Rubber rafting down the rapids?

Scaling a mountain?

Rappelling into a ravine?

This doesn't sound much like a college course--but it is! These challenging activities are part of Army ROTC Adventure Training. All leaders, whether in the military, government or business, need stamina. Adventure Training, taught by Army ROTC, develops physical endurance. It offers leadership opportunities, too, in a highly competitive atmosphere. Find out more about what Army ROTC has to offer. Call Major Jim Pitts at Ext. 510.

Attention! Attention!
