

The Sam & Jesse Radio Show

Week 34, Episode 5: Well, I'll Be a Bleep

00:00		Well, I'll be a bleep.
00:02		[music]
00:11		[over music] It's time now for another day in the life of Sam and Jesse, Gum Springs, Arkansas.
00:29		[music fades out, then repeats]
00:36	Sam	Jesse, I- I've been thinking.
00:37	Jesse	Well, now, now that's really good news, Sam. Dos that mean that- that you ain't gonna put no more used oil in my truck when I ask you to change the oil.
00:45	Sam	Now, now, Jesse, that ain't- that ain't my- [overlap]
00:46	Jesse	Does that mean you're gonna stop trying to sell that hand cream to all our customers for that Blame Fuller Brush man?
00:52	Sam	Well, well, now, Jesse, I was just, now I-
00:53	Jesse	Does this mean that you're gonna get serious and learn how to use that credit card machine? So, we don't have to- to negotiate with our out-of-state customers to see how much cash they have to pay for $10 worth of gas?
01:07	Sam	Now, Jesse, I ain't been doing that much thinking.
01:09	Jesse	I wish you'd think about thinking more, Sam. [overlap]
01:12	Sam	I—I'm thinking about writing a radio show, right?
01:15	Jesse	Writing a radio show? Well, Sam, you ain't wrote to your mother in two years.
01:19	Sam	And we, we could write about all the funny things that happened here at the station, and things our customers say- and the jokes [overlap]
01:26	Leon	Yeah, that'd be real good. And we could get sued and—Sam, there ain't a radio station alive that'd play most of the jokes we hear around here.
01:36	Sam	Well, when, yeah- we'd need a bleeper now- We could just bleep out all the punch lines on them bad jokes. And- people could fill in their own ending. That'd help the writing too. We wouldn't have to write very much.

01:49	Jesse	I—I-I will have to say this, now Sam, this- this ranks right up there with a lot of your other ideas like-oh, one-your goat Ruth singing Silent Night, remember? Or- or two, using our robo-wash to- to bathe dogs and cats. Or- or putting in a shotgun shell dispenser. Or- or- or maybe being the Southwest distributor for day-old newspaper.
02:12	Sam	Well, now, Jesse, I explained to you how we could freeze them- and then- then we could [overlap]
02:15	Jesse	Sam, are you not aware that other people have beat us to that idea about writing a radio show? Even if we could write.
02:22	Sam	Already beat us to it?
02:23	Jesse	Sure. It's already on the air.
02:08	Sam	Well, I'll be a [BLEEP]
02:27		[music repeats twice]
02:40	Jesse	One time, you had a pretty good idea, Sam. I'm gonna take tomorrow off, and I'm gonna start to work on that radio program.
02:46	Sam	You're gonna take tomorrow off? Good, now- and we just close up the station, and I'll [overlap]
02:50	Jesse	No, no, no, no, Sam. We need an income while we start this new career. You'll have to keep the station open.
02:57	Sam	Well, now, I never plan that [overlap]
02:59	Sam	All this is gonna work out, Sam. We- we'll take our time about here. I- I'll take tomorrow off while you run the station, and then the next day, you can run the station while I'll take the day off. Now, you see how that works?
03:11	Sam	Oh, yeah, that's- what, wait a minute. Now, now, wait a minute. Now, me and Leon had this worked out different, some way. Now, there was an idea in there- somewhere about us fishing at least two days a week.
