrificial service of H. E. Williams who spent virtually his entire productive life in the building of the college.
- II. The Board of Trustees approved on December 1, 1988, a recommendation from the faculty and administration of the college that the name of Southern Baptist College be changed to Williams Baptist College, effective August 15, 1990, when the celebration of its 50th anniversary will be started.

Recommendation No. 5

PROPOSAL TO CHANGE NAME OF FAMILY AND CHILD CARE

The Executive Board recommends that the name of the Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services be changed to Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes and Family Ministries.

The rationale for the agency name change is as follows:

- (1) The Arkansas Baptist Home for Children is our heritage; since 1894.
- (2) We have encountered more and more people who fail to understand the relationship of our agency to the Arkansas Baptist Home for Children.
- (3) The suggested new name will give more immediate identification to our Children's Home ministry with "Children's Home" being a part of the agency name.
- (4) It will also give immediate recognition of the other Children's Homes and group care facilities that are a part of our ministry.
- (5) It also recognizes that part of our focus is on families and family-related problems.
- (6) More importantly, it has "ministries" in the name which actually describes our heritage. In 1894, our agency was founded on a strong religious conviction that God is served as we serve our fellow man in His name. The Master himself in reaching out to those in need, pointed the way with a message that has endured across the centuries: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."
- (7) Our agency name should be descriptive of the work we perform as an agency of the convention; we believe this name change will provide that clarification.

ANNUITY DEPARTMENT

James Walker, Director

A survey surfaced two major concerns among American people. We're concerned about the affordability of health care and the ability to fund retirement needs.

The Annuity Board, in serving those who serve the Lord, focuses on these needs. After three years without premium increases, major increases were experienced during the last two years. The Annuity Board endeavors to provide comprehensive health care insurance at competitive rates.

The introduction of the Expanded Church Annuity plan in 1988 addresses retirement needs for ministers and supportive staff members. A 10 percent contribution of the employee's salary from the church, a five percent contribution from the employee and a matching contribution from the state convention will provide adequate resources for retirement.

Your Annuity Representative addressed these needs during the last 12 months with:

- 485 field and office consultations

ARKANSAS BAPTIST ASSEMBLY*Freddie Pike, Director*

The enrollment for the six weeks of the Arkansas Baptist Assembly was 5,259. There were 825 recorded decisions including 307 professions of faith, 464 rededications and 54 church related vocations decisions. Our largest week had 1,047 enrolled and our smallest week enrolled 651. Total enrollment was up from the previous year.

This was our 85th year for the assemblies and the 66th year for them to be held at the Siloam Springs location.

Improvements to the facilities include the remodeling of Oak Inn, a four room motel unit. It is now a nice all weather facility. The last half of the miniature golf course was completed giving us a beautiful 18-hole course for recreation. A new teaching pavilion was added to the Children's Park and a new maintenance building was built for storage and vehicle protection. One of the public restrooms was also remodeled.

More than 9,000 persons were ministered to during the past 12 months when registration for the assemblies are combined with rental camps and retreat groups. It is a facility for which Arkansas Baptists should be grateful to God for its provision.

The great news for improvements is that our Executive Board has approved a fund raising campaign to build a new worship center and to remodel the bath areas of the 54 dorm rooms. If money is available other family units will also be remodeled. It is our prayer that alumni and friends of the Assembly will feel led to give generously so these improvements can be made. The future of the Assembly rests in our hands.

For the 825 persons making decisions this summer, and for the thousands who have done so in the past, the Arkansas Baptist Assembly is "holy ground." We have a stewardship under God to use this facility in every way possible to advance His Kingdom and to point others toward Jesus.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

David James, Director

Materialism, apathy and criticism are a few of the environmental hazards that exist on the campuses of higher education. In Arkansas, Baptist Student Union, planted on 27 of these campuses with over 80,000 students, has established roots, is growing, and producing results. Listed below are some of the highlights of how Arkansas Baptists are impacting the world of higher education through BSU.

PROGRAM

“Did you know that . . .

- Over 4,000 students were involved in BSU this past year . . .
- Ninety of these students made professions of faith through the direct influence of BSU . . .
- Approximately 300 students serve in a leadership role . . .
- 100 students shared themselves as summer missionaries all over Arkansas, all over the U.S., and many overseas . . .
- Over 300 students were involved in short-term mission trips and raised $36,000 to go . . .
- Over 350 students were involved weekly in community ministries.
- Over $45,000 was raised by students to send their peers to the uttermost.
- Over 800 students met weekly to study the Bible in a dorm or campus Bible study . . .
- BSU could not exist without the churches . . .
- BSU believes in evangelism, discipleship, worship, fellowship, missions and leadership . . .”

FINANCES AND PROPERTY

This past year Cooperative Program giving + Third Century earnings + local funding totaled over $1,000,000. Thank you, Arkansas Baptists, for investing in people at a critical time in their lives. We are on the cutting edge of giving, but with 15 buildings, nine houses and 41 personnel, needs are GREAT! Thank you, our precious Lord, that you are greater. Seventy-three percent of our state budget is people, 18 percent buildings and nine percent programs. Our Third Century budget is 92 percent people and eight percent programs. This year, we are adding to and refurbishing the UALR BSU center and U of O BSU center. Over $75,000 was spent on upgrading our buildings.

PERSONNEL

Mike Goff, an employee of Terminix, Inc., is our new director at ASU-Beebe. Warren Watkins, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church at Blytheville is working with us at MCCC. Dan Hill, pastor of Everton Baptist Church, is our director at NACC. Ian Cosh is at OBU, David McKinney is our new associate at U of A, Betsy Carver is working as a Special Worker at UCA. In our state office, Bert Haley is the new part-time secretary. We also have seven new Outreach Coordinators for 1989-90. Norma Spencer, ATU; Sandy White, HSU; Randy Jones, OBU; Angie Benson, SAU; Tonya Kirken-doll, SBC; Tammy Wheat, U of A; Lynn Lowry, UAM.

In the college and universities tough environment, our Lord says, “Go and make disciples.” Thank you, Arkansas Baptists, for doing that very thing.

BROTHERHOOD DEPARTMENT

Glendon Grober, Director

Arkansas Baptist Brotherhood continues to seek to fulfill its purpose to help churches involve men and boys in missions. During 1988-1989 a number of projects were implemented to help Royal Ambassadors:

- Royal Ambassadors Counselor Fellowship.
- RA University at Rhoades College in Memphis, Tenn.
- RA Congress at Ouachita Baptist University.
- Royal Ambassador Camp(s) for Lads and Crusaders at Paron.
- Campcraft Training and Primitive Camp on the White River campsite.
- Training sessions at associational and local church level as requested.
- Tri-State Camp-O-Ree in Memphis, Tenn.

High School Baptist Young Men became involved in missions through:

State Basketball Tournament from which 10 all stars were chosen to participate.

The Guatemala mission trip where they had the opportunity to share their personal testimonies with over 1,500 people who normally did not frequent our Baptist churches. We have already received reports from missionaries of conversions from that activity.

High School Baptist Men's Congress held at Ouachita Baptist University.

Baptist Men have been involved in numerous ways this year, but some projects that must be mentioned are:

Construction Groups

During this period four distinct areas of involvement of Baptist men in construction have evolved.

1. Nailbenders for Jesus and "Grandmas on the Go" is composed basically of retired people who have their own RV unit. This group is dedicated solely to the building of new church buildings or a new mission that is ready to start their building. They only do rough carpentry work turning the building over for finishing to the local church group.
2. The second group that has evolved during this period is what we have come to call Church in a Day. This group began on a Saturday in November at Eudora, Arkansas — going on the slab at 6:00 a.m. and having the carpet on the floor in the sanctuary in time for church the next morning. From that point the group has built several churches in Arkansas as well as one outside the state on a Home Mission field.

The group is composed of over 100 men who give a Saturday on different occasions to move from a foundation to leaving a church in the dry or even more as the project permits.

3. The third area that has developed are the Minnesota and Michigan construction projects in Home Mission Board areas. The coordinator for this is Ed Greathouse. Arkansas Baptist Men have been involved in both states in construction during this period.
4. The fourth area is actually not new but Arkansas Baptists have continued this year in constructing buildings overseas. This has primarily been done in Brazil, but construction groups have gone to Venezuela, Honduras, and one group has already gone to Guatemala. Mr. Bratton Rhoades has agreed to serve as a coordinator to help us recruit and plan projects for construction overseas.

Lay Renewal during 1988-1989 has been richly blessed by God. We now have 11 consecrated, capable coordinators. The churches that have carried out Lay Renewal have experienced a renewing of fellowship and the joy of seeing people come to know Jesus Christ as their personal savior.

Disaster Relief has responded to emergencies in the state as well as for the National Disaster Medical Society drills for earthquakes. During the year we received two new units for disaster service. The Waste Management of Little Rock Cooperation provided us with a pickup truck. Springdale First Baptist Church provided us with another large unit that will be used for child care and possibly even on some construction projects out in the state.

China drew a great deal of attention during the convention year. Several Arkansas businessmen were in China during the period. At this point we have been unable to move ahead with any definite plans to involve Arkansas Baptist Men in China. We do plan to have a December meeting of what has been our "Laity Abroad" that will become our CSI Fellowship.

The project of cars for furloughing missionaries has continued during the year. We have been able to provide 16 families with cars during their furloughs from one month up to one year. We did finally in July of this year have to turn down our first couple because of the lack of a vehicle. We still need Arkansas Baptists who will give us their good used automobiles even with high mileage.

Special emphasis has been given to the training and the fellowship of Associational Brotherhood Directors. We held our first annual training and fellowship session in Hot Springs this year. We plan to continue to train and equip the Associational Brotherhood Directors so that they can help our churches in improving Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador units in the churches with program and projects.

Baptist Men's University has begun to be publicized by our state convention office. This activity will take place in Memphis, Tenn., at Rhoades University on May 31-June 3, 1990. We are continuing to encourage Baptist men from our churches to take advantage of this singular opportunity that is so near us as it is provided by our SBC Brotherhood Commission.

The Guatemala/Arkansas Partnership was initiated in the beginning of this year when a planning group from Arkansas went in January to meet with Guatemala leadership to begin to sketch out the plans and strategy for our four year involvement. The group was made up of 11 people from nine churches.

Later a TV filming crew led by Mike Huckabee and partly financed by the ACTS Network of Arkansas went to film and later edited a program for promotional purposes.

Eight BSU summer missionaries served from June until August under the direction of our state Baptist Student Union department.

As mentioned before, the High School Baptist Young Men were in Guatemala under the leadership of Bobby Shows during June.

Dr. Cary Heard was the speaker for the annual mission meeting at the Guatemala Partnership.

A dental church starting team went in August to Guatemala.

As this report is being written, we are still waiting the final suggestions of definite projects that have been discussed and prioritized in the July 1989 meeting of the Guatemala mission.

A promotional pamphlet has been prepared which gives some insight into the country, into the types of work Arkansas Baptists will be requested to do, as well as a monthly prayer list that can be used by our people to begin to become involved in praying for all that God will empower Arkansas Baptists to do in Guatemala.

The official launch date for the Guatemala/Arkansas Partnership will be October 27th at our World Mission Rally to be held at Immanuel Baptist Church in Little Rock beginning at 7:30 p.m. The rally will be a time of information about Guatemala to be given by the Area Director, Dr. Joe Bruce. It will also be time of inspiration and commitment through the preaching of the president of the Foreign Mission Board, Dr. Keith Parks. We hope that every association in Arkansas will be represented at that meeting. Every person who will be at least considering the possibility of being involved in the Guatemala/Arkansas Partnership should attend.

BUSINESS SERVICES

Dan Jordan, Director

The function of the Business Services division of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention is twofold. The first is to provide support for the Executive Board departments of the Convention. The second is to be supportive in the total work of Arkansas Baptists. The nature of that support is to be an enabler helping each department and person to function more efficiently in ministry and to realize the maximum use of the financial resources provided by Southern Baptists of Arkansas.

Basic services provided by this division are data processing, accounting, budgeting, insurance, building management, printing, fleet management, purchasing and personnel services. Each of these support areas is vital to the day-to-day operation of our Convention. Ultimately, our objective is that each area of service will be streamlined to give better support to all ministries of the Convention.

Business Services employed three new people this past year. Al Farmer, the new Data Processing Manager, made it possible to begin projects to improve information services, upgrade the Convention accounting systems software, and to effectively plan for the future.

Mrs. Lera Stokes retired in 1989 after 41 years of faithful, dedicated service. Richard Moore followed her in the position of Printing Services Supervisor.

Also, Scott Schmid began his work at the Baptist Building as Building Services Supervisor, following the retirement of Bob Smith in 1988.

God has continued to send His faithful servants to the support work of the Convention offices.

It is the commitment of Business Services to continue to supply the support for the operation of Executive Board programs of Arkansas Baptists, while at the same time, emphasizing the greater Stewardship of the total mission of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

Jimmie Sheffield

1988 Cooperative Program receipts from churches totaled $12,784,661. The budget was $12,870,300, which meant that we reached 99.33 percent of budget. This amounted to a 6.46 percent increase over 1987 receipts.

Four major emphases were conducted during 1988 to highlight Cooperative Program giving. These were:

- 1) "Missions Advance 87-89" — This emphasis ended in April 1989, with 303 churches have a speaker to present a challenge about the Cooperative Program. Final results of this emphasis will not be known until the end of 1990.
- 2) Cooperative Program Day was emphasized in April. Over 170 churches requested materials to assist in the promotion of this day.
- 3) Cooperative Program Month involved 125 churches requesting materials to promote this emphasis.
- 4) Eight hundred sixteen individuals representing 201 churches attended 14 associational Church Budget Development Conferences in which churches were challenged to increase their missions giving through the Cooperative Program.

Our churches gave 11.9 percent of their undesignated receipts through the Cooperative Program in 1988. This represented a .05 percent increase over 1987. Thank you, Arkansas Baptists, for your faithfulness in giving through the Cooperative Program.

CAMP PARON

Jack Kwok, Business Manager

Camp Paron, located 45 miles west of Little Rock, on State Highway 9, is owned and operated by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. The setting is ideal for church, associational, and staff retreats and youth camps. Its facilities can accommodate up to 250 people.

From July 1, 1988, to June 30, 1989, 47 groups have used the facilities with a total attendance of 3,591. The Arkansas Baptist State Convention used the camp for 23 of its meetings, including four Girls in Action camps and two Royal Ambassador camps. National Baptists had three camps during the summer. Southern Baptist churches had 17 functions, and three non-Southern Baptist churches used the facilities. One associational camp was held.

The Camp Paron Guest House is available for use. This facility will accommodate out-of-state guest speakers and small groups for enrichment retreats or church staff meetings.

Visitors are impressed with the facilities and usually remark, "We did not know Camp Paron was so nice!" It is nice. In fact, it is one of the best equipped camps in Arkansas.

Mr. Bobby Bean is Resident Camp Manager. Information concerning facilities, rates and available dates can be secured by writing Dr. Jack Kwok, 525 West Capitol, Post Office Box 552, Little Rock, Arkansas 72203, or by calling (501) 376-4791.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COUNCIL

Robert A. Parker, Director

Now in the 11th year of service, the Christian Life Council seeks to assist Arkansas Baptists in becoming more aware of the ethical implications of the gospel. Foy Valentine, a long time director of the S.B.C. Christian Life Commission, stated it this way in the title of a book he wrote, Believe and Behave. Realizing it's much easier to "believe" than to "behave," the Christian Life Council continues to encourage Christian behavior in every aspect of daily living including family life, responsible citizenship, world hunger and many other moral issues.

Along with the Christian Life Commission, the Christian Life Council has for the past year again urged special emphasis on five special Sundays on the denominational calendar: Sanctity of Life Sunday, Race Relations Day, Christian Citizenship Day, Day of Prayer for World Peace, and World Hunger Day.

