Biographical/Historical

Richard H. Brown, Professor Emeritus of Biology at Ouachita, was born August 24, 1936, to Lonnie L. and Jessie M. Teague Brown. He graduated from Monticello, Arkansas public schools and served in the United States Army 39th Infantry and the 101st Airborne. Mr. Brown received his B.S.E. from Arkansas A&M College in 1960 and a M.A. from George Peabody College in 1963, studying education, history, psychology, biology, and radiation science. He was involved in various post-graduate studies and attended Henderson State University, Ouachita Baptist College, The University of Arkansas, Colorado State University, The University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Tennessee Medical School, and the NASA Space Academy.

Brown joined the Ouachita faculty in 1965 and served until his retirement in 1998. He pursued several research opportunities and received grants from The National Science Foundation, The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, The U.S. Air Force Brooks Aerospace Center, and The U.S. Army Biological and Chemical Center. His other hobbies included hunting, blacksmithing, blade smithing, collecting, and painting. Brown's blades have been used and displayed in various collections and museums both domestic and international.

As an ordained Southern Baptist Minister, Brown served as pastor or interim pastor for Mt. Bethel Baptist Church, Arkadelphia; Southside Baptist Church, Prescott; The First Baptist Church Emmet; Lake Hamilton Baptist Church, Hot Springs; The First Baptist Church of Alexander; The First Baptist Church of Prescott; and Shover Springs Baptist Church, Hope. As a gospel vocalist, Mr. Brown presented more than 70 concerts throughout Arkansas and the greater U.S. and served as Music Director for Lakeshore Heights Baptist Church in Hot Springs.

Brown passed away on March 12, 2024 and is survived by his wife, Alma, two daughters, three grandchildren, six great grandchildren, and a grandson-in-law.
