01:15	Leon	Well, yeah, Mr. Jesse, I-

01:22	Sam	Well, we're nearly out of Twinkies, Jesse. Have you been sellin' these?

01:55	Sam	[overlap] Leon, Jesse ain't never impressed with what I do. D-did he ever thank me for telling that smart-aleck salesman that he could, too, afford all that exercise equipment? Did he thank me when I found that mistake in the books that that taxman was lookin' for? Did he thank me when I-when I told his right age to that woman that you stop in here all the time? 02:27	Jesse	[music overlap] Well, Sam, I didn't go to embarrass you. I-I know you work hard at stayin' up with things here at the station, but I just thought Leon was overdoin' it a little bit.
02:35	Sam	Leo-leon's just a little bit taken by what all we know, Jesse. You can't blame him, though. Y-You know, he's just kind of got hold of hisself, you might say, here lately. And he hasn't always had friends like us. I tell you, Jesse, I'd be impressed, too, if-if I had two friends as smart as us.
02:53	Jesse	[while laughing] Sam, I don't hardly think that's it. [overlap with Sam] [music overlap]
02:55	Sam	[music overlap] Yes, sir, I put that gas right there under that license plate. Say, Jesse, would y-would you show me one more time how to work that credit card machine?
