QUACHITA - TALK

A WEEKLY NEWSLETTER TO THE QUACHITA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
FAMILY FROM THE OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF STUDENTS

Vol. IX No. 3, September 13, 1985

Eileen Southerland, a professor of music at Harvard University, will present a lecture entitled "Oral Traditions in the Black Church in Hymns, Spirituals, and Gospel Songs." The lecture will be the first of the Birkett Williams Lecture Series for the 1985-1986 school year. The lecture will be on Monday, September 16, at 8:00 p.m. in the Recital Hall of Mabee Fine Arts Center at Ouachita Baptist University.

Southern received a B.A. and M.A. degrees in music from the University of Chicago and a Ph.D. degree in musicology from New York University. She also attended Chicago Musical College, and Julliard for professional study in music.

She has received many academic, professional, and civic honors, including an honorary master of arts degree from Harvard University in January of 1976, and was appointed to the Editorial Board of "American Music," journal of the Sonneck Society in 1980. She has been listed in "Who's Who in American Music 1983," and "Baker's Biographical Dictionary of Music and Musicians" in 1979.

Southern has written numerous books, articles, and reviews, including "The Music of Black Americans: A History", and "Readings in Black American Music." She is a member of the College Music Society, Renaissance Society, and the National Association of Negro Music. The lecture is free and open to the public.

OBU HEALTH

SERVICE

The OBU health service has changed locations this year. Formerly, it was in Flenniken Memorial, but it has now moved to Cone Bottoms.

Please be sure your health record is on file at the university health service office. If you have not turned in your health record, please do so at your earliest convenience. We will provide you with the proper form.

It is imperative that we, at the University Health Service, have this information in the event that you may need our services for illness or injury.

About the Artist : JAN FARQUHAR

Jan holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Baylor University. Her emphasis is in Speech and Communications with extensive study in oral interpretation, rhetoric, and dramatic performance. She is an eight year student of expressionistic movement, acts as an instructor for community and church workshops, and serves as guest speaker for civic clubs and school and church events. She specializes in leading retreats, teaching seminars, and ministering at banquets, camps, fellowships, conventions and other assemblies where through audience and group interaction she enables the viewer to become a participant rather than just an observer.

NEEDED!!!

The cafeteria needs workers who are not assigned to other campus jobs. There are more jobs available for males, but both male and female are needed. The pay is $3.60/hour, and you do not have to qualify for financial aid.

If you are interested, please see Mr. Johnson or Mrs. Goodson in the Financial Aid Office as soon as possible!

WE NEED YOUR ASSISTANCE!
