Joint Educational Consortium

The Kodaly String Quartet, a renowned chamber music group from Budapest, Hungary, will appear in concert in the Recital Hall of Mabee Fine Arts Center at 7:30 P.M. on Monday, November 3. The performance, offered free to the public, is sponsored by the Ouachita and Henderson Joint Educational Consortium, in cooperation with the Ross Foundation of Arkadelphia, and Southwestern Bell Telephone Foundation. Formed by four prize-winning graduates of the Franz Listz' Academy of Budapest, the Kodaly Quartet was coached in its early years by world-renowned violinist Josef Szigeti, and Bartok expert Andras Mihlay.

The quartet was first heard in America on the centenary of Kodaly's birth in 1982. Following their highly successful tour in the United States, they received equal acclaim in subsequent visits to many other countries. The members of the Quartet are: Attila Falvay, violin; Tamas Szabo, violin; Gabor Fias, viola; and Janos Devich, cello.

The November 3 performance at OBU will include: "String Quartet No. 2 Op. 10" by Kodaly; and "String Quartet No. 1 in c minor, Op. 51, No. 1" by Brahms.

RUN-THROUGH POLICY

From time to time I need to remind students of our policy concerning run-throughs. Although they always begin in fun, we have had several incidents where people have been seriously hurt...Mrs. Chu was once hospitalized; Mrs. Cooper suffered a severe fall; and several students have been injured.

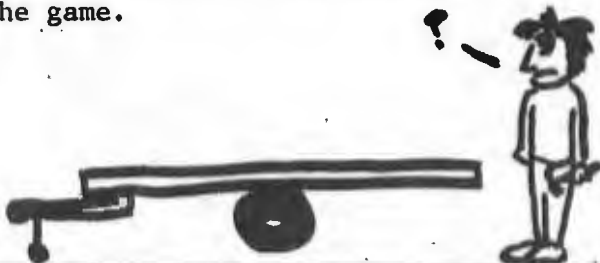

Run-throughs are not acceptable. Because of the potential dangers involved, those participating will be subject to disciplinary action up to suspension from the University. We urge your complete cooperation in this matter.

HOMECOMING

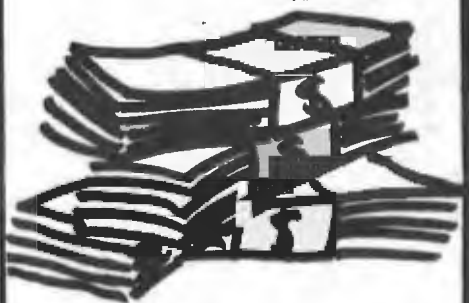

Homecoming activities have been scheduled for the weekend of Nov. 14 and 15. Reunion gatherings, a parade, soccer game, football game, a concert, social events, and an alumni buffet are some of the activities planned. The OBU Tiger Football Team will host the Harding Bisons, Saturday, at 2 P.M.

Twenty-three Ouachita girls will be vying for the title of Homecoming Queen in the crowning ceremony before the game.

Chapel

Chapel will be led this week by Dr. Bruce Leifblad, Professor of Christian Worship at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, TX.
