7:30 p.m.

MFA Recital Hall

And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. And he saith unto them, "Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: He is risen; He is not here: behold the place where they laid Him.

Mark 16:4-6

Attention!

Beginning Palm Sunday night March 31, and continuing through April 4, the NBC Television Network will present "A.D.," a 12-hour miniseries set in the first century. The story focuses on key historical and fictional characters-- Jewish, Christian, Roman--who are forced to respond to dramatic social, political, and especially religious change.

Dr. Mark Coppenger of 1st Baptist Church in Eldorado, Arkansas will be our Chapel speaker on April 2, 1985. Join us in this Chapel service.

THE OUACHITALK SPOTLIGHTS AN OUTSTANDING PROFESSOR:

Dr. George Keck is an Associate Professor of Music at Ouachita Baptist University. He holds the B.M. and M.M. Degrees from the University of Arkansas and the PhD from the University of Iowa. Dr. Keck has been a member of the Ouachita faculty since 1969.

Dr. Keck was granted a summer sabbatical in 1984. The proposed project was for a cultural enrichment sabbatical in New York City for the purpose of attending concerts, recitals, operas, ballets, theatre and art exhibits as well as going to museums. New York City was chosen for the quality and quantity of the cultural opportunities available to him.

Dr. Keck is married to Dr. Ouida Keck.