One of the year's highlights was the all day Youth Issues Institute held on April 8 at Geyer Springs First Baptist Church in Little Rock. Four hundred fifty youth leaders were in attendance representing 155 churches. There were conferences conducted on the following issues: Teen Suicide, Drug Abuse, Human Sexuality, Pornography and Alcohol.

An Anti-Abortion Rally was held at the First Baptist Church in Little Rock on March 10. The featured speaker was Dr. Richard Land, newly elected Executive Director of the S.B.C. Christian Life Commission.

Christian Awareness Conferences continue to be conducted in churches throughout Arkansas. These promote strong awareness and prevention of problems faced by young and old alike. These conferences are especially helpful as every age group faces the current problems of drugs, pornography and gambling.

Presentations and distribution of resource materials have been made in a number of camps and assemblies throughout Arkansas. Exhibit booths were set up at the annual Baptist Youth Day at Magic Springs and at the State Youth Convention. The Christian Life Council office has resources available for many of the issues faced in today's society.

The director serves as liaison between the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and the Christian Civic Foundation. On occasion he worked with that agency during the legislative sessions and at other times in dealing specifically with moral issues related to alcohol and other dangerous drugs, pornography and gambling.

The director also works with the Arkansas Baptist World Hunger Committee in seeking to inform and enlist support for the serious, growing problem of hunger at home and overseas. He is a member of the Arkansas Interfaith Hunger Task Force which has led in setting up such programs as the Arkansas Rice Depot and the Arkansas Food Bank.

At least two articles written by the director on current issues are published each month in the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine. These articles, along with other materials on moral and ethical issues, appear regularly in this publication. Arkansas Baptist churches are urged to have this informative material available for every family. Each pastor receives the S.B.C. Christian Life Commission magazine, The Light. It, too, deals with serious issues from a biblical perspective.

Every Arkansas Baptist is urged to “be a doer of the word and not a hearer only.” (James 1:22) If this is done in lifting up Christ more success will be evident in being SALT and LIGHT!

CHURCH MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Lester McCullough, Director

The purpose of the Church Music Department is to assist our churches and associations in enlarging and improving their ministry through music, by providing training and performance opportunities, by providing and interpreting resource materials, and by personal assistance and counseling.

For the first time in many years, church music has shown a decrease in enrollment. This is believed to be due to a decline in the number of churches not reporting music on the Uniform Church Letter. The current ongoing enrollment is 51,615. This is a decrease of 0.82 percent.

This year’s highlights include the following events and emphases:

I. Music Festivals and Camps

- A. 1,710 children and adults from 78 churches participated in choral and handbell festivals.
- B. 127 youth from 8 associations were involved in associational music festivals. 3 choirs, 6 ensembles and 34 soloists went on to participate in the first State Youth Music Festival at Life Line Baptist in Little Rock, with a total of 108 youth participating.
- C. 481 Young Musicians attended Young Musicians Camp in June at Ouachita. They were divided into four choral groups and each group learned and performed a musical from memory.
- D. 76 senior adults attended the second annual SummerSing camp, and 108 youth attended Music Arkansas this year.

II. Leadership Training

- A. 12 Associational and District Directors attended the Key Leader training in April.
- B. 5 Volunteer/Part-Time Music Leader Workshops were conducted.
- C. 3 Children’s Choir Clinics were conducted in local churches or associations by State Approved Children’s Choir Workers and/or other leadership arranged through the State office, with 3 more scheduled this year.

- D. 127 leaders, representing 43 churches, attended our State Children's Choir Clinic in August last year. This year, 174 leaders from 32 churches attended our area clinics at First Arkadelphia and First Springdale.
- E. This year's instrumental emphasis is for Keyboard. Our State Keyboard Clinic is scheduled for November.
- F. The first Church Music Excellence Conference, designed for the full-time music minister in the larger church, was a strong success with 27 attending.
- G. A Youth Choir Seminar will be jointly sponsored by our department and the OBU Church Music Department at Ouachita in September.

III. All-State Program

- A. 36 young people were accepted for the fourth edition of the All-State Band. 72 senior high youth participated in the second All-State Choir. These programs are in cooperation with the Evangelism Department.

IV. Music Men and Singing Women of Arkansas

- A. 74 men and women attended the retreat in October last year to prepare for performances at the State Convention and Evangelism Conference.
- B. 46 men sang a concert at First Baptist, Benton, in February of this year.

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING DEPARTMENT

Robert Holley, Director

I. Introduction

The following report reflects the work of the Church Training Department in each of its five program assignments: (1) Church Training, (2) Church Administration, (3) Family Ministry, (4) Media Library and (5) Church Recreation. The department relates to these five departments at the Baptist Sunday School Board and works closely with them to plan and conduct projects to assist churches in Arkansas.

In each of these five program assignments, the department's primary role is that of equipping church leaders. The projects and events conducted by the department are designed primarily for pastors, church staff, church secretaries, deacons, Church Training leaders, Church Media Library workers, Church Recreation leaders and the Church Council, church officers and committees.

The Church Training Department works closely with associations to plan and conduct associational projects and events designed to assist churches. The department assists in training associational leaders.

The following report is a summary of the major events conducted by the department for 1988-89 (July-June). In addition to these events, the Department Director, along with associates Gerald Jackson and Bill Falkner, have been involved in personal consultations with a large number of churches and associational leaders in response to their request for assistance.

II. Review of 1988-89

1. Church Training

Church Training was reported by 902 churches in Arkansas during 1988 with a total enrollment of 75,581. Churches reported an average attendance of 36,861 or 49 percent of the total enrollment. Church Training continues to be the second largest program organization in the churches of our state.

The following report is a summary of projects and actions conducted by the State Church Training Department in churches and associations during the past year:

- (1) Church Training Leadership Conferences were conducted in 18 associations with 139 churches participating.
- (2) Forty churches were assisted through leadership training events or personal consultations.
- (3) Twenty-one associational Church Training Directors were trained through the Key Leader Meeting.
- (4) One hundred five associational Church Training Leaders were trained through the annual Associational Church Training Leadership Conference.
- (5) Sixty-nine persons from 41 churches were trained to teach Baptist Doctrine Study in their churches and 21 associational leaders were trained to lead Associational Baptist Doctrine Study Clinics.
- (6) Fourteen associational leaders were trained to lead Ingathering Workshops in their associations and 50 pastors and staff persons from 39 churches were trained to conduct Ingathering.
- (7) A MasterLife Workshop was conducted with 26 participants completing certification requirements; a second workshop is scheduled for August 7-11.
- (8) Youth Discipleship Labs were conducted at Siloam Springs assemblies with 57 participants from 35 churches.
- (9) Two Disciple/Youth Workshops were conducted with 43 participants from 32 churches.
- (10) Baptist Youth Day was conducted as a major emphasis on DiscipleLife with 6,200 in attendance and approximately 100 in leadership conferences.
- (11) Approximately 3,500 youth attended the annual Youth Convention.
- (12) District Bible Drills/Speakers' Tournaments were conducted in each of the eight districts of our state with 350 participants. There were 464 certificates awarded with 400 in the Children's Bible Drill; 54 in the Youth Bible Drill, and 10 in the Youth Speakers' Tournament.

The first place winner in the State Bible Drill was Karen Cowling of First Church, Foreman. The second place winner was DeAnna Brooks of First Church, Vandervoort.

The first place winner in the Youth Speakers' Tournament was Charlotte Stone of First Church, Hope. The second place winner was Susan Shackelford of Old Austin Church in Austin.

- (13) "M" Night was reported by 36 associations with 504 churches represented and a total attendance of 5,480.

NOTE: Effective October 1, 1989, the Church Training Program will become the Discipleship Training Program. This name appropriately describes the nature and purpose of the program: To reach persons for discipleship training and equip them for discipleship and personal ministry. We encourage churches to join with us in a "Bold New Commitment to Discipleship Training."

2. Church Administration

- (1) A State Pastoral Ministries Conference was conducted in cooperation with the Pulaski and North Pulaski Associations, the Department of Cooperative Ministries and the National Baptist Conventions. The cumulative registration in conferences was 350.
- (2) Deacon Ministry Conferences were conducted with 208 deacons, pastors and wives attending.
- (3) A Minister of Education Retreat was conducted with 29 Ministers of Education and wives attending.
- (4) A Youth Minister's Retreat was conducted with 28 Ministers and spouses attending.
- (5) Four Summer Youth Ministry Conferences were conducted with 95 participants from 79 churches attending.
- (6) A conference on Youth Ministry was conducted at the State Pastoral Ministries Conference with 86 participants from 22 churches attending.
- (7) Five church consultations, seven personal consultations and one associational conference on Youth Ministry were conducted.
- (8) A Youth Ministry class was taught by Bill Falkner at Ouachita, including 21 students.
- (9) A conference on church vocations was conducted at the State B.S.U. Convention with 106 participants from 75 churches attending.
- (10) Twelve Associational Pastoral Ministries Directors were trained at the Key Leader Meeting.
- (11) A State Bivocational Pastor's Conference was conducted with 62 participants.
- (12) Two Career Assessment programs were offered with 35 pastors, staff and spouses participating.
- (13) Forty-three church and denominational secretaries from Arkansas attended the National Conference of Southern Baptist Secretaries.
- (14) Personal Consultations were provided for eight churches and one Basic Church Administration Conference was conducted.

3. Family Ministry

- (1) Thirteen Associational Family Ministry Directors were trained at the annual Key Leader Meeting.
- (2) A Minister-Mate Marriage Enrichment Retreat was conducted with 56 participants from 26 churches.
- (3) A State Single Adult Conference was conducted with 150 participants from 52 churches.
- (4) Four Marriage Enrichment Retreats were conducted with 51 participants from 10 churches.
- (5) Training sessions were conducted for 20 Family Ministry leaders from nine churches.
- (6) A Parenting by Grace leadership conference was conducted for 21 participants from 11 churches.
- (7) Personal Consultations were provided for five associational/church Family Ministry projects.
- (8) An annual Senior Adult Celebration was conducted on the Ouachita campus with 240 senior adults and leaders attending.
- (9) A State Conference on Aging was conducted for leadership with 40 participants.
- (10) Sixty-seven senior adults attended Ridgcrest and Glorieta Chautauqua.
- (11) Three other senior adult events were conducted with 125 participating.

4. Media Library

A State Media Library Conference was conducted with 35 participants from 20 churches attending.

5. Church Recreation

- (1) A Mini-Rec Lab was conducted with 55 participants representing 27 churches.
- (2) Personal Consultations with seven other churches or persons were provided on request.

Summary

In addition to these projects and events, department staff members have been involved in speaking to classes at Ouachita and Southern Baptist College, Associational Annual meetings, Boyce Bible School, Seminary visits, and writing resource materials for the Baptist Sunday School Board and teaching at the Conference Center.

DEPARTMENT OF COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES WITH NATIONAL BAPTISTS

Jack Kwok, Director

Purpose

The purpose of the Cooperative Ministries with National and Southern Baptists is to assist and encourage the churches and associations of Arkansas National and Southern Baptists in Christian missions, relations and ministries.

EXTENSION CENTERS for in-service training enrolled 155 pastors and lay people in Bearden, Blytheville, Eudora, Lewisville, Little Rock and Pine Bluff.

CLINICS for church leadership training enrolled 4,415 people in 68 clinics.

HART OF THE HILLS CAMPS were attended by 305 young people with nine professions of faith.

The BAPTIST STUDENT UNION at the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff had another very good year. Franklin Scott has completed his fourth year as director.

SCHOLARSHIPS totaling $13,420 were awarded to 33 college and seminary students.

The TUCKER PRISON ASSISTANT CHAPLAIN was funded by the Consolidated, Regular and Arkansas conventions along with the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board. Darrell Phillips is completing his third year as the assistant chaplain.

AREA FELLOWSHIPS were conducted in Dermott, Little Rock, Malvern and Texarkana with a combined attendance of 975.

The ARKANSAS BAPTIST COLLEGE BIBLE TEACHER provided classes in Christian Theology.

A MINISTER DIALOGUE was conducted in North Little Rock.

The STATE JOINT COMMITTEE met twice with representatives from four cooperating conventions in attendance.

CHURCH CONSTRUCTIONS were accomplished in Eudora and Alma.

A PASTORAL MINISTRIES CONFERENCE was attended by over 300 people.

The DEPARTMENT DIRECTOR preached 17 times in National Baptist churches, 25 times in Southern Baptist churches and 20 times in other settings. He also taught 22 classes.

EVANGELISM DEPARTMENT

Clarence Shell, Director

God has given us many rich blessings in evangelism this past year. We have experienced many victories and yet have seen our baptisms continue to decline. Arkansas Baptist Churches baptized 11,672 in 1988. This was a decline of 238 from the 1987 number. Arkansas Baptist pastors and many people are experiencing a real concern related to our baptism decline. We believe that God is going to honor this concern and we will begin to see an increase. Our goal is to increase baptisms by five percent annually.

Many people have been involved in the Year of the Laity. We have conducted 35 Pilot Lay Evangelism Schools in associations. There have been 289 leaders trained to teach Lay Evangelism Schools. We have a goal set for 300 churches to conduct Lay Evangelism Schools locally this year. One of our Arkansas churches that was on the baptismless list in the past did a People Search and Lay Evangelism School. The next year, they led the association in baptisms.

The major emphasis for 1990 in evangelism will be the Here's Hope, Jesus Cares for You Revivals. This has been a two year process that will culminate in revival meetings March 18-April 8 in Arkansas Baptist Churches. Our associational leaders have been trained. Our pastors will be oriented this fall. Our church committees will be trained early in 1990. As a result of this, we are praying to see a five percent increase in baptisms. Our goal is to have 1,000 Arkansas Baptist Churches in Here's Hope Revivals. Our goal is to have 10,000 Arkansas Baptist Christians praying for revival.

Paul McClung has now served with us for two years. He has carried a tremendous responsibility in the area of personal evangelism, training lay people and pastors to share their witness. Paul also works in the area of Prayer for Spiritual Awakening and Golden Age Evangelism. One of our deep concerns and Paul's responsibility is working with small and baptismless churches.

At the present time, we are praising the Lord that our Evangelism staff is complete. Jim Lagrone, who was with us for four years, has gone back into the pastorate. Randy Brantley, youth minister at Central Baptist Church in Jonesboro, has been elected to fill this position. Randy's major responsibility will be in the youth evangelism area. He also will be assisting us in several other areas of work. We look forward to seeing the youth and youth ministers in our state committed, trained and motivated to share Christ with every single lost person in Arkansas.

Preparation and training help are available from the Department of Evangelism for the following:

1. Mass Evangelism — Revivals, Area Crusades, Tent Revivals, Partnership Revivals, Simultaneous Revivals, Prayer for Spiritual Awakening.
2. Personal Evangelism — Lay Evangelism Schools, WOW, TELL, CWT Seminars, Golden Age Evangelism. NOTE: Please contact your State Evangelism Department, 376-4791, for help in these areas.

We have two very committed and capable secretaries who work with us in our department. Mrs. Margaret Wright, our full-time secretary, has worked in our department for 12 years. Margaret is very much aware of our total program. When you call, she will either answer your questions, furnish the information and materials or direct you to a staff member who can help you. Melanie Avey is serving as a half-time secretary. She has been very involved in the Lay Evangelism Schools.

Your State Evangelism Department staff is committed to plan and promote the concept of total New Testament evangelism.

MINISTRY OF CRISIS SUPPORT

Glen D. McGriff, Director

It seems appropriate that this year, 1989, be one of reflection, evaluation and gratitude. The Ministry of Crisis Support secured its first director in November 1979 at the meeting of the State Convention. The election or call of the director culminated a rather long process of study, discussion and consideration.

Reflecting upon this decade of ministry brings many things in focus. First is the number of lives that have been touched and significantly impacted by this ministry.

