

“The Day We Met”
by: Rod Arnold

The trees were swaying in the air,
You said I looked cute just standing there.
For chance our wondering souls to meet,
And start a friendship so long and sweet.
Even with troubles from my past,
You really had me falling fast.
You didn't know, but soon found out,
All that I was truly about.
Miles apart yet close at heart,
We knew this was the hardest part.
Stronger in time we're sure to grow,
Though time may seem to move so slow.
Your hand in mine squeezing tight,
We won't go down without a fight.
Now every day I think of you,
And I know you're thinking about me too.
I'm all your's and you're all mine,
From now until the end of time.
