On Tuesday March 31, chapel will be led by the OBU Spring Break Missions.

Dr. Barbara Johnstone, visiting assistant professor of Linguistics at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., will present a lecture entitled "Language, Culture and Persuasive Styles: Examples from the Middle East" at Ouachita Baptist University on Tuesday, March 31, in the Recital Hall of Mabee Fine Arts Center. The lecture is part of the school's Birkett Williams Lecture Series, open to the public, free of charge.

For more information contact Dr. Fran Coulter, OBU Box 3712, or call at ext. 548.

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT

The Student Financial Aid office has received information from Kelly Services concerning summer employment opportunities for college students. Kelly Services has offices in Fayetteville, Fort Smith, North Little Rock, and Little Rock with 100 classifications of work available: typing, clerical, secretarial, word processing, personal computer, marketing, technical support and light industrial assignments. They also have work for students without the above skills. For more information, contact the OBU Student Financial Aid office.

The Admissions Counseling Office at Ouachita Baptist University will sponsor a Preview Day for interested high school juniors, seniors and their parents in Arkansas and surrounding states on Friday, April 10.

Registration and a continental breakfast will be served to the students and their parents at 9 a.m. in Evans Student Center, with a special welcome by Dr. Daniel R. Grant, President of OBU. Class visitation and a panel discussion with OBU students and faculty will follow as well as the noonday chapel service and lunch in the Banquet Room at Evans.

During the afternoon, campus tours will be given, and the final event of the day will be Tiger Tunes at 7:30 in Mitchell Auditorium.
