CHAPEL

Homecoming Chapel will be this coming Tuesday, Nov. 17. Be sure to attend and participate in this event.

HELP

Also, a large (4'x6'), half finished painting was taken from the art department. It was predominantly blue & purple. Please call any information about this to the Dean of Students office.

The 1981 HOMECOMING QUEEN will be voted on by the student body on Tuesday, Nov. 17, during the Chapel hours. If you will not be able to vote during that time, please contact Joy Johnson at ext. 267.

Tickets are now on sale for the OBU Homecoming game. ALL SEATS IN THE STADIUM ARE RESERVED. Tickets are $2 for OBU students, faculty & staff and $4 for general admission. Tickets may be purchased in the Business Office.

New Faculty & Staff

Dr. Clyde J. Smith joined the OBU faculty this fall as physics chairman. A native South Carolinian, he holds degrees from the Baptist College at Charleston, SC, Wake Forest Univ., and the Univ. of South Carolina. Most recently, he taught at Henderson. He is a member of Sigma Pi Sigma, the national physics honor society, & the American Association of Physics Teachers. His wife, Vicki, is a homemaker-musician-horsewomen-crafts enthusiast. They have no children.

The Smiths belong to Park Hill Bapt. Church where they teach the Young Marrieds in Sunday School, serve on the College & Career Committee, & sing in the choir. Dr. Smith's hobbies include reading, amateur astronomy, & strategy-simulation games.

Mr. Ray Stanley has recently assumed the position as Assistant Director of Maintenance. He has worked at Ouachita for eight years before taking this position. Mr. Stanley is a native of Hermitage, AR. He attended Pine Vo-Tech School in Pine Bluff. His wife, Evanelle, is currently employed by SAGA Food Services on OBU's campus. They have two children. Mr. Stanley enjoys fishing and hunting.

Evangelism

Commission

On Sunday, November 15, the BSU Evangelism Commission will present "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe" by C.S. Lewis. It will be shown at 9PM in Mitchell Auditorium. Be sure to see this award winning, animated version of the literary classic.
