Spreading

Christmas

in the Community

This Christmas Season Ouachita students will go beyond the university to share Christmas with those less fortunate. This Thursday night the Student Senate, along with the social clubs on campus, will host a Christmas party for underprivileged children in Arkadelphia.

The Christmas party will begin at 7:30 pm in the Evans Student Center Banquet Rooms. There will be entertainment by Nickel & Dime, Jon Shirley and Zac Murtha, and by the BSU puppet ministry. Pizza will be provided for all of the children along with a special visit from Santa Claus, Ouachita's own Dr. Ben Elrod.

Each child will be given a gift that has been purchased by a sponsoring social club. However, those not in a social club who would like to participate may contact Heather Holloway .
