In Memory

William Oscar Taylor

William Oscar Taylor was born October 22, 1890, in the home of his parents, William Jacob Taylor and Annie Green Taylor, near Hillsboro in Union County, Arkansas.

He received his early education in the one room, slate, and McGuffey's reader genre of schools prevalent in rural areas before and at the turn of the century. He worked as a farmhand for his father until he was 19, at which time he raised his own crop and was thus enabled to attend high school as a boarding student in Junction City, Arkansas.

He was converted at the age of 17 at Cane Creek Baptist Church and was immediately put into service as the church clerk and was soon a Sunday School teacher. His plan was to become a teacher himself, however, these plans were to be changed and after several sessions of teaching in the one room schools he surrendered to a call to the ministry and preached his first sermon at Caledonia Baptist Church in Union County October 21, 1912. He went on to attend Normal School in Conway (UCA), Ouachita Baptist College in 1912-14, and the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary from which he received his Th.M. degree in 1924. In 1912 he married Minnie Belle White. They had eight children, 18 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren and one great, great-grandchild.

He served as a pastor in various parts of Arkansas and also for 25 years in several positions as an associational missionary. An enthusiastic Baptist believer, he attended his first Southern Baptist Convention in 1918 and was a regular attendee at that annual convention throughout his life until shortly before his death. He led a group of men on a bus camping trip to the Baptist World Alliance in Atlanta in 1939. He was the founder of three associational camps: Ravenden Springs (now Cedar Glade), Baptist Vista and Wolf Creek Camp.

Though he retired from the active ministry at the age of 65, it could be more accurately stated that he transferred to other fields of endeavor. He worked for some time in the North Little Rock inner city mission and after two trips overseas in which he followed the steps of Paul's missions and journeyed through the world of Jesus, he returned to the life of a supply minister and guest speaker. In his eighties he cared for his invalid wife and wrote his two volume autobiographies, "The Old Timers Did It This Way" and "Seventy Years in the Ministry" and several treatises of genealogy. His 100th birthday was a day of statewide note in Arkansas and in his 100th year Ouachita Baptist University, his alma mater, awarded him an honorary Doctorate of Divinity.

In his 100th year he was still widely sought after as a speaker and raconteur and was known for his quotation of poetry. In recent years he had recorded several inspirational, seasonal, and religious tapes. He was an active gardener, read voluminously, carried on a large correspondence with his many friends and relatives, and continued to memorize new poetry. He was active in the First Baptist Church of Melbourne, Arkansas, where he lived next door to his daughter and her husband. He had been the oldest minister in the Southern Baptist Convention for many years and served as a messenger from his church to both that convention and the Arkansas Baptist State Convention until only a couple of years before his death. He preached his last formal sermon from the pulpit on his 105th birthday.

At the time of his death, perhaps more than ever, he continued to be a source of inspiration to others.

Section 2. The duration of this corporation shall be perpetual.

Section 3. The Agent for Service of Process of the corporation shall be the Executive Director-Treasurer of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, c/o the corporation's headquarters, 525 West Capitol Avenue, Little Rock, Arkansas 72201.

Article II. — The Purpose

Section 1. The purpose of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention is to assist the churches of the Convention in fulfilling their mission, and to encourage cooperative support of and involvement in our worldwide mission enterprise.

Section 2. The Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention on May 9, 1963, shall be the doctrinal guideline for this Convention.

Article III. — Membership

Section 1. The Convention shall be composed of messengers from regular Baptist churches which are in sympathy with the principles and purposes of this Convention, and which desire to cooperate with other churches through this Convention. Each messenger who is present at the time a matter is submitted to the messengers shall be entitled to one vote. No proxy voting shall be permitted.

Regular Baptist churches are those Baptist churches which in doctrine and in practice adhere to the principles and the spirit of The Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the 1963 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, and The Baptist Faith and Message shall not be interpreted as to permit open communion and/or alien immersion.

Section 2. Each cooperating church shall be entitled to three messengers, with one additional messenger for each additional one hundred members, or major fraction thereof above one hundred, provided however, that no church shall be entitled to a total of more than ten messengers.

Article IV. — Authority

Section 1. While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, this Convention shall never exercise any authority whatever over any church, nor shall it in any way interfere with the constitution of any church, or with the exercise of its functions as the only ecclesiastical body, but will cheerfully recognize and uphold the absolute independence of the churches.

Article V. — Officers

Section 1. The officers of this Convention shall be: President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Recording Secretary and Treasurer. Each officer of the Convention shall be elected annually, except the Recording Secretary and Treasurer who shall be the same person serving as the Executive Director-Treasurer of the Convention. The Executive Director-Treasurer of the Convention shall be elected by the Executive Board of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and shall continue in office until his successor in office shall have been elected and qualified.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the President to preside over the deliberations of the Convention and to discharge such other duties as may devolve upon the presiding officer of a deliberative body. He shall appoint all committees unless the Convention shall otherwise determine. In the absence of the President, one of the Vice-Presidents shall preside in his stead.

Section 3. The Executive Director-Treasurer of the Convention or his designee is authorized to execute and sign all official and legal documents involving transactions in agreement with the Restated Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and/or approved by the Convention, the Executive Board or its Operating Committee.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the Executive Director-Treasurer to keep a record of the proceedings of the convention, to edit and arrange publication of a suitable number of the minutes for distribution among the churches, as the Convention may direct, as soon as reasonably possible after the close of the annual meeting. He shall file and keep in order all papers deemed important to the work of the Convention.

Article VI. — The Executive Board

Section 1. This Convention shall elect a Board of Trustees which shall constitute the Board of Directors. This Board shall be known as the “Executive Board of The Arkansas Baptist State Convention.” This Board shall be composed of one member from the bounds of each cooperating association with a membership up to 5,000, and one additional member for each additional 5,000 constituency, or major fraction thereof, provided however, that no association shall be entitled to more than five (5) members. In addition, the Convention shall elect one lady from the bounds of each of the eight districts in the state to serve on the Executive Board. The President of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention shall be a member of the Executive Board with full rights and privileges. Upon the removal of any Executive Board member from the bounds of his or her association, his or her membership on the Executive Board ceases therewith. His or her successor in office shall be nominated by the Convention Nominating Committee and elected by the Convention in annual session to fill the unexpired term. No person shall be a member of this Board who is an employee of any board, institution or agency of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention or who is receiving financial aid from the State Convention. One-third of this Board shall be elected annually to hold office for three years, and a majority of the Board Members shall constitute a quorum. Any member of the Executive Board who misses all the Executive Board meetings and the Executive Board committee meetings for one year shall be automatically dropped from membership on the Board.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall manage the affairs of the Convention in keeping with the Convention’s instructions. The Executive Board shall raise, collect, receive and disburse all the funds of the Cooperative Program, for both state and Southern Baptist Convention causes. The offices of the Executive Board shall be a clearinghouse for administering the business affairs of the Convention, and a headquarters for Baptist information. Its books, records and files shall at all times be open for the reference and inspection of any cooperating church which may desire to examine them.

Section 3. The Executive Board of the Convention may authorize the withholding of Cooperative Program funds from any institution or agency which fails to act in conformity with its Articles of Incorporation or fails to utilize funds given the institution or agency by the Convention according to stipulations and conditions attached to those funds by the Convention.

serve for a term of three years. Any member of the Board of Trustees who misses all the meetings of that Board for one year shall be automatically dropped from membership on this Board.

Section 3. Each Board of Trustees shall elect from their membership a Chairman and a Recording Secretary and such other officers as seems advisable.

Section 4. All Trusteeships shall render to the Convention at each annual session complete and detailed reports of all transactions and business. The Trustees shall be sensitive to the expressions of the Convention's will in all matters.

(c) The Articles of Incorporation shall first be approved by the Convention and thereafter no amendment to the corporation's Articles of Incorporation shall be made without the prior consent of the Convention;

(d) A vote in favor of the proposed amendment(s) by a two-thirds majority of the messengers present and voting at the state convention shall constitute consent required by this section. No proposed amendment shall come before the Arkansas Baptist State Convention unless it has been reported to the Executive Board of the Convention at least sixty (60) days prior to the first session of the Convention's annual meeting; and

(e) The corporation is organized exclusively for religious, educational, or charitable purposes. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distribution in furtherance of its charitable purposes. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, convey all of the assets of the corporation to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention if at that time the Arkansas Baptist State Convention qualifies as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

Article VIII. — Operation of Agencies

Section 1. Each board, agency, and institution of this Convention shall submit to the Executive Board at its annual budget planning meeting, which is to be held prior to the annual meeting of the Convention, a detailed statement of its sources of income, and a budget of proposed expenditures for the ensuing year. When received and adopted by the Convention, these budgets shall become the basis for the ensuing year.

Section 2. No appeals for funds may be made to churches without the recommendation of the Executive Board and the approval of the annual convention in session, other than appeals through the Cooperative Program or from the annual Children's Homes and Family Ministries and the Dixie Jackson State Mission offerings. Other appeals may be made to individuals, organizations, corporations or foundations.

Section 3. A deficit in a board, agency or institution operational budget for any year shall be reported to the Executive Board and the convention in annual session.

Such deficit may not be carried over into the second year without the approval of the Executive Board and the convention in annual session as to how this deficit will be eliminated.

Article X. — Amendments

Section 1. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members voting and concurring in two successive annual meetings of the convention, except Article IV, which shall remain forever unalterable in substance.

Section 2. Any proposed amendment to the Articles of Incorporation shall be presented to the Convention in writing, for its consideration, upon the first day of the annual session, and may be voted on, on any subsequent day during the meeting, provided adequate publicity has been given by previous announcement.

The boundaries of such districts shall be drawn so as to provide equitable geographical and numerical voice and representation on all convention committees, commissions, and boards, except the Executive Board. Each tenth year hereafter, the whole matter of districts shall be readjusted to take in consideration the flow of membership in our Baptist churches.

Article XIII. — Internal Revenue Requirements

Section 1. The corporation is organized exclusively for religious purposes. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distribution in furtherance of its charitable purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in [including the publishing or distribution of statements] any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 2. Section 3. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Executive Board shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, convey all of the assets of the corporation to an organization which qualifies as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Code.

action as may seem necessary, and all interests concerned shall be governed by such action, provided the Executive Board shall make full report of all matters pertaining thereunto to the next session of the Convention for its approval, and provided further, that nothing in this article shall be construed as giving the Executive Board authority to execute any matters already committed by the Convention to any of its agency or institutional Boards of Trustees.

5. Churches Ordinances (1965 Annual, page 31)
Resolution adopted. Whereas, in the past, the most general interpretation of the New Testament, and the most general interpretation of the Word 'principles' as it is used in Article 3, Section 1, of our constitution, and the most prevalent practice of Baptist churches in Arkansas with reference to the church ordinances, has been what is commonly called "closed baptism" and "closed communion," and
Whereas, it is recorded on page 57 of the minutes of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention meeting in Fort Smith in 1937 that the Convention officially objected to the teaching of alien immersion and open communion in one of our seminaries, thereby establishing a precedence for future conventions, therefore.
Be it resolved that the Arkansas Baptist Convention, meeting in its 112th annual session, go on record as objecting to the reception of alien immersion and the practice of open communion, and
Be it further resolved that we urge churches everywhere to reexamine the New Testament teaching on baptism and the Lord's Supper.
6. Federal Aid (1965 Annual, page 43)
Resolution adopted, Whereas, Arkansas Baptists have been faced with the issue of Federal aid to private institutions, and, whereas many feel that the acceptance of such funds violates the cherished Baptist position of the separation of church and state, therefore, be it resolved that the Arkansas Baptist State Convention go on record as reaffirming our traditional Baptist position on the separation of church and state, and that we urge all of our Baptist institutions and programs to respect this principle.
7. Executive Board Recommendations (1963 Annual, page 35)
Voted that all recommendations of the Executive Board will be published in the Arkansas Baptist News Magazine one month prior to the meeting of the State Convention.

