WE'RE LOOKING FOR SOME LEADERS!

The residence life program at Ouachita anticipates some vacancies in RA positions for the spring semester. If you want a campus job that's much more than simply employment, a campus job that challenges you, that tests your leadership abilities, and that prospective employers look on with a great deal of respect, consider applying.

RAs need to display good character, enjoy working with people and relate well with others, serve as a positive role model for other students, and be able to be flexible and occasionally deal with difficult situations.

Other qualifications include:

- a sophomore or above
- at least a 2.0 cumulative and previous semester GPA (2.5 is better)
- be enrolled as a full-time student (12-17 hours)
- have lived in an OBU residence hall at least one semester

If this sounds like you, pick up an application packet in the Office of Student Services at the Evans Student Center.

JOHN BRUMMETT TO SPEAK ON HENDERSON CAMPUS

The Joint Education Consortium will host political speaker, John Brummett, as part of its annual fine arts series. Brummett will speak in the Garrison Center Lecture Hall on the Henderson State University campus, on Tuesday, November 16, at 7:30 p.m.

Brummett, a popular political columnist, spent 13 years with the Arkansas Gazette. During that tenure, he was the state capital reporter for seven years, he spent six years as the paper's top political analyst and assistant managing editor for political coverage. After leaving the Gazette, he spent a short time as the editor of the Arkansas Times. He has been cited as Arkansas' best columnist in 1988, 1990, and 1991, by the Arkansas Press Association.
