Loreley

Op. 39, No. 3

Robert Schumann
[1810-1856]

The hour is late, the night is cold. The demon Loreley awaits the men who sail around the horn. She beguiles them with her charm and youthful form.

Sur une Tombe
On A Tomb

Guillaume Lekeu
[1870-1894]

The atmosphere around the tomb seems to depict a realm of Death. Beneath the flowers lie those who beloved are not forgotten. The seasons go by and now tis my tomb I have come to see. Oh would that you could inhale the sweet sad perfume of the immortal flowers that our love hath brought forth.

La Gioconda

Voce di donna

The Blind Girl's Song

La Cieca, the poor blind mother of La Gioconda has been accused of witchery in the midst of an angry mob. Someone is heard above the madness who quiatens her accusers with La Cieca's obvious innocence. Voce di donna is her attempt to thank the unknown voice which spoke in her behalf. She is so moved with gratefulness that she offers her own rosary as a gift that may bring good fortune to whoever wears it.