12. Out-of-state participation by Executive Board staff (1953 Annual, page 22)
Voted that we recommend the Cooperative Program as the best method of giving financial support to the Baptist work at home and abroad. We discourage any of the departments of our Arkansas Baptist work in accepting invitations to participate in the work of missions outside of our regular work within our state territory, at the expense of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention Departments involved. Further, we request our Executive Director of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and the President of the Executive Board confer with the heads of all Southern Baptist agencies expressing our concern about the practices of asking State Convention departments to give employees to such efforts outside our state, unless expenses and salaries are provided for by the agencies that use such workers.
13. Seating of Messengers (1949 Annual, page 92)

THE BAPTIST FAITH AND MESSAGE

I. THE SCRIPTURES

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is the record of God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. It reveals the principles by which God judges us; and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. The criterion by which the Bible is to be interpreted is Jesus Christ.

Ex. 24:4; Deut. 4:1-2; 17:19; Josh. 8:34; Psalm 19:7-10; 119:11, 89, 105, 140; Isa. 34:16; 40:8; Jer. 15:16; 36; Matt. 5:17-18; 22:29; Luke 21:33; 24:44-46; John 5:39; 16:13-15; 17:17; Acts 2:16ff; 17:11; Rom. 15:4; 16:25-26; 2 Tim. 3:15-17; Heb. 1:1-2; 4:12; 1 Peter 1:25; 2 Peter 1:19-21

II. GOD

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

B. God the Son

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ he was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself the demands and necessities of human nature and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His death on the cross, He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the Person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, partaking of the nature of God and of man, and in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the assurance of God to bring the believer into the fulness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. MAN

Man was created by the special act of God, in His own image, and is the crowning work of His creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by His Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God and fell from his original innocence: whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin, and as soon as they are capable of moral action become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore every man possesses dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

IV. SALVATION

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, sanctification, and glorification.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace. Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer into a relationship of peace and favor with God.

B. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual perfection through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

C. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

Gen. 3: 15; Ex. 3: 14-17; 6: 2-8; Matt. 1: 21; 4: 17; 16: 21-26; 27: 22 to 28: 6; Luke 1: 68-69; 2: 28-32; John 1: 11-14, 29; 3: 3-21, 36; 5: 24; 10: 9, 28-29; 15: 1-16; 17: 17; Acts 2: 21; 4: 12; 15: 11; 16: 30-31; 17: 30-31; 20: 32; Rom. 1: 16-18; 2: 4; 3: 23-25; 4: 3ff.; 5: 8-10; 6: 1-23; 8: 1-18, 29-39; 10: 9-10, 13; 13: 11-14; 1 Cor. 1: 18, 30; 6: 19-20; 15: 10; 2 Cor. 5: 17-20; Gal. 2: 20; 3: 13; 5: 22-25; 6: 15; Eph. 1: 7; 2: 8-22; 4: 11-16; Phil. 2: 12-13; Col. 1: 9-22; 3: 1ff.; 1 Thess. 5: 23-24; 2 Tim. 1: 12; Titus 2: 11-14; Heb. 2: 1-3; 5: 8-9; 9: 24-28; 11: 1-12, 14; James 2: 14-26; 1 Peter 1: 2-23; 1 John 1: 6 to 2: 11; Rev. 3: 20; 21: 1 to 22: 5

V. GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is a glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the cause of Christ, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Gen. 12: 1-3; Ex. 19: 5-8; 1 Sam. 8: 4-7, 19-22; Isa. 5: 1-7; Jer. 31: 3ff.; Matt. 16: 18-19; 21: 28-45; 24: 22, 31; 25: 34; Luke 1: 68-79; 2: 29-32; 19: 41-44; 24: 44-48; John 1: 12-14; 3: 16; 5: 24; 6: 44-45, 65; 10: 27-29; 15: 16; 17: 6, 12, 17-18; Acts 20: 32; Rom. 5: 9-10; 8: 28-39; 10: 12-15; 11: 5-7, 26-36; 1 Cor. 1: 1-2; 15: 24-28; Eph. 1: 4-23; 2: 1-10; 3: 1-11; Col. 1: 12-14; 2 Thess. 2: 13-14; 2 Tim. 1: 12; 2: 10, 19; Heb. 11: 39-12: 2; 1 Peter 1: 2-5, 13; 2: 4-10; 1 John 1: 7-9, 2: 19; 3: 2

VI. THE CHURCH

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is a local body of baptized believers who are associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel, observing the two ordinances of Christ, committed to His teachings, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth.

This church is an autonomous body, operating through democratic processes under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In such a congregation members are equally responsible. Its Scriptural officers are pastors and deacons.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all ages.

VII. BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

Matt. 3:13-17; 26:26-30; 28:19-20; Mark 1:9-11; 14:22-26; Luke 3:21-22; 22:19-20; John 3:23; Acts 2:41-42; 8:35-39; 16:30-33; Acts 20:7; Rom. 6:3-5; 1 Cor. 10:16, 21; 11:23-39; Col. 2:12

VIII. THE LORD'S DAY

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should be employed in exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, and by refraining from worldly amusements, and resting from secular employments, work of necessity and mercy only being excepted.

IX. THE KINGDOM

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

X. LAST THINGS

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

XI. EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by personal effort and by all other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

Gen. 12:1-3; Ex. 19:5-6; Isa. 6:1-8; Matt. 9:37-38; 10:5-15; 13:18-30, 37-43; 16:19; 22:9-10; 24:14; 28:18-20; Luke 10:1-18; 24:46-53; John 14:11-12; 15:7-8, 16; 17:15; 20:21; Acts 1:8; 2:8; 26:40; 10:42-48; 13:2-3; Rom. 10:13-15; Eph. 3:1-11; 1 Thess. 1:8; 2 Tim. 4:5; Heb. 2:1-3; 11:39 to 12:2; 1 Peter 2:4-10; Rev. 22:17

XII. EDUCATION

The cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is coordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

Deut. 4:1, 5, 9, 14; 6:1-10; 31:12-13; Neh. 8:1-8; Job 28:28; Psalm 19:7ff.; 119-11; Prov. 3:13ff.; 4:1-10; 8:1-7, 11; 15:14; Eccl. 7:19; Matt. 5:2; 7:24ff.; 28:19-20; Luke 2:40; 1 Cor. 1:18-31; Eph. 4:11-16; Phil. 4:8; Col. 2:3, 8-9; 1 Tim. 1:3-7; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:14-17; Heb. 5:12 to 6:3; James 1:5; 3:17

XIII. STEWARDSHIP

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

Gen. 14:20; Lev. 27:30-32; Deut. 8:18; Mal. 3:8-12; Matt. 6:1-4, 19-21; 19:21; 23:23; 25:14-29; Luke 12:16-21, 42; 16:1-13; Acts 2:44-47; 5:1-11; 17:24-25; 20:35; Rom. 6:6-22; 12:1-2; 1 Cor. 4:1-2; 6:19-20; 12:16:1-4; 2 Cor. 8-9; 12:15; Phil. 4:10-19; 1 Peter 1:18-19

XIV. COOPERATION

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or comprise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

Ex. 17:12; 18:17ff.; Judg. 7:21; Ezra 1:3-4; 2:68-69; 5:14-15; Neh. 4; 8:1-5; Matt. 10:5-15; 20:1-16; 22:1-10; 28:19-20; Mark 2:3; Luke 10:1ff.; Acts 1:13-14; 2:1ff.; 4:31-37; 13:2-3; 15:1-35; 1 Cor. 1:10-17; 3:5-15; 12; 2 Cor. 8-9; Gal. 1:6-10; Eph. 4:1-16; Phil. 1:15-18

XV. THE CHRISTIAN AND THE SOCIAL ORDER

Every Christian is under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in his own life and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Christ Jesus. The Christian should oppose in the spirit of Christ every form of greed, selfishness, and vice. He should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

Ex. 20:3-17; Lev. 6:2-5; Deut. 10:12; 27:17; Psalm 101:5; Mic. 6:8; Zech. 8:16; Matt. 5:13-16, 43-48; 22:36-40; 25:35; Mark 1:29-34; 2:3ff.; 10:21; Luke 4:18-21; 10:27-37; 20:25; John 15:12; 17:15; Rom. 12-14; 1 Cor. 5:9-10; 6:1-7; 7:20-24; 10:23 to 11:1; Gal. 3:26-28; Eph. 6:5-9; Col. 3:12-17; 1 Thess. 3:12; Philemon; James 1:27; 2:8

XVI. PEACE AND WAR

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love.

Isa. 2:4; Matt. 5:9, 38-48; 6:33; 26:52; Luke 22:36, 38; Rom. 12:18-19; 13:1-7; 14:19; Heb. 12:14; James 4:1-2

XVII. RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

Gen. 1:27; 2:7; Matt. 6:6-7, 24; 16:26; 22:21; John 8:36; Acts 4:19-20; Rom. 6:1-2; 13:1-7; Gal. 5:1, 13; Phil. 3:20; 1 Tim. 2:1-2; James 4:12; 1 Peter 2:12-17; 3:11-17; 4:12-19

The first decision made was to escrow Cooperative Program funds for Ouachita Baptist University until a resolution of the problem could be achieved and any expenses directly related to Ouachita's trustee action, including meeting expenses, committee travel, legal expenses, and postage for mailings, will be taken out of the escrowed funds. The second decision was to authorize Emil Turner, executive director, Arkansas Baptist State Convention, to engage legal counsel to research the legality of Ouachita's actions and the options available to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. The third decision was to authorize Emil Turner and Chuck McAlister to nominate a Reconciliation Committee to work as a joint committee with Ouachita Baptist's Charter and Bylaws Committee to strive to resolve the problem. Appointed to the Reconciliation Committee was Bill Eliff, pastor, First Baptist Church, Little Rock, Stephen Davis, pastor, First Baptist Church, Russellville, Rex Horne, pastor, Immanuel Baptist Church, Little Rock, Barry King, pastor, Tumbling Shoals Baptist Church, and Chuck McAlister. It was submitted by a 4 to 1 vote by the Reconciliation Committee to the Executive Committee of the Executive Board. The Executive Committee voted unanimously to submit to the Executive Board a recommendation that the agreement be adopted. The Executive Board on November 18 voted overwhelmingly to recommend the agreement to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention for approval. Chuck McAlister stated that the agreement would start a good faith process that would culminate with the final approval of Bylaw changes at the 1998 convention. President Horne announced time to vote. Gary Akers, chairman, Tellers Committee, gave instructions for voting. The proposed recommendation for Selection of Trustees for Ouachita Baptist University is as follows. (See No. 46 for voting results)

SELECTION OF TRUSTEES FOR OUACHITA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY

Introduction

The Executive Board of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and the Board of Trustees of Ouachita Baptist University recommend the following proposal to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. The Executive Board and the Ouachita Baptist University Board recommend that this trustee selection process be implemented in 1997.

Proposal

The Corporation (Ouachita Baptist University) shall have a Board of Trustees which shall constitute the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The Board of Trustees shall exercise all powers and authority granted the board of directors of a nonprofit corporation pursuant to the applicable laws of the State of Arkansas. Any reference herein to a director or the board of directors will be deemed to refer to the Trustees and the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall exercise oversight, management, and sole control of the Corporation and its affairs and property and may do all such lawful acts and things that are not prohibited by the applicable Arkansas statutes or by the Corporation's articles.