There is the church staff member who said, "Our marriage exists today and is the best it has ever been because of this ministry. We would not have made it without you." There is the wife of a church staff member who says, "I owe my life to you, I would not be here today if I had not found help." Another staff member who said recently, "I would not be in the ministry today if I had not had help."

Arkansas Baptists were wise, I must conclude, in following the Lord's leading in establishing this ministry. Experiences similar to the above could be given without number. It is not due to the person who serves as director, but to the provision of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. The concern, careful study and prayerful commitment of those who served on several committees can justifiably rejoice in the manifold blessings experienced by many who have been touched by this ministry.

While it is unwise, and seems inappropriate to give statistics when the objectives of a department is exclusively to minister, you can be assured that a large number of persons have found support through this ministry. The dollars invested by Southern Baptists in educating a staff member is significant indeed. When one is helped to maintain their ministry through support at crucial times it represents financial savings. When you add the avoidance of pain, suffering and disappointment of those whose lives are touched by tragedy when a minister fails or falls, you can rejoice to have had a part in the Ministry of Crisis Support.

Upon reflection the director must say "thanks be unto God" for those who had a part in the establishing of this ministry. Many have been encouraged. Some have salvaged a threatened ministry. Numbers have found courage and strength in times of weakness. Some have found new options when their ministry was in a vulnerable position and gone on to even greater achievements. Homes have been strengthened when they were ready to be shattered. Arkansas Baptists you were there. It was your Ministry!

This report must include a personal word of gratitude from the heart of the director. This year has been one of crisis for me. On January 17 my dear wife and faithful companion lost the war with cancer. Words could never convey the overwhelming gratitude that fills my heart. Dr. Don Moore was a dear and unfailing friend during the devastating struggle. The Baptist Building staff was both friend and family in the fullest manner. My secretary and her husband are worthy of the highest commendation for the manifold measure of helpfulness shown. The large number of churches, pastors and friends across the state who were so faithful to pray will never be forgotten. No one could ask for more than we received. May the Lord somehow convey what finite words can only suggest.

It would not be right for me not to touch on the provision you make for your Convention staff. The Executive Board is wise and considerate in the health insurance provision for employees. Because of that provision and protection I am able to continue my ministry without unbearable financial burdens. I shall forever be grateful for the good insurance which enabled me to provide the best possible medical care for my wife, and to face the difficult days ahead without financial devastation.

Never have I said words that seem so inadequate as those with which I conclude this report. Thank you, Arkansas Baptists for giving my dear wife her most meaningful years. Thank you for allowing me to represent you in a ministry for which I believe we can all rejoice together.

STATE MISSIONS

Conway H. Sawyers, Department Director

The early months of this year have been a time of staff change. After five years with us, Floyd Tidsworth, Church Extension Director, moved to the Home Mission Board the first of April. After 10 years as Chaplaincy Director, Leroy Sisk took early retirement May 30. Then, after eight years as Language Missions Director, Randy Cash resigned to take a DOM position back in his home association in North Carolina, effective July 1, 1989. We are grateful for the years of faithful and effective service performed by each of these men.

While the Lord was leading these good men away from us, He was also providing other good and capable men to fill the vacancies. At the writing of this report (August), the Language position remains vacant. However, Jack L. Ramsey, who had several years as a New Work Consultant and for more than two years as a New Work Strategist, was elected to fill the Church Extension position. Jack is eminently qualified to follow in the footsteps of his predecessor.

Then, the Lord provided Carter Tucker to be the leader of Chaplaincy ministries. He has a good history of pastoral experience along with his career in military chaplaincy. He will do us a good job in the chaplaincy area of Missions Department work.

Direct Missions

The department director continues the responsibility of working with the Associational Administration Division of the Home Mission Board and other Southern Baptist Convention entities in providing continuing theological education opportunities and other conferences for Associational Directors of Missions who serve in Arkansas.

The In-Service Guidance Program continues to do well at both Ouachita and Southern Baptist College. Faculty assignments for both institutions were indefinite at the time this report is being written.

The Arkansas-Indiana Linkage Program is still in something of a "slowdown" because some Indiana staff positions are yet to be filled. We would encourage Arkansas Baptists to continue prayerful support of our brethren in Indiana.

Since the writing of last year's report no major disaster has occurred in the state. For this we are grateful. The coordination of Disaster Response is still the responsibility of the Missions Department Director.

Chaplaincy Ministries

Carter Tucker

(Report written by Conway Sawyers)

Having served Arkansas Baptists faithfully and effectively for 10 years and one month, Leroy Sisk took early retirement at the end of May. Chaplaincy work has made steady progress during these years of his leadership. The internship program, both at the college level and seminary level were instituted during these years. Both programs have proved highly successful. Chaplaincy work has also been inaugurated at the three Job Corps Centers in the state. These have been good years of effective ministry and we are grateful for Chaplain Sisk's leadership and wish him well in retirement.

With the leaving of good men, the Lord also provides other qualified and committed men to take their places to continue His work. One such man is Carter Tucker who is now the program leader for Chaplaincy Ministries. Chaplain Tucker is a veteran of 20 years military service, four in the Navy and 16 as Army chaplain. He retired with the rank of Lt. Colonel. He will give us capable leadership for the future.

Following the death of Dewey Williams, our veteran chaplain who served at the Cummins Unit for 17 years, Roy Remont, his close friend and colleague, took up the task of writing his biography. Roy has finished the book which is now being published. It should be available in time for the State Convention Meeting in November.

Volunteer Chaplaincy Ministries continues to be the focus of attention because the need is best served by local churches and their leadership who see the opportunity to minister to the special needs of the jail inmates and their families. The needs of industrial employees is another area where local pastors and churches can perform valuable assistance to hurting humanity.

We look forward to the next year of challenge under the leadership of Carter Tucker, our new colleague in ministry.

Language Missions

(Report written by Conway Sawyers)

NEW STARTS: 1989 has been a banner year in New Starts of Deaf Ministries. Seven new starts have occurred this year in the following places: First Baptist, Yellville; Second Baptist, Jacksonville; Calvary Baptist, Harrisburg; First Baptist, Greenwood; First Baptist, Texarkana; Trinity Baptist, Texarkana, and Forest Highlands in Little Rock. Three new Spanish ministries have been started at: First Baptist, Lincoln; Calvary Baptist, Monticello, and First Baptist, DeQueen. The work at DeQueen is actually developing to the point of being a Spanish mission. The pastor of the mission, Oscar Salazar, also serves as a Field Consultant for the Language work.

LANGUAGE MINISTRIES AT PRESENT:

Deaf Ministries	35
Filipino	1
Hispanic	7
International	3
Korean	4
Laotian	4
Vietnamese	8

GENERAL INFORMATION: Workshops and training conferences for Deaf Ministry Coordinators are being done on a local basis. The Lake Village and Dermott areas are being served by a special student worker for the usual 13 weeks this summer. Deaf Interpreters served at three major functions in the state this year: the State Convention, the Youth "Hot Issues" Conference and the Foreign Mission Board Commissioning Service.

The 1989 Arkansas Baptist Conference of the Deaf was held at Camp Paron, May 5, 6 and 7. Seventy-five people registered for this meeting, which was a 50 percent increase over last year's registration. Five of the seven churches that have started new ministries to Deaf were represented at the meeting. Those churches were: First Baptist, Texarkana; Immanuel Baptist, El Dorado; Trinity Baptist, Texarkana; Greenwood First Baptist, and Second, Jacksonville. Next year's conference will again be held at Paron. The dates are May 4, 5 and 6.

We continue to encourage the Baptists of Arkansas to respond to the needs of the foreign born in our midst.

Church and Community Ministries

Tommy Goode

This area of State Missions is divided into the following categories: Christian Social Ministries, Multifamily Housing Ministry, P.A.C.T., Metro-Thrust and Rural/Urban Associational Strategy Planning.

In the area of Christian Social Ministries, several churches and associations have been assisted in the development of Church and Community Ministry Projects.

Five churches began Literacy Mission Ministries and collectively trained 36 volunteers as tutors. Glenda Garver was trained as a Literacy Missions workshop leader, bringing our total to two certified workshop leaders. We continue to add to our resource center training materials.

We distributed $41,150 in hunger relief funds and approximately 2,000 New Testaments to 16 churches, five associations and our two migrant mission centers. As a result of the food distribution ministries 14 churches and associations reported 114 professions of faith, 14 enrolled in Bible study and 14 in church additions.

Rev. Bob Gross, Hope Migrant Center director, has begun networking with other state conventions and HMB personnel to follow up with migrant farmworkers who register as Baptists or new converts to provide worship and discipleship opportunities for them in both their home and work areas. More than 40,000 migrant farmworkers travel through Hope each year.

Diana Lewis, state CSM consultant, wrote a Seven-Day Ministry Action and Prayer Guide which was published and made available to churches and associations. She is compiling material for a CSM Models of Ministry book which will be published this year.

Diana assisted me in conducting a statewide conference for staff and lay persons involved in missions ministries. Thirty-nine persons involved in local church and associational ministries attended.

Washington-Madison Association conducted an Associational Multi-family Housing Ministry Blitz. Churches in Fayetteville and Springdale surveyed apartment complexes and mobile home parks to discover ministry opportunities. Mission ministries have been started to reach residents of multi-family housing.

Multi-family Housing Ministry has not been embraced by our churches as a priority mission. Ongoing training and awareness building is needed to help our churches effectively target residents of multi-family housing for outreach and ministry.

P.A.C.T. is increasingly being viewed by our church and association leaders as a useful tool for plateaued and declining churches.

Archview Church, Little Rock, received P.A.C.T. Church of the Year award from the Home Mission Board this year.

Metro-Thrust has become a reality for five metro associations. Washington-Madison, Faulkner, Tri-County, Central and Southwest Arkansas Associations are doing Associational Strategy Planning in 1990-91.

Metropolitan Directors of Missions and pastors will be attending the South Central Urban Training Cooperative Models for Metropolitan Missions Conference in Jackson, Mississippi, December 11-13.

Our Rural/Urban Associations are being targeted to do Associational Strategy Planning beginning in 1990. Black River Association is currently involved in ASP. Mississippi Association has voted to begin ASP in 1990.

These comments help to illustrate the scope of missions through Church and Community Ministries. Arkansas Baptists are caring and compassionate missionary people. God is active among us opening doors of opportunity for ministry and witness. Pray that I will be effective in providing the needed resources for our churches and associations as they respond to these opportunities. I am grateful to God and Arkansas Baptists for my place in State Missions.

Missions Ministries

Pete Petty

This area of work relates to four Home Mission Board programs which are important to state missions.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES relates to resort and creative ministries. Fourteen Student Summer Missionaries worked in resort ministries last summer. In addition, a number of churches were involved in providing worship services in resort and leisure areas. A Resort Conference is scheduled for April 6-7, 1990, at Camp Paron to assist churches and associations in discovering needs, developing a strategy and training in resort skills.

Arkansas has a very active Campers on Mission (COM) organization. The two rallies held each year in the spring and fall were well attended. Each of the four regions also had meetings. Several mission projects were done by these groups during the year. In April 1990 Arkansas COM is planning to assist Siloam Springs Assembly in relocating their recreational vehicle area and expanding the number of pads. Ken Evans of Fayetteville is planning to serve as project director.

Lendol Jackson has agreed to serve as Volunteer Coordinator for Arkansas COM. He will assist the state leader in promotion, helping the officers in planning programs and editing the newsletter. Ross Williams of Mena and Lendol Jackson of Pophatan continue to serve as volunteer consultants in Resort Ministries.

VOLUNTEER MISSIONS include both short term and long term volunteer programs. There are 28 student summer missionaries working in Arkansas under the direction of the Missions Department. In addition to the 14 in resort work, eight are in associational ministries, four are in migrant centers and two are in apartment ministries.

John Ragsdale from El Dorado continues to serve as Mission Service Corps Volunteer Coordinator. Our state consultants work with him in each of the eight districts for promotion and enlistment of volunteers. Arkansas is presently represented through volunteers serving both in Christian Service Corps (short term) and Mission Service Corps (long term).

INTERFAITH WITNESS is concerned about securing and sharing information relating to the presence and activity of other religious groups in our state. Excellent two-day conferences were conducted in Central Association and at the UA, Fayetteville BSU by a team of leaders from the Home Mission Board. One session conferences were also conducted in a number of churches and associations. Information and materials relating to a wide range of subjects (cults and sects) are available from the Missions office.

There is a need to increase the number of Interfaith Witness Associates in our state. These are persons who train for 10 to 12 hours in a particular subject. A training session is scheduled to meet on the campus of Ouachita Baptist University March 8-10, 1990. Subjects to be taught will be announced later.

ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM continues to be implemented in our associations. Twenty-eight people attended the Key Leader Conference. Conferences and materials are available to help associations make the transition from missions Committee to Associational Missions Development Program.

Church Extension

Jack L. Ramsey

“For we are laborers together with God.” (1 Cor. 3:9) Southern Baptist Churches in Arkansas are cooperating together to “Church Arkansas.” The purpose of Church Arkansas is to give every person in Arkansas the opportunity, in his setting and life-style, to be involved in the ministry and fellowship of a New Testament body of believers.

Church Arkansas has a goal of 45 new congregations in 1989. By the end of June, 18 have been launched with cultivation activities of another 27. Many of these could begin by November.

New Work Probes were conducted in Rocky Bayou and White River Associations, identifying five areas where new missions are needed.

New Work Feasibility Studies to determine the size and kind of missions needed have been conducted in 11 different areas.

Missions are now being sponsored in 19 manufactured home communities. Neal Stevens serves with the Church Extension Program as a consultant for mission work in mobile home parks.

New Work Growth Probes have been conducted in several congregations. These Probes assist congregations in understanding and applying growth principles in their ministry setting. There are presently eight trained consultants to assist in this ministry.

Total number of churches sponsoring missions in Arkansas — 73.

Functioning missions — 56.

Nine congregations have received Revolving Loan Funds.

Twenty-six congregations received grants amounting to $35,500 for start-up or emergency funds.

Seven churches were assisted in purchasing mission sites.

Fifty-nine congregations now receive Church Pastoral Aid.

Seven missions have constituted into churches.

Church Arkansas 1990 goal — 30 new congregations.

Continuing Theological Education

Lehman F. Webb

Seminary Extension Centers, Seminary Extension Independent and Study Institute (correspondence), Boyce Bible School, Seminary Studies Program and the Doctor of Ministries Program constitute the five delivery systems for bringing quality Christian training to our pastors and other leaders through Continuing Theological Education.

It was in 1950 that Seminary Extension Department was established in Nashville, Tennessee, by the six Southern Baptist Seminaries. It came as a direct response to a pressing need for self study opportunities for pastors and other local church leaders.

There are 20 certified Seminary Extension Centers in Arkansas with 11 of these offering courses during the 1987-88 academic year. Most of these centers are sponsored by local associations and offer both basic (pre-college) and college level courses.

The same course offerings are made through the Seminary Extension Independent Study Institute. One can readily see advantages of correspondence study in its relaxed schedule, conveniences of study at home, etc.

Boyce Bible School also offers college level courses during four eight-week terms each academic year. Five courses are available each term with classes meeting in the Baptist System Support Center, 11900 Colonel Glenn Road, Little Rock, 72210.

Those seeking master's level work will be interested in the Seminary Studies Program in which seminary professors commute to Little Rock to teach in two 11-week terms each year. These classes meet on Mondays at Immanuel Baptist Church. Three courses are offered each term.

An increasingly popular degree is the Doctor of Ministries Degree. Seminars are available toward this degree at Baptist Building. Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City is responsible for this entire program.

STEWARDSHIP DEPARTMENT

James Walker, Director

Arkansas Baptists gave $127,099,685 in tithes, offerings and gifts during 1988. This was an increase of $3,138,410 over 1987. Contributions fell slightly below the inflation rate during 1988. Arkansas retained its low rating in per capita income and the unemployment rate remained above the national average. When per capita gifts are compared with per capita income, Arkansas Baptists are above the SBC average.

