ouachitonian beauty

Thirty-six Ouachita Baptist University women will compete for the title of the 1985 Ouachitonian Beauty on Thursday, November 1, at 7:30 p.m. in OBU's Mitchell Hall Auditorium. Admission for the program will be $3 for Ouachita students, faculty and staff, and $4 for the general public. There are no reserved seats and tickets will be on sale at the door the night of the performance.

"Country-Time" will be the theme of the 65th annual pageant which is designed to select a yearbook beauty. The winning girl will be featured in the 1985 "Ouachitonian" yearbook, along with her four runners-up and Miss Congeniality, who will be selected by the contestants.

Attention!

Several events, including a book sale and a lecture will be the highlights of Library Emphasis Week, October 29-November 2 at Ouachita Baptist University. Hardback books will be sold for $1; paperbacks, 75 cents; magazines, 25 cents; and pamphlets, 10 cents. Louella Wetherbee of Dallas, Texas, executive director of the AMIGOS bibliographic Council, Inc., will deliver a lecture entitled "Gutenberg Revisited: Books and Libraries in the Year 2000" on Monday, October 29 at 8 p.m. in the Recital Hall of Mabee Fine Arts Center at OBU.

The Mu Omicron Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia honorary men's music fraternity of Ouachita Baptist University will be playing host to its 15th annual High School Invitational Choral Festival on Saturday, November 3, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Mabee Fine Arts Center and Evans Student Center. More than 800 choral participants and sponsors from approximately 35 high schools are expected to attend this year's festival.