The number of trustees constituting the Board of Trustees, and the means of their appointment or election, shall be as follows:

(a) The Board of Trustees shall consist of no more than twenty-four trustees, consisting of the trustees presently designated in the Corporation's articles, and their successors.

(b) The regular term of office of each Trustee shall be three years, beginning with the first regular Board of Trustees meeting after the annual meeting of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention (the "December OBU Meeting"), and ending at the December OBU Meeting three years thereafter. The term of office of any existing Trustee which would otherwise expire during a calendar year shall be extended so that it shall expire with the December OBU Meeting of that calendar year. Any currently serving Trustee who was appointed by the Board to fill a vacancy created by death or resignation of a trustee shall serve the remainder of the term of the Trustee whose death or resignation created the vacancy. Each Trustee shall continue to serve until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified.

(c) The Trustees of the Corporation shall be divided into three Classes - - Class I, Class II, and Class III - - each consisting of eight Trustees, according to the beginning and expiration dates of their terms of office, as follows:

1. The terms of office of the existing Class I Trustees, as shown below, shall expire at the December OBU Meeting in 1997, and the terms of office of future Class I Trustees elected as herein provided shall expire at each three-year interval thereafter;
2. The terms of office of the existing Class II Trustees, as shown below, shall expire at the December OBU Meeting in 1998, and the terms of office of future Class II Trustees elected as herein provided shall expire at each three-year interval thereafter; and

3. The terms of office of the existing Class III Trustees, as shown below, shall expire at the December OBU Meeting in 1999, and the terms of office of future Trustees elected as herein provided shall expire at each three-year interval thereafter.

(d) For convenience of reference, each of the eight positions in each Class shall be referred to as a Place, bearing the numbers one through eight.

(e) The existing Board of Trustees consists of the following Trustees, serving in the Classes and Places set forth below:

Class I - Terms Expire December 1997

Place 1 Augusta Boatright	Place 2 Mike Carroll	Place 3 Mike Huckabee
Place 4 Wesley Kluck	Place 5 John Miller	Place 6 H. E. Raines
Place 7 John Ward	Place 8 Diane Williamson

Class II - Terms Expire December 1998

Place 1 George H. Dunklin	Place 2 Jack Hazelwood	Place 3 Gail Pennington
Place 4 Paul Sanders	Place 5 Bryan E. Smith	Place 6 John R. Stipe
Place 7 Mike Vinson	Place 8 Richard Wells

Class III - Terms Expire December 1999

Place 1 Cotton Cordell	Place 2 Stephen Davis	Place 3 Bill Elliff
Place 4 John L. Heflin, Jr.	Place 5 Bernice Y. Jones	Place 6 Larry Kircher
Place 7 Pauline Morrow	Place 8 William H. Sutton

(f) Commencing with the election of Class I Trustees to serve terms of office beginning in December 1997 and continuing from year to year thereafter, the Arkansas Baptist State Convention shall annually elect the trustees by vote of the messengers at the annual convention of the body held immediately prior to the commencement of such terms of office. The Trustees shall be recommended from nominees jointly approved by Resolution of the Board of Trustees (acting as a Board or through a Committee specifically authorized to act on behalf of the Board) and by the Nominating Committee of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention (or by such other Committee as may be from time to time designated by the Convention).

This joint committee shall be composed of an equal number of persons from the Arkansas Baptist State Convention Nominating Committee and the Ouachita Baptist University committee authorized to act on behalf of the Board. Messengers at the annual convention may nominate replacement trustees for those Places in which a first-term Trustee is nominated, provided such nominations are made for individual Places and not an entire slate of recommended Trustees. Trustees so elected by the Convention shall take office at the December OBU Meeting following their election.

Any and all vacancies in the Board of Trustees existing as of the implementation of this proposal, any vacancies arising hereafter by reason of the death, resignation or removal of a Trustee, any vacancy or unfilled position arising from any failure of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention to elect Trustees in accordance with this Proposal, and any vacancies arising for any other reason, may be filled by a majority of the then serving members of the Board of Trustees (and by no other person or entity) at such time as it may deem appropriate. The Board of Trustees is not required to fill any such vacancy. Any persons so selected to fill a vacancy shall be assigned by the Board to serve in an identified Place in a particular Class, to serve the remainder of the year for the Place which the Trustee is filling. At the end of that year, the joint committee of the Nominating Committee and Board of Trustees shall recommend a replacement for this Place, which will be considered a new nominee.

Each Trustee elected shall be a Baptist. The Corporation's Bylaws may establish additional qualifications to serve as Trustee.

Beginning with the election of Class II Trustees to serve terms of office beginning in December 2001, and at all elections thereafter, no person shall be elected as a Trustee for an additional consecutive term of office immediately following two or more consecutive three year terms. However, any former Trustee may be re-elected, notwithstanding previous service of two or more consecutive terms, after a one year period during which the Trustees was not serving as a Trustee. The limitation in this subsection shall not become effective until the election of Trustees to serve terms of office beginning in December 2001. At such time the limitation set out in this subsection will become fully effective and shall be applicable to all persons then or thereafter serving as Trustees who have at the time of any election served two or more consecutive three year terms as Trustees.

Trustees may be removed from office only for cause, and only by vote of the Trustees, acting by a vote of two-thirds of the Trustees then in office, at a meeting where notice of the proposed removal has been provided to the Trustees.

It is understood that good faith and a spirit of cooperation and respect are essential for this plan to be followed. It is in the spirit that it has been recommended and it is in that prayerful spirit that we petition our respective institutions to follow it.

RECOMMENDATION NO. 2

1998-2002 Unified Budget Formula for the Arkansas Baptist State Convention

41. Chuck McAlister presented Recommendation No. 2 1998-2002 Unified Budget Formula for the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Motion seconded and carried.

I. Budget

The budget shall be based and governed by a weighted average of the ratio between the six month increase (or decrease) and the early increase (or decrease) for the three preceding years. The Executive Board, upon recommendation coming out of the budget planning process, can alter the dollar amount of the total budget plus or minus ten percent (10%), taking into consideration the economic forecast and the condition of the Cooperative Program reserve balance.

II. Southern Baptist Convention Causes

The percent increase for Southern Baptist Convention causes shall be equal to the average percentage increase of the previous five (5) years of church gifts to the Cooperative Program as a percentage of the total Undesignated gifts to churches reported in the Annual Church Profiles. The maximum increase each year shall be one percent (1%), but in no year will the percentage be decreased.

III. State Causes

Arkansas Baptist State Convention agencies, institutions, Executive Board programs, and other state causes shall receive an increase in their respective Cooperative Program allocations equal to the percentage increase in the amount allocated to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention over the prior year. If the state distribution is a decrease from the prior year, then all shall receive an equal percentage reduction equal to the percentage reduced to the state portion of the Cooperative Program distribution.

The state entities are Ouachita Baptist University, Williams Baptist College, the Arkansas Baptist Foundation, the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes and Family Ministries, and the Executive Board programs. Other funds included in state causes are the annual Convention fund, the Church Annuity Plan, and the Ministerial Education Scholarship Fund.

IV. Overages

All funds received above the sum of II and III shall be placed in a Cooperative Program reserve fund. This fund shall be used to supplement Cooperative Program receipts in the event of shortage in any given year.

V. New Programs or Ministries

In keeping with the Unified Budget concept, the funding of new or additional programs or ministry changes approved by the Convention in annual session shall be accomplished by subtracting the new program or ministry cost from the total of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention budget for the year the new program or ministry goes into effect. The remainder of the budget in that year will be distributed by the current budget formula. This results in all Arkansas Baptist State Convention agencies, institutions, the Executive Board, and the Southern Baptist Convention Cooperative Program sharing proportionately in the cost of the new program or ministry.

The amount for the new program or ministry will be added to the budget of the appropriate entity in the succeeding year. This total then becomes the new budget base for future increases or decreases.

VI. Motions to Alter this Financial Plan

Motions made by messengers at the annual state convention dealing with financial support or changes in allocations of funds must be referred to the Executive Board of the Convention and the trustees of the appropriate agency or institution and reported to the next convention in annual session.

VII. Budget Formula Period

This formula will be operative beginning in the budget year 1998 through the budget year 2002 at which time a review will be made by the Executive Board.

RECOMMENDATION NO. 4

Extending Arkansas-European Baptist Convention Partnership

The Executive Board recommends that the Arkansas-European Baptist Convention Partnership be extended through December 31, 1999.

Background: This partnership originated January 1, 1994 as a joint partnership of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, and the European Baptist Convention. Arkansas Baptists voted during the 1995 convention to extend the three-year partnership through December 31, 1997. The leadership of the European Baptist Convention has expressed appreciation for the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and its participation with them in taking the gospel to the English speaking population of Europe, Dr. James Heflin, Arkansas native and General Secretary Elect of the European Baptist Convention, and the European Baptist Convention Partnership Committee have expressed a strong desire for this partnership to continue.

Dr. John Floyd, Foreign Mission Board Area Director of Europe, spoke on behalf of the Foreign Mission Board to encourage an extension of the partnership. He wrote, "The fact is that English in Europe today is similar to what Greek was in Paul's day...I firmly believe that the European Baptist Convention churches make a very significant contribution to evangelism and discipleship in Europe. I feel the investment your state is making is money well spent. It probably gets a higher return on the dollar than many other mission investments that are made on that scale."

The resolution as amended was passed. The changes are noted in bold.

RESOLUTION NO. 2 - APPRECIATION FOR GAMBLING OPPOSITION

WHEREAS, gambling is an activity that violates many biblical principles; and

WHEREAS, gambling proponents used many millions of dollars to influence voters of Arkansas to approve an amendment that would legalize a lottery, casino gambling, and charitable bingo; and

WHEREAS, the Christian Civic Foundation and the Christian Civic Action Committee fought the gambling interests and the proposed amendment with limited funds but great resolution; and

WHEREAS, the voters of Arkansas soundly defeated the proposed amendment on the November ballot to legalize gambling of various dimensions,

84. Ron Sanders presented Resolution No. 3, Sanctity of Human Life and moved for adoption. Motion seconded and carried.

RESOLUTION NO. 3 - SANCTITY OF HUMAN LIFE

WHEREAS, the Bible clearly establishes the sanctity of human life in that God created humans in His own image and no conception of a person can occur beyond His direct or permissive will; and

WHEREAS, an unprecedented assault against human life is escalating against preborn humans and other persons, such as the elderly, infirmed, and deformed, and for whom some arbitrary, humanistic measurement has found that they are unable to possess "quality of life"; and

WHEREAS, the current administration in Washington, D.C. represents a pro-abortion agenda that rejects the positions regarding the sanctity of human life as declared by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention; and

WHEREAS, there is a demand from opponents of life to legalize doctor-assisted suicide and to create greater opportunity for the despondent to bring an end to their own lives.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, meeting at Geyer Springs First Baptist Church, Little Rock, Arkansas, November 19 and 20, 1996, hereby state in no equivocal terms our reaffirmation of the sanctity of human life.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we abhor the taking of innocent, defenseless preborn human lives, that we state our position that abortion can only be justified if it is absolutely necessary to save the physical life of the mother, and that we will spare no effort in opposing any federal or state law that will further legitimize infanticide.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call on the current administration to reverse its pro-abortion agenda and adopt a biblically sound philosophy regarding human life at all stages of development.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we stand united in opposition to the growing dependence on active euthanasia based on humanistic, arbitrary quality of life decisions, which serve only to cut short an individual's life and usurp God's authority in the context of human life and death situations.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call on all Christians everywhere to work for the passage of pro-life legislation that will serve to reestablish respect for and protection of human life at all stages.

