ARKADELPHIA, ARKANSAS--"Renewed By His Strength" is the theme of Ouachita Baptist University's Christian Focus Week (CFW) scheduled for March 2-7. Christian Focus Week is a concentrated week of seminars, chapel services, sacred music performances, personal evangelism and nightly religious activities sponsored by the OBU Baptist Student Union (BSU). The activities for the week are being coordinated by Mark Baber, director of activities at OBU.

Dr. Tommy Lea, associate professor of New Testament at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, is the main speaker and will head the eight member team for CFW. Lea is a graduate of Mississippi State University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Lea will also serve as the J.E. Berry Lecturer for the week.

Lea will lead seminars on "Helpful Hints for Pastoral Ministry," and "Shaping Your Acts: Seminary or Not?"

The traditional International Food Festival will also be held in the Banquet Room of Evans Student Center on Thursday, March 5, at 7 p.m. Both people from Ouachita and the Arkadelphia area will bring dishes representing various foreign countries at this buffet style event. There will be a small entrance charge for those who wish to attend.

COMING!

Reminder that Mid-Semester Grades are due on Thursday, March 5.

Financial Aid

New and returning students interested in attending Ouachita Baptist University next fall and spring are reminded of the Ouachita financial priority date of May 1, which is the date that American College testing (ACT) Family Financial Statements (FFS) should be received by ACT at their headquarters in Iowa City, Iowa, according to Harold Johnson, director of student financial aid at OBU.

"The ACT FFS is a packet that contains instructions and forms necessary to file for Pell Grants and Arkansas Student Assistance Grants and to determine the eligibility of students for other forms of financial aid, such as loans and college work study aid," said Johnson.

"Financial assistance is available for students who need it. The application should be completed as soon as the 1986 federal tax returns are completed," said Johnson.

Students may obtain ACT FFS Packets from high school guidance counselors or from Johnson's office in Mitchell Hall at OBU, room 301. For further information, persons can write him at OBU, P.O. Box 3774, Arkadelphia, AR. 71923, or call (501) 246-4531, ext. 570.

Day of Play will take place on Saturday, March 7, 1987 from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Reagan Courtney's "Mountain Light" will be presented at Verser Theater.

In the early afternoon, there will be workshops including, worship presentations, drama in the educational structure of the church, puppetry, clowning, and other ways drama can be utilized in the church.

Following the workshops there will be the regular recreational tournaments in our Sturgis Physical Education Center.