The number of churches using a budget promotion program increased to 358, a six percent increase over 1987.

The Stewardship Commission, in cooperation with State Stewardship Directors, produces materials for the churches. During the last 12 months 220 churches requested materials from the Stewardship Department. 74,110 tracts, guidebooks and stewardship helps were mailed for distribution and use in the churches.

Samples of free materials available through the Stewardship Department were sent to the churches in two separate mailings.

Coy Sample served as a missionary-in-residence with the Stewardship Department. During the year he spoke in 99 churches and nine camps, retreats and conferences.

Orville Boyd Jenkins, a missionary in Kenya, joined the department in October 1989 as a missionary-in-residence.

Five ministers received special training from the Stewardship Commission to conduct Challenge to Build programs in the churches. Guidelines for the work of the Challenge to Build consultants are set by the Stewardship Department.

Other services of the Stewardship Department during the last 12 months include:

- Budget consultations and services in 16 churches
- Building fund consultation with 15 churches
- Eight money management sessions
- Survey of churches on pastor/staff salaries and benefits
- Participated in 13 state and SBC stewardship events
- Conducted 14 Associational Church Budget Development Seminars during 1988 with 816 present from 201 churches
- Conducted eight other associational stewardship conferences
- 601 churches represented in conferences and meetings of Stewardship Department

SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

Freddie Pike, Director

The objective of the Sunday School Department is to assist Arkansas Baptist churches in discovering, reaching, teaching, winning and developing persons for Christ and church membership.

The 1988 Annual of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention reports a total Sunday School enrollment of 256,090 in 1,283 churches. This reflects a loss of only 55 since the 1987 enrollment of 256,155.

The Sunday School Department has endeavored to help churches reach people through several different avenues during 1988-89.

The associational Sunday School organization continues to be our main source of help to the local church. Most of the associations have ASSISTeams (Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Teams) that help to strengthen Sunday Schools in their churches.

Twenty-six ASSIST directors attended the April 24-25 Key Leader Meeting. They were trained to be better equipped in Sunday School work. They were trained in planning, promoting and conducting local church and associational training events.

Department personnel assisted in 56 projects in 27 associations. These included training schools, VBS clinics, growth campaigns, age-group clinics and on-the-field consultations with ASSIST directors and directors of missions.

Twenty-eight state and area projects were planned and led by department personnel.

The annual Weekday Early Education Workshop was held on July 28-29 in Park Hill Baptist Church, North Little Rock, with a registration of 315 day care, kindergarten and mother's day out teachers from 38 churches and 14 private schools. The workshop is sponsored by the Sunday School and Missions Departments.

Five Small Sunday School Leadership Updates were held on August 11. These were the last of 30 Updates conducted during 1987-88. Designed for pastors, Sunday School directors and other key church leaders, they provided information on materials and projects designed especially for Sunday Schools with 150 or less enrolled.

Three additional projects were designed just for churches with smaller Sunday Schools. A Small Sunday School Workshop was held on August 19-20 at the Arkansas Baptist Assembly, Siloam Springs. On October 1 the Northeast Arkansas Small Sunday School Workshop was held at Southern Baptist College, Walnut Ridge. Ouachita Baptist University, Arkadelphia hosted the Bible Teaching Gathering for Smaller Sunday Schools on February 11.

Four Area Growth Spiral Workshops were held on August 15-16. These were designed to help Sunday School leaders and teachers in using the Growth Spiral to set goals and plan activities to meet those goals.

The State Sunday School Conference was held in Geyer Springs First Baptist Church, Little Rock on September 23-24. Approximately 1,500 workers were trained in 40 conferences.

Three state projects trained associational and church leaders in reaching and teaching boys and girls through Vacation Bible School. Associational VBS directors were trained in the October 25 VBS Directors Planning meeting.

The 1989 State Vacation Bible School Clinic trained 168 associational leaders in the use of curriculum and methods to reach boys and girls for Christ. Twenty-eight associations were represented.

The Mission VBS/Backyard Bible Club Clinic on May 6 trained 85 people from 16 churches in conducting these evangelistic programs during summer missions efforts.

During the summer of 1988, 100,544 were enrolled in 1,127 Vacation Bible School projects. This total includes 955 church VBS's, 64 missions VBS's and 108 Backyard Bible Clubs. These VBS programs reported 1,851 professions of faith, 16,421 prospects discovered, and an offering of $49,551, with $34,917 given to the Cooperative Program. Two new Sunday Schools were started as a result of Vacation Bible Schools.

The Department assisted seven associations with VBS clinics.

The State January Bible Study Clinic was held at the Baptist Building on November 15.

The August 25 Special Worker Institute trained 50 age-group workers to lead conferences in state, associational and local church projects.

Sixty-eight on-site building consultations were held with 61 churches. Two Church Building Tours were conducted. Ten churches were assisted in the October tour, and 10 were assisted in the March tour.

Six churches were represented in the April 28-29 Church Building Conference.

Department personnel assisted 81 churches in 96 local church projects.

A total of 178 training projects were conducted during the year.

Department personnel participated in nine training and planning sessions led by the Baptist Sunday School Board and the Home Mission Board.

Department personnel assisted three states in five training projects.

The Sunday School Department has the responsibility of planning and directing the Arkansas Baptist Assembly at Siloam Springs. The enrollment for the six 1989 assemblies was 5,259 with 307 professions of faith, 464 rededications and 54 commitments to church-related vocations.

SUPPORT SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Jan Kelley, Director

A monthly promotional magazine, Vision, is mailed to all pastors, church staff and persons in leadership positions in the associations and churches. Information concerning upcoming events and a two-month calendar listing dates, times and locations of events are included in Vision. If you are a pastor or church staff member, or a leader in your church or association, such as Sunday School, Church Training, WMU or Brotherhood director, you should be receiving the magazine. If you are not, please send your name, address, leadership position and church name to Jan Kelley at the address listed below. Please be sure to send in any address changes so you will not miss any issues.

Videotapes for use during the weeks of prayer and mission studies for foreign and home missions are available for rental or purchase. Please allow one week for processing and mailing.

Over 200 videotapes are available for associations, churches and individuals to use for leadership training and ministry education. The tapes are one-half inch VHS format and are available for rental and/or purchase. A fee is charged to cover costs of processing and mailing. A catalog is available upon request. Write or call Jan Kelley, P.O. Box 552, Little Rock, Arkansas 72203, (501) 376-4791.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Julia Ketner, Executive Director

Purpose: The purpose of Arkansas Woman's Missionary Union is to assist churches and associations in effective missions education, participation and support.

1988-89 Emphasis: "A Future to Fulfill-Launching Century 2" focused WMU's attention on laying a solid foundation for the second century of Woman's Missionary Union. The major goal for the year was to strengthen missions in the church and the denomination.

Leadership Training: One way of strengthening missions is through training of leaders and members. Arkansas WMU state events for equipping church and associational WMU leaders included (1) IMPACT '88, 10 conferences, day and night sessions held in nine areas of the state, 1,145 attending; (2) Associational WMU Officers' Retreat, August 1989, 77 attending/20 associations. The state WMU staff also provided training for associational WMU directors at the Key Leader Meeting in April 1989, with 30 in attendance. Throughout the year the staff assisted church and associational WMU leadership upon request.

Weeks of Prayer and Special Mission Offerings: Churchwide participation in praying and giving was promoted during observances of state, home and foreign missions. In 1988, a total of $3,673,633.99 was given to missions through the three special mission offerings. The 1988 offerings were: 791 churches giving $525,185.09 to the Dixie Jackson Offering; 888 churches giving $780,214.77 to the Annie Armstrong Offering, and 1,048 churches giving $2,368,234.13 to the Lottie Moon Offering. There was a significant increase over last year in the number of churches participating in the offerings: Dixie Jackson (47), Annie Armstrong (16), Lottie Moon (32).

Organizational Activities: State events were conducted for missions information, challenge, inspiration and spiritual growth. From August-December 1988 events were: a "missions tent" at Magic Springs during Baptist Youth Day; two Baptist Women Retreats (322). From January-August 1989 events were: State WMU Annual Meeting (approximately 600); Acteens Encounter (485); two GA Mother-Daughter Camps (407); two GA Mini-Camps (174). For the first time a Traveling Camp Staff, under the direction of the state GA director, assisted Independence, Ashley and Liberty Associations with their summer camping programs.

Arkansas Acteens Advisory Panel: Four Acteens were chosen as Arkansas WMU's second Acteens Advisory Panel to serve from November 1, 1988-October 31, 1989. Selected were: Suzette Hopkins, Matthews Memorial, Pine Bluff; Becky Steele, First, Charleston; Jeannie Knight and Kimberly Meacham, Trinity, Searcy.

Scholarships: Nancy Cooper Scholarships for the 1989-90 school year were granted to: Annette Kemp, Joseph Parish, SBC; and to Kenneth Todd Reed, Steven Walker, Javene Crabtree, Rebecca Steele, Deborah Edwards, OBU. Lillian May Scholarships were granted to Penny Haire, Southwestern Seminary; Lisa Welch and Jan Cartmill, New Orleans Seminary.

Missionary Magazines: In 1988, Arkansas WMU provided 138 home, foreign and retired missionaries from Arkansas a magazine of their choice. This was made possible through love offerings taken during Annual Meeting and gifts from WMU organizations.

MK (Missionary Kid) Activities: During 1988, 23 MKs studying in Arkansas colleges and universities were recipients of a birthday card and a $5 check. For Christmas, MKs received a $10 check and a card. At the beginning of the 1988 and 1989 fall semesters, Arkansas WMU and the state BSU provided a fellowship cookout (1988) and a retreat (1989) for MKs.

Baptist Nursing Fellowship: The Arkansas chapter of Baptist Nursing Fellowship met twice during 1988. Elected to serve as officers for 1988-89 were: Patsy Hossler (Little Rock), president; Frankie Falkner (Mabelvale), president-elect, and Virginia Lederer (Malvern), secretary-treasurer. BNF provided blood pressure screening at the 1989 WMU Annual Meeting and members were involved in mission projects/services during the year. Membership totaled 36 in 1988. A BNF state chapter brochure was designed and printed during 1988.

Statistics: Membership totaled 28,382 in 2,174 organizations for the church year ending September 1988.

State WMU Officers: Elected at the 1989 WMU Annual Meeting in March were: Mrs. Glendon Grober, Little Rock, president; Mrs. Russell Miller, Mountain Home, vice-president, and Mrs. Gene Reynolds, Gould, recording secretary.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST FAMILY AND CHILD CARE SERVICES

Johnny G. Biggs, Executive Director

“I think I’ll stay here. You know, this place is solid ground.” These words were spoken by a teenage girl living at the Arkansas Baptist Home for Children. She was trying to decide whether to go home to an unstable situation or remain at the Children’s Home. What a testimony to the love and care that Arkansas Baptists provide for children! Solid ground, that’s what we strive to be. A piece of solid ground where kids can stand when all else seems to be moving under their feet. A place where you can always count on having good food when you are hungry, clean clothes to wear, a safe place to sleep and there is always someone to listen. Where you are taught the Bible and can become a part of the most important family of all — the family of God. Solid ground — that’s what we want to offer in all of our ministries. “On Christ, the solid rock I stand, all other ground is sinking sand.”

Arkansas Baptist Home for Children. During this past year, we provided “solid ground” for 91 children at the Children’s Home. Forty-four children were admitted to the Home from all sections of our state during this year while 48 children were discharged during this same time period. Reuniting and strengthening families is a priority of our staff. In addition to providing the basic needs of food, clothing and shelter, our staff provides a full range of helping opportunities and services for the children. Recreational activities, counseling, tutorial assistance, church, school and community involvement are vital components of the quality care to the children in our ministry. We are grateful that three of our young people graduated from high school; two of them will be attending college in the fall and one will be enrolled in a vocational school. Keeping our children in touch with their families, either their own or family friends, round out our attempt to meet the total needs of troubled children in need of our ministry. We continue to provide redemptive help to hurting children and families by combining Christian compassion with professional services to bring about healing and hope.

Emergency Receiving Homes. This ministry serves as a temporary emergency refuge for children who have experienced abandonment, physical and/or sexual abuse. For children such as these, what is more important than the protection, safety and love we give immediately, without regard to merit or favor? In our Emergency Receiving Homes located in Little Rock, Sherwood, Camden, Paragould and Judsonia, we served 463 children and youth. In addition we served eight battered women and their children through two of our facilities. We are grateful to be “an arm of the Church reaching out” to receive care for these children in His Name.

Religious Life — On and Off Campus. The Christian ministry of God’s love continues to make our child care ministry distinctive. Thirty-two of the young people living at the Children’s Home accepted Christ as their personal Savior and joined one of the local churches this year. In addition, 10 children being cared for in our Emergency Receiving Homes made their decision to accept Christ and place their feet on “solid ground.” Leading young people to find Christian principles and values on which to build their lives is a priority and a joy of our staff.

Area Offices. From Little Rock to Jonesboro, to Fayetteville, to Hope, to Harrison — our agency staff was able to respond to the needs of troubled children and families. Many individuals and families turn to our staff seeking help with marriage and family problems. These offices responded to 1,348 new referrals and our staff was involved in over 7,000 interviews. Helping to resolve parent-child and marital conflicts deserves our best efforts. After all, the family was God’s idea and He created this institution.

Foster Care — Group Home Care. Six children were cared for in one of our approved foster homes. It is gratifying to see Christian families give of themselves to meet the special needs of these children. Three boys received care and direction by living at our Group Home for Boys in Jonesboro. The men of First Baptist Church, Jonesboro continue to work and make this home comfortable and an attractive place for boys to live.

Baptist Boy’s Ranch. The offer of a beautiful 360 acre ranch near Harrison made by the Shawnee Valley Boy’s Ranch Board of Trustees was accepted by our Board for future ministry. Prior to our acceptance of this offer, Baptist Medical System presented a pressing need to our agency. They needed a resource to place boys who had completed their intensive treatment program for drug and alcohol abuse and needed a place to live. A place where people care and are equipped to help them with their problems that precipitated their hospitalization. The ranch setting seemed to be ideal for such a ministry. God once again prepared a resource to meet a need! A wonderful lady, Mrs. Bernice Jones of Springdale, made a generous contribution from the Harvey and Bernice Jones Foundation that provided start-up expenses and one year’s operating budget! Her generous gift enabled us to proceed and be ready to take boys into the program effective June 1989. The unified support and work of the North Arkansas Baptist Association strengthened and aided in the provision of this ministry. We believe this Ranch and acreage will be a wonderful resource for Arkansas Baptists in the years ahead. We trust the Lord to reveal the way He would have us utilize this resource to its full potential.

Christian Alternative to Abortion: An Update

1. A beautiful, newly decorated home in El Dorado on nine acres of land was given to our agency by Melvyn Bell over a year ago. It is an ideal setting for a ministry for unwed mothers.
2. Policies and procedures for the operation of this ministry are almost finished. We are using the Sellers Baptist Home and Adoption Center in New Orleans as a model for our ministry.
3. A dedicated couple interested in missions has volunteered two years of their lives to work with us in this ministry as soon as we are ready to begin.
4. We are in need of funds to underwrite this ministry. When these funds are committed or received, Arkansas Baptists will offer a Christian Alternative to Abortion and Adoptions Services. We will receive girls from throughout the state. We trust the Lord to provide the resources to make this dream a reality in His timing.

Finances. Direct gifts to our child care ministry received from 1,042 of our 1,284 churches was $430,890.00 in 1988. Direct gifts from the churches plus contributions from the Cooperative Program provided 53 percent of our total contributions for 1988. The Cooperative Program continues to be a strong, consistent financial base for all that we do. The balance of our General Fund came from gifts from individuals, endowment income, family and child care support, and purchase of care agreements with Arkansas Family and Children Services. Gifts from many individuals throughout the year remind us of the love and spirit of Arkansas Baptists toward children in crisis.