RESOLUTIONS NO. 4: HOMOSEXUALITY

WHEREAS, the Bible unquestionably indicts homosexual behavior as unnatural, perverted and destructive; and

WHEREAS, the traditional family, namely people living together who are related by blood, marriage, or adoption, was instituted by God and critical to His divine plan for mankind and worthy of our staunchest defense; and

WHEREAS, it is paramount to relate to those caught up in the tragic lifestyle of homosexuality with Christ-like and redemptive love while addressing the impropriety of their behavior.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, meeting at Geyer Springs First Baptist Church, Little Rock, Arkansas, November 19 and 20, 1996, express to those living this chosen lifestyle God's love and forgiving nature while revealing that their behavior is contrary to biblical standards and fraught with serious spiritual, psychological and physical risks.

THEREFORE, BE FURTHER RESOLVED that we will vigorously defend, protect and promote the traditional family and oppose the passage of laws and adoption of policies which seek to validate same-sex unions and which attempt to confer privileges and benefits that should be restricted to heterosexual marriages.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we encourage the Arkansas legislature to pass appropriate laws which support the traditional view of marriage and which also oppose recognition of same-sex marriages.

86. Carolyn Shell presented Resolution No. 5, Pornography and moved for adoption. Motion seconded and carried.

RESOLUTION NO. 5: PORNOGRAPHY

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, meeting at Geyer Springs First Baptist Church, Little Rock, Arkansas, November 19 and 20, 1996, strenuously object to the perverted, destructive and wholly unredeeming pornographic material which cheapens human sexuality by displaying men, women, and children as sex objects.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we support the prosecution of producers and distributors of such pornography and demand of our criminal justice officials that they be diligent in their mandate to enforce our obscenity laws by pursuing violators.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we will promote wholesome and responsible depiction of human sexuality in the broadcast and print media in an effort to halt the ever increasing limits of what is acceptable and suitable for family entertainment.

87. Carolyn Shell presented Resolution No. 6, Alcohol and Other Drugs and moved for adoption. Motion seconded and carried.

RESOLUTION NO. 6: ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS

WHEREAS, the consumption of alcoholic beverages, the use of illicit drugs and the misuse of legal drugs are contrary to biblical standards of personal conduct and stewardship of the body; and

WHEREAS, the spiritual, psychological and material costs to our society for the behavior described above are overwhelming and incalculable.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, meeting at Geyer Springs First Baptist Church, Little Rock, Arkansas, November 19 and 20, 1996, hereby express disdain for the promotion and consumption of alcoholic beverages, the use of illicit drugs and the misuse of legal drugs.

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we will support educational efforts aimed at alerting people to the risks inherent in alcoholic beverage consumption and the use of other drugs, that we will consistently encourage abstinence, and that we will support laws that reasonably restrict and limit the accessibility of alcoholic beverages and that provide effective sanctions for those whose use of alcohol and drugs results in property damage, injury and death.

WHEREAS, Southern Baptists and Arkansas Baptists have repented over past racial sins.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, meeting at Geyer Springs First Baptist Church, Little Rock, Arkansas, November 19 and 20, 1996 ask each Arkansas Baptist to examine their individual heart, live out the love of Christ in all relationships, and continue to work toward improving racial harmony in the name of Christ.

89. Jeff Cheatham presented Resolution No. 8, Christian Public School Teachers and Administrators. Motion seconded and carried.

RESOLUTION NO. 8: CHRISTIAN PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS AND ADMINISTRATORS

WHEREAS, many public school teachers and administrators are constantly confronted with social ills such as illegal drug use, sexual immorality, lack of parental support, violence, lack of respect for authority, influence of secular humanism, etc.; and

WHEREAS, many public school teachers and administrators are active members of Southern Baptist churches and are attempting to make a difference in the lives of their students through lifestyle evangelism.

RECOMMENDATION NO. 2

1998-2002 UNIFIED BUDGET FORMULA FOR THE ARKANSAS BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION

I. Budget

The budget shall be based and governed by a weighted average of the ratio between the six month increase (or decrease) and the early increase (or decrease) for the three preceding years. The Executive Board, upon recommendation coming out of the budget planning process, can alter the dollar amount of the total budget plus or minus ten percent (10%), taking into consideration the economic forecast and the condition of the Cooperative Program reserve balance.

II. Southern Baptist Convention Causes

The percent increase for Southern Baptist Convention causes shall be equal to the average percentage increase of the previous five (5) years of church gifts to the Cooperative Program as a percentage of the total Undesignated gifts to churches reported in the Annual Church Profiles. The maximum increase each year shall be one percent (1%), but in no year will the percentage be decreased.

III. State Causes

Arkansas Baptist State Convention agencies, institutions, Executive Board programs, and other state causes shall receive an increase in their respective Cooperative Program allocations equal to the percentage increase in the amount allocated to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention over the prior year. If the state distribution is a decrease from the prior year, then all shall receive an equal percentage reduction equal to the percentage reduced to the state portion of the Cooperative Program distribution.

The state entities are Ouachita Baptist University, Williams Baptist College, the Arkansas Baptist Foundation, the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine, the Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes and Family Ministries, and the Executive Board programs. Other funds included in state causes are the annual Convention fund, the Church Annuity Plan, and the Ministerial Education Scholarship Fund.

IV. Overages

All funds received above the sum of II and III shall be placed in a Cooperative Program reserve fund. This fund shall be used to supplement Cooperative Program receipts in the event of shortage in any given year.

V. New Programs or Ministries

In keeping with the Unified Budget concept, the funding of new or additional programs or ministry changes approved by the Convention in annual session shall be accomplished by subtracting the new program or ministry cost from the total of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention budget for the year the new program or ministry goes into effect. The remainder of the budget in that year will be distributed by the current budget formula. This results in all Arkansas Baptist State Convention agencies, institutions, the Executive Board, and the Southern Baptist Convention Cooperative Program sharing proportionately in the cost of the new program or ministry.

The amount for the new program or ministry will be added to the budget of the appropriate entity in the succeeding year. This total then becomes the new budget base for future increases or decreases.

VI. Motions to Alter this Financial Plan

Motions made by messengers at the annual state convention dealing with financial support or changes in allocations of funds must be referred to the Executive Board of the Convention and the trustees of the appropriate agency or institution and reported to the next convention in annual session.

VII. Budget Formula Period

This formula will be operative beginning in the budget year 1998 through the budget year 2002 at which time a review will be made by the Executive Board.

RECOMMENDATION NO. 3

RECOMMENDATION NO. 4
Extending Arkansas-European Baptist Convention Partnership

The Executive Board recommends that the Arkansas-European Baptist Convention Partnership be extended through December 31, 1999.

Background: This partnership originated January 1, 1994 as a joint partnership of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, and the European Baptist Convention. Arkansas Baptists voted during the 1995 convention to extend the three-year partnership through December 31, 1997. The leadership of the European Baptist Convention has expressed appreciation for the Arkansas Baptist State Convention and its participation with them in taking the gospel to the English speaking population of Europe. Dr. James Heflin, Arkansas native and General Secretary Elect of the European Baptist Convention, and the European Baptist Convention Partnership Committee have expressed a strong desire for this partnership to continue.

Dr. John Floyd, Foreign Mission Board Area Director of Europe, spoke on behalf of the Foreign Mission Board to encourage an extension of the partnership. He recently wrote, "The fact is that English in Europe today is similar to what Greek was in Paul's day....I firmly believe that the European Baptist Convention churches make a very significant contribution to evangelism and discipleship in Europe. I feel the investment your state is making is money well spent. It probably gets a higher return on the dollar than many other mission investments that are made on that scale."

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE V: SECTION 1, NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Charter and Bylaws Committee recommends the following amendment to the Bylaws of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. The change is noted in bold.

The President shall also name Chairman, who shall have served at least one-year on the committee.

ANNUITY

James Walker, Director

The Annuity Board's original purpose, "Serving those who serve the Lord," hasn't changed. This commitment was expressed with payment of $190,126,876 in retirement benefits to 26,483 annuitants in 1995.

In Arkansas, 791 annuitants received an average monthly benefit of $441. One hundred twenty-two received less than $100 a month.

To assist those with low benefits, the Annuity Board granted supplemental benefits to more than 2,200 people through its relief and Adopt an Annuitant programs.

The following statistics represent Arkansas Baptists' participation:

- 1,324 participants in the Church Annuity Plan
- 138 new participants from July 1, 1995 through June 30, 1996
- 553 participants with medical coverage
- 569 participants with life coverage
- 254 participants with disability coverage.

The state Annuity Representative participated in 23 church events, 18 associational events and 18 state and national events. The Annuity office averaged 108 letters a month, 262 phone calls and 58 personal consultations related to Annuity Board programs.

Efforts in 1996-1997 will concentrate on:

- Enrolling 140 new participants in the Church Annuity Plan
- Encouraging participants to upgrade their contributions
- Encouraging churches to contribute 10% of employees' salaries
- Informing participants of new fund options
- Encouraging participation in the Personal Security Programs.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST ASSEMBLY

Pat Batchelor, Jr., Director

This summer, 1996, the seven weeks of Arkansas Baptist Assembly were expanded to eight weeks. In addition to six weeks of general camps and one week of youth only camp an eighth week was added for children only. This was a tremendous success and will be continued next year.

The total enrollment for all eight weeks was 6610. God blessed us with 403 Professions of Faith, 746 Recommitments and 28 other decisions for church related vocations. One hundred of these Professions of Faith were reported in the Children's Park. Praise God that Siloam is a place where "It is easy to be saved!".

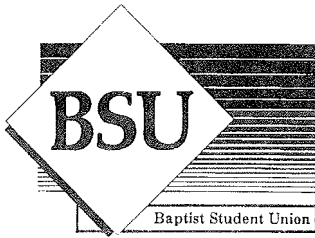

A new registration program was introduced this summer. We had to make a change from the existing registration process, this process will be adjusted until it meets our needs and is an easy process for our local churches. I really appreciate the patience of the churches as we make these changes.

The Spring View building was converted into a modern heated and cooled book store. This addition was well received. All proceeds from the book store will be used to improve and maintain Arkansas Baptist Assembly. Thank you for your prayerful support of your Arkansas Baptist Assembly.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

David James, Director

From a university campus in northeast China to a campus on the opposite side of the globe in southeast Arkansas, collegiates from our state have shared their lives and their faith this year. From the Northern Lights Association in Canada to the Olympics in Atlanta, from a construction site in Portland, Oregon, to the beach at Panama City, Florida, Arkansas BSU students have participated with God in what He's doing in the world through missions and evangelism.

While thousands of students from across the US allowed their spring break week to be consumed by alcohol, drugs, and partying, 278 Arkansas collegiates and BSU staff allowed their spring break week to be consumed by a passion for ministry and mission, and because of that, led 95 persons to faith in Christ in one week.

During the summer, when many college students can choose how they spend their time, 108 Arkansas collegiates chose to be summer missionaries in five countries and 9 states during which they touched thousands of lives, saw many come to salvation, and in their own lives found a new level of commitment to a missions lifestyle. Four 1996 graduates are at this time spending two years in a foreign country through the Foreign Mission Board's Journeyman program.

These opportunities came about because of 39 BSU directors and staff and 321 student leaders and officers who minister on 31 campuses across our state. Last year over 8,000 students participated in BSU ministry and 144 collegiates were led to faith in Christ on Arkansas campuses.

Will you pray with us that Baptist Student Union will continue to be a great tool of evangelism for Arkansas Baptists, and that collegiates from our state will continue to make a difference around the world through missions and evangelism?

