ARKADELPHIA, Ark. -- Ouachita Tigers Athletic Director David Sharp has announced that home game tickets for the 2015 Ouachita Tigers football season are now available for purchase. There will be six home games at Cliff Harris Stadium this season, the most regular season home games in program history.

The defending 2014 Great American Conference champions will open their home season on Sept. 12 versus Southeastern Oklahoma State. The Tigers will host Northwestern Oklahoma State on Sept. 26.

Ouachita hosts the Harding Bisons on Oct. 3 as part of Ouachita's 2015 Homecoming celebration. The Tigers' thrilling overtime win in Searcy last season was crucial in helping the Tigers go 10-0 in the regular season.

The Arkansas Monticello Boll Weevils play their first game at Cliff Harris Stadium on Oct. 24.

The Tigers renew their series with new GAC member Oklahoma Baptist University. Ouachita will host the Bison on Oct. 31. It will mark the sixth meeting overall between the two schools, with Ouachita winning the last contest in 1940 by a score of 21-0.

The Tigers' home season concludes with the 89th Battle of the Ravine. Ouachita will host Henderson State on Nov. 14 at 1 p.m. Last season's contest ended with a 41-20 win for the Tigers as Ouachita clinched its second Great American Conference title in four years.

Season tickets, individual game tickets and parking passes are available online and through the Ouachita Baptist University Business Services Office. All information about tickets is listed below. For general questions regarding tickets or Cliff Harris Stadium, contact Athletic Director David Sharp at (870) 245-5182 or sharpd@obu.edu.