A little girl in one of our Emergency Receiving Homes who accepted Christ as her Savior last year happily told her houseparent, "Now I'm in Jesus' custody." What a blessing for our staff to lead her and many others to this understanding and to see their lives placed on "solid ground." God has provided each of us with a solid foundation on which to build our lives through Jesus Christ, His son. Because of that, we have the opportunity and responsibility to share that good news and lead others to place their lives on "solid ground."

ARKANSAS BAPTIST FOUNDATION

Harry D. Trulove, President/Treasurer

Isaiah declared, ". . . the people who dwell in darkness have seen a great light." (Isaiah 9:2) This prophecy was fulfilled in Jesus Christ. He declared, ". . . I am the light of the world." (John 8:12) As people of God we are called on to bear witness that He is the light.

For generations this has been the heartbeat of Southern Baptists. Much has been accomplished, but there is much yet to be done.

Arkansas Baptists are fortunate to have efficient ways to be a part of God's great work both now and forever. Forty years ago our forefathers established an agency that would assist them in continuing financial support beyond this life. This new agency was given a three-fold assignment. One area would be to call attention to the Christian aspect of estate planning by providing conferences in local churches and associations. A second area of responsibility would be to provide assistance to the development of-office of the various agencies in the legal responsibilities of deferred gifts and charitable giving. The third area would be that of fund management. Now the question, has this work been worthwhile?

In the area of promotion, the staff averages conducting one conference every seven days. Thus Arkansas Baptists are being exposed to the various opportunities they have for deferred giving.

In the second area of providing legal assistance to the development offices, the Foundation Staff each year construct over 300 proposals and legal instruments at the request of the development officers. This service alone on the open market would require an outlay of several hundred thousand dollars.

The third area is that of fund management. A 15 year study indicated that, through the Cooperative Program, the Convention had allocated $2,109,004 to the Foundation for operating expenses. In return, the Foundation had generated $2,075,602 in capital gains. These new dollars represented a net gain and were added back to the accounts that had participated in the sale of the securities.

In addition to the capital gains that increased the corpus for the various accounts, the Foundation generated $11,351,390 of interest and divided income that was distributed to the various institutions and agencies. Thus, for the past 15 years the Convention has provided an average of $140,600 per year to the Foundation for operating expenses. In return, the Convention and her agencies have received legal assistance in excess of $100,000 per year and an average return on the investment portfolio of $895,133. This is an average return of $6.37 for each dollar the agency received from the Convention. The exciting thing is that this spread is increasing. For example, last year the Foundation was able to generate $10 for each dollar received from the Convention. These dollars joined hands with the Cooperative Program dollars given through your churches to help strengthen the ministry of . . .

- . . . Local church and associations camps and mission projects.

- . . . State and SBC causes such as

Child Care Ministry through the Arkansas Baptist Family and Child Care Services; Christian Education through Ouachita, Southern Baptist College and our six seminaries; Mass Media through the Arkansas Baptist News magazine and Mission Work that includes the ministry of the BSU on the local college campus. State, Home and Foreign Missions and the WMU Ministry through the Nancy Cooper Scholarship Fund and the Second Century Fund.

While we are pleased to have had a part in strengthening these programs there is still much to be done. At the Convention last year you approved a plan that has allowed the Foundation to put together an innovative way to secure future endowments through the use of life insurance. This plan has been reviewed by representatives in the Insurance Commissioner's office, a State License has been secured and work is proceeding on the development of printed material. It is anticipated that this service will be available soon after the first of the year.

The Board and Staff are constantly reminded that your Foundation is not an area unto itself BUT EXISTS to provide financial strength to every area of Baptist life. The ministry is supervised by a 15 member Board of Trustees elected by and responsible to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST HISTORICAL COMMISSION

Tim Reddin, Director

1988-89 has been a transitional year for the Historical Commission. After more than a decade of service, Dr. Bernes K. Selph retired as the Commission's director in November upon the election of the new director. Arkansas Baptists owe Dr. Selph a debt of gratitude for his untiring efforts in fostering an historical consciousness and preserving the record of our past.

This year saw a decrease in the usage of the Commission's archives, which are housed at Riley-Hickingbotham Library at Ouachita Baptist University. Last year, possibly because of the new facilities, usage was significantly above normal. Although this year's figure of 153 persons utilizing the material in the archives is down, it marks a 20 percent increase over the last "normal" year before the relocation project was undertaken.

Work continues on efforts to refile the entire Baptist collection at the archives, a project made possible by the increased space. We are indebted to the good work of Pamela Dennis, our archival assistant, and to the support of Dr. Ray Grenade, OBU Library Director.

The Commission continues to plan projects to better serve Arkansas Baptists, including a training conference for church and associational historians, the collection of biographical materials on Baptist leaders, updating and microfilming the collection of associational and convention minutes, and the placement of historical markers. Some of these projects are ongoing, while others must await adequate funding.

The Commission wants to be of service to its constituency. Your visits, comments and suggestions are always welcome. It is our desire to help our people preserve the record of the past so we may be better prepared for the challenges of the future.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE

J. Everett Sneed, Editor

The Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine is given the responsibility of producing a publication to "aid and support the Arkansas Baptist State Convention to report and interpret events and movements that effect the welfare of the constituency" of the people of God called Arkansas Baptists.

The need for Arkansas Baptists to have information is as great as it was in 1904 when the Baptist state paper was founded. The person in the pew needs to be informed. Pastors cannot consistently take from their valuable sermon time to inform Baptists concerning Baptist work. Since the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine is mailed to the home, it serves as a weekly reminder of the work of the local church and the cooperative efforts of other churches. The Arkansas Baptist emphasizes the right of any Baptist to have information concerning the work of the convention. Out of such knowledge the Baptists of the state can rally to undergird all that Arkansas Baptists are doing in the areas of evangelism, issues of social concern, special mission offerings and local church emphasis.

The Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine is responsible to the state convention through its Board of Directors elected by the state convention. The Board under the leadership of Lane Strother, a Mountain Home attorney, provides guidance for the editor and staff of the Newsmagazine. The Board consists of ministers, journalists, attorneys, businessmen, women, and provides a unique resource for the Newsmagazine staff.

The staff of the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine is striving to assist the churches of Arkansas to become all that God would desire them to be. In order to reach this goal several important actions have been taken by the Newsmagazine. First, the publication has been given a new and fresh appearance. The "new look," has brought more positive response than any other action taken by the Newsmagazine in recent years. The purpose of the new format is to make the publication more attractive, more readable, and more helpful to the Baptists of Arkansas.

In order to overcome the financial crunch that is confronting the Newsmagazine, the staff and board are working to sell additional advertising. When we reach the desired level of advertising it will enable the Newsmagazine to have all 24 page issues. This will not only assist us in carrying our financial load but will actually provide more column inches for information, inspiration and interpretation.

If the Newsmagazine is able to increase its advertising as desired, we will be able to maintain the subscription rates at approximately the present level. The present annual subscription rates are $6.99 for an individual rate, $5.52 for the every resident family plan and $6.12 for the group plan where 10 or more families from the same church purchase the Newsmagazine. Where the every resident family plan is used by a congregation, the Newsmagazine cost less than half of a first class postage stamp.

Since each church is totally autonomous, it is essential that proper information be disseminated in order that the right decisions might be made in serving the Lord together. The best instrument for dissemination of news and information to Arkansas Baptists is the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine.

In order to meet the continuing financial crunch, the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine needs the prayers of the Baptists of Arkansas. We also need churches to provide support for the Newsmagazine by sending it to all of their resident members.

The Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine is thankful for the Cooperative Program money and encouragement that it represents from Arkansas Baptists. We express our sincere appreciation to all who encourage the churches to place the Newsmagazine in their budget for their resident families. It is our prayer that we will all join hands to inform Baptists so that we can respond as God would have us to do so.

BAPTIST BOOK STORELittle Rock, ArkansasRobert C. Barnett, Manager*

The Baptist Book Store in Little Rock, in its 88th year of service is striving continually to grow with the churches and their members. We are constantly seeking out methods of distribution of materials to assist people and churches in their growth effort in new experiences and in gaining new insights.

The earliest beginning of the Baptist Book Store in Little Rock dates back to 1901. The store is now located at 9101 W. Markham and provides a convenience of driving and shopping for our customers. The store has over 8,000 square feet of sales floor space and is conveniently located just off I-630 on the corner of John Barrow Road and West Markham near the Baptist Medical Center.

The purpose of the store is to provide merchandise easily available to all people in our area. In doing so, we believe this enables churches and people to be equipped to witness to a world that does not know a SAVIOR, and to provide adequate help for teaching and training in the church, the home and each individual believer.

Through the distribution of catalogs, we seek to inform our customers of many of the materials we have available for them. The Baptist Book Store Catalog is made available in August of each year and the Christmas Catalog is available each October as well as some special emphasis catalogs. Our purpose is to pinpoint areas of need with precise product and service suggestions. These tools, if kept accessible at all time by our customers, will provide the Baptist Book Store an opportunity to become more effective in Touching Lives-Growing Churches with those we serve.

The budgeted anticipated sales for the year beginning October 1, 1989, through September 30, 1990, is $1,450,000. It should be noted that a Significant Percent of the Baptist Sunday School Board's Earnings through the Baptist Book Store of Little Rock will be Invested Back into the Arkansas Baptist State Convention by the Sunday School Board.

The Baptist Book Store of Little Rock is now a Complete Service Book Store offering MAIL SERVICE to all of Arkansas.

BAPTIST MEMORIAL HEALTH CARE SYSTEM, INC.Memphis, TennesseeJoseph H. Powell, President*

This report covers the period May 1988 through April 1989. The statistical portion of the report is for fiscal year 1988.

Baptist Memorial Health Care System, Inc. is the parent body of Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis and 11 other corporate hospitals in Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee. It was established with the approval of the Baptist Conventions of Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee to provide flexibility needed to give optimum health care in the 1980s and beyond.

Three institutions in Mississippi are among the newest additions to the health care system. They are Baptist Memorial Hospital-DeSoto in Southaven, Baptist Memorial Hospital-Union County in New Albany and Baptist Memorial Hospital-North Mississippi in Oxford.

The 130-bed Southaven facility with a professional office building for 35 physicians opened August 1, 1988. It includes 100 acute care beds and a 30-bed rehabilitation unit.

The System successfully managed the 153-bed Union County General Hospital at New Albany before arranging a long term lease and renaming it Baptist Memorial-Union County.

Oxford and Lafayette County leaders leased the 150-bed Oxford Lafayette Medical Center to the System after reviewing proposals from three other groups. The medical center was renamed Baptist Memorial Hospital-North Mississippi.

Other corporate hospitals are located in Booneville, Mississippi; Forrest City and Hardy, Arkansas; and Covington, Germantown, Huntingdon, Ripley and Union City, Tennessee.

The System also provides management services for the 99-bed Tippah County Hospital in Ripley, Mississippi.

The first unit of a 187-bed addition to the 417-bed Baptist Memorial Hospital East, Memphis opened in April 1989 with the remaining beds to open later in the year.

As the new beds opened, workers started construction on a 54,300 square foot addition to two existing office buildings at the East Memphis facility.

At the same time, construction also began on Plaza East, an eight-story, 225,500 square foot professional building on the north side of Baptist Memorial Hospital Medical Center, Memphis with completion expected in late 1990.

Among major developments in health care at Baptist Memorial Hospital's Medical Center were the acquisition of biliary lithotripsy for pulverizing gallstones and the addition of revolutionary brain monitoring equipment.

The hospital was the first institution in the Mid-South selected as an investigative site for the new technology for crushing gallstones with shock waves, avoiding the pain, expense and convalescent time associated with conventional surgery to remove the stones.

The brain monitoring equipment known as BEAM goes one step beyond the CAT scanner and magnetic resonance imaging in mapping electrical activity of the brain.

The hospital also introduced new technology known as laser lithotripsy which utilizes laser energy to fragment kidney stones.

Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis was designated as a Level II Trauma Center by the Tennessee Board of Licensing Health Care Facilities. Trauma centers are designed to treat serious injuries due to falls, traffic and industrial accidents, burns and violent crimes. Level II trauma centers must have surgeons on call who can arrive within 30 minutes and operating room nurses on call either at the hospital or at home.

A direct admission process designed to heighten guest-oriented services and streamline admissions was introduced at Baptist Memorial Hospital Medical Center.

The Department of Religion at Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis participated in a series of activities, including worship services, training, patient visitation, benevolent ministries and Christian witnessing.

Department representatives visited 84,049 patients, family members and employees, trained 40 persons for the hospital's volunteer program, provided orientation for volunteer chaplains in training sessions at 10 corporate hospitals and led many persons to profess their faith in Christ. The department received approval to develop a clinical pastoral education program.

In the area of continuing education in the System, 711 seminars, workshops and other activities were conducted, attracting 10,767 persons.

As a community service, the Baptist Memorial Health Care System provided free cholesterol examinations for almost 2,300 persons at six Baptist Minor Medical Centers and the Memphis Convention Center, sponsored a babysitting training program for teenagers for a Free the Children poverty area in Memphis and led in introducing healthy life-styles in three other impoverished sections of Memphis as part of a year-long Goals for Memphis effort.

To communicate advances in health care in the Mid-South, the System offered a five-minute medical feature, "You and Your Health," as part of the noon news each Wednesday on WREG-TV, Channel 3, a CBS affiliate. The program featured medical specialists who discussed the latest developments in their fields.

Trustees of the Health Care System re-elected H. T. Conley, a Corinth, Mississippi, business executive, as their chairman for a second one-year term.

Stephen Reynolds, Senior Vice President of Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, was chosen chairman-elect of the Tennessee Hospital Association. He will begin a one-year term as chairman in October 1989.

Dr. Frank S. Groner, President Emeritus of Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, was inducted into the Health Care Hall of Fame along with nine other nationally prominent leaders, including Benjamin Franklin, founder of Philadelphia's Pennsylvania Hospital, the nation's oldest.

Physicians at Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, elected Dr. John Crockarell, a neurosurgeon, president of the 1,303 member medical staff. Dr. Kirby Smith was named chief of staff and Dr. Ron Hubbard, deputy chief of staff.

CHRISTIAN CIVIC FOUNDATION OF ARKANSAS, INC.

John Finn, Executive Director

It is a joy to present our annual report to friends and supporters of the Foundation. We are deeply grateful for Dr. Don Moore's support, leadership and encouragement. The Foundation could not continue to operate without the financial support of the Convention, churches and associations. In addition to the Convention there were 74 convention churches and 12 associations contributing a total of $41,841.25 as of July 31, 1989. We continue to have great financial needs.

It is our desire to be very effective in stemming the tide of alcoholism, alcohol-related deaths, drug addiction (including alcohol), pornography and gambling.

The General Election, our Lord willing, will be held in November 1990. The forces of righteousness should be on guard against the liquor interests who will be out in force promoting their products. There probably will be wet/dry elections in precincts and counties.

State Lottery proponents are circulating petitions to get 68,000 valid signatures to place the issue on the 1990 ballot. Proponents of state legalized gambling never tire in accusing opponents of arguing about morality. What is wrong with moral convictions?

1. Pro-gambling forces advocate a morality which essentially justifies a lottery (the means) by the revenue it produces (the end). This is one type of morality.