BROTHERHOOD

Harry Black, Director

Our job is missions! And Arkansas Baptists are discovering missions involvement through Brotherhood:

Men's Ministries is revitalizing Baptist Men's groups through mission and ministry options based on "the activity of God" around them. An unofficial partnership has developed as Promise Keepers draws men to commitment and Men's Ministries provides a local church expression of that commitment.

RA's (Royal Ambassadors). We provided four options for ongoing children's missions education: Classic RA's using the 8-point chapter meeting; EZRA, Easy RA's, a simple club approach for boys; Coed EZRA; and Mission Kids, a coed option for the smaller church. Two RA Camps were conducted with 310 attending, 32 accepting Christ and 27 other decisions. RA Congress at Ouachita Baptist University had 916 participants representing 51 churches with 22 salvations.

Challengers, for males in grades seven through twelve, emphasizes missions education and participation. Fourteen Challengers and leaders, selected through the Challenger Basketball Tournament, traveled to Venezuela as missionaries in July. World Changers Express was introduced as a youth coed option for missions education.

Church Renewal Weekend provides renewal for Arkansas churches and the increasing number of team members through Lay Renewal, Lay Ministry, and Experiencing God Weekends.

Church In A Day and Nailbenders For Jesus, helped construct numerous church buildings. They also gave birth to several church and associational construction teams. Ronnie O'Neal is the coordinator.

Disaster Relief. Following the tornado in Fort Smith/Van Buren 65 trained volunteers served 25,000 meals, cleared debris from 44 homes, and provided care for 111 children. Unit 2, stationed in Batesville, served meals following wind-related disasters in Melbourne and Sidney.

TTEOTE (To The Ends Of The Earth) is the theme for Arkansas' partnership with the European Baptist Convention. Arkansas churches and associations have involved 365 people in 97 projects resulting in 650 professions of faith. Doayne Plummer continues serving as stateside coordinator. B.J. and Ann Hankins are on-site coordinators.

BUSINESS SERVICES

Dan Jordan, Director

The functions of the Business Services division of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention are to provide support for the Executive Board program departments and to be supportive in the total work of Arkansas Baptists. The nature of that support is to enable each worker and minister to function more effectively and to maximize the use of financial and technical resources provided by Southern Baptists of Arkansas.

Support provided by Business Services includes accounting, budgeting, building management, data processing and computer services, printing services, employee and corporate insurance management, fleet management, purchasing, communications and personnel services. Each is a vital part of the daily operation of the Convention, and our goal is to provide efficient support services to all ministries of the Convention.

Toll-free 1-800 telephone services were installed in 1996, making it possible for Arkansas Baptists to contact Baptist Building offices at no cost to the churches. The toll free number is 1-800-838-ABSC (2272). Directors of Missions were given Voicemail boxes on the Baptist Building telephone system, making it possible for association offices to send and receive messages from Baptist Building offices at no cost to the association.

Accounting and Computer Services successfully converted all of the convention financial records from an IBM System 36 mainframe computer to a Compaq Network Computer Server, and at the same time, upgraded and changed the accounting software to implement additional improvements. All records, data bases, and historical church profile information are now available through local personal computers to all executive board offices. Jim Oliver, Controller, and Al Farmer, Computer Services Manager did an outstanding job in implementing and achieving the changes with a minimum amount of work interruption for others.

In 1996, all offices were equipped with software and network equipment to send and receive electronic mail (E-mail) and the capacity to send facsimiles (faxes) to any location in the world, directly from their personal computers. Plans are being finalized for consideration of the addition of a "website" in 1998 to make more important information available to the local church and Arkansas Baptists.

The Business Services division is committed to supporting and undergirding the work of the Executive Board programs and administration, while emphasizing the greater stewardship of service to the churches of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

CAMP PARON

Jack Kwok, Business Manager

Camp Paron, located 45 miles west of Little Rock on State Highway 9, is owned and operated by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. The picturesque setting is ideal for church, associational, youth, and staff camps or retreats. Its facilities can accommodate 250 people.

From July 1, 1995 to June 30, 1996, 48 groups have used the facilities with a combined attendance of 3,484. The Arkansas Baptist State Convention Executive Board programs used the camp for 20 of its meetings, including 2 Girls in Action, 1 Royal Ambassador, and 2 Cooperative Ministries camps. Moreover, 2 associations conducted camps during the year.

Improvements to the camp facilities continue. Work continues on the water treatment plant system in order to remain in compliance with the Surface Water Act. A new 12-foot fence protects the water plant. The old bridge has been replaced with a new one. A pay telephone was installed in the Guesthouse. Every top bunk now has guard rails. Each cabin now has a ladder. Outside water fountains have been installed. The kitchen received a new air conditioning system. A new culvert replaced the old one near the kitchen. The camp now has a new storage building. All of these projects and more are intended to provide appropriate facilities for campers.

Campers continuously compliment the fine staff and facilities at Camp

Paron. Mr. Bobby Bean is the resident Camp Manager. Mrs. Diane Moss handles reservations and billings.

Information concerning reservations, rates, guidelines, and facilities can be secured by writing Dr. Jack Kwok, P. O. Box 552, Little Rock, AR 72203 or by calling (501) 376-4791, Ext. 5159.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

Jimmie Sheffield, Associate Executive Director

The ultimate goal of Cooperative Program gifts involves helping people to know Jesus Christ as Lord. In 1995, our foreign missions work led to 287, 806 baptisms. That is a member-to-baptism ratio of 14-to-1. In addition, your Cooperative Program monies supported almost 9,000 home and foreign missionaries. Certainly, one would conclude that our Cooperative Program gifts are being used wisely.

Arkansas Baptist churches gave $16,020,117 through the Cooperative Program in 1995. This represents a 1.21% increase over 1994. That's the good news. The bad news is that the percentage of churches' Undesignated gifts given through the Cooperative Program has a downward trend for the last several years. In 1991, churches gave 11.67% of undesignated receipts through the Cooperative Program. In 1995, this percentage was 10.93%. As someone stated, we are increasing at a decreasing rate.

Several activities highlighted the Cooperative Program emphasis for 1995. Cooperative Program/Associational Missions Champion Training Conferences continue to train lay people in how to represent mission support giving in the local churches.

This year, a new conference was introduced that highlights mission work and support in our churches. The conference is entitled "Cooperative Program/Missions Dinner. The program emphasized all facets of mission work supported by a church—associational, state, home, and foreign missions.

Other Cooperative Program activities and promotion conducted this past year included:

1. Cooperative Program Day in April
2. Cooperative Program Emphasis in October
3. Recognition of churches who led the state in Cooperative Program giving during the state convention.
4. An appreciation breakfast for churches that led the state in Cooperative Program giving.
5. Distribution of Cooperative Program materials to all Arkansas churches.

Through August of 1996, Cooperative Program receipts were 5.9% above 1995 receipts for the same period. Join in prayer that God will bless our mission gifts to the end that more people will be saved.

CHURCH LEADERSHIP SUPPORT

Bruce Swihart, Director

The 1995-1996 church year began with the retirement of the department director, L.B. Jordan.

The focus of the department continues to center around helping associations strengthen the area of pastoral ministries. The Church Leadership Institute is the means by which leaders are being trained. These multiple conferences attract larger numbers of potential trainees, simplifies planning and calendaring, better utilizes resources, and builds enthusiasm in the local association.

From October through July there were:

- * 12 Institutes conducted,
- * 21 Associations involved,
- * 175 Churches represented, and
- * 608 Leaders trained.

The Church Leadership Support Department, in cooperation with Oklahoma and Missouri Baptist, participated in the Intentional Interim Ministry Basic Training Program. The six participants from Arkansas have been trained to assist churches through the difficult transition of changing pastors. The Alban Institute and the Center for Congregational Health, North Carolina Baptist Hospital Pastoral Care facilitated the training. This new ministry provides an excellent opportunity for churches to be assured that the time between pastors will be productive. It allows churches to move forward with direction and purpose. These men are now available to assist interested churches. The department plans to facilitate training for others who are interested in developing their ministry skills in this area.

It has been necessary to upgrade the Church Leadership Support Department Resume Referral Service. The Service now asks participants to complete a biographical information sheet as well as send a resume. The biographical sheet allows us to provide information more economically for churches and committees. The department receives and distributes resumes for churches looking for pastors, associate pastors, church administrators, Ministers of Education, Music, Youth, Single and/or Senior Adults, Recreation, Childhood Education, Evangelism/Outreach and any combinations of these ministers. The department handles resumes for full-time or Bivocational positions. From October 1995 through June 1996 we have received 163 resume requests from churches.

The primary aim of the Church Leadership Support Department continues to be to help equip pastors, deacons, and the church leadership team in pastoral ministries skills. We also continue to work in the area of Church Conflict and Forced Termination with pastors/staff and churches.

CHURCH MUSIC MINISTRIES

Rob Hewell, Director

The business of church music is using music to create great people, not using people to create great music. Music is a tool which, when wisely used, can cultivate the lost for salvation, encourage believers in their faith, and affirm the eternal lordship of Jesus Christ. This last program year has been filled with sound and substance. Five hundred senior adults and their leaders participated in the first ABSC Senior Adult Music Festival held in Hot Springs. One hundred and two young people were on the state youth evangelism conference program with the All-State Choir and Band. 2114 children, youth and adults participated in choral, instrumental and handbell festivals in eleven locations throughout the spring. Young Musicians Camp and Music Arkansas influenced the lives of 548 children, youth and their leaders this summer on the OBU campus.

The Master'Singers and Singing Women presented an outdoor concert in downtown Hot Springs in addition to their regular convention program and church concert presentations. The Master'Singers represented Arkansas on the program of Church Music Leadership week at Glorieta Conference Center.

Numerous workshops, retreats and consultations impacted the ministries of full-time, part-time and volunteer music leaders, children's choir leaders, accompanists and instrumentalists.

Our mission is to encourage and equip God's people to minister through music. The competence of our staff, and our openness to individuals and innovation cultivate supportive and trusting relationships among church musicians state-wide.

It's an exciting and challenging time to be a church musician; the opportunities have never been greater. A commitment to effectiveness (doing right things) and efficiency (doing things right) will focus our energies in assisting the churches of Arkansas as they fulfill the Biblical mandate.

In addition to these projects/events, the department staff has conducted personal consultations with numerous pastors, staff members, associational leaders and lay leaders to provide personalized help with various aspects of the Church's ministry.

The needs and concerns related to discipleship and family continue to be the priority concerns of this department. The needs in these areas have never been greater and the resources available to our churches for addressing these concerns have never been more adequate. Pray with us that we may be better able to assist our churches to effectively bring these resources to bear on these two areas of great concern.

EVANGELISM

Clarence Shell, Director

It has been my joy and honor to work in Arkansas Evangelism for the past twenty-seven years. God has blessed us with many wonderful relationships and victories. The following three objectives have given direction to my life in Evangelism: (1) To personally share Christ with lost people. (2) To teach lay people how to share Christ. (3) To train leaders to teach lay people how to share Christ.

The greatest asset the Evangelism Department has to offer to Arkansas Baptist Churches is personnel. God has blessed us with a concerned, committed, courageous evangelism staff of Paul McClung, Randy Brantley, Margaret Bittle, and Mary Watson.

Paul McClung carries a tremendous responsibility as first associate in the Evangelism Department. He majors in the area of Personal Evangelism. He has personally been involved in training 32 churches, 95 pastor/leaders, and 458 lay people in personal witnessing. He directed another very successful Golden Age Evangelism Conference in 1996 with 178 churches, 2000 people attending the conference. He directed Total Church Life training involving 22 churches and 26 pastors and staff and Prayer for Spiritual Awakening involving 23 churches and 24 leaders.

