OCTOBER 23, 1995 VOLUME 18 ISSUE 9

Red Ribbon Week

The Red Ribbon program was born in response to the death of Enrique Camarena, a DEA agent who was assassinated by drug dealers in Mexico in 1985.

At the time, red satin ribbons were worn in memory of Camarena and to encourage others to take a stand against drugs. Community by community, the symbolism of the red ribbon caught on, and now the ribbons are worn by persons across the country during Red Ribbon Week.

This commemoration will take place in businesses, schools, and college campuses all over the United States. We also wear the ribbon to remember all who are in a constant battle with drugs and alcohol.

As college students, we are aware that alcohol is the major substance abuse problem on our nation's campuses. Here are some facts about alcohol and college students:

Ninety percent of all reported campus rapes nationwide occur when alcohol is being used by either the assailant, the victim, or both. Two-thirds of college student suicide victims in the United States had been drinking and were legally intoxicated at the time of death.

Each year, college students spend $5.5 billion on alcohol, more than they spend on soft drinks, tea, milk, juice, coffee and books combined. And last, 95% of all violent crimes and 53% of injuries on campuses are alcohol-related.