2. There is a materialist morality which longs for the opportunity of getting something for nothing, for the chance of being able "to get rich quick," apart from labor or the creation of a product of real value.
3. It is a moral issue when the state decides to derive income from an activity which is a highly regressive form of taxation that affects poor people more extensively than affluent people.
4. It is a moral issue when a state decides not only to tolerate gambling, but to get in the business of planning games, engaging in promotional activities and targeting its citizens through extensive marketing analysis in the hope of creating new gamblers to contribute taxes through an inefficient form of "tax farming."
5. Morality is involved when a state adopts a form of gambling which in all probability will increase the extent and the amount of illegal gambling.
6. It is a moral issue when a state adopts a form of gambling that will draw off large amounts of money especially from the poor people for whom the state supposedly has a responsibility to provide assistance.
7. It is a moral issue when a state engages in naive planning and adopts financial planning that amounts to putting a patch on a state's financial stress.
8. Morality is involved for inherent in gambling is a disregard for an honest work ethic. (Ex. 20:9, Eph. 4:28, II Thess. 3:10-12).
9. It is a moral issue for the Scripture condemns the materialistic motivation that causes a person to gamble. (I Tim. 6:6-11).
10. It is a moral issue when it motivates an individual to steal.
11. It is a moral issue when an individual because of lottery losses is motivated to take his life.
12. Morality is involved when the state permits a gambling operation which contributes to the breakdown of the home, child abuse, wife abuse and increases the number of compulsive gamblers.

State lottery gambling a moral issue? You can bet on it!

You can help us end television's exploitation of sex, violence and profanity. Christian Leaders for Responsible Television (CLEAR-TV) asks that the products of Menen and Clorox, two of the leading sponsors of sex, violence and profanity on television be boycotted until July 1990. The Foundation urges our friends and supporters to participate in the boycott.

OUACHITA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY Arkadelphia, Arkansas

One of the most unique ideas in the history of man is that of establishing and maintaining a Christian university. While higher education generally suffers from a lack of cohesiveness, fractionalization and moral malaise, Ouachita Baptist University enjoys the freedom to provide the finest quality education bound together by an underlying faith in God as He is revealed in Jesus Christ. The experience of a shared faith provides the framework in which the Ouachita educational process and content are bound together and given moral significance. Thus, one learns at Ouachita in order to better serve God and fellowman, whatever the occupational interest. This framework of Christian faith ties all other truth together for the Ouachita scholar. This order and meaning set the Christian university apart as unique in American society. Christian universities such as Ouachita Baptist University are needed today as they have never before been needed in our world.

Ouachita Baptist University has emerged in recent years as one of the stronger Christian universities in the South. It is superior in terms of faculty, facilities, students and clarity of Christian commitment. As preparation is made for the one hundred third year of service to Arkansas Baptists, the Ouachita commitment is to become the best small Christian university in the South by the turn of the century.

A Good Transition Year

The 1988-89 year marked the transition from the administration of Dr. Daniel R. Grant to that of Dr. Ben M. Elrod. The two had worked together previously for eight years (1970-78) when Dr. Elrod served as vice president for development under Dr. Grant. Transition years are normally expected to be times of merely "keeping house" while the new administration becomes familiar with the institutional situation.

That was not the case at Ouachita in the 1988-89 academic year. The flow of activities was uninterrupted, and the year was one of considerable activity and progress. The smoothness of the transition can probably be attributed to four factors: the unusual degree of agreement about institutional purpose and mission shared by Drs. Grant and Elrod; the strength of the administrative team and the faculty at Ouachita; the strong support of Arkansas Baptists, graduates and friends of the university enjoyed by both presidents; and the abiding friendship shared by Elrod and Grant.

Strong Student Enrollment

Student enrollment remained strong during the year. The fall enrollment was 1,352, and the non-duplicating enrollment for 1988-89 was 1,816. Ouachita again ranked in the top three colleges and universities in the state in the number of Governor's Scholars and National Merit finalists in the freshman class. New student applications for the 1989-90 school year indicated an increase in the number of new students to be admitted in the fall 1989. That would appear to indicate an increase in total enrollment for 1989-90.

Ouachita's Christian Mission

The university responded to its Christian mission in literally hundreds of ways during the year.

There were numerous programs of university-sponsored Christian activities. The Baptist Student Union, directed by Ian Cosh, involved hundreds of students in its many activities, including: Freshman Drop-in, Freshman Talent Show, Noonday devotional services, Prison Ministries, BSU Choir, Big Brothers and Big Sisters program, Internationals/MK program, Summer Missions, Dormitory Bible Studies, Monticello Children's Home ministry, Adopt-A-Grandparent program, Married Student Fellowship, Summer Missions, VENTURE!, Evangelism Outreach (on campus following Spring Break Mission trip), Christian Focus Week, Share Workshop, International Student Retreat, Student Missions Conference and Spring Break Missions. The BSU also provided 35 flag bearers for the Commissioning Service of the Foreign Mission Board in Little Rock and sponsored a Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions.

The Center for Christian Ministries placed 35 students in church ministry positions in Arkansas churches. Dr. Bill Steeger led a group of seven students to the Republic of South Africa and had a successful follow-up trip after the previous group had ministered there in 1988. As a result of this trip, six of the seven students accompanying Dr. Steeger have made commitments to full-time missions work. Sharon Cosh led a Women's Discipleship Group in a weekly in-depth Bible study. More than 130 students served in summer missions or church staff positions for the summer. Four students were chosen by the state BSU to serve as University Outreach Coordinators on four different campuses. Students participated in a mission trip to Brazil, led by Dean of Students B. Aldon Dixon.

Speakers, groups and singers who appeared on campus during the year included: Ben Elrod, Gary Rand, Ralph Smith, BSU South Africa Mission Team, Tom Elliff, OBU Contact Teams, John Thomason, Japan Exchange Program, the Ouachi-Tones, Dan Panter, Bruce Tippit, Tom Greer, Curt Cloniger, Malphy Giles, Rex Holt, Brian Harbour, Praise Singers, Patricia Green, Dianne O'Connell, Mark Coppenger, Ron Collins, Judy Scott, T. W. Hunt, Bobby Joe Reickenbacker, Rick Bates, Darrin Glenn, Randal Eller, David and Carol Crutchley, TRUTH, Rick Ousley, Jim Lagrone, Dale Griffin, Larry Miguez, Bud Henning, Kenny Rains, Michael and Bo Barnes, Bill and Susan Viser, Glen Borders and Billy Crockett.

The Religion Department initiated a new track in Missions/Cross Cultural Studies and revised one track to be called Family Life Ministry/Christian Counseling. Enrollment in the department continued to increase significantly. During the last three years, this department has experienced the greatest enrollment increase of any department.

Bud Fray accepted a post as professor of African Missions at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He will be sorely missed at Ouachita, but the good work he started will be continued.

Dr. Bill Steeger succeeds Dr. Fray. Dr. Steeger is an outstanding preacher, a splendid scholar, an experienced missionary, a consistent personal soul-winner and a popular friend of students.

Ouachita continues to host a growing number of Baptist groups during the summer. The schedule for the year included: Senior Adult Celebration, Super Summer Arkansas, Young Musicians, Crosspoint, Summer Missions Retreat, Summersing, Music Arkansas Youth, Ashdown Youth Camp, MK Workshop, MasterLife Workshop, WMU Executive Council, Disciple Youth Workshop and RA Congress.

The programs designed for spiritual impact, the facilitating work of the Center for Christian Ministries, the commitment of the campus for use by Baptist groups, and the day-by-day impact of Christian leaders among the faculty and staff on students and on each other, make Ouachita a most unusual place of Kingdom building.

A Challenging Year in Fund Raising

While Ouachita is blessed with strong support for operation from the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, the university must carry on an aggressive program of fund raising from individuals, trusts, foundations and other entities for funds for capital purposes, mainly buildings and endowment. The university was fortunate during the year to receive several outstanding gifts and pledges. Among them were: (1) completion of pledges in the amount of $600,000 for R. A. "Brick" Lile Hall; (2) a $500,000 pledge from Virgil and June Waggoner, graduates of Ouachita, for science program enrichment, to be matched dollar-for-dollar (this great gift will help move an already superior science program to a new plateau of effectiveness; the $500,000 in matching funds must be pledged by December 31, 1989); (3) a gift in the amount of $200,000 from Mrs. Bernice Jones and the late Mr. Harvey Jones for the purchase of instructional television equipment (this equipment will make Ouachita's program state-of-the-art, one of the best equipped, and perhaps the best equipped in the state; we hope in the near future to provide new facilities for this program in shell space in Mabee Fine Arts building; the cost will be approximately $200,000); (4) a generous bequest from the estate of the late J. C. and Mae Fuller in the amount of $341,000 for the establishment of the J. C. and Mae Fuller Chair of Bible in the Religion Department (Dr. Robert Stagg was named to hold this endowed chair).

Fourteen new members joined the Ouachita Baptist University Second Century Group, comprised of more than 200 graduates and friends who have provided for Christian higher education at Ouachita in their estate plans. Estate planning seminars were conducted in 10 churches, and are provided by Ouachita, upon request, free of charge.

The annual fund raised $189,000, a record for the fund. Dollars received for the annual fund are undesignated, and are applied to the operation of Ouachita.

Academic Program: Quality and Compassion

The academic program at Ouachita is marked by quality and compassion. It is a demanding program with high performance standards which challenge the best of scholars. This quality program has earned for Ouachita a reputation for providing academic experiences with integrity and substance for students.

The program is a combination of that quality, plus compassion. Compassion is expressed in the attitude of the faculty and administration in dealing with the students. Students at Ouachita know that faculty and staff members care for them. They see this caring demonstrated in scores of ways during their days at Ouachita. It begins with invitations to groups of freshmen to the homes of faculty and staff members in the evenings, and continues through gestures of Christian concern and kindness through the students' stay at Ouachita.

Ouachita has an exceptionally strong and stable faculty. Twenty-seven of the 81 full-time professors have been at Ouachita for 20 or more years. There is a strong element of young professors, nevertheless, and that is good. Twenty-two of the 81 professors have been at Ouachita for five years or less. They provide the "new blood" every institution needs in its instructional program. More than 50 percent of the faculty hold doctorates.

Three faculty members were honored by being invited to present papers at the national professional meetings of their respective disciplines. They were Dr. Hal Bass, Dr. Randy Smith and Dr. Randall Wight. Dr. Joe Nix was named chairman of the Arkansas Science and Technology Authority. Dr. Francis McBeth was selected for his 23rd annual ASCAP Award for outstanding music composition, and was named "Man of Music 1988," by Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, the oldest and largest professional music fraternity, a singular award given in previous years to giants in the field such as Howard Hanson, Aaron Copland and Leonard Bernstein. Dr. Craig Price, assistant professor of religion, led a group of seven Ouachita students on an archaeological dig/study tour in Israel. Dr. Tom Turner, Holt Professor of Physics, is engaged in an ongoing research program on superconductivity utilizing undergraduate students as research assistants. Dr. Tom Greer, Anthony Professor of Bible and the Humanities, continues his work on a forthcoming book on the role of women in the People's Republic of China. Dr. Raouf Halaby, professor of English, had a total of six articles published. Dr. Tom Bolton, Mary and son Bryan, were named "Music Family of the Year" by the Arkansas Federation of Music Clubs. Dr. Bolton has joined the staff of First Baptist Church, Little Rock, as minister of music.

Dr. Mike Arrington was named vice president for academic affairs in December 1988, after having served as the acting officer in that area for 18 months. He is strongly committed to the unique mission of Ouachita.

Efforts to provide international experiences for Ouachita faculty and students continued. A special treat was the visit to the Ouachita campus by President Che of Zhengzhou University in China and his four colleagues. The amiable president spoke to several student and faculty groups. He and the president of Ouachita signed a "sister institution" agreement for exchange of faculty and students. This relationship was expanded further with the arrival of Mr. Leo Liu at Ouachita in January to begin teaching Chinese language and culture. The unfortunate events of more recent days may prevent further development of this missions and educational opportunity. We should pray daily for our friends in China.

Ouachita students won many honors which reflected well on the academic program. Swim team member Andy Allison, for instance, was named for the third consecutive year as an NAIA Academic All-American. Music students Jay Crowder and Amanda Allen placed first in the state and district auditions of the Federated Music Clubs and won second place in national competition. The Ouachitonian, a student publication, was named in a ceremony in New York as one of the four best college yearbooks in the nation. James McClintock, a graduating senior with a 4.0 grade point average in Biblical studies, was selected as the campus Academic Achiever of the Year. Students in many departments presented papers at state and regional meetings, and more than 30 young scholars participated in the activities of the Carl Goodson Honors Program.

Campus Facilities Improved

Improvements of the physical facilities at Ouachita continued during the year. The most notable improvement was the completion and dedication of R. A. "Brick" Lile Hall, the fifth and final building in the "megastructure" on the main campus. The Daniel R. Grant Plaza was completed. It is a lovely seating area in the center of the megastructure and library area, and it brings unity and beauty to the area. The Plaza was one of the tributes paid by the university to former President Daniel R. Grant.

The interior of Birkett Williams Cafeteria was completed during the Christmas break. New decor was established throughout, and a small presidential dining room was created for entertaining distinguished visitors on campus.

A major renovation provided for spacious new offices and conference rooms in Evans Student Center for the Dean of Students and his staff. This will provide maximum accessibility of the staff to students. The Tiger Gridiron Club provided funds for construction of a new weight room at Eddie Blackmon Field House, as well as general face-lifting of the field house.

A new roof was provided for the president's home, and a major redecorating project was completed at the home. Gabled roofs replaced the flat roofs on Ernest Bailey Hall, O. C. Bailey Hall and Daniel Dormitories. Ernest Bailey Hall received additional extensive renovation. The Starlite and Lancelot Apartment exteriors were painted.

Athletic Achievements

Among the athletic achievements for the year were number one finishes in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference by the women's tennis team and the women's volleyball team, both coached by Tona Wright. Coach Bob Gravett's track team finished second in the AIC and 13th among 110 teams in the national NAIA meet. The swimming team, under Coach Jimmy Dann, finished second in the New South Intercollegiate Swim League and placed ninth in the national meet. Greg Freeman won first place in both one-meter and three-meter diving in the national NAIA meeting.

Coach Bill Vining retired from coaching after 34 seasons at the helm of the Tiger men's basketball team. With a won-loss record of 555-390, he had won more games than any coach in the history of Arkansas basketball. Mike Reynolds, assistant to Vining for five years, was named the new head coach. Coach Vining was honored by a "Bill Vining Roast" featuring sports luminaries from the region. His former players and friends presented a car to him and his wife, Ann.

Financial Support

The operation of Ouachita continued "in the black," as it has been, with the exception of one year, for 19 years. That record was continued, however, only by stringent budgetary measures, including continuance of an indefensible gap between the salaries of Ouachita faculty and staff and those of faculty and staff at other institutions in the state.

Ouachita has four major sources of income for operations: student tuition, the Cooperative Program, endowment income, gifts and grants. Traditionally, gift and grant income has been applied to building and endowment needs. Student tuition income can rise substantially only if rates are raised substantially, because enrollment is in a "holding pattern" due to the decreasing number of 18-year-olds coming on the scene each year through 1994. The Cooperative Program allocation has, unfortunately, flattened. Endowment income has increased slightly, but only because more endowment has been secured. Interest rates have declined, affecting endowment income adversely. Thus, there is the continuing critical need for more Cooperative Program support.

Ouachita needs the support of all her friends as plans are formulated for provision for the last decade of the 20th century. It can be a great decade of progress which will position Ouachita to provide even greater service to Arkansas Baptists in the years beyond 2000. The encouragement and support of all Arkansas Baptists will be needed.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST COLLEGE

Walnut Ridge, Arkansas

D. Jack Nicholas, President

The report for 1987-88 noted that Southern Baptist College is in the process of significant change, i.e. new baccalaureate programs; older, more mature students; a revised perception of the college and its purpose; behavioral expectations of students expressed in less repressive and less legalistic terms; and, more rigorous course and program requirements.

Not all change is good but it is the conclusion for the SBC family that the changes mentioned above are making SBC a stronger institution of Christian higher education. The 1988-89 academic year was one of excitement, optimism and high morale and ended with the expectancy of an even greater year for 1989-90.