Randy Brantley's major responsibility is in the area of youth evangelism. The number one objective in youth evangelism is to organize a witnessing club on every high school campus in Arkansas. Super Summer 1996 with 1694 participants is the largest Super Summer in the history of Arkansas Baptists. There were 74 professions of faith and 63 commitments to ministry. See You At The Pole had 20,000 praying in 335 schools in the fall of 1995. We presently have 200 witnessing clubs organized in our schools. Joy Explo was a bursting success with 5000 involved in training with 75 professions of faith, 226 recommitments and 31 surrendering to missions service.

We are deeply grateful for our committed staff who faithfully serve Arkansas Baptist Churches. Our expression of gratitude is extended to all the churches of Arkansas for winning and baptizing 12,673 for an increase in 1995.

MINISTRY OF CRISIS SUPPORT

J. D. Stake, Director

The major priority and responsibility of the Ministry of Crisis Support is to provide quality Christian Counseling and support to the ministers and their families that relate to the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. It was a busy and productive year from the counseling perspective. The Ministry of Crisis Support (MCS) actually provided counseling and support for over 350 different individuals at the Little Rock office this past year.

In addition to providing counseling and support at the Little Rock office, MCS also offers field-based conferences, workshops and seminars on such areas as stress management, burnout related issues, marriage and family enrichment and other related counseling issues. It was my privilege to conduct eighteen conferences or seminars during this past year in different associations.

The major challenge of MCS is to keep getting the information to the ministers and their families that a counseling and support service/ministry is provided and available to them at no cost.

At MCS Mrs. Reva Terry, the secretary, and myself are committed to providing quality ministry to the pastors, staff and their families during times of crisis in their individual, family or church life.

MCS appreciates the provisions and support given by Arkansas Baptists to support their ministers and their families through this ministry.

MISSIONS

Jimmy Barrentine, Director

This report has been prepared with the help of the members of the State Missions Department. The paid and voluntary staff of the State Missions team have my deep appreciation and profound affection. Thanks to Arkansas Baptists for expressing those same sentiments.

Arkansas churches, individually and in association with one another, are engaged in starting new churches and in doing ministries that are true expressions of missions. These churches are doing missions without respect to a person's race, culture, social or economic standing, place of origin or language preference.

God used His churches to start 30 new congregations since last year's meeting of the state convention. This follows the pattern which has made Arkansas one of the strongest church-starting states in the Southern Baptist Convention. Special thanks goes to God for the new church start in Caddo River Association, their first in 17 years. The addition of the Hispanic Youth Camp at Paron and the work of the language strategy groups have added strength to church starting and development. We do not want to close our eyes to the fact that there are still more than 1,000,000 people in Arkansas with no church to call home. Nevertheless, we can celebrate good progress.

State missions chaplains and volunteers have underlined their role as missionary evangelists. They have reported 754 professions of faith since January 1 of this year. The chaplains' commitment to excellence in ministry and evangelism typifies the attitude that keeps missions ministries on track. They hold to the firm belief that missions ministries are decidedly evangelistic. Christian prisoners at the Calico Rock prison believe that. Their recent gift of $1,900 to the community food bank at Calico Rock verifies their conviction that missions ministries result in souls saved.

Please pray for the following:

- ① Season of Prayer for State Missions and the Dixie Jackson State Missions Offering, September 15 - 22. The offering goal is $750,000.
- ② Move of the Hope Migrant Center to a new site next to Interstate 30, next door to the new migrant rest stop.
- ③ Edgardo Mansilla, new staff member who serves as a field consultant for ministries.
- ④ Burton Perry, paid just enough to disqualify him from being a true volunteer, as he leads the effort to enhance opportunities for theological education in Arkansas.
- ⑤ The Iowa Partnership, especially for new church starts.
- ⑥ The Mississippi River Ministry.
- ⑦ For all those in our state, and throughout the world, who do not know Jesus as the wonderful and all-sufficient Savior that He is.

THE IOWA PARTNERSHIP

Jimmy Barrentine

In last year's annual session of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, messengers voted to extend the Iowa Partnership until December 31, 2001. At this writing, we do not have a firm figure on the number of projects completed since the last report to the convention. The associational directors of missions in Iowa give us that figure so we are anticipating a good report by the time the convention meets in its 1996 session.

What we can affirm at this point is that Arkansas partners have been effective in: starting new churches; providing quality training events for churches, associations and the Baptist Convention of Iowa; strengthening church and community ministries; and in reaching people for Jesus. Thanks for your partnership involvement.

When the Iowa Southern Baptist Fellowship organized as the Baptist Convention of Iowa last year, Iowa leaders celebrated the role that churches in Missouri and Arkansas have played in adding to God's work in Iowa. Frankly, they gave us too much credit for the good that God has done and for the good Iowa Baptists have done under the Father's direction and through His strength. If so, it was done out of love.

It is the assessment of many in both Iowa and Arkansas that Godly love is the primary characteristic of this partnership. It is true that God has bonded our hearts to Him and to one another.

Many partnership needs exist. The following are urgent:

- ① Fifteen interim pastors to give from three months to one year.
- ② Revival teams with:
 - » preachers who preach conversationally and stress the redeeming grace of God,
 - » music evangelists who know how to blend and balance traditional and contemporary music,
 - » experienced instrumentalists.
- ③ Pastors, especially Bivocational pastors, willing to hear God's call to Iowa.

STEWARDSHIP

James Walker, Director

The Stewardship Department in its ministries during the last twelve months, conducted 14 church events, 13 associational meetings and 14 state or convention events.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Julia Ketner, Executive Director

Purpose: Arkansas Woman's Missionary Union exists to stimulate the missionary spirit by assisting churches and associations in missions education, participation, and support.

“Risk the Journey,” 1995-96 Emphasis: The emphasis challenged members to embark on a faith journey to move beyond a verbal commitment to the Great Commission to an active role in fulfilling it and to realize the urgency of entering doors of opportunity currently open locally and globally.

Weeks of Prayer/Special Mission Offerings: Every church participating in praying for and giving to state, home, and foreign missions was promoted during the respective Seasons of Prayer and corresponding mission offerings. In 1995, Arkansas Baptists gave a record total of $4,777,968.68 to the three mission offerings. The 1995 totals were: Dixie Jackson Offering, $742,277.76 with 858 churches participating; Annie Armstrong Offering, $1,074,754.62 with 955 churches participating; Lottie Moon Offering, $2,950,936.30 with 998 churches participating. While receipts for each of the mission offerings exceeded previous years’ gifts, the number of churches participating in the home and foreign missions offerings decreased.

Project Help: AIDS: WMU led Arkansas Baptists to risk response to and involvement with those who are HIV-positive or have AIDS by giving items for local use and money for the House of Hope in Brazil, an AIDS hospice under the direction of foreign missionary, Karen Gray. Of the $126,457 and 123,598 items given nationally, Arkansas Baptists donated more than 8,200 items for local use and $7,208 for the House of Hope, ranking number eight and seven respectively in the SBC.

Trudy Smith of Little Rock, volunteer state coordinator for Project Help: AIDS, gave more than 300 hours to help educate Arkansas Baptists about AIDS and to present ways for personal involvement. From August 1995-July 1996, by means of conferences, videos, and varied presentations in churches and associations, 6,098 people were informed and challenged.

Response to Famine in North Korea: At the request of the Foreign Mission Board, WMU and Brotherhood led Arkansas Baptists to respond to the hunger needs of North Koreans. One container, containing approximately 535 boxes of food (70 pounds each), was filled and $8,660 given to purchase and ship the container.

Anti-Gambling Issue: WMU assisted the Christian Civic Action Committee by enlisting 1,965 volunteers to gather signatures of voters in support of a proposed amendment to the state constitution prohibiting all gambling in our state. Sufficient signatures were gathered and the amendment will be on the ballot in November.

Summer Olympics, 1996: Arkansas WMU members touched the world as state Acteens Activator and Women on Mission Enterpriser teams served in Atlanta. The gospel was shared with people from 40 nations and hospitality sacks were given to thousands.

Leadership Training: WMU helped to increase leadership skills of church and associational WMU leaders through two state events: 1) IMPACT ‘95, day and night sessions held in nine areas of the state (1,205); 2) 1996 Associational WMU

Officers' Training Day (74/24 associations). Training was also provided for associational WMU directors at the 1996 SALT Meeting in April with 30 attending from 29 associations. Throughout the year, the WMU staff responded to requests for training from churches and associations.

State WMU Events: State events other than leadership training were provided to strengthen missions education and increase missions awareness. From September 1995 through August 1996, activities were: two Women on Mission Retreats (220 from 58 churches); Acteens Advisors' Retreat (52); WMU Annual Meeting (700); Acteens Encounter (786/80 churches); and two GA Mother-Daughter and two GA Mini-Camps (730 campers/53 churches; gave $868.69 to the MK offering; 14 decisions).

Project Advance: WMU's strategy for missions growth through associational WMU work continued with personal consultations conducted with 29 associations between November 1995-August 1996. During the consultations, staff presented planning by objectives, goals and action plans. Associational team members were then led in a time of writing goals and action plans related to needs in their association.

Baptist Nursing Fellowship: In 1996, BNF members and WMU's Emergency Child Care Unit assisted in tornado relief efforts in the Ft. Smith and Van Buren areas. A team of BNF members served as volunteers in Romania. Serving as president of the state BNF chapter was Donna Cheatham of Russellville.

Mission Support Activities: During the 1995-96 school year, Arkansas WMU sent MKs studying in Arkansas colleges and universities a card and $5 check on their birthday and for Christmas, a card and $10 check. State BSU and WMU joined together to provide a cookout for MKs at the beginning of the 1995 fall semester. WMU also provided 146 missionary families from Arkansas a magazine of their choice, a project made possible with an offering taken during the WMU Annual Meeting.

Scholarships: Nancy Cooper scholarships for the 1996-97 school year were granted to: Holli Masengale, Kimberly Roth, Kristyn Ross and Sarah Stanley at Ouachita Baptist University and to Nixon M. Muthangya, Williams Baptist College. Lillian May Scholarships were granted to Liz Bear to attend Golden Gate Seminary; and to Robert Mooney, missionary in Uganda and Elizabeth Wolfe, missionary in Indonesia.

ARKANSAS BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES AND FAMILY MINISTRIES

David W. Perry, Executive Director

Recently the Board of Directors adopted the following mission statement: “Arkansas Baptist Children’s Homes and Family Ministries is dedicated to providing help to children and families in need through a statewide comprehensive program of services utilizing Christian compassion and professional skills.” These words inherently proclaim strong promises: of dedication, of the provision of help, of availability, of completeness, of Christlike love, and of professionalism. These promises have been embraced by our staff and board as God’s direction for our agency and as opportunities for ministry.

Since 1894, the ARKANSAS BAPTIST HOME FOR CHILDREN in Monticello has responded to opportunities to minister. One young lady described living at the Home as, “a great experience in my life.” She went on to explain, “Ever since that July afternoon of 1994, when my sister and I moved to the Baptist Home there have been so many events in my life that have helped me to grow stronger in my relationship with God. Because of the Home’s love for me I have grown to love others as well. I really feel loved and through Christ’s love I have changed my life to fit what he desires.” She proclaimed, “the Baptist Home is my family.” The Baptist Home served as a substitute family for 69 children this year. Individual program plans ensured that each child’s personal needs were addressed. The ultimate goal was to reunite families when it was practical, safe and in the child’s best interest. Six of our Baptist Home children were enrolled in college.

