REPORTS.

Education.

Reports of standing committees were called for, whereupon the Committee on Education made the following report: Your committee to whom was referred the subject of education, reports: Education means enlightenment, proper education is very beneficial, the most serviceable and effective factors in educating are good schools available to all, and educated teachers, and preachers. To make good schools available to all necessitates a free system. We therefore recommend that our people encourage and sustain free schools as far as they can, to have educated teachers and preachers. It is needful that there be schools of a system of thorough instruction, the advantages of which they may enjoy. It is a matter of congratulation that we have a Baptist school of this character at Arkadelphia, (Ouachita College) and we recommend that a committee on Ouachita College be appointed to draw up a report to be made the order of business for 10 A. M. Monday. We further recommend that our Churches demand of their preachers that they give themselves more fully to the study of God's word that they may be educated in scriptural teaching and that the churches sustain them in their worthy work.

ELDER P. A. HAMAN

S. K. DOWNS,

Committee.

It was ordered by the Association that the Articles of Faith be published in the minutes, but having none from which to copy, we are forced to omit, which we regret

E. A. B.

ELDER N. G. W.

Foreign Missions.

Your committee on Foreign Missions report that this body has great reasons to rejoice on account of the grand move now being made in the missionary work, and do most heartily recommend that this body use all the means available for the furtherance of this noble work. Realizing this to be the Spirit of Christ: We therefore recommend that each Church adopt a systematic plan by which quarterly collections may be secured from each member for foreign missions.

D. S. CANNON, Ch'n.

Sunday Schools.

We your committee on Sunday Schools, report: We find in the reading of the letters sent up to this body that there are only six Sunday schools in the 13 churches comprising this Association. We deplore the lacking of interest in Sunday school work, realizing that great good is accomplished by an evergreen Sabbath school. Would recommend that every Pastor, our missionaries and our Sunday school superintendents urge the necessity of organizing a Sunday school in every Church, or community where there is none.

S. COFFEY, Ch'n.

ELDER N. G. WILLIAMS.

Publications.

Your Committee on Publications reports as follows: As the printing press is a means in the hands of God to enlighten his creatures, as the Bible is the lamp to our feet and a light to our pathway in life, we would recommend the Bible first of all. We furthermore would recommend the Arkansas Baptist, published at Little Rock, also Kind Words for lesson papers and quarterlies for Sunday schools, published at Atlanta, Georgia.

ELDER R. F. ROUTH, Ch'n.

ELDER N. G. WILLIAMS, Ch'n'r

BROTHER G. MILLER.

Obituaries.

Your committee would report as follows: In our report it is our painful duty to record the death of our beloved Brother E. T. Mitchell, which event occurred in July last. Brother Mitchell was a Deacon of Liberty church, the duties of which office he performed fairly well. He was the first treasurer of our Association, he attended all of the sessions when health permitted, he was a true Baptist, firm in the Faith which he loved, yet he possessed that true scriptural charity that caused him to warmly fellowship as Christians all in whom he saw the image of Jesus. He was a peace maker seeking as such the peaceful interests of his community. Again, he was earnest in his work as a Christian, he was plain and thoroughly devoid of hypocrisy, these are the most prominent traits in Christian graces that characterized and adorned his life. He was about 76 years of age at his death. We are also saddened to record the death of J. T. Corder, of St. Charles Church, he died in May. Brother Corder had been licensed to exercise his gift as a preacher, had entered actively upon the work so that we feel that in his death we lose a brother beloved who was just setting out upon a career of usefulness. He was an exemplary Christian man and as such enjoyed the general esteem of his Church and community. He was about 48 years of age at his death. We extend our sympathy to these families bereaved of these Brethren.

Respectfully submitted,

ELDER P. A. HAMAN,

J. N. WORTHY,

J. C. HENDERSON,

Committee.

Missionary Secretary.

Your Missionary Secretary would report: For want of means, nothing has been done, in pursuance of the end for which he was elected. No funds for missionary purposes were placed at his disposal, he would most earnestly recommend the continuance of a Missionary Secretary with the additional duty of visiting every Church once during the year preaching to them about missions and mission work, and in every way he can endeavoring to arouse a zealous missionary spirit which is but the spirit of Christianity, and that he call upon the Churches thus visited for means to defray the expenses of said work and let the Brethren thus visited interest themselves in getting full congregations to meet him and means to defray expenses.

Respectfully submitted,

P. A. HAMAN, M. S.,