Elementary Education Degree Accredited

The college was advised on March 7, 1989, that the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools had, at its regular meeting on March 2-3, 1989, voted to confirm the recommendation of a NCA Evaluation Team that Southern Baptist College be approved for the offering of the Bachelor of Science in Education degree.

That action on March 2 also deferred the date for the next periodic examination of Southern Baptist College from 1990-91 to 1993-94. Of course, the college is very encouraged by these positive actions by its regional accrediting association because they affirm the quality of the faculty and the strength of the programs.

After a visit to the campus by representatives of the Arkansas Department of Education, that agency approved Southern Baptist College for state certified K-6 Elementary and 1-6 Elementary Teacher Education Programs.

The elementary education programs were started this fall and comprise the third academic area with a program leading to the baccalaureate degree. Four year degrees are also offered in Christian Ministries (with majors in pastoral ministry, religious education and church music) and in Business Administration.

Enrollment Shows Dramatic Increase

The on-campus enrollment was 517, the highest in 18 years. That number represents a 15 percent increase over the previous campus headcount of 450. Only two Southern Baptist Colleges reflected larger increases in enrollment. The full-time equivalent enrollment also was significantly higher.

Gift Income Up Significantly

Gift income for the 88-89 academic year exceeded $1,000,000-$170,000 above the preceding year. The major factor accounting for that increase was the receipts from the New Horizon's Campaign some of which was designated for capital improvements ($190,000) and some for endowment ($35,000). Endowment increased to $826,236. One hundred and nine first time donors gave to the college during the 1988-89 fiscal year.

Yet Another Year Completed in the Black

The Vice President for Business Affairs indicates that, by an extremely narrow margin, SBC operated in the black, but he admits that the past year was the most difficult of the eight years he has been business manager in terms of cash flow.

That may seem strange considering the increases in both enrollment and gifts to the institution. It needs to be remembered that the expenses are growing annually with the addition of the new baccalaureate programs, that the growth in enrollment was projected and budgeted, and that a substantial portion of the gifts received were designated for capital improvement and endowment and were not available for operational expenditures.

Nonetheless, we rejoice that the ninth straight year we have operated in the black.

In terms of the sources of revenues for the operation of the college, 47 percent came from tuition and fees, 22 percent from the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, 13 percent other gifts, 15 percent came from auxiliary enterprises, two percent from investment income and one percent from miscellaneous.

In terms of expenditures, each budget dollar was divided as follows: faculty salaries and instructional expense — 23 cents, student services — 14 cents, auxiliary expenses — 11 cents, administration and staff salaries — 13 cents, maintenance — 11 cents, institutional expenses — eight cents, scholarships — nine cents, support services — seven cents, debt service — four cents.

The renovation of the cafeteria has enhanced the overall appearance of the campus and the like-new facility provides a pleasant and attractive place for meals and fellowship for students, staff and guests.

The BSU Helps SBC to be “the Campus of Christian Purpose”

The Baptist Student Union continues to be the strongest and most active student organization on campus. Its leaders and activities set the tone for the student body and the campus.

For 1987-88 the Southern Baptist College BSU was first in the state of Arkansas and third in the nation in summer missionary appointments. The data are not all in for 1988-89 but it appears that the SBC/BSU will again be at the top in the number of summer missionaries furnished. Southern Baptist College students tend, as a group, to be more service oriented than most student groups.

We are pleased to be able to share these positive developments but the report would not be complete or balanced without pointing up some of the needs that go, as yet, unmet. Most pressing in such a list would be the following:

- Additional housing for married students
- Additional housing for single men
- Additional funds to raise salaries to a more competitive level
- A new chapel
- Additional scholarship funds
- A larger endowment
- Additional funds for faculty development.

We appreciate the support of Arkansas Baptists and take pleasure in serving them and ministering in their name. Please continue to pray for the college for we cannot properly do His work without His power.

WORLD HUNGER COMMITTEE

How can we help millions of starving people get food to eat when so many demands are made on our resources? This question expresses the frustration of most Arkansas Baptists. We, as your World Hunger Committee, have tried to do this through several means.

- 1) Education: Most Arkansas Baptists do not realize that 15 million people a year die from hunger or hunger related causes. Most do not realize that there is enough food produced to feed everyone in the world.
- 2) Special Projects: Giving direction to churches who are willing to address the problem. Many Arkansas churches are making a difference.
- 3) Resources: Distribution of materials and other helps to associations, churches and individuals.
- 4) Guest Speakers: Many churches called upon a member of the committee to come and share possibilities.
- 5) Direct Gifts: Many churches found they are helping through direct gifts to the hungry.

Independent Auditor's Report

The Executive Board
Arkansas Baptist State Convention
Little Rock, Arkansas

I have audited the statements of assets, liabilities, and fund balances arising from cash transactions of the Executive Board, Arkansas Baptist State Convention at December 31, 1989 and 1988 and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements, changes in operating fund balances-cash basis and changes in special fund balances-cash basis for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Convention's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audits provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my report dated March 10, 1989, I expressed an opinion that the 1988 financial statements fairly presented the assets, liabilities, and fund balances arising from cash transactions and the cash receipts and disbursements and changes in fund balances on the cash basis of accounting described in Note 1 to the financial statements. The Convention's management has excluded from the 1988 and the 1989 financial statements the operations of the Baptist Student Unions located on various college and university campuses that, in my opinion, should be included in order for the statements to be in conformity with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 1 to the financial statements. Accordingly, my present opinion on the 1988 cash basis financial statements, as presented herein, is different from that expressed in my previous report.

As discussed in Note 6 to the financial statements, certain funds in possession of the Arkansas Baptist Foundation were not included in the financial statements of the Executive Board, Arkansas Baptist State Convention for 1988 and for previous years. Accordingly, the 1988 cash basis financial statements have been restated, and an adjustment made to the January 1, 1988, fund balances to correct the omission.

As described in Note 1, the Executive Board's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements and in accordance with accounting practices followed by non-profit denominational organizations. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In my opinion, except for the effects of not including the operations of the Baptist Student Unions as discussed above, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and fund balances arising from cash transactions of the Executive Board, Arkansas Baptist State Convention at December 31, 1989 and 1988 and the cash receipts and disbursements and changes in fund balances for the year then ended on the basis on accounting described in Note 1.

My audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements referred to in the first paragraph taken as a whole. The accompanying information on pages 10 to 15 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the above financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements referred to above, and in my opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the above financial statements taken as a whole.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

The Executive Board maintains its records on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, revenue and related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In accordance with accounting practices followed by cash basis organizations, no provision has been made in the accompanying financial statements for depreciation of properties.

The Executive Board is exempt from income taxes pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and comparable provisions of state law.

These financial statements do not include the operations of the Baptist Student Unions located on college and university campuses.

Note 2: Investments

Purchased investments are recorded at cost; investments received by gift are recorded at market value at the date of acquisition. At December 31, 1989 and 1988 investments were as follows:

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 5: Employee benefit plan (continued)

Total retirement expense was $241,296 and $232,474 for 1989 and 1988, respectively, which represents 10% of the participating employees' compensation. Generally, under the terms of the plan the contributions from employer and voluntary contributions from employees, up to 15% of their compensation, are placed in the employee's account and upon retirement, these funds plus investment earnings are used to purchase an annuity for the employee.

Note 6: Restatement of prior year financial statements

During the current year Management became aware that certain assets in possession of the Arkansas Baptist Foundation legally belonged to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and should be included in these financial statements. The cash receipts and disbursements of these funds as well as the cash and fund balances have been included in these financial statements. The January 1, 1988, fund balances have been restated by an increase of $1,697,540 to reflect the balance at that date.

Arkansas Baptist State Convention
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions of Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes & Family Ministries as of December 31, 1989 and the related statement of revenue collected, expenditures made, capital additions, and changes in fund balances for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Agency's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, the accompanying financial statements are prepared on the cash basis and, accordingly, they are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, cash flows and fund balances arising from cash transactions of Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes & Family Ministries as of December 31, 1989 and the revenue collected and expenditures made during the year then ended on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES & FAMILY MINISTRIES

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 1989 AND 1988

Note 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

The financial statements are presented on a fund accounting basis using the cash transactions method. Revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Plant assets

Physical plant and equipment are stated at cost at date of acquisition or fair market value at date of donation in the case of gifts. Expenditures by the general fund for plant acquisitions are accounted for as transfers to the plant fund. In accordance with accounting policies of non-profit denominational organizations, no provision is made for depreciation of properties.

Other matters

All gains and losses arising from the sale, collection, or other disposition of investments and other noncash assets are accounted for in the fund owning the assets.

Note 2: Investments

Purchased investments are recorded at cost; donated investments are recorded at market value at the date of gift. At December 31, 1989 and 1988 investments were as follows:

	ABF Investments 1989			ABF Investments 1988

	$2,936,187	$2,950,312	$2,853,235	$2,847,833

Note 3: Employee benefit plan

The agency has a non-qualified, voluntary contributory employee retirement benefit plan administered by the Annuity Board, Southern Baptist Convention, for all full-time employees who have completed one year of service. Total pension expenses were $58,895 and $57,151 for 1989 and 1988, respectively, which represents 10% of the participating employees' compensation. Generally, under the terms of the plan the contributions from employer and voluntary contributions from employees up to 15% of their compensation, are placed in the employee's account and on retirement, these funds plus investment earnings are used to purchase an annuity for the employee.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 4: Boys Ranch, Harrison, Arkansas

The board of directors of Shawnee Valley Boys Ranch, Inc., a non-profit Arkansas corporation (the Donor), voted to conditionally offer its facilities, consisting of approximately 340 acres and various buildings and improvements near Harrison, Arkansas, to the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes & Family Ministries (the Donee). This gift is conditioned on the Donee establishing a family ministries unit on the site and operating it for two years. If the Donee is unable to include this unit in its operating budget within two years, the facilities will revert to the Donor with the Donor reimbursing Donee for any improvements it made. Since the gift is conditional, the property, with an estimated value of $260,000, has not been included in the accompanying financial statements. If the Donee satisfies the conditions and receives clear title, a formal appraisal will be prepared and the property recorded at its then appraised value.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Directors
Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, Inc.
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, Inc. at December 31, 1989 and 1988, and the related statements of support, revenue and expenses, changes in fund balances, and changes in cash flows the years then ended. These financial statements are responsibility of the Organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, Inc. at December 31, 1989 and 1988, and the results of its operations and its cash flow for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 1989 and 1988

Note 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

The Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, Inc. is a non-profit Arkansas corporation organized to operate a printing and publishing activity to aid and support the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

Basis of accounting

The financial statements are presented on a fund accounting basis utilizing the accrual method.

Marketable securities and investments

Marketable securities and investments are recorded at identified cost, if purchased, or at fair market value at date of gift, if donated.

Plant assets

Property and equipment are carried at cost. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Barton subscription deferred revenue

The Barton subscription deferred revenue account was established by income from investments placed with the Arkansas Baptist Foundation to provide free subscriptions of the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine for needy ministers throughout the state.

Blind ministry deferred revenue

From time to time, Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine will receive donations that are to be used to provide tape ministry to the blind throughout the state. The deferred revenue account was established to disclose the amount of unexpended restricted donations of this type.

Note 2: Property and equipment

A summary of property and equipment follows:

	1989	1988	Useful lives in years

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
 Little Rock, Arkansas

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets, liabilities, and fund balances of the Arkansas Baptist Foundation as of December 31, 1989 and 1988, and the related statements of revenues, expenses and other changes in fund balances for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on those financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and the significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Arkansas Baptist Foundation's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements with certain modifications, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities and fund balances of the Arkansas Baptist Foundation as of December 31, 1989 and 1988, and its revenue and expenses during the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements of the Arkansas Baptist Foundation taken as a whole. The supplemental information included at pages twelve through fifteen is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements of the Arkansas Baptist Foundation and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST FOUNDATION

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 1989 and 1988

Note 1: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

The Arkansas Baptist Foundation was incorporated under the laws of the State of Arkansas in 1949. Its purpose is to encourage Baptists in the proper management and final distribution of accumulated possessions. The Foundation's charter authorizes it to receive immediate gifts, or gifts by will or through trust, for the benefit of any institution or agency related, directly or indirectly, to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention or the Southern Baptist Convention.

The Board of Directors is composed of fifteen persons. Five are nominated each year by the Convention's nominating committee and elected at the annual session. The by-laws require that at least two-thirds of the Board be laypersons.

Investments are made based on guidelines approved by an investment committee composed of selected members of the Board of Directors after evaluation of the recommendations from investment counsel.

Trust Income

The Foundation does not charge fees or commissions to the trust fund beneficiaries with the exception of several trust funds managed on behalf of the Baptist Medical System Foundation. Thus, gross income generated from investments is distributed to the designated beneficiary, or reinvested as principal. However, upon receipt, investment income is deposited to an interest bearing account pending quarterly distribution to the respective beneficiaries. The interest earned from this account is allocated for the benefit of the Foundation's operating fund.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are presented on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements with the following exceptions. The income received from the Cooperative Program is recorded through a receivable to reflect the income in the period it is allocated to the Foundation; and quarterly distributions of income are recorded in the quarter that the income is earned and allocated to the respective beneficiaries. Thus, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the financial statements are not intended to present the financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. See Note 2 for specific policies related to investments and investment income.

Reclassifications

Certain amounts previously reported in financial statements for 1988 have been reclassified to facilitate comparability with 1989.

Depreciation

Depreciation has been recorded using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Description	Estimated Useful Life
Automobiles	3 years
Office furniture and equipment	3-5 years

Amounts charged to operating expenses for depreciation totaled $22,434 and $21,512 in 1989 and 1988, respectively.

Fund Accounting

The assets, liabilities and fund balances are reported in self-balancing fund groups, as follows:

- The Operating Fund includes resources that are available for support of the Foundation's operations.
- The Trust Funds include resources held and managed by the Foundation, in a fiduciary capacity, for the benefit of their respective beneficiaries (see Note 6).

Note 2: Investments and Investment Income

Investments are carried at cost or the fair market value of the instrument at the date of contribution. The Foundation does not adjust the cost of debt securities for amortization of premium and accretion of discount. Any premium or discount is recognized at the date of maturity or the date of sale, and the related gain or loss is then recognized with a resulting increase or decrease in the appropriate principal fund balance.

Investments in partnerships are recorded at cost upon acquisition. The Foundation does not adjust the cost basis of these partnership investments for reported income or losses, or for the periodic cash distributions generated by the partnership's operations. The Foundation records cash distributions as income to be distributed to the appropriate beneficiaries.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST FOUNDATION

Note 2: Investments and Investment Income (Continued)

Thus, all gains and losses associated with these investments are deferred and recognized upon disposal of the related investment or upon liquidation of the partnership.

Realized gains or losses on investment securities are recognized upon disposal of the related investments or at such time that the Board of Directors considers the investment worthless or significantly impaired (see Note 7). The financial statements are not adjusted to reflect unrealized gains or losses for the difference between cost and related market values of the investment portfolios. Net unrealized investment losses amounted to approximately $135,000 and $1,132,000 December 31, 1989 and December 31, 1988, respectively, as reflected in the following paragraph.

	December 31, 1989		December 31, 1988
	Carrying Value	Estimated Market Value	Carrying Value	Estimated Market Value

	$24,658,367	$24,523,271	$21,476,875	$20,344,327

The estimated market values of bonds, notes and stocks were obtained from the Foundation's brokerage firm's portfolio evaluation reports dated December 31, 1989 and 1988. The original purchase price of certificates of deposits, which does not include accrued interest, is used to establish market values. The carrying values for other assets such as mortgage participations, land, annuities, investment in partnerships, and non-negotiable securities were used as the estimated market value as current appraisals were not available.