The BAPTIST BOYS RANCH provided care for 30 boys in a beautiful rural environment, rescuing many from desperate situations. In sharing his testimony Craig stated, “Summing everything up, my drug use, my family problems, my gang life, I was in a no win situation. I had no guidance, no responsibilities, no hope. At last I went to live at the Ranch. They helped me to find myself. They helped me set goals and achieve them. I improved in my schooling, my relationships and my behavior. I became involved in church, where I got saved and baptized.” Six of the Ranch residents were enrolled in college or vo-tech programs this year.

The PROMISE HOUSE ministered to 11 pregnant unwed girls in the midst of their crises, confusion and chaos. Through the Promise House, Arkansas Baptists were able to say to these young ladies, “While we certainly do not condone sexual relationships outside of marriage, we do support your decision to choose life for your unborn child.” Two of the girls’ newborn infants were cared for while their mothers recuperated from childbirth. Additionally, residential care was provided for seven non-pregnant girls. In an effort to bring healing and hope, care was provided for each girl according to their individual medical, educational and spiritual.

Imagine three sisters, ages 6, 8, and 9 having all been sexually abused by a male relative. These sisters arrived at one of our six EMERGENCY RECEIVING HOMES at 3:00 in the morning after being taken from their parents. They were among the 375 children who found sanctuary from the violence, neglect, or other crisis situations. Sometimes, especially for the adolescents, the shelters simply provided a time and place for respite from family conflict while counselors, church staffs, or others tried to salvage family relationships. Family units in three of the shelters cared for six mothers and their children.

On every turn it appears that the family is under attack. Helping families and individuals to resolve problems and to cope with the issues they face deserves our best efforts. AREA AND SATELLITE OFFICES provided the needed help for hundreds of individuals, couples and families through the provision of highly trained Christian counselors.

Fourteen year old Jerry learned about the second coming and the rapture of God's people through a local church he attended with the other residents of one of our emergency shelters. He told his house parent, "Miss Liz, I don't want to miss that trip." She was able to share with him how he could be assured of not missing the most important trip any of us will ever make. Jerry was one of 50 children in our care who accepted Christ as Savior this past year. Other SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT activities included daily devotionals, church attendance, vesper services, and summer camp. For many of the children the greatest spiritual impact came from the daily walk and witness of our deeply committed staff.

DIRECT CONTRIBUTIONS from 78% of our churches plus COOPERATIVE PROGRAM gifts totaled $1,059,246 or 44% of our income. Hundreds of our Baptist churches and individuals further supported our work through voluntary mission activities and in-kind gifts that saved us many thousands of dollars.

In response to dramatically increasing expenses, our Board of Directors voted to proceed with a major capital campaign to individuals and foundations. The theme for the $3.5 to $6 million campaign is "EMBRACING THE PROMISE." Successfully completing this adventure will allow us to increase endowment, respond to pressing maintenance needs, build facilities for spiritual and educational programs and replace two aging cottages.

Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes and Family Ministries was founded on the conviction that we serve God when we serve our fellow man. This past year, through residential programs, counseling opportunities, referral services and other means, we had the privilege to serve more than 3600 individuals, including 498 in residential care. We conducted more than 6300 interviews, many of them in-depth counseling sessions, and handled 1853 referrals for ministry. We are reminded often of Christ's words, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Thank you Arkansas Baptists for providing an avenue of ministry!

ARKANSAS BAPTIST FOUNDATION

W. David Moore, President/Treasurer

Arkansas Baptist Foundation exists as a service ministry in the area of Christian stewardship. The Foundation specializes in the areas of estate planning and charitable giving, as its staff seeks to assist individuals, churches, associations, institutions, and agencies in accomplishing their goals and fulfilling their needs. Donors are assisted in planning their charitable gifts in the way best suited to meet their goals and benefit the Baptist ministries they wish to support. By providing management of Baptist endowment dollars, the Foundation provides a steady flow of income to support our ministries.

The Foundation staff seeks to support the mission of Arkansas Baptists by managing estates and trusts which support Baptist causes; by educating churches, professionals, the public, and donors about charitable giving and Christian estate planning; by providing investment and legal services to various Baptist ministries; by providing focused assistance to professionals who represent individual donors; and by giving technical advice, assistance, and training to the development officers of our Baptist institutions and agencies.

The legal department continues to provide free wills and trusts for Arkansas Baptist ministers and their wives, as well as drafts of documents for Baptist donors. While the Foundation attorney cannot serve as an individual's attorney, he can save donors thousands of dollars in legal fees by providing the estate planning information and document drafts. The legal department's services also protect the various Baptist charities by ensuring that the donor's gifts are written correctly to satisfy Internal Revenue Service codes and regulations.

The accounting department currently maintains records on approximately 350 assets totaling over $50 million in value. Almost 1000 accounts own these various assets, and there is a complex distribution from many of the accounts to various Baptist causes. The 1995 auditors commended the accounting staff for their implementation of new trust accounting software to help facilitate the accounting and distribution for the various trusts.

During 1995, a process was begun to establish numerous common funds which provide access for accounts to a broad diversity of stocks and bonds. A new toll-free number (1-800-798-0969) was instituted as a service to donors and churches across the state. Several sizable future endowments (which totaled approximately $20 million in future gifts) were established by estate documents, and a new full-time attorney (Paul D. White) was employed to head the legal department.

Churches are encouraged to take advantage of Foundation services (most of which are provided without any fees) which include:

- Seminars on estate planning, charitable giving, and financial planning provided to local churches and associations.
- Individual conferences on estate planning for Baptists..
- Free drafts of documents for potential Baptist donors.
- Free wills and trusts for Arkansas Baptist ministers.

- Management of Trusts, Endowments, Scholarships, Investments, & Estates for donors to Baptist causes. (This may include management of revocable trusts during lifetime where Baptist charities have a beneficial interest.)
- Access to various investment choices for churches and donors.
- Estate tax planning especially in relation to charitable gifts, planned gifts, and testamentary gifts.
- Assistance with legal issues which arise in the church. For example, the Foundation will guide a church or association through the process of incorporation at no charge.
- A resource for supply preaching, financial data, and legal or tax information.
- A support service to assist Baptists in practicing Christian stewardship. For almost fifty years, the Foundation has provided an avenue of financial support to all of our Baptist ministries. This is evidenced by the 1995 distribution of income as follows:

Christian Education at OBU & WBC	$1,179,153.56
ABSC Cooperative Program & Departments	270,337.14
Children’s Homes & Family Ministry	194,641.37
Foundation	27,212.17
Newsmagazine	917.16
Foreign Mission Board	87,552.85
Home Mission Board	13,364.79
SBC WMU	15,804.63
Churches & Associations	127,027.79
Individuals*	718,871.08
Other Christian Organizations	48,623.77
Income Returned to Principal	513,941.46
TOTAL	$3,197,447.77

*Most of the income paid now to individuals will one day be paid to Baptist ministries.

In summary, the Foundation received $263,274 in Cooperative Program dollars in 1995 and distributed almost $3.2 million in income to ministries or individuals who have left (after their deaths or a period of years) the corpus to Baptist causes. Total assets under management as of 12/31/95 was $50,042,179, which represented a 9.6% increase over 1994. Realized gains on securities for 1995 was $399,350; total portfolio value increased approximately $10 million in market value for 1995; and the amount of income earned for each $1 of Cooperative Program support was $11.52.

Ernest Ward died in March 1996. Almost twenty years ago, he and his wife began estate planning involving the Foundation. As a result, his estate is being managed by the Foundation for his family and for many Baptist causes that he wanted to support after his death. He was wise to utilize various charitable remainder trusts in his lifetime which assisted him in saving taxes while accomplishing his charitable intent. His ministry of stewardship continues and will continue until our Lord returns.

The Foundation staff is pleased to assist donors like Ernest Ward in fulfilling their desire to support our Baptist ministries!

ARKANSAS BAPTIST NEWSMAGAZINE

Trennis G. Henderson, Editor

Focusing on the 1996 theme, "Sharing a World of Information," the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine has published hundreds of articles throughout the year for the benefit of Arkansas Baptist readers. Articles featured in recent issues have ranged from spiritual awakening and anti-gambling efforts to world missions and religious liberty.

"Sharing a World of Information" is more than a slogan for our Newsmagazine staff. It is an ongoing commitment to help keep Arkansas Baptists informed, challenged and encouraged about ministry needs and opportunities at home and around the world.

In addition to in-depth information on such topics as denominational restructuring, Olympic ministry projects, race relations, disaster relief and partnership missions, each issue of the Newsmagazine features local church and associational news that highlights what God is accomplishing through Arkansas Baptists.

More than 280 Arkansas Baptist congregations participated in the 1996 Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine Day of Prayer. The annual emphasis, which is scheduled next year for Sunday, May 18, is an excellent time for local church leaders to inform their members about the ministry of the Newsmagazine and to make subscriptions available on an ongoing basis.

As the news journal of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, the Newsmagazine is an essential communications tool for ministry-minded church members. For less than 25 cents per issue, each family in a local congregation can receive a subscription that will provide vital news and feature articles that impact everyone from youth to senior adults.

The Newsmagazine is available to churches through the Every Resident Family Plan at an annual cost of only $6.36 per subscription. Other subscription rates include the group plan for 10 or more subscribers at a cost of $7.08 each and individual subscriptions at a cost of $8.85 per year.

The current staff of the Newsmagazine includes editor Trennis Henderson, associate editor Russell N. Dilday, assistant editor Colleen Backus, executive assistant to the editor Millie Gill, business manager Becky Hardwick and advertising representative Nelle O'Bryan.

As Arkansas Baptists throughout the state prepare for effective ministry into the 21st century, the Arkansas Baptist Newsmagazine will continue "Sharing a World of Information" to help accomplish those ministry goals.

BAPTIST MEMORIAL HEALTH CARE SYSTEM, INC.
Memphis, Tennessee

In 1981, Baptist Memorial Hospital was restructured resulting in the formation of Baptist Memorial Health Care System as a new not-for-profit corporation. This was a cooperative effort of the Baptist Conventions of Arkansas, Mississippi, and Tennessee. Presently, the System is related to the Baptist Memorial Health Care Corporation which is comprised of thirteen affiliate hospitals throughout the Mid-South as well as twenty other subsidiary corporations.

The Baptist Memorial Health Care Corporation and its entities are dedicated to a series of health care missions: providing quality, comprehensive patient care; conducting medical and technical educational programs; engaging in research; serving health needs in a Christian atmosphere; and endeavoring to give testimony to the truth of the Christian faith.

Highlights of activities of the Health Care Corporation from the summer of 1995 through the summer of 1996 include:

The pastoral care ministry continues to expand both in quantity and quality. Spiritual and emotional counsel is provided to patients and their families on an individual basis and specialized ministries are provided through support groups. During the past year the chaplains made 132,535 contacts to patients, families and employees in their times of need. A director of hospice pastoral care has been added to provide grief support and grief seminars to hospice families, as well as to the community. A program has been initiated to provide scripture plaques for placement in patient rooms and a pictorial booklet of religious symbols was completed.

In recent months, numerous patient programs were implemented and facilities were expanded to accommodate growing needs. The nation's first restorative care hospital was established at Baptist Memorial Hospital-Medical Center. Child care, women's services, emergency care, outpatient services, and radiology were among the many patient care services recently expanded. Several facilities were opened during the year including the Baptist Rehabilitation Center in Germantown, a Hand Therapy Center in Germantown, and two new Baptist Minor Medical Centers. Also, the new Baptist Memorial College of Health Sciences was dedicated in the fall of 1995.

