ARKADELPHIA, Ark.—Bonnie Magee, a senior accounting major from Conway, Ark., was crowned Ouachita Baptist University's 2015 Homecoming Queen during Ouachita's pre-Homecoming game ceremony on Saturday, Oct. 3.

Magee and other members of the court were recognized at Cliff Harris Stadium before Ouachita's 26-21 Homecoming football win over Harding University. She was escorted by her father, Jimmy Magee.

"I was so incredibly surprised to be crowned Homecoming Queen," Magee said. "I love Ouachita so much, and it is such a blessing to know that students voted for me!"

Magee represented the Tri Chi women's social club. She serves as president of Tri Chi and also is a little sister for Kappa Chi men's social club, a member of the Ouachita Student Foundation and a tutor for the America Counts program.

"Tri Chi has been such an important aspect of my time at Ouachita," Magee said. "Through Tri Chi I gained many characteristics of a Ouachitonian, such as leadership and service, and I am thankful I got to represent them on Saturday!"

The 38 Homecoming Court nominees represented many campus clubs and academic departments and organizations at Ouachita. Nominees were presented to the student body in Evans Student Center on Friday, Sept. 25, and a vote to determine the top 20 followed. The top 20 were presented during the Purple Plaza Party on Friday, Oct. 2, and a second vote selected the queen and four runners-up. The top 20 were presented on the field on Homecoming day.

First runner-up was Abby Root, a junior speech communication and theatre education double major from Arkadelphia, Ark., who represented Eta Alpha Omega men's social club.