Note 3: Pension Plan

The Foundation provides a defined contribution, contributory pension plan covering substantially all employees through the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The pension expense for the years ended December 31, 1989 and 1988 was $28,250 and $28,453, respectively. At December 31, 1989 and 1988 there were no unfunded liabilities.

Note 4: Lease Obligations

The Foundation leases its office space under a lease agreement requiring rental payments of $20,147 per year through January 31, 1990.

In November 1989, the lease agreement was extended, effective February 1, 1990, through January 31, 1993. The extended lease requires future approximate payments as follows:

1991	17,600
1992	18,100
	$ 52,800

Note 5: Income Taxes

Arkansas Baptist Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Note 6: Trust Funds Balances

In the management and investment of certain assets, the Foundation is authorized to serve as trustee/agent for any institution or agency affiliated directly or indirectly with the Arkansas Baptist State Convention or the Southern Baptist Convention. In addition, the Foundation serves as trustee for certain charitable trusts through which, for a period of time, trust income is distributed to the grantor or other non-charitable beneficiaries, and all or a predetermined percentage of the trust assets are designated for a Baptist cause. These assets and the respective fund balances are restricted as provided in the governing instrument and are for the exclusive benefit of their respective beneficiaries.

The Foundation, in its capacity as trustee/agent, maintains accounts with several national investment firms. Under the terms of the related account agreements, the investment firms hold in customer safekeeping stocks and bonds held for investment by the various trust funds. In addition, the Foundation maintains a cash position with the investment firms which facilitates the purchase and sale of securities. These accounts are also used to deposit the various interest and dividend payments received on the investments held in safekeeping.

Note 7: Subsequent Event

On December 9, 1988, a savings and loan association in which the Foundation maintained two certificates of deposit totalling $198,445, including interest, was placed into receivership by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC). The certificates of deposit represented a portion of the funds of several trust accounts (see Note 6) which the Foundation manages in a fiduciary capacity. One of the certificates was deposited in the name of the Foundation, as trustee, under the Foundation's tax identification number. The other certificate was deposited in the name, and under the tax identification number, of a specific trust fund to which it belonged. On May 18, 1989, the FSLIC informed the Foundation of an unfavorable ruling indicating that a total of $88,525 of the two certificates were uninsured and not subject to recovery from the FSLIC.

The Foundation filed a formal appeal to the FSLIC in July 1989, setting forth its position that because the funds were shared by several trust funds in which no one beneficiary held more than $100,000, the entire amount of both certificates of deposit should be recoverable.

The Foundation was notified on March 8, 1990 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), formerly FSLIC, that its appeal was denied and that no further administrative remedies were available. Thus, the uninsured portion of the certificates are not subject to recovery and the loss of investments of $88,525 was recorded within the 1989 financial statements.

Note 8: Executor Accounts

In addition to the various trust/agency funds that are under the Foundation's management (see Note 6), the Foundation serves as executor for various estates which provide for a portion of the estate's assets to be given to any institution or agency related, directly or indirectly, to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention or the Southern Baptist Convention. The assets, liabilities, income or expenses of these estates are not included within the Foundation's financial statements. Any assets received by the Foundation on behalf of an agency of the Arkansas or Southern Baptist Conventions are recorded on the books of the Foundation after the estate is settled and title to the assets passes to the related agency.

Gentlemen:

We have examined the balance sheet of Southern Baptist College as of June 30, 1989 and the related statements of changes in fund balances and current funds revenue, expenditures, and other changes for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the financial position of Southern Baptist College at June 30, 1989 and the changes in fund balances and the current funds revenue, expenditures, and other changes for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,

James H. Ramage, CPA

SOUTHERN BAPTIST COLLEGE
Summary of Significant Accounting Policies
June 30, 1989

The significant accounting policies followed by Southern Baptist College are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader.

Accrual Basis

The financial statements of Southern Baptist College have been prepared on the accrual basis except for depreciation accounting as explained in notes 1 and 2 to the financial statements. The statement of current funds revenues, expenditures, and other changes is a statement of financial activities of current funds related to the current reporting period. It does not purport to present the results of operations or the net income or loss for the period as would a statement of income or a statement of revenues or expenses.

To the extent that current funds are used to finance plant assets, the amounts so provided are accounted for as (1) expenditures, in the case of normal replacement of movable equipment and library books; (2) mandatory transfers, in the case of required provisions for debt amortization and interest and equipment renewal and replacement; and (3) transfers to a non-mandatory nature for all other cases where applicable.

Fund Accounting

In order to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of the resources available to the Institution, the accounts of the Institution are maintained in accordance with the principles of "fund accounting". This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds that are in accordance with activities or objectives specified. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying financial statements, funds that have similar characteristics have been combined into fund groups. Accordingly, all financial transactions have been recorded and reported by fund group.

Within each group, fund balances restricted by outside sources are so indicated and are distinguished from unrestricted funds allocated to specific purposes by action of the governing board. Externally restricted funds may only be utilized in accordance with the purposes established by the source of such funds and are in contrast with unrestricted funds over which the governing board retains full control to use in achieving any of its institutional purposes.

Endowment funds are subject to the restrictions of gift instruments requiring in perpetuity that the principal be invested and the income only be utilized. Term endowment funds are similar to endowment funds except that upon the passage of a stated period of time or the occurrence of a particular event, all or part of the principal may be expended. While quasi-endowment funds have been established by the governing board for the same purposes as endowment funds, any portion of quasi-endowment funds may be expended.

All gains and losses arising from the sale collection, or other disposition of investments and other noncash assets are accounted for in the fund which owned such asset. Ordinary income derived from investments, receivables, and the like is accounted for in the fund owning such assets, except for income derived from investments of endowment and similar funds, which income is accounted for in the fund to which it is restricted, if unrestricted, as revenues in unrestricted current funds.

All other unrestricted revenue is accounted for in the unrestricted current fund. Restricted gifts, grants, appropriations, endowment income and other restricted resources are accounted for in the appropriate restricted funds. Restricted current funds are reported as revenues and expenditures when expended for current operating purposes.

Other Significant Accounting Policies

Other significant accounting policies are set forth in the financial statements and the notes thereto.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST COLLEGE
Notes to Financial Statements
June 30, 1989

- 1a. The Current cash account for June 30, 1989 has a balance of $27,357.92 and the Investment account has a balance of $89,380.84. The college takes all available cash and invests into interest bearing accounts, CDs and money markets.
- 1b. Reserve and excess funds are kept invested in certificates of deposit or money market accounts. Checking accounts are also interest bearing accounts where possible. Total interest earned during the fiscal year on such short term investments amounted to $14,630.74 plus.
2. Investments exclusive of physical plant are recorded at cost if purchased. If received by gift it is carried at fair market value at the date of acquisition except certain issues which have declined in value where it was evident such decline was not due to temporary market conditions.

On January 27, 1976 Southern Baptist College and Arkansas Baptist Foundation negotiated a contract whereby the Foundation would administer endowment investments for the college. Initially investments with a book value of $63,923.79 were transferred to the Foundation. Another $27,709.19 was transferred to the Foundation on July 27, 1981 which was used to purchase corporate bonds. Since that date various amounts have been transferred to the Foundation at irregular intervals. Most of these funds except that used for corporate bonds were placed in the Pooled Investment Fund on which the income is distributed on a regular basis. Total for 1988-1989 was $6,859.38.

In 1985-1986 SBC placed with the Foundation an additional $100,000.00 to fund New Dimension endowment. Income from the New Dimension distribution in 1988-1989 was $8,633.60. On May 5, 1987 SBC and Arkansas Baptist Foundation negotiated a contract whereby the Foundation would administer additional endowment for the college called the New Horizon Campaign in the amount of $10,000.00. In 1987-1988 an additional $20,000.00 was placed and again in 1988-1989 another $36,000.00 for a total of $66,000.00. These funds were placed with the understanding that they could be withdrawn upon written request. Distribution from this account for fiscal year 1988-1989 was $3,444.36.

In addition to these Southern Baptist College is the ultimate beneficiary of investments with a market value totaling approximately $355,578.66 also held in trust by the Arkansas Baptist Foundation. The book value of these as of June 30, 1989 was $286,535.52. The Foundation regularly distributes the income earned on these investments to the college. Total distribution for the current period was $33,722.18.

3. Physical plant and equipment are stated at cost at date of acquisition or fair market value at date of donation in case of gifts except that an appraisal performed May 3, 1965 by a qualified independent appraiser resulted in an adjustment being recorded on the books at June 30, 1965. An increase of $489,312.12 was recorded for fixed assets. Assets that remain on the books total $9,235,812.12 consisting of land, land improvements, equipment and library books.
- No provision for depreciation has been taken into consideration in the property, plant and equipment as set forth in the Balance Sheet, Exhibit A. The Southerland Mabee Center, apartments for married students, Fine Arts, and President's Home have been secured on the mortgage loan with First National Bank of Walnut Ridge, Arkansas. Balance as of June 30, 1989 - $393,791.00.
- 4a. A detailed listing of notes and mortgages with a split-out of that portion due within one year is shown as Schedule A-1 at page 4 of this report.
- 4b. 1. The college entered into agreement with First National Bank of Lawrence County July 1987. The long term debt of notes on July 21, 1987 was combined into a 20 year adjusted annual rate of 3 1/2% over Federal Reserve Bank's discount rate (10.5) effective through June 30, 1990. Monthly payments will be $4,041.00. The outstanding balance June 30, 1989 - $393,791.00.
2. The college entered into an agreement with First National Bank of Lawrence County for a loan of $320,000.00 on the renovation of the cafeteria. The loan for renovation is set up for sixty months at 3% over Federal Discount Rate adjusted annually. Monthly payments will be $6,791.41. The outstanding balance as of June 30, 1989 - $307,153.00. Rate as of June 30, 1989 - 10%.
3. The college purchased a 1989 Eldorado bus. They have entered into a notes payable for 120 months at a rate of 10%, the monthly payments will be $594.75. Outstanding balance as of June 30, 1989 - $43,890.00.
5. Accounts receivable at June 30, 1989 were only $247.85 with a reserve of $2,000.00 representing those believed to be uncollectible. No additional amount was provided this year in reserve for uncollectibles. This is the eighth consecutive year that accounts receivable has been under $10,000.00. This has come about from strong collections of receivables by having the Business Office and Financial Aid Office working together on collecting receivables.

6. The Endowment of Southern Baptist College has increased from $780,735.91 on June 30, 1988 to the present amount of $826,235.91. Endowment has increased by $45,500.00 in 1988-1989.
7. Southern Baptist College has had an outstanding fund raising effort for 1988-1989. Total gifts for all funds come to $1,137,947.91.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Arkansas Baptist State Convention
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have audited the balance sheet of Ouachita Baptist University at May 31, 1989, and the related statements of changes in fund balances and current funds revenues, expenditures and other changes for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the University's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Ouachita Baptist University at May 31, 1989 and the changes in fund balances and the current fund revenues, expenditures and other changes for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

OUACHITA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
MAY 31, 1989

Note 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

The financial statements of Ouachita Baptist University are prepared generally on the accrual basis except for depreciation accounting as explained in Note 3.

The statement of current funds revenues, expenditures and other changes is a statement of financial activities of current funds related to the current reporting period. It does not purport to present the results of operations or the net income or loss for the period.

To the extent that current funds are used to finance plant assets, the amounts so provided are accounted for as (1) expenditures, in the case of amounts included in departmental budgets; (2) mandatory transfers, in the case of required provisions for debt amortization and interest and equipment renewal and replacement; and (3) transfers of a non-mandatory nature for all other cases.

In order to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of the resources available to the Institution, the accounts of the Institution are maintained in accordance with the principles of "fund accounting." This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds that are in accordance with activities or objectives specified. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying financial statements, funds that have similar characteristics have been combined into fund groups. Accordingly, all financial transactions have been recorded and reported by fund groups.

Within each fund group, fund balances restricted by outside sources are so indicated and are distinguished from unrestricted funds allocated to specific purposes by the governing board. Externally restricted funds may only be utilized in accordance with the purpose established by the source of such funds and are in contrast with unrestricted funds over which the governing board retains full control to use in achieving any of its institutional purposes.

Endowment funds are subject to the restrictions of gift instruments requiring in perpetuity that the principal be invested and the income only be utilized.

All gains and losses arising from the sale, collection or other disposition of investments and other non-cash assets are accounted for in the fund which owned such assets. Ordinary income derived from investments, receivables, and the like is accounted for in the fund owning such assets, except for income derived from investments of endowment and similar funds, which income is accounted for in the fund to which it is restricted or, if unrestricted, as revenues in unrestricted current fund.

 NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

All other unrestricted revenue is accounted for in the unrestricted current fund. Restricted gifts, grants, endowment income, and other restricted sources are accounted for in the appropriate restricted funds. Restricted current funds are reported as revenues and expenditures when expended for current operating purposes.

Other significant accounting policies are set forth in the financial statements and Notes 2 through 9 to financial statements.

Note 2: Investments

Purchased investments, exclusive of physical plant, are recorded at cost; investments received by gift are carried at market value at the date of acquisition. Investments by fund and type are as follows:

Physical plant and equipment are stated at cost at date of acquisition or fair value at date of donation in the case of gifts, except properties acquired prior to May 31, 1960, which are recorded at their appraised value at that date. Depreciation on physical plant and equipment is not recorded.

Note 4: Capital leases

The University leases two dormitory facilities under capital leases which expire in 1991 and 1992. Generally, these leases call for the University to pay all taxes, insurance and maintenance costs on the facilities. At the conclusion of the initial lease period, title to the dormitories passes to the University. The following is a schedule by year of future net minimum lease payments as of May 31, 1989:

Note 5: Long-term note payable

On December 1, 1988, the University borrowed $2,135,000 from the City of Arkadelphia Public Facilities Board. The loan represented the proceeds of the Public Facility Board's Ouachita Baptist University Project bond issue dated December 1, 1988, bearing interest at 6% to 6.9%, with interest only due each June 1 and varying principal amounts and interest due each December 1 through 1995. The loan agreement stipulates that Ouachita Baptist University make payments to the Public Facilities Board amounts sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the bonds as it is due. The loan proceeds were used for the construction and equipping of a new classroom building, other improvements and to refinance existing debt incurred to purchase equipment, renovate dormitories and acquire student housing. The loan is secured by a pledge of all the student tuition and fee revenues received by the University, subject to liens securing previously issued bonds. Scheduled principal payments for the five subsequent years ending May 31, are as follows:

1990	$250,000
1991	270,000
1992	285,000
1993	300,000
1994	320,000

Note 6: Bonds payable

Bonds are payable in annual installments varying from $3,000 to $29,000 with interest rates ranging from 2 3/4% to 3 3/8% with the final installment being due in 2006. They are collateralized by a trust indenture covering certain buildings with a carrying value of $2,100,833, pledged net revenues from operations of these buildings and a pledge of $42,000 annually of certain other revenues. Sinking fund requirements on bonds payable for the next five years are as follows:

1990	$88,766
1991	86,784
1992	87,755
1993	88,634

Note 7: Employee benefit plan

The University has a non-qualified, contributory employee retirement benefit plan administered by the Annuity Board, Southern Baptist Convention, for certain academic and non-academic employees. Total pension expense for the year was $227,160 which represents 7% of the participating employees' compensation. Generally, under the terms of the plan the employee and employer contributions are placed in the employees' account and on retirement, these funds plus investment earnings are used to purchase an annuity for the employee.

Note 8: Interfund borrowings

Interfund borrowings have been made from unrestricted funds or externally restricted funds awaiting use for their specified purpose. Generally, all interfund borrowings are payable currently without interest.

Note 9: Pledges

At May 31, 1989, the University had outstanding pledges of $825,622 which are not included in the accompanying balance sheet. It is not practicable to estimate the net realizable value of such pledges.