The Baptist Memorial Health Care Foundation received its first $1 million donation during the year with the gift coming from a grateful patient. The Foundation provided funding for a number of significant projects during the year including the Baptist Cancer Institute, the Christ Community Medical Center, and the Groner Leadership Forum on Managed Care.

For the first time in the Mid-South, Baptist Memorial Hospital-Medical Center was the location for the performance of a Coronary Artery Bypass Graft without a central chest incision and perfusion. This surgery was performed in April, 1996. Unlike the conventional surgery, this procedure is a minimally invasive direct coronary artery bypass, and eliminates the risk of external wound infection and reduces patient discomfort. This appears to be a promising technique that involves a shorter hospital stay, is less expensive, and has a shorter recuperation period. Also, in April, for the first time in the country, a saphenous vein was harvested endoscopically from groin to ankle at Baptist Memorial Hospital-Medical Center. The vein was used for bypass surgery. This procedure involves only four small punctures, thus swelling, infection and other potential problems associated with the traditional leg incisions are minimized.

In May, 1996, Baptist Memorial Health Care Corporation, in conjunction with other Memphis-based health care facilities and physicians began construction of a $5.4 million outpatient surgery center in the Medical Center. The center is designed for patients requiring a stay of less than 24 hours.

To keep in touch with the growing number of national and international on-line computer services, an on-line web page is being developed to be accessed by anyone on the world wide web. Included will be general information about the Health Care Corporation, including its history, information about specific hospitals, physicians, managed care, home health services, and opportunities for medical professionals. The web page will be available to the public beginning August, 1996 at phone number - http\www.bmhcs.org

In partnership with physicians, it is anticipated an Integrated Delivery System will continue to develop and mature during the coming year. In order to meet the challenges of an evolving health care environment the management team is committed to being flexible of Baptist Memorial Health Care which parallels the three-fold ministry of Christ - - - preaching, teaching, and healing.

The following is a statistical report for the 1995 fiscal year:

Free Services	$29,178,355
Number of Licensed Beds	3,886
Employees	12,198
Medical Staff	2,050
Admissions	96,550

OUACHITA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
Ben M. Elrod, President

Ouachita Baptist University completed its 110th year of continuous service to Arkansas Baptists when degrees were awarded to 217 students on May 11. In many ways, the 1995-1996 academic year was one of the strongest in Ouachita's long history of providing quality higher education with a distinctively Christian emphasis.

Enrollment was stronger, with a total of 1,477 undergraduate students from 71 Arkansas counties, 26 other U.S. states, and 52 foreign countries. Nearly 29 percent of Ouachita students were from outside Arkansas, including 70 international students and 56 missionary kids from overseas. Recruiting was strong during the past year, and another large freshman class is expected for the new year. A new educational opportunity for Arkansas pastors and other interested students will be offered in 1996-1997 when an associate of arts degree in religious studies is initiated, first at the Ouachita Fayetteville Center, and later at designated extension centers across the state.

Faculty leadership remains strong at Ouachita, where Christian men and women provide academic and spiritual guidance for students both inside and outside of the classroom. Faculty members are committed to grow as professionals, to become more effective teachers, and to be Christian models for our students. Most classes at Ouachita are small, with a student to faculty ratio of 11:1, thus making it possible for students to receive personal attention from their instructors. In addition, the past year brought innovations by Ouachita faculty and staff members which yielded more effective academic advising, and new opportunities for career planning and placement, personal counseling, and spiritual growth and service.

Improvements were made to strengthen Ouachita's facilities during the year. The most obvious were the beginning of construction on the Harvey Jones Science Center, made possible through the generosity of Mrs. Bernice Jones; the addition of the Tiger Den, a center for student gatherings; and the renovation of Frances Crawford and Ernest Bailey residence halls. This was the first year of use for Maddox Hall, a residence hall for women named in honor of Kathryn and Edward Maddox of Harrisburg.

More than $6 million was received in gifts and grants to Ouachita during the past year, in addition to the support received through the Cooperative Program giving of the churches of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Ouachita completed the fiscal year "in the black" for the 23rd time in 24 years, despite the challenges of rising operating costs, a financial aid budget which provides grants to 93 percent of the student body, and a lack of adequate endowment. Ouachita launched the Window of Opportunity Campaign in October of 1995 to raise funds to help meet these challenges. The three-year campaign has a base goal of $28 million and a challenge goal of $40 million.

Ouachita faculty members were singled out for outstanding work in their fields of study. Charlie Fuller was invited to participate in the Robert Shaw Choral Workshop and a task force for the International Federation of Choral Music. Terry Carter, Scott Duvall, Tom Greer, Danny Hays, and Bill Steeger wrote articles for various religious publications. Jeanna Westmoreland served as director of the Arkansas Future Problem Solvers program. Bill Downs completed 26 years as executive director of the Arkansas High School Press Association and was named Arkansas Advertising Federation Distinguished Educator of the Year. Bob Gravett, retired Ouachita track coach, was inducted into the Arkansas Track and Field Hall of Fame. Francis McBeth, composer-in-residence, was honored with his 31st consecutive ASCAP Award. Paul Root was the keynote speaker for the national conference of the Commission on Adult Basic Education. George Keck received a Distinguished Service Citation from the American Federation of Music Clubs.

Students at Ouachita were also recognized for outstanding achievement. Joanna Person was selected Arkansas Outstanding Dietetics Student of the Year. Julie Beckwith received a research grant from the Arkansas Science Information Liaison Organization. Merton Hershberger was selected for a summer seminar on the Dead Sea Scrolls by the Pew Younger Scholars Program. Adrienne Allison, Nicole Bender, Joshua Payne, and David Smith won first place honors in the NATS music auditions. The Hickingbotham School of Business Phi Beta Lambda chapter received its third consecutive Gold Seal of Merit, and six students won first place awards in a state competition. The Advertising Federation team won first place in the ten-state regional competition, and placed seventh in the national competition. Ouachita's yearbook, the Ouachitonian, won the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Gold Medal. The newspaper, the Signal, received the Bronze Medal. Joveta Saylor was an NAIA Honorable Mention All-American in women's basketball. Art Cadena was an NAIA Second Team All-American in football, and Vince Perrin was Honorable Mention All-American. Tennis All-American Patrick Lofvenberg was one of 49 NAIA national scholar-athletes. The Men's Tennis Team won the NAIA Southwest Region Championship and placed fifth in the NAIA national meet.

The Ouachita BSU was invited to perform a unique ministry in a San Antonio, Texas, inner city school, involving 34 students in a spring break mission trip. During June, 16 BSU students formed mission teams to work with churches in South Africa and Zimbabwe. A total of nearly 100 Ouachita students were involved in summer missions activity of some type in 1996. Over 80 students were serving as staff members of Arkansas Baptist churches. The number of Ouachita students interested in Christian service continued to grow. There were 187 majoring in religious studies, and a total of 392 were considering a career in ministry.

Ouachita is a university under the lordship of Jesus Christ which is dedicated to help young people grow strong academically, socially, physically, and spiritually, and to take their places of leadership in the home, the church, and the community. I am grateful for the support of the churches of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention who are our partners in our mission to students.

WILLIAMS BAPTIST COLLEGE

Jerol Swaim, President

Williams Baptist College appreciates and enjoys its relationship with Arkansas Baptists and the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. We are continuing to make every effort to be worthy of the confidence that you place in us as one of your institutions. We are especially grateful for the confidence you demonstrated when you approved the Williams Baptist College Local Church Campaign last November. The goal of the Campaign is to raise $5,000,000.

We are asking each of our churches to give an average of at least 2% of their Undesignated offerings or budget each year for three years. Sixty percent of the dollars given will go into endowment for scholarships. Thirty-nine percent will be used for capital improvements, primarily for the renovation and expansion of the Science Building and a face-lift for the Administration Building. The remaining 1% will go toward the expenses of the campaign. We are excited about the impact of this campaign on Williams.

Ministry continues to be an emphasis for both students and faculty. The Baptist Student Union, under the direction of Ms. Jackie Burton, is one of the most active organizations on campus. BSU sponsored programs on campus include weekly noonday and evening worship and praise services, weekly Residence Hall Bible Studies, and monthly nursing home ministries. Special weeks of emphases included Summer Missions Week, Religious Emphasis Week, and Weeks of Prayer. This year the BSU raised over $3000 for summer missions. Fifteen WBC students served as missionaries this summer in such diverse nations as Israel and Korea, as well as Wyoming, Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky, Georgia, Tennessee, and here in Arkansas.

We are pleased that the number of Christian camps using our campus and facilities each summer has continued to increase.

Williams initiated a Community Service Day two years ago. The first Community Service Day's activities were directed primarily at making the entrance into Walnut Ridge more attractive. However, this year the Student Government Association directed the Community Service Day to minister to some of the elderly residents of Walnut Ridge by performing work that was needed at their homes.

I am especially grateful for the dedicated faculty, staff, and administration. All of our ordained faculty and administration continue to serve either as pastors, interim pastors, or pulpit supply. Others continue to serve in their local churches as teachers, officers, committee members, or musicians.

Academically, Williams provides excellent baccalaureate programs in 19 different areas. Sixty-three students earned baccalaureate degrees at graduation. This was the largest senior class in the history of the college.

There were a number of significant academic developments during the 95-96 academic year. A national honor society for business students was implemented this year, bringing the number of national honor societies on campus to six. The Felix Goodson Library passed a major milestone in the spring with the inauguration of its on-line catalog service. This project, in the making for five years, was largely accomplished through the diligent service of Mrs. Marilyn Goodwin, Assistant Librarian. A comprehensive technology upgrade plan was adopted during the year. This has already resulted in the outfitting of the academic computer laboratory with new computers, and Internet and e-mail accessibility to students, as well as faculty and administration.

This last year witnessed several significant personnel changes. We will miss Dr. and Mrs. Jack Nicholas who retired after serving Williams for 30 years. During that time Dr. Nicholas served as Professor of Psychology, Dean of Students, President, and then Chancellor. Mrs. Martha Nicholas served as Head Librarian. Dr. Rodney Reeves resigned as Associate Professor of Religion and Chair of the Department of Religion after nine years of service to become pastor of Central Baptist Church in Jonesboro.

Financially, the 95-96 academic year was one of challenges. Yet the Lord has continued to bless. Due to the hard work of an excellent Institutional Advancement Office and Admissions Office, a very conscientious Board of Trustees, and continued fiscal responsibility, the College operated in the black again as it has done for the last 15 years.

As I expressed to you last year, Williams is grateful to you, Arkansas Baptists, for your continued support. We are keenly aware of the impact of your support through your prayers and through your giving. We have a renewed sense of our responsibility to provide a genuine Christian liberal arts education to our students. So many of our parents desire for their children to attend either Ouachita or Williams. Yet for us to compete with the low tuition of the state supported colleges, we must continue to provide more scholarship assistance. This is truly one of our greatest challenges.

Thank you for being faithful in your support of Arkansas Baptist higher education.

ARKANSAS PASTORS (FULL-TIME AND BI-VOCATIONAL) OTHER ORDAINED MINISTERS, AND CHURCH STAFF MEMBERS

The following list of ministers, church staff and other ordained is taken from the Annual Church Profile of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Each church, in its sovereignty and subject to no power or authority of the Convention, ordains and licenses ministers and calls and employs pastors and staff. Southern Baptist Convention and other Baptist organizations independent of the Convention select their own chaplains, missionaries, evangelists, and staff. Consequently, the listings below are in no way to be considered a recommendation or affirmation. The persons are listed, based on responses from churches and other organizations, solely for information with no approval implied or expressed.

PLEASE REPORT IMMEDIATELY any changes, errors or omissions. Write to:
