ARKADELPHIA, Ark.—Ouachita Baptist University recently recognized students for outstanding academic, leadership and civic achievements during the 2019-2020 academic year with its annual Academic Awards honors.

In lieu of its annual banquet held each spring, Ouachita recognized students online through social media posts and videos. Dr. Stan Poole, Ouachita's vice president for academic affairs, as well as deans and department chairs from Ouachita's academic schools prepared videos to personally recognize and congratulate students. The award videos can be viewed online at obu.edu/virtualacademicawards.

Maggie Donnell, a senior social justice studies and psychology double major from Rogers, Ark., was awarded Ouachita's highest academic honors as the university's Overall Academic Achiever. Donnell also earned top academic achiever in the Sutton School of Social Sciences and was recognized as a Carl Goodson Honors Program Blue Ribbon Finisher.

Ouachita's Senior Outstanding Man is Caleb Byrd, a communications & media/integrated communications, political science and Spanish triple major from Little Rock, Ark. Ouachita's Senior Outstanding Woman is Addy Goodman, a communications & media/communications studies and political science double major from Arkadelphia, Ark. The Senior Outstanding Man and Woman are selected by Ouachita's faculty and staff. Goodman also was recognized as a Carl Goodson Honors Program Blue Ribbon Finisher.

Other top academic achievers in each school include:

- Hickingbotham School of Business – Katie Camp, a senior accounting and finance double major from Plano, Texas
- Pruet School of Christian Studies – Seigen Nichols, a senior Christian studies/Christian ministry and business administration/entrepreneurship double major from Forest Hill, La.
- Huckabee School of Education – Savannah Hart, a senior kinesiology & leisure studies/pre-professional studies major from Hartman, Ark.
